Any plat or replat so adjudicated, adjusted and approved, showing the lines of the original and adjudicated plat, shall be filed and recorded with the auditor of the county where the property is situated, and shall thereafter be the lawful plat and substitute for all former plats: Provided, however, that should the said town site, city plat or plats, addition or additions, or parts thereof, be vacated and not otherwise altered or replatted, it shall only be necessary to file with the county auditor the order, resolution or ordinance vacating the same, and the auditor shall thereupon note upon the original plat the part thereof so vacated. [L. '03, p. 140, § 6; L. '09, p. 518, § 1.]

§ 9317. [7860.] Appeals to Superior Court.

Any owners of any such portion of the property affected by the actual award or final judgment of such board of county commissioners or city council may appeal to the superior court having jurisdiction of appeals from justice of the peace in the locus in quo. Such appeals shall be taken in the same manner and form as appeals from justices of the peace. [L. '03, p. 140, §§ 7, 8.]

§ 9318. [7861.] Act Concurrent.

Nothing in this act contained shall in any way change, limit or affect the power now vested in a board of county commissioners or city council to vacate streets and alleys and parts of streets and alleys. [L. '03, p. 140, § 9.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9311—9318.

§ 9319. Parks, Parkways, Bathing Beaches and Public Camps.

Any city in this state acting through its city council, or its board of park commissioners when authorized by charter or ordinance, and any separately organized park district acting through its board of park commissioners or other governing officers shall have power, acting independently or in conjunction with the United States, the state of Washington, any county, city or park district or any number of such public organizations to acquire any land within this state for parks, parkway, bathing beaches, roads or public camp purposes and roads leading from said park, parkway, bathing beaches, roads or public camp to nearby highways by donation, purchase or condemnation, and to care for, control, supervise, improve, operate and maintain parks, parkways, bathing beaches, roads and public camps upon any such lands, including the power to enact and enforce such police regulations, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as are deemed necessary for the government and control of the same. [L. '21, p. 321, § 1.]

§ 9320. Contracts for Co-operation.

Any city or park district shall have power to enter into any contract in writing with any organization or organizations referred to in this act for the purpose of exercising any power granted by this act. [L. '21, p. 321, § 2.]

§ 9321. Rules and Regulations Governing Camps.

Any city or separately organized park district shall have power to establish, care for, control, supervise, improve, operate and maintain a public camp or camps anywhere within this state, and to that end may make, promulgate and enforce any reasonable rules and regulations in reference to such camps and make such charges for the use thereof as may be deemed expedient. [L. '21, p. 322, § 3.]

§ 9322. Scope of Act.

This act shall not be construed to repeal or limit any existing power of any city or park district, but to grant powers in addition thereto. [L. '21, p. 322, § 4.]

CHAPTER XVIII.

BRIDGES.

§ 9323. [7862.] Erection Authorized.

It shall be lawful for cities and incorporated towns, and they are hereby authorized, by their respective legislative bodies to erect and maintain drawbridges across navigable streams that flow through or penetrate the boundaries of such cities or towns, when the public necessity requires it, or to grant franchises to persons or corporations to erect the same and charge toll thereon. [L. '90, p. 54, § 1; 1 H. C., § 737.]

See supra, §§ 8966, 9034, 9175, power to construct.

§ 9324. [7863.] Width of Draw, How Determined—Appeal.

Whenever any common council of any city, or board of trustees of any incorporated town, desire to erect a drawbridge across any navigable stream on any street, or to grant the privilege so to do to any corporation or individual, under the provisions of this chapter, such boards of trustees or common council shall notify the board of commissioners of the county in which such city or incorporated town is situated of such purpose, and the precise point where such bridge is proposed to be located. Said board of commissioners shall, within ten days from the receipt of the notice, if in session, and if not in session, then within five days after the first day of the next regular or special session, designate the width of the draw to be made in such bridge, and the length of span necessary to permit the free flow of water: Provided, that in case any person or body shall deem itself or themselves aggrieved by the determination of the matter by said board, an appeal shall be allowed to the superior court of the county, which court shall have power and jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter upon such further notice and on such testimony as it shall direct to be produced. [L. '90, p. 54, § 2; 1 H. C., § 738.]

§ 9325. [7864.] License Tax—Franchise, Toll and Rates.

Before any franchise to build any bridge across any such navigable stream shall be granted by any such board of trustees or common council, they shall fix a license tax, not to exceed ten per cent of the tolls collected annually, and upon the completion of said bridge shall inspect the same, and if the same be found to comply in all respects with the specifications previously made, and to be safe and convenient for the public, they shall declare the same open as a toll bridge, and shall immediately fix the rates of toll thereof. [L. '90, p. 55, § 3; 1 H. C., § 739.]

The owner or keeper of any toll bridges in any city or town shall, before the renewal of any license, report to the common council of the city, or the board of trustees of a town, under oath, the actual cost of construction and equipment of the toll bridge, the repairs and cost of maintaining the same during the preceding year, the amount of tax collected, and the estimated cash value of the bridge, exclusive of the franchise; and all funds arising from license tax shall be paid into the general fund of the city or town. [L. '90, p. 55, § 4; 1 H. C., § 740.]

§ 9327. [7866.] Drawbridges—How to be Constructed.

All bridges constructed under the provisions of this chapter must be so constructed as not to obstruct navigation, and must have a draw or swing of sufficient space or span to permit the safe, convenient, and expeditious passage at all times of any steamer or vessel or raft which may navigate the stream or waters bridged. [L. '90, p. 55, § 5; 1 H. C., § 741.]

§ 9328. [7867.] Cities and Towns may Build and Maintain Toll Bridges, etc.

The cities and towns of this state may build and maintain toll bridges, and charge and collect tolls thereon, and to that end may provide a system and elect or appoint persons to operate the same, or the said bridges may be made free, as they may elect. [L. '90, p. 55, § 6; 1 H. C., § 742.]

§ 9329. [7868.] Right to Build Bridges.

Counties, cities, towns and other municipalities shall have, and are hereby given the right to construct bridges and trestles across waterways heretofore or hereafter laid out under the authority of the state of Washington, and over and across any tide or shore lands of the state or harbor areas adjacent thereto over which the projected line or lines of any highway will run: Provided, such bridges or trestles are constructed in good faith for the purpose of being made a part of the constructed line of such highway. [L. '15, p. 48, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 605, § 1.]

§ 9330. [7869.] Consent of Federal Government — Modifications — Improvements.

The location and plans of such structures shall be submitted to, and approved by, the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington before construction is commenced: Provided, that in case the portion of such waterway at the place to be so crossed is navigable water of the United States, or otherwise within the jurisdiction of the United States, such location and plans shall also be submitted to, and approved by, the secretary of war and the chief of engineers of the United States before construction is commenced: And provided further, that when plans for any bridge or trestle have been approved by the commissioner of public lands, or the commissioner of public lands, the secretary of war and the chief of engineers aforesaid, it shall not be lawful to deviate from such plans either before or after the completion of such structure, unless the modifications of such plans have previously been submitted to and received the approval of, the commissioner of public lands, or the commissioner of public lands, the secretary of war and chief of engineers, as the case may be. Any structure hereby authorized and approved as aforesaid shall remain within the jurisdiction of the respective officer or officers approving the same, and shall be altered or changed from time to time at the expense of the municipality owning the highway or at the expense of the common carriers, at the time owning the road or roads using such structure, to meet the necessities of navigation and commerce in such manner as may be from time to time ordered by the respective officer or officers at such time having jurisdiction of the same, and such orders may be enforced by appropriate action at law or in equity at the suit of the state. [L. '09, p. 606, § 2.]

CHAPTER XIX.

RENEWAL OF SIDEWALKS.

§ 9331. [7872.] Renewal of Sidewalks—Abutting Property Liable—Procedure.

Whenever any street, lane, square, place or alley in any city of the first, second, third or fourth class or other cities and towns of equal population working under special charters, now or hereafter legally organized in this state shall have been improved by the construction of a sidewalk or sidewalks along either or both sides thereof, the duty, burden and expense or [of] maintenance, repair and renewal of such sidewalk or sidewalks shall devolve upon the property directly abutting upon that side of such street along which such sidewalk has been constructed as hereinafter provided. Whenever in the judgment of that officer or department of any such city who, or which is or shall be, charged with the inspection and care of the sidewalks along the public streets, lanes, squares, places and alleys in such city, the condition of any sidewalk is such as to render the same unfit or unsafe for purposes of public travel, the said officer or department shall thereupon serve a notice on the owner of the property immediately abutting upon said portion of said sidewalk of the condition thereof, instructing the said owner to clear, repair, or renew the said portion of the sidewalk. The notice provided for shall be deemed sufficiently served if delivered in person to the owner of the property or his authorized agent, or by leaving a copy of such notice at the home of the owner or authorized agent, or if the owner is a nonresident by mailing a copy to his last known address, or if the owner of the property be unknown or if his address be unknown then such notice shall be addressed to the general delivery office of the city wherein the improvement is to be made. Such notice shall specify a reasonable time within which such cleaning, repairs or renewal shall be executed by the said owner, and shall state that in case the said owner shall fail to do such cleaning or to make such repairs or renewal within the time therein specified then the said officer or department will proceed to clean said walk or to make such repairs or renewal forthwith, and will report to the city council at its next regular meeting or as soon thereafter as possible, the date to be definitely stated, an assessment-roll showing the lot or parcel of land immediately abutting on that portion of the sidewalk so improved, the cost of such improvement or repair and the name of the owner, if known, and that the council will hear any or all protests against the proposed assessment. The council shall at the time in such notice designated or at an adjourned time or times assess the cost of such work against said property in accordance with the benefits derived therefrom, which said charge shall become a lien upon said property and shall be collected by due process of law. For the purposes of this act all property having a frontage upon the sides or margin of any street shall be deemed to be abutting property and such property shall be chargeable, as provided by this act for all costs of maintenance, repairs or renewal of any form of sidewalk improvement between the said street margin and the roadway lying in front of and adjacent to said property, and the term sidewalk, as intended for the purposes of this act, shall be taken to include any and all structures or forms of street improvement included in the space between the street margin and the roadway. [L. '05, p. 61, § 1.]

"Act," in this section, refers to §§ 9331, 9332.

§ 9332. [7873.] Scope of Powers Conferred.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to limit or repeal any existing powers of cities or towns with reference to the improvement or maintenance of sidewalks, streets, lanes, places, squares or alleys, but the power and authority herein granted is to be exercised concurrent with or in extension of the powers and authority now existing. The legislative authority of any city before exercising the powers and authority herein granted shall, by proper ordinance, provide for the application and enforcement of the same within the limitations herein specified. [L. '05, p. 62, § 2.]

"Act": See note to preceding section.

CHAPTER XX.

DAMAGE CAUSED BY CHANGE OF GRADE.

§ 9333. [7874.] Provision for Payment of.

When the grade of any street or sidewalk in any city or incorporated village shall be established by the corporate authority of such city or village, and a building shall thereafter be constructed upon said street, no change shall be made in the grade of such street or sidewalk which shall require the raising or lowering of any building so constructed until the damages which may accrue by reason of such raising or lowering shall be appraised and ascertained as is hereinafter provided. [L. '83, p. 63, § 1; 1 H. C., § 759.]

In case the corporate authority of such city or village and the owner of such building shall be unable to agree upon the amount of such damages, such authority shall appoint three disinterested freeholders of such city or village to appraise such damages. The appraisers so appointed, after being duly sworn, shall appraise such damage and make two written reports thereof, signed by at least a majority of them, one of which shall be delivered to the clerk of such city or village, to be immediately filed in his office, and the other to the owner of the building. [L. '83, p. 64, § 2; 1 H. C., § 760.]

Cited in 77 Wash. 682.

§ 9335. [7876.] Report to be Made, When.

Such report shall be made and delivered within ten days after the appointment of the appraisers. [L. '83, p. 64, § 4; 1 H. C., § 761.]

§ 9336. [7877.] Right of Appeal.

Within twenty days after the filing of the report with the clerk, either party feeling dissatisfied with such appraisement may file in the office of the clerk of the superior court, within the county in which such city or town is located, a copy of such report, certified by the clerk of such city or village, whereupon the clerk of the superior court shall cause the same to be entered on the trial docket. Such city or village shall be plaintiff, and the owner of the building shall be defendant; the question of damages shall be tried by a jury, or with the consent of the parties, by the court. [L. '83, p. 64, §§ 5, 6; 1 H. C., § 762.]

§ 9337. [7878.] Pleadings, of What to Consist.

The report of the appraisers shall be the complaint, and the defendant may file such pleadings as the court may allow. [L. '83, p. 64, § 7; 1 H. C., § 763.]

§ 9338. [7879.] Costs of Appeal—Payment of.

In case the owner of the building takes the appeal, and the damages are not increased, or in case the city or village takes the appeal, and the damages be decreased in the superior court, the costs shall be taxed to the defendant. In all other cases, and in case no appeal is taken, all costs shall be taxed to and paid by the city or village. [L. '83, p. 64, § 8; 1 H. C., § 764.]

§ 9339. [7880.] Payment of Damages by City or Town.

The damages awarded by the appraisers or assessed by the jury or court, in case of appeals, shall be paid by the city or village in the same manner that other debts or liabilities of such city or village are paid. [L. '83, p. 64, § 9; 1 H. C., § 765.]

CHAPTER XXI.

SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS, GENERAL PROVISIONS.

§ 9340. [7881.] County Lands Assessed.

All lands held or owned by any county in the state of Washington, in fee simple, in trust or otherwise, within the limits of any incorporated city or town in such county, except as herein otherwise provided, may be assessed and charged for the cost of all local improvements specially benefiting such land and property, which may be ordered by the proper authorities of such city or town. [L. '05, p. 53, § 1.]

See supra, § 8125, assessment of state lands.

See supra, §§ 9233—9274, assessments in eminent domain proceedings.

Liability of county property to special assessment. 16 Ann. Cas. 887; Ann. Cas. 1917D, 847.

§ 9341. [7882.] Assessment and Payment by County.

In all local improvement assessment districts in an incorporated city or town in this state, property in such district held or owned by the county in which such city or town is situated shall be assessed and charged for its proportion of the cost of such local improvement in the same manner as other property in such district, and the county commissioners of any such county are authorized to cause such assessment to be paid at the times and in the manner provided by law and the ordinances of such city or town creating such local improvement districts, and making such assessments, and to pay any and all such assessments in any local improvement district heretofore made and which became due and payable prior to the time this act shall take effect, together with interest on such past due assessments. [L. '05, p. 53, § 2; L. '07, p. 100, § 1.]

"This act" refers to §§ 9340—9343.

§ 9342. [7883.] Assessment to be Certified to County Commissioners.

Upon the approval and confirmation of the assessment-roll for any local improvement ordered by the proper authorities of any incorporated city or town in this state, the city or town treasurer shall certify and forward to the board of county commissioners, of the county in which such city or town is situated, a statement of all the lots or parcels of land held or owned by such county and charged on such assessment-roll for the cost of such local improvement, separately describing each lot or parcel of the county's land with the amount of the assessment charged against it, and the board of county commissioners shall cause the amount of such local assessments to be paid to the city or town as other claims and charges against such county are paid. [L. '05, p. 53, § 3.]

The provisions of this act shall apply to all municipal corporations, any charter or ordinance provisions to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, that this act shall not apply to lots which the county may have obtained title to through the foreclosure of the general tax lien. [L. '05, p. 54, § 4.]

"Act" refers to the three preceding sections.

§ 9344. [7885.] City to Pay Assessments Against City Property.

Every city of the first, second and third class shall include in its annual tax levy an amount sufficient to pay all unpaid assessments, with all interest, penalties and charges thereon levied against all lands of such city. [L. '09, p. 426, § 1.]

Liability of municipal property to special assessment. 16 Ann. Cas. 888; Ann. Cas. 1917D, 849.

§ 9345. [7886.] Treasurer's Statement to City Council—Payment—Funds.

On or before the fifteenth day of August of each year, the city treasurer of each such city shall certify to the city council thereof a detailed statement showing the proceedings authorizing and confirming such assessments, the city's lots, tracts and parcels of land so assessed, the several assessments against each, the interest, penalties and charges thereon, together with the estimated interest, penalties and charges which will accrue upon such assessments to date of payment and the total of all such assessments, interest, penalty and charges. The proceeds of such portion of the tax levy shall be placed by such city treasurer in a separate fund to be known as the "City property assessment redemption fund" and by him inviolably applied in payment of any unpaid assessment liens on any lands belonging to such city. The longest outstanding liens shall be paid first, but if the moneys in such fund shall at any time be insufficient to discharge all such liens against such lands upon a given assessment-roll, such city treasurer may pay such portion thereof as may be possible from the funds available therefor: Provided, that the city council of such city may, if it be deemed necessary, transfer any sum or sums to such fund from the general fund of such city as a loan, such transfer to be repaid when moneys shall be available therefor in the fund hereby created. [L. '09, p. 426, § 2.]

Municipal corporations may from time to time authorize by ordinance or resolution, the acceptance, in due order of priority of right, by the county treasurer or city treasurer or other designated officers, of warrants issued by such corporations against local improvement funds in satisfaction of assessments levied to supply such funds. [L. '99, p. 156, § 1.]

§ 9347. [7888.] Warrants in Satisfaction of Judgments.

Municipal corporations are authorized to accept local improvement warrants in satisfaction of judgments rendered in favor of such corporations against property owners who have become delinquent in the payment of assessments levied to pay for local improvements. [L. '99, p. 156, § 2.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 130.

§ 9348. [7889.] Payment for Certificates of Purchase by Warrants.

Municipal corporations are authorized to accept local improvement warrants in payment for certificates of purchase held by such corporations in cases where the property of delinquents has been sold by the sheriff under execution or by the county treasurer or city treasurer at tax sale for failure to pay assessments for local improvements. [L. '99, p. 157, § 3.]

§ 9349. [7890.] Warrants and Assessments must Relate to Same Improvement.

No warrants shall be available for the purposes designated by this act except in payment of an assessment for a local improvement, the fund for which was created by the ordinance or resolution by virtue of which the warrant was issued. [L. '99, p. 157, § 4.]

"This act" refers to §§ 9346—9350.

§ 9350. [7891.] Act Concurrent.

This act is not intended to supersede or repeal charter provisions of any municipal corporation, but to be supplementary to and concurrent with such provisions; and the powers conferred by this act may be exercised from time to time under such restrictions and upon such conditions as municipal corporations may by ordinance prescribe. [L. '99, p. 157, § 5.]

"Act," in this section, refers to §§ 9346—9350.

Any funds in the treasury of any municipal corporation belonging to the fund of any local improvement district after the payment of the whole cost and expense of such improvement, in excess of the total sum required to defray all the expenditures by such municipal corporation on account thereof, shall be refunded, on demand, to the payers into such fund. Each such payer shall be entitled to such proportion of such excess as his original assessment bears to the entire original assessment levied for such improvement. Such municipal corporation may, after one year from the date on which the last installment becomes due, transfer any balance remaining on hand to the general fund of such municipal corporation, but shall, notwithstanding such transfer remain liable for the refund herein provided for until such refund shall have been made, unless the actual cost involved in making such refund shall exceed the excess in such fund.

Such demand shall be made in writing to the treasurer of such municipal corporation. No action shall be commenced in any court to obtain any such refund, except upon such demand, and, in all cases where the assessment-roll shall have been filed with the treasurer of such municipal corporation for collection on or after the day this act shall take effect, until ninety days after making such demand, and in all cases where such assessment-roll has heretofore been filed for collection, until six months after making such demand in accordance herewith. No excess shall be recovered in any action where the excess in the fund does not average the sum of one dollar in favor of all payers into such fund.

Provided, further, that this section shall not be deemed to require the refunding of any balance left in any local improvement fund after the payment of all outstanding obligations issued against such fund, where such balance accrues from any saving in interest or from penalties collected upon delinquent assessments, but any such balance, whether accruing heretofore or hereafter, may be turned into the general fund or otherwise disposed of, as the legislative authority of such city may direct. Rem. Code, § 7892 (amended by this act), was intended to be retroactive, and removes the bar of the statute of limitations where the same was passed at the next session of the legislature after a decision of the supreme court upholding the two-year statute of limitations from the delinquency of the assessment as a reasonable one, the city having no moral right to the money, and the ascertainment of the amount often being postponed beyond the two-year period: State ex rel. McCullough v. Seattle, 60 Wash. 241, 110 Pac. 1008.

CHAPTER XXII.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS.

§ 9352. [7892-1.] May Provide for Local Improvements.

Any city or town in this state shall have power to provide for making local improvements and to levy and collect special assessments on property specially benefited thereby, for paying the cost and expense of the same or any portion thereof, as herein provided. [L. '11, p. 441, § 1.]

Nature and Power to Levy Under Statutes: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 198—202, and cases cited.

This section does not prohibit a city from proceeding with an improvement without first passing a general ordinance, it appearing that each step in the proceedings prior to the passage of the general ordinance was directed by the city council, either by resolution or ordinance: Great Northern R. Co. v. Leavenworth, 81 Wash. 511, 142 Pac. 1155, Ann. Cas. 1916D, 239.

Provisions of a city charter of the first class with reference to the publication of notice of proposed improvements do not apply to proceedings under this chapter, in view of sections 9415 and 9424, infra, providing that the act shall supersede the provisions of the charter of any city of the first class inconsistent therewith: Beach v. Bellingham, 80 Wash. 287, 141 Pac. 703.

§ 9353. [7892-2.] May Determine by Charter or Ordinance.

Any city or town shall have power to determine by charter or ordinance what work shall be done or improvements made at the expense, in whole or in part, of the property specially benefited thereby; and to provide the manner of making and collecting assessments therefor in pursuance of this act. [L. '11, p. 441, § 2.]

§ 9354. [7892-3.] May Provide for Sewer, Drain and Water Systems.

Any city or town shall have power to provide for the sewerage, drainage and water supply thereof, and to establish, construct and maintain a system or systems of sewers and drains and a system or systems of water supply, within or without the corporate limits of such city or town, and to control, regulate and manage the same. [L. '11, p. 441, § 3.]

§ 9355. [7892-4.] May Provide for Protection from Overflow.

Any city or town shall have power to provide for the protection of such city or town, or any part thereof, from overflow, and to establish, construct and maintain dikes, levees, embankments or other structures and works, or to open, deepen, straighten or otherwise enlarge natural watercourses, waterways and other channels, including the acquisition or damaging of lands, rights of way, rights and property therefor, within or without the corporate limits of such city or town, and to manage, regulate and control the same. [L. '11, p. 441, § 4.]

§ 9356. [7892-5.] Protection from Fire—Auxiliary Water Systems.

Any city or town shall have power to provide for the protection of such city or town, or any part thereof, from fire, and to establish, construct and maintain an auxiliary water system, or systems, or extensions thereof, or additions thereto, and the structures and works necessary therefor or forming a part thereof, including the acquisition or damaging of lands, rights of way, rights, property, water rights, and the necessary sources of supply of water for such purposes, within or without the corporate limits of such city or town, and to manage, regulate and control the same. [L. '11, p. 442, § 5.]

§ 9357. [7892-6.] Council to Order Improvements.

Whenever the public interest or convenience may require the council, or other legislative authority of any such city or town, is hereby authorized and empowered to order the whole or any part of the streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, boulevards, park drives, parkways, public squares, and places within any such city or town to be graded or regraded, planked or replanked, paved or repaved, macadamized, or remacadamized, graveled or regraveled, piled or repiled, capped or recapped or otherwise improved and to order sidewalks, drains, sewers, and all sewer appurtenances, culverts, bulkheads, retaining walls, water-mains, hydrants, or appurtenances, curbing and crosswalks, street lighting systems, together with the cost and expense of furnishing electrical energy to said street lighting systems, moving sidewalks or escalators, together with the cost and expense of operating and maintaining moving sidewalks or escalators, auxiliary water system, dikes and embankments, bridges and trestles, and approaches thereto, or other local improvement whatsoever to be constructed, reconstructed, repaired or renewed therein and to order the planting, setting out, cultivating, maintaining and renewing of shade or ornamental trees and shrubbery thereon; and to order any and all work to be done which shall be necessary to complete any such improvement; and to levy and collect special assessments to pay the whole or any part of the cost and expense of any such improvement. The city may require uniform setting out, planting, cultivating, maintenance and renewal of shade and ornamental trees and shrubbery on any street or highway. Any local improvement payable, in whole or in part, by special assessments, which shall include a charge for the cost and expense of furnishing electrical energy to any system of street lighting or for the cost and expense of operation and maintenance of moving sidewalks or escalators shall be initiated only upon petition signed by the owners of two-thirds of the lineal frontage upon the improvement to be made and two-thirds of the area within the limits of the proposed improvement district. [L. '15, p. 532, § 6. Cf. L. '11, p. 442, § 6; L. '13, p. 409, § 1.]

Improvements to be Ordered and Made by Council: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 219—224, and cases cited.

This section is not unconstitutional in that the furnishing of electrical energy is not a "local improvement" within Constitution, Article VII, section 9, vesting power in cities to make local improvements by assessments; notwithstanding the operation was limited to a period of ten years, since permanency is not an essential element, and the plant would be of no benefit to the property without the electrical energy: Ankeny v. Spokane, 92 Wash. 549, 159 Pac. 806, L. R. A. 1917A, 1093.

§ 9358. [7892-7.] Method of Procedure.

Whenever any city or town shall make local improvements at the cost and expense, in whole or in part, or [of] property specially benefited thereby, the proceedings for the same shall be had as provided in this act. [L. '11, p. 443, § 7.]

§ 9359. [7892-8.] Resolution or Petition.

Any such improvement may be ordered only by ordinance of the council, or other legislative body of such city or town, either upon petition or resolution therefor. [L. '11, p. 443, § 8.]

Under this section and section 9371, a resolution creating a local improvement district for a distributing system for waterworks is valid, although prior to a special election called to authorize the acquisition of a supply system outside of the city which it was intended to connect with the distributing system: Matthews v. Ellensburg, 73 Wash. 272, 131 Pac. 839.

In case any such local improvement, the assessment district for which shall not extend beyond the termini of such improvement, shall be initiated upon petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, the mode of payment and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners, according to the records in the office of the county auditor, of property to an aggregate amount of a majority of the lineal frontage upon the improvement to be made and of the area within the limits of the assessment district to be created therefor. If any such property stands in the name of a deceased person, or any person for whom a guardian has been appointed, the signature of the executor, administrator or guardian as the case may be, shall be equivalent to the signature of the owner of the property on such petition.

Such petition shall be presented to and filed with the city or town clerk, or with such officer, board or authority as may be designated by charter or ordinance. Upon filing such petition, the officer, board or authority, required by charter or ordinance so to do shall ascertain if the facts set forth in said petition are true and shall cause an estimate of the cost and expense of such improvement to be made, and shall transmit the same to the council of such city or town, together with all papers and information in his or their possession touching such improvement, with the estimated cost thereof, and his or their recommendations thereof, together with a description of the boundaries of the district, and a statement of the proportionate amount of the cost and expense of such improvement which should be borne by property within the proposed assessment district and a statement of the aggregate assessed valuation of the real estate exclusive of improvements in said district according to the valuation last placed upon it for purposes of general taxation.

In case such petition shall be found sufficient, such board, officer or authority shall also transmit to the council a diagram or print showing thereon the lots, tracts or parcels of land and other property which will be specially benefited thereby and the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by each such lot, tract or parcel of land or other property. Under this section authorizing a city council to pass upon the sufficiency of a petition by which an improvement is initiated, and section 9371, making its action in all things conclusive, the passage of an ordinance ordering an improvement is, in effect, a finding that the petition was sufficient: Redding v. Spokane, 81 Wash. 263, 142 Pac. 664.

§ 9361. [7892-10.] Resolution.

Any such improvement may be initiated directly by the city or town council by a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, and notifying all persons who may desire to object thereto to appear and present such objections at a meeting of the council at the time specified in such resolution; and directing the proper board, officer or authority to submit to the council at or prior to the date fixed for such hearing the estimated cost and expense of such improvement, and a statement of the proportionate amount thereof which should be borne by the property within the proposed assessment district, and a statement of the aggregate assessed valuation of the real estate, exclusive of improvements, within said district according to the valuation last placed upon it for the purposes of general taxation, together with a diagram or print showing thereon the lots, tracts and parcels of land and other property which will be specially benefited thereby and the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by each lot, tract, or parcel of land or other property. Such resolution shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of the official newspaper of such city or town, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen (15) days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the city council: Provided, that in any city or town not having an official newspaper, such publication may be made in any newspaper of general circulation published therein, or in case there be no such newspaper, then in a newspaper published in the county in which such city or town is located and of general circulation in such city or town. Under this section the objection that a distributing system for waterworks constitutes a general benefit to the city and is of no special benefit to property can only be urged to the city council on a hearing upon the assessment-roll: Matthews v. Ellensburg, 73 Wash. 272, 131 Pac. 839.

Resolution or Notice of Intention and Hearing Therein: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 130—132, and cases cited.

§ 9362. [7892-11.] Diagram not Conclusive.

The diagram or print herein directed to be submitted to the council, shall be in the nature of a preliminary determination by such administrative board, officer or authority upon the method and relative estimated amounts of assessments to be levied upon the property specially benefited by such improvement, and shall in no case be constructed [construed] as being binding or conclusive in any way upon any such board, officer or authority, in the preparation of the assessment-roll for such improvement, or upon the council upon any hearing affecting such roll. [L. '11, p. 445, § 11.]

The council or other legislative body shall have jurisdiction to proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution: Provided, that in any city of the first class it appears from the certificate of the board, officer, or authority designated by charter or ordinance to determine the same that the proportion of the estimated cost and expense thereof to be assessed against the property in the proposed improvement district does not exceed fifty per cent (50%) of the valuation of the real estate, exclusive of improvements thereon, within such district, according to the valuation last placed upon it for purposes of general taxation: Provided, that this limit may be exceeded when any such improvement shall be petitioned for in the manner provided in section 9360, and such petition shall be signed by the owners of sixty (60%) per cent of the lineal frontage upon the improvement to be made and three-fourths of the area within the limits of the proposed improvement district, and shall specify a certain higher percentage up to which the property within such proposed improvement district may be assessed: Provided, further, that the jurisdiction of the council or other legislative authority to proceed with any such improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by a protest filed with the council prior to the awarding of the contract for such improvement signed by the owners of three-fourths of the area within the limits of the proposed improvement district: Provided, further, that the jurisdiction of the city commission in cities organized under the commission form of government pursuant to chapter X of this Title to proceed with any such improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by a protest filed with the commission prior to the awarding of the contract for such improvement signed by the owners of one-half of the area within the limits of the proposed improvement district. In the absence of fraud or gross mistake, such certificate of such board, officer or other authority shall be final and conclusive.

In computing the valuation of such property any nonassessable property owned by the United States, state, county, city, town, school district or other public corporation, shall be valued at the same rate as assessed property similarly situated. Amount and Limits of Assessment: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 234—238, 270—273, and cases cited.

This section has no retroactive effect and does not apply to a reassessment made after the passage of the act, where the improvement was initiated, the contract let, the work completed, the original assessment levied, and the special benefit conferred prior to the passage of the act: East Hoquiam Co. v. Hoquiam, 90 Wash. 210, 155 Pac. 754.

This section does not constitute a limitation upon the amount which each tract may be charged with, but has reference to the value of the property in the entire district: State ex rel. Hindley v. Superior Court, 82 Wash. 37, 143 Pac. 455.

The statutory provision that the estimated cost of a proposed improvement initiated by resolution shall not exceed fifty per cent of the valuation of the real estate exclusive of improvements thereon, being limited to cities of the first class, is of no avail as to cities other than the first class: Reynolds v. Cosmopolis, 84 Wash. 660, 147 Pac. 407.

A judgment upon appeal from a city council, reducing an assessment for a local improvement to fifty per cent of the assessed value of the property in the district is not res judicata of the right to reassess the property in excess of the reduced amounts in proceedings therefor including the property, in an enlarged district, in which the unit for determining the fifty per cent limit is the entire enlarged assessment district, and not the particular lots or tracts composing the district: Eggerth v. Spokane, 91 Wash. 221, 157 Pac. 859.

That all leasehold rights and interests of private persons, firms or corporations in or to harbor areas located within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town are for the purpose of assessment for the payment of the cost of local improvements declared to be real property, and all such leasehold rights and interests may be assessed and reassessed in accordance with the special benefits received, the amount of such assessment to be limited to the benefits accruing during the term of the lease, for the purpose of paying the cost of any such improvement heretofore made or which may hereafter be made upon any street or other public place immediately abutting upon and within a distance of one-half of a block back from, but not exceeding three hundred and fifty (350) feet of, such improvement. [L. '15, p. 363, § 1.]

The illegal assessment of leased harbor area, which was not at the time assessable, is not validated by the subsequent enactment of this section: North American Lumber Co. v. Blaine, 89 Wash. 366, 154 Pac. 446.

Every ordinance ordering any improvement mentioned in this act, payment for which shall be made in whole or in part by special assessments, shall establish a local improvement district to be called "Local Improvement District No. —," which district shall embrace as near as may be all the property specially benefited by such improvement.

tance back shall be the same distance as that included in the assessment of the platted lands immediately adjacent thereto. All property included within such limits of such local improvement district shall be considered and held to be the property and to be all the property specially benefited by such local improvement, and shall be the property to be assessed to pay the cost and expense thereof or such part thereof as may be chargeable against the property specially benefited by such improvement, which cost and expense shall be assessed upon all of said property so benefited in accordance to the special benefits conferred on such property in proportion to area and distance back from the marginal line of the street or other public way or area improved.

Said local improvement district shall, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount to be assessed against such separate lot, tract, parcel of land or other property within said district be divided into subdivisions or zones paralleling the margin of the street, avenue, lane, alley, boulevard, park drive or parkway, public place or square to be improved, said subdivisions to be numbered respectively first, second, third, fourth, and fifth. The first subdivision shall include all the lands within the district lying between the street margins and lines drawn parallel therewith and thirty (30) feet therefrom. The second subdivision shall include all lands within the district lying between lines drawn parallel with and thirty (30) feet and sixty (60) feet respectively from said margins. The third subdivision shall include all lands within the district lying between lines drawn parallel with and sixty (60) feet and ninety (90) feet respectively from such street margins. The fourth subdivision shall include all lands, if any, within the district lying between lines drawn parallel with and ninety (90) feet and one hundred twenty (120) feet respectively from said street margins. The fifth subdivision shall include all lands, if any, within the district lying between a line drawn parallel with and one hundred twenty (120) feet from said street margin and the outer limit of said local improvement district as hereinbefore described.

The rate of assessment per square foot in each subdivision shall be fixed on the basis that the special benefits conferred on a square foot of land in subdivisions first, second, third, fourth, and fifth, respectively, are related to each other as are the numbers 45, 25, 20, 10, and 5, respectively, and shall be ascertained in the following manner: The products of the number of square feet in subdivisions first, second, third, fourth, and fifth respectively, and the numbers 45, 25, 20, 10, and 5, respectively, shall be ascertained, and their sum taken, which sum shall be divided into the total cost and expense of such improvement. The products of the resultant quotient and the numbers 45, 25, 20, 10, and 5, respectively, shall be the separate rate of assessment per square foot for subdivisions first, second, third, fourth, and fifth, respectively. The total assessment thus ascertained against each separate lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property within such district shall be entered upon the assessment-roll as to the amount to be levied and assessed against each such separate lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property. Any number of disconnected streets or disconnected groups of streets may be included in one local improvement district: Provided, however, that such improvement shall be initiated only by petition signed by the owners of sixty (60%) per cent of the lineal frontage and seventy-five (75%) per cent of the area of each of the subdistricts comprising such local improvement district. [L. '15, p. 527, § 2. Cf. L. '11, p. 446, § 13.]

Assessment Districts: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 239, 239-1, and cases cited.

The term "block" was intended to refer to a square included by four streets as located by the prevailing scheme of streets in the locality; and "platted" property refers to that included by the regularly placed intersecting streets where the lands are capable of being platted; and "unplatted" lands refers to lands not so included; hence, where the next street to the north had been dedicated through only part of the abutting lands, the other portion of such lands is "unplatted," if capable thereof, and cannot be assessed back further than the immediately adjoining platted property, which extended back only half way to the next street: Sivyer & Sons Co. v. Spokane, 77 Wash. 282, 137 Pac. 808.

An assessment of property abutting upon an arterial street in specific sums against each lot, instead of spreading out the assessment under the zone system provided by this section, will not be set aside unless the property owner shows that he has been prejudiced by the method of assessment adopted, and that his assessment is larger than it would have been under the statutory method: Moore v. Spokane, 88 Wash. 203, 152 Pac. 999.

The assessment of the entire cost of the improvement of an arterial street upon abutting property is not a proceeding upon a fundamentally wrong basis, in view of this section: Moore v. Spokane, 88 Wash. 203, 152 Pac. 999.

The legislative determination by a city council of public necessity has no bearing upon the question of special benefits, which is a judicial question, under Constitution, Article VII, section 9, and §§ 9373, 9374: Shilshole Avenue, In re, 94 Wash. 583, 162 Pac. 1010.

Whenever any local improvement shall be of such nature and character that the especial benefits resulting therefrom extend beyond the boundaries of the local improvement district hereinbefore described and defined, the council may create an enlarged district, which shall include as near as may be all the property especially benefited by such improvement. In such case, the petition or resolution initiating such improvement shall state that it is proposed to create an enlarged district to pay the whole or a portion of the cost and expense of such improvement and shall specify and describe the boundaries of such enlarged district, and shall specify a fixed amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be assessed against that portion of the property within such enlarged district, lying between the termini of the proposed improvement and extending back from the marginal lines thereof to the middle of the block on each side thereof, in the mode prescribed in the preceding section hereof, and that such portion of the remainder of such cost and expense, as may not be borne by any general fund, shall be distributed and assessed against all the property included in the remainder of such enlarged district in accordance with special benefits.

The council in case it shall order such improvement, shall in the ordinance therefor specify and describe the boundaries of such district as defined in such petition or resolution. [L. '11, p. 448, § 14.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 35; 87 Wash. 206; 91 Wash. 226, 228, 237; 95 Wash. 6.

This section provides that the petition or resolution for such enlarged district shall specify the fixed proportionate amount to be assessed against the property in the enlarged district; hence it is not necessary that the final ordinance specify the proportion to be charged to the enlarged district: State ex rel. Independent Asphalt Paving Co. v. Gill, 87 Wash. 201, 151 Pac. 498.

§ 9367. [7892-15.] Trunk Sewers and Water-mains.

Any city or town shall have power to provide for the construction of trunk sewers, and trunk water-mains, and for the payment of all or any part of the cost and expense thereof by the levying and collecting of assessments upon property specially benefited thereby. In any such case the district created to bear such assessment shall be outlined in conformity with topographical conditions, and in case of trunk sewers, shall include as near as may be all the territory which can be sewerred or drained through such trunk sewer and the subsewers connected thereto, and in case of trunk water-mains, shall include as near as may be all the territory in the zone or district to which water may be distributed from such trunk water-mains through lateral service and distribution mains and services. In distributing such assessments, there shall be levied against the property lying between the termini of the improvement and back to the middle of the blocks along the marginal lines of the street or areas improved, such amounts as would represent the reasonable cost of a local sewer and its appurtenances, or water-main and its appurtenances suited to the requirements of such territory in the mode prescribed in section 9365, and the remainder of the cost and expense of such improvement shall be distributed over and assessed against all of the property within the boundary of said entire district in accordance with the special benefits conferred thereon and in proportion to area. [L. '11, p. 449, § 15.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 36; 89 Wash. 217, 222.

An original improvement for a trunk sewer, under this section, is not controlled by sections 9365, 9366, hence it is not necessary, in assessing for a trunk sewer for which no laterals were to be constructed at that time, to include in the assessment district outlying property which would be benefited when laterals were constructed and connected with the trunk sewer, without making an enlarged district as required by section 9366: Brown v. Anacortes, 79 Wash. 33, 139 Pac. 652.

If a sewer assessment district does not include all the property susceptible of sewerage or drainage through the contemplated sewer, as required by this section, the city could, by proper proceedings, enlarge the district by including the omitted property; and especially so, after a reassessment had been ordered under sections 9395, 9396, requiring the reassessment to be made upon all property specially benefited, whether or not included in the original assessment district; provided the assessment does not exceed the actual cost and expense of the improvement: Triangle Traders v. Bremerton, 89 Wash. 214, 154 Pac. 193.

An assessment for a trunk sewer must have the boundaries of the district prescribed by ordinance, and the levy upon property between the termini of the improvement back to the middle of the block must be limited to the reasonable cost of a local sewer and its appurtenances, the remainder of the cost to be distributed over all the property in the district in accordance with special benefits in proportion to area, as expressly required by this and the next section: Triangle Traders v. Bremerton, 89 Wash. 214, 154 Pac. 193.

The superior court has no power, under the statute authorizing eminent domain proceedings by cities, to direct the exact limits of territory that should be included in any assessment district, that being a legislative power delegated to the eminent domain commissioners: Seattle v. Puget Sound Traction, Light & Power Co., 91 Wash. 567, 158 Pac. 252.

Property subject to special sewer assessment: Ann. Cas. 1915D, 384.

§ 9368. [7892-16.] Resolution and Ordinance for Trunk Sewers and Water-mains.

The council, before ordering the construction of any trunk sewer or trunk water-main, shall pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, which resolution shall set forth the general nature of such improvement, describing the routes along which such trunk sewer, subsewer and branches, or trunk water-main and laterals is to be constructed, and notifying all persons who may desire to object thereto to appear at a meeting of the council at a time specified in such resolution and present their objections thereto, and directing the proper board, officer or authority to report to the council at or prior to the date fixed for such hearing, the estimated cost and expense of such improvement. Such resolution shall be published in all respects the same as provided for the publication of resolutions mentioned in section 9361.

The council may order such improvement only by ordinance, which ordinance shall describe the routes along which such improvement is to be constructed, and established and fix the boundaries of the district to be assessed for such improvement. Maps, plans and specifications therefor shall be prepared in such manner as may be prescribed by ordinance, but shall be adopted by ordinance before the contract for such improvement shall be let. [L. '11, p. 449, § 16.]

Cited in 79 Wash. 36; 89 Wash. 216.

§ 9369. [7892-17.] Resolution and Ordinance for Dikes, Embankments, etc.

The council, before ordering the construction of any improvement provided for in section 9355, if the same or any part thereof is to be paid by special assessment as hereinbefore provided, shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, which resolution shall set forth the general nature of such improvement, the place of commencement and ending thereof, the route to be used, the estimated cost and expense thereof, the boundaries of the special assessment district to be formed, and notifying all persons who may desire to object thereto to appear at a meeting of the council at a time specified in such resolution and present their objections thereto. Such resolutions shall be published in all respects as other resolutions provided for in section 9361 are required to be published. If protests against such improvement are filed by the owners of property included in said proposed assessment district against such improvement, representing an aggregate amount of two-thirds of the area included in such proposed district, the council shall not proceed further with the work under such resolution.

The council may order such improvement only by ordinance, which ordinance shall describe the place of commencement and ending of such improvement, the route to be used, shall establish and fix the boundaries of such district and shall adopt the maps, plans and specifications for such improvement. [L. '11, p. 450, § 17.]

The council before ordering the construction of any improvement authorized in section 9356, shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, which resolution shall set forth the general nature of such improvement, describing the routes along which such auxiliary water system, or extensions thereof or additions thereto, is to be constructed, specifying the structures or works necessary thereto or forming a part thereof, the estimated cost and expense thereof, the boundaries of the local improvement district to be formed to pay the whole or any portion of such cost and expense, and notifying all persons who may desire to object thereto to appear at a meeting of the council at a time specified in such resolution and present their objections thereto. Such resolution shall be published in all respects as other resolutions provided for in section 9361, are required to be published.

The council may order such improvement only by ordinance, which ordinance shall describe the route to be used, specify the structures or works necessary thereto or forming a part thereof, fix and establish the boundaries of such district, and adopt the maps, plans and specifications for such improvement. [L. '11, p. 451, § 18.]

§ 9371. [7892-19.] Action of Council Conclusive.

The council may continue the hearing upon any petition or resolution provided for in this act and shall retain jurisdiction thereof until the same be finally disposed of. The action and decision of the council as to all matters passed upon by it in relation to any such petition or resolution shall be final and conclusive. [L. '11, p. 451, § 19.]

Cited in 73 Wash. 281; 81 Wash. 264.

A petition for a local improvement not being a jurisdictional requirement, but one subject to waiver and which the legislature could have dispensed with, the legislature had power to provide by this section, that the action of the city council upon the sufficiency of the petition shall be final and conclusive: Redding v. Spokane, 81 Wash. 263, 142 Pac. 664.

§ 9372. [7892-20.] The Assessment Lien.

The charge on the respective lots, tracts, parcels of land and other property, for the purpose of special assessments to pay the cost and expense, in whole or in part of any improvement authorized in this act, when assessed and the assessment-roll confirmed by the legislative body of such city or town in the manner therein provided by ordinance, shall be a lien upon the property assessed from the time said assessment-roll shall be placed in the hands of the officer authorized by law to collect such assessments. Said lien shall be paramount and superior to any other lien or encumbrance whatsoever, theretofore, or thereafter created except a lien for assessments for general taxes. [L. '11, p. 452, § 20.]

Whenever any assessment-roll for local improvements shall have been prepared as provided by law, such roll shall be filed with the clerk of such city or town. The council shall thereupon fix a date for hearing upon such roll before the council and direct the clerk to give notice of such hearing and the time and place thereof.

Such notice shall specify such time and place of hearing on such roll, and shall notify all persons who may desire to object thereto to make such objections in writing and to file the same with such clerk, at or prior to the date fixed for such hearing; and that at the time and place fixed and at such other times as the hearing may be continued to, the council will sit as a board of equalization for the purpose of considering such roll, and at such hearing, or hearings, will consider such objections made thereto, or any part thereof, and will correct, revise, raise, lower, change or modify such roll, or any part thereof, or set aside such roll and order that such assessment be made de novo, as to such body shall appear just and equitable, and then proceed to confirm the same by ordinance.

Such notice shall be published at least five (5) times in the official daily newspaper of such city or town or two (2) times in the official weekly newspaper of such city or town, or, in the case of any city or town not having an official newspaper, then in such other newspaper designated in section 9361: Provided, that at least fifteen (15) days must elapse between the date of last publication thereof and the date fixed for such hearing.

The council or other legislative body of such city or town, at the time fixed for hearing objections to the confirmation of said roll, or at such time or times as said hearing may be adjourned to, shall have power to correct, revise, raise, lower, change or modify such roll, or any part thereof, and to set aside such roll and order that such assessment be made de novo, as to such body shall appear equitable and just, and then shall confirm the same by ordinance. All objections shall state clearly the grounds of objections; and objections not made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed shall be conclusively presumed to have been waived.

Whenever any such roll shall be amended so as to raise any assessments appearing thereon, or to include omitted property, a new time and place for hearing, and a new notice of hearing on such roll, as amended, shall be fixed and given as in the case of an original hearing: Provided, that whenever any property shall have been entered originally upon such roll and the assessment upon any such property shall not be raised, no objections thereto shall be considered by the council or by any court on appeal, unless such objections be made in writing at, or prior to the date fixed for the original hearing upon such roll. § 9374. [7892-22.] Method of Appeal.

The decision of the council or other legislative body upon any objections made within the time and in the manner herein prescribed, may be reviewed by the superior court upon an appeal thereto taken in the following manner. Such appeal shall be made by filing written notice of appeal with the clerk of such city or town and with the clerk of the superior court in the county in which such city or town is situated within ten days after the ordinance confirming such assessment-roll shall have become effective, and such notice shall describe the property and set forth the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and, within ten days from the filing of such notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall file with the clerk of said court, a transcript consisting of the assessment-roll and his objections thereto, together with the ordinance confirming such assessment-roll, and the record of the council or other legislative body with reference to said assessment, which transcript, upon payment of the necessary fees therefor, shall be furnished by such city or town clerk and by him certified to contain full, true and correct copies of all matters and proceedings required to be included in such transcript. Such fees shall be the same as the fees payable to the county clerk for the preparation and certification of transcripts on appeal to the supreme court in civil actions. At the time of the filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk of the superior court, the appellant shall execute and file with the clerk of the superior court a sufficient bond in the penal sum of two hundred dollars, with at least two sureties, to be approved by the judge of said court, conditioned to prosecute such appeal without delay and, if unsuccessful, to pay all costs to which the city is put by reason of such appeal. The court may order the appellant upon application therefor, to execute and file such additional bond or bonds as the necessity of the case may require. Within three (3) days after such transcript is filed in the superior court, as aforesaid, the appellant shall give written notice to the head of the legal department of such city or town, and to the city clerk, that such transcript is filed. Said notice shall state a time (not less than three (3) days from the service thereof) when the appellant will call up the said cause for hearing; and the superior court shall, at said time or at such further time as may be fixed by order of the court, hear and determine such appeal without a jury; and such cause shall have preference over all civil causes pending in said court, except proceedings under an act relating to eminent domain in cities and towns and actions of forcible entry and detainer. The judgment of the court shall confirm, correct, modify or annul the assessment in so far as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the decision of the court shall be filed with the officer who shall have custody of the assessment-roll, and he shall modify and correct such assessment-roll in accordance with such decision. An appeal shall lie to the supreme court from the judgment of the superior court, as in other cases: Provided, however, that such appeal must be taken within fifteen (15) days after the date of the entry of the judgment of such superior court; and the record and opening brief of the appellant in said cause shall be filed in the supreme court within sixty (60) days after the appeal shall have been taken by notice as provided in this act. The time for filing such record and serving and filing of briefs in this section prescribed may be extended by order of the superior court, or by stipulation of the parties concerned. And the supreme court, on such appeal may correct, change, modify, confirm or annul the assessment in so far as the same affects the property of the appellant. A certified copy of the order of the supreme court upon such appeal shall be filed with the officer having custody of such assessment-roll, who shall thereupon modify and correct such assessment-roll in accordance with such decision. [L. '11, p. 453, § 22.]

This section, authorizing costs for a transcript furnished by a city clerk on appeal from an assessment-roll, does not permit the allowance of costs for a transcript furnished by a party: Eggerth v. Spokane, 91 Wash. 221, 157 Pac. 859.

While the filing of a transcript within ten days under this section is a jurisdictional step in the taking of an appeal from the confirmation of an assessment-roll, it will not work a dismissal of the appeal where timely demand was made upon the city clerk and the failure to file the same within time was due to the inability of the clerk to prepare the transcript: Local Improvement Districts Nos. 29 to 37, Yakima County, In re, 108 Wash. 211, 183 Pac. 107.

A property owner, in an action to cancel a street assessment, may show that the property improved was not a public street, since the city cannot acquire the property unless the public necessity is judicially determined, nor unless its cost can be found in assessments or within the city's debt limit: Allen v. Spokane, 108 Wash. 407, 184 Pac. 312.

Whenever any assessment-roll for local improvements shall have been confirmed by the council or other legislative body of such city or town as herein provided, the regularity, validity and correctness of the proceedings relating to such improvement, and to the assessment therefor, including the action of the council upon such assessment-roll and the confirmation thereof, shall be conclusive in all things upon all parties, and cannot in any manner be contested or questioned in any proceeding whatsoever by any person not filing written objections to such roll in the manner and within the time provided in this act, and not appealing from the action of the council in confirming such assessment-roll in the manner and within the time in this act provided. No proceeding of any kind shall be commenced or prosecuted for the purpose of defeating or contesting any such assessment, or the sale of any property to pay such assessment, or any certificate of delinquency issued therefor, or the foreclosure of any lien issued therefor: Provided, that this section shall not be construed as prohibiting the bringing of injunction proceedings to prevent the sale of any real estate upon the grounds (1) that the property about to be sold does not appear upon the assessment-roll, or (2) that said assessment has been paid. [L. '11, p. 455, § 23.]

Conclusiveness, Estoppel and Waiver: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 256—261, and cases cited.

The fact that a property owner petitioned for an improvement and made affidavit that the property was a public street will not estop him from maintaining an action to cancel the assessment when it is found that the property improved was not public property: Allen v. Spokane, 108 Wash. 407, 184 Pac. 312.

§ 9376. [7892-24.*] Time of Payment, Interest, Penalty.

Any city or town shall prescribe by ordinance within what time such assessments, or installments thereof, shall be paid; and shall provide for the payment and collection of interest thereon, at a rate not to exceed eight per cent per annum. Assessments or installments thereof, when delinquent, in addition to such interest shall bear such penalty not less than five per cent as shall be by general ordinance prescribed. Interest and penalty shall be included in, and shall be a part of, the assessment lien. All local assessments becoming a lien upon any property in any city or town after this act shall become effective, shall be collected by the treasurer of such city or town, and all such liens shall be enforced in the manner herein prescribed: Provided, that in cities and towns other than cities of the first class, delinquent assessments, or delinquent installments thereof, shall be certified to the treasurer of the county in which such city or town is situate and by him entered upon the general tax-rolls and collected as other general taxes are collected: Provided, that after such certification any such city or town shall have the right to proceed in its own name to collect or enforce any such delinquent assessment or delinquent installment. The county treasurer shall remit to the city treasurer on the tenth of each month all sums so collected. All local assessments becoming a lien upon any property in any such city or town prior to the date this act shall become effective, shall be collected and such liens enforced in accordance with the laws in force and effect prior to the taking effect of this act: Provided, that in the enforcement of any such liens, any city or town may proceed under the provisions of this act, unless such proceeding shall have been already commenced. Payments, Interest and Penalty: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 285—287.

Local improvement assessments in cities of the third class charged by ordinance with interest at six per cent and a delinquent penalty of five per cent, "together with such additional charges or penalties as are authorized to be collected upon other delinquent taxes," cannot be subjected to the fifteen per cent charge applicable to general taxes, in view of this section, and section 9424, infra; the fifteen per cent attaching to general taxes after delinquency being interest and not a penalty: Shmuck v. Wheeler, 98 Wash. 535, 167 Pac. 1126.

Any city or town may by general ordinance provide for the sale of property described in any local assessment-roll, after the assessment or any installment thereof shall have become delinquent, whether any such assessment became a lien after this act becomes effective, or prior thereto, for the amount of such delinquent assessment, or installment, together with penalty and interest accruing to date of sale, and for the costs of such sale; and for the execution and delivery by the treasurer of such city or town of certificates of sale to the purchaser, and for the execution by such treasurer of an assessment deed to the person thereunto entitled.

The treasurer shall give notice of such sales by publishing a notice thereof once a week for three consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or town, or, in the case of any city or town not having an official newspaper, then in such newspaper specified in section 9361. Such notice shall contain a list of all property upon which such assessments are delinquent with the amount of the assessments, interests, penalties and costs to date of sale, including the cost of advertising such sale, together with the names of the owners of such property, or the words "Unknown Owners," as the same may appear upon said assessment-roll, and shall specify the time and place of sale, and that the property therein described will be sold to satisfy the assessments, interests, penalties and costs, due upon the same. All such sales shall be made between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. and shall take place at the front-door of the building in which the city or town council holds its sessions. Such sale shall be continued from day to day, omitting Sundays and legal holidays, until all the property described in said assessment-roll on which any such assessment, or installment thereof, is delinquent and unpaid, is sold. All such sales shall be public, and each lot, tract or parcel of land, or other property, shall be sold separately and in the order in which the same appears upon the assessment-roll, commencing at the beginning thereof.

All lots, tracts and parcels of land and other property sold for delinquent and unpaid local assessments, shall be sold to the first person at such sale offering to pay the amount due on each such lot, tract or parcel of land or other property. If there be no bidder for any lot, tract or parcel of land, or other property, for a sum sufficient to pay the delinquent and unpaid assessments thereon, or installment thereof, with interest, penalty and costs, the treasurer shall strike the same off to the city or town for the whole amount which he is required to collect by such sale. If any bidder to whom any property is stricken off at such sale does not pay the assessment, interest, penalty and costs before 10 o'clock A. M. on the day following the day of such sale, such property must then be resold, or if the assessment sale is closed, be deemed to have been sold to the city or town, and a certificate of sale shall be issued to the city or town therefor. [L. '11, p. 457, § 25.]

§9378. [7892-26.] Return of Sale.

Within fifteen days after the completion of the sale of all property described in such assessment-rolls, and authorized to be sold as aforesaid, the treasurer must make return to the comptroller, or other officer by whom the warrant was issued for such sale, with a statement of his action thereon, showing all the property sold by him, to whom sold and the sums paid therefor. [L. '11, p. 458, § 26.]

§9379. [7892-27.] Certificate of Sale.

After receiving the amount of the assessment, penalty, interest, costs and charges, the treasurer shall make out a certificate, dated on the day of sale, stating (when known) the name of the owner as given on the assessment-roll, a description of the land or other property sold, the amount paid therefor, the name of the purchaser, that it was sold for the assessment, giving the names of the streets, or other brief designation of the improvement for which the assessment was made, and specifying that the purchaser will be entitled to a deed two years from the date of sale, unless redemption thereof be made. Such certificate shall be signed by the treasurer, and shall be delivered to the purchaser, and shall be by such purchaser recorded in the office of the county auditor in which the lands or other property is situated within three months from the date thereof. If not recorded within said time, the lien thereof shall be postponed to claims of subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers for the value and in good faith who become such while the same is unrecorded.

The city or town comptroller, if there be such officer, and if not then the city or town clerk, shall be the custodian of all certificates for the property sold to the city or town and shall at any time within two years from the date of such certificate, and before redemption of the property therein described, sell and transfer any such certificate to any person who will present to him the treasurer's receipt evidencing payment to the treasurer of the amount for which the property therein described was stricken off to the city, with interest subsequently accrued to date of such payment thereon, and such comptroller or clerk may, if so authorized by the council, sell and transfer any such certificate in like manner after the expiration of such period of two years from the date of the certificate. [L. '11, p. 458, § 27.]

All moneys collected by the treasurer upon any assessments under this act shall be kept as a separate fund, to be known as "Local Improvement Fund, District No. —," and shall be used for no other purpose than the redemption of warrants and bonds drawn or issued upon or against said fund. [L. '11, p. 459, § 28.]

Effect of Commingling Funds: See State ex rel. Titlow v. Centralia, 93 Wash. 401, 161 Pac. 74.

§ 9381. [7892-29.] Liability of Treasurer.

If the treasurer shall receive any moneys for assessments, giving a receipt therefor, for any property and afterward return the same as unpaid, or shall receive the same after making such return, and the same be sold for assessment which has been so paid and receipted for by himself, his clerk, assistant or deputy, he and his bond shall be liable to the holder of the certificate given to the purchaser at the sale for the amount of the face of the certificate, and the legal interest to be demanded within two years from the date of sale and recovered in any court having jurisdiction of the amount, and the city shall in no case be liable to the holder of such certificate. [L. '11, p. 459, § 29.]

Whenever before the sale of any property the amount of any assessment thereon, with interest, penalty, costs and charges accrued thereon, shall be paid to the treasurer, he shall thereon mark the same paid, with the date of payment thereof on the assessment-roll, and whenever after the sale of any property for any assessment the same shall be redeemed, he shall thereupon enter the same redeemed with the date of such redemption on such record. Such records shall be made on the margin of the record opposite the description of such property. [L. '11, p. 460, § 30.]

§ 9383. [7892-31.] Property Held in Trust.

Whenever any property shall be bid in by any city or town or be stricken off to any city or town under and by virtue of any proceeding or proceedings provided in this act said property shall be held in trust by said city or town for the fund of the improvement district for the creation of which fund said assessment was levied and for the collection of which assessment said property was sold, to the extent of the amount of the assessment or installment for which said property was sold, with penalty, accrued interest, and interest on said installment to time of next call for bonds or warrants: Provided, however, such city or town may at any time after the procuring of a deed pay in to such fund the amount of the delinquent assessment for which said property was sold and all accrued interest and interest to the time of the next call for bonds or warrants issued against such assessment fund at the rate provided thereon, and thereupon shall take and hold said property discharged of such trust. [L. '11, p. 460, § 31.]

§ 9384. [7892-32.] Sale of Property Held in Trust.

Any city or town may at any time after the period of redemption has expired and deeds issued to said city or town under and by virtue of any proceedings mentioned in this act, sell any such property at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, but no bid shall be accepted for any amount less than the amount set forth in said deed, plus accrued interest to date of sale, computed on the assessment for which said property was sold from the date of the execution of said deed, and all delinquent assessments and taxes that may stand against said property with accrued interest thereon, penalties, costs and other charges, and the said city or town shall pay into said fund for which said property was held in trust so much thereof as shall fully cancel the assessment for which said property was sold, together with all interest thereon.

Any such sale shall be had only upon notice setting forth a description of the property to be sold, that the city treasurer will sell such property on the day specified at the front door of the building in which the city or town council holds its sessions, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M. and 4 o'clock P. M. and continue such sale from day to day, or withdraw such property from sale after the first day if the treasurer in his discretion deems that the interests of the city or town so require. Such notice shall be published at least five times in the official daily newspaper of such city or town, or at least two times in the official weekly newspaper of such city or town, or in the case of any city or town not having an official newspaper then at least two times in such other newspaper mentioned in section 9361: Provided, that at least fifteen days shall elapse between the date of last publication of such notice and the day such property is sold. [L. '11, p. 460, § 32.]

Any property so sold for an assessment shall be subject to redemption by the former owner, or his grantee, mortgagee, heir, or other representative at any time within two years from the date of the sale upon the payment to the treasurer for the purchaser of the amount for which the same was sold, with interest at the rate of fifteen per cent (15) per annum, together with all taxes and special assessments, interest, penalties, costs and other charges thereon paid by the purchaser of such property at or since such sale, with like interest thereon. Unless written notice of taxes and assessments subsequently paid, and the amount thereof, shall be deposited with the city or town treasurer, redemption may be made without including the same. On any such redemption being made, the treasurer shall give to the redemptioner a certificate of redemption therefor, and pay over the amount so received to the purchaser of the certificate of sale or his assigns. Should no redemption be made within said period of two years, the treasurer shall, on demand of the purchaser or his assigns, and the surrender to him of the certificate of sale, execute to such purchaser or his assigns, a deed for the property therein described: Provided, that no such deed shall be executed until the holder of such certificate of sale shall have notified the owners of such property that he holds such certificate, and that he will demand a deed therefor. Said notice shall be given by personal service upon said owners: Provided, that in case said parties are non-residents of the state or cannot be found therein after diligent search, then such notice may be given by publication in the official paper of the city or town, or if there be no official paper, then in the manner provided in section 9361, once a week for three successive weeks. Such notice and return thereof, with the affidavit of the person, or in case of a city or town, of the comptroller or clerk, claiming such deed, showing that such service was made, shall be filed with the treasurer. If, notwithstanding such notice, no redemption be made within sixty days after the date of service, or the date of first publication of such notice, the holder of such certificate of sale shall be entitled to a deed thereon. Such deed shall be executed only for the property described in the certificate, and after payment of all delinquent taxes and special assessments thereon or installments thereof, and certificates of delinquency or other certificates issued for special or local assessments, whether the same were levied, assessed or issued prior or subsequent to the issuance of said certificates of sale: Provided, that any such deed may be issued to any city or town for the face amount for which said certificate of sale was issued, plus accrued interest, costs, penalties and charges, and shall be held by such city or town subject to the liens of general taxes and special assessments.

The deed shall be executed in the name of the city or town by which the improvement was made; shall recite in substance the matters contained in the certificate of sale, the notice to the owner, and that no redemption has been made of the property within the time allowed by law. The deed shall be signed and acknowledged by the city or town treasurer, as such, and shall be prima facie evidence that the property was assessed according to and as required by law; that the assessment was not paid; that the property was sold as required by law; that it was not redeemed; that due notice of demand for deed had been given, and that the person executing the deed was the proper officer; and the deed shall be conclusive evidence of the regularity of all other proceedings from the assessment, up to and including the execution of the deed, and shall convey the entire fee-simple title to the property therein described, except as otherwise provided herein for cities and towns, stripped of all liens and claims except assessments for local improvements or installments thereof, not delinquent. [L. '11, p. 461, § 33.]

Any city or town may proceed with the collection or enforcement of any delinquent assessment, or delinquent installment, whether the same became a lien after this act shall become effective, or prior thereto, by proceedings in court therefor in an action brought in its own name in the superior court in the county in which such city or town is situate. It shall not be necessary to bring a separate suit for each such separate piece or parcel of property delinquent, but for all or any part of the property delinquent under any single assessment-roll, or assessment district, may be proceeded against in the same action, and all or any of the owners or persons interested in any of the property so delinquent may be joined as parties defendant in the action to foreclose, and all or any liens for such delinquent assessments, or installments thereof, may be foreclosed in such proceeding. Such proceeding shall be tried before the court without a jury. In any such proceeding, it shall be sufficient to allege the passage of the ordinance providing such improvement, the making of such improvement, the levying of the assessment, the confirmation thereof, the date of delinquency of such assessment or installment, and that such assessment was not paid prior to such delinquency or at all. The assessment-roll and confirmatory order, or duly authenticated copies thereof shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity and legality of the proceedings connected therewith, and the burden of proof shall be on the defendants. In any such action where the owners or parties interested in any particular lot, tract or parcel of land or other property included in such suit shall suffer a default, the court may enter judgment of foreclosure and sale as to such parties and property so in default and order execution thereon, and the action may proceed as to the remaining defendants and property. The judgment of the court shall specify separately the amount of the assessment, or installment thereof, with interest, penalty and costs, chargeable to the several lots, tracts and parcels of land and other property in such proceedings. Such judgment shall have the effect of a separate judgment as to each lot, tract or parcel of land or other property, described in such judgment, and any appeal from such judgment shall not invalidate or delay the judgment except as to the property concerning which the appeal is taken. In entering judgment, the court shall decree that such lots, tracts, or parcels of land or other property be sold to enforce such judgment and execution shall issue for the enforcement of such decree. Judgment may be entered as to any one or more separate lots, tracts or parcels of land or other property involved in such proceeding, and the court may retain jurisdiction of the case as to the balance. All proceedings supplemental to judgment, including appeal, order of sale, sale, period of redemption and the issuance of deed shall be had and conducted in accordance with the law, now or hereafter in force, relating to property sold under or upon foreclosure of real estate mortgages. [L. '11, p. 463, § 34.]

Any real property sold for any tax or assessment by any city or town, may be redeemed by the party entitled to make redemption, at any time before the issuance of the tax deed, on payment of the amount required to redeem said property from the sale, with accrued interest at the rate provided for redemption from such sale and costs. [L. '15, p. 667, § 1.]

§ 9388. [7892-35.*] Enforcement of Entire Assessment.

When the assessment upon property is payable in installments, the enforcement of the lien of any installment by any method herein authorized, shall not prevent the enforcement of the lien of any subsequent installment by any method herein authorized, when the same may become delinquent. Any such city or town may provide by general ordinance, that upon failure to pay any installment when due, the entire assessment shall become due and payable and the collection thereof enforced in the manner prescribed: Provided, however, that payment of such delinquent installment or installments due, together with interest, penalty and costs, at any time before entry of judgment in foreclosure as herein provided, shall extend the time of payment on the remainder of the assessments the same as if there had been no delinquency or foreclosure. [L. '19, p. 139, § 1. Cf. L. '11, p. 465, § 35.]

Any city or town may, by general ordinance, provide for the issuance of certificates of delinquency for any and all delinquent assessments, or installments thereof, heretofore or hereafter levied, and any penalty and interest thereon to date of issuance. Such certificates of delinquency shall constitute a lien against the property upon which such assessments were levied, and shall bear interest from the date of issuance thereof at the rate of twelve (12%) per centum per annum, and may be foreclosed after two years from the date of their issuance in the same manner and with the same effect as mortgages upon real estate are foreclosed. Such certificates may be issued to the city, or may be sold to any person applying therefor. They may be assigned in writing, and the city may sell and assign any and all certificates which may be issued to it upon the payment of the value thereof in principal and accrued interest, in cash. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the land against which the same was issued was subject to the assessment at the time the same was assessed, that the property was assessed as required by law, and that the assessment, or installment thereof, was not paid prior to the issuance of such certificate.

No such certificate of delinquency shall be issued upon any property for any assessment or installment thereof during the pendency of any proceedings in court affecting such assessment or installment thereof.

Reassessment of State Property may Include Interest: Reassessment Second School Addition, In re, 110 Wash. 104, 187 Pac. 1092.

Under this section, authorizing a city to issue and sell certificates of delinquency upon the nonpayment of local improvement assessment, assignments of which carry a lien against private property assessed, the state cannot object to a reassessment of its property (required by want of notice), on the ground that there is no lien on state property; since the statute provides the method of paying assessments for local improvements upon state property, and the intent of the act is to subrogate the purchaser of certificates to the rights of the city as to unpaid installments: Reassessment Second School Addition, In re, 110 Wash. 104, 187 Pac. 1092.

Whenever by mistake, inadvertence or for any cause property otherwise subject to assessment, within any assessment district, heretofore or hereafter created, shall have been omitted from the assessment-roll for such improvement, the council or other legislative body of such city or town may, upon its own motion or upon the application of the owner of any property within such district charged with the lien of an assessment for such improvement, proceed to assess such omitted property for such improvement, in accordance with the special benefits accruing to such omitted property by reason of such improvement and in proportion to the assessments levied upon other property in such district.

In any such case, the council or other legislative body shall first pass a resolution setting forth that certain property therein described was omitted from such assessment, and notifying all persons who may desire to object thereto to appear at a meeting of the council or other legislative body of such city or town at a time specified in such resolution and present their objections thereto, and directing the proper board, officer or authority to report to such council at or prior to the date fixed for such hearing the amount which should be borne by each such lot, tract or parcel of land or other property so omitted, which resolution shall be published in all respects as other resolutions provided for in section 9361. At the conclusion of such hearing or any adjournment thereof, the council shall consider the matter as though the property had been included upon the original roll, and may confirm the same or any portion thereof by ordinance. Thereupon such roll of omitted property shall be certified to the treasurer for collection as other assessments. [L. '11, p. 466, § 37.]

The city or town treasurer shall charge for the issuance of each certificate of sale and each certificate of delinquency the sum of fifty cents; for each deed the sum of one dollar. [L. '11, p. 466, § 38.]

§ 9392. [7892-39.] Lien of Purchaser.

The purchaser at any sale authorized in this act acquires a lien on the property so bid in by him for the amount paid by him at such sale as well as for all taxes and delinquent assessments, or delinquent installments thereof, and certificates of delinquency, and all interest, penalties, cost and charges thereon whether levied previously or subsequent to such sale, and whether for state, county, city or town purposes, subsequently paid by him on such property, and shall be entitled to interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum on the original amount paid by him from the date of said sale and upon such subsequent payments from the date of the payment of the respective amounts. [L. '11, p. 467, § 39.]

The holder of any certificate of delinquency for general taxes shall, before commencing any action to foreclose the lien of such certificate pay in full all local assessments or installments thereof outstanding against the whole or any portion of the property included in such certificate of delinquency, or, he may elect to proceed to acquire title to such property subject to certain or all local assessments a lien thereon, in which case the complaint, decree of foreclosure, order of sale, sale, certificate of sale and deed shall so state. If such holder shall pay such local assessments, he shall be entitled to fifteen per cent interest per annum on the amount of the delinquent assessments or delinquent installments thereof so paid, from date of payment.

In any action to foreclose any lien for general taxes upon any property a copy of the complaint shall be served on the treasurer of the city or town within which such property is situate within five days after such complaint is filed. In any case where any property shall be struck off to or bid in by the county at any sale for general taxes, and such property shall subsequently be sold by the county, the proceeds of such sale shall first be applied to discharge in full the lien or liens for general taxes for which the same was sold, and the remainder, or such portion thereof as may be necessary, shall be paid to the city to discharge all local assessment liens upon such property, and the surplus, if any, shall be distributed among the proper county funds. § 9394. [7892-41.] Limitation of Actions.

An action to collect any special assessment or installment thereof, for local improvements of any kind, or to enforce the lien of any such assessment or installment, whether such action be brought by a municipal corporation or by the holder of any certificate of delinquency, or by any other person having the right to bring such action, shall be commenced within ten years after such assessment shall have become delinquent, or within ten years after the last installment of any such assessment shall have become delinquent when said special assessment is payable in installments. [L. '11, p. 468, § 41.]

In all cases of special assessments for local improvements, wherein said assessments have failed to be valid in whole or in part for want of form or insufficiency, informality, or irregularity or nonconformance with the provisions of law, charter or ordinance governing such assessments in any city or town, the council of any such city or town shall have power to reassess such assessments and to enforce their collection in accordance with the provisions of law and ordinance existing at the time the reassessment is made. Whenever, on account of any mistake, inadvertence or other cause, the amount assessed shall not be sufficient to pay the cost and expense of the improvement made and enjoyed by the owners of the property in the assessment district where the same is made, the council of such city or town is authorized and directed to make reassessments on all the property in said assessment district to pay for such improvement; such assessment to be made in accordance with the provisions of law and ordinance existing at the time of its levy. Any city or town is hereby authorized to assess or reassess all property which the council shall find to be specially benefited to pay the whole or any portion of the cost and expense of any local improvements which such city or town has heretofore made, is now making, or may hereafter make at the expense in whole or in part of property specially benefited thereby, whether or not such property so to be assessed or reassessed abuts upon, is adjacent to, or proximate to such improvement, or was included in the original assessment district; and the right to so assess all property so found to be specially benefited shall also apply to any supplemental assessment or reassessment which such city or town may find it necessary to make for the purpose of providing for any deficiency in any local improvement district fund caused by the invalidity of any portion of the original assessment in such improvement district, or where for any cause the amount originally assessed shall not be sufficient to pay the cost of the improvement.

Whenever any assessment for any local improvement in any city or town, whether the same be an original assessment, assessment upon omitted property, supplemental assessment or reassessment, heretofore or hereafter made, has been or may hereafter be declared void and its enforcement [refused] by any court, or for any cause whatever has been heretofore or hereafter may be set aside, annulled or declared void by any court, either directly or by virtue of any decision of such court, the council of such city or town shall make a new assessment or reassessment upon the property which has been or will be benefited by such local improvement, based upon the actual cost of such improvement at the time of its completion. Reassessments: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 270—280, and cases cited.

Under the statute providing for the assessment of state property for local improvements in the same manner as other property, and this and the next section, providing for reassessments with "accrued interest," in case of invalidity, a reassessment against state property may include interest, especially in view of a provision for the payment of state assessments, with interest at six per cent: Reassess-

The city council of any city or town shall proceed with any assessment authorized in the preceding section by passing an ordinance ordering the same, and directing the preparation of an assessment-roll therefor, which roll may include any property specially benefited by such improvement, whether or not the same was included in the original assessment district. Such additional property when so assessed shall become a part of the local improvement district theretofore created, or attempted to be created, to provide a fund to pay for said improvement, and all payments of assessments so ordered shall be paid into and become a part of the local improvement fund provided to pay for said improvement.

The fact that the contract has been let or that such improvement shall have been made and computed in whole or in part shall not prevent such assessment from being made, nor shall the omission, failure or neglect of any office or officers to comply with the provisions of law, the charter or ordinances governing such city or town, as to petition, notice, resolution to improve, estimate, survey, diagram, manner of letting contract or execution of work, or any other matter whatsoever connected with the improvement and the first assessment thereof, operate to invalidate or in any way affect the making of any assessment authorized in the preceding section: Provided, that such assessment shall be for an amount which shall not exceed the actual cost and expense of the improvement, together with the accrued interest thereon, it being the true intent and meaning of this act to make the cost and expense of local improvements payable by the property specially benefited thereby, notwithstanding the proceedings of the council, board of public works or other board, officer or authority of such city or town may be found irregular or defective, whether jurisdictional or otherwise; when such assessment is completed, all sums paid on the former attempted assessment shall be credited to the property on account of which the same were paid.

In any case where any property within the original local improvement district shall not be affected by an assessment authorized in the preceding section, such property need not be entered upon such assessment-roll.

After the certification of any such roll to the treasurer of any such city or town for collection, the same length of time for payment of the assessment appearing thereon, without the imposition of any penalties or interest, and the notice that such assessments are in the hands of the treasurer thereof for collection, shall be given as in the case of an original assessment, and after delinquency such penalty and interest shall be charged as in cases of original assessment. Provided, that in all cases where the original assessment for the improvement was payable in installments, the new assessment, after delinquency, may be divided into such equal installments and made payable at such times as the council in the ordinance ordering such new assessment, may prescribe. § 9397. [7892-44.] Procedure in Case of Reassessment.

All the provisions of this act relating to the filing of assessment-rolls, time and place of hearing thereon, notice of such hearing, the hearing upon such roll, and the confirmation thereof, the time when such assessment shall become a lien upon the property assessed, the proceedings on appeal from any such assessment, the method of collecting such assessments and all proceedings for enforcing the lien thereof shall be had and conducted the same in the case of assessments authorized in section 9395, as in the case of an original assessment. In General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 274—280, and cases cited.

No city or town shall have jurisdiction to proceed with any reassessment or supplemental assessment unless the ordinance ordering the same shall be passed by the council or other legislative body of such city or town within ten years from and after the time the original assessment for any such improvement was finally held to be invalid, insufficient or for any cause set aside, in whole or in part, held void or its enforcement denied directly or indirectly by the courts; or, in the case of supplemental assessments, from and after the time that it was finally determined that the total amount of the valid assessments, levied and assessed on account of any such improvement was insufficient to pay the whole or that portion of the cost and expense thereof to be paid by special assessment. [L. '11, p. 471, § 45.]

§ 9399. [7892-46.] May Issue Bonds.

The city council or other legislative body or any city or town may, in their discretion, provide by ordinance for the payment of the whole or any portion of the cost and expense of any local improvement authorized by law, by bonds of the improvement district, which bonds shall be issued to the contractor, or be issued and sold as herein provided. [L. '11, p. 471, § 46.]

Such bonds shall be issued only in pursuance of ordinances of the city or town issuing the same, and by their terms shall be made payable on or before a date not to exceed twelve years from and after the date of the issue of such bonds, which latter date may be fixed by resolution, by council or other legislative body of said city or town and shall bear such interest as may be provided in such ordinance, not exceeding eight (8%) per centum per annum, which interest shall be payable annually, or semi-annually, as may be provided by ordinance, and each bond shall have attached thereto interest coupons for each interest payment: Provided, that whenever the improvement shall lie wholly or partly within the boundaries of any commercial water way district organized and existing under the provisions of chapter IX of this Title, and the acts amendatory thereof, such bonds may be made payable on or before a date not to exceed twenty-two (22) years from and after the date of the issue of such bonds: Provided further, that the legislative body of the city or town issuing any bonds hereunder may, by unanimous vote, authorize the issuance of said bonds payable on or before a date not to exceed twenty-two years from and after the date of the issue of such bonds, when the said legislative body shall also by like vote determine that the period during which said bonds are payable will not exceed the life of the improvement, and shall in such ordinance provide that the interest on said bonds issued for a period in excess of twelve years shall not exceed six per cent per annum, and must be sold at not less than par. Such bonds shall be in such denominations as shall be provided in the ordinance ordering their issue and shall be numbered from one upwards, consecutively, and each bond and coupon shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or comptroller of such city: Provided, however, that said coupons may in lieu of being so signed have printed thereon a facsimile of the signatures of said officers and each bond shall have the seal of such city affixed thereto and shall refer to the improvement to pay for which the same shall be issued and to the ordinance ordering the same. Each bond shall provide that the principal sum therein named, and the interest thereon, shall be payable out of the local improvement fund created for the payment of the cost and expense of such improvement, and not otherwise. Such bonds shall not be issued in any amount in excess of the cost and expense of the improvement. [L. '17, p. 578, § 1; L. '15, p. 530, § 4. Cf. L. '11, p. 472, § 47.]

§ 9401. [7892-48.] Sale of Bonds.

The bonds issued under the provisions of this act or such portion of such bonds as may remain unsold if same is ordered as hereinafter provided may be issued to the contractor constructing the improvement in payment thereof, or the ordinance directing the issue of such bonds may provide that the same may be sold by some authorized officer or officers of the city, in the manner prescribed therein, at not less than their par value and accrued interest, and that the proceeds thereof shall be applied in payment of the cost and expense of the improvement. [L. '11, p. 472, § 48.]

In all cases where any city or town shall issue bonds as provided in this act to pay the cost and expense of any local improvement, the said cost and expense shall be assessed against the lots, tracts, and parcels of land and other property, which under the provisions of law and the charter and ordinances of such city or town shall be liable therefor, but the ordinance levying such assessment shall provide that the sum charged thereby against each such lots, tracts, and parcels of land and other property or any portion of such sum may be paid during the thirty (30) day period provided for in section 9403 and that thereafter the sum remaining unpaid may be paid in equal annual installments, the number of which installments shall be less by two than the number of years which the bonds issued to pay for the improvement may run, with interest upon the whole unpaid sum so charged at a rate fixed by said ordinance, and each year thereafter one of such installments together with the interest due thereon and on all installments thereafter to become due shall be collected in the same manner as shall be provided by law and the charter and ordinances of such city for the collection of assessments for such improvements in cases where no bonds are issued. [L. '15, p. 531, § 5. Cf. L. '11, p. 473, § 49.]

The owner of any lot, tract or parcel of land or other property charged with any such assessments may redeem the same from all or any portion of the liability for the contract price of such improvement by paying the entire assessment or any portion thereof charged against such lot or parcel of land, without interest, within thirty days after notice to him of such assessment, which notice shall be given as follows: The city or town treasurer shall, as soon as the assessment-roll has been placed in his hands for collection, publish a notice in the official newspaper of the city for ten consecutive daily or two consecutive weekly issues, that the said roll is in his hands for collection and that any assessment thereon or any portion of any such assessment may be paid at any time within thirty days from the date of the first publication of said notice without penalty, interest or costs. The bonds herein provided for shall not be issued prior to twenty days after the expiration of the thirty days above mentioned, but may be issued at any time thereafter. The owner of any such lot or parcel of land may redeem the same from all liability for the unpaid amount of said assessment at any time after said thirty days by paying the entire installments of said assessment remaining unpaid and charged against such lot or parcel at the time of such payment, with interest thereon to the date of the maturity of the installment next falling due. In all cases where any sum is paid as herein provided the same shall be paid to the city treasurer, or to the officer whose duty it is to collect said assessments, and all sums so paid shall be applied solely to the payment of the cost and expense of such improvements or the redemption of the bonds issued therefor. [L. '11, p. 473, § 50.]

If the city or town shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay said bonds or to promptly collect any of such assessments when due, the owner of any such bonds may proceed in his own name to collect such assessment and foreclose the lien thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover in addition to the amount of such bonds and interest thereon, five per centum, together with the cost of such suit. Any number of holders of such bonds for any single improvement may join as plaintiffs and any number of owners of the property on which the same are a lien may be joined as defendants in such suit. [L. '11, p. 474, § 51.]

§ 9405. [7892-52.] Confined to Enforcement of Assessment.

Neither the holder nor owner of any bond issued under the authority of this act shall have any claim therefor against the city by which the same is issued, except from the special assessment made for the improvement for which such bond was issued, but his remedy in case of nonpayment, shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessments. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each bond so issued. [L. '11, p. 474, § 52.]

See supra, § 8990, sufficient compliance with this section.

§ 9406. [7892-53.] Exchange of Bonds, When Authorized.

Whenever any city has heretofore issued bonds for the purpose of paying the cost and expense of local improvements, or has sold such bonds and paid such cost and expense from the proceeds thereof, such city may, with the consent of the holders of such bonds, exchange for them bonds authorized by this act. [L. '11, p. 475, § 53.]

§ 9407. [7892-54.] Interest on Bonds, Call of Bonds.

The city or town treasurer shall pay the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued by this act out of the respective local improvement funds from which they are payable. Whenever there shall be sufficient money in any local improvement fund against which bonds have been issued under the provisions of this act, over and above sufficient for the payment of interest on all unpaid bonds, to pay the principal of one or more bonds, the treasurer shall call in and pay such bonds: Provided, that such bonds shall be called in and paid in their numerical order: Provided, further, that such call shall be made by publication in the city or town official newspaper in its first publication following the delinquency of the installment of the assessment or as soon thereafter as is practicable, and shall state that bonds No. — (giving the serial number or numbers of the bonds called) will be paid on the day the next interest coupons on said bonds shall become due, and interest on said bonds shall cease upon such date. [L. 11, p. 475, § 54.]

Whenever any local improvement herein authorized shall be ordered, there shall be included in the cost and expense thereof to be assessed against the property specially benefited by such improvement and included in the district created to pay the same, or any part thereof, the cost of that portion of said improvement included within the limits of any street intersection space or spaces, the estimated cost and expense of all engineering and surveying necessary for said improvement to be done by and under the direction of the city or town engineer, ascertaining the ownership of the lots or parcels of land included in the assessment district, advertising, mailing and publishing all notices required to be advertised, published or mailed, accounting and clerical labor, books and blanks extended or used by the city or town comptroller and the city or town treasurer in connection with said improvement. [L. '11, p. 475, § 55.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 6.

Under this section the city may include the whole or a part of the intersections to be taxed against the property benefited, or may pay for the whole or a part of such intersections out of its general fund: Buck v. Monroe, 85 Wash. 1, 147 Pac. 432.

§ 9409. [7892-56.] Assess Tide Land Leases as Realty.

For the purposes of local assessment, all leases of tide lands owned in fee by the state of Washington shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be, real property. [L. '11, p. 476, § 56.]

Any city or town council upon request of the board of park commissioners, shall have authority to designate such streets as they may see fit as parkways, park drives, and boulevards, and to transfer all care, maintenance and improvement of the surface thereof to the board of park commissioners, or to such authority of such city or town as may have the care and management of the parks, parkways, boulevards and park drives of the city.

Any city or town may acquire, either by gift, purchase or the right of eminent domain, the right to limit the class, character and extent of traffic that may be carried on such parkways, park drives and boulevards, and to prescribe that the improvement of the surface thereof shall be made wholly in accordance with plans of such board of park commissioners, but that the setting over of all such streets for such purposes shall not in any wise limit the right and authority of the city council to construct underneath the surface thereof any and all public utilities nor to deprive the council of the right to levy assessments for special benefits. In the construction of any such utilities, any damages done to the surface of such parkways, park drives or boulevards shall not be borne by any park funds of such city or town. [L. '11, p. 476, § 57.]

Whenever the management and control of the park drives, parkways and boulevards of any city or town shall be vested in a board of park commissioners or other similar authority of such city or town, the council of any such city or town may, upon request of such board or other similar authority therefor specifying the particular park drives, parkways or boulevards, or portions thereof, to be improved, and the nature of such improvement, pass an ordinance providing for the improvement thereof, which ordinance shall be based either upon a resolution or a petition as hereinabove provided. Any such city or town shall have the same power to provide for making such local improvements and to levy and collect special assessments on property benefited thereby, and for paying the same or any portion thereof as in the case of other local improvements: Provided, that the plans and specifications for such improvements shall, before their adoption, be submitted to and approved by such board of park commissioners, or other similar authority of such city or town. [L. '11, p. 477, § 58.]

All local improvements, the funds for the making of which are derived in whole or in part from assessments upon property specially benefited shall be made either by the city or town itself, or by contract upon competitive bids. The board, officer or authority charged with the duty of letting contracts for local improvements shall determine whether such local improvement shall be done by contract, or by the city itself. The city or town shall have power to reject any and all bids. [L. '11, p. 477, § 59.]

An assessment for a street improvement is not invalid for the reason that the contract for the improvement involved the use of a patented article, as in violation of this section, providing that contracts for local improvements shall be let upon competitive bids, where the owner of the patent furnished the city a license agreement in which it was agreed that the patented article would be furnished to the successful bidder, without reservation, which was done, and although the license agreement provided that it should apply only to contracts for ten thousand square yards or more, while the contract in question was but for 6,650 square yards, it appearing that the bidders relied on the license agreement when submitting their bids, and that no objection was raised to that provision of the contract until the filing of objections to confirmation of the assessment-roll: Great Northern R. Co. v. Leavenworth, 81 Wash. 511, 142 Pac. 1155, Ann. Cas. 1916D, 239.

The council of each city and town shall pass such general ordinance or ordinances as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act. Thereafter all proceedings relating to local improvements shall be had and conducted in accordance with this act, and the ordinances of such city or town relating to local improvements. [L. '11, p. 477, § 60.]

Cited in 81 Wash. 515; 98 Wash. 536.

§ 9414. [7892-61.] Validation of Local Improvement Assessments.

Whenever the city or town council of any city or town within this state has made, or shall hereafter make any assessment against property within any local improvement district for any purpose authorized in this act and has in making such assessment acted in good faith and without fraud or shall hereafter act in good faith and without fraud the said assessment shall be valid and enforceable as such and a lien upon the property upon which the same purports to be a lien; and it shall be no objection to the validity thereof that the contract for such improvement was not awarded in the manner or at the time required by law, nor shall it be any objection to the validity of such assessment that the same was made by an unauthorized officer or person, if the same shall have been confirmed by the city or town authorities, of such city or town, nor, shall it be any objection to the legality of such assessment that the same is based upon a front-foot basis, or upon a basis of benefits to the property within such district unless it shall be made to appear that the city or town authorities did not act in good faith and did not attempt to act fairly in regard thereto, or unless it shall be made to appear that the city or town authorities acted fraudulently or oppressively in making such assessment; and all assessments heretofore or hereafter made which are made by the city or town authorities in good faith are hereby declared to be valid and in full force and effect, and to be collectible in the manner which is now or may hereafter be provided by law for the collection of assessments for the purposes specified in this section. [L. '11, p. 478, § 61.]

Whenever any local assessment, or installment thereof, shall be paid, or any certificate of sale therefor be redeemed, or any judgment therefor be paid by any joint owner of any property assessed for any local improvement, such joint owner may, after demand and refusal, by an action brought in the superior court, recover from each of his co-owners the respective amounts of such payment which each such co-owner should bear, with interest thereon at ten per cent per annum from the date of such payments, and costs of the action, and the joint owner making such payment shall have a lien upon the undivided interests of his co-owners in and to such property from date of such payment. [L. '11, p. 478, § 62.]

§ 9416. [7892-63.] City or Town may Purchase at Tax Sales.

Whenever any property situate in any city or town shall be offered for sale for general taxes, the city or town within which such property is situate shall have power to protect the lien or liens of any local assessments outstanding against the whole or any portion of such property by purchase or otherwise. [L. '11, p. 479, § 63.]

§ 9417. [7892-64.] Proceedings in Case of Consolidated Cities.

The city council of any city which is composed of two or more cities or towns which have been or may hereafter be consolidated, as provided by law, shall have power to make and pass all necessary ordinances, orders and resolutions for any assessment where the improvement has been made or was being made by any such former city or town prior to the consolidation thereof, and to fully carry out and enforce the provisions of this act. [L. '11, p. 479, § 64.]

Whenever, through error or inadvertence, any person shall pay any local assessment, or installment thereof, upon the lands of another, such payor may, after demand and refusal, by an action in the superior court, recover from the owner of such lands the amount so paid, and costs of the action. [L. '11, p. 479, § 65.]

§ 9419. [7892-66.] Vote Required on Ordinances.

No ordinances mentioned in this act shall be considered passed unless they shall have received the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the members of the council or other legislative body of such city or town: Provided, that in cities of the first class the vote required for the passage of any such ordinances shall be subject to such further limitations as may be prescribed in the charter of any such city: Provided, that in any city or town, other than cities of the first class, no ordinance providing for any improvement herein authorized shall be effective over the written objection or objections of the owners of a majority of the lineal frontage and of the area within the limits of the proposed improvement district filed with the clerk of any such city or town prior to the final passage of such ordinance unless such ordinance shall receive the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of all the members of the council or other legislative body of such city or town. [L. '11, p. 479, § 66.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 4.

Under this section it is not necessary for the council to take direct action upon the remonstrance, since the passage of the ordinance by a two-thirds vote subsequent to a hearing of the remonstrance is practically a rejection thereof and a passage of the ordinance by the required vote: Buck v. Monroe, 85 Wash. 1, 147 Pac. 432.

§ 9420. [7892-67.] Act to Apply to All Cities and Towns.

The provisions of this act shall apply to all incorporated cities and towns in this state, including unclassified cities and towns operating under special charters. [L. '11, p. 480, § 67.]

§ 9421. [7892-68.] Word "Council" and "Mayor" Construed.

Whenever the words city council or town council are used in this act, they shall be construed to mean the council or other legislative body of such city or town. Whenever the word mayor is used in this act, it shall be construed to mean the presiding officer of said city or town. [L. '11, p. 480, § 68.]

§ 9422. [7892-69.] Act to be Liberally Construed.

The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to this act, but the same shall be liberally construed for the purpose of carrying out the objects for which this act is intended. [L. '11, p. 480, § 69.]

In making local improvements, the general rule that a city must follow the letter of the law, construed strictly against the city does not obtain, in view of this section: Buck v. Monroe, 85 Wash. 1, 147 Pac. 432.

§ 9423. [7892-70.] Saving Clause.

Any acts or parts of acts herein repealed, which are re-enacted in form or in substance in this act shall not be construed as new enactments but as continuations and amendments of such acts or parts of acts.

All rights of action under existing laws which this act in any way supersedes or repeals, if the same at the time of taking effect of this act shall not have been commenced, shall proceed under the provisions of this act. All actions and proceedings, which may be pending in court under existing laws which this act in any way supersedes or repeals, shall proceed without being in any manner affected by the passage of this act. All proceedings commenced by any city or town before the taking effect of this act, relating to the making of any local improvement, shall proceed without being in any manner affected by the passage of this act, except as provided in section 9376. This act supersedes the prior acts whereby the property owners could obtain relief by an action in equity, and owners must now appeal or abide by the decision of the council where the act went into effect before the assessment-roll was made out, although the proceedings were commenced prior thereto under which the contract for the work was made: Assessment for Local Improvement Sewer District No. 1 of Chehalis, In re, 84 Wash. 565, 147 Pac. 199.

By this section, the provisions relating to reassessments are not to be construed as a new enactment but as a continuing law: Kuehl v. Edmonds, 91 Wash. 195, 157 Pac. 850.

This section saves all pending proceedings: Richardson v. Seattle, 97 Wash. 371, 166 Pac. 639, 168 Pac. 513.

§ 9424. [7892-71.] Charters Suspended.

This act shall supersede the provisions of the charter of any city of the first class inconsistent herewith. [L. '11, p. 481, § 71.]

For acts repealed, see L. '11, p. 481, § 71.

Every city and town shall have the power by general ordinance to provide for the issuance of warrants in payment of the cost and expense of any local improvement, such warrants to be payable out of the special fund of such local improvement district, said warrants to bear interest from date thereof at a rate not to exceed eight per cent (8%) per annum, and to be redeemed either in cash or by local improvement bonds authorized to be issued in the manner prescribed by general ordinance.

All such warrants sold by the city or town, or issued to any contractor and by him sold or hypothecated for a valuable consideration, shall be claims and liens against the improvement fund against which they are drawn, prior and superior to any right, lien or claim of any surety upon any bond or bonds given to such city or town by or for the contractor to secure the performance of his contract or to secure the payment of persons who have performed work thereon, furnished materials therefor or provisions and supplies for the carrying on of the work. CHAPTER XXIII.

FILLING LOWLANDS, FIRST AND SECOND CLASS CITIES.

See, also, next chapter.

§ 9426. [7965] City Empowered to Fill Private Property.

Whenever any city of the first or second class shall establish or shall have established the grade of any street or streets, alley or alleys, at a higher elevation than any private property abutting thereon, thereby rendering the drainage of such private property or any part thereof impracticable without the raising of the surface of such private property, or whenever the surface of any private property in any such city shall be so low as to make sanitary drainage thereof impracticable and it shall be determined by resolution of the city council of such city that a fill of such private property shall be necessary as a sanitary measure, such city shall have power to provide therefor as hereinafter set forth. [L. '07, p. 671, § 1.]

The city council shall, before establishing the new grade of such property or providing for such fill, first pass a resolution declaring its intention to make such improvement and giving in such resolution a description of the property proposed to be improved by such fill, the estimate of the cost of the same and stating that such cost is to be assessed against the property benefited thereby, and shall fix a time not less than thirty (30) days after the first publication of the said resolution as hereinafter specified within which protests against such proposed improvement may be filed in the office of the city clerk. Such resolution may, in the discretion of the council, include as many separate parcels of property as may seem desirable whether or not the same are contiguous, provided the same lie in the same general neighborhood and may conveniently be included in one local improvement district. It shall be the duty of the city clerk upon the passage of such resolution to cause such resolution to be published in the official newspaper of such city in at least two (2) consecutive issues before the time fixed in such resolution for filing such protests, and proof of such publication by affidavit shall be filed as a part of the record of such proceeding. [L. '07, p. 671, § 2.]

If no protest is filed, or if such protest is filed and the said city council shall, notwithstanding such protest and after full hearing thereof if any protestant shall ask for such hearing, determine that it is necessary to fill such private property, or any portion or portions thereof, the city council shall then, or at a subsequent time, proceed to enact an ordinance for such improvement. By the provisions of such ordinance, a local improvement district shall be established to be called "Local improvement district No. —," which shall include all the property found by the said council as aforesaid to require such fill as a sanitary measure. Such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be made and shall fix and establish the grades to which the said property and the different portions thereof shall be brought by such improvement, and that the cost and expense thereof shall be taxed and assessed upon all the property in such local improvement district, which cost shall be assessed in proportion to the number of cubic yards of earth and bulkheading required for the different portions of said property included in said improvement district and in proportion to the benefits derived by such improvement: Provided, that the city council may expend from the general fund for such purposes such sums as in their judgment may seem fair and equitable in consideration of the benefits accruing to the general public by reason of such improvement. Whenever any expense or cost of work shall have been assessed on any such land as hereinabove provided, the amount of such expense and cost shall become a lien upon said lands against which the same are so assessed and shall take precedence of all other liens, except general tax liens and special assessment liens theretofore assessed by the said city thereon and which may be foreclosed in accordance with the code of civil procedure in the name of such city as plaintiff. And in any such proceeding if the court trying the same shall be satisfied that the work has been done or material furnished for the fill of such property, a recovery shall be permitted or charge enforced to the extent of the proper proportion of the value of the work or material which would be chargeable on such lot or land notwithstanding any informality, irregularity or defects in any of the proceedings of such municipal incorporation or its officers. [L. '07, p. 672, § 3.]

The said city shall have power by general or special ordinance, or by general and special ordinance combined, in its discretion, to make provision for the necessary surveys, estimates, bids, contract, bond and supervision of the said work and for making and approving the assessment-roll of said local improvement district and for the collection of the assessments made thereby, and for the doing of everything which in their discretion may be necessary in carrying out the purposes of this act, or may be incidental thereto: Provided, that before the approval of such assessment-roll, notice shall be given and an opportunity offered for the owners of the property affected by such assessment-roll to be heard before such city council in the same manner as in case of assessments for drainage and sewerage in any such city. [L. '07, p. 673, § 4.]

§ 9430. [7969.] Bonds—Issuance Authorized—Interest—Payment.

Such city may, in its discretion, by general or special ordinance, or both, instead of requiring immediate payment for the said work to be made by the owners of property included in said assessment-roll, authorize the issuance of interest-bearing bonds or warrants of such local improvement district, which shall include the property liable to assessment for such improvement, the said bonds or warrants to be payable on or before a date not to exceed twelve (12) years from and after their date and may be issued subject to call, the amount of the said assessment to be payable in installments or otherwise, and the bonds to be of such terms as shall be provided in said ordinance or ordinances and to bear interest at such rate as may be prescribed in such ordinance or ordinances, but not to exceed eight per cent (8%) per annum: Provided, that whenever the improvement shall lie wholly or partly within the boundaries of any commercial waterway district organized and existing under the provisions of chapter IX of Title LXI and the acts amendatory thereof, such bonds may be made payable on or before a date not to exceed twenty-two (22) years from and after the date of the issue of such bonds. Such bonds or warrants shall be payable only from the funds created by the special taxes or assessments hereinbefore authorized upon the property in the said local improvement district, and the holder of any such bond or warrant shall look only to such fund for the payment of the principal and interest thereof and shall have no claim or lien therefor against the city by which the same was issued except from such fund. [L. '15, p. 265, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 673, § 5.]

§ 9431. [7970.] Act Cumulative.

The provisions and remedies provided by this chapter are and shall be cumulative of existing provisions and remedies, and nothing in this chapter contained shall be held to repeal any provision of the existing law or of any charter of any city upon the subject matter thereof, but such existing law or charter provision shall continue in full force and effect, and it shall be optional with the city authorities to proceed under either such existing law, charter provision or this chapter. [L. '07, p. 674, § 6.]

CHAPTER XXIV.

FILLING LOWLANDS, SECOND AND THIRD CLASS CITIES.

See, also, preceding chapter.

§ 9432. [7971.*] May Fill Lowlands—Special Assessments.

Whenever the city council of any city of the second and third class shall deem it necessary or expedient on account of the public health, sanitation, the general welfare, or other cause, to fill or raise the grade or elevation of any marsh lands, swamp lands, tide lands, shore lands, or lands commonly known as tide flats, or any other lowlands situated within the limits of such city, and to clear and prepare said lands for such filling, such city council shall have power so to do and the expense thereof, including the cost of making compensation for property taken or damaged, and all other costs and expense incidental to such improvement, shall be assessed to the property benefited, except such amount of such expense as the city council, in its discretion, may direct to be paid out of the current or general expense fund: Provided, that if in the judgment of the city council the special benefits for any such improvement shall extend beyond the boundaries of the filled area, the council may create an enlarged district which shall include, as near as may be, all the property, whether actually filled or not, which will be specially benefited by such improvement, and in such case the council shall specify and describe the boundaries of such enlarged district in the ordinance providing for such improvement, and shall specify that such portion of the total cost and expense of such improvement as may not be borne by the current or general expense fund, shall be distributed and assessed against all the property of such enlarged district. Any proceedings for the creation of any such enlarged district heretofore established, or attempted to be established, are hereby validated. Proceedings for the filling and of changing the grade and elevation of any such lands may be had in the manner provided in this chapter. [L. '17, p. 222, § 1; L. '09, p. 569, § 1.]

This chapter, for the filling of tide and swamp lands by cities, authorizes the assessment of property benefited thereby situated within the assessment district, although it was not a part of the land filled in: Martin v. Olympia, 69 Wash. 28, 124 Pac. 214.

An ordinance for a local improvement by filling tide lands is not invalid by reason of a recital that one of its purposes was for the "general improvement of the property," where it also appears that it was necessary to the public health, sanitation and general welfare, within this section: Martin v. Olympia, 69 Wash. 28, 124 Pac. 214.

The title of this act, empowering cities "to fill lowlands . . . and for that purpose to exercise the right of eminent domain for the taking or damaging of property," is sufficiently broad to authorize the filling of lowland under the police power as a sanitary measure without making compensation for damages claimed to the property filled in; since the reference to the right of eminent domain applies to property taken or destroyed and not to land filled in, and the power "to fill" includes the right to exercise the police power: Bowes v. Aberdeen, 58 Wash. 535, 109 Pac. 369, 30 L. R. A. (N. S.) 709.

§ 9433. [7972.] Improvement Provided for by Ordinance—Boundaries.

Whenever the city council of any such city shall desire to make any improvement contemplated in the next preceding section, such city council shall provide therefor by ordinance and unless such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be paid for wholly or in part by special assessments upon the property benefited, compensation therefor shall be made from any general funds of such city applicable thereto. If such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be paid for wholly or in part by special assessments upon property benefited, the proceedings for the making of such special assessment shall be as hereinafter provided. Such ordinance shall specify the boundaries of the proposed improvement district and shall describe the lands which it is proposed to assess for said improvement. Where any parcel of land within the boundaries of such proposed improvement district shall be wholly filled to the proposed grade elevation of the proposed fill, such parcel of land may be excluded from the lists of lands to be assessed, when in the opinion of the city council justice and equity require its exclusion. The boundaries of any improvement district may be altered so as to exclude land therefrom at any time up to the levying of the assessment as in this chapter provided, but such changing of the boundaries shall be by ordinance. [L. '09, p. 569, § 2.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 324.

Where part of a railroad right of way, included in a district of lowlands to be filled, had been partially filled by earth largely taken from the adjacent portion of the right of way, also included within the district, the company is not entitled to a deduction on account of such fill; even assuming that an equitable deduction "must" be made, under this section, or under section 9436, infra: Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Raymond, 75 Wash. 322, 134 Pac. 1047.

An assessment for the purpose of filling lowlands in cities of the second and third classes, under this act, cannot be attacked as beyond the jurisdiction of the council from the fact that it was not necessary for the public health or sanitation, where the record shows that the council did determine this question of its jurisdiction by finding the necessary facts to exist; since the question of necessity is, in the first instance, a legislative question, and conclusive on collateral attack: Richardson v. Olympia, 83 Wash. 638, 145 Pac. 963.

§ 9434. [7973.] Petition—Damages, Determined by Jury.

Whenever an ordinance shall be passed as in the preceding section of this chapter provided, and it shall appear that in making of such improvement so authorized, private property shall be taken or damaged thereby, the city shall file a petition in the superior court of the county in which such city is situated, in the name of the city, praying that just compensation to be made for the property to be taken or damaged for the improvement specified in such ordinance, be ascertained by a jury or by the court, in case a jury be waived, and all of the provisions of an act of the legislature of the state of Washington, approved March 13, 1907, entitled, "An act to enable cities of the first, second and third classes and having a population of over one thousand five hundred inhabitants to exercise the right of eminent domain for the taking and damaging of land and property for public purposes, providing a method for making compensation therefor and providing for special assessments in certain cases upon property benefited," and acts amendatory thereof shall be applicable to the proceeding had in the superior court under the provisions of this chapter for the ascertainment of the compensation to be made for the taking and damaging of property, except in so far as the same may be consistent with this chapter. The filling of unimproved and uncultivated lowlands of the character mentioned in section 9432, shall not be considered as damaging or taking of such lands. The damage, if any, done to cultivated lands or growing crops thereon, or to building and other improvements situated within the district proposed to be filled, shall be ascertained and determined in the manner above provided; but no damage shall be awarded to any property owner for buildings or improvements placed upon lands included within said district after the publication of the ordinance referred to in section 9433, defining the boundaries of the proposed improvement district: Provided, that the city shall after the passage of such ordinance, proceed with said improvement with due diligence. Where the improvement is to be made at the expense of the property benefited, no account shall be taken of benefits by the jury or court in assessing the amount of compensation to be made to the owner of any property within such district, but such compensation shall be assessed without regard to benefits to the end that said property for which damages may be so awarded, may be assessed the same as other property within the district for its just share and proportion of the expense of making said improvement, and the fact that compensation has been awarded for the damaging or taking of any parcel of land shall not preclude the assessment of such parcel of land for its just proportion of said improvement as hereinafter provided. [L. '09, p. 570, § 3.]

§ 9435. [7974.] Plans and Estimates—Approval by Council.

At the time of the initiation of the proceedings for any improvement as contemplated by this chapter, or at any time afterward, the city council of such city shall cause plans and specifications for said improvement to be prepared and shall cause an estimate to be made of the cost and expense of making said improvement, including the cost of supervision and engineering, abstracter's fees, interest, and discounts and all other expenses incidental to said improvement, including an estimate of the amount of damages for property taken or damaged, which plans, specifications and estimates shall be approved by the city council. [L. '09, p. 571, § 4.]

Cited in 58 Wash. 550; 83 Wash. 317.

The estimate of the cost of a local improvement, required by this section to be approved by the council on the initiation of the proceedings, is for the sole purpose of determining whether the council will initiate the improvement, and the assessment is not invalidated by the fact that it greatly exceeds the estimate, where it did not exceed the actual bona fide or ultimate cost of the improvement, and can readily be accounted for by changed conditions, in view of § 9444, infra: Vincent v. South Bend, 83 Wash. 314, 145 Pac. 452.

§ 9436. [7975.*] Assessment-roll—Installments.

When such plans and specifications shall have been prepared and such estimate of the cost and expense of making such improvement shall be made and adopted by the council as set out in the preceding section, and when an estimate has been made of the compensation to be paid for property damaged or taken, either before or after such compensation shall be ascertained in the said superior court as hereinbefore provided, the city council through the proper officer or officers, of such city, shall cause an assessment-roll to be prepared containing a list of all of the property within such improvement district which it is proposed to assess for such improvement, together with the names of the owners, if known, and if unknown the property shall be assessed to an unknown owner, and opposite each description shall be set the amount assessed to such description. When so ordered by the council, the entire amount of compensation paid or to be paid for property damaged or taken, including all of the costs and expenses incidental to the condemnation proceedings and together with the entire cost and expense of making the improvement, may be assessed against the property within the district subject to assessment, but the council may order any portion of such costs paid out of the current or general expense fund of the city, in their discretion. The several parcels of land located within said improvement district to be assessed for such improvement which are actually filled shall be assessed according to and in proportion to surface area, a square foot of surface to be the unit of assessment, and the several parcels of land in any enlarged district not actually filled shall be assessed in accordance with special benefits: Provided, that where any parcel of land was partially filled by the owner prior to the initiation of the improvement and equitable deduction for such partial filling may be allowed. The cost and expense incidental to the filling of the streets, alleys and public places within such assessment district shall be borne by the private property within such district subject to assessment when so ordered by the council. When the assessment shall be payable in installments, the assessment-roll when equalized, as hereinafter provided, shall show the number of installments and the amounts thereof. The assessment herein provided may be made payable in any number of equal annual installments not exceeding ten (10) in number. [L. '17, p. 223, § 2; L. '09, p. 572, § 5.]

Cited in 58 Wash. 538, 547, 550; 75 Wash. 324.

An assessment upon the property to pay for the cost of filling lowlands "in proportion to the surface area," as authorized by this section, is not unreasonable or arbitrary, because not made according to benefits or in proportion to the value of the property; nor is the same void as authorizing unequal taxation, in violation of the Constitution requiring property to be taxed according to its value, as that clause of the Constitution does not apply to special assessments: Bowes v. Aberdeen, 58 Wash. 535, 109 Pac. 369, 30 L. R. A. (N. S.) 709.

A city may, by virtue of the police power, in a proper case, and when necessary to the public welfare, irrespective of the right of eminent domain, fill in lowlands that are unsanitary and a menace to health, without rendering compensation for damages claimed to private property filled in; and under this section may assess the property to pay the cost of the work, providing the exercise of the power is not unjust or arbitrary: Bowes v. Aberdeen, 58 Wash. 535, 109 Pac. 369, 30 L. R. A. (N. S.) 709.

§ 9437. [7976.] Hearing on Assessment—Notice by Publication.

When such assessment-roll shall be so prepared it shall be filed in the office of the city clerk and thereupon it shall be the duty of the city clerk to give notice by publication in at least three issues of the official paper that such roll is on file in his office and that at a date mentioned in said notice, which shall be at least twenty days after the date of the first publication thereof, the city council of such city will sit as a board of equalization to equalize said roll and to hear, consider and determine protests and objections against the same. At the time specified in said notice, the city council of said city shall sit as a board of equalization to equalize the said roll and they may adjourn the sitting from time to time until the equalization of such roll is completed. The city council shall have power as such board of equalization to hear, consider and determine objections and protests against any assessment levied under the provisions of this chapter and shall have power as such board to make such alterations and modifications in the assessment-roll as justice and equity may require. [L. '09, p. 573, § 6.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 33.

Under this and the next section, giving the right of appeal from a city assessment for filling tide and swamp lands to any person filing objections before the city council, sitting as a board of equalization, the action of the city council is final as to all persons not objecting, in the absence of fraud or arbitrary action;

hence a complaint to set aside an assessment by one who made no objections is insufficient where it alleges merely that the property was not benefited, without alleging any irregularity or any facts showing capricious or arbitrary action: Martin v. Olympia, 69 Wash. 28, 124 Pac. 214.

Any person who has made objections to the assessment as equalized, shall have the right to appeal from the equalization as made by the city council to the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated. Such appeal shall be made by filing a written notice of appeal with the clerk of such city within ten days after the equalization of said assessment by the council, and said notice shall describe the property and the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and the appellant shall also file with the clerk of the superior court aforesaid within ten (10) days from the time of taking such appeal a copy of said notice, appeal, assessment and proceedings thereon, certified by the clerk of such city, together with a bond to such city conditioned to pay all costs that may be awarded against appellant in such sums not less than two hundred dollars and with such security as shall be approved by the clerk of such court, and the case shall be docketed by the clerk of such court in the name of the person taking such appeal as plaintiff and such city or town as defendant. Said cause shall then be at issue and shall be tried immediately by such court as in the case of equitable causes, except that no further pleadings shall be necessary. The judgment of the court shall be either to confirm, modify or annul the assessment in so far as the same affects the property of the appellant, with respect to which the appeal was taken, from which judgment and appeal shall lie to the supreme court as in other causes. [L. '09, p. 573, § 7.]

§ 9439. [7978.] Lien Attaches, When—Collection.

From and after the equalization of the roll, the several assessments in such roll contained shall become a lien upon the real estate described in such roll and shall remain such lien until paid, and such lien shall take precedence of all other liens against such property, except the lien of general taxes. The assessments herein provided for shall be collected by the same officers and enforced in the same manner as now provided by law or which may be hereafter enacted for the collection and enforcement of local assessments for street improvements in cities of the class herein described, and all of the provisions of existing laws and ordinances relative to the enforcement and collection of local assessments for street improvements, including the certification of delinquent assessments to the county treasurer and the issuance and foreclosure of certificates of delinquency, shall be applicable to the assessments made pursuant to this chapter. [L. '09, p. 574, § 8.]

§ 9440. [7979.] Payment by Warrants—Issuance of Bonds.

When the improvement contemplated by this chapter shall be ordered to be made upon the immediate payment plan, the city council shall provide for the payment of the same by the issuance of local improvement fund warrants against the local improvement district, which warrants shall be paid only out of the funds derived from the local assessments in the district. When such improvement shall be ordered to be made upon the bond installment plan, the city council shall provide for the issuance of bonds against the improvement district as hereinafter provided. [L. '09, p. 574, § 9.]

§ 9441. [7980.] Bonds—Interest, Maturity, Guaranties.

When it is desired to issue bonds against any such improvement district, the city council shall have full authority to provide for the issuance of such bonds. Such bonds may be in such denominations as the city council may provide and shall bear such rate of interest as the city council may fix, not exceeding, however, eight per centum per annum; interest shall be paid annually and said bonds shall become due and payable at such time, not exceeding ten years from the date thereof, as may be fixed by the council and shall be payable out of said local assessment district funds. If so ordered by the council, such bonds may be issued in such a way that different numbers of said bonds may become due and payable at different intervals of time, or they may be so issued that all of the bonds against said district shall mature together. The city council of any such city shall have authority for and on behalf of such city to guarantee the payment of the whole or any part of the bonds so issued against any such local improvement district, but such guaranties on the part of the city shall only be made by ordinance duly enacted, the passage of which ordinance shall require the vote of not less than nine councilmen and the approval of the mayor of cities of the second class, and six councilmen and approval of the mayor in cities of the third class. The city council shall have power to enact all ordinances necessary for the issuance of the bonds herein provided for, and to give full force and effect to this chapter. [L. '09, p. 574, § 10.]

The city council of any such city shall have power to negotiate sufficient warrants or bonds against any such local improvement district at a price not less than ninety-five per cent of their par value as may be necessary to raise sufficient money to pay any and all compensation which may be awarded for property damaged or taken in the judicial proceedings hereinbefore mentioned, including the costs of such proceedings; but in lieu of so doing, the city council shall have power to negotiate current or general expense fund warrants at par to raise funds for the payment of such compensation and expenses in the first instance, but in that event the current or general expense fund shall be reimbursed out of the first moneys collected in any such local assessment district or realized from the negotiation or sale of local improvement warrants or bonds. [L. '09, p. 575, § 11.]

§ 9443. [7982.] Interest on Assessments and Warrants.

The local assessments herein provided for shall bear interest at such rate as may be fixed by the council, not exceeding the rate of eight per centum per annum from and after the expiration of thirty days after the equalization of the assessment-roll and shall bear such interest after delinquency as may be provided by general ordinance of the city: Provided, that such assessment shall bear interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum from and after the date of the certification of such assessments to the county treasurer of the county, as in cases of local street assessments. Warrants drawn against any such local improvement district shall bear interest from the date of issuance at the rate of eight per centum per annum. [L. '09, p. 576, § 12.]

§ 9444. [7983.] When Contract Let—Change of Roll.

The contract for the making of any improvement as contemplated by this chapter may be let either before or after the making up of the equalization of the assessment-roll, and special fund warrants, or bonds may be issued against said local improvement district, either before or after the equalization of the roll as in the judgment of the council may best subserve the public interest. When the assessment-roll is made up and equalized, based in whole or in part upon an estimate of the cost of the improvement and it shall be later found that such estimate was too high, the excess shall be rebated pro rata to the property owners on the assessment-roll, such rebates to be deducted from the last installment, or installments, when the assessment is upon the installment plan. When it is found that the estimated cost was too low and that the actual bona fide cost of the improvement is greater than the estimate, the city council, after due notice and a hearing, as in case of the original equalization of the roll, may add the required additional amount to the assessment-roll to be apportioned among the several parcels of property upon the same rules and principles as if it had been originally included, except that such additional amount shall be added to the last installment of such assessment in case such assessment be upon the installment plan. The same notice shall be required for adding to the assessment-roll in this manner as is required for the original equalization of the roll, and the property owner shall have the right of appeal. [L. '09, p. 576, § 13.]

The city council in its discretion may provide in letting the contract for any such improvement, that the contractor shall accept special fund warrants or local improvement bonds against the local improvement district within which such improvement is to be made, in payment for the contract price of such work, and that such warrants or bonds may be issued to the contractor from time to time as the work progresses, or the city council may negotiate such special fund warrants or bonds against such local improvement district at not less than ninety-five cents in money for each dollar of warrants or bonds, and with the proceeds of such sales pay the contractor for such work and pay the other costs of such improvement. [L. '09, p. 577, § 14.]

Whenever moneys shall accumulate in any such improvement fund and is likely to lay idle awaiting the maturity of the bonds against the district, the city council, under proper safeguards, may invest such money temporarily, or may borrow the same temporarily, at a reasonable rate of interest, but when so invested or borrowed, the city shall be responsible and liable for the restoration to such fund of the moneys so invested or borrowed from any such fund, with interest thereon, whenever required for the redemption of bonds maturing against such district. [L. '09, p. 577, § 15.]

In case any assessment made under the provisions of this act should be found to be invalid for any cause or in case the same should be set aside for any reason in any judicial proceeding, then a reassessment may be made and all laws now in force, or which may be hereafter enacted relative to the reassessment of local assessments, for street or other improvements, shall, as far as practicable, be applicable hereto. [L. '09, p. 577, § 16.]

§ 9448. [7987.] Act Concurrent.

This chapter shall not be construed as repealing or in any wise affecting any existing laws relative to the making of any such improvements, as are embraced within this chapter, but this chapter shall be considered as concurrent with such existing laws. [L. '09, p. 577, § 17.]

§ 9449. [7987-1.] Lowlands and Waterways—Assessments for Benefits.

Whenever the city council or commission of any city of the second or third class in this state shall deem it necessary or expedient on account of the public health, sanitation, the general welfare, or other cause, to fill or raise the grade or elevation of any marsh lands, swamp lands, tide lands or lands commonly known as tide flats, or any other lands situated within the limits of such city and to clear and prepare said lands for such filling, such city shall have power so to do; and for the purpose of filling and raising the grade or elevation of such lands, and to secure material therefor and to provide for the proper drainage thereof after such fill has been effected, the city council or commission of such city may, if it deems it advisable so to do, acquire rights of way (and where necessary or desirable, may vacate, use and appropriate streets and alleys for such purposes) and lay out, build, construct and maintain over and across such lowlands, canals or artificial waterways of at least sufficient width, depth and length to provide and afford the quantity of earth, dirt and material required to complete such fill and with the earth, dirt and material removed in digging and constructing such canals and waterways, fill and raise the grade or elevation of such marsh lands, swamp lands, tide-lands or tide flats; and such canals or waterways shall be constructed of such width and depth (provided that all the earth, dirt and other suitable material removed in constructing the same shall be used to fill the lowlands as herein provided) as will make them available, convenient and suitable to provide water frontage for landings, wharves and other conveniences of navigation and commerce for the use and benefit of the city and the public; and when such canals or waterways shall have been constructed as herein provided, such city may construct and maintain the necessary bridges over and across the same; such canals or waterways shall be forever under the control of such city and shall be and become public thoroughfares and waterways for the use and benefit of commerce, shipping, the city and the public generally. The expense of making such improvement and in doing, accomplishing and effecting all the work provided for in this act, including the cost of making compensation for property taken or damaged, and all other cost and expense incidental to such improvement, shall be assessed to the property benefited, except such amount of such expense as the city council or commission, in its discretion, may direct to be paid out of the current or general expense fund. Proceedings for the filling and for changing the grade and elevation of any such lowlands may be had in the manner provided in this act. [L. '13, p. 30, § 1.]

§ 9450. [7987-2.] Funds Applicable—Lands Excluded—Protests—Notice—Vote.

Whenever the city council or commission of any such city shall desire to make any improvement contemplated in the next preceding section, such city council or commission shall provide therefor by ordinance and unless such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be paid for wholly or in part by special assessment upon the property benefited, compensation therefor shall be made from any general or special funds of such city applicable thereto. If such ordinance shall provide that such improvement shall be paid for wholly or in part by special assessments upon property benefited, the proceedings for the making of such special assessment shall be as hereafter provided. Such ordinance shall specify the boundaries of the proposed improvement district and shall describe the lands which it is proposed to assess for said improvement, and shall provide for the filling of such lowlands and shall outline the general scheme or plan of such fill. Where any parcel of land within the boundaries of such proposed improvement district shall, prior to the initiation of the improvement, be wholly filled to the proposed grade or elevation of the proposed fill, such parcel of land may be excluded from the lands to be assessed when in the opinion of the city council or commission justice and equity require its exclusion. The boundaries of any improvement district may be altered so as to exclude land therefrom at any time up to the levying of the assessment as in this act provided, but such changing of the boundaries shall be by ordinance. Upon the introduction of an ordinance providing for such fill, if the city council or commission shall desire to proceed with the filling of such lowlands as in this act contemplated, said city council or commission shall fix a time, not less than ten days, in which protests against said fill may be filed in the office of the city clerk. Thereupon it shall be the duty of the clerk of said city to publish in the official newspaper of said city in at least two consecutive issues thereof before the time fixed for the filing of such protests, a notice of the time fixed for the filing of protests, together with a copy of the proposed ordinance as introduced. If protests against the proposed fill by the owners of more than half of the area of land situated within the proposed filling district exclusive of streets, alleys and public places, be filed on or before the date fixed for such filing, the council shall not proceed further with such work unless two-thirds of the members of the said council shall vote to proceed with such work, and if any such city is operating under the commission form of government composed of three commissioners, said commission shall not proceed further with such work except by a unanimous affirmative vote of all the members thereof; if such commission be composed of five members, then at least four affirmative votes thereof shall be necessary before proceeding with such work. If no such protest shall be filed or if such protest be filed and two-thirds of the councilmen shall vote to proceed with such work or in cases where such cities are operating under the commission form of government, such commissioners shall vote unanimously or four out of five commissioners as above mentioned shall vote to proceed with such work, the said city council or commission shall at such meeting or in a succeeding meeting proceed to pass the proposed ordinance for the work, with such amendments and modifications as to the said city council or commission of said city may seem proper. By the provisions of such ordinance the local improvement district shall be called "Filling District No. —" which shall include all property subject to assessment, and which it may be proposed to assess, and which may be properly included under the provisions of this act. [L. '13, p. 32, § 2.]

§ 9451. [7987-3.] Eminent Domain—Fill not Damage—Benefits not Considered.

Whenever an ordinance shall be passed as in the preceding section of this act provided, and it shall appear, that in making of such improvements so authorized, private property shall be taken or damaged thereby, the city shall file a petition in the superior court of the county in which such city is situated, in the name of the city, praying that just compensation to be made for the property to be taken or damaged for the improvement specified in such ordinance, be ascertained by a jury or by the court, in case a jury be waived, and all of the provisions of sections 9215 to 9280, and acts amendatory thereof shall be applicable to the proceeding had in the superior court under the provisions of this act for the ascertainment of the compensation to be made for the taking and damaging of property, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with this act. The filling of unimproved and uncultivated lowlands of the character mentioned in section 9449 shall not be considered as a damaging or taking of such lands. The damage, if any, done to cultivated lands or growing crops thereon, or to buildings and other improvements situated within the district proposed to be filled, shall be ascertained and determined in the manner above provided; but no damage shall be awarded to any property owner for buildings or improvements placed upon lands included within said district after the publication of the ordinance referred to in section 9450, defining the boundaries of the proposed improvement district: Provided, that the city shall after the passage of such ordinance, proceed with said improvement with due diligence. Where the improvement is to be made at the expense of the property benefited, no account shall be taken of benefits by the jury or court in assessing the amount of compensation to be made to the owner of any property within such district, but such compensation shall be assessed without regard to benefits to the end that said property for which damages may be so awarded, may be assessed the same as other property within the district for its just share, and proportion of the expense of making said improvement, and the fact that compensation has been awarded for the damaging or taking of any parcel of land shall not preclude the assessment of such parcel of land for its just proportion of said improvement as hereinafter provided. [L. '13, p. 34, § 3.]

§ 9452. [7987-4.] Plans—Estimate.

At the time of the initiation of the proceedings for any improvement as contemplated by this act or at any time afterward, the city council or commission of such city shall cause plans and specifications for said improvement to be prepared and shall cause an estimate to be made of the cost and expense of making said improvement, including the cost of supervision and engineering, abstractor's fees, interest and discounts and all other expenses incidental to said improvement, including an estimate of the amount of damages for property taken or damaged, which plans, specifications and estimates shall be approved by the city council or commission. [L. '13, p. 35, § 4.]

§ 9453. [7987-5.] Assessment-roll.

When such plans and specifications shall have been prepared and such estimate of the cost and expense of making such improvement shall be made and adopted by the city council or commission, as set out in the preceding section, and when an estimate has been made of the compensation to be paid for property damaged or taken, either before or after such compensation shall be ascertained in the said superior court as hereinbefore provided, the city council or commission through the proper officer or officers, of such city, shall cause an assessment-roll to be prepared containing a list of all the property within said improvement district which it is proposed to assess for such improvements, together with the names of the owners, if known, and if unknown, the property shall be assessed to an unknown owner, and opposite each description shall be set the amount assessed to such description. When so ordered by the said city council or commission, the entire amount of compensation paid or to be paid for property damaged or taken, including all of the costs and expenses incidental to the condemnation proceedings and together with the entire cost and expense of making the improvement may be assessed against the property within the district subject to assessment, but the city council or commission may order any portion of such costs paid out of the current or general expense fund of the city, in their discretion. The several parcels of land located within said improvement district to be assessed for such improvement shall be assessed according to and in proportion to surface area, one square foot of surface to be the unit of assessment: Provided, that where any parcel of land was wholly or partially filled by the owner prior to the initiation of the improvement an equitable deduction for such filling or partial filling may be allowed. The cost and expense incidental to the filling of the streets, alleys and public places within said assessment district shall be borne by the private property within such district subject to assessment when so ordered by the city council or commission. When the assessment shall be payable in installments, the assessment-roll when equalized, as hereinafter provided, shall show the number of installments and the amounts thereof. The assessment herein provided may be made payable in any number of equal annual installments not exceeding fifteen in number. [L. '13, p. 35, § 5.]

When such assessment-roll shall be so prepared it shall be filed in the office of the city clerk and thereupon it shall be the duty of the city clerk to give notice by publication in at least three issues of the official paper that such roll is on file in his office and that a date mentioned in said notice, which shall be at least twenty days after the date of the first publication thereof, the city council or commission of such city will sit as a board of equalization to equalize said roll and to hear, consider and determine protests and objections against the same. At the time specified in said notice, the city council or commission of said city shall sit as a board of equalization to equalize the said roll and they may adjourn the sitting from time to time until the equalization of such roll is completed. The city council or commission shall have power as such board of equalization to hear, consider and determine objections and protests against any assessment levied under the provisions of this act and shall have power as such board to make such alterations and modifications in the assessment-roll as justice and equity may require. [L. '13, p. 36, § 6.]

§ 9455. [7987-7.] Appeals to Superior Court—Judgment.

Any person who has made objections to the assessment as equalized, shall have the right to appeal from the equalization as made by the city council or commission to the superior court of the county in which such city may be situated. Such appeal shall be made by filing a written notice of appeal with the clerk of such city within ten days after the equalization of said assessment by the council or commission, and said notice shall describe the property and the objections of such appellant to such assessment; and the appellant shall also file with the clerk of the superior court aforesaid within ten (10) days from the time of taking such appeal a copy of said notice, appeal, assessment and proceedings thereon, certified by the clerk of such city, together with a bond to such city conditioned to pay all costs that may be awarded against appellant in such sums not less than two hundred dollars, and with such security as shall be approved by the clerk of such court, and the case shall be docketed by the clerk of such court in the name of the person taking such appeal as plaintiff, and such city or town as defendant. Said cause shall then be at issue and shall be tried immediately by such court as in the case of equitable causes, except that no further pleadings shall be necessary. The judgment of the court shall be either to confirm, modify or annul the assessment in so far as the same affects the property of the appellant with respect to which the appeal was taken, from which judgment an appeal shall lie to the supreme court as in other causes. [L. '13, p. 37, § 7.]

From and after the equalization of the roll, the several assessments in such roll contained shall become a lien upon the real estate described in such roll, and shall remain such lien until paid, and such lien shall take precedence of all other liens against such property, except the lien of general taxes. The assessments herein provided for shall be collected by the same officers and enforced in the same manner as now provided by law or which may be hereafter enacted for the collection and enforcement of local assessments for street improvements of the class herein described, and all of the provisions of existing laws and ordinances relative to the enforcement and collection of local assessments for street improvements including the certification of delinquent assessments to the county treasurer and the issuance and foreclosure of certificates of delinquency, shall be applicable to the assessments made pursuant to this act. [L. '13, p. 38, § 8.]

§ 9457. [7987-9.] Immediate Payment Plan.

When the improvement contemplated by this act shall be ordained to be made upon the immediate payment plan, the city council or commission shall provide for the payment of the same by the issuance of local improvement fund warrants against the local improvement district, which warrants shall be paid only out of the funds derived from the local assessments in the district. When such improvement shall be ordered to be made upon the bond installment plan, the city council or commission shall provide for the issuance of bonds against the improvement district as hereinafter provided. [L. '13, p. 38, § 9.]

§ 9458. [7987-10.] Bonds—Guaranty.

When it is decided to issue bonds against any such improvement district, the city council or commission shall have full authority to provide for the issuance of such bonds. Such bonds may be in such denominations as the city council or commission may provide, and shall bear such rate of interest as the city council or commission may fix, not exceeding, however, eight per centum per annum; interest shall be paid annually and said bonds shall become due and payable at such time, not exceeding fifteen years from the date thereof, as may be fixed by the said council or commission and shall be payable out of said local assessment district funds. If so ordered by the council or commission, such bonds may be issued in such a way that different numbers of said bonds may become due and payable at different intervals of time, or they may be so issued that all of the bonds against said district shall mature together. The city, however, may reserve the right to call or mature any bond on any interest-paying date when sufficient funds are on hand for its redemption; but bonds shall be called in numerical order. The city council or commission of any such city shall have authority for and on behalf of such city to guarantee the payment of the whole or any part of the bonds so issued against any such local improvement district, but such guaranties on the part of the city shall only be made by ordinance duly enacted, the passage of which ordinance shall require the vote of not less than two-thirds of the councilmen and the approval of the mayor, or three commissioners in case the governing body consists of three commissioners, or four where such city is governed by five commissioners. The city council or commission shall have power to enact all ordinances necessary for the issuance of the bonds herein provided for, and to give full force and effect to this act. [L. '13, p. 38, § 10.]

The city council or commission of any such city shall have power to negotiate sufficient warrants or bonds against any such local improvement district at a price not less than ninety-five per cent of their par value as may be necessary to raise sufficient money to pay any and all compensation which may be awarded for property damaged or taken in the judicial proceedings hereinbefore mentioned, including the costs of such proceedings; but in lieu of so doing, the city council or commission shall have power to negotiate current or general expense fund warrants at par to raise funds for the payment of such compensation and expenses in the first instance, but in that event the current or general expense fund shall be reimbursed out of the first moneys collected in any such local assessment district or realized from the negotiation or sale of local improvement warrants or bonds. [L. '13, p. 39, § 11.]

§ 9460. [7987-12.] Interest.

The local assessments herein provided for shall bear interest at such rate as may be fixed by the council or commission, not exceeding the rate of eight per centum per annum from and after the expiration of thirty days after the equalization of the assessment-roll and shall bear such interest after delinquency as may be provided by general ordinance of the city: Provided, that such assessment shall bear interest at the rate of fifteen per cent per annum from and after the date of the certification of such assessments to the county treasurer of the county, as in cases of local street assessments. Warrants drawn against any such local improvement district shall bear interest from the date of issuance at the rate of eight per centum per annum. [L. '13, p. 40, § 12.]

§ 9461. [7987-13.] Contract—Rebates—Supplemental Assessment.

The contract for the making of any improvement as contemplated by this act may be let either before or after the making up of the equalization of the assessment-roll, and special fund warrants or bonds may be issued against said local improvement district, either before or after the equalization of the roll as in the judgment of the council or commission may best subserve the public interest. When the assessment-roll is made up and equalized, based in whole or in part upon an estimate of the cost of the improvement and it shall be later found that such estimate was too high, the excess shall be rebated pro rata to the property owners on the assessment-roll, such rebates to be deducted from the last installment, or installments, when the assessment is upon the installment plan. When it is found that the estimated cost was too low and that the actual bona fide cost of the improvement is greater than the estimate, the city council or commission after due notice and a hearing, as in case of the original equalization of the roll, may add the required additional amount to the assessment-roll to be apportioned among the several parcels of property upon the same rules and principles as if it had been originally included, except that such additional amount shall be added to the last installment of such assessment in case such assessment be upon the installment plan. The same notice shall be required for adding to the assessment-roll in this manner as is required for the original equalization of the roll, and the property owner shall have the right of appeal. [L. '13, p. 40, § 13.]

§ 9462. [7987-14.] Contractor to Accept Bonds or Warrants.

The city council or commission in its discretion may provide in letting the contract for any such improvement, that the contractor shall accept special fund warrants or local improvement bonds against the local improvement district within which such improvement is to be made, in payment for the contract price of such work, and that such warrants or bonds may be issued to the contractor from time to time as the work progresses, or the city council or commission may negotiate such special fund warrants or bonds against such local improvement district at not less than ninety-five cents in money for each dollar of warrants or bonds, and with the proceeds of such sales pay the contractor for such work and pay the other costs of such improvement. [L. '13, p. 41, § 14.]

§ 9463. [7987-15.] Surplus Funds Invested.

Whenever money shall accumulate in any such improvement fund and is likely to lay idle awaiting the maturity of the bonds against the district, the city council or commission, under proper safeguards, may invest such money temporarily, or may borrow the same temporarily, at a reasonable rate of interest, but when so invested or borrowed, the city shall be responsible and liable for the restoration to such fund of the moneys so invested or borrowed from any such fund, with interest thereon, whenever required for the redemption of bonds maturing against such district. [L. '13, p. 41, § 15.]

In case any assessment made under the provisions of this act should be found to be invalid for any cause or in case the same should be set aside for any reason in any judicial proceeding, then a reassessment may be made and all laws now in force or which may be hereafter enacted relative to the reassessment of local assessments, for street or other improvements, shall, as far as practical, be applicable hereto. [L. '13, p. 41, § 16.]

When the filling of any marsh land, swamp land, tide land or tide flats shall result in the construction and completion of any canal or waterway as contemplated in this act, the same shall not be constructed less than three hundred feet wide at the top between the shore lines and with sufficient slope to the sides or banks thereof to as nearly as practicable render bulkheadings or other protection against caving or falling in of said sides or banks unnecessary and of sufficient depth to meet all ordinary requirements of navigation and commerce. Such canal or waterway shall be and remain under the control of the city except as herein provided, and immediately upon the completion of the same the city shall establish outer wharf and dock lines lengthwise of said canal or waterway on both sides thereof in such manner and position that not less than two hundred feet of the width thereof shall always remain open between such lines and beyond and between which lines no right shall ever be granted to build docks, wharves or other obstructions except bridges; nor shall any permanent obstruction to the free use of the channel so laid out between said wharf or dock lines, excepting bridges, their approaches, piers, abutments and spans, ever be permitted but the same shall be kept open for navigation. Such city shall have the right to lease the area so created between the said shore lines and the wharf and dock lines so established or any part, parts or parcels thereof during times when the use thereof is not required by the city, for periods not exceeding thirty years, to private individuals or concerns for dock, wharf, warehouse or manufacturing purposes at such annual rate or rental per lineal foot of frontage on the canal or waterway as it may deem reasonable. The rates of wharfage, dockage and other charges to the public which such lessee may impose shall be reasonable; and the city council or commission may regulate such rates. The lease so granted by the city shall never be transferred or assigned without the consent of the city council or commission having been first obtained; and when at the time of granting such leases the city shall own the land abutting upon the shore line and outside of such canal or waterway at any given point then the said area lying between the shore line and the said wharf or dock line at that point shall never be leased unless an equal frontage of said abutting property immediately adjoining the same is leased at the same time for the same period to the same individual or concern: Provided, that such city shall never lease to any individual or concern more than four hundred (400) lineal feet of frontage of such area lying between the shore lines and the wharf or dock lines and no individual or concern shall ever hold or occupy by lease, sublease or otherwise more than the said four hundred (400) lineal feet of frontage of such area: Provided, however, that any individual or concern may acquire by lease or sublease whatever additional number of lineal feet of frontage of such area may in the judgment of the city council or commission be necessary for the use of such individual or concern, upon petition therefor to the city council or commission signed by not less than five hundred (500) resident freeholders of said city. [L. '13, p. 42, § 17.]

§ 9466. [7987-18.] Acquisition of Abutting Lands—Lease of Dock Sites.

While acquiring the rights of way for such canals or waterways or at any time thereafter such city shall have the right to acquire for its own and for public use, by purchase, gift, condemnation or otherwise, and pay therefor out of the current expense fund of such city or by bonding the city or by pledging revenues to be derived from rents and issues of the lands so acquired or through such other means as may be provided by law, lands abutting upon the shore lines or right of way of such canals or waterways to a distance, depth or width of not more than three hundred (300) feet back from the banks or shore lines of such canals or waterways on either side or both sides thereof, or not more than three hundred (300) lineal feet back from and abutting on the outer lines of such rights of way on either side or both sides of such rights of way, and such area of such abutting lands as the council or commission may deem necessary for its use for public docks, bridges, wharves, streets and other conveniences of navigation and commerce and for its own use and benefit generally; and when the said cities are not using said lands they shall have the right to lease the said abutting lands so acquired or such parts or parcels thereof as may be deemed for the best interest and convenience of navigation, commerce and the public interest and welfare to private individuals or concerns for terms not exceeding thirty years each at such annual rate or rental as the city council or commission of such city may deem just, proper and fair, for the purpose of erecting docks and wharves for wholesale and retail warehouses and for general commercial purposes and manufacturing sites, but the said city shall never convey or part with title or control of the abutting lands above mentioned and so acquired other than in the manner herein specified: Provided, that any lease or leases granted by such city on such abutting lands shall never be transferred or assigned without the consent of the city council or commission having been first obtained. And such city shall never lease to any individual or concern more than four hundred (400) lineal feet of canal or waterway frontage of said land and no individual or concern shall ever hold or occupy by lease, sublease, or otherwise more than the said four hundred (400) lineal feet of said frontage: Provided, however, that any individual or concern may acquire by lease or sublease whatever additional frontage of such abutting land may be in the judgment of the city council or commission necessary for the use of such individual or concern, upon petition presented to the city council or commission therefor signed by not less than five hundred (500) resident freeholders of such city; and at the time that the city shall lease to any individual or concern any of such abutting lands such individual or concern must likewise for the same period of time lease all of the area between the shore line and wharf and dock line of such canal or waterway lying contiguous to and immediately in front of the abutting land so leased. [L. '13, p. 43, § 18.]

§ 9467. [7987-19.] Tax Levy—Special Fund.

For the purpose of raising revenues to carry on any project under this act, excepting the actual filling of such marsh lands, lowlands, swamp lands, tide lands or tide flats, but including funds for the payment for the lands taken, purchased, acquired or condemned and the expenses incident to the acquiring thereof, or any other cost or expenses incurred by the city under this act other than the cost of actually filling such lands, any such city is hereby empowered and authorized to levy an annual tax of not exceeding three (3) mills on each dollar of assessed valuation of all property within the city. The city council or commission of any such city may create a fund into which all moneys so derived from taxation and moneys derived from rents and issues of the lands acquired under and by virtue of this act shall be paid and against which special fund warrants may be drawn or negotiable bonds issued to meet expenditures under this act. [L. '13, p. 45, § 19.]

§ 9468. [7987-20.] Work Done by Contract—Day Labor.

When such city shall undertake any improvement authorized by this act and the expenditures required for the same exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, the same shall be done by contract and shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, after due notice, under such regulation as may be prescribed by ordinance: Provided, that the city council or commission may reject all bids presented and readvertise in their discretion, or, if in the judgment of the city council or commission such work can be performed, or supplies or materials furnished by the city independent of contract, cheaper than under the bid submitted, it may after having so advertised and examined the bids, cause such work to be performed or supplies or materials to be furnished independent of contract.

This section shall be construed as a concurrent and cumulative power conferred on such cities and shall not be construed as in any wise repealing or affecting any law now in force relating to the performing, execution and construction of public works. [L. '13, p. 45, § 20.]

§ 9469. [7987-21.] Eminent Domain—Lands Outside City.

The right of eminent domain is hereby extended to any such city of the second or third class for the condemnation of lands and other property, either within or without the corporate limits of such city, for the purpose of filling and draining such marsh lands, swamp lands, lowlands, tide lands, or tide flats and in so doing constructing said canals or waterways as contemplated in this act; and every such city shall have the right to appropriate real estate or other property for the rights of way of such canals or waterways or whatever property is necessary to be appropriated or damaged for the construction thereof, and the filling and draining of such marsh lands, lowlands, swamp lands, tide lands or tide flats and for other uses provided for in this act; and all the provisions of sections 9215 to 9280, and acts amendatory thereof shall be applicable and used in appropriating and damaging lands as contemplated by this section except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with this act; and the right of eminent domain authorized by this section shall be exercised in the same manner and under the same procedure as is authorized by said sections 9215 to 9280, and acts amendatory thereof. [L. '13, p. 45, § 21.]

This act shall not be construed as repealing or in any wise affecting sections 9432 to 9448, or any other existing laws relative to the making of any such improvements as are embraced within this act, but this act shall be considered as concurrent with such existing laws. [L. '13, p. 46, § 22.]

CHAPTER XXV.

LIENS FOR WATER AND LIGHT CHARGES.

§ 9471. [7988.] Liens for Unpaid Charges.

Cities owning their own waterworks, electric light or power plants, are hereby granted a lien for delinquent and unpaid charges for water or electric light or power, against the premises to which the same has been furnished. [L. '09, p. 617, § 1.]

§ 9472. [7989.] Enforcement of Lien.

Said lien may be enforced by cities only by cutting off water or electric light or power against the premises to which the same has been furnished, after the charges become delinquent and unpaid, until such charges are paid. In the event of a disputed account, and tender by the owner of the premises of the amount claimed by him to be due prior to the city discontinuing such a service, the right to so refuse service to any premises shall not accrue until suit has been entered by the city, and judgment entered in such case. [L. '09, p. 617, § 2.]

CHAPTER XXVI.

PROTECTION OF WATER SUPPLY.

For the purpose of protecting the water furnished to the inhabitants of towns and cities within this state from pollution, the said towns and cities are hereby given jurisdiction over all property occupied by the works, reservoirs, systems, springs, branches and pipes, by means of which, and of all the lakes, rivers, springs, streams, creeks or tributaries constituting the sources of supply from which such cities or towns or the companies or individuals furnishing water to the inhabitants of such cities or towns obtain their supply of water, or store or conduct the same, and over all property acquired for any of the foregoing works or purposes or for the preservation and protection of the purity of the water supply, and over all property within the areas draining into the lakes, rivers, springs, streams, creeks or tributaries constituting such sources of supply whether the same, or any thereof, be within the corporate limits of such town or city or outside thereof; and authority is hereby conferred upon such towns and cities to prescribe by ordinance what acts shall constitute offenses against the purity of such water supply and the punishment or penalties therefor and to enforce said ordinances; and the mayor of such town or city is hereby authorized to appoint special policemen, with such compensation as the proper authorities of said town or city may fix, who shall, after taking oath, have the powers of constables under the laws of this state, and who may arrest with or without warrant any person committing, within the territory over which such town or city is given jurisdiction by this act, any offense declared by law of this state, or by any ordinance of such town or city, against the purity of such water supply, or any violation of any rule or regulation lawfully promulgated by the state board of health for the protection of the purity of such water supply. Such policeman shall be, and he is hereby, authorized to forthwith take any such person arrested for any such offense or violation aforesaid, before any court having jurisdiction thereof to be proceeded with according to law. Every such special policeman shall, when on duty, wear in plain view a badge or shield bearing the words "Special police" and the name of the town or city for which he shall be appointed as aforesaid. § 9474. [7991.] Pollution Prohibited—Removal of Nuisance—Penalty.

The establishment or maintenance of any slaughter-pen, stock feeding yards, hog pens, or the deposit or maintenance of any uncleanly or unwholesome substance, or the conduct of any business or occupation, or the allowing of any condition upon or sufficiently near the sources from which the supply of water for the inhabitants of any such city or town is obtained, or where such water is stored, or the property or means through which the same may be conveyed or conducted so that such water would be polluted or the purity of such water or any part thereof destroyed or endangered, is hereby prohibited and declared to be unlawful, and is hereby declared to be and constitute a nuisance, and as such to be abated as other nuisances are abated under the provisions of the existing laws of the state of Washington, or under the laws which may be hereafter enacted in relation to the abatement thereof; and that any person or persons who shall do, establish, maintain, or create any of the things hereby prohibited for the purpose of or which shall have the effect of polluting any such sources of water supply, or water, or shall do any of the things hereby declared to be unlawful, shall be deemed guilty of creating and maintaining a nuisance, and may be prosecuted therefor, and upon conviction thereof may be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. [L. '99, p. 115, § 2.]

§ 9475. [7992.] Prosecutions for Nuisances.

If upon the trial of any person or persons for the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter such person or persons shall be found guilty of creating or maintaining a nuisance as hereby defined or of violating any of the provisions of this chapter, it shall be the duty of such person or persons to forthwith abate such nuisance, and in the event of their failure so to do within one day after such conviction, unless further time be granted by the court, a warrant shall be issued by the court wherein such conviction was obtained, directed to the sheriff of the county in which such nuisance exists, and the sheriff shall forthwith proceed to abate the said nuisance and the cost thereof shall be taxed against the party so convicted as a part of the costs of such case. [L. '99, p. 115, § 3.]

§ 9476. [7993.] Duty of Health Officers.

It is hereby made the duty of the city health officer, city physician, board of public health, mayor of the city or such other officer, as may have the sanitary condition of such city or town in charge, to see that the provisions of this chapter are enforced and upon complaint being made to any such officer to immediately investigate the said complaint and if the same shall appear to be well founded it shall be and is hereby declared to be the duty of such officer to proceed and file a complaint against the person or persons violating any of the provisions of this chapter and cause the arrest and prosecution of such person or persons. [L. '99, p. 116, § 4.]

§ 9477. [7994.] Injunction Proceedings.

Any city supplied with water from any source of supply as hereinbefore mentioned, or any corporation owning waterworks for the purpose of supplying any city or the inhabitants thereof with water in the event that any of the provisions of this chapter are being violated by any person, may, by civil action in the superior court of the proper county, have the maintenance of the nuisance which pollutes or tends to pollute the said water, as provided for by section 9474, enjoined, and such injunction may be perpetual. [L. '99, p. 116, § 5.]

CHAPTER XXVII.

ACCIDENT CLAIMS AND FUNDS.

§ 9478. [7995.] First Class Cities—Claim must State Residence.

Whenever a claim for damages sounding in tort against any city of the first class shall be presented to and filed with the city clerk or other proper officer of such city, in compliance with valid charter provisions of such city, such claim must contain, in addition to the valid requirements of such city charter relating thereto, a statement of the actual residence of such claimant, by street and number, at the date of presenting and filing such claim; and also a statement of the actual residence of such claimant for six months immediately prior to the time such claim for damages accrued. § 9479. [7996.*] Cumulative With Charter Provisions—Claims by Relatives or Agents.

Nothing in this act shall be construed as in anywise modifying, limiting or repealing any valid provision of the charter of any such city relating to such claims for damages, but the provisions of this act shall be in addition to such charter provisions, and such claims for damages, in all other respects, shall conform to and comply with such charter provisions: Provided, that if the claimant shall be incapacitated from verifying and filing his claim for damages within the time prescribed by charter, or if the claimant be a minor, or in case the claim is for damages to real or personal property, and if the owner of such property is a nonresident of such city or is absent therefrom during the time within which a claim for damages to said property is required to be filed, then the claim may be verified and presented on behalf of said claimant by any relative or attorney or agent representing the injured person, or in case of damages to property, representing the owner thereof, and no action for damages now pending or hereafter brought shall be defeated by the failure of the person to verify or file the claim in person if action be brought within three years after the taking effect of this act where a claim has heretofore been verified and filed within the time and in compliance with the terms of this act if said claim has been rejected. § 9481. [7998.] Other Than First Class Cities—Presentation of Claim.

All claims for damages against any city or town of the second, third or fourth class must be presented to the city or town council and filed with the city or town clerk within thirty days after the time when such claim for damages accrued: Provided, that if the claimant shall be incapacitated from verifying and filing his claim for damages within said thirty days, or if the claimant be a minor, then the claim may be verified and presented on behalf of said claimant by any relative or attorney or agent representing the injured person, and no action for damages shall be defeated by the failure of the person to verify and file the claim in person if action be brought within three years after the taking effect of this act where a claim has heretofore been filed within the time and in compliance with the terms of this act if said claim has been rejected. No ordinance or resolution shall be passed allowing such claim or any part thereof, or appropriating any money or other property to pay or satisfy the same or any part thereof, until such claim has first been referred to the proper department or committee, nor until such department or committee has made its report to the council thereon pursuant to such reference. All such claims for damages must accurately locate and describe the defect that caused the injury, reasonably describe the injury and state the time when the same occurred, give the residence for six months last past of claimant, contain the items of damages claimed and be sworn to by the claimant or a relative, attorney or agent of the claimant. No action shall be maintained against any such city or town for any claim for damages until the same has been presented to the council and sixty days have elapsed after such presentation. [L. '15, p. 422, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 627, § 1.]

CHAPTER XXIX.

PUBLIC UTILITIES, ACQUISITION OF, AND BONDS FOR.

§ 9488. [8005.] Public Utilities—Authority to Acquire and Operate.

Any incorporated city or town within the state be, and hereby is, authorized to construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain, conduct and operate waterworks, within or without its limits, for the purpose of furnishing such city or town and the inhabitants thereof, and any other persons, with an ample supply of water for all uses and purposes, public and private, including water power and other power derived therefrom, with full power to regulate and control the use, distribution and price thereof; to construct and maintain systems of sewerage, and systems and plants for refuse collection and disposal, with full jurisdiction and authority to manage, regulate and control the same within and without the limits of the corporation; to construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain and operate works, plants and facilities for the preparation and manufacture of all such stone or asphalt products or compositions or other materials which may be used in street construction or maintenance, together with the right to use the same, and also to fix the price of and to sell the same for use in the construction of municipal improvements of such city or town; to construct, acquire and operate public markets and one or more cold storage plants for the sale and preservation of butter, eggs, meats, fish, fruits, vegetables, and other perishable provisions; and to construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain and operate works, plants and facilities for the purpose of furnishing such city or town and the inhabitants thereof, and any other persons, with gas, electricity and other means of power and facilities for lighting, heating, fuel and power purposes, public and private, with full authority to regulate and control the use, distribution and price thereof, together with the right to handle and sell, or lease, any meters, lamps, motors, transformers and equipment or accessories of any and every kind, necessary and convenient for the use, distribution and sale thereof; to authorize the construction of such plant or plants by others for the same purpose, and to purchase such gas, electricity or power from others either within or without the city or town for its own use and for the purpose of selling to its inhabitants and to other persons doing business within such city or town, and to regulate and control the use and price thereof; to construct, condemn and purchase, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain, operate or lease cable, electric and other railways within the limits of such city or town for the transportation of freight, and passengers above or underneath the ground, with full authority to regulate and control the use and operation thereof, and to fix, alter, regulate and control the fares and rates to be charged thereon; and for the purpose aforesaid, and it shall be lawful for any city or town in this state to take condemn, and purchase, purchase, acquire and retain water from any public or navigable lake or watercourse percolating or subterranean, or any underflowing water within the state, and, by means of aqueducts or pipe-lines, to conduct the same to said city or town; and such city or town is hereby authorized and empowered to erect and build dams or other works across or at the outlet of any lake or watercourse in this state for the purpose of storing and retaining water therein up to and above high-water mark; and for all the purposes of erecting such aqueducts, pipe-lines, dams, or waterworks or other necessary structures in storing and retaining water, as above provided, or for any of the purposes provided for by this act, such city or town shall have the right to occupy and use the beds and shores up to the high-water mark of any such watercourse or lakes, and to acquire the right by purchase or by condemnation and purchase, or otherwise, to any water, water rights, easements or privileges named in this act, or necessary for any of said purposes, and any such city or town shall have the right to acquire by purchase or by condemnation and purchase any lands, properties or privileges necessary to be had to protect the water supply of such city or town from pollution: Provided, that should private property be necessary for any such purposes or for storing water above high-water mark, such city or town may condemn and purchase, or purchase and acquire such property: And provided further, that no such dam or other structure shall impede, obstruct or in any way interfere with public navigation of such lake or watercourse. —“Due Regard” to Operating Expenses—Statutes: Twichell v. Seattle, 106 Wash. 32, 179 Pac. 127.

Under this section authorizing cities to condemn property for lighting, heating, and power purposes “public and private,” the word “private” will be eliminated as a nullity, as it is not so commingled with the public uses that they cannot be separated, and the remainder of the act is constitutional as a complete act capable of execution in accordance with the legislative intent: Tacoma v. Nisqually Power Co., 57 Wash. 420, 107 Pac. 199.

A statute requiring a “fixed proportion” of the revenues from a water system to be set apart to meet accruing interest and the obligation as it matures is not complied with by setting aside $175,000 out of the gross revenues or out of seventy-five per cent of the gross revenues: Aylmore v. Seattle, 48 Wash. 42, 92 Pac. 932.

This section, giving to cities the right to occupy and use the beds and shores of lakes up to the high-water mark, does not mean the highest water reached during annual flood periods, but means the upland boundary of tide and shore lands separating soil adapted for use from that which is submerged so long or frequently in ordinary seasons that vegetation will not grow upon it: Austin v. Bellingham, 69 Wash. 677, 126 Pac. 59.

This section, authorizing cities to condemn for public purposes “works, plants, and facilities,” either expressly or by necessary implication grants the right to acquire works and plants of private corporations already devoted to a public use: Tacoma v. Nisqually Power Co., 57 Wash. 420, 107 Pac. 199.

A city may adopt a plan for obtaining a water supply outside of the city without providing for a distributing system within the city, under this section, authorizing a city to construct, acquire or add to waterworks, within or without its limits, for the purpose of furnishing an ample supply of water, and section 9489, requiring it to adopt the system or plan proposed and submit it to the qualified electors: Matthews v. Ellensburg, 73 Wash. 272, 131 Pac. 839.

This section is sufficiently broad to permit the condemnation of a street railway already devoted to the public use, as well as its franchises, although no specific mention is made of railways in active operation nor of the franchises of the railways mentioned: State ex rel. Peabody v. Superior Court, 77 Wash. 593, 138 Pac. 277.

This section authorizes the condemnation of such portions of a street railway as lie within the city limits, although the road is partly within and partly without the city and is operated as a unit, and may damage property outside the city; since it is a necessary incident of the powers granted, and since the city must make compensation for all property damaged whether within or without the city: State ex rel. Peabody v. Superior Court, 77 Wash. 593, 138 Pac. 277.

Under this chapter, empowering cities to acquire public utilities in either one of two ways, viz.: (1) By the issuance of general bonds or warrants, or (2) By the creation of a special fund to be sustained by the gross revenues of the system out of which special bonds are to be redeemed, a city having adopted the latter method and secured the voters' assent to a special bond issue of "$90,000 as near as may be," "to condemn, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain, conduct and operate" the system, and limited its bond issue to that sum, is without power, by a subsequent ordinance, to pay from the general fund $4,500 for the cost of preparing the bonds, legal expenses, commissions and cost of making extensions and necessary repairs, $90,000 being more than the purchaser of the bonds was willing to advance upon the security of the water system, since the manner of payment was an essential part of the plan to be submitted to the people, and cannot be subsequently changed: Uhler v. Olympia, 87 Wash. 1, 151 Pac. 117, 152 Pac. 998.

A city has power to acquire a water system and, after supplying its inhabitants, to dispose of surplus water to another municipality, under this section, authorizing such acquisition for the purpose of supplying its inhabitants "and any other persons": Spear v. Bremerton, 90 Wash. 507, 156 Pac. 825.

Although by this chapter, a city in submitting the construction of a water system must apprise the taxpayers of the probable cost, the total expense which may be incurred is not limited to the estimated sum of $2,000,000, under the circumstances shown: State ex rel. Wright v. Tacoma, 92 Wash. 591, 159 Pac. 765.

The city charter of the city of Seattle, Article IV, section 18, providing that the city council shall have power to provide for the acquisition of waterworks, authorizes the council to provide therefor by ordinance, within the meaning of this section, where, in the city charter, adopted by a vote of the people, an article or provision had been adopted authorizing the city council to provide by ordinance for acquiring a utility: Shorts v. Seattle, 95 Wash. 531, 164 Pac. 239.

Whenever the city council or other corporate authorities of any such city or town shall deem it advisable that the city or town of which they are officers shall purchase, acquire or construct any public utility mentioned in section 9488 hereof or make any additions and betterments thereto or extensions thereof, the common council or other corporate authorities shall provide therefor by ordinance, which shall specify and adopt the system or plan proposed, and declare the estimated cost thereof as near as may be, and the same shall be submitted for ratification or rejection to the qualified voters of said city at the general or special election, except in the following cases where no submission shall be necessary:

(1) When the work proposed is an addition to, or betterment of, or extension of, or an increased water supply for, existing waterworks, or an addition, betterment or extension of an existing system or plant of any other public utility mentioned in section 9488 hereof, for which no general indebtedness is to be incurred by such city or town: Provided, such undertaking shall have been authorized by the common council of such city or town prior to July 1, 1910; or

(2) Where in any charter of any city or town in the state of Washington heretofore or hereafter adopted by a vote of the people, an article or provision has been adopted authorizing the city council or other corporate authorities of such city to provide by ordinance for acquiring, opening or operating any of said public utilities, for which no general indebtedness is to be incurred, by such city or town. If a general indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount of such indebtedness and the terms thereof shall be included in the proposition submitted to the qualified voters as aforesaid and such proposition shall be adopted and assented to by three-fifths of the qualified voters of the said city or town voting at said election. If no general indebtedness is to be incurred such proposition may be adopted by a majority vote. Ten days' notice of such election shall be given in the newspaper doing the city or town printing, by publication in each issue of said paper during said time. Whenever a proposition has been adopted as aforesaid or in the cases mentioned in subdivisions first and second of this section where no submission shall be necessary the common council or other corporate authorities of such city or town shall have power to proceed forthwith to purchase, construct and acquire the public utility contemplated or to make additions, betterments and extensions thereto and to make payment therefor as hereinafter provided in section 9490 and section 9491. [L. '09, p. 582, § 2. Cf. L. '90, p. 520, § 2; L. '91, p. 326, § 1; 1 H. C., § 697; L. '93, p. 12, § 2; L. '97, p. 327, § 2; L. '01, p. 177, § 1.]

It seems that "subdivision 2" in fact ends with the first sentence, and a paragraph at that point was intended.

An ordinance submitting to the electors a bond issue for the acquisition of waterworks is not objectionable in that it is not a positive declaration upon the part of the city, but is made dependent upon a subsequent ratification by a vote of the people, where this section requires the same to be so submitted and ratified: Uhler v. Olympia, 87 Wash. 1, 151 Pac. 117, 152 Pac. 998.

The statute authorizing a city to condemn waterworks under the special fund plan, to be paid for out of the gross revenues of the system, does not allow the system to be used as a money-making venture, the citizen being entitled to the best possible service at the lowest possible price: Uhler v. Olympia, 87 Wash. 1, 151 Pac. 117, 152 Pac. 998.

A charter provision authorizing the acquisition of a public utility is not invalid because its provisions are not couched in the same terms as found in this section, where it cannot be said that the charter does not meet the requirements of the statute: Shorts v. Seattle, 95 Wash. 538, 164 Pac. 241.

Under this section, providing that the plan of a proposed municipal indebtedness to be submitted to the voters of the city shall include the amount of the indebtedness and the terms thereof, a bond issue is invalid where the proposition submitted did not, either as set out in the ordinance, as published in the notice of election, or as printed on the ballots, contain any statement as to the time the bonds would run nor the interest they were to bear: State ex rel. Ellensburg v. Clausen, 87 Wash. 111, 151 Pac. 251.

Proposition submitted to people with reference to erection or purchase of a public utility as a single or double proposition. 5 A. L. R. 538.

Whenever the qualified voters of any such city or town shall have heretofore adopted or shall hereafter adopt a proposition for any public utility as aforesaid, and shall have authorized a general indebtedness, general city or town bonds may be issued as hereinafter provided. Said bonds shall be registered or coupon bonds, shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred, or more than one thousand dollars; shall be numbered from one up consecutively; shall bear the date of their issue; shall be payable not more than twenty years from date; and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, with interest coupons attached, and the principal and interest shall be made payable at such place as may be designated. The bonds and each coupon shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk under the seal of the city or town. There shall be levied each year a tax upon the taxable property of such city or town, as the case may be, sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds as the same accrue, and before seven years prior to the maturity thereof, an annual sinking fund sufficient for the payment of said bonds at maturity, which taxes shall become due and collectible as other taxes. Said bonds shall be printed and engraved, or lithographed, on good bond paper, and a duly authenticated copy of this act, together with the ordinance of the city or town directing the submission of such plan or system to the qualified voters of such city or town for ratification or rejection shall be printed on each bond, together with a printed copy of a signed statement by the mayor and clerk showing the result of said election. Such bonds shall be sold in such manner as the corporate authorities shall deem for the best interests of the city or town. A register shall be kept of all the bonds, which register shall show the number, date, amount, interest, to whom delivered—if coupon bonds—and the name of the payee—if registered bonds; and when and where payable, and each and every bond executed, issued or sold under the provisions of this subdivision.

The total indebtedness incurred under the authority of this act, added to all other indebtedness of such city or town at any time outstanding, shall not exceed five per centum of the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained in the case of towns by the last assessment for state and county purposes, and in the case of cities by the last assessment for city purposes, previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, however, that any such city or town may become indebted to a larger amount, but not exceeding five per centum additional, for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light and sewers when works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipality. [L. '09, p. 583, § 3.]

Under this section, requiring a town to sell bonds issued for the purpose of purchasing waterworks, as deemed for the best interests of the town, the town has no authority to issue bonds and deliver them to bankers who advanced the money to purchase the waterworks at the special instance and request of the town: Hansasard v. Green, 54 Wash. 161, 103 Pac. 40, 132 Am. St. Rep. 1107, 24 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1273.

Under this section, providing that general fund bonds may be sold in such manner as the corporate authorities shall deem best, a city may provide, in letting a contract for waterworks, that the bonds may be delivered to the contractor in payment for the work; such a transaction being a "sale" within the meaning of the act: Washington-Oregon Corporation v. Chehalis, 76 Wash. 442, 136 Pac. 681.

A proposition for a bond issue by a city submitted to the voters thereof, in which the bond interest was stated as "at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum," following the language of this section, is sufficient without fixing a definite rate of interest, as such bonds are the subject of competitive bids in the open market and it is common practice for a bidder to state the rate of interest which he is willing to accept: Schooley v. Chehalis, 84 Wash. 667, 147 Pac. 410.

Under the statute requiring cities to issue and sell its bonds or warrants in payment for a public utility "bearing interest at a rate not exceeding six per cent per annum," the city cannot issue bonds of the face value of $90,000, bearing interest at six per cent, and pay to the purchaser the sum of $4,500 out of the general fund (as a commission), under the pretense of meeting incidental expenses of the issue; since the same is plainly a device to pay a greater sum for the use of the money loaned than the statute permits: Uhler v. Olympia, 87 Wash. 1, 151 Pac. 117, 152 Pac. 998.

Whenever the qualified voters of any such city or town shall have heretofore adopted or shall hereafter adopt a proposition for any public utility as heretofore provided and either no general indebtedness shall have been authorized or the common council or other corporate authorities shall not desire to incur a general indebtedness, and whenever the common council or other corporate authorities of any such city or town shall be authorized to exercise any of the powers conferred by section 9488 hereof without submitting any proposition as provided in subdivision first and second of section 9489 hereof, the common council or other corporate authorities shall have power to create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of defraying the cost of such public utility or addition, betterment or extension thereto, into which special fund or funds the common council or other corporate authorities of such city or town may obligate and bind the city or town to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of such public utility, or any fixed amount out of and not exceeding a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, and to issue and sell bonds or warrants bearing interest not exceeding six per centum per annum, payable semi-annually, executed in such manner and payable at such times and places as the common council or other corporate authorities of such city or town shall determine, but such bonds or warrants and the interest thereon shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds. In creating any such special fund or funds the common council or other corporate authorities of such city or town shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to, and to any proportion or part of the revenue previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds, warrants, or other indebtedness, and shall not set aside into such special fund a greater amount or proportion of the revenue and proceeds than in their judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenue so previously pledged. Any such bonds or warrants and interests thereon issued against any such fund as herein provided shall be a valid claim of the holder thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such city or town within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond or warrant shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the said fund and the ordinance creating it. Said bonds and warrants shall be sold in such manner as the corporate authorities shall deem for the best interests of the city or town, and the corporate authorities may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement that payment therefor shall be made only in such bonds and warrants at par value thereof.

When any such special fund shall have been heretofore or hereafter created and any such obligation shall have been heretofore or shall hereafter be issued against the same, a fixed proportion, or a fixed amount out of and not exceeding such fixed proportion, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, of revenue shall be set aside and paid into said special fund as provided in the ordinance creating such fund, and in case any city or town shall fail to thus set aside and pay said fixed proportion or amount as aforesaid, the holder of any bond or warrant against such special fund may bring suit or action against the city or town and compel such setting aside and payment. [L. '09, p. 584, § 4.]

Municipal bonds sold at a discount which would result in greater interest than six per cent are not usurious: Cuddy v. Sturtevant, 111 Wash. 304, 190 Pac. 909.

In view of this section, the city of Seattle has power, under its charter passed in conformity to such general law, to create a local assessment district for the purpose of laying a water-main and charge the cost thereof against property owners according to benefits to their real property in such district: Smith v. Seattle, 25 Wash. 300, 65 Pac. 612.

The provisions in a city charter that public utility bonds shall be payable serially in such amounts, and at such times as may be agreed upon, between the tenth and fortieth years after the date of issuance, conflicts with this section, which provides that the bonds shall be executed in such manner and payable at such times as the common council shall determine, and this discretion, having been vested in the city council, cannot be controlled or circumscribed by the charter: Shorts v. Seattle, 95 Wash. 538, 164 Pac. 241.

Where the city charter relating to municipal water bonds contains no limitations as to the maturity of bonds payable solely from the earnings of public utilities, the city council has power to fix the date of their maturity, under this section: Shorts v. Seattle, 95 Wash. 531, 164 Pac. 239.

A proposition for the issuance of bonds for the purchase and maintenance of a water system is not illegal as contemplating the use of the proceeds of the bonds for maintenance purposes, in violation of the provision of this section, which provides that the maintenance of such a system shall be paid out of the revenues of the plant, since it will not be presumed that the city will do an illegal act, or that it will not perform its duty by fixing rates so as to maintain the plant from its revenues: Schooley v. Chehalis, 84 Wash. 667, 147 Pac. 410.

Where a city water system was to be paid for by an issue of $70,000 in general bonds of the city, and the balance, estimated at $115,000, by special water fund bonds payable out of the revenues of the water system, a special fund created to take care of the matter, by the payment of a fixed sum each month out of the revenues of the plant, is not invalid from the fact that such monthly payments are to be made from a collection fund having in it other moneys than revenues from the plant, where such revenues can be readily segregated, and the special fund was created in all respects as required by this section: Washington-Oregon Corporation v. Chehalis, 76 Wash. 442, 136 Pac. 681.

Under this section, special fund utility bonds calling for five per cent interest semi-annually may be sold by the city at a discount that would yield six per cent interest, in the absence of any statute prohibiting sales at less than par: Hill v. Seattle, 108 Wash. 572, 185 Pac. 631.

Such sales at less than par are not prohibited by the latter part of such section, which provides that the contract for the improvement may provide for payment only in bonds and warrants at par: Hill v. Seattle, 108 Wash. 572, 185 Pac. 631.

Sales of five per cent below par so as to net six per cent per annum does not violate this section, providing that the rate of interest shall not exceed six per cent per annum payable semi-annually: Hill v. Seattle, 108 Wash. 572, 185 Pac. 631.

The objection to such a sale that the discount is payable in a lump sum, and violates the statute requiring semi-annual payments, is technical and goes largely to the form of the bonds: Hill v. Seattle, 108 Wash. 572, 185 Pac. 631.

In all cases where the qualified electors of any city or town have heretofore, at any election, ratified any plan or system of any public utility mentioned in section 9488 of this code, and shall have authorized a general indebtedness of such city or town and the issuance of bonds therefor, or the creation of a special fund or funds out of the revenues of the public utility the plan or system of which was so ratified, and the issuance of bonds or warrants payable only out of such fund or funds; and pursuant to such authorization or ratification a general indebtedness shall have been incurred or authorized to be incurred, and bonds or other obligations issued or contracted to be issued or authorized to be issued, or a special fund or funds shall have been created out of the revenue of any such public utility by pledging or setting aside a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount out of and not exceeding a fixed proportion or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, and bonds or warrants payable either upon the call of such city or town or at a fixed date, but only out of such special fund or funds, issued or contracted to be issued, or authorized to be issued, or a contract or contracts for the purchase, construction, acquisition, improvement, betterment, or addition to such public utility entered into; such general indebtedness, bonds or other obligations, contracts, special funds, and bonds or warrants, payable out of such special funds, and all proceedings relating thereto, are hereby ratified, confirmed and validated; and any bonds or other obligations constituting a general indebtedness, or bonds or warrants payable out of such special funds heretofore so authorized, may be hereafter issued or sold as if all of said proceedings were taken pursuant to and under the authority of this chapter, and in full compliance therewith. [L. '09, p. 586, § 5. Cf. L. '97, p. 330, § 3.]

Whenever any city, excepting cities of the first class, or town owning or operating any public utility mentioned in section 9488, shall have heretofore issued and has outstanding any warrants drawn upon any special fund or funds derived from the earnings of and maintained for such public utility, issued for any extension to, or betterment, or enlargement of the plant or system of such utility, or issued for the maintenance or operating expenses of such utility by reason of the fact that the funds derived from the earnings of such utility have been expended in constructing such extensions, betterments or enlargements, and the said extension to, betterment or enlargement shall not have been fully authorized by the electors of said city or town, said warrants and the indebtedness for which the same were issued, may be validated, ratified and funded, and the bonds of such city or town, or bonds payable out of the gross revenues of such public utility issued and exchanged therefor, or sold and the proceeds applied to the payment thereof in the manner hereinafter provided. [L. '15, p. 648, § 1.]

§ 9494. [8009-2.] Bond Issue for General Indebtedness—Gross Earnings.

The council, commission or other legislative authority of such city or town shall provide by ordinance for the submission of the questions of validating, ratifying and funding such warrants and indebtedness, and the issue and the exchange or sale of bonds therefor to the qualified voters of said city or town in the same manner prescribed in section 9489, for submitting the question of incurring indebtedness. If a general indebtedness is authorized by the qualified voters, general city or town bonds may be issued in the manner prescribed in section 9490. If no general indebtedness is authorized by the qualified voters, or if the legislative authorities shall not desire to incur a general indebtedness, bonds payable out of the gross earnings of such utility may be issued in the manner prescribed in section 9491. No irregularity in the form of any such warrants or in their manner of issue, shall be deemed to preclude such city or town from acting under the provisions of this act. [L. '15, p. 649, § 2.]

§ 9495. [8010-8.] Acquisition of Water Systems.

That any city or town within the state, other than cities of the first class, situated within the limits of any irrigation project, owned or operated by the United States government, any water users' association, private individuals or corporation, or any other city or town where the council may deem it feasible to furnish water for irrigation and domestic purposes, and where the water used for irrigation and domestic purposes is appurtenant or may become appurtenant to the land located within the limits of any such city or town be, and hereby is authorized to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire water, water rights or additional water rights for the purpose of furnishing said city or town and the inhabitants thereof with a supply of water for irrigation and domestic purposes; to purchase, construct or otherwise acquire systems and means of distribution and delivery of such water within and without the limits of such city or town, or for the delivery of water where the owner of land within such city or town owns a water right appurtenant to his land, with full power to maintain, repair, reconstruct, regulate and control the same, and if private property be necessary for such purposes, such city or town may condemn and purchase or purchase and acquire such property, to enter into any contract and to order any and all work to be done which shall be necessary to carry out such purposes, and it may do so either by the entire city or town or by assessment districts, consisting of the whole or any portion thereof, as the council of said city or town may determine. [L. '15, p. 318, § 1.]

§ 9496. [8010-9.] Special Assessments—Acquisition and Maintenance.

That for the purpose of paying the cost of purchasing a water right or additional water right, paying for a water right or an additional water right heretofore contracted to be purchased by the city or town from the United States government where the purchase price for said water right has not been fully paid, paying annual maintenance or annual rental charge to the United States government or other corporation or individual furnishing the water for irrigation and domestic purposes, paying assessments made by any water users' association, paying the cost and expense of constructing or otherwise acquiring any system or means of distribution or delivery of water for said purposes, the up-keep, repair, reconstruction, operation and maintenance thereof and any expense incidental to said purposes, such city or town be, and hereby is authorized to levy and collect special assessments and taxes to pay the whole or any part of the cost and expense of any such improvement. [L. '15, p. 319, § 2.]

All assessments and special taxes provided for in this act shall be levied and assessed upon the several parcels of land located within the local improvement district in accordance to the special benefits conferred on such property in proportion to the surface area, one square foot of surface to be the unit of assessment: Provided, that where the water right or additional water right shall be purchased or acquired or a special improvement shall be made for a portion of any district, then and in that event the cost of such water right or the cost of such special improvement shall be levied and assessed in the same manner upon such portion of said district as shall be specially benefited thereby: And provided further, that whenever a special improvement shall be constructed for a portion of any district, the land assessed for the cost of such special improvement shall be entitled to an equitable reduction in the annual assessments in proportion to the reduced cost of operation on account of the construction of said improvement. [L. '15, p. 319, § 3.]

§ 9498. [8010-11.] Districts of Noncontiguous Territory—Bonds.

One local improvement district may be established for any or all of the purposes embraced in this act even though the area assessed for such purposes may not coincide or be contiguous: Provided, that whenever the council shall decide to construct a special improvement in a distribution system, a separate local improvement district may be formed for such portion and bonds may be issued for the same as provided in the general local improvement law. [L. '15, p. 320, § 4.]

Whenever any such city or town shall make local improvements for the purposes herein provided, the proceedings relative to the creation of districts, levying and collecting assessments and all other procedure shall be had, and the council of such city or town is hereby authorized to proceed in accordance with all the provisions of sections 9352 to 9425, both inclusive, of this code, and any statute which may be enacted relative to local improvements, in so far as the same is not inconsistent with this act: Provided, that when such improvement or improvements shall be initiated upon petition, such petition shall set forth the fact that the signers are the owners according to the records in the office of the county auditor, of property to an aggregate amount of a majority of the surface area within the limits of the assessment district to be created therefor: Provided further, that when such assessment is made for any other purpose or purposes than the construction or reconstruction of any system or means of distribution or delivery of water, it shall not be necessary for the council to be furnished with a statement of the aggregate assessed valuation of the real estate exclusive of improvements in said district according to the valuation last placed upon it for purposes of general taxation, nor the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by each lot, tract, or parcel of land or other property, but a statement by the engineer or other officer, showing the estimated cost of such improvement per square foot, shall be deemed sufficient: Provided further, that when an assessment-roll is once prepared and does not include the cost of purchase, construction or reconstruction of works of delivery or distribution and the council of such city or town shall decide to raise a similar amount the ensuing year, it shall not be necessary to prepare a new assessment-roll, but the council may pass a resolution of intention estimating the cost for the ensuing year to be the same as the preceding year, and directing the clerk to give notice stating the estimated cost per square foot of all land within the district and refer persons interested to the books of the treasurer. The treasurer shall be present at the hearing and shall note any changes or corrections on his books. The council shall have the same right to make changes or corrections in said assessment-roll as in an original assessment, and after all changes and corrections have been made the council shall, by ordinance, confirm said assessment and direct the treasurer to extend the same on the books of his office. [L. '15, p. 320, § 5.]

§ 9500. [8010-13.] Council Defined.

Whenever the word council is used in this act, it shall be construed to mean the council or other legislative body of such city or town. [L. '15, p. 321, § 6.]

§ 9501. [8010-14.] Repealing and Saving Clause.

Sections 8010-1 to 8010-7, both inclusive, of Rem. & Bal. Code are hereby repealed: Provided, that all actions and proceedings, which may be pending in any court under said law, and any proceedings under said law commenced by any city or town before the taking effect of this act, shall proceed without being in any manner affected by the passage of this act. [L. '15, p. 321, § 7.]

§ 9502. Operation of Waterworks Beyond City Limits.

Whenever any city or town in the state of Washington owns or has acquired, or may hereafter become the owner of or acquire any water utility, and shall desire to extend such utility beyond its corporate limits, it shall be lawful for such city or town to acquire, make, build, construct and maintain such extension, and to sell, dispose of and distribute its product or service to any other municipality, or to any person, firm or corporation, desiring to purchase the same. Such portion of such public utility that extends beyond the corporate limits of any city, shall be operated at such prices, and under such rules and regulations, as may be prescribed by the public service commission: Provided, however, the rights and obligations of existing franchises shall be maintained by the owner of such public utility: Provided further, that all cities and towns are hereby authorized to purchase, own and control franchises and distributing systems of water in other cities and towns. [L. '17, p. 38, § 1.]

§ 9503. Validation of Bonds for Public Utilities.

Whenever any city or town has heretofore issued or authorized to be issued by such vote of its electors as is required by law at any election duly and legally held to vote on such proposition, such utility bonds for the purpose of purchasing, paying for or acquiring any such utility as is described in this act, in every such case such utility bonds are hereby declared to be legal and valid, and such city or town is hereby authorized and empowered to proceed to issue and negotiate such bonds and to continue and conclude proceedings for the purchase or acquisition of such utility, and is hereby given full power to maintain and operate the same within all and every part of such contiguous territory whether incorporated or unincorporated. [L. '17, p. 39, § 2.]

§ 9504. Taxes Due on Purchased Plant, How Paid.

Whenever bonds have been authorized for the purchase of such utility as set forth in paragraph one herein, and such purchase price fails to include taxes which may or shall become due on any such utility, subsequent to the date of the election at which such bonds were authorized, then such taxes or the amount thereof may be paid by the said purchasing municipality in addition to the maximum sum authorized in the ordinance or proposition theretofore submitted to the electors and approved by them, without resubmitting to said electors the said proposition to pay said taxes or to purchase said plant at such increased cost; such additional sum for taxes may be paid by such utility out of the revenue of such system by issuing and negotiating water fund warrants against the revenue of such system, or in such manner as is authorized by law. [L. '17, p. 39, § 3.]

"Paragraph one herein," see § 9502, supra.

CHAPTER XXX.

DISPOSAL OF UTILITIES.

§ 9505. [8011.] Sale or Lease of--Authority Conferred.

Whenever any city or town in this state shall have purchased or constructed a system of waterworks, or a gas or electric light works, it shall be lawful for such city or town to sell such waterworks, or gas or electric light works, or to lease the same for a term of years, in the manner hereinafter prescribed. [L. '97, p. 297, § 1.]

The council of such city or town shall ascertain, and by resolution declare, that the system of waterworks, or gas or electric light works, which it is proposed to sell or lease, cannot be operated by such city or town, so as to repay the cost and expense of operation, and interest on the capital invested therein, and the necessary depreciation thereof, and that the same is, or threatens to become, a burdensome charge upon the taxpayers of such city or town. [L. '97, p. 297, § 2.]

§ 9507. [8013.] Disposition of Plant.

After the passage of such resolution, and at any time before the next general election of officers for such city or town, it shall be lawful for the legislative authority of such city or town, by ordinance, to provide for the lease of such waterworks, or gas or electric light works, upon such terms and conditions as such ordinance may prescribe, and after the passage of such resolution, the legislative authority of such city or town shall, by ordinance, submit to the qualified electors thereof at the general city election, the question whether such waterworks, or gas or electric light works shall be sold or not; and if at such election a majority of said electors voting upon said question shall vote in the affirmative, it shall be lawful for such legislative authority to provide for the sale of, and to sell such waterworks, or gas or electric light works, upon such terms and conditions as such ordinance may prescribe. [L. '97, p. 298, § 3.]

§ 9508. [8014.] Confirmation of Former Sales or Leases.

Whereas, certain cities and towns in this state have heretofore sold or leased their waterworks and electric light works, all such sales and leases are hereby ratified and confirmed in so far, only, as that no question as to the validity of such sales or leases shall be hereafter raised upon the ground that at the date of such sales or leases there was no lawful authority for the making of the same in the charter of such city or town. [L. '97, p. 298, § 4.]

§ 9509. [8015.] Sale of Street Railway Lines Authorized.

It is and shall be lawful for any city or town in this state to sell and convey any line or lines of street railway, or street railway plant or plants with the equipment and appurtenances, of which any such city or town may be the owner, in the manner hereinafter prescribed. [L. '07, p. 166, § 1.]

§ 9510. [8016.] Vote on Question.

Whenever the council of such city or town shall deem it advisable to sell any such line or lines of street railway, or street railway plant or plants, with the equipment and appurtenances, such council shall, by ordinance, submit to the qualified electors of such city or town at any general or special city election the question whether such line or lines of street railway, or street railway plant or plants, with the equipment and appurtenances, shall be sold or not upon the terms and conditions to be specified in such ordinance; and if at such election three-fifths of said electors voting upon said question shall vote in the affirmative, it is and shall be lawful for such council to provide for the sale of, and to sell and cause to be conveyed any such line or lines of street railway, or street railway plant or plants, with the equipment and appurtenances, upon the terms and conditions mentioned in such ordinance. [L. '07, p. 166, § 2.]

§ 9511. [8017.] Validation of Prior Sales.

All sales and agreements of sale of any such line or lines of street railway, or street railway plant or plants, with the equipment and appurtenances, heretofore made or attempted to be made, by any such city or town, and all deeds and instruments of conveyance heretofore executed and delivered, or tendered, in behalf of any such city or town, for the purpose of carrying any such sale into effect, by authority of an ordinance of any such city or town, where the question whether such sale should be made was previously submitted to the qualified electors of such city or town in the manner provided in section 9510, and three-fifths of said electors voting upon such question voted in the affirmative, are hereby ratified and approved, and declared to have the same validity and effect as if this act had been in force at and prior to the time of the submission of such question to the qualified voters and the carrying out of the other proceedings concerning such sale, and at and prior to the time of the making of such sales and the execution and delivery, or tender, of such deeds or instruments of conveyance; and any such sale or agreement of sale heretofore made or attempted to be made as aforesaid may be completed by the proper officers of such city or town with the same effect as if all the proceedings heretofore had and taken were had and taken after the passage of this act. [L. '07, p. 167, § 3.]

§ 9512. Sale or Lease of Public Utilities.

It is and shall be lawful for any city or town in this state now or hereafter owning any water works, gasworks, electric light and power plant, steam plant, street railway line, street railway plant, telephone or telegraph plant and lines, or any system embracing all or any one or more of such works or plants or any similar or dissimilar utility or system, to lease for any term of years or to sell and convey the same or any part thereof, with the equipment and appurtenances, in the manner hereinafter prescribed. [L. '17, p. 573, § 1.]

§ 9513. Resolutions Proposing Sale or Lease—Notice—Bids—Referendum.

The legislative authority of such city or town, if it deems it advisable to lease or sell such works, plant or system or any part of the same, or any similar or dissimilar utility or system, shall adopt a resolution stating whether it desires to lease or sell the same. If it desires to lease, the resolution shall state the general terms and conditions of such lease, but not the rent. If it desires to sell the general terms of sale shall be stated, but not the price. The resolution shall direct the city or town clerk, or other proper official, to publish such resolution not less than once a week for four weeks in the official newspaper of the city or town if there be such an official newspaper, or if there be none then in any newspaper published in such city or town, or if there be none then in any newspaper published in the county in which such city or town is located, together with a notice calling for sealed bids to be filed with such clerk or other proper official not later than a certain time, accompanied by a certified check payable to the order of such city or town, for such amount as the resolution shall require, or a deposit of a like sum in money. Each bid shall state that the bidder agrees that if his bid be accepted and he fails to comply therewith within the time hereinafter specified, such check or deposit shall be forfeited to the city or town. If bids for a lease be called for bidders shall bid the amount to be paid as the rent for each year of the term of the lease. If bids for a sale and conveyance be called for the bids shall state the price offered. The legislative authority of the city or town shall have the right to reject any or all bids and to accept any bid which it deems best. At the first meeting of the legislative authority of the city or town held after the expiration of the time fixed for receiving bids, or at some later meeting if such legislative authority so decides, the bids shall be considered. In order for such legislative authority to declare it advisable to accept any bid it shall be necessary for two-thirds of all the members elected to such legislative authority to vote in favor of a resolution making such declaration. If such resolution be so adopted it shall be necessary, in order that such bid be accepted, to enact an ordinance accepting such bid and directing the execution of a lease or conveyance by the mayor and city clerk or other proper official. Such ordinance shall not take effect until it shall have been submitted to the voters of such city or town for their approval or rejection at the next general election or at a special election called for that purpose, and a majority of the voters voting thereon shall have approved such ordinance. If approved it shall take effect as soon as the result of such vote be proclaimed by the mayor. If it be so submitted and fail to receive the approval of a majority of the voters voting thereon, it shall be rejected and annulled. It shall be the duty of the mayor to proclaim such vote as soon as it shall be properly certified. [L. '17, p. 573, § 2.]

§ 9514. Execution of Lease or Conveyance—Acceptance.

Upon the taking effect of any such ordinance the mayor and the city clerk or other proper official shall execute, in the name and on behalf of the city or town, the lease or conveyance directed by such ordinance. The lessee or grantee shall accept and execute the same within ten days after notice of its execution by the city or town or forfeit to the city or town the amount of the check or special deposit accompanying the bid of such lessee or grantee: Provided, that if litigation in good faith be instituted within such ten days to determine the rights of the parties, no forfeiture shall take place unless such lessee or grantee fail for five days after the termination of such litigation in favor of the city or town to accept and execute such lease or conveyance. [L. '17, p. 575, § 3.]

CHAPTER XXXI.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT BONDS.

§ 9515. [8018.] Bonds for Local Improvements Authorized.

Whenever any city shall have power and authority vested in it by its charter or by any law of the state to order or cause the whole or any part of the streets, lanes, alleys, squares or public places of such city to be graded, regraded, planked, replanked, graveled, regraveled, piled, repiled, paved, repaved, macadamized, remacadamized, capped, recapped or to order or cause sidewalks, sewers, manholes, culverts, curbs, gutters, water-mains, or crosswalks to be constructed or to order or cause to be made any local improvements whatever, and to levy and collect assessments upon the property benefited thereby or abutting, adjoining, contiguous or approximate thereto, to defray the whole or any portion of the cost and expense of any such improvement, the proper authorities of such city may, in their discretion, provide for the payment of the cost and expense of such improvement by bonds of the district which shall include the property liable to assessment for the payment of the cost and expense of such improvement according to the charter of such city, issued to the contractor, or by the proceeds of such bonds to be issued and sold as hereinafter provided. [L. '99, p. 234, § 1.]

It was considered that this chapter supersedes L. '93, p. 231, §§ 1—5, except § 3, Bal. Code, §§ 1185—1189, as regards street improvement bonds, and except as expressly applied in later enactments: See infra, §§ 9529—9531 and notes.

See, also, note to § 9522.

Bonds for public utilities: See supra, § 9490, and notes.

Cited in 25 Wash. 300; 97 Wash. 196.

§ 9516. [8019.] Bonds—Issuance, Interest, Coupons, Payment, etc.

*Such bonds shall be issued only in pursuance of ordinances of the cities issuing the same, and by their terms shall be made payable on or before a date not to exceed ten years from and after the date of the issue of such bonds, which latter date may be fixed by resolution, by council or other legislative body of said city and shall bear such interest as may be provided in such ordinance, not exceeding eight per centum per annum, which interest shall be payable annually, or semi-annually, as may be provided by ordinance, and each bond shall have attached thereto interest coupons for each interest payment. Such bonds shall be in such denominations as shall be provided in the ordinance ordering their issue and shall be numbered from one upwards, consecutively, and each bond and coupon shall be signed by the mayor and attested by the clerk or comptroller of such city; Provided, however, that said coupons may in lieu of being so signed have printed thereon facsimile of the signatures of said officers and each bond shall have the seal of such city affixed thereto and shall refer to the improvement to pay for which the same shall be issued and to the ordinance ordering the same, each bond shall provide that the principal sum therein named, and the interest thereon, shall be payable out of the local improvement fund created for the payment of the cost and expense of such improvement, and not otherwise. Such bonds shall not be issued in any amount in excess of the cost and expense of the improvement. [L. '99, p. 235, § 2.]

§ 9517. [8020.] Bonds—Sale—Issuance to Contractor.

The bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter or such portion of such bonds as may remain unsold if same is ordered as hereinafter provided may be issued to the contractor constructing the improvement in payment thereof, or the ordinance directing the issue of such bonds may provide that the same may be sold by some duly authorized officer or officers of the city, in the manner prescribed therein, at not less than their par value and accrued interest, and that the proceeds thereof shall be applied in payment of the cost and expense of the improvement. [L. '99, p. 236, § 3.]

In all cases where any city shall issue bonds as provided in this chapter to pay the cost and expense of any local improvement, the said cost and expense shall be assessed against the lots and parcels of land, which under the provisions of law and the charter of such city, shall be liable therefor, but the ordinance levying such assessment shall declare that the sum charged thereby against each of such lots and parcels of land may be paid in equal annual installments; the number of which installments shall be equal to the number of years which the bonds issued to pay for the improvement may run, with interest upon the whole sum so charged at a rate fixed by said ordinance, and each year thereafter one of such installments together with the interest due thereon and on all installments thereafter to become due shall be collected in the same manner as shall be provided by law and the charter and ordinances of such city for the collection of assessments for such improvements in cases where no bonds are issued. [L. '99, p. 236, § 4.]

Municipal Bonds in General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 517—534, and cases cited.

§ 9519. [8022.] Removal of Lien by Payment in Full.

The owner of any lot or parcel of land charged with any such assessments may redeem the same from all liability for the contract price of such improvement by paying the entire assessment charged against such lot or parcel of land, without interest, within thirty days after notice to him of such assessment, which notice shall be given as follows: The city treasurer shall, as soon as the assessment-roll has been placed in his hands for collection, publish a notice in the official newspaper of the city for ten consecutive daily or two consecutive weekly issues, that the said roll is in his hands for collection and that any assessment therein may be paid at any time within thirty days from the date of the first publication of said notice without penalty, interest or cost. The bonds herein provided for shall not be issued prior to twenty days after the expiration of the thirty days above mentioned, but may be issued at any time thereafter. The owner of any such lot or parcel of land may redeem the same from all liability for said assessment at any time after said thirty days by paying the entire installments of said assessment remaining unpaid and charged against such lot or parcel at the time of such payment, with interest thereon to the date of the maturity of the installment next falling due. In all cases where any assessment or any installment thereof is paid as herein provided the same shall be paid to the city treasurer, or to the officer whose duty it is to collect said assessments, and all sums so paid shall be applied solely to the payment of the cost and expense of such improvements or the redemption of the bonds issued therefor. [L. '99, p. 236, § 5.]

Power to Issue: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 517, and cases cited.

Payment and Interest: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 533, and cases cited.

Where the purchaser of lots sold for street assessments fails to give the owner constructive notice by the payment of subsequent taxes, the owner may redeem the same at any time as though no sale had been made, under this section: Loeb v. Asberry, 44 Wash. 427, 87 Pac. 510.

§ 9520. [8023.] Foreclosure of Liens by Bondholders.

If the city shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay said bonds or to promptly collect any of such assessments when due, the owner of any such bonds may proceed in his own name to collect such assessment and foreclose the lien thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover in addition to the amount of such bonds and interest thereon, five per centum, together with the cost of such suit. Any number of holders of such bonds for any single improvement may join as plaintiffs and any number of owners of the property on which the same are a lien may be joined as defendants in such suit. [L. '99, p. 237, § 6.]

§ 9521. [8024.] Bonds—Payment of Interest—Calls for.

The city treasurer shall pay the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued by this chapter out of the respective local improvement funds from which they are payable. Whenever there shall be sufficient money in any local improvement fund against which bonds have been issued under the provisions of this act, over and above sufficient for the payment of interest on all unpaid bonds, to pay the principal of one or more bonds, the treasurer shall call in and pay such bonds: Provided, that such bonds shall be called in and paid in their numerical order: Provided, further, that such call shall be made by publication in the city official newspaper on the day following the delinquency of the installment of the assessment or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall state that bonds No. — (giving the serial number or numbers of the bonds called) will be paid on the day the next interest coupons on said bonds shall become due, and interest on said bonds shall cease upon such date. [L. '99, p. 238, § 7.]

Nothing herein shall be construed as repealing or modifying any existing law, manner or method for cities of the first class to issue bonds for local improvements, but shall be construed as an additional and concurrent power and authority. Any city whose charter provides for the issuance of bonds for local improvements, payable only from the proceeds of special assessments, is hereby authorized to issue such bonds in the manner provided in such charter, and the holder of any such bond shall look only to the fund provided by such assessment for the principal or interest of such bond. [L. '93, p. 235, § 4; L. '99, p. 238, § 8.]

A literal and comprehensive construction of this section seems to restrict its operation to laws or charters exclusively applicable to cities of the first class; and the intent to supersede §§ 9529—9531, as to all cities, seems clear from a comparison of the two acts, this section and Bal. Code, § 1188, being identical. See note to § 9515.

§ 9523. [8026.] Bonds not a Claim Against City.

Neither the holder nor owner of any bond issued under the authority of this chapter shall have any claim therefor against the city by which the same is issued, except from the special assessment made for the improvement for which such bond was issued, but his remedy in case of nonpayment, shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessments. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each bond so issued. [L. '99, p. 238, § 9.]

Cited in 97 Wash. 196, 198.

Where local improvement bonds were issued under ordinances and this section, the city council had no power to provide for their payment, in case of a deficit, by the creation of a local improvement district surplus fund, made up from the surplus moneys in the funds of improvement districts, the bonds to be assigned to the city, nor in any other way than as limited by law to the special assessments against the property: State ex rel. National Bank of Tacoma v. Tacoma, 97 Wash. 190, 166 Pac. 66.

§ 9524. [8027.] Certain Bonds may be Exchanged.

Whenever any city has heretofore issued bonds for the purpose of paying the cost and expense of local improvements, or has sold such bonds and paid such cost and expense from the proceeds thereof, such city may, with the consent of the holders of such bonds, exchange for them bonds authorized by this chapter. [L. '99, p. 239, § 10.]

Cities may pass general ordinances for the purpose of more effectually carrying this chapter into effect. [L. '99, p. 239, § 11.]

CHAPTER XXXII.

BONDS FOR WATERWORKS, ETC.

Query: Whether this chapter is not repealed by § 9488 to a certain extent at least.
Part of this chapter applicable to sewer bonds: See § 9529.

§ 9526. [8029.] May Construct by Entire City or District Assessment.

All cities and towns within the state, other than cities of the first class, where such cities are now empowered or may hereafter be empowered to construct waterworks for irrigation and domestic purposes, may do so either by the entire city or by assessment districts as the mayor and council of said city may determine. [L. '01, p. 238, § 1.]

§ 9527. [8030.] Adoption of Plans—Levy of Special Taxes.

Before letting any contract for the construction of any waterworks for irrigation and domestic purposes, the mayor and council shall by ordinance or resolution adopt the plans therefor and shall fix and establish the assessment districts, if the same is to be constructed at the expense of the district, and such cities and towns are hereby authorized to charge the expense of such waterworks for irrigation and domestic purposes to all the property included within such district which is contiguous or approximate to any streets in which any main pipe or lateral pipe of such waterworks for irrigation and domestic purposes, is to be placed, and to levy special taxes upon such property to pay therefor, which assessment and tax shall be levied in accordance with the last general assessment of the property within said district for city purposes. [L. '01, p. 239, § 2.]

§ 9528. [8031.] Method of Procedure.

The purpose of providing for, constructing and maintaining such waterworks for irrigation and domestic purposes and issuing bonds to pay therefor, such cities and towns are hereby authorized to proceed in all ways in accordance with, and apply all the provisions of the next three sections. [L. '01, p. 239, § 3.]

"The next three sections" substituted for the reference to the act of 1893.

§ 9529. [8032.] Installment Bonds—How Issued.

The mayor and council . . . may, in their discretion, provide for the payment of the costs and expenses thereof by installments, instead of levying the entire tax or special assessment for such costs at one time, and for such installments they may issue, in the name of such city, improvement bonds of the district, which shall include the adjoining, contiguous and approximate property liable to assessment for such local improvement according to the city charter, payable in installments of equal amounts each year, none of which bonds nor any of the installments thereof shall run longer than ten years, nor bear interest exceeding nine per centum per annum. Such bonds may be issued to the contractor constructing the improvement in payment thereof, or the mayor and council, or by charter and ordinance of said city, other authorized officer or officers of said city, may sell the same at not less than their par value, net, and pay the proceeds thereof to the contractor. Such bonds shall not be issued in amount in excess of the contract price of the work or improvement, except that the installment coupons shall include the interest on such installments to the maturity thereof. The bonds shall be of such denominations as the mayor and council shall deem proper. Where district bonds are issued under this chapter for improvements, the cost of which is by law charged by special assessment against specific property, the mayor and council or other authorized officer, board or body shall levy special assessments each year sufficient to redeem the installments of such bonds next thereafter maturing, but in computing the amount of special assessment to be levied against each piece of property liable therefor, interest thereon at a rate not exceeding nine per centum per annum from the date of the issuance of said bonds until the maturity of the installment of bonds next thereafter maturing. Such assessments shall be made upon the property chargeable for the cost of such improvements, respectively, and shall be levied and collected in the same manner as may be provided by law and the charter and ordinance of such city for the levy and collection of special assessments for such improvements where no bonds are issued, except as otherwise provided by this chapter. But the basis of such assessment, whether upon assessed valuation, frontage or otherwise liable for such costs, shall be retained for the assessment of succeeding installments of said bonds. The owner of any piece of property liable to any such special assessment may redeem his property from such liability by paying the entire assessment chargeable against his property (upon the city clerk mailing him a written or printed notice) thirty days before the issuance of the bonds, or after the issuance of the bonds by paying all the installments of the assessments which have been levied and also the amount of unlevied installments with interest on the latter at the rate of eight per centum per annum from the date of the issuance of the bonds to the time of maturity of the last installment. In all cases where installments of assessments not yet levied and paid as above provided, whether before or after the issuance of the bonds, the same shall be paid to the city treasurer, who shall receipt therefor, and all sums so paid shall be applied solely to the payment of such improvements or the redemption of the bonds issued therefor. Where any piece of property has been redeemed from liability for the cost of any improvement as herein provided, such property shall not thereafter be liable for further special assessment for the cost of such improvement except as hereinafter provided. No suit to set aside the said special assessment or to enjoin the making of the same shall be brought, nor any defense to the validity thereof be allowed after the expiration of thirty days from the time the amount due on each lot or piece of ground liable for such assessment is ascertained and confirmed by the council. The funds raised by such assessments shall be applied solely towards the redemption of said bonds. [L. '93, p. 231, § 1.]

"This chapter" refers only to the following sections of this chapter.

Part of this section is omitted. This section originally related to street improvements, and is superseded by §§ 9515—9525, supra, except as adopted in § 9528 for the issuance of water bonds. See, also, notes to §§ 9515, 9522.

§ 9530. [8033.] Bonds Issued to Contractor Transfers City's Lien.

Such bonds, when issued to the contractor constructing the improvement in payment therefor, or when sold as above provided, shall transfer to the contractor or other owner or holder all the right and interest of such city in and with respect to every such assessment, and the lien thereby created against the property of such owners assessed as shall not have availed themselves of the provisions of this chapter in regard to the redemption of their property as aforesaid, shall authorize said contractor and his assigns and the owners and holders of said bonds to receive, sue for and collect or have collected every such assessment embraced in any such bond by or through any of the methods provided by law for the collection of assessments for local improvements. And if the city shall fail, neglect, or refuse to pay said bonds, or to promptly collect any of such assessments when due, the owner of any such bonds may proceed in his own name to collect such assessment and foreclose the lien thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover in addition to the amount of such bonds and interest thereon, five per centum, together with the costs of such suit. Any number of holders of such bonds for any single improvement may join as plaintiffs, and any number of owners of the property on which the same are a lien may be joined as defendants in such suit. And such bonds shall be equal liens upon the property for the assessments represented by such bonds without priority of one over another to the extent of the several assessments against the several lots and parcels of land. [L. '93, p. 233, § 2.]

See notes to § 9529.

Under this section, moneys arising from an assessment to pay any installment coming due cannot be applied to the payment of bonds which have matured prior thereto and which remain partly unpaid by reason of failure to fully collect the assessments levied to meet them: Baker v. Meacham, 18 Wash. 319, 51 Pac. 404.

This section literally requires payment by a party wishing to redeem property from the lien of a local improvement bond, of the amount of principal and interest on all assessments, at the date of maturity of the last annual installment, which is in excess of the amount due on the bond, and as neither the bondholder nor the city would be entitled to the excess, and there is no provision made for its application except solely to the redemption of the bonds, the statute must be construed as entitling the owner to redeem upon payment of the principal and all interest, if payment were to be made annually: State ex rel. Embree v. Rathburn, 22 Wash. 651, 62 Pac. 85.

The holder of any bond issued under the authority of this chapter shall have no claim therefor against the city by which the same is issued, in any event, except from the collections of the special assessment made for the improvement for which such bond was issued, but his remedy, in case of no[n]payment, shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessments. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on the face of each bond so issued. [L. '93, p. 235, § 5.]

§ 9533. [8036.] Increased Indebtedness, Contracted How.

Any such city or town may borrow money or contract indebtedness for strictly municipal purposes over the amount specified in the preceding section, but not exceeding in amount, together with the existing general indebtedness, five per centum of the taxable property in such city or town, to be ascertained as provided in the preceding section, through the council of such city or town, whenever three-fifths of the voters therein assent thereto, at an election to be held for that purpose, at such time, upon such reasonable notice, and in the manner presented by the city or town council, not inconsistent with the general election laws. § 9535. [8038.] City or Town may Fund Its Indebtedness.

Any city or town of the description of those included in section 9532 may fund its indebtedness at any time, in such a manner, for such time, and upon such terms and interest as its council may deem advisable: Provided, that the indebtedness funded shall not, with all the existing indebtedness, exceed in amount one and one-half per centum of the taxable property, thereof, ascertained as provided in section 9532, unless such indebtedness shall have been authorized by the assent of three-fifths of the voters of such city or town, as hereinbefore provided. [L. '90, p. 226, § 4; 1 H. C., § 705.]

Any indebtedness now owing by any such city or town, contracted strictly for municipal purposes, whether the same exceeds the amount which such city or town was authorized to contract under its charter or not, is hereby validated and declared to be a binding obligation upon such city or town when the only ground of the invalidity of such indebtedness is that it exceeds the amount authorized by the charter of such city or town: Provided, that if said indebtedness exceeds one and one-half per centum, including present indebtedness, upon the taxable property therein, to be ascertained as hereinbefore provided, then such indebtedness shall not be deemed to be validated by this chapter till three-fifths of the voters in such city or town shall assent to the same, at an election held for that purpose, in the manner provided by section 9533: Provided further, that the indebtedness ratified, including all existing indebtedness, shall not exceed in amount five per centum upon the taxable property in such city or town, ascertained as hereinbefore indicated: And provided further, that this section shall only apply to indebtedness now existing. [L. '90, p. 226, § 5; 1 H. C., § 706.]

§ 9537. [8040.] Construction of Statute.

When this chapter comes in conflict with any provision, limitation, or restriction in any local or special law or charter existing at the time that the Constitution of the state of Washington was adopted, this statute shall govern and control. [L. '90, p. 227, § 6; 1 H. C., § 707.]

"Chapter" substituted for "act."

§ 9538. [8041.] Council may Contract Indebtedness, Limit of.

Each and every incorporated city or town in this state, and each and every city or town that may hereafter be incorporated in this state, is hereby authorized and empowered, by and through its council, to contract indebtedness or borrow money for strictly municipal purposes on the credit of such corporation, and to issue negotiable bonds therefor, whenever the council of such city or town deems it advisable, not exceeding an amount, together with the existing indebtedness of such city or town, of one and one-half per centum of the taxable property of such city or town, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city or town purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, however, that such council shall not create, audit, allow, nor permit to accrue any debts or liabilities in excess of such amount as hereinafter provided. [L. '91, p. 261, § 1; 1 H. C., § 708.]

See supra, § 5628, warrants when limit exceeded.

See supra, §§ 9488—9492, indebtedness for public utilities, a later enactment, with repealing clause.

This act, that of March 7, '91, embraced in §§ 9538—9549, both inclusive, does not apply to cities of the first class: See § 9549, infra.

§ 9539. [8042.] Excess may be Contracted, When and How.

Whenever the council of any such city or town shall deem it advisable that such city or town of which they are such officers shall, for strictly municipal purposes, create an indebtedness or borrow money, and issue its negotiable bonds therefor in an amount which, taken together with the existing indebtedness of such city or town, exceeds the amount specified in the preceding section, the council shall provide therefor by ordinance, which ordinance shall state the amount of such indebtedness so desired to be created, or the amount of money so desired to be borrowed, as the case may be, and the same shall be submitted for the ratification or rejection to the qualified electors of such city or town at a special election, of which fifteen days' notice shall be given in the paper doing the city printing, by publication in each issue of said paper during said time. [L. '91, p. 261, § 2; 1 H. C., § 709.]

See note to last section.

See supra, § 5624, borrowing in anticipation of revenue.

See supra, § 5626, temporary loans.

Said election shall be conducted consistent with the general election laws of this state. If the question submitted at such election be that of creating an indebtedness other than that of borrowing money, the ballots used shall contain, in substance, the following: "Shall the city of, or town of (as the case may be), for [here state purpose], incur an indebtedness of $——? Indebtedness, Yes. Indebtedness, No." The elector shall so prepare said ballot by striking therefrom the words "Indebtedness, Yes," or "Indebtedness, No," so that the remaining portion of said ballot shall express his vote on said question. If the question submitted at such election be that of borrowing money and issuing negotiable bonds therefor, the ballots used shall contain, in substance, the following: "Shall the city of, or town of (as the case may be), for municipal purposes, borrow $——, and issue its negotiable bonds therefor? Bonds, Yes. Bonds, No." The elector shall so prepare said ballot, by striking therefrom the words "Bonds, Yes," or "Bonds, No," so that the remaining portion of said ballot shall express his vote on said question. [L. '91, p. 261, § 3; 1 H. C., § 710.]

See supra, § 5610, election to determine validation.

See supra, notes to §§ 9536, 9537.

In General: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 490.

§ 9541. [8043-1.] Special Election—Time for Voting.

At any special election held in any city for the purpose of submitting to the qualified electors any proposition or propositions to incur municipal indebtedness and to issue negotiable bonds therefor, the polls shall open and close at the same hours fixed by the laws of the state of Washington for the opening and closing of the polls at elections where national, state, county or municipal officers are elected, any provision in the charter of any such city to the contrary notwithstanding. [L. '11, p. 110, § 1.]

§ 9542. [8044.] Bonds Issued, When—Limitation of Amount—Purpose.

If three-fifths of the legal ballots cast on said question of incurring such indebtedness be in favor of "Indebtedness, Yes," the council of such city or town must incur such indebtedness in due and legal form. If three-fifths of the legal ballots cast on said question of issuing bonds be in favor of "Bonds, Yes," said city or town shall be deemed to be authorized to borrow the amount of money so voted for, and issue its negotiable bonds therefor, and it shall be the duty of the council of such city or town so to do; subject, however, to the condition that the total indebtedness herein provided for shall not exceed in amount, together with the existing indebtedness of such city or town, five per centum of the taxable property of such city or town, to be ascertained by the last assessment of such city or town for city or town purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: And provided further, that no portion of the money by this act authorized to be borrowed shall ever be used for other than strictly municipal purposes. [L. '91, p. 262, § 4; 1 H. C., § 711.]

See supra, §§ 5617—5634, funding bonds, etc. .

See notes to §§ 9532, 9533, supra.

See note to § 9538, bonds for public utilities.

Amount and Purpose: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., §§ 487—489, 490, and cases cited.

§ 9543. [8045.] Amounts, Denominations, Interest, etc.

All bonds, whether issued by authority of the council alone, as in section 9538 such council is empowered to do, to the amount therein provided, or issued in pursuance of the special election herein provided for, shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars; shall be numbered from one up, consecutively; shall bear the date of their issue; shall be payable not more than twenty years from date, and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, with interest coupons attached, and the principal and interest shall be payable at such place as may be designated in said bonds. The bonds and each coupon shall be signed by the mayor, and attested by the clerk under the seal of the city or town. [L. '91, p. 262, § 5; 1 H. C., § 712.]

See note to last section.

§ 9544. [8046.] Preparation and Printing.

Said bonds shall be printed or engraved or lithographed on good bond paper, and a copy of this act, together with the ordinance of the city or town authorizing and directing such special election when such bonds are issued in pursuance of an election, shall be printed on each bond, together with a statement signed by the mayor and clerk of such city or town, showing the result of such election: Provided, that where bonds are issued by the council pursuant to section 9538, and without an election, a copy of this act, together with the ordinance authorizing the borrowing of such money and the issuing of such bonds, shall be printed on each bond; which ordinance shall contain a statement showing the assessed valuation of all the taxable property of such city or town, to be ascertained by the last assessment for city or town purposes previous to the date of the passage of such ordinance, together with the amount of the existing indebtedness of such city or town at the date of the passage of such ordinance, which indebtedness shall include the amount for which such bonds are issued, and also a statement signed by the mayor and clerk of such city or town showing that such ordinance was passed by the votes of at least four councilmen, and also the date of the approval and publication of such ordinance. [L. '91, p. 263, § 6; 1 H. C., § 713.]

See note to § 9538.

§ 9545. [8047.] Bonds, How to be Sold—Register of.

Such bonds shall be sold in such manner as the corporate authorities shall deem for the best interest of the city or town. The treasurer of such city or town shall keep a register of all bonds, which register shall show the number, date, amount, interest, name of payee, and when and where payable, of each and every bond executed, issued, or sold under the provisions of this act. [L. '91, p. 263, § 7; 1 H. C., § 714.]

See note to § 9538.

§ 9546. [8048.] Sinking Fund Tax.

There shall be levied each year upon the taxable property of such city or town, as the case may be, in addition to the tax for other purposes in said city or town, a tax sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds as the same accrues, and before seven years prior to the maturity thereof, an annual sinking fund tax sufficient for the payment of said bonds at maturity, which taxes shall become due and collectible as other taxes. [L. '91, p. 264, § 8; 1 H. C., § 715.]

See note to § 9538.

See supra, § 5635 et seq., funds in cities.

See supra, §§ 5637, 5638, tax levy for current expenses and indebtedness.

If the council of any city or town which has issued bonds under the provisions of this act shall fail, neglect, or refuse to make the levy necessary to pay the bonds and interest coupons at maturity, and the same shall have been presented to the treasurer of such city or town, and payment thereof refused because of such failure, neglect, or refusal to make such levy, the owner may file such bond, together with all unpaid coupons, with the auditor of the county, in which such city or town is situated, taking his receipt therefor, and the same shall be registered in the auditor's office of such county in like manner and form as the same was originally registered by the treasurer of the city or town issuing the same; and the county commissioners of such county shall, at their next session thereafter at which they shall levy the annual county tax, and each annual levy thereafter, add to the county tax to be levied in said city or town a sufficient rate to realize the amount of principal and interest past due and to become due prior to the next annual levy, and the same shall be collected as part of the county tax and paid into the county treasury and passed to the credit of such city as a bond tax, and shall be paid by the treasurer of the said county, on warrants drawn by the county auditor as the payments mature, to the holder of such bond, as shown by the register of the county auditor, until the same shall be fully satisfied and discharged: Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or postpone the right of any holder of any such bonds to resort to any other remedy which such holder might otherwise have. [L. '91, p. 264, § 9; 1 H. C., § 716.]

See note to § 9538.

§ 9548. [8050.] Construction of Chapter.

The provisions of this act shall not be construed as applying to borrowing money and issuing bonds by any city or town for the purpose of supplying such city or town with water, artificial light, and sewers, or either or both or all such waterworks, artificial light, or sewers, where the works for supplying such water, light, and sewers shall be owned and controlled by such city or town; but in all things relating to such named purposes, the provisions and amendments thereto of an act entitled "An act authorizing cities and towns to construct internal improvements and to issue bonds to pay therefor, and declaring an emergency," which said act was approved March 26, 1890, shall be and remain in full force and effect. [L. '91, p. 264, § 10; 1 H. C., § 717.]

See note to § 9538.

The act of March 26, 1890, referred to in this section, is superseded by § 9488 et seq.

§ 9549. [8051.] Not to Apply to Cities of First Class.

The provisions of this act shall not be construed as in any manner applying to cities of the first class. [L. '91, p. 265, § 11; 1 H. C., § 718.]

See note to § 9538.

§ 9550. [8052.] Funding or Ratifying Debt—Question—How Submitted.

At any election which may be held in any city or town in this state in accordance with the Constitution and laws thereof, for the purpose of voting upon the question of ratifying any indebtedness of such city or town, theretofore attempted to be incurred by such city or town, such city or town may submit to the voters thereof any proposition to fund such indebtedness so sought to be ratified, or any existing indebtedness of such city or town, or both. The proposition to ratify such indebtedness and the proposition to fund the same may be submitted to the voters in such city or town by the corporate authorities thereof in the same or in separate ordinances, as may be required or permitted by law; but the proposition to fund shall be the subject of a distinct vote in favor of or against the same, separate from the vote upon the proposition to ratify, and separate from the vote upon a proposition to fund any part of such indebtedness as to which a proposition to ratify is not submitted. [L. '91, p. 269, § 1; 1 H. C., § 722.]

§ 9551. [8053.] Effect of Vote to Fund Validated Indebtedness.

If at any such election any such indebtedness so proposed to be ratified shall be validated in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution and statutes of this state, any vote cast at such election in accordance with the requirements of the last preceding section, upon a proposition to fund such indebtedness so validated, by the issuing of bonds therefor, shall have the same effect as an assent to or dissent from the funding of such indebtedness, as if such indebtedness had been validated previously to the passage of the ordinance submitting such proposition to fund the same. [L. '91, p. 270, § 2; 1 H. C., § 723.]

This act is composed of this and the last section.

CHAPTER XXXIV.

INDEBTEDNESS UPON ANNEXATION OR CONSOLIDATION.

§ 9552. [8054.] Ratification of Indebtedness.

In any case where any city or town formerly having a corporate existence in this state has since or may hereafter become consolidated according to law, with any other city or town formerly having a corporate existence in this state, or has annexed or may hereafter annex any new territory and where the corporate authorities of either such former city or town had prior to such consolidation or annexation attempted to incur any indebtedness on the part of such former city or town by the issuing of warrants, making of contracts, or creation of other evidences of indebtedness on the part of such former city or town by the corporate authorities thereof, such attempted incurring of any such indebtedness may be ratified and validated in the manner prescribed in this chapter, when the only ground of the invalidity of such indebtedness so to be ratified is that, at the time of such attempted incurring thereof, the same, together with all other then existing indebtedness of such former city or town, exceeded one and one-half per centum of the taxable property of any such former city or town, ascertained by the last assessment for city or town purposes previous to the attempted incurring of such indebtedness, and that such indebtedness was so attempted to be incurred, without the assent of three-fifths of the voters of such former city or town, voting at an election held for that purpose. [L. '93, p. 56, § 1.]

See supra, § 8909, and notes, consolidation of cities and towns.

Effect of Consolidation: See Remington's Digest, Mun. Corp., § 15, and cases cited.

Liability of territory annexed to city to pay proportionate share of existing debts. 27 L. B. A. (N. S.) 1147.

In any case mentioned in the last section whenever the city council or other legislative body of any consolidated or existing city or town, consisting in part of any such former city or town, or which has annexed, or may hereafter annex any new territory, as in said section mentioned, shall deem it advisable that the ratification authorized by this chapter shall be obtained, the city council or other legislative body of such consolidated or existing city or town, shall provide for such ratification by ordinance, which shall specify separately, the amount of each distinct class of indebtedness so to be ratified, the date or period of the attempted incurring of each separate class thereof by the corporate authorities of such former city or town (naming it), and the general nature of the indebtedness comprised in each such distinct class, and shall provide for the holding of an election for that purpose, of which thirty days' notice, to be provided for in such ordinance, shall be given in the official newspaper or newspapers of such consolidated or existing city or town, at which election the attempted incurring of such indebtedness shall be submitted, for ratification or disapproval, to the voters residing within the former corporate limits of such former city or town, the indebtedness whereof is sought to be so ratified, or within the corporate limits of such city or town prior to such annexation. Each distinct class of such indebtedness so specified shall be the subject of a distinct vote in favor of or against the ratification, and such vote shall designate the class of indebtedness referred to by the description thereof used and the amount specified in the ordinance. [L. '93, p. 57, § 2.]

§ 9554. [8056.] Election—How Conducted.

The city council or other legislative body of such consolidated or existing city or town shall, in the ordinance providing for such election, or in a separate ordinance or ordinances, provide for altering or dividing any existing election precinct or precincts therein, if necessary, so that no precinct embracing any part of the territory lying within the former corporate limits of such former city or town, the indebtedness whereof is sought to be so ratified, shall embrace any territory not lying within such former corporate limits of such former city or town; and shall likewise provide for the segregation by the city clerk of the names of voters registered for the current year in the existing registration lists in such consolidated or existing city or town, and for the making, by copying from such existing registration lists, of new poll-books of registration, so far as may be necessary, and for the making of further registration according to law in such new poll-books, so as to enable the city clerk to prepare, certify and deliver to the judges of said election in any such altered or divided precinct, according to law, a true and correct copy of such new poll-book, containing the names of the voters, and no others, entitled to vote at such election in such altered or divided precinct; and appoint inspectors and judges of such election for the several precincts in which the same is to be held; and prescribe the form of the ballot to be used at such election, and the mode of the voter's indicating thereon his vote for or against each proposition submitted. Said provisions shall be made in conformity with the existing registration and election laws of the state as nearly as may be, but the provisions hereof shall prevail over existing laws so far as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter; and such election shall be held and conducted, and the result thereof canvassed and declared, in accordance with the general laws of the state as modified by this chapter, and in accordance with said provisions to be made in pursuance hereof. [L. '93, p. 58, § 3.]

If at an election held as provided for in this chapter, three-fifths of the voters residing within the former corporate limits of such former city or town, the indebtedness whereof is so sought to be ratified, and voting at such election, shall vote in favor of the ratification of any distinct class or classes of such indebtedness, and if at the same or a separate election a proposition to fund said separately specified classes of such indebtedness so sought to be ratified, or any of said classes thereof shall be submitted in pursuance of any law of this state, to all the voters in such consolidated or existing city or town, and if three-fifths of the voters in such consolidated or existing city or town voting at such election shall vote in favor of the funding of such indebtedness, or any distinct class or classes thereof, in favor of the ratification of which the voters residing within the former corporate limits of the former city or town shall cast or shall have cast the necessary vote as herein provided, then said indebtedness, or said distinct class or classes thereof, in favor of which such votes shall have been cast as aforesaid, shall thereby become and is hereby declared to be validated, and a binding obligation of such former city or town, in force from the time of the attempted incurring thereof so ratified, bearing such interest, if any, and from such time, as it would have borne if legally incurred in the first instance, and assumed by the consolidated or existing city or town as such indebtedness of the former city or town: Provided, that no property within any part of such consolidated or existing city or town, not embraced within the former corporate limits of the former city or town, the indebtedness whereof is so ratified, shall ever be taxed to pay any portion of any indebtedness of such former city or town so ratified, or any interest thereon: And provided further, that neither anything in this chapter contained, nor the vote or votes cast at any such election or elections as aforesaid, shall be deemed to validate or authorize any indebtedness which, together with all other indebtedness of such former city or town existing at the time of the attempted incurring of the same, exceeded any constitutional or statutory limitation of indebtedness which might be incurred with the assent of three-fifths of the voters in such former city or town, voting at an election to be held for that purpose: And provided further, that this chapter shall apply only to indebtedness attempted to be incurred prior to the passage of this act. [L. '93, p. 59, § 4.]

If, in any case where any city or town in this state has been or may hereafter be formed by the consolidation of two or more cities or towns, or has annexed or may hereafter annex any new territory, an election shall be held, in accordance with the Constitution and laws of this state, for the purpose of submitting to the voters residing within the former corporate limits of either such former city or town, or of such city or town prior to such annexation, for ratification or disapproval, the attempted incurring on the part of such former city or town or of such city or town prior to such annexation by the corporate authorities thereof, of any indebtedness thereof, such consolidated or existing city or town may submit to all of the voters therein, at the same or a separate election, any proposition to fund such indebtedness so sought to be ratified or any part thereof or any existing indebtedness of such consolidated or existing city or town, or both. The proposition to ratify any such indebtedness so previously attempted to be incurred on the part of either such former city or town, or on the part of such city or town prior to such annexation, and the proposition to fund the same may be submitted, respectively, to the voters residing within the corporate limits of such former city or town or in such city or town prior to such annexation, and to all the voters in such consolidated city or town, respectively, in the same or in separate ordinances, as may be required or permitted by law; but the proposition to fund shall be the subject of a distinct vote in favor of or against the same, separate from the vote upon the proposition to ratify, and separate from the vote upon a proposition to fund any part of such indebtedness as to which a proposition to ratify is not submitted. [L. '93, p. 108, § 1.]

§ 9557. [8059.] Effect of Vote Cast.

If at any such election any such indebtedness so proposed to be ratified shall be validated in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution and laws of this state, any vote cast at the same or a separate election in accordance with the requirements of the last section, upon a proposition to fund such indebtedness so validated, by the issuing of bonds therefor, shall have the same effect as an assent to or dissent from the funding of such indebtedness, as if such indebtedness had been validated previously to the passage of the ordinance submitting such proposition to fund the same. [L. '93, p. 109, § 2.]

§ 9558. [8060.] Elections, How Conducted.

Any alteration or division of any existing election precinct or precincts in such consolidated or existing city or town, and any segregation of the names of voters registered for the current year in the existing registration lists in such consolidated or existing city or town, and any new poll-books of registration, and any further registration in such new poll-books, which may be made for the purposes of any such election held to submit a question of ratification, as aforesaid, in accordance with any law authorizing such election to submit such question of ratification, shall so far as applicable govern the holding of the election herein authorized to submit a proposition or propositions to fund. The city council or other legislative body of such consolidated or existing city or town shall, in the ordinance providing for the election herein authorized, or in a separate ordinance or ordinances, appoint inspectors and judges of such election for the several precincts in said city or town, and prescribe the form of the ballot to be used at such election, and the mode of the voter's indicating thereon his vote for or against each proposition submitted. Said provisions shall be made in conformity with the existing registration and election laws of the state as nearly as may be, but the provisions hereof shall prevail over existing laws so far as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter; and the election herein authorized shall be conducted and the result thereof canvassed and declared in accordance with the general laws of the state as modified by this chapter, and in accordance with said provisions to be made in pursuance hereof. [L. '93, p. 109, § 3.]

CHAPTER XXXV.

FIREMEN'S PENSION FUND.

§ 9559. Board of Trustees—Members—Duties—Terms.

The mayor, clerk or comptroller and three members of the common council of every incorporated city or town in the state of Washington, who, in addition to the duties now required of them, are hereby created and constituted, together with six (6) members from the fire department of such city or town, a board of trustees of the "Firemen's Relief and Pension Fund" of the fire department of such incorporated city or town, and shall provide for the disbursement of such relief and pension fund, and shall designate the beneficiaries thereof, as hereinafter directed, which board shall be known as the board of trustees of the firemen's relief and pension fund, and upon the taking effect of this act, the fire department of each such incorporated city or town shall elect by ballot, six (6) members of such fire department, two (2) of whom shall serve for the term of one (1) year, two (2) for the term of two (2) years, and two (2) for the term of three (3) years, and thereafter such fire department shall, each year, elect by ballot two (2) of its members to serve for the term of three (3) years upon said board of trustees: Provided, that in incorporated cities and towns having no council three (3) persons holding office therein, other than the mayor and clerk, shall be elected as trustees of the firemen's relief and pension fund of such city or town by the other members of the board of trustees, and: Provided further, that the boards of trustees of said fund, now acting in any city or town shall continue to act until their term has expired: Provided, this act shall not apply to any city or town where no paid fire department is maintained. [L. '19, p. 668, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 88, § 1.]

The act for the relief and pension of firemen, Rem. 1915 Code, section 8061 et seq., conferred upon the pension board power to determine who are entitled to a fixed pension, as well as to determine who are entitled to temporary relief: State ex rel. Criswell v. Board of Trustees of the Firemen's Relief and Pension Fund, 93 Wash. 468, 161 Pac. 361.

The act for the relief and pension of firemen is not a vested right subject to determination by the courts, since the legislature vested the pension board with full power and authority to determine any inquiry as to who are entitled to the benefit of the act, and made its conclusion final, and the legislature had the power to pass such act: State ex rel. Criswell v. Board of Trustees of the Firemen's Relief and Pension Fund, 93 Wash. 468, 161 Pac. 361.

§ 9560. Officers of Board—Secretary's Annual Reports.

The mayor shall be ex-officio chairman, the city clerk or comptroller shall be ex-officio secretary, and the city treasurer shall be ex-officio treasurer of said board. The secretary shall report annually, at the time of making his annual report as city clerk, the condition of the firemen's relief and pension fund, and the receipts and disbursements on account of the same, with a full list of the beneficiaries of said fund, and the amount paid them. [L. '19, p. 669, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 89, § 2.]

§ 9561. Board—Monthly Meetings, etc.—Disbursement of Fund.

The board herein provided for shall hold monthly meetings on or before the fifteenth day of each and every month of each year, upon such dates as may be agreed upon by the board of trustees, and upon the call of its chairman at such other times as the chairman deems necessary: It shall issue orders, signed by its chairman and secretary, to the persons entitled thereto, of the amount of money ordered paid to such persons from such fund by said board, which order shall state for what purpose such payment is to be made. It shall keep a record of its proceedings, which record shall be public. It shall, at each monthly meeting, send to the treasurer of such city or town, a written or printed list of all persons entitled to payment from the fund herein provided for, stating the amount of such payment and for what granted, which list shall be certified to and signed by the chairman and secretary of such board, attested under oath.

The treasurer of such city or town shall therefore enter a copy of said list upon a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be known as "The Firemen's Relief and Pension Fund Book," and the said board shall direct payment of the said amounts to the persons named therein. A majority of all the members of said board herein provided for shall constitute a quorum and have power to transact business: Provided, however, no money belonging to said fund shall ever be disbursed for any purpose without a vote of a majority of all the members of the board of trustees, which shall be taken by the yeas and nays, and the vote of each member so voting entered upon the proceedings of the board. [L. '19, p. 669, § 3. Cf. L. '09, p. 89, § 3.]

§ 9562. Monthly Pension on Retirement Due to Age.

Whenever any person, at the taking effect of this act, or thereafter, shall have been duly appointed and has served for a period of twenty years or more, ten years of which shall have been consecutive immediately preceding the end of such period, as a member in any capacity or any rank whatever of the regularly constituted fire department of any such city or town which may be subject to the provisions of this act, the board shall be empowered to order and direct that such person may, after becoming fifty-five years of age, be retired from such fire department, and the board shall retire any member so entitled as hereinabove provided for, upon his written request for same, and such member so retired shall be paid from such fund a monthly pension equal to one-half the amount of salary attached to the rank which he may have held in said fire department for one year next preceding the date of such retirement. Upon the death of any such retired member one-half of the amount of the pension paid during his life, shall be continued and paid to his widow, who was his wife at the time of his retirement, during her life, or until she shall again marry, and if there be no such widow, then to his minor child or children until such child or children shall have arrived at the age of eighteen years, or shall prior thereto have married. Any such widow or child or children of any such retired member at the time of the taking effect of this act, shall come under its provisions. [L. '19, p. 670, § 4. Cf. L. '09, p. 90, § 4.]

§ 9563. Pension on Retirement for Disability.

Whenever any person, when serving as a fireman in any such city or town, shall become physically or mentally disabled while in the performance of, or the result of his duty or duties as defined in this act, said board of trustees may, upon his written request, or without such request if it deems it for the good of said fire department, retire such person from active service, and if so retired, shall order and direct that he shall be paid from such fund a monthly pension equal to one-half the amount of salary attached to the rank which he may have held in such fire department immediately preceding such retirement: Provided, that whenever such disability shall cease such pension shall cease, and such retired person shall be restored to active service in the same rank he may have held at the time of his retirement: Provided, further, upon the death of any member so retired, one-half of the amount of pension allowed and paid to him during such retirement shall be continued and paid to his widow, who was his wife at the time of his retirement, during her life as hereinafter provided, or if there be no such widow, then to his minor child or children, until they shall have reached the age of eighteen years: Provided, however, if such widow or child or children shall marry, then such person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension from said fund. [L. '19, p. 671, § 5. Cf. L. '09, p. 90, § 5.]

as affecting right to share in pension or insurance fund for policemen and firemen. 20 L. R. A.

(N. S.) 1176,

§ 9564. Proof of Disability.

No person shall be retired under this act, or receive any pension from said fund, except for old age, unless there shall be filed with the board of trustees, certificate of his disability or cause for retirement, which certificate shall be subscribed and sworn to by said person, or members of the board of trustees, and by the firemen's relief and pension fund physician and attending physician if there be one, and the board may require other evidence of disability or cause before ordering such retirement and payment of pension as provided for in this act. [L. '19, p. 672, § 6. Cf. L. '09, p. 90, § 6.]

§ 9565. Sick Benefits.

Whenever any member of the fire department of any city or town shall, on account of temporary physical disability, the result of accident in consequence of the performance of his duty or duties, as defined in this act, be confined to any hospital or to his bed, or unable to perform his duties as such member on account of such temporary disability and shall require nursing and medical care, the board of trustees shall provide a professional nurse and pay all necessary hospital and professional nursing expenses of such member out of the said fund, and the salary of such member shall continue and shall be paid out of said fund while he is necessarily confined to such hospital or bed, or unable to perform his duties as a fireman on account of such temporary disability for a period not exceeding six months, after which period the other provisions of this act shall apply. Such pulmonary diseases as pneumonia and tuberculosis when directly traceable to exposure while in active fire duty, shall be considered the same as accident causing physical disability and not under sickness as hereinafter provided for. If, however, the pension fund physicians after an examination shall decide the member will be incapacitated for a period extending beyond six months, then, in that event, the board shall have the power and authority to retire the member after the first month: Provided, further, that in cases of accident as herein defined, disabling the member, he shall receive his full salary for the period of six months, even though such member is sooner retired, after six months, the provisions of section 9563 shall apply. If a member shall become temporarily disabled on account of sickness caused by becoming wet or from exposure, the result of the performance of his duty or duties as herein defined, he shall be entitled to the benefits and be governed by the provisions in case of disability by accident, except he shall receive but one-half of his regular salary: Provided, if the pension fund physicians after an examination shall decide the member will be incapacitated for a period extending beyond six months, then in that event the board of trustees shall have the power and authority to retire such member after the first month in accordance with section 9563. [L. '19, p. 672, § 7. Cf. L. '09, p. 91, § 7.]

§ 9566. Loss of Life—Pension to Whom.

Whenever any member of the fire department of any city or town shall lose his life, or die from the direct result of injuries received while in the performance of his duty or duties as herein defined, leaving a widow, or child or children under the age of eighteen years, then, upon satisfactory proof of such facts made known to the board of trustees, said board shall order and direct that a monthly pension equal to one-half the amount of the salary attached to the rank which such member held in said fire department at the time of his death, shall be paid to his widow during her life, or if there be no widow, then to his minor child or children until they shall have reached the age of eighteen years, or if there be no children then to his parents if it be proven to the satisfaction of the board of trustees that said parents are dependent upon said son for their support: Provided, if such widow, child or children or said parents shall marry, then such person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension from said fund. [L. '19, p. 673, § 8. Cf. L. '09, p. 91, § 8.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 511.

The general statutes giving a right of action for wrongful death are not superseded or impliedly repealed, by the fireman's pension act, providing a pension for certain dependents, equal to one-half of the salary of a fireman killed while in the service of the city: Longfellow v. Seattle, 76 Wash. 509, 136 Pac. 855.

While the fireman's pension act, providing a pension for certain dependents, equal to one-half of the salary of a fireman killed while in service of the city, is not coextensive with the general statutes giving rights of action for wrongful death, yet in so far as they coincide, the two acts authorize separate and coexist-ent, but not cumulative recoveries, since it is not the policy of the law to allow two recoveries for one wrong; hence acceptance of a pension, precludes any recovery under the general statutes for wrongful death: Longfellow v. Seattle, 76 Wash. 509, 136 Pac. 855.

The act, limiting pensions to dependents of a city fireman killed while in the service of the city to the widow and children under sixteen years of age, does not bar an action for wrongful death, under the general statutes, in behalf of a minor daughter over sixteen years of age; since she is not a participant in the pension fund, and the pension act does not repeal the general act: Longfellow v. Seattle, 76 Wash. 509, 136 Pac. 855.

A pension, upon the death of a city fireman, given to the widow during widowhood, equal to one-half of his salary, is not inadequate compensation where the monthly payments equal interest at the statutory rate upon a sum practically three times the sum laid as damages in her complaint for wrongful death, and twice the sum she would recover if she lives out her life expectancy and complies with the terms of the act: Longfellow v. Seattle, 76 Wash. 509, 136 Pac. 855.

In authorizing a city to provide for a pension to the dependents of a fireman killed while in the service of the city, the legislature may limit the amount to any sum it sees fit: Longfellow v. Seattle, 76 Wash. 509, 136 Pac. 855.

Under Seattle city charter, Article XVI, §32, providing that any person in the service of the city under civil service who shall be disabled in the discharge of his duties shall receive full pay during such disability not to exceed thirty days and half pay not to exceed six months, the pension provided is a part of the consideration for the services of the employee, and the fact that the employee recovered damages from the person injuring him does not relieve the city from liability for the pension: Engstrom v. Seattle, 92 Wash. 568, 159 Pac. 816.

Such an employee is "disabled in the discharge of his duties" and so entitled to the pension where he was in the service of the city and discharging his duties when he was injured by the negligence of some agency other than the agency of the city: Engstrom v. Seattle, 92 Wash. 568, 159 Pac. 816.

§ 9567. Death not Arising in Performance of Duties—Payments.

Whenever any member regularly and actively employed in the fire department of any such city or town shall, after one year of service in said fire department die from natural causes, or accident not caused in the performance of his duty or duties as herein defined, and for which no pension is provided for in this act, and who has not been retired for old age or disability prior to his death, then in that event his widow, or children under eighteen years of age, or if there be no widow or children, then his parents if it be proven to the satisfaction of the board of trustees, that said parents are dependent upon said son for their support, shall be entitled to the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) from said fund: Provided, in case of death as above stated before one year of service an amount proportionate to the time of service shall be paid to above mentioned beneficiaries: Provided, if the member at the time of his death had served fifteen years in the fire department, ten years of which have been continuous immediately prior to his death, his beneficiaries herein named shall have the option on request, to receive a monthly pension equal to one-quarter of the amount of salary received by such member at the time of his death until such time as the beneficiaries shall marry or the children become eighteen years of age, when the pension shall cease. [L. '19, p. 674, § 9. Cf. L. '09, p. 91, § 9.]

§ 9568. Examination of Members Temporarily Retired.

All members of the fire department who may be retired for disability under the provisions of this act, except for old age or permanent disability, may be summoned before the board of trustees any time, and shall submit himself thereto for examination, as to his fitness for duty, and shall obey and abide the decisions and orders of such board, and shall report for examination to the firemen's relief and pension fund physician, or some physician designated by the board of trustees, on the first Monday of January, April, July and October of each year. [L. '19, p. 675, § 10. Cf. L. '09, p. 92, § 10.]

§ 9569. Cessation of Pension for Cause—Lieu Allowances.

When any person who shall have received any benefits from said fund shall be convicted of any felony, or shall become an habitual drunkard, or shall fail to report himself for examination for duty as required herein, unless excused by the board, or shall disobey the orders or requirements of said board under this act, then such board of trustees shall order and direct that such pension or allowances that may have been granted to such person shall immediately cease, and such person shall receive no further pension or allowance or benefit under this act, but in lieu thereof the said pension or allowance or benefit may at the discretion of the board be paid to those immediately dependent upon him, or to his legally appointed guardian. [L. '19, p. 675, § 11. Cf. L. '09, p. 92, § 11.]

§ 9570. Resignation or Dismissal.

No person who has resigned or been dismissed from such fire department, or who refuses to comply with the orders of the board of trustees, shall be deemed entitled to any relief or pension from said fund, except in cases where notice of, or claim for disability has been filed with the board before such resignation or dismissal. [L. '19, p. 675, § 12. Cf. L. '09, p. 92, § 12.]

§ 9571. Powers of Board.

The board herein provided for shall, in addition to other powers herein granted, have power, to wit:

First—To compel witnesses to attend and testify before it, upon all matters connected with the operation of this act, and in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for the taking of testimony before notary publics; and its chairman or any member of said board may administer oaths to such witnesses.

Second—To provide for the payment from said fund of all its necessary expenses and printing. No compensation or emoluments shall be paid to any member of said board of trustees for any duties performed under this act, as a trustee: Provided, the board shall have the power and authority to appoint an assistant secretary in any city or town where the secretary is unable owing to his other duties to properly devote his time to the pension fund affairs. It shall be the duty of the assistant secretary to perform all clerical work and such duties as prescribed by the board of trustees, but he shall have no vote unless he be a member of the board of trustees; the board may pay such assistant secretary such salary as they deem just from the fund, and such salary shall be in addition to any salary he may receive from the city or town as regular employee, or any pension allowed to any retired or pensioned member from the pension fund.

Third—To make all needful rules and regulations for its guidance in conformity with the provisions of this act.

Fourth—To appoint one or more regularly licensed practicing physicians of such city or town who shall be known as the firemen's relief and pension fund physicians, who shall examine and report to the board of trustees, upon all applications for relief and pension under this act. They shall visit and examine all sick and temporary disabled members, when, in their judgment, the best interests of the relief and pension fund require it or when ordered by the board of trustees. They shall perform all operations on sick and injured members and render all medical aid and care necessary for the recovery of the member on account of sickness or temporary disability received while in the performance of his duty or duties as defined in this act. And such appointed physicians shall be paid their fees from said fund, the amount of said fees or salary to be set and agreed upon by the board of trustees and the pension fund physicians. No other physician or surgeon not a regularly appointed pension fund physician shall receive or be entitled to any fees or compensation from said fund as private or attending physician to any sick or injured member of fire department, and should any sick or injured member refuse the services of the pension fund physicians, and engage any other physician or surgeon, he shall be liable for such fees to said physician. No person shall have a right of action against the board of trustees or the pension fund for negligence of any pension fund physician; the board shall have the power and authority to select and employ specialists to assist in consultation or performing any operation on sick or injured members as defined in section 9565 and shall pay his fees from said fund. Said board shall hear and decide all applications for such relief or pensions under this act, and its decisions on such applications shall be final and conclusive and not subject to revision or reversal except by the board. [L. '19, p. 675, § 13. Cf. L. '09, p. 93, § 13.]

Cited in 93 Wash. 469; 110 Wash. 629.

Under the act providing that the board of the fireman's relief fund shall hear and decide all applications for relief or pensions under the act and that its decisions on such applications shall be final and conclusive on the courts, mandamus does not lie to inquire into the correctness of a ruling of the board or to review its action in denying an application for permanent relief under the act: State ex rel. Criswell v. Board of Trustees of the Firemen's Relief and Pension Fund, 93 Wash. 468, 161 Pac. 361.

§ 9572. Pension Fund, How Provided.

Said fund shall consist of all bequests, fees, gifts, emoluments or donations given or paid to the firemen's relief and pension fund, or any of its members, except otherwise designated by the donor, and a monthly fee which shall be paid into the fund by each member of said fire department, including substitutes and temporarily appointed members, amounting to one and one-half per cent of his regular monthly salary as hereinafter provided, and the proceeds of the tax levy as provided for in this act, and the interest or investment of any portion of said fund. [L. '19, p. 677, § 14.]

§ 9573. Tax Levy for Fund—Loans.

The city council or city commissioners of each city or town are hereby authorized and empowered to, and shall, when requested in writing by two-thirds of the members of the board of trustees of the firemen's relief and pension fund, at the same time other levies of taxes are made as provided for by the charter or laws, and in addition to the levy authorized by the charter or laws, levy a tax for an amount estimated to be required by the pension fund board of trustees, not to exceed one-half mill on each dollar of the assessed valuation of the property in such city or town not exempt from taxation, which taxes shall be credited to the firemen's relief and pension fund. Should the amount in the fund at any time be exhausted by unforeseen circumstances, the board of trustees shall be empowered to obtain a loan from the general fund or any other fund available or budget allowance of such city or town, until the firemen's relief and pension fund can be replenished and the loan returned to the other fund. The board of trustees by a two-thirds vote shall have the power to invest all funds, or any part thereof not required for immediate use, in government, county or city bonds, to be taken in the name of the firemen's relief and pension fund of such city or town and deposited in such bank or banks or vaults together with other securities of such city or town; by the same vote the board shall have power to sell and dispose of any securities. [L. '19, p. 678, § 15. Cf. L. '09, p. 93, § 14.]

§ 9574. Monthly Payments.

Payment provided for in this act shall be made monthly upon proper vouchers and in such manner as provided by the board of trustees in conformity with the procedure in other disbursements of such city or town: Provided, that no warrants shall be drawn upon said fund except by order of the board of trustees which shall be duly entered upon the records of the proceedings of the board. [L. '19, p. 678, § 16. Cf. L. '09, p. 94, § 17.]

§ 9575. Deduction from Members' Salary Warrants.

It shall be the duty of the auditor or city comptroller, or officer whose duty it is to draw warrants in making out warrants for the monthly salaries, to deduct and withhold monthly from the salary of each member of the fire department, including substitutes and temporarily appointed members, one and one-half per cent of such monthly salary during all the time such member may be in the employ of the fire department: Provided, however, the one and one-half per cent shall not be deducted from the allowance of any member of the fire department who has been retired and placed on the pension list on account of old age or disability; and it shall be the duty of the auditor or city comptroller to draw a warrant for the full amount so withheld from the firemen's salaries payable to the city treasurer and by him credited to the firemen's relief and pension fund. [L. '19, p. 679, § 17.]

§ 9576. Allowance for Funeral Expenses.

Upon the death of any active or retired member of the fire department, the board of trustees shall have the power and authority to appropriate from the fund the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) to assist in defraying the funeral expenses of such member. [L. '19, p. 679, § 18.]

§ 9577. "Performance of Duty" Defined.

The words, "performance of duty and duties" whenever and wherever mentioned in this act, shall be construed to include the performance of any work required in or about company quarters, of any fire station or any other place under the direction or orders of the chief, acting chief, or any officer having the authority to so order such member to perform such work, working at or returning from an alarm of fire, drill or practice, going to and returning from meals in departments operating under what is known as the continuous or twenty-four hour system, responding to an alarm of fire when off duty in accordance with the rules and regulations of fire departments working under the double platoon or three shifts. Games and sports of any nature for recreation, amusement, exercise or compensation are expressly excluded. Members shall not be entitled to any benefits or pension from said fund, on account of any sickness or injury received while off duty, on vacation, or on leave of absence, except as provided for in section 9567. [L. '19, p. 679, § 19.]

§ 9578. Partial Invalidity.

If any portion of this act should be declared unconstitutional, it shall not thereby affect the constitutionality of the remaining portions. [L. '19, p. 680, § 20.]

CHAPTER XXXVI.

POLICE PENSION FUND.

§ 9579. [8078.] Police Pension Board—Duties.

The mayor, clerk, treasurer, president of the city council of each of the incorporated cities of the first class of the state of Washington, or in case any of said cities has no city council, the commissioner who has supervision of the police department, together with three members of the police department of each of said cities, to be elected as hereafter provided, are, in addition to the duties now required of them, hereby created and constituted a board of trustees, of the relief and pension fund of the police department of each of said incorporated cities, and shall provide for the disbursement of the said relief and pension fund, and shall designate the beneficiaries thereof, as hereafter directed, which said board shall be known as the board of police pension fund commissioners. The police department of each incorporated city of the first class in the state of Washington, shall elect three regularly appointed, qualified and acting members of said department to act as members of said board; said election shall be held every two years, at the times and in the manner in this section provided. Not more than thirty nor less than fifteen days preceding the date fixed by law for the regular election of the mayor of such cities, written notice of the nomination of any member of said department for membership on said board may be filed with the secretary of said board. Each notice of nomination shall be signed by not less than five members of said department, and nothing herein contained shall prevent any member of said department from signing more than one notice of nomination. Said election shall be held on a date to be fixed by the secretary of said board and shall be not less than five days and not more than ten days before the date fixed by law for the election of the mayor as aforesaid. Notice of the dates upon which said notice of nominations may be filed and of the date fixed for the election of said members of said board shall be given by the secretary of said board by posting written notices thereof in a prominent place in the police headquarters of said city. For the purpose of said election, the secretary of said board shall prepare and furnish printed or typewritten ballots in the usual form, containing the names of all persons regularly nominated for such membership and shall furnish a ballot-box for said election. Each member of said police department shall be entitled to vote at said election for three persons as members of said board. The chief of said department shall appoint two members of said department to act as officials of said election, who shall be allowed their regular wages for said day, but shall receive no additional compensation therefor. Said election shall be held in the police headquarters of said department and the polls shall open at 7:30 A. M., and close at 8:30 P. M. The three nominees receiving the highest number of votes at said election shall be declared elected as members of said board, and their terms shall commence on the same date as that of the term of office of the mayor of said city: Provided not more than thirty days after the taking effect of this act, a special election shall be held to elect members of said board from said department to serve until the expiration of the regular term of the present mayor of each of said cities. The secretary of said board shall fix the time for the filing of notices of nominations, allowing not less than five days for that purpose, and shall fix the date for said special election, which date shall be not less than five days after the expiration of the time fixed for the filing of notices of nominations. Said special election shall in every other respect be governed by the rules in this section provided for the holding of the regular election of members of said board. [L. '11, p. 55, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 59, § 1.]

§ 9580. [8079.] Officers—Secretary's Annual Report.

The mayor shall be ex-officio chairman, the clerk shall be ex-officio secretary, and the treasurer shall be ex-officio treasurer of said board. The secretary of said board, at the time of making his annual reports as said city clerk, shall annually report the condition of said fund, the receipts and disbursements on account of the same, together with a complete list of the beneficiaries of said fund, and the amounts paid to each of them. [L. '09, p. 59, § 2.]

§ 9581. [8080.] Creation of Pension Fund.

The said board, for the purpose of said police and relief and pension fund, shall have the power to direct and shall direct the payments annually, and when the annual tax levy of the city or town is made, into said fund of the following moneys:

First. Not more than one per centum of all moneys collected and received from licenses for the keeping of places wherein spirituous, malt or other intoxicating liquors are sold.

Second. Not more than one-half of all moneys received from taxes or from licenses upon dogs.

Third. All moneys received from the sales of all unclaimed property.

Fourth. Not more than ten per centum of all moneys received from licenses from pawnbrokers, second-hand stores, junk-dealers, and from any person, firm or corporation maintaining or conducting billiard, pool or pigeon-hole tables for hire, or billiard and pool rooms.

Fifth. All moneys received from fines for the carrying of concealed weapons.

Sixth. Ten per centum of all fines collected or received in money for violation of city ordinances.

Seventh. The treasurer of any incorporated city which may hereafter be subject to the provisions of this act, shall retain monthly from the pay of each member of the police department of such city, a sum equal to one and one-half per centum of the monthly compensation paid each member for his services as such police officer, said sum to be forthwith paid into said police relief and pension fund, and no other or further deduction shall be made from such pay for any other fund or purpose whatever. [L. '15, p. 137, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 60, § 3.]

§ 9582. [8081.] Retirement for Age—Pension.

Whenever any person at the taking effect of this act, or thereafter, shall have been duly appointed or selected and sworn, and shall have served for twenty years or more, in the aggregate, as a member, in any capacity or rank whatever, of the regularly constituted police department of any such city which may hereafter be subject to the provisions of this act, and shall have reached the age of sixty years, or shall have served not less than twenty-five years continuously, and not have reached the age of sixty years, said board may order and direct that such person be retired from further service in such police department, and from the date of the making of such order the service of such person in such police department shall cease, except in cases of emergency as hereinafter provided, and such person so retired shall thereafter, during his lifetime, be paid from such fund a yearly pension equal to one-half of the amount of salary attached to the rank which he held in said police department for the period of one year next preceding the date of such retirement. [L. '15, p. 138, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 60, § 4; L. '11, p. 57, § 2.] § 9583. [8082.] Disabled in Service—Retirement—Pension.

Whenever any person, while serving as a policeman in any such city shall become physically disabled by reason of any bodily injury received in the immediate or direct performance or discharge of his duties as such policeman, or become incapacitated for service, said incapacity not having been caused or brought on by dissipation or abuse, of which the board shall be judge, said board may, upon his written request filed with the secretary of said board, or without such written request, if it deems it to be for the benefit of the public, retire such person from said department, and order and direct that he shall be paid from said fund during his lifetime, a yearly pension equal to one-half of the amount of salary attached to the rank which he may have held in said police department at the date of such retirement, but on the death of such pensioner his heirs or assigns, shall have no claims against or upon such police relief or pension fund:

Provided, that whenever such disability shall cease, such pension shall cease, and such person shall be restored to active service at the same salary he received at the time of his retirement. [L. '11, p. 58, § 3. Cf. L. '09, p. 61, § 5.]

§ 9584. [8083.] Proof of Disability.

No person shall be retired, as provided in the last preceding section, or receive any benefit from said fund, unless there shall be filed with said board certificate of his disability, which certificate shall be subscribed and sworn to by said person, and by the city physician (if there be one) and two regularly licensed and practicing physicians of such city, and such board may require other evidence of disability before ordering such retirement and payment as aforesaid. [L. '09, p. 61, § 6.]

§ 9585. [8084.] Loss of Life in Service—Pension to Whom.

Whenever any member of the police department of any such city shall lose his life through violence while actually engaged in the performance of his duty as such police officer, leaving a widow or child or children under the age of sixteen years, then upon satisfactory proof of such facts made to it, such board shall order and direct that a yearly pension, equal to one-third of the amount of the salary attached to the rank which such member held in said police department at the time of his death, shall be paid to such widow during her life, or if no widow, then to the child or children, until they shall be sixteen years of age: Provided, that if such widow or child or children, shall marry, then such person so marrying shall thereafter receive no further pension from such fund: Provided, further, that if any member, so losing his life, leaves no wife, or child or children, under the age of sixteen years, then the said board shall pay the sum of not more than one hundred fifty dollars toward the funeral expenses of such member. [L. '15, p. 139, § 3. Cf. L. '09, p. 62, § 7.]

§ 9586. [8085.] Death from Natural Causes—Benefit to Whom.

Whenever any member of the police department of such city shall, after five years of service in said department, die from natural causes, then his widow, or child, or children under the age of sixteen years, or if there be no widow or children, then his parents or unmarried sisters, minor brother or brothers, dependent upon him for support, shall be entitled to the sum of one thousand dollars from such fund. This section to apply to members who shall have been retired, for any reason, from active service under the provisions of this act. [L. '15, p. 140, § 4. Cf. L. '09, p. 62, § 8; L. '11, p. 58, § 4.]

§ 9587. [8086.] Physical Examination for Retired—Emergency Duty.

Any person retired for disability under this chapter may be summoned before the board herein provided for, at any time thereafter, and shall submit himself thereto for examination as to his fitness for duty, and shall abide the decision and order of said board with reference thereto; and all members of such police force who may be retired under the provisions of this act, shall report to the chief of police of such city where so retired on the first Mondays of April, July, October and January of each year; and in cases of emergency, may be assigned to and shall perform such duty as said chief of police may direct, and such person shall have no claim against such city for payment for such duty so performed. [L. '09, p. 62, § 9.]

§ 9588. [8087.] Withdrawal of Pension, Causes for.

Whenever any person who shall have received any benefit from said fund shall be convicted of any felony, or shall become an habitual drunkard, or shall become a nonresident of this state, or shall fail to report himself for examination for duty as required herein, unless excused by the board, or shall disobey the requirements of said board under this act, in respect to said examination or duty, then such board shall order that such pension as may have been granted to such person shall immediately cease, and such person shall receive no further pension allowance or benefit under this chapter. [L. '09, p. 63, § 10.]

§ 9589. [8088.] Board—Meetings, Duties, Disbursement of Fund.

The board herein provided for shall hold monthly meetings on the first Mondays of each month and upon the call of its president. It shall issue warrants, signed by its president and secretary, to the persons entitled thereto for the amounts of money ordered paid to such persons from such fund by said board, which warrants shall state for what purpose such payments are made; it shall keep a record of its proceedings, which record shall be a public record; it shall, at each monthly meeting, send to the treasurer of such city a written or printed list of all persons entitled to payment from the fund herein provided for, stating the amount of such payments and for what granted, which list shall be certified to and signed by the president and secretary of such board, attested under oath. The treasurer of such city shall thereupon enter a copy of said list upon a book to be kept for that purpose and which shall be known as "The Police Relief and Pension Fund Book," and the said board shall direct payment of the amounts named therein to the persons entitled thereto, out of such fund. A majority of all the members of said board herein provided for shall constitute a quorum, and have power to transact business. [L. '11, p. 58, § 5. Cf. L. '09, p. 63, § 11.]

§ 9590. [8089.] Powers of Board—Witnesses—Expenses—No Salary.

The board herein provided for shall, in addition to other powers herein granted, have power: First: To compel witnesses to attend and testify before it and upon all matters connected with the operation of this chapter, in the same manner as is or may be provided by law for the taking of testimony in courts of record in this state, and its president or any member of said board may administer oaths to such witnesses. Second: to provide for the payment from such fund of all necessary expenses and printing: Provided, that no compensation or emolument shall be paid to any member of said board for any duty required or performed under this chapter. Third: to make all needful rules and regulations for its guidance in conformity with the provisions of this chapter. [L. '09, p. 63, § 12.]

§ 9591. [8090.] Sick Benefits.

Whenever any member of the police department of any such city shall on account of sickness or disability, suffered or sustained while a member of said department, and not caused or brought on by dissipation or abuse, of which the board shall be the judge, be confined to any hospital or to his home and shall require nursing, care or attention, the said board shall pay the necessary hospital, care and nursing expenses of such member out of said fund, and the salary of said member shall continue while he is necessarily confined to such hospital or home and necessarily requires care and nursing on account of such sickness or disability for a period not exceeding six months, after which said period the other provisions of this act shall apply: Provided, that said board shall in all cases have the right in its discretion to have said member so suffering from such sickness or disability examined at any time by a licensed physician or physicians, to be appointed by the board, for the purpose of ascertaining the nature and extent of such sickness or disability, said physician or physicians to report to said board the result of said examination within three days thereafter. Any such member who refuses to submit to such examination or examinations shall forfeit all his rights to benefits under this section. [L. '15, p. 140, § 5. Cf. L. '09, p. 64, § 13; L. '11, p. 59, § 6.]

§ 9592. [8091.] Payments Quarterly—Surplus to General Fund.

Payments provided for in this act shall be made monthly upon proper vouchers. If at any time there is more money in the fund provided for in this act than is necessary for the purposes of this act, then such surplus shall be transferred from such fund to the general fund of the city: Provided, that at all times enough money shall be kept in said fund to meet all payments provided for in this act. [L. '11, p. 59, § 7. Cf. L. '09, p. 64, § 14.]

CHAPTER I.

WATERWAYS ACROSS TIDE LANDS.

Commercial waterways: See infra, § 9724.

§ 9593. [8092.] Establishment of Ways Across Tide Flats Near Cities.

There shall be established one or more public ways across all of the tide flats that are situated within or in front of any incorporated city or town, or within two miles either way from any incorporated city or town, within the state of Washington. [L. '90, p. 731, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2128.]

Cited in 91 Wash. 455, 456.

§ 9594. [8093.] Dimensions of Ways—Commencement and Extension of.

The public ways provided for in the last preceding section shall not be less than fifty nor more than one thousand feet wide, and shall commence at the outer or deep water end, in not less than twenty feet of water at low tide, and shall extend inland across the state's tide lands. [L. '90, p. 731, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2129.]

§ 9595. [8094.] Location of Way.

The public ways above provided for shall be so located as to include, as near as is practicable, within their bounds all navigable streams running through the tide flats in which they are located, and at such other places as may be necessary for the present or future convenience of commerce. [L. '90, p. 731, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2130.]

§ 9596. [8095.*] Plats to be Filed Where.

A correct plat of all public ways so established shall be made, one copy of which shall be filed with the commissioner of public lands of the state and one copy shall be kept in the office of the chairman of the board of harbor line commissioners, and each county shall be furnished with a correct plat of all such public ways established within its borders, and such plats shall be filed as city or town plats are filed and become a part of the county records. [L. '17, p. 605, § 8. Cf. L. '93, p. 26, § 1.]

"Harbor line commissioners," now state board of land commissioners: See § 7797, supra.

§ 9597. [8096.] Ways to be Reserved for Public Use.

All the public ways that may be established under the provisions of this chapter are, and shall forever be, reserved from sale or lease as public ways for water crafts. [L. '90, p. 732, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2132.]

§ 9598. [8097.] "Tide Flats," "Tide Lands" and "Ordinary Water Crafts" Construed.

Where the words "tide flats or tide lands" are used in this chapter, they shall be construed to mean all lands over which the tide ebbs and flows, and which is bare at low tide; and where the words "ordinary water crafts" are used, they shall be construed to mean boats, barges, and other water crafts drawing two and one-half feet and over of water. [L. '90, p. 732, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2133.]

§ 9599. [8098.] Duty of State Board of Land Commissioners.

The board of harbor line commissioners are hereby authorized and instructed to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and they shall begin operations as soon as practicable after the passage and approval of this act; and they are hereby authorized to employ such assistance and procure such material as may be necessary to carry out the full intent and purpose of this chapter, and the compensation for the same shall be such reasonable amount as said commissioners may deem advisable. [L. '90, p. 732, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2134.]

"Harbor line commissioners": See note to § 9596, supra.

§ 9600. [8099.] Payment of Bills.

All bills incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter shall be audited and paid in the same manner as is provided in the chapter creating the harbor line commissioners, for the payment of bills incurred by them. [L. '90, p. 732, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2135.]

§ 9601. Plat of Lake Washington Second Class Shore Lands.

As soon as practicable after the taking effect of this act it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to plat for the public use harbor area in front of such portions of the shore lands of Lake Washington heretofore sold as second class shore lands by the state of Washington as in the opinion of said commissioner are necessary for the use of the public as harbor area: Provided, however, that this act shall not be construed to authorize said commissioner to change the location of any inner or outer harbor line or the boundaries or location of, or to replat any harbor area heretofore platted under and by virtue of chapter 183 of the Session Laws of 1913; and the title to all shore lands heretofore purchased from the state as second class shore lands is hereby confirmed to such purchaser, his heirs and assigns, out to the inner harbor line heretofore established and platted under chapter 183 of the Session Laws of 1913 or which shall be established and platted under this act, and all reservations shown upon the plat made and filed pursuant to chapter 183 of the Session Laws of 1913, are declared null and void, except reservations shown thereon for harbor area and reservations in such harbor area and reservations across shore lands for traversed streets which were extensions of streets existing across shore lands at the time of filing of such plat. Said land commissioner shall in platting said harbor area make a new plat showing all the harbor area on Lake Washington already platted under said chapter 183 of the Session Laws of 1913 and under this act; and upon the adoption of said new plat by the said board of land commissioners acting as a harbor commission and the filing of said plat in the office of the commissioner of public lands, the title to all said harbor area so selected shall remain in the state of Washington, and such harbor area shall not be sold, but may be leased, as provided by law relating to the leasing of such harbor area. [L. '17, p. 612, § 1.]

§ 9602. Plat of All Unsold Shore Lands — Reservations — Acceptance by City.

Immediately after establishing the harbor area provided for herein, it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to make a plat designating thereon all shore lands, of the first and second class, not theretofore sold by the state of Washington, and to select for the use of the public out of such shore lands, or out of harbor areas in front thereof, sites for slips, docks, wharves, warehouses, streets, avenues, parkways, boulevards, alleys, commercial waterways and other purposes, in so far as such shore lands may be available for any or all such purposes, and upon the filing of such plat of shore lands with such reservations and selections thereon, in the office of the commissioner of public lands, the title to all selections for streets, avenues and alleys shall vest in any city or town within the corporate limits of which they may be then situate, otherwise in the county in which situate. The title to and control of any lands so selected and designated upon such plat for parkway and boulevard purposes shall, if the same lie outside of the corporate limits of any city or town, and if the same form a part of the general parkway and boulevard system of a city of the first class, be in such city. The title to all selections for commercial waterway purposes shall vest in the commercial waterway in which situate, or for which selected, and the title to all selections for slips, docks, wharves, warehouses and other purposes shall vest in the port district if they be situate in a port district, otherwise in the county in which situated, and any sales of such shore lands hereafter shall be made subject to such selection and reservation for public use. In case of any reservations made as hereinbefore provided for the city of Seattle or the port of Seattle out of first class shore lands platted prior to the first of March, 1917, the city council or the port commission shall within sixty (60) days after the filing of the plat by the land commissioner showing such reservations file an acceptance thereof with the land commissioner and within two (2) years after the filing of such acceptance pay to the state of Washington the appraised value of such shore lands of the first class so reserved and accepted for the benefit of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, and shore land improvement fund, and in default of making such payment within such time said reservations shall be null and void and such reservations shall be subject to sale in the same manner as if they had not been made: Provided, however, that in case all outstanding warrants issued against the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition and shore lands improvement funds are paid in full prior to the expiration of the two (2) year period provided for above, then any reservation of the first and second class shore lands made for the city of Seattle or the port of Seattle and accepted and not paid for shall vest in municipality for which the reservation was made without said municipality being required to pay to the state of Washington the appraised valuation thereof. [L. '17, p. 613, § 2.]

CHAPTER II.

EXCAVATION OF WATERWAYS, AND FILLING IN TIDE LANDS BY PRIVATE CONTRACT.

The commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington may, when in his judgment the interests of commerce would be subserved thereby, enter into contract with any person or persons, or incorporated companies doing business in the state of Washington, for the excavation of any waterway or waterways through any lands belonging to the state of Washington, or to any citizen or corporation of said state, and for the filling in and raising above high tide of any tide or shore lands belonging to the state of Washington, and upon the completion of such contract such person or persons or incorporated company shall become entitled to and shall have a lien, as in this chapter provided, upon all tide and shore lands belonging to the state of Washington, adjacent to such waterway, and remaining unsold at the date of the approval of this act, that they may fill in and raise above high tide, and all purchasers of said tide and shore lands from the state of Washington shall take the same subject to said lien: Provided, however, that such contract shall not become binding or operative until approved by the governor, nor until such person or persons or incorporated company shall have filed with the commissioner of public lands, a bond in the penal sum of not less than twenty-five hundred, nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars, as in the judgment of said commissioner of public lands shall be considered necessary in a particular case, with sureties to be approved by said commissioner of public lands, said bond to be conditioned for the faithful performance of said contract: Provided further, that no lands shall be affected thereby except lands within or in front of incorporated cities or towns, or within one mile thereof on either side, or lands between any inner and outer harbor lines established by proper authority. § 9604. [8101.] Contract to Specify, What.

Said contract with the commissioner of public lands shall specify the waterway or waterways proposed to be excavated, and the lands to be affected thereby, and shall be accompanied by a map of the locality or localities showing said waterway or waterways, and their relation to the harbor lines and reservations in front of the cities or towns where the same are located, and shall show the tide and shore lands to be filled in and raised above high tide, properly designated and subdivided as nearly in accordance with the existing subdivisions of abutting uplands as the proper location of said waterway or waterways will permit and shall specify and exhibit the waterway or waterways proposed to be excavated as to their depth and width and extent: Provided, that when harbor lines and waterways have been established by the harbor line commission of the state, no other waterways shall be excavated except the waterways exhibited on the final maps of said harbor line commission, except with the consent and approval of such harbor line commission; and where no harbor lines and waterways have been so established then the plan mentioned in said contract must, before being adopted by said commission, be submitted to and approved by the harbor line commission: And provided further, that if no harbor line commission be in existence, then the commissioner of public lands shall establish waterways which may be excavated as herein provided. [L. '93, p. 242, § 2.]

"Harbor line commission": See note to § 9596.

Cited in 11 Wash. 231, 646.

§ 9605. [8102.] Time of, Commissioner may Extend.

Said contract shall specify the time of beginning work on said waterway or waterways, and the time when such work shall be completed: Provided, that the time set for the beginning of said work shall be within six months of the signing of said contract, and the time set for the completion of said work shall be a reasonable time, to be determined in each case by the commissioner of public lands, according to the difficulties to be encountered: And provided further, that said commissioner of public lands, upon showing of due diligence on the part of the contracting parties may grant an extension of the time for the beginning or completion of said work. [L. '93, p. 242, § 3.]

Cited in 20 Wash. 279.

§ 9606. [8103.] Commissioner's Certificate of Cost.

Upon the completion of the work, provided for by said contract, or any part thereof, capable of separate use for the purposes of navigation, according to the terms and conditions of said contract, and within the time provided therein, or such further extension of time as may have been granted by virtue of the preceding section, the commissioner of public lands shall issue his certificate to the contracting parties, or their assigns, showing the actual cost of the filling in and raising above high tide of all tide and shore lands so filled in and raised above high tide by such completion of said work, or such separate portion thereof, and specifying and describing, with reasonable certainty, the lands so filled in and raised above high tide. Upon the filing in the office of the county auditor of the county or counties in which such lands are situated, of such certificate of the commissioner of public lands, said contracting parties shall acquire a lien, and the same shall thereupon attach, for the amount specified in such certificate, with fifteen per cent additional thereon, and with interest on such amount and additional percentage from the date of such certificate at the rate of eight per cent per annum until payment: Provided, however, that such lien shall not be operative for an amount exceeding the cost of the work as stated in the contract, or, as the case may be, such portion of said stated cost as shall be proportionate to the part of the work with reference to which the certificate has issued, upon the bonds specified in such certificate. Such lien shall not be in solido, and upon the sale by the state to any person, or by any owner claiming under the state to any other person, of any of the tide and shore lands specified in such certificate, the lien herein granted may be discharged, as hereinbelow provided, as to any such part of said lands separately granted or owned, upon the payment of such part of the amount for which the lien upon the lands was given in the first instance as shall bear the same proportion to said whole amount which the area of such separate part of such land bears to the area of the whole thereof. The amount due on such lien, or any proportionate part thereof separately payable as above provided, shall be payable by any owner of said lands, or any part thereof separately owned, as the case may be, other than the state, in ten equal annual installments, the first installment at the end of the first year after the sale of such lands, or of such separate portion thereof, by the state; and the remaining installments, one at the end of each year thereafter, with accompanying interest on each of such installments, as hereinbefore provided, to the time of the payment thereof, and such lien may be foreclosed in the manner provided by law for the foreclosure of other liens on real estate for nonpayment of the whole amount due, or of any separate installment or installments thereof which shall have become due. If such lands specified in any such certificate shall not be sold by the state, within one year after the date of such certificate, the parties in whose favor such certificate was issued, or their assigns, shall have the option during the next succeeding six months to purchase such lands, or any part thereof, from the state in the manner provided by then existing laws for the sale of tide lands of the state. This chapter shall not be so construed as to create any obligation on the part of the state to pay or discharge any lien which may attach to such lands by virtue of the provisions thereof. [L. '93, p. 243, § 4.] sell v. Ross, 64 Wash. 418, 116 Pac. 1088; Richards v. Bussell, 70 Wash. 554, 127 Pac. 198, 129 Pac. 90.

Liens, see notes to § 9603, supra.

§ 9607. [8104.] Application for Contracts.

Any person or persons, or any corporation, doing business in this state may give notice in writing to the commissioner of public lands of his or their intentions to comply with the provisions of this chapter at any given locality or localities, describing the same in general terms, and thereafter they shall have ninety days after the completion of the publication hereinafter mentioned within which to prepare the maps, specifications and contracts herein provided for. And the giving of said notice shall place the lands described therein subject to the operation of this chapter until the making and signing of the contracts herein provided for, and the making and signing of said contract shall make the lands described therein subject to the operating of this chapter pending its execution, and all persons or corporations purchasing said lands from the state in the meantime shall take the same subject to the ultimate lien upon the same, provided for herein: Provided, however, that this section shall not be so construed as to require the commissioner of public lands to enter into any contract whatever, or the governor to approve any contract whatever; and said commissioner of public lands shall have the right to refuse to make any contract, and the governor shall have the right to refuse to approve any such contract which in their judgment or in the judgment of either of them would be detrimental to the interests of the state: And provided further, that the commissioner of public lands shall publish for thirty days, at the expense of the applicant, in some newspaper of general circulation, in the county where the said lands are situated, notice of the pendency of such application, and request all interested parties to appear before him at the time and place mentioned in said notice and state their objections; and no contract shall be entered into by the commissioner of public lands for the improvement of any such waterway or waterways until after the date fixed in said notice at which interested parties may appear and be heard. [L. '93, p. 244, § 5.]

§ 9608. [8105.] Right of Way Through Public Lands.

A right of way is hereby granted for any waterway or waterways herein provided for through any lands belonging to the state of Washington of sufficient width to accommodate said waterway or waterways; the width and definite location of such right of way, however, shall be plainly and completely specified in the contract herein provided for. [L. '93, p. 245, § 6.]

§ 9609. [8106.] Bulkheads, etc.

All contracts provided for herein shall specify the character of all bulkheads and other restraining works and be accompanied by drawings and specifications of the same, and the commissioner of public lands shall be the judge of the sufficiency thereof, and of the minimum depth to which any waterway shall be excavated, in order to make the same useful for the purposes of commerce and navigation. [L. '93, p. 245, § 7.]

Cited in 60 Wash. 350.

§ 9610. [8107.] Apportionment of Cost.

In ascertaining the cost of filling in and raising above high tide of any tide or shore lands, the cost of all bulkheads, and other restraining works, and the cost of filling in and raising above high tide of all streets, alleys and public squares or places, shall be apportioned to the lands benefited thereby, in addition to the cost of filling in such lands. [L. '93, p. 245, § 8.]

§ 9611. [8108.] Waterways Open to Public—Tolls.

All waterways excavated through any tide or shore lands belonging to the state of Washington by virtue of the provisions of this chapter, so far as they run through said tide or shore lands, are hereby declared to be public waterways, free to all citizens upon equal terms, and subject to the jurisdiction of the proper authorities, as provided by law: Provided, that where tide gates or locks are considered, by the contracting parties excavating any waterways, to be necessary to the efficiency of the same, the commissioner of public lands may, in his discretion, authorize such tide gates or locks to be constructed and may authorize the parties constructing the same to operate them and collect a reasonable toll from vessels passing through said tide gates or locks: Provided further, that the state of Washington or the United States of America can, at any time, appropriate said tide gates or locks upon payment to the parties erecting them, of the reasonable value of the same at the date of such appropriation, said reasonable value to be ascertained and determined as in other cases of condemnation of private property for public use. [L. '93, p. 246, § 9.]

Cited in 11 Wash. 231, 646.

§ 9612. [8109.] Appraisement of Tide Lands Proposed to Fill.

If the commissioner of public lands shall determine to let any contract for the excavation of a waterway, as hereinbefore provided, the tide land appraisers appointed in the county in which said tide lands lie, shall forthwith appraise the tide lands which it is proposed to fill in by the excavation of such waterway, at their actual value at the time of letting such contract, and the said lands so appraised shall never be disposed of by the state for less than such appraised value. CHAPTER III.
ERECTION OF WHARVES.

§ 9613. [8110.] Riparian Owner may Build Wharf and Charge Wharfage.

Any person owning land adjoining any navigable waters or watercourse, within or bordering upon this state, may erect upon his own land any wharf or wharves, and may extend them so far into said waters or watercourses as the convenience of shipping may require; and he may charge for wharfage such rates as shall be reasonable: Provided, that he shall at all times leave sufficient room in the channel for the ordinary purposes of navigation. [L. '54, p. 357, § 1; L. '60, p. 326, § 1; L. '63, p. 531, § 1; Cd. '81, § 3271; 1 H. C., § 2136.]

See, also: Remington's Digest, Wharves, § 1; State ex rel. Port Angeles v. Morse, 56 Wash. 654, 106 Pac. 147.

This section cannot be construed to mean that a private wharf may not be devoted to such use as will, in contemplation of law, make it partake of the nature of a public wharf: Barrington v.

(1) Whenever any person shall be desirous of erecting any wharf at the terminus of any public highway, or at any accustomed landing place, he may apply to the county commissioners of the proper county, who, if they shall be satisfied that the public convenience requires said wharf, may authorize the same to be erected and to be kept up for any length of time not exceeding twenty years. And they shall annually prescribe the rates of wharfage and charges thereon, but there shall be no charge for the landing of passengers or their baggage. (2) No such authority shall be granted to any person other than the owner of the land where the wharf is proposed to be erected, unless such owner shall neglect to apply for such authority; and whenever application shall be made for such authority by any person other than such owner, the board of county commissioners shall not grant the same unless proof shall be made that the applicant caused notice in writing of his intention to make such application, to be given by posting up at least three notices in public places in the neighborhood where the proposed wharf is to be erected and one notice at the county courthouse, twenty days prior to any regular session of the board of county commissioners at which application shall be made and by serving a copy of said notice in writing upon such owner of the land, if residing in the county, at least ten days before the session of the board of county commissioners at which the application is made. (3) When such application is heard, if the owner of such land applies for such authority and files his undertaking with one or more sureties to be approved by the county commissioners in a sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, to be fixed by the county commissioners, conditioned that such person will erect said wharf within the time therein limited, to be fixed by the county commissioners, and maintain the same and keep said wharf according to law; and if default shall at any time be made in the condition of such undertaking damages not exceeding the penalty may be recovered by any person aggrieved before any court having competent jurisdiction, then said county commissioners shall authorize such owner of the land to erect and keep such wharf. (4) If such owner of the land does not apply as aforesaid the commission may authorize the same to be erected and kept by such applicant upon his entering into an undertaking as required of such owner of the land. [L. '54, p. 37, § 1; L. '63, p. 531, § 2; Cd. '81, § 3272; 1 H. C., § 2137; L. '93, p. 77, § 1.]

Whenever any person or persons shall be desirous of erecting a wharf at the terminus of any street of any incorporated town or city in the state, he or they may apply to the municipal authorities of such town or city, who, if they shall be satisfied that the public convenience requires said wharf, may authorize the same to be erected and kept in repair for any length of time not exceeding ten years; and every person building, owning, or occupying a wharf in this state, upon which wharfage is charged and received, shall be held accountable to the owner or owners, consignees or agents, for any and all damage done to property stored upon or passing over said wharf, in consequence of the unfinished, incomplete, or insufficient condition of such wharf; and every such person shall post or cause to be posted in a conspicuous place on said wharf the established rates of wharfage, noting passengers and their baggage free. [L. '55, p. 37, § 1; L. '63, p. 531, § 3; Cd. '81, § 3273; 1 H. C., § 2138.]

The act of the territorial legislature of 1854, authorizing riparian owners to build wharves in front of their premises, was but a license and, until availed of, was revocable; and the Constitution and subsequent laws have abrogated the act: Eisenbach v. Hatfield, 2 Wash. 236, 26 Pac. 539, 12 L. R. A. 632.

This section providing that cities may authorize the construction of a wharf at the terminus of a street, has been superseded by Constitution, Article XV, and the laws enacted in pursuance thereof for the sale, lease or control of tide lands and harbor areas by agents of the state, so far as the same affects tide lands not owned by the city or included in public streets extended over the tide lands: *State ex rel. § 9616. [8113.] Wharves Without Railings Deemed Incomplete.

All wharves now standing, or hereafter to be built, in this state, shall be deemed insufficient, incomplete, and unfinished unless they have good and substantial banisters or railing on the sides thereof, or a strip of hewn timber at least eight by ten inches square, well secured all round said wharves within ten inches of the outer edge thereof, except at the ends. [L. '60, p. 327, § 2; L. '63, p. 532, § 4; Cd. '81, § 3274; 1 H. C., § 2139.]

The board of county commissioners of each county in this state is hereby authorized to build and maintain, when in their judgment the convenience of the public so requires, and subject to the approval of the board of state land commissioners, wharves and landings on and across the tide or shore lands owned by the state of Washington of any navigable waters or watercourses within or bordering upon their respective counties and not in front of or included within the limits of any incorporated city or town; said wharves or landings to begin at the point of termination of a county road at or near the shore of such navigable waters or watercourses, and to extend so far into said waters or watercourses as the convenience of shipping may require. Under the rule that counties have only such powers as are conferred by statute, and that statutes of eminent domain, being in derogation of common right, are to be strictly construed, a county has no power to condemn lands within a city of the first class for a public wharf or dock, not connected with a county road; since a wharf is in no sense a county road; this section limiting the right of eminent domain to wharf sites at the terminus of county roads and not within the limits of first-class tide lands: State ex rel. § 9618. [8115.*] State Board may Grant Easement—Procedure.

In cases where the board of county commissioners shall determine to build, construct and maintain wharves or landings as aforesaid over and across tide or shore lands owned by the state of Washington, the board of state land commissioners are hereby authorized to grant an easement to the county for so much of said tide or shore land as may be necessary for right of way purposes: Provided, that a duly attested and sworn copy of the plat made by the county surveyor shall first be filed with the board of state land commissioners, together with a petition of the board of county commissioners setting forth the reasons for the same; and the aforesaid plat, when approved by the board of state land commissioners, shall be and form the official plat of said right of way and shall be filed in the office of the commissioner of public lands and the said plat shall show the amount of land embraced in the proposed right of way and the location of the same relative to at least two of the corners of the public land survey. [L. '17, p. 605, § 10; L. '03, p. 20, § 2.]

§ 9619. [8116.] Right of Way Over Private Property by Eminent Domain.

In cases where a person or person [persons], firm or corporation has acquired a right, title or interest in and to the tide lands or other lands over which it is proposed to build, construct or maintain such wharf or landing, whether such interest be a title in fee simple or as lessee or under contract of purchase or otherwise, and the board of county commissioners shall be unable to agree with the person, persons, firm or corporation claiming such interest or title as to the compensation to be paid for the taking of such strip of tide lands or other lands, then and in that case such board of county commissioners may by an order direct proceedings to procure a right of way over said tide lands or other lands to be brought in the superior court by the county attorney in the manner provided by law, for the taking of private property for public use, and to that end are hereby authorized to institute and maintain in the name of the county the proceedings provided by the laws of this state for the appropriation of lands and other property by counties for public use. CHAPTER IV.

VACATION OF WATERWAYS.

§ 9620. [8117.] Procedure to Obtain.

Whenever any waterway heretofore established under the authority of the laws of this state, or any portion of such waterway, shall not have been excavated, or shall not be in use for the purposes of navigation, or shall no longer be required in the public interest to exist as a waterway, such waterway or portion thereof may be vacated by written order of the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington whenever he shall be requested so to do by ordinance or resolution of the city council of the city in which such waterway is situate, in whole or in part, or, in case such waterway is situate, in whole or in part, in a port district organized under the laws of the state of Washington, whenever he shall be requested so to do by a resolution of the port commission of such port district; and upon the making of such order the waterway or portion thereof shall thereupon be deemed to be and shall be thereby vacated: Provided, however, that if the waterway or portion thereof so vacated be navigable water of the United States, or otherwise within the jurisdiction of the United States, a copy of such resolution or ordinance, together with a copy of said order of the commissioner of public lands certified to by him, shall be submitted to the secretary of war and chief of engineers of the United States for their approval, and if they approve the same such waterway or portion thereof shall be thereupon deemed to be and shall be thereupon vacated. [L. '13, p. 590, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 114, § 1.]

§ 9621. [8118.] City may Extend Street Across Vacated Portion.

Upon such vacation occurring, in either of the manners aforesaid, the city within, in front of, or in the vicinity of which such waterway is located, shall have the right to extend across the portions so vacated any existing streets, or to select therefrom such portions thereof as the city may desire for street purposes, in no case to exceed one hundred and fifty feet in width for any one street. Such selection shall be made within sixty days subsequent to the receipt of notice from any party in interest of the vacation of the portion of the waterway so vacated. [L. '09, p. 115, § 2.]

§ 9622. [8119.] Disposal of Vacated Portion.

Should such city fail to make such selection within such time, or having within such time made such selection, the title of the remaining portions of such waterway so vacated shall vest in the state of Washington, unless the same be situate within the territorial limits of a port district created under the laws of the state of Washington, in which event such title shall vest in said port district. If subsequent to such vacation, the vacated waterway or portion of waterway shall be embraced within the limits of a port district created under the laws of the state of Washington, the title to such portions thereof as shall then remain undisposed of by the state shall vest in such port district. Such title so vesting shall be subject to any railroad or street railway crossings existing at the time of such vacation. [L. '13, p. 591, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 115, § 3.]

All preference rights of purchase created by the act of which this act is amendatory are hereby annulled. [L. '13, p. 591, § 3.]

§ 9624. [8119-2.] Application of Act.

The provisions of this act shall not apply to any waterway or portion of waterway which forms, or by improving same may be made to form, a connection between a river or another waterway and any tidal water. [L. '13, p. 591, § 4.]

CHAPTER V.

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

See, also, the next chapter.

§ 9625. [8120.] Tax Levy for River Improvement Fund.

The county commissioners of any county may annually levy a tax, beginning with the year 1907, in such amount as, in their judgment they may deem necessary or advisable, but not to exceed one mill upon all taxable property in such county, for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as "River improvement fund." [L. '07, p. 109, § 1.]

See supra, § 4057-1, county flood prevention.

See supra, § 4386, improvement by diking and drainage districts.

See supra, § 8388, logging improvement.

See supra, § 9175, power of third and fourth class cities to improve.

Said fund shall be expended by such county commissioners to acquire by condemnation or otherwise, any land bordering upon, or in the vicinity of the banks of any river or stream to be improved, which in their judgment it is advisable to acquire, to strengthen and preserve the banks of any river or stream and prevent overflow thereof, and confine such river or stream within its proper channel, or to straighten the channel by dredging or construction of a new channel; to construct any levee, embankment, channel or other construction at such point where such land is acquired, as in their judgment they may deem necessary or advisable, to protect and render more secure the banks of any river by constructing therein stone or masonry work, contrivance or piling or such other construction as in their judgment is best adapted to accomplish such purpose; to remove log jams or obstructions that may be or hereafter form in such river, and to do any other act to prevent the formation of any obstruction in such river or stream. [L. '19, p. 266, § 1; L. '07, p. 109, § 2.]

The board of county commissioners are hereby authorized to employ such persons as they deem necessary and fix their compensation to patrol such rivers and streams and remove such log jams or obstructions now existing or which may hereafter form, and for the purpose of preventing the formation thereof, and who shall perform such other duties as are contemplated by this act and directed by said board of county commissioners. [L. '07, p. 110, § 3.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9625—9628.

§ 9628. [8123.] Expenditure of Fund.

All expenses to be incurred in accomplishing the objects authorized by this act shall be paid out of said river improvement fund and which fund shall be used for no other purpose than the purposes contemplated by this act. [L. '07, p. 110, § 4.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9625—9628.

§ 9629. [8124.] River Improvement Districts—Organization.

Whenever fifty electors and resident taxpayers desire to provide for the deepening, widening, or otherwise improving the channel of any navigable river in this state or on the border thereof they may by petition propose the organization of a river improvement district under the provisions of this act; and when so organized such district shall have the powers conferred, or that may thereafter be conferred by law upon such river improvement district. [L. '03, p. 270, § 1.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9630. [8125.] Petition — Accompanied by Bond — Hearing — Notice of Election.

Such petition shall first be presented to the board of county commissioners in the county in which the improvements are proposed to be made, which petition shall set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of such district, and the nature, character and extent of the proposed improvements, and shall pray that the same may be organized under the provisions of this act. The petitioners must accompany the petition with a good and sufficient bond, to be approved by the commissioners, in double the amount of the probable cost of organizing such district, conditioned that the bondsmen will pay all of the costs in case such organization shall not be effected. Such petition shall be presented at a regular meeting of the said board of commissioners and shall be published for at least two weeks before the time at which the same is to be presented, in some newspaper printed and published in the county where said petition is presented, together with a notice stating the time of meeting at which the same will be presented. When such petition is presented the said board of commissioners shall hear the same, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time, not exceeding four weeks in all; and on the final hearing may make such changes in the proposed boundaries as they may find proper, and shall establish and define such boundaries. Said board of commissioners shall then order an election to be held in such proposed district for the purpose of determining whether or not the same shall be organized under the provisions of this act, and for the election of a board of directors consisting of five members. Said board of commissioners shall cause notice to be given of such election. The notice shall describe the boundaries so established, the character, nature and extent of the proposed improvements, and the election of five directors to serve until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall designate a name for such proposed district, and the notice shall be published for at least three weeks prior to such election in a newspaper published in said county and having a general circulation in the proposed district. Such notice shall require the electors to cast ballots which shall contain the words "River Improvement District—Yes," and "River Improvement District—No," or words equivalent thereto; and to vote for five persons to constitute the board of directors. [L. '03, p. 270, § 2.]

§ 9631. [8126.] Election—How Conducted.

Such election shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, except that no particular form of ballot shall be required. The voting precincts shall be the same unless changed by the commissioners. [L. '03, p. 271, § 3.]

§ 9632. [8127.] Qualifications of Voters.

No person shall be entitled to vote at any election held under the provisions of this act, unless he is a qualified elector of the district and possesses all the qualifications required of electors under the laws of the state. [L. '03, p. 271, § 4.]

"Act": See note to § 9629.

§ 9633. [8128.] Canvass by Commissioners—Oath of Directors.

The board of county commissioners shall meet on the first Monday next succeeding such election and proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat; and if upon such canvass it appear that at least a majority of all votes cast are "River Improvement District—Yes," the said board shall, by an order entered in their minutes, declare such territory duly organized as a "River Improvement District" under the name and style theretofore designated, and shall declare the five persons receiving respectively the highest number of votes for directors, to be duly elected directors. From the making of such order the organization of such district shall be complete, and the board of directors elected at such election shall be entitled to enter upon the duties of their office upon their taking and subscribing to an oath that they will faithfully and impartially and to the best of their ability perform the duties of directors of said district. [L. '03, p. 271, § 5.]

Cited in 56 Wash. 695, 696.

§ 9634. [8129.] Term of Office of First Directors.

The board of directors elected at the first election held under the provisions of this act shall hold office until the second Monday in January the year succeeding the January next succeeding their election, and until their successors are elected and qualified. [L. '03, p. 272, § 6.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9635. [8130.] Biennial Elections.

Biennial elections for the election of a board of directors shall be held on the second Tuesday of December. The board of directors shall prescribe voting precincts for such elections. The general law governing the election of officers of cities of the third class as far as applicable shall be followed in the election of directors. The polls shall be opened at 1 o'clock P. M. and closed at 6 o'clock P. M. The form of ballot prescribed by the general law need not be adopted. The returns of the election shall be delivered to the secretary of the board. The board of directors shall meet on the first Monday following the election and canvass the returns, and declare the result of the election. [L. '03, p. 272, § 7.]

§ 9636. [8131.] Term of Office of Directors—Oath.

The board of directors elected at the biennial election shall hold office for two years from the second Monday in January next succeeding their election and until the election and qualification of their successors. Before entering upon the duties of their office, the directors shall take and subscribe to an oath that they will faithfully and impartially and to the best of their ability perform the duties of directors of said district. [L. '03, p. 272, § 8.]

§ 9637. [8132.] Directors—Eligibility—Vacancies, How Filled.

None but qualified electors residing within the said district shall be eligible to hold the office of director. In case of a vacancy in the membership of the board of directors, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the remaining members of the board, and such appointees shall hold the office until the next general election for the election of directors and until his successor is elected and qualified. [L. '03, p. 272, § 9.]

§ 9638. [8133.] Organization of First Board.

The board of directors elected at the first election held under the provisions of this act shall meet on the second Monday following the election and organize the said board, elect a president from their number, and appoint a secretary who shall hold his respective office during the pleasure of the board of directors. [L. '03, p. 273, § 10.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9639. [8134.] Duties and Powers of Directors.

The board of directors shall consist of five members, and they shall have power and it shall be their duty to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district, make and execute all necessary contracts, employ such agents, officers and employees as may be required, and make and adopt such rules and by-laws as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this act. [L. '03, p. 273, § 11.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9640. [8135.] Regular and Special Meetings—Quorum, etc.

Regular meetings of the board shall be held at such times as the board may designate. Special meetings may be held whenever a majority of the board deems it advisable, but no special meeting shall be held unless personal notice is given to all members of the board of the time and place of the meeting. All meetings of the board must be public, and three members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but on all questions requiring a vote, there shall be a concurrence of at least three members of said board. [L. '03, p. 273, § 12.]

§ 9641. [8136.] Tax Levy—Sale of Bonds—Use of Funds.

For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act, the board of directors are empowered to levy a tax upon the taxable property within the district, in the manner hereinafter provided, and they are authorized when directed by a vote of the people of the district in the manner hereinafter specified to sell the bonds of the district to raise funds to carry on the work. The money derived from the sale of bonds shall be used exclusively in making public improvements for the benefit of the people of the district, said improvements to consist of deepening, widening or otherwise improving the channel of any navigable river within or adjacent to any district organized under the provisions of this act and to be for the purpose of extending and aiding navigation and commerce on such river in the interest and for the benefit of the people in such district. [L. '03, p. 273, § 13.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9642. [8137.] Special Election on Question of Bonds—Issuance of Bonds.

Whenever the board of directors deem it necessary or expedient to raise money for the purposes specified in section 9641, they shall call a special election to determine whether the district shall issue bonds. At such election there shall be submitted to the electors of said district possessing the qualifications prescribed in this act the question whether or not the bonds of said district in the amount so determined shall be issued. Notice of such election must be given by posting notices in three public places in each precinct in said district for at least twenty days, and also by publication of such notice in some newspaper published in the county where the district is situated and having a general circulation therein, for at least three successive weeks. Such notice must specify the time of holding the election and the amount of bonds proposed to be issued.

Said election must be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects as nearly as practicable in conformity with the provisions of this act applicable to the holding of elections for the election of directors. Provided, that no informality in conducting such election shall invalidate the same, if the election shall have been otherwise fairly conducted. At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Bonds, Yes" and "Bonds, No," or words equivalent thereto. If a majority of the votes cast are "Bonds, Yes," the board may then issue bonds in the amount authorized. If the majority of the votes cast are "Bonds, No," the result shall be entered in the records of the board, but no bonds shall be issued unless a majority vote is cast in favor of such issuance. Whenever thereafter said board, in its judgment, deems it for the best interests of the district that the question of the issuance of bonds for said amount or any amounts shall be submitted to said electors, it shall so declare said record in its minutes and may thereupon submit such questions to said electors in the same manner and with like effect as at such previous election. Said bonds shall be payable in gold coin of the United States and shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred or more than one thousand dollars, shall be numbered from one up consecutively, shall bear the date of their issue, shall be payable not more than twenty years from date, and redeemable at any time after the expiration of ten years; shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, with interest coupons attached, and the principal and interest shall be payable at such place as may be designated in such bonds. The bonds and each coupon shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by the secretary of the board. Such bonds shall express upon their face that they were issued by authority of this act, stating its title and date of approval, and shall also state the number of the issue of which such bonds are a part. The secretary shall keep a record of the bonds sold, their number, the date of sale, the price received, and the name of the purchaser. [L. '03, p. 273, § 14.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9643. [8138.] Sale of Bonds.

The board may sell the bonds authorized to be issued, from time to time, in such quantities as may be necessary and most advantageous to raise money for the purpose mentioned in section 9641. The board shall at a meeting, by resolution, declare its intention to sell a specified amount of bonds and the day and hour and place of sale, and shall cause publication thereof at least twenty days in such newspapers as they may deem most advantageous. This notice shall state that sealed proposals will be received by the board at their office, for the purchase of the bonds, till the day and hour named in the resolution. At the time appointed the board shall open the proposals and award the purchase of the bonds to the highest responsible bidder, and may reject all bids. Provided, however, that the board shall have the right to sell such bonds, or any of them, at private sale whenever they deem it for the best interest of the district so to do. Provided, further, that such bonds shall not be sold for less than their face value. [L. '03, p. 275, § 15.]

§ 9644. [8139.] Payment of Bonds.

Said bonds and interest thereon shall be paid by revenue derived from any annual assessment upon all the taxable property in the district, and all taxable property within the district shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments as hereinafter provided. [L. '03, p. 275, § 16.]

§ 9645. [8140.] Limit of Indebtedness.

The total indebtedness authorized to be incurred under the provisions of this act shall never exceed two and one-half per cent of the taxable property within the district as ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes, and any debts contracted in excess of such limitation shall be invalid and void. [L. '03, p. 275, § 17.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9646. [8141.] Annual Assessment for Liquidation of Bonds—Call.

Five years before said bonds shall become due the directors of the district are authorized and required annually to levy an assessment sufficient to liquidate said bonds at maturity, such assessment shall be levied and collected as other taxes authorized by this act are collected, but the money arising therefrom shall be retained by the county treasurer until the maturity of bonds. Whenever the treasurer has upon hand two thousand dollars of the special fund for the payment of said bonds, he shall notify the holders of such bonds for the presentation to him of the bonds issued under the provisions of this act as he may be able to pay with the funds in his hands, to be paid in numerical order of said bonds, beginning with number one, until all of said bonds are paid: Provided, that thirty days after the giving of such notice if said bonds are not presented the interest thereon shall cease. [L. '03, p. 275, § 18.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9647. [8142.] Levy for Interest on Bonds.

It shall be the duty of the directors annually to levy an assessment sufficient for the payment of interest coupons hereinbefore mentioned as they fall due. [L. '03, p. 276, § 19.]

§ 9648. [8143.] Sinking Fund—Limit and Collection of Taxes.

The board of directors shall determine the amount to be raised to pay the interest on the bonds outstanding, and whatever sum the board deems advisable to raise for the purpose mentioned in section 9641, and when necessary to provide for a sinking fund and shall determine the rate necessary to raise such sums based upon the totals of the taxable property within the district as equalized and determined by the county board of equalization. The rate so determined shall be certified to the county auditor of the county in which the district is located, and by him extended upon the tax-rolls of the county, in a separate column. The rate so determined shall in no event exceed two and one-half mills on the dollar on the taxable property within the district for any one year. The auditor shall certify the same to the county treasurer as other taxes are certified, and the treasurer shall collect the taxes, keeping them separate from other taxes, and shall pay therefrom said interest coupons as they mature and said bonds as they may be called. [L. '03, p. 276, § 20.]

All the laws governing the assessment and collection of taxes for general state and county purposes shall apply to the assessment and collection of taxes levied under the provisions of this act, except that the taxes collected under the provisions of this act shall be kept separate, and apart from other taxes. In case any tax levied under this act shall become delinquent, same shall be included, with taxes levied for other purposes, in the certificate of delinquency that may be issued, and any proceeding to foreclose said certificate of delinquency shall include the amount of delinquent tax levied for river improvements under this act. [L. '03, p. 276, § 21; L. '05, p. 208, § 1.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9650. [8145.] Directors — No Salary — Not to have Interest in Contracts.

The board of directors shall receive no salary for services performed under the provisions of this act, nor shall they be interested directly or indirectly in any contract awarded or to be awarded by the board, or in the profits to be derived therefrom; and for any violation of this provision, such officers shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and such conviction shall work a forfeiture of his office, and he shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and the said contract in which said director was interested shall be void. [L. '03, p. 277, § 22.]

"Act" refers to §§ 9629—9650.

§ 9651. [8145-1.] Boundary Line Rivers—Overflow—Improvement.

Wherever and whenever a river is or shall be the boundary line or part of the boundary line between two counties, or it, or its tributaries or outlet or part thereof, flows through parts of two counties, and the waters thereof have in the past been the cause of damage, by inundation or otherwise, to the roads, bridges or other public property situate in or to other public interests of both such counties, or the flow of such waters shall have alternated between the said counties so at one time or times such waters shall have caused damage to one county and at another time or times to the other county, and if it shall be deemed by the boards of county commissioners of both counties to be for the public interests of their respective counties that the flow of such waters be definitely confined to a particular channel, situate in whole or in part in either county, in a manner calculated to prevent such alternation or to prevent or lessen damage in the future, it shall be lawful for the two counties, and their boards of county commissioners are hereby empowered, pursuant to resolution, to enter into a contract in writing in the names of the respective counties for the purpose of settling all disputes in relation to any such situation, and providing ways and means for the control and disposition of such waters. Any such contract may provide:

(a) That it shall be operative in perpetuity, or only for a term of years or other measure of time to be specified therein.

(b) The amount of money to be expended by each county during each year of the life of said contract, or such other method of determining the amount of expenditure or dividing the financial burden as may be agreed upon.

(c) That an annual tax shall be levied, at the same time and in the same manner as other county taxes are levied, each year during the life of the contract, by the county commissioners of each county. The annual tax herein provided for need not be levied at the same rate for each county, but shall be at such rate in each county as will produce annually the amount of money for each county as is required for the fulfillment of the contract on its part: Provided, however, that in no event shall any such tax levy by either county exceed one mill on the dollar for any one year.

(d) That the general scheme for the improvement of such river shall be as stated in such contract, but by consent of the contracting parties, pursuant to resolution of each board of county commissioners, such scheme may be modified from time to time during the life of the contract. The contract may but need not provide the details of such scheme, but must designate the general purpose to be accomplished. So far as details are not specified in the contract, same shall be for future determination by joint action of the two boards of county commissioners. Any such contract may be subsequently modified or abrogated by mutual consent evidenced by separate resolution of both boards of county commissioners. [L. '13, p. 156, § 1.]

See supra, § 4057-1, flood prevention and control by counties.

§ 9652. [8145-2.] Funds Expended—Work—How Done.

When such a contract shall have been entered into the prosecution of the work of improvement and the expenditure of funds thereof shall be determined upon, controlled and provided for by joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the two counties. So acting jointly, they shall have power to employ subordinates, purchase material or equipment in open market or by contract, let contracts for work, or cause work to be done by day labor, and to reject any and all bids received for work or material. All vouchers, pay-rolls, reports, contracts and bonds on contracts shall be in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the office of the county auditor of each county: Provided, however, that the expenditure of said funds must be made in such manner so that the fund from each county is drawn on or expended alternately and such alternate expenditure shall be in proportion to the amount contributed by each county as nearly as may be practicable. [L. '13, p. 158, § 2.]

§ 9653. [8145-3.] Tax Levy in Each County—Warrants—Claims.

When such a contract shall have been entered into it shall be the duty of each of the boards of county commissioners to make for their respective counties, each year, a tax levy at a rate sufficient to meet the requirements of the contract to be performed by the county, or sufficient to provide such lesser amount as the boards of county commissioners shall agree upon for such year, to be evidenced by separate resolution of each board, and when such levy shall be made the same shall be extended upon the tax-rolls of the county levying the same as other taxes shall be extended, and shall be collected in the same manner and shall be a lien upon the property as in the case of other taxes. The fund realized in each county by such tax levy shall go into a separate fund in the treasury of the county collecting the same, to be designated inter-county river improvement fund, and the entire fund so collected in the two counties shall be devoted to and be disbursed for the purposes specified in such contract and as in this act provided, and for no other purpose, but without regard to the particular county in which the work is performed, material required or expenditure made, it being the intent that the entire fund realized in the two counties shall be devoted to the one common purpose as if the two counties were one county and the two funds one fund. The fund in each county shall be disbursed by the county treasurer of such county upon warrants signed by the county auditor of that county. Such warrants shall be issued by order of the board of county commissioners of such county, or a majority thereof. Each county auditor shall, whenever requested by the county auditor of the other county, furnish the county auditor of the other county a statement of payments into and warrants drawn upon the fund of his county from time to time, and in addition thereto, each county auditor shall on the first Monday of January, April, July and October each year during the life of the contract furnish the other a complete statement thereof. Obligations incurred in the prosecution of such improvement and warrants issued shall be payable only out of said special funds, and no general obligation against or debt of either county shall be created thereby or by any contract entered into by virtue of this act, but it is not the intent of this act to deny to either county the right to have in the courts any proper proceeding to compel compliance with such contract on the part of the other county. [L. '13, p. 158, § 3.]

When such a contract shall have been entered into the power of eminent domain is hereby vested in each of such counties, to acquire any lands necessary to straighten, widen, deepen, dike or otherwise improve any such river, its tributaries or outlet or to strengthen the banks thereof, or to acquire any land adjacent to such river, or its tributaries, or the right to cut and remove timber upon the same for the purpose of preventing or lessening the falling of timber or brush into the waters of such river or tributaries, or to acquire any rock quarry, gravel deposit or timber for material for the prosecution of such improvement, together with the necessary rights of way for the same. Any such land, property or rights may be acquired by purchase instead of by condemnation proceedings.

Said right of eminent domain shall extend to lands or other property owned by the state or any municipality thereof. The title to any such lands, property or rights so acquired shall vest in the county in which situate for the benefit of such enterprise and said fund, but when said contract shall have terminated by lapse of time or for any other reason, then such title shall be held by such county independent of any claims whatsoever of the other county, but any material, equipment or other chattel property on hand shall be converted into money and the money divided between the two counties in the ratio of their respective contributions to the fund. The exercise of such rights of eminent domain or purchase shall rest in the joint control of the two boards of county commissioners. Such eminent domain proceedings shall be in the name of and had in the county where the property to be acquired is situate, provided if either county shall fail or refuse to institute and prosecute any condemnation proceedings when directed so to do by any legal meeting provided for in section 9655, such proceeding may be instituted and prosecuted by and in the name of the other county. The proceedings may conform to the provisions of sections 921 and 926, inclusive, of this code, or to any general law now or hereafter enacted governing eminent domain proceedings by counties. The awards in and costs of such proceedings shall be payable out of such funds. The purposes in this act specified are hereby declared to be county purposes of each and both of such counties. [L. '13, p. 159, § 4.]

§ 9655. [8145-5.] Joint County Meeting—Procedure.

When such a contract shall have been entered into and occasion shall arise for the joint action of the two boards of county commissioners whether such joint action is provided for in this act or otherwise desired upon any matter having relation to such contract or the prosecution of such improvement, such joint action may be secured by a notice calling a joint meeting signed by two county commissioners, designating the time and place in either county of such meeting, served by one of the two county auditors upon the remaining county commissioners at least seven days (exclusive of the date of service or mailing) prior to the time so designated. If the notice is signed by two county commissioners of the same county the place of meeting shall be at some place in the other county designated in the notice. Such service may be personal or by mail addressed to the member in care of the county auditor of his county. The six county commissioners may constitute a legal meeting without notice by being present together for that purpose. The auditor's certificate of such personal service or mailing, attached to a copy of the notice, shall be made a part of the records of the meeting and be competent proof of the fact. Except in the case hereinafter provided for, the presence of four of the county commissioners shall be necessary to constitute a legal meeting. Each meeting shall be presided over by one of those present selected by vote. The county auditor of the county wherein the meeting is held shall be secretary of the meeting, and shall make duplicate record of its proceedings, one of which, with his certificate thereon, shall be forwarded to the county auditor of the other county, and such record shall be a part of the record of the board of county commissioners of each county. A majority vote of those present at any legal meeting shall be determinative upon any question properly considered at the meeting, and shall be binding upon each county as if enacted or adopted by its own board of county commissioners separately, but no joint meeting whatsoever shall in any manner continue, extend, change, alter, modify, or abrogate the contract when made or any of the terms and conditions contained therein. Each county commissioner shall be paid out of said fund in his own county all disbursements made by him for traveling and other expenses incurred in attending any joint meeting or in any way connected with the prosecution of the improvement. Any legal meeting shall have power to adjourn to another time and place. An adjourned meeting shall have all the powers of the meeting of which it is an adjournment, but shall have no power after the end of the thirtieth day following the date of the original meeting of which it is an adjournment. If the three county commissioners of either county shall fail to attend any two meetings consecutively called, the notice for the next succeeding meeting may be also served upon the special commissioner hereinafter provided for, and if he and three county commissioners attend pursuant to such notice the four shall constitute a legal meeting, but if he does not so attend and three county commissioners do attend, the same shall constitute a legal meeting: Provided, all notices calling a joint meeting shall specify distinctly and separately each question to be considered at said meeting; and it shall be unlawful to consider any question at such meeting or at any adjourned meeting thereof except those which have been distinctly and separately specified, except in cases where all six county commissioners are present or five county commissioners present are unanimous on the question, and in any action which may be taken on any question other than those specified in the notice shall be void and shall not be binding on either county, except in cases where all six county commissioners are present or the action was by unanimous vote of five county commissioners present at such meeting. [L. '13, p. 161, § 5.]

§ 9656. [8145-6.] Special Commissioner—Duties.

When such a contract shall have been entered into there shall be designated at the first legal joint meeting, or adjournment thereof, held in each calendar year a special commissioner to serve as such until the first joint meeting held in the ensuing year. If such designation shall not be made at any such first annual meeting, the United States engineer in charge of the district in which such improvement is located shall be such special commissioner until the next succeeding first annual meeting. If a special commissioner shall for any reason fail to serve as such officer, or be removed by unanimous vote of any legal meeting, a successor to him may be chosen at any subsequent legal joint meeting during his term. Such special commissioner shall have power to attend and vote at any joint meeting in the following cases and none other, to wit: (1) In cases specially so provided in section 9655; (2) In any case where the vote of any such joint meeting shall stand equally divided upon any question arising under this act or such contract or in the prosecution of the work of improvement. The special commissioner shall have no voice or vote except upon questions on which the vote of the county commissioners is equally divided. The procedure in cases covered by the foregoing subdivision (2) of this section shall be substantially as follows: It shall be the duty of the secretary of the meeting at which the division shall occur, if the attendance of the special commissioner at that meeting is not secured, to forthwith transmit to the special commissioner written notice of the fact of disagreement and the question involved, and of the time and place to which the meeting shall have been adjourned or at which the question will recur. If there shall be no such adjournment of the meeting, or if the secretary shall not give such notice, any two commissioners may in the manner provided in section 9655 call a joint meeting for the consideration of the question in dispute, and in such event either county auditor may give such notice to the special commissioner. No informality in the mode of securing the attendance of the special commissioner shall invalidate the proceedings of or any vote taken at any meeting which he shall attend and which he is empowered to attend by the provisions of this act. The special commissioner shall receive, to be paid equally out of the two funds, his traveling and other expenses incurred in attending meetings or otherwise in connection with the work of improvement, and such compensation for his services as shall be fixed by the joint meeting which shall have selected him, or failing to be so fixed, his compensation shall be ten dollars per day of actual service. [L. '13, p. 162, § 6.]

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed to prevent any county which may be a party to such contract from further caring for any such river or the banks thereof, as authorized so to do by existing laws or by such laws as may be hereafter enacted, provided the rights of neither county, as fixed by contract, shall be impaired thereby. [L. '13, p. 164, § 7.]

§ 9658. [8145-8.] Act Creates no Liability.

No legal claim of any kind or character whatsoever in favor of one county and against the other shall be based upon or created by the enactment hereof, except such as may arise when the contract herein provided for shall have been entered into. After such contract shall have been entered into, should any loss or damage be sustained by either county occasioned by the overflow of any such river, if caused by any act or omission to act of the other county, its officers or agents, or any other cause whatsoever, then such county so suffering or sustaining said loss shall not be entitled to recover therefor from the other county, nor shall any cause of action, legal or equitable, be based thereon: Provided, however, that if either county shall suffer loss or damage because of the failure or refusal of the other county to perform any such contract on its part to be performed, the injured county shall have a cause of action against the defaulting county to recover the same, but the limit of recovery for any loss or damage suffered in any one year shall not exceed the sum of ten thousand dollars, and any such recovery shall be limited to such special fund, and in no event to be recoverable out of the general fund of such defaulting county. If any such loss or damage shall be liquidated in an amount by agreement or by judgment, the defaulting county shall increase its tax levy for said special fund for the ensuing year sufficiently to provide for such liquidated amount: And provided further, that either county may have any proper action in the courts to compel the performance of the contract or any duty imposed thereby or by this act. [L. '13, p. 164, § 8.]

Nonliability of county, see infra, § 9663.

§ 9659. [8145-9.] Warrants may be Issued—Limit of Tax Levy.

When such a contract shall have been entered into, it shall be lawful to issue warrants upon said fund, though there be at the time of such issuance no money in the fund, but in such cases the aggregate of such warrants so issued in any year shall not exceed one-half the amount of the next annual tax levy required by such contract. Such warrants shall be stamped by the county treasurer when presented to him for payment, to bear interest at a certain rate thereafter until paid, such rate to be the then current rate as determined by the county auditor. [L. '13, p. 165, § 9.]

§ 9660. [8145-10.] Joint Acquisition of Property—Disposition.

Whenever two counties of this state, acting under a contract made pursuant to sections 9651 to 9659, shall make an improvement in connection with the course, channel or flow of a river, shall acquire property by statute, purchase, gift or otherwise, said counties, acting through their boards of county commissioners jointly shall have the power, and are hereby authorized to sell, transfer, trade, lease, or otherwise dispose of said property by public or private, negotiation or sale. The deeds to the property so granted, transferred, leased or sold shall be executed by the chairman of the meeting of the joint boards of county commissioners, and attested by the secretary of said joint meeting where the sale is authorized. The proceeds of the sale of said property shall be used by said counties for the carrying on, completion or maintenance of said improvement, as directed by the boards of county commissioners of said counties acting jointly. [L. '15, p. 299, § 1.]

This act is not intended to modify, change, alter or amend sections 9651 to 9659. [L. '15, p. 299, § 2.]

§ 9662. [8145-12.] Joint Grant of State's Title to Reclaimed River Channels.

Whenever two counties of this state, acting under a contract made pursuant to sections 9651 to 9659, shall make an improvement in connection with the course, channel or flow of a river, thereby causing it to abandon its existing channel, bed, bank or banks for the entire distance covered by said improvement, or for any part or portion thereof, or by said improvement shall prevent a river from resuming at a future time an ancient or abandoned channel or bed, or shall construct improvements intended so to do, all the right, title and interest of the state of Washington in and to said abandoned channel or channels, bed or beds, bank or banks, up to and including the line of ordinary high water, shall be and the same is hereby given, granted and conveyed jointly to the counties making such improvement. [L. '15, p. 375, § 1.]

Cited in 111 Wash. 497.

The possessory rights of persons upon an old river channel abandoned before the admission of the state cannot be questioned by the state which never had title to the land, and the state can pass no title by virtue of this act: George v. Pierce County, 111 Wash. 495, 191 Pac. 406.

§ 9663. Liability of County for Flood Prevention and Navigation Improvements.

No action shall be brought or maintained against any county alone or when acting jointly with any other county under any law, its or their agents, officers or employees, for any noncontractual acts or omissions of such county or counties, its or their agents, officers or employees, relating to the improvement, protection, regulation and control for flood prevention and navigation purposes of any river or its tributaries and the beds, banks and waters thereof: Provided, that nothing contained in this act shall apply to or affect any action now pending or begun prior to the passage of this act. [L. '21, p. 747, § 1.]

See supra, § 4057-1, flood prevention by counties.

CHAPTER VI.

CANAL, HARBOR AND RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

River improvements: See the preceding chapter.

§ 9664. [8146.] County may Construct or may Aid United States in Construction—Limit.

Whenever the board of county commissioners of any county of the first class in this state shall deem it for the interest of the county to construct or to aid the United States in constructing a canal to connect any bodies of water within the county, such county is hereby authorized to construct such canal or to aid the United States in constructing the same and to incur indebtedness for such purpose to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand ($500,000) dollars and to issue the negotiable bonds of the county therefor in the manner and form provided in sections 5576 to 5581, supra, inclusive. [L. '07, p. 348, § 1.]

The title to this act was not broad enough to include the provisions of section 3, validating prior acts of counties in that behalf under a prior invalid law; the constitutional requirement that no bill shall embrace more than one subject and that expressed in the title applying especially to enactments of a retroactive character: State ex rel. Potter v. King County, 49 Wash. 619, 96 Pac. 156.

§ 9665. [8147.] Public Purpose.

Such purpose is hereby declared to be a county purpose. [L. '07, p. 348, § 2.]

§ 9666. [8147-1.] Joint Aid River and Harbor Improvements—Bonds—Election.

Whenever the board of county commissioners of any county of the first class of this state shall deem it for the interest of the county to engage in or to aid the United States of America, the state of Washington, or any adjoining county or any city of this state, or any of them, in construction, enlargement, improvement, modification, repair or operation of any harbor, canal, waterway, river channel, slip, dock, wharf, or other public improvement, or any of the same, for the purposes of commerce, navigation, sanitation and drainage, or any thereof, or to acquire or operate wharf sites, dock sites, or other properties, rights or interests, or any thereof, necessary or proper to be acquired or operated for public enjoyment of any such public improvement, and to incur indebtedness to meet the cost thereof and expenses connected therewith, and issue bonds of the county for the payment of such indebtedness, or any thereof, such county is hereby authorized and empowered, by and through its county commissioners, to engage in or aid in any such public work or works, operation or acquisition, as aforesaid, and to incur indebtedness for such purpose or purposes to an amount, which, together with the then existing indebtedness of such county, shall not exceed five per centum of the taxable value of the taxable property in said county, as shown by the last previous assessment-roll thereof for state and county purposes, and to issue the negotiable bonds of the county for all or any of such indebtedness and for the payment thereof, in the manner and form and as provided in sections 5576 to 5581, inclusive, of this code, and other laws of this state which shall then be in force, and to make part or all of such payment in bonds or in moneys derived from sale or sales thereof, or partly in such bonds and partly in such money: Provided, that said commissioners shall have first submitted the question of incurring such indebtedness to the voters of the county at a general or special election, and three-fifths of the voters voting upon the question shall have voted in favor of incurring the same. [L. '11, p. 3, § 1.]

Cited in 68 Wash. 663.

A bond issue in a specified sum for deepening the channel of a river "along the lines" laid out by Commercial Waterway District No. 1, and in a specified sum for diverting the waters of a river "along lines" adopted by Commercial Waterway District No. 2, is not invalid as being in aid of such districts, and beyond the authority of this section, where the bonds would be authorized if the act be given only such force as it would have had if it had been a law when the bonding question was submitted: Blaine v. Hamilton, 64 Wash. 353, 116 Pac. 1076, 35 L. R. A. (N. S.) 577.

Power is not conferred upon a county to condemn lands in a city by this section, authorizing a county to sell bonds in aid of enterprises undertaken by the state or county in aid of commerce and the "acquisition" of canals, docks, wharves, etc., the act not expressly conferring the power of eminent domain, and the power never being implied from the power to "acquire": State ex rel. Wauconda Investment Co. v. Superior Court, 68 Wash. 660, 124 Pac. 127, Ann. Cas. 1913E, 1076.

That any and every such purpose as is mentioned in the foregoing section is hereby declared to be a county purpose. [L. '11, p. 4, § 2.]

§ 9668. [8147-3.] Voting Prior to This Act.

That, in case, at any special or general election, in any such county, the question of incurring any such indebtedness or issuing any such bonds has been submitted to the vote of the voters of such county at any time within one year next prior to the day when this act shall become a law and be in force, and the vote at such election was such as would have authorized, by sufficient majority of votes, the incurring of such indebtedness and the issuance of such bonds had this act been then in force, and such vote been taken pursuant to the provisions of this act, then, and in that case, such vote and all the proceedings in connection therewith had or taken, in manner and form aforesaid, be, and the same hereby are, validated and confirmed, and such county is authorized and empowered, by and through its county commissioners, to proceed with the matters of incurring such indebtedness and issuing such bonds and payment of such indebtedness, by sale of such bonds, or otherwise, and with the matter of engaging or aiding in the construction or other public work or acquisition or operation, intended or contemplated in incurring such indebtedness, in substantially the same manner as in cases under section 9666. [L. '11, p. 5, § 3.]

§ 9669. [8148.] Assessment Districts—Petition to Establish, etc.

Every county in this state is hereby authorized and empowered, by and through its county commissioners, whenever the government of the United States is intending or proposing the construction or operation of any river, lake, canal or harbor improvement, partly or wholly within such county, and whenever said board of county commissioners shall adjudge, upon a petition therefor filed with it and signed by at least one hundred (100) freeholders of said county who each own realty of the assessed valuation of not less than five thousand dollars, situated within the limits of the improvement district sought to be created, that it is for the general benefit and welfare of the people of the county, that such river, lake, canal or harbor improvement be made and completed to define and establish an assessment district within such county and to levy an assessment upon so much of the taxable real estate of such county as shall be specially benefited by such improvement as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of paying the expenses of such improvement, or so much thereof as said board of county commissioners shall determine, not in any instance exceeding one per cent of the taxable valuations of all real and personal property in the entire county as appearing on the then last assessment-roll. Such improvement shall be known as river and harbor improvement. [L. '07, p. 582, § 1.]

§ 9670. [8149.] Improvement Commission—Appointment—Oath.

Whenever the board of county commissioners of any such county shall have adjudged as provided in section 9669, said board shall thereupon apply to the person, who, for the time being, shall be judge of the United States district court, for the district within which the county shall be situated, to name eleven reputable citizens and freeholders of such county and file a list thereof with said board of county commissioners. The persons so named, or a majority of them shall act as a commission, and be known as the "River and harbor improvement commission of — county," and shall receive no compensation, except their actual necessary expenses, including necessary clerical assistance, to be audited by the board of county commissioners; and they shall be deemed the agents of the county in the performance of the duties imposed upon them by this chapter. Each member of such commission shall, before entering upon his duties, take and subscribe an oath, substantially as follows:

"State of Washington, } ss.
County of —, }

I, the undersigned, a member of the river and harbor improvement commission of — county, to define and establish the assessment district and assess the costs of the following improvement (here give the general description of the improvement), do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that I will well and truly discharge my duties as a member of said commission." In case the person who is United States judge shall be unable or decline to act, the board of county commissioners shall name the eleven persons to act as such commission. [L. '07, p. 582, § 2.]

§ 9671. [8150.] Establishment of District—Assessment—State Lands.

It shall be the duty of such commission to define and establish an assessment district, within such county, comprising all the taxable real property, and also (with the limitations hereinafter expressed) the state shore lands, which shall be specially benefited by said river, lake, canal or harbor improvement, and to apportion and assess the amount of separate, special and particular benefits against each lot, block, parcel or tract of land or shore land within such district, by reason of such improvement. The commission in making the assessment shall include in the properties upon [which] the assessment is laid, all shore lands of the state, whether unsold or under contract of sale and subject to sale by it and as against all purchasers from the state or under contract to purchase such lands, the assessment shall be a charge upon such land and the purchaser's interest therein. The county auditor shall certify to the state commissioner of public lands a schedule of the state shore lands so assessed and of the assessment thereon, and the purchaser shall from time to time pay to the proper county treasurer the sums due and unpaid under such assessment, and at the time of such payment the county treasurer shall give in, in addition to a regular receipt for such payment, a certificate that such payment has been made, which certificate the purchaser shall immediately file with the commissioner of public lands, and no patent from the state nor deed shall issue to such purchaser, nor shall any assignment of his contract to purchase be approved by the commissioner of public lands until every matured installment of such assessment shall have first been fully paid and satisfied: Provided, however, that no such assessment shall create any charge against such shore land or affect the title thereof as against the state, and the state shall be as free to forfeit or annul such contract and again sell such land as if the assessment had never been made, and in case of such forfeiture or annulment the state shall be free to sell again such land entirely disembarassed and unencumbered of all right and claim of such former purchaser, and such purchaser shall have no right, interest or claim upon or against such land or the state or such new purchaser or at all, but every such sum paid by such former purchaser upon such assessment shall be utterly forfeited as against him, his personal representatives and assigns, and shall inure to the benefit of such new purchaser. [L. '07, p. 583, § 3.]

§ 9672. [8151.] Assessment-roll.

Such commission shall also make, or cause to be made, an assessment-roll, in which shall appear the names of the owners of the property assessed, so far as known, the description of each lot, block, parcel or tract of land within such assessment district, and the amount assessed against the same, as separate, special or particular benefits, and certify such assessment-roll to the board of county commissioners, of such county within ten weeks after their appointment, or within such further time as may be allowed by the board of county commissioners of such county. [L. '07, p. 584, § 4.]

§ 9673. [8152.] Notice of Hearing on Assessment-roll.

After the return of the assessment-roll to the board of county commissioners they shall make an order setting a day for the hearing upon any objections to the assessment-roll by any parties affected thereby who shall be heard by said board of county commissioners as a board of equalization, which date shall be at least twenty (20) days after the filing of such roll. It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners to give, or cause to be given, notice of such assessment, and on the day fixed for the hearing, as follows:

(a) They shall send or cause to be sent, by mail, to each owner of premises assessed, whose names and place of residence is known to them, a notice, substantially in this form, to wit:

“Your property (here describe the property) is assessed $—— for river and harbor improvement to be made in this county.

“Hearing on the assessment-roll will be had before the undersigned, at the office of the county commissioners, on the —— day of —— 19——.

_____,
_____,
_____,

But failure to send, or cause to be sent, such notice, shall not be fatal to the proceedings herein prescribed.

(b) They shall cause at least ten days' notice of the hearing to be given by posting notice in at least ten public places in such county, three of which shall be in the neighborhood of such proposed improvement, and by publishing the same at least five successive days in a daily newspaper of said county (if one is published daily), otherwise, for two weeks in a weekly newspaper of said county; which notice shall be signed by the board of county commissioners, and shall state the day and place of the hearing of objections to the assessment-roll, and the nature of the improvement; and that all interested parties will be heard as to any objections to said assessment-roll. [L. '07, p. 585, § 5.]

§ 9674. [8153.] Objections to Assessment.

Any person interested in any real estate affected by such assessment may appear and file objections to the assessment-roll, and the board of county commissioners may make an order regarding the time of filing such objections, as to them seems proper. As to all parcels, lots or blocks as to which no objections are filed within the time so fixed, the assessment thereon shall be confirmed. On the hearing, each party may offer proof and the board shall then have authority to affirm, modify, change and determine the assessment in such sum as to them appears just and right. When the assessment is finally equalized and fixed by the board of county commissioners, the clerk thereof shall certify the same to the county treasurer for collection, or if appeal has been taken from any part thereof, then so much thereof, as has not been appealed from, shall be certified. [L. '07, p. 586, § 6.]

Any person who feels aggrieved by the final assessment made against any lot, block or parcel of land owned by him may appeal therefrom to the superior court of such county. Such appeal shall be taken within the time, and substantially in the manner prescribed by the laws of this state for appeals from justice's courts. All notices of appeal shall be filed with the board of county commissioners, and served upon the prosecuting attorney of the county. The clerk of the board of county commissioners shall at appellant's expense certify to the superior court so much of the record, as appellant may request, and the cause shall be tried in the superior court de novo.

Any person desiring to appeal from any final order or judgment, made by the superior court concerning any assessment authorized by this act, may appeal therefrom to the supreme court, in accordance with the laws of this state relative to such appeals, except that all such appeals shall be taken within thirty days after the entry of such judgment. [L. '07, p. 586, § 7.]

The final assessment shall be a lien, paramount to all other liens, except liens for taxes and other special assessments, upon the property assessed, from the time the assessment-roll shall be approved by said board of county commissioners and placed in the hands of the county treasurer, as collector. After said roll shall have been delivered to the county treasurer for collection, he shall proceed to collect the same, in the manner as other taxes are collected: Provided, that such treasurer shall give at least ten (10) days' notice in the official newspaper (and shall mail a copy of such notice to the owner of the property assessed, when the postoffice address of such owner is known, but failure to mail such notice shall not be fatal when publication thereof is made), that such roll has been certified to him for collection, and that unless payment be made within thirty (30) days from the date of such notice, that the sum charged against each lot or parcel of land shall be paid in not more than ten (10) equal annual payments, with interest upon the whole sum so charged at a rate not to exceed seven per cent per annum.

Said interest shall be paid semi-annually, and the county treasurer shall proceed to collect the amount due each year by the publication of notice as hereinabove provided. [L. '07, p. 587, § 8.]

§ 9677. [8156.] Local Improvement Fund—Disbursement.

All moneys paid or collected on account of any assessments made pursuant to this chapter, shall be kept by the county treasurer in the county depository separate and apart from the other funds of the county, in a fund to be established by the board of county commissioners and to be known as "Local improvement fund, district No. — of — county"; and said money shall at all times be subject to the order of the United States government engineer, having said river and harbor improvement in said county in charge, and the county treasurer shall pay said money out upon drafts, drawn upon said fund, for the costs of said improvement, by said United States government engineer. If such government engineer is unable or unauthorized to act in the premises, then the county treasurer shall pay out said money for the costs of said improvement, upon the order of the board of county commissioners. [L. '07, p. 587, § 9.]

§ 9678. [8157.] Bonds—Issuance—Sale—Form—Interest Coupons.

In all cases, the county, as the agent of the local improvement district, shall, by resolution of its board of county commissioners, cause to be issued in the name of the county, the bonds for such local improvement district for the whole estimated cost of such improvement, less such amounts as shall have been paid within the thirty (30) days provided for redemption, as hereinabove specified. Such bonds shall be called "Local improvement bonds, district No. —, county of —, state of Washington," and shall be payable not more than ten (10) years after date, and shall be subject to annual call by the county treasurer, in such manner and amounts as he may have cash on hand to pay the same in the respective local improvement fund from which such bonds are payable, interest to be paid at the office of the county treasurer. Such bonds shall be issued and delivered to the contractor for the work from month to month in such amounts as the engineer of the government, in charge of the improvement, shall certify to be due on account of work performed, or, if said board of county commissioners resolve so to do, such bonds may be offered for sale after thirty (30) days' public notice thereof given, to be delivered to the highest bidder therefor, but in no case shall such bonds be sold for less than par, the proceeds to be applied in payment for such improvement: Provided, that unless the contractor for the work shall agree to take such bonds in payment for his work at par, such work shall not be begun until the bonds shall have been sold and the proceeds shall have been paid into a fund to be called "Local improvement fund No. —, county of —," and the holder or holders of such bonds shall look only to such fund for the payment of either the principal or interest of such bonds.

Such bonds shall be issued in denominations of one hundred dollars each, and shall be substantially in the following form:

"Local improvement bond, district number — of the county of —," state of Washington. No. —. N. B. —. $ —.

"This bond is not a general debt of the county of — and has not been authorized by the voters of said county as a part of its general indebtedness. It is issued in pursuance of an act of the legislature of the state of Washington, passed the — day of — A. D. 1907, and is a charge against the fund herein specified and its issuance and sale is authorized by the resolution of the board of county commissioners, passed on the — day of — A. D. 1907.

"The county of —, a municipal corporation of the state of Washington, hereby promises to pay to —, or bearer, one hundred (100) dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, out of the fund established by resolution of the board of county commissioners on the — day of — A. D. 19—, and known as local improvement fund district number — of — county, and not otherwise.

"This bond is payable ten years after date, and is subject to annual call by the county treasurer at the expiration of any year before maturity in such manner and amounts as he may have cash on hand to pay the same in the said fund from which the same is payable, and shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually; both principal and interest payable at the office of the county treasurer. A coupon is hereto attached for each installment of interest to accrue thereon, and said interest shall be paid only on presentation and surrender of such coupon to the county treasurer, but in case this bond is called for payment before maturity each and every coupon representing interest not accrued at the expiration of the call shall be void. The board of county commissioners of said county, as the agent of said local improvement district No. —, established by resolution No. —, has caused this bond to be issued in the name of said county, as a bond of said local improvement district, the proceeds thereof to be applied in part payment of so much of the cost of the improvement of the rivers, lakes, canals or harbors of — county, under resolution No. —, as is to be borne by the owners of property in said local improvement district, and the said local improvement fund, district No. — of — county, has been established by resolution for said purpose; and the holder or holders of this bond shall look only to said fund for the payment of either the principal or interest of this bond.

"The call for the payment of this bond or any bond, issued on account of said improvement, may be made by the county treasurer by publishing the same in an official newspaper of the county for ten consecutive issues, beginning not more than twenty days before the expiration of any year from date hereof, and if such call be made, interest on this bond shall cease at the date named in such call.

"This bond is one of a series of — bonds, aggregating in all the principal sum of — dollars, issued for said local improvement district, all of which bonds are subject to the same terms and conditions as herein expressed.

"In witness whereof the said county of — has caused these presents to be signed by its chairman of its board of county commissioners, and countersigned by its county auditor and sealed with its corporate seal, attested by its county clerk, this — day of —, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and —.

The county of —,

By —,

Chairman board of county commissioners.

Countersigned, — county auditor.

Attest, —, clerk."

There shall be attached to each bond such number of coupons, not exceeding twenty, as shall be required to represent the interest thereon, payable semi-annually, for the term of said bonds, which coupon shall be substantially in the following form:

"Number —.

"On the — day of — A. D. 19—, the county of —, Washington, promises to pay to the bearer at the office of its county treasurer — dollars, being one-half year's interest due that day on bond No. — of the bonds of 'local improvement district No. —,' the same being payable only from the fund of said district known as 'Local improvement fund, district No. — of — county,' and not otherwise: Provided, that this coupon is subject to all the terms and conditions contained in the bond to which it is annexed, and if said bond be called for payment before maturity hereof, then this coupon shall be void.

—, —,
"County auditor."

§ 9679. [8158.] Execution and Registration of Bonds.

Each and every bond issued for any such improvement shall be signed by the chairman of the board of county commissioners and the county auditor, sealed with the corporate seal of the county, and attested by the county clerk. Each of such coupons shall bear the signature of the county auditor. The bonds issued for each local improvement district shall be in the aggregate for such an amount as authorized by the resolution of the board of county commissioners with reference to such river, lake, canal or harbor improvement, and each issue of such bonds shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with number 1. The county auditor shall keep in his office a register of all such bonds, in which he shall enter the local improvement district, for which the same are issued, and the number and total amount of each bond, and the term of payment. [L. '07, p. 591, § 11.]

§ 9680. [8159.] Removal of Lien of Assessment by Payment—Calls for Bonds—Bondholders' Rights.

The owner of any lot or parcel of land charged with any assessment as provided for hereinabove, may redeem the same from all liability by paying the entire assessment charged against such lot or parcel of land, or part thereof, without interest, within thirty (30) days after notice to him of such assessment, as herein provided, or may redeem the same at any time after the bonds above specified shall have been issued, by paying the full amount of all the principal and interest to the end of the interest year then expiring, or next to expire. The county treasurer shall pay the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued under this act out of the respective local improvement funds from which they are payable, and whenever there shall be sufficient money in any local improvement fund, against which bonds have been issued under the provision of this act, over and above the amount necessary for the payment of interest on all unpaid bonds, and sufficient to pay the principal of one or more bonds, the county treasurer shall call in and pay such bonds, provided that such bonds shall be called in and paid in their numerical order: Provided, further, that such call shall be made by publication in the county official newspaper, on the day following the delinquency of the installment of the assessment, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall state that bonds numbers — (giving the serial number or numbers of the bonds called), will be paid on the day the proper interest coupon on said bonds shall become due, and interest upon such bonds shall cease upon such date. If the county shall fail, neglect or refuse to pay said bonds or promptly to collect any of said assessments when due, the owner of any such bonds may proceed in his own name to collect such assessment and foreclose the lien thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall recover in addition to the amount of such bonds and interest thereon, five per centum, together with the costs of such suit. Any number of holders of such bonds for any single improvement, may join as plaintiffs and any number of owners of the property on which the same are a lien may be joined as defendants in such suit. [L. '07, p. 591, § 12.]

§ 9681. [8160.] Improvements by Adjoining Counties.

Two or more adjoining counties, in which are lands to be benefited by any such improvement as is hereinbefore mentioned, and as it will be partly or wholly within one or more of them, may jointly take advantage of the provisions of this chapter, and the procedure in such cases shall, as nearly as may be, conform to the procedure above prescribed, but with the modifications hereinafter expressed. [L. '07, p. 592, § 13.]

In every case of such joint action, the preliminary procedure of section 9669 having been first had in each county severally, the board of county commissioners of the several counties proposing to join shall unite in such an application as is prescribed in section 9670, and the application shall be made to any person, who, for the time being, shall be a judge of the United States district court in any district in which such counties, or any of them, may lie, and the list mentioned in section 9670 shall be made in as many counterparts as there are counties so joining, and one counterpart shall be filed with the board of county commissioners of each county, and if the person who is such United States judge shall decline or be unable to act, then the board of such counties shall meet in joint session, at the county seat of such one of the counties as shall be agreed upon and shall organize as a joint board by appointing a chairman and clerk, and by resolution in which a majority of all the commissioners present, and at least one commissioner from each county, shall concur, name the eleven persons for the commission, which eleven in such case shall be citizens of the counties concerned, and as nearly as may be the same number from each county. A counterpart of such resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the proceedings of the board of each county. The commission shall make as many assessment-rolls as there are counties joining and one counterpart roll shall be certified by such chairman and clerk of the joint board, and by such clerk filed with the board of each of such counties. [L. '07, p. 593, § 14.]

For purposes of a board of equalization, said boards shall from time to time meet as a joint board as aforesaid, and have a chairman and clerk as aforesaid, and for all purposes under sections 9673, 9674 of this chapter, in cases of counties joining, the word board wherever occurring in said sections shall be interpreted to mean such joint board, and the word clerk shall be deemed to mean the clerk of such joint board, and the posting of notices shall be in at least ten public places in each county, and the publication of the same shall be in a newspaper of each county, and the objections mentioned in said section 9674 shall be filed with the clerk of the joint board, who shall cause a copy thereof, certified by him to be filed with the clerk of the board of county commissioners of the county where the real estate of the party objecting is situated. [L. '07, p. 593, § 15.]

§ 9684. [8163.] Duplicates of Assessment-roll.

The minutes of the proceedings of the joint board and the assessment-roll as finally settled by such board shall be made up in as many counterparts as there are counties joining as aforesaid, and shall be signed by the chairman and clerk of said board, and one of said counterparts so signed shall be filed by said clerk with the clerk of the board of county commissioners of each of said counties, and any appeals and subsequent proceedings under sections 9675 to 9680, inclusive, of this chapter, as far as relates to real estate in any individual county, shall be as nearly as may be the same as if the local improvement district and bond issue concerned that county only. [L. '07, p. 594, § 16.]

§ 9685. [8164.] Expenses.

The joint board shall keep careful account of its necessary expenses and shall apportion and charge the same to the counties joining, and certify to the board of county commissioners of each such county an itemized statement of the entire account and of the proportionate part of such expense charged to such county and the board of county commissioners of such county shall cause the same to be paid out of the general fund of the county. [L. '07, p. 594, § 17.]

§ 9686. [8165.] Notification of Appointment of Commissioners.

The board of county commissioners of the county, or of the oldest county in case of counties joining, shall cause the persons named for the commission to be notified of their appointment in a notice that shall name all such persons and shall designate the time and place of the first meeting of the commission. The commission, having come together pursuant to such notice, and its members having taken the oath hereinbefore prescribed, shall have full powers to organize and proceed with its business as a deliberative body. [L. '07, p. 594, § 18.]

§ 9687. [8165a.] Tax Levy for Expenses of Attempted Canal Improvement.

That whenever any county of the first class by and through its board of county commissioners shall have heretofore attempted to exercise the authority and power conferred by chapter 236 of the Laws of 1907, and said board of county commissioners shall have found that the government of the United States was intending or proposing the construction or operation of a canal improvement wholly within such county, and shall have upon a petition therefor signed by at least one hundred freeholders of said county who each owned realty within the limits of an improvement district sought to be created, adjudged that it was for the general benefit and welfare of the people of said county that such canal improvement be made and completed, and to order an assessment district within such county to be defined and established, and to levy an assessment upon so much of the taxable real estate of such county as should be specially benefited by such improvement for the purpose of paying a portion of the expenses of such improvement not exceeding one per cent of the taxable valuations of all real and personal property in the entire county as appeared on the then last assessment-roll, and shall have made application to the judge of the United States district court for the district within which said county was situated, to name eleven reputable citizens and freeholders of such county as a river and harbor improvement commission of such county and file a list thereof with said board of county commissioners, [and the list thereof with said board of county commissioners] and the judge of said United States district court shall have named said commissioners and filed a list thereof with said board of county commissioners, and the members of said river and harbor commission so named, before entering upon their duties shall have taken and subscribed an oath in compliance with the provisions of section 9670, and said river and harbor improvement commission shall have in good faith performed the duties prescribed in sections 9671 and 9672, and shall have in the performance of said duties and for the purpose of preparing an assessment-roll incurred expenses for services rendered, supplies and materials furnished and moneys advanced and issued certificates of indebtedness therefor redeemable and payable only from the local improvement fund to be raised by an assessment upon the pieces and parcels of real property in the assessment district created or to be created by said river and harbor improvement commission in said county, and said commission shall have created, defined and established the limits of an assessment district in said county and made an assessment-roll in which appeared the names of the owners of the property assessed, so far as known, the description of each lot, block, parcel and tract of land within said assessment district and the amount assessed against the same, as separate, special and particular benefits, and certified such assessment-roll to the board of county commissioners of said county within the time allowed the said board, and said board of county commissioners shall have made an order setting a day for a hearing upon any objections to said assessment-roll and given notice of the time and place of said hearing as provided in section 9673, and shall have proceeded with said hearing, but for any cause shall have failed to equalize or fix said assessment and levy and collect the same, but the government of the United States has proceeded with construction of such canal improvement and said county has contributed to the cost of construction of said improvement, and said certificates of indebtedness shall not have been redeemed or paid but are still outstanding and the persons to whom the same were issued in good faith by said river and harbor improvement commission shall have received no compensation or payment for the services rendered, supplies and materials furnished or moneys advanced to said commission, and no local improvement fund has been raised by assessment upon the property in the assessment district created by said river and harbor improvement commission; the board of county commissioners of such county are hereby authorized and empowered to redeem said certificates of indebtedness and pay the same in the order of their issue, together with interest at the legal rate from the respective dates of issue thereof, out of the current expense fund, or out of the river improvement fund of such county, or to levy taxes upon all of the real estate within said district defined and established by said river and harbor improvement commission exclusive of improvements, sufficient to pay said outstanding certificates of indebtedness with interest as aforesaid and the cost of levying and collecting said taxes, and upon said levy or levies being made to cause the same to be extended upon the tax-rolls, certified and collected at the same time and in the same manner as other special district taxes, and when said tax shall have been collected, to redeem said certificates of indebtedness and to pay the same with interest as aforesaid out of the fund created by said tax, in the order of their issue. [L. '15. p, 233, § 1.]

CHAPTER VII.

PORT DISTRICTS.

§ 9688. [8165-1.] Port Districts Authorized.

Port districts for the acquirement, construction, maintenance, operation, development and regulation of a system of harbor improvements and rail and water transfer and terminal facilities within such districts, are hereby authorized to be established in the various counties of this state, as in this act provided. [L. '11, p. 412, § 1.]

Cited in 97 Wash. 556—558; 107 Wash. 608. of Seattle, 70 Wash. 294, 126 Pac. 628, 127 Pac. 580.

This act is not unconstitutional as creating municipal corporations not recognized by the Constitution: Paine v. Port- A port district covering an entire county, is a municipal corporation having an independent existence with power to incur indebtedness on its own account up to the constitutional limitation, and its creation is not an abuse of the power of the legislature in that it was created to avoid the constitutional limitation of indebtedness of the municipal corporations upon whose territory it was superimposed, where they were created for entirely different purposes, and its chief object was to provide public terminal facilities for both sea and land commerce, although the municipalities upon which it was superimposed had somewhat similar powers respecting the acquisition of such facilities: Paine v. Port of Seattle, 70 Wash. 294, 126 Pac. 628, 127 Pac. 580.

This act is not void in its entirety from the mere fact that the port district may, in whole or in part, occupy the same territory as, and be superimposed upon another municipal corporation or corporations limited by the Constitution in the amount of the expenditures that may be incurred for improvements of the same nature: Paine v. Port of Seattle, 70 Wash. 294, 126 Pac. 628, 127 Pac. 580.

Under this act the Port of Seattle has no implied authority to spend money in a political campaign to defeat the passage of an act referred to the voters at a general election; since the district has only such power as is expressly conferred, or fairly incident to, and can be reasonably implied from the powers granted, and such delegation of power cannot be presumed: State ex rel. Port of Seattle v. Superior Court, 93 Wash. 267, 160 Pac. 755, L. R. A. 1917B, 354.

This section and section 9692 (prior to amendment) did not authorize a port district to operate a belt line railway as a public carrier: State ex rel. Huggins v. Bridges, 97 Wash. 553, 166 Pac. 780.

§ 9689. [8165-2.] Formation of District.

At any general election or at any special election which may be called for that purpose, the board of county commissioners of any county in this state may, or on petition of ten per cent of the qualified electors of such county based on the total vote cast in the last general county election, shall, by resolution, submit to the voters of such county the proposition of creating a port district which shall be coextensive with the limits of such county as now or hereafter established. Such petition shall be filed with the county auditor, who shall within fifteen (15) days examine the signatures thereof and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof, and for such purpose the county auditor shall have access to all registration books in the possession of the officers of any incorporated city or town in such proposed port district. If such petition be found to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the persons filing the same, who may amend or add names thereto for ten days, when the same shall be returned to the county auditor, who shall have an additional fifteen (15) days to examine the same and attach his certificate thereto. No person having signed such petition shall be allowed to withdraw his name therefrom after the filing of the same with the county auditor. Whenever such petition shall be certified to as sufficient, the county auditor shall forthwith transmit the same, together with his certificate of sufficiency attached thereto, to the board of county commissioners, who shall submit such proposition at the next general election or, if such petition so requests, the board of county commissioners shall, at their first meeting after the date of such certificate, by resolution, call a special election to be held not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days from the date of such certificate. The notice of election shall state the boundaries of the proposed port district and the object of such election. In submitting the said question to the voters for their approval or rejection, the proposition shall be expressed on said ballot substantially in the following terms:

“Port of —, Yes.” (giving the name of the principal seaport city within such proposed port district, or if there be more than one city of the same class within such district, such name as may be determined by the board of county commissioners).

“Port of —, No.” (giving the name of the principal seaport city within such port district, or if there be more than one city of the same class within such district, such name as may be determined by the board of county commissioners).

Any petition for the formation of a port district may describe a district of less area than the county in which such petition is filed, and in such event the county commissioners shall fix a date for hearing on such petition and publish a notice of such hearing for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in such county, after which hearing the county commissioners may increase or diminish the boundaries of such proposed port district and thereafter the same procedure shall be followed as is prescribed in this act for the formation of the larger port district, except that the petition and election shall be confined solely to the lesser port district: And provided, that whenever two or more petitions for the formation of a port district shall be filed as herein provided, the petition describing the greater area shall supersede all others and an election shall first be held thereunder, and no lesser port district shall ever be created within the limits, in whole or in part, of any port district. [L. '11, p. 412, § 2; L. '13, p. 202, § 1.]

§ 9690. [8165-3.] Powers of Commissioners.

Within five (5) days after such election the board of county commissioners shall canvass the returns, and if at such election a majority of the voters voting upon such proposition shall vote in favor of the formation of such district, the board of county commissioners shall so declare in its canvass of the returns of such election, and such port district shall then be and become a municipal corporation of the state of Washington and the name of such port district shall be “Port of —” (inserting the name appearing on the ballot). The powers of the port district shall be exercised through a port commission consisting of three members, one from each of the three county commissioner districts of the county in which the port district is located, when the port district is coextensive with the limits of such county. When the port district comprises only a portion of the county, three commissioner districts, numbered consecutively, having approximately equal population and boundaries following ward and precinct lines, shall be described in the petition for the formation of the port district, and one commissioner shall be elected from each of said commissioner districts. No person shall be eligible to hold the office of port commissioner unless he is a qualified voter, and freeholder within such port district, and is and has been a resident for a period of three (3) years, except as hereinafter provided, of the commissioner district from which he is elected.

Port commissioners shall hold office for a term of three (3) years and until their respective successors are elected and qualified, each term to commence on the second Monday in January following the election thereto. At the same election at which the proposition is submitted to the voters as to whether a port district shall be formed, three (3) commissioners shall be elected to hold office, respectively, for the term of one, two and three years. All candidates shall be voted upon by the entire port district, and the candidate residing in commissioner district number one receiving the highest number of votes in the port district shall hold office for the term of three (3) years; and the candidate residing in commissioner district number two receiving the highest number of votes in the port district shall hold office for the term of two (2) years, and the candidate residing in commissioner district number three receiving the highest number of votes in the port district shall hold office for the term of one (1) year, each of said terms to date from the second Monday in January following the election, but also to include the period intervening between the election and the second Monday in January following. All expenses of elections for the formation of such port districts shall be paid by the county holding such election, and such expenditure is hereby declared to be for a county purpose, and the money paid out for such purpose shall be repaid to such county by the port district, if formed. Nominations for port commissioners at the first special election and at subsequent general elections shall be by petition of one hundred (100) qualified electors of the commissioner district in which the candidate is a resident, to be filed in the office of the county auditor at least twenty (20) days prior to such election: Provided, however, that there shall be no election held on the first Saturday in December immediately following the creation of such port district: And provided further, that in the event of a vacancy in the office of port commissioner by death, resignation or otherwise, such vacancy shall be filled at the next general election, the vacancy in the interim to be filled by appointment by a majority vote of the remaining port commissioners. In the event that such ad interim appointment shall not be made by the remaining commissioners within fifteen (15) days following the occurrence of the vacancy, the appointment shall be made by the judge of the superior court of the county, and if there is more than one such judge, by such judge who is oldest in years: Provided, that if there be more than three such judges, the appointment shall be made by the three persons holding such office who are the oldest in service therein (in determining seniority, the oldest in years being hereby designated where length of service is equal), and if any one or more of those herein designated shall be unable or shall decline to act, the three shall be made up from the one or more next in seniority of service who are able to act and do not decline. Of the three persons so designated, the appointment made in writing by any two shall be valid. If there should be at the same time such number of vacancies that there are not in office a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law, a special election shall be called to fill the same, by the remainder, or, that failing, by the board of county commissioners of the county, such election to be held not more than forty (40) days after the occurring of such vacancies. A vacancy in the office of port commissioner shall occur by death, resignation, removal, conviction of a felony, nonattendance at meetings of the port commission for a period of sixty (60) days unless excused by the port commission, by any statutory disqualification, or by any permanent disability preventing the proper discharge of his duty.

All the foregoing provisions of this section are subject to the following provisos: That in any port district which has a population of more than eighty thousand as shown by the last official census of the United States, the port commission shall, provided the proposition for a commission of five members is adopted at an election as hereinafter provided, consist of five members, one from each of the three commissioner districts of the port district as hereinbefore prescribed, and two commissioners at large elected from the port district without regard to residence in commissioner districts. The two commissioners at large must have been residents of the port district for three years and shall be nominated and elected at the same time and in the same manner as the other commissioners except that the petition for their nomination may be signed by qualified electors residing in any part of the port district, and on the petition for the nomination and on the ballot the names of the candidates shall be designated as commissioners at large. The question of the number of commissioners shall be submitted at the first general election after the organization of any port district having said population of more than eighty thousand, or, in the case of any port district already established and having said population, then at the general election in December, 1913, or at any prior election called for some other purpose. There shall be printed on the ballot the words "In favor of a port commission of five members," and the words "Against a port commission of five members," so that every voter shall be enabled to vote for or against the proposition of increasing the number of commissioners to five. If at such election a majority of the voters voting on said proposition, shall vote in favor of a port commission of five members, then said proposition shall be thereby adopted and from and after five days after such election, if it be a general election, otherwise from and after five days after the next general election, the port commission shall consist of five members by the addition of two commissioners at large as hereinbefore provided, but if said proposition shall fail to receive the approval of a majority of the voters voting thereon, the port commission shall continue to consist of three members only. If the proposition shall have carried at a special election, at the next general election, or if submitted at a general election, then at the same general election the names of candidates for commissioners at large shall be printed on the ballot and shall be voted on, but in the latter case the election of commissioners at large shall be contingent upon the adoption of the proposition for a port commission of five members. If such proposition shall have been or shall be adopted, the two candidates for commissioner at large who receive the highest number of votes in the port district shall be elected, and of these two the candidate receiving the higher number of votes shall hold office for the term of three years, and the other shall hold office for the term of two years from the second Monday in January following, and in addition thereto both shall hold office for the period which begins five days after their election and extends to the commencement of the term on said second Monday in January. When the term of office of any commissioner at large shall be about to expire, his successor shall be elected at the general port district election next preceding the expiration of such term, and such successor shall hold office for the term of three years from the second Monday in January following. A majority of the persons holding the office of port commissioner at any time shall constitute a quorum of the port commission for the transaction of business, and the concurrence of a majority of the persons holding such office at the time shall be necessary and shall be sufficient for the passage of any resolution, but no business shall be transacted unless there are in office at least a majority of the full number of commissioners fixed by law. [L. '11, p. 414, § 3; L. '13, p. 204, § 2.]

A general election shall be held on the first Saturday in December of each year for the election of a port commissioner or commissioners and for the submission of propositions, and special elections shall be held at such times and for such purposes as the port commission may by resolution prescribe, subject to the limitations and pursuant to the requirements of this act. All elections shall be called and held as in this section provided except as in this act otherwise expressly provided. All notices of election shall be given by publishing the same for a period of ten days in a daily newspaper of general circulation published in said port district, or, if there is no daily newspaper published therein, then in at least two issues of a weekly newspaper published in said port district, such publication to be made within a period of twenty (20) days immediately preceding such election; and by posting, for at least ten (10) days prior to the date of election, a written or printed notice of such election in each polling place within such port district. The published notice shall give the time of holding the election, the hours the polls will remain open, the officer or officers to be elected, and a statement of the propositions to be submitted, and the posted notices shall, in addition, give the location of the polling places.

There shall be not less than one polling place in each of the various wards of any incorporated city within such port district, and one polling place within each precinct of each port district not within the limits of any incorporated city. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners in the formation of a port district, and of the port commission in all subsequent elections, to, at least twenty (20) days before each election, designate the polling places and appoint three election officers for each place of voting. At all elections the vote shall be by ballot.

The polls shall be open between such hours of the day as the commission shall designate, but in every case the polls shall be open between 1 o'clock P. M. and 8 o'clock P. M. All electors who are, at the time of such election, duly qualified to vote within their respective precincts under the general election laws for state and county officers shall be entitled to vote at any election held in such port district.

Officers of the city and county having charge of the registration books of any city or precinct in a port district shall deliver the same for the use of the election officers at all port elections. In the event of such registration books being required by law to be used by any school district or other public corporation at the same time as the use thereof will be necessary by the port district, such books shall be delivered to the port commission and school district or other public corporation jointly, and the same polling places and registration books may be used jointly in such cases, and the same individuals may serve as election officers for all such joint elections, and in such cases the compensation of such election officers and other expense shall be so divided that the port district shall bear only its proportionate share thereof.

The manner of conducting and voting at elections under this act, opening and closing of polls, keeping of poll lists, canvassing the votes, declaring the result, and certifying the returns, shall be the same as provided by the general election laws governing the election of state and county officers, except as otherwise provided in this act.

Immediately after the closing of the polls the election officers shall then and there, without removing the ballot-box from the place where the ballots were cast, proceed to count the votes, and as soon as such count is completed a return thereof shall be signed by such election officers and securely enveloped and sealed and delivered, together with the ballot-box containing the ballots, to the port commission, or some person delegated to receive the same on their behalf.

Within five days after the election, the port commission shall meet and proceed to canvass the returns of such election, and shall thereupon declare the result. [L. '13, p. 208, § 3.]

§ 9692. [8165-4.*] Powers of District.

All port districts organized under the provisions of this act shall be and are hereby authorized to acquire by purchase or condemnation, or both, all lands, property, property rights, leases or easements necessary for the purposes of the port districts, and to exercise the right of eminent domain in the acquirement or damaging of all land, property, property rights, leases or easements, and the levying and collection of assessments upon property for the payment of all damages and compensation in carrying out the provisions for which said district shall have been created, and such right shall be exercised in the same manner and by the same procedure as is or may be provided by law for cities of the first class, except in so far as such may be inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and the duties devolving upon the city treasurer under said law be and the same are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer for the purposes of this act; to lay out, construct, condemn, purchase, acquire, add to, maintain, conduct and operate any and all systems of seawalls, jetties, piers, wharves, docks, boat landings, warehouses, storehouses, elevators, grain-bins, cold storage plants, terminal icing plants, bunkers, oil tanks, ferries, canals, locks, tidal basins, bridges, subways, tramways, cableways, conveyors, together with modern appliances for the economical handling, storing and transporting of freight and handling of passenger traffic, and other harbor improvements, rail and water transfer and terminal facilities within such port district; and in connection with the operation of the improvement of the port district to perform all customary services including the handling, weighing, measuring and reconditioning all commodities received; to apply to the proper authorities of the United States under any law now or which may hereafter be in force for the right to establish, operate and maintain foreign trade zones within the limits of the port district and to establish, operate and maintain such foreign trade zones: Provided, that where the money so raised is to be used exclusively for the purpose of acquiring land for sites and constructing warehouses, storage plants and other facilities to be constructed within the limits of such foreign trade zone for use in the operation and maintenance of such foreign trade zones, said port shall have the power to contract indebtedness or borrow money and issue general bonds therefor in an amount in addition to the three (3) per centum hereinafter fixed of two (2) per centum of the taxable property in such district to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness, such additional indebtedness only to be incurred by the assent of three-fifths ($\frac{3}{5}$) of the voters of such port district voting thereon; to establish local improvement districts within such port districts, and to levy special assessments, under the mode of annual installments extending over a period not exceeding ten (10) years on all property specially benefited by any local improvement, on the basis of special benefits, to pay in whole or in part the damages or costs of any improvement ordered in such local improvement district; to issue local improvement bonds in any such local improvement district, to be repaid by the collection of local improvement assessments: Provided, that the levying and collection of all such assessments and issuance of bonds hereby authorized shall be in the manner now and hereafter provided by state law for the levying and collection of local improvement assessments and the issuance of local improvement bonds by cities of the first class, in so far as the same shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this act: Provided, however, that the duties devolving upon the city treasurer under said laws be, and the same are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer for the purposes of this act; and to own and control lands, leases, and all easements in land necessary for the purposes of the port district; to improve navigable and non-navigable waters of the United States and the state of Washington within the port district; to create and improve for harbor purposes new waterways within the port district; to regulate and control all such waters and all natural or artificial waterways

- (waterways of commercial waterway districts excepted) within the limits of such port district so far and to the full extent that this state can grant the same, and remove obstructions therefrom; to straighten, widen, deepen and otherwise improve any and all waters, watercourses, bays, lakes or streams, whether navigable or otherwise, flowing through or located within the boundaries of such port district; to fix absolutely and without right of appeal or review the rates of wharfage, dockage, warehousing and port and terminal charges upon all improvements owned and operated directly by the port district itself and ferry charges of ferries operated by itself: Provided, however, that the port commission shall file with the public service commission of the state of Washington its schedule of rates and charges so fixed, as is required by the laws of the state of Washington of public service corporations, and may not change any rate or charge so filed without first filing a notice of such change of rate or charge with the public service commission not less than thirty days prior to the going into effect of such change of rate or charge, and to fix, subject to state regulation, rates of wharfage, dockage, warehousing, and all necessary port and terminal charges upon all docks, wharves, warehouses, quays, or piers owned by said port district but operated under lease from it; to execute leases of all lands, wharves, docks and property owned and controlled by said port district upon such terms as the port commission may deem proper: Provided, that no lease shall be executed for a period longer than thirty (30) years, and every such lease shall be secured by a bond, with surety satisfactory to the port commission, in a penalty not less than the rental for one-sixth of the term, but in no case less than the rental for one year where the term is one year or more, conditioned to carry out and perform the terms and conditions of such lease: Provided, that in any lease the term of which exceeds five (5) years, and when so stipulated in the lease (the insertion of such stipulation to be discretionary with the port commission) the port commission shall accept, with surety, satisfactory to the port commission, a bond conditioned to carry out and perform the terms and conditions of the lease for some part of the term, in no event less than five years (unless the remainder of the unexpired term is less than five years, in which case for the full remainder), and in every such case the port commission shall require of the lessee another or other like bond to be executed and delivered within two years, and not less than one year prior to the expiration of the period covered by the existing bond, covering an additional part of the term in accordance with the foregoing provisions in respect to the original bond, and so on until the end of the term, so that there will always be in force a bond securing the performance of the terms and conditions of the lease, and the penalty in every such bond shall be not less than the rental for one-half the period covered thereby, but no such bond shall be construed to secure the furnishing of any other bond; to sell and convey any property in anywise acquired or owned by the port district whenever the port commission of such district shall have by resolution declared such property to be no longer needed for the purpose of the port district, but no property which is a part of the comprehensive scheme or modification thereof, adopted by vote of the people, shall be sold or disposed of without the assent of a majority of the voters voting on the question of such proposed sale or disposition at a general or special election; to raise revenue by levy of an annual tax on all taxable property within such port district, the total levy for any one year for all purposes, except for the payment of the principal and interest of the general bonded indebtedness of the port not to exceed two mills on each dollar of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in such port district: Provided, that such levy shall be made and taxes collected in the manner now or hereafter provided by law for the levy and collection of taxes in school districts of the first class; to contract indebtedness or borrow money for port purposes and issue general bonds therefor not exceeding an amount, together with the existing indebtedness of such port district of three per centum of the assessed value of the taxable property in such district, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness: Provided, that no such indebtedness shall be incurred exceeding one per centum of the assessed value of such taxable property in such port district as shown by the last assessment for state and county purposes without three-fifths of the voters of such port district voting on the incurring of such indebtedness assenting thereto at a general or special election held in such port district for the purposes of such submission; to have the power to issue general bonds of any such district evidencing any indebtedness thereof payable at any time not exceeding fifty (50) years from the date of such bonds. [L. '21, p. 740, § 1; L. '17, p. 498, § 1; L. '11, p. 418, § 4; L. '13, p. 210, § 4.]

All port commissioners shall serve without compensation save and except in port districts having a population of two hundred thousand (200,000) or more inhabitants, and in such port districts each commissioner shall receive a compensation of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum, said compensation to be paid monthly out of the funds of the port district, in the same manner as are the salaries of the employees of the port district, the population of a port district to be fixed and determined by the last official census of the United States for the purposes of this section. The foregoing provision relating to compensation of port commissioners is subject to the following proviso: The question of whether port commissioners in port districts having a population of two hundred thousand (200,000) or more inhabitants shall receive compensation as herein provided shall be submitted at the first general election after the organization of any port district having said population of two hundred thousand (200,000) or more inhabitants, or in the case of any port district already established and having said population then at a special election of the said port district at the time of the next general county election in the county in which said port district is located, held after the taking effect of this act. There shall be printed on the ballot at such election the words "In favor of compensation for port commissioners in the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) each per annum," and the words "Against compensation for port commissioners in the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum." If at such election the majority of the voters voting on said proposition shall vote in favor of such compensation, the port commissioners of such port district shall receive compensation in the sum of three thousand dollars ($3,000) per annum as provided herein and in any case where a port district with a population of two hundred thousand (200,000) or more inhabitants is in existence at the time this act becomes effective and such port district votes for a compensation as hereinbefore provided, the port commissioners of such district elected and serving shall begin to receive compensation with the calendar month succeeding the month in which the vote is taken. But if such proposition shall fail to receive the approval of the majority of those voting therein, compensation shall not be paid unless the same be favorably voted upon in the manner provided herein at some succeeding election: Provided, however, that the question of compensation of port commissioners may not be submitted at more frequent intervals than periods of four years. The port commission shall organize by the election of its own members of a president and secretary, shall by resolution adopt rules governing the transaction of its business and shall adopt an official seal. All proceedings of the port commission shall be by motion or resolution recorded in a book or books kept for such purpose, which shall be public records. The county treasurer of the county in which such port district is situated shall be the treasurer of the port district, and all funds of the port district shall be paid to him as such port treasurer and shall only be disbursed by him on warrants drawn and signed by a port auditor to be appointed by the port commission, upon order of or vouchers approved by the port commission. The port commission shall have authority to create and fill such positions and fix salaries and bonds thereof as it may by resolution provide. All materials required by the port district may be purchased in the open market or by contract, and all work ordered may be let by contract or done by day labor as the port commission may determine. Before awarding any contract the port commission shall cause to be published in some newspaper within the district a notice for at least ten days before the letting of such contract, inviting sealed proposals for such work, plans and specifications for which must at the time of publication of such notice be on file in the office of the port commission subject to public inspection: Provided, however, that port commission may at the same time and as part of the same notice, invite tenders for such work or material upon plans and specifications to be submitted by the bidder. Such notice shall state generally the work to be done and shall call for proposals for doing the same to be sealed and filed with the commission on or before the day and hour named. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check payable to the order of the port commission for a sum not less than five per cent of the amount of the bid, and no bid shall be considered unless accompanied by such check. At the time and place named such bids shall be publicly opened and read and the commission shall proceed to canvass the bids and may let such contract to the lowest responsible bidder upon plans and specifications on file, or to the best bidder submitting his own plans and specifications. If, in the opinion of the commission all bids are unsatisfactory, they may reject all of them and readvertise, and in such case all checks shall be returned to the bidders; but if such contract be let, then in such case all checks shall be returned to the bidders, except that of the successful bidder, which shall be retained until a contract shall be entered into for the purchase of such materials or doing such work, and a bond given to the port district for the performance of the contract and otherwise conditioned as required by law, with sureties satisfactory to the commissioners, in an amount to be fixed by the commission, but not in any event less than twenty-five (25) per cent of the contract price. If said bidder fails to enter into said contract in accordance with said bid and furnish such bond within ten days from the date at which he is notified that he is the successful bidder, the said check and the amount thereof shall be forfeited to the port district. [L. '21, p. 706, § 1; L. '17, p. 502, § 2; L. '11, p. 420, § 5; L. '13, p. 214, § 5.]

The amendment of 1917, granting compensation to port commissioners serving without compensation, was inapplicable to commissioners theretofore elected: State ex rel. Port of Seattle v. Wardall, 107 Wash. 606, 183 Pac. 67.

§ 9694. [8165-6.] Adoption of Harbor Improvement Plans.

It shall be the duty of the port commission of any port district, before creating any improvements hereunder, to adopt a comprehensive scheme of harbor improvement in such port district, after a public hearing thereon, of which at least ten days' notice shall be published in a daily newspaper of general circulation in such port district, and no expenditure for the carrying on of any harbor improvements shall be made by said port commission other than the necessary salaries, including engineers, clerical and office expense of such port district, and the cost of engineering, surveying, preparation and collection of data necessary for the making and adoption of a general scheme of harbor improvements in such port district, unless and until such comprehensive scheme of harbor improvement has been so officially adopted by the port commission and ratified by a majority vote of the people of such port district voting thereon in favor thereof at an election which shall be held for such purpose. [L. '11, p. 422, § 6; L. '13, p. 215, § 6.]

§ 9695. [8165-7.] Improvement to Follow Plans Adopted.

When such general plans shall have been adopted or approved, as aforesaid, every improvement to be made by said commission shall be made substantially in accordance therewith unless and until such general plans shall have been changed by a majority vote of the qualified electors of the port district voting thereon at an election held for such purpose. [L. '11, p. 423, § 7; L. '13, p. 216, § 7.]

§ 9696. [8165-8.] Improvements—Ownership of.

No improvements shall be acquired or constructed, by the port district, unless such improvements shall, when completed, be the property of such port district, the county in which such port district is located, any commercial waterway district created within its boundaries, any city within such port district, the state of Washington or the United States of America, and the funds of such port district may be expended in the acquirement or construction of any harbor improvement embraced in such general plan adopted as in this act provided in conjunction with the county in which such port district is located, any commercial waterway district created within its boundaries, any city in such port district, the state of Washington or the United States of America, or all or any of them. [L. '11, p. 423, § 8; L. '13, p. 216, § 8.]

Whenever a petition signed by one hundred (100) freeholders in the district to be therein described, shall be filed with the port commission, asking that any portion of the general plan adopted be ordered, and defining the boundaries of a local improvement district to be assessed in whole or in part to pay the cost thereof, it shall be the duty of the port commission to fix a date for hearing on such petition, after which it may alter the boundaries of such proposed district and prepare and adopt detail plans of any such local improvement, declare the estimated cost thereof, what proportion of such cost shall be borne by such proposed local improvement district, and what proportion of the cost if any, but in any event not to exceed fifty per cent, shall be borne by the entire port district. At any time within two years thereafter, upon petition of the owners of a majority of the lands in such proposed local improvement district, fixed by the port commission, as shown in the office of the auditor of such county, asking that such improvement be ordered, the port commission shall forthwith by resolution order such improvement, provide the general funds of the port district to be applied thereto, acquire all lands necessary therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the port district such eminent domain proceedings and supplemental assessment or reassessment proceedings to pay all eminent domain awards as may be necessary to entitle said port district to proceed with such work, and shall thereafter proceed with such work, and shall make and file with the county treasurer its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within such local improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property in such local improvement district from such improvement. Before the approval of such roll a notice shall be published ten (10) days in one or more daily newspapers of general circulation in such local improvement district, stating that such roll is on file and open to inspection in the office of the clerk of the port commission, and fixing a time not less than fifteen (15) nor more than thirty (30) days from the date of the first publication of such notice within which protests must be filed with the clerk of said port commission against any assessments shown thereon, and fixing a time when a hearing shall be held by said commission on said protests. After such hearing the port commission may alter any and all assessments shown on such roll and may then by resolution approve the same, but in the event of any assessment being raised a new notice similar to such first notice shall be given, after which final approval of such roll may be made by the port commission. Any person feeling aggrieved by any such assessments shall perfect an appeal to the superior court of such county within ten (10) days after such approval in the manner now provided by law for appeals from assessments levied by cities of the first class in this state. Engineering and office expenses in all cases shall be borne by the general district. [L. '11, p. 424, § 10.]

§ 9698. [8165-11.] Fifty Per Cent of Cost Paid from General Fund.

Whenever any improvement shall be ordered, payment for which shall be made in part from assessments against property specially benefited, not more than fifty (50) per cent of the cost thereof shall ever be borne by the entire port district, nor shall any sum be contributed by it to any improvement acquired or constructed with or by any other body, exceed such amount, unless a majority vote of the electors of the port district shall consent to or ratify the making of such expenditure. [L. '11, p. 425, § 11.]

§ 9699. [8165-12.*] Funds in Anticipation of Revenues.

Any port commission is hereby authorized, prior to the receipt of taxes raised by levy, to borrow money or issue the warrants of the district in anticipation of the revenues to be derived by such district and such warrants shall be redeemed from the first money available from such taxes when collected. [L. '21, p. 709, § 2; L. '11, p. 426, § 12.]

§ 9700. [8165-13.*] County Treasurer—Funds.

The county treasurer acting as port treasurer shall create a fund to be known as the "Port of —, Fund," into which shall be paid all money received by him from the collection of taxes in behalf of such port district, and shall also maintain such other special funds as may be created by the port commission into which shall be placed such moneys as the port commission may by its resolution direct. All such port funds shall be deposited with the county depositories under the same restrictions, contracts and security as is provided by statute for county depositories and all interest collected on such port funds shall belong to such port district and shall be deposited to its credit in the proper port funds. [L. '21, p. 709, § 3; L. '11, p. 426, § 13.]

This act shall not be construed to repeal, amend or modify any law heretofore enacted providing a method of harbor improvement, regulation or control in this state, but shall be held to be an additional and concurrent method providing for such purpose. [L. '11, p. 426, § 14.]

§ 9702. District Comprising Less Than County—Election.

When it is desired to create a port district comprising territory less than the entire county in other than class A counties, the county commissioners shall, upon petition of ten per cent or more of the electors residing within the proposed boundaries of such proposed district based on the total vote at the last general election within such area, submit to the qualified electors residing within such proposed district the proposition of creating such port district. If at any such election a majority of the votes cast thereon shall be in favor of establishing such port district and the total vote cast upon such question shall equal one-third of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election within such area, such port district shall be established. [L. '21, p. 138, § 1.]

§ 9703. Nominations for Port Commissioners, Less Than Fifteen Hundred Inhabitants.

Nominations for port commissioners in any port district having a population less than fifteen hundred may be made by petition signed by a number of qualified voters equaling ten per cent or more of the qualified voters residing within the area of said port district. [L. '21, p. 138, § 2.]

§ 9704. Notice When No Newspaper in District.

Notices required in port districts in which no newspaper is published may be given by publication in any newspaper of general circulation in the county. [L. '21, p. 139, § 3.]

§ 9705. Gifts.

Port commissioners of any port district are hereby authorized to accept for and on behalf of said port district gifts of real and personal property and to expend in improvements and betterment such amount as may be necessary. [L. '21, p. 139, § 4.]

§ 9706. Validity of Formation of District.

In every case where the county commissioners of any county in other than class A counties, after having first submitted the proposition of creating a port district to the voters within any proposed area, have thereafter, upon a favorable vote on said proposition, by order, act, or resolution created or formed, or attempted to create or form, a port district, such port district so created or formed, or attempted to be created or formed, is hereby declared to be a valid port district, fully clothed with all the power and authority vested by law in port districts, and all proceedings in connection with the formation of any such port district are hereby fully validated, notwithstanding any irregularities or omissions in the procedure by which any such district was formed. [L. '21, p. 139, § 5.]

§ 9707. Election on Enlargement of District.

At any general election or at any special election which may be called for that purpose, the board of county commissioners of any county in this state, in which there exists a port district which is not coextensive with the limits of the county, shall, on petition of the commissioners of such port district, by resolution, submit to the voters of such county, or to the voters residing within the limits of the enlarged port district, including the voters residing within the limits of the existing port district, described in such petition, the proposition of enlarging the limits of such port district so as to include therein the whole of the territory embraced within the boundaries of such county, or such territory as may be described in said petition by legal subdivisions. Such petition shall be filed with the county auditor, who shall forthwith transmit the same to the board of county commissioners, who shall submit such proposition at the next general election, or, if such petition so request, the board of county commissioners shall, at their first meeting after the date of filing such petition, by resolution, call a special election to be held not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days from the date of filing said petition. The notice of election shall state the boundaries of the proposed enlargement port district and the object of the special election. In submitting said question to the voters for their approval or rejection, the proposition shall be expressed on the ballots substantially in the following terms:

“Enlargement of the port of —, yes.” (Giving the name of the port district which it is proposed to enlarge);

“Enlargement of the port of —, no.” (Giving the name of the port district which it is proposed to enlarge).

Such election, whether general or special, shall be held in each precinct wholly or partially embraced within the limits of the proposed enlarged port district and shall be conducted and the votes cast thereat counted, canvassed, and the returns thereof made in the manner provided by law for holding general or special county elections. [L. '21, p. 485, § 1.]

§ 9708. Order Establishing—Assessment for Outstanding Bonds.

If a majority of all the votes cast at any such election upon the proposition of enlarging such port district shall be for the “Enlargement of the port of —, yes” then and in that event the board of county commissioners shall enter an order declaring such port district enlarged so as to embrace within the limits thereof the territory described in the petition for such election, and thereupon the boundaries of said port district shall be so enlarged and the commissioners thereof shall have jurisdiction over the whole of said district as enlarged to the same extent, and with like power and authority, as though the additional territory had been originally embraced within the boundaries of the existing port district: Provided, however, that none of the lands or property embraced within the territory added to and incorporated within such port district shall be liable to assessment for the payment of any outstanding bonds, warrants or other indebtedness of such original port district, but such outstanding bonds, warrants or other indebtedness together with interest thereon; shall be paid exclusively from assessments levied and collected on the lands and property embraced within the boundaries of the pre-existing port district. [L. '21, p. 486, § 2.]

§ 9709. [8165-15.] Port Districts of First Class Defined.

Every port district heretofore or hereafter formed which is or shall be coextensive with the limits of a county of the first class, as defined in section 4200, shall be known and designated as a port district of the first class. This section and the following sections to section 9717 inclusive, shall relate exclusively to port districts of the first class, and all port districts of the first class shall hereafter be governed by the provisions of said sections: Provided, that the preceding sections of the act to which this act is amendatory shall apply to port districts of the first class except as otherwise provided in this and the following sections. [L. '15, p. 148, § 1.]

Cited in 93 Wash. 267, 268.

The Seattle port commission had no power to spend money in a political campaign to defeat the passage of this act: State ex rel. Port of Seattle v. Superior Court, 93 Wash. 267, 160 Pac. 755.

§ 9710. [8165-16.] Board of Commissioners—Constitution.

The port districts of the first class, as herein defined, shall be governed by a board of seven (7) commissioners to be known and designated as "Board of Port Commissioners of the port of ——" (inserting name of principal seaport city within said district). The said board herein provided for shall consist of the following officers, namely: three elective commissioners, elected by the electors of the port district, in the manner hereinafter provided, and having the qualifications hereinafter mentioned, to serve for a period of six (6) years, except as hereinafter provided, and until their successors are elected and have qualified; in addition to the said three elective commissioners, the said board shall consist of the following officers ex officio, namely, the county auditor, the county engineer, and the prosecuting attorney of the county whose limits are coextensive with that of the port district, and the mayor of the principal seaport city having the largest population within such port district: Provided, that if under the charter of such city there shall not be an officer performing the duties of mayor, or such officer being lacking, then the legislative body of such city shall appoint from among its own members or from the other officers of the city, a member of such board to supply the place of such officer so lacking, and any such appointment shall hold good as to such member of the board of commissioners until the expiration of the term of his then city office.

The qualifications for elective port commissioners in port districts of the first class, as herein defined, and the method and manner of their nomination and election shall be the same as now provided for port commissioners, all as near as may be, in section 9690, excepting the term of office of said commissioners shall be six (6) years, and excepting the said election of port commissioners shall be held at the same time and places as the general election in each even numbered year. All elective commissioners contemplated by this amendatory act shall qualify on the same day as county officers qualify.

In the case of any port district already formed, which is a port district of the first class, as herein defined, and having three commissioners under existing law, the said commissioners so elected shall be the three elective commissioners contemplated by this amendatory act: Provided, that the said commissioners shall serve and hold office until their successors are elected and have qualified: And provided further, that the commissioners whose terms expire on the second Monday of January, 1916, and the second Monday of January, 1917, respectively, shall be elected at the general election held in 1916, the one receiving the highest number of votes to serve for a term of six (6) years, and the one receiving the next highest to serve four (4) years. Vacancies in the office of any elective port commissioner shall be filled until the next general election, by appointment by a majority vote of the remaining port commissioners composing the board. [L. '15, p. 149, § 2.]

§ 9711. [8165-17.] Limitation on Indebtedness—Validation.

The total bonded indebtedness of any port district of the first class shall not exceed two and one-fourth per centum ($2\frac{1}{4}\%$) of the assessed valuation of the taxable property in said district, but in no event shall the said total bonded indebtedness ever exceed the sum of five million, seven hundred fifty thousand dollars (\$5,750,000); and whenever said limit shall have been reached, no other or further bond or bonds shall be issued, sold, delivered or hypothecated, whether or not the same may have been authorized by any law heretofore enacted and notwithstanding that the steps and proceedings relating to the authorization thereof may have been completed in accordance with the requirements of such law: Provided, that all existing lawful obligations of any port district, whether consisting of bonds or other forms of indebtedness, are hereby recognized as such, notwithstanding the fact that they may, either by themselves or in connection with other obligations, exceed the limit herein fixed, and the same shall continue to be valid obligations of such port district. The board of port commissioners shall continue to have and to exercise all of the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon said board by this amendatory act, or conferred or imposed upon the port commission by the act of which this act is amendatory, so far as necessary to pay, refund or renew any existing obligation and to carry out and perform any existing contract, so as to fully protect the rights of all persons holding any obligation or having any contract created by such port district, though it be found to exceed the limit hereby established. [L. '15, p. 150, § 3.]

§ 9712. [8165-18.] Official Seal—Officers of Commission—Quorum.

The members of the board of port commissioners of each port district of the first class shall serve as such ex officio without extra compensation. Such board shall adopt an official seal and shall organize by the election of one of its members as president. The county auditor shall be ex officio secretary and auditor of the board of port commissioners without extra compensation. The county engineer shall be ex officio engineer of such port district, and shall have charge and supervision over the engineering department of such port district without extra compensation: Provided, that such engineer shall at all times be subject to the authority and control of the board of port commissioners: And provided further, that all engineering expenses incurred in behalf of the port district shall be the obligations of such port district and be paid from its funds, the same as other expenses thereof. The prosecuting attorney of the county shall be ex officio the attorney for such port district without extra compensation: Provided, that all legal expenses incurred in behalf of the port district shall be the obligations of the port district and be paid from its fund, same as other expenses thereof. Five members of the board of port commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the affirmative vote of any four members duly assembled in meeting shall be required and shall be sufficient for the passage of any resolution. All proceedings of the board of port commissioners shall be by resolution, recorded in a book or books kept for such purpose, which shall constitute public records. [L. '15, p. 151, § 4.]

§ 9713. [8165-19.] Offices of—Commission.

The board of port commissioners of any port district of the first class shall apply to the board of county commissioners for space in the county courthouse for the executive offices of the board of port commissioners, and it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to provide such space if practicable, and the expense thereof is hereby declared to be for a county purpose. Only in case of inability to procure such space in the courthouse or in some of the buildings owned by the port district shall private office be rented by the board of port commissioners, in which event the expense of such rental shall be paid from the funds of the port district. [L. '15, p. 152, § 5.]

§ 9714. [8165-20.] Sinking Funds.

Each board of port commissioners shall provide such sinking fund or sinking funds as shall be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this act. All moneys received in excess of fixed charges, interest on bonded indebtedness, operating expenses, sums, if necessary, to complete any unfinished work or facility, or to carry out any unfinished contract, or to protect the rights of any person or corporation acquiring such rights from such port district, or the port commission, or board of port commissioners thereof, and all renewals and repairs, shall be placed in the proper sinking fund for the purpose of retiring outstanding bonds at maturity. [L. '15, p. 152, § 6.]

§ 9715. [8165-21.] Powers and Duties of Board.

Any and every board of port commissioners is hereby vested with full power and authority to do any and all things necessary to preserve any of the property, title to which has been vested in such port district, to maintain the same in good and safe operating condition and to operate any facility and otherwise to exercise the powers and perform the duties which in other port districts are exercised and performed by port commissioners except as otherwise provided in this amendatory act. [L. '15, p. 153, § 7.]

§ 9716. [8165-22.] Sale of Property—Appraisement—Proceedings.

Any and every board of port commissioners is hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey any property in any way acquired or owned by such port district whenever the board of port commissioners shall have by resolution declared it advisable that such property be sold: Provided, that before any such sale shall be made of any real property, or interest, or right therein, or any building, wharf or structure, the property to be sold, whether it be any part or all of the property acquired by such port district, shall have been appraised by three competent appraisers of whom the county assessor shall be one, and the other two shall have been appointed by resolution of the board of port commissioners: And provided further, that a majority of the electors of the port district voting on the question of such sale or disposition at a general or special election shall have assented thereto: And provided further, that the appraised value of such property, as fixed by the appraisal aforesaid, shall be stated on the ballot, and no sale shall be made at less than such appraised value: And provided further, that any and all sales to be made under the provisions of this act shall be had at public auction at the front door of the courthouse of the county which is coextensive with the limits of such port district, of which sale notice shall have been published in the official newspaper of such county once a week for four successive weeks immediately prior to such sale. No sale shall be made based on any appraisement made within six months from the time of a previous appraisement unless such new appraisement be equal to or in excess of such previous appraisement. The board of port commissioners is hereby vested with full power and authority to lease any property or any part thereof, acquired by any such port district, to any person or corporation upon such terms and for such time as in the judgment of the board shall be deemed for the best interests of the port district: Provided, that all existing rights of persons or corporations acquiring the same from any such port district or the port commission thereof shall be fully protected: And provided further, that any lease for a longer term than five years shall have first been approved by a majority of the electors of the port district voting at a general or special election, after notice published as prescribed by this section. The board of port commissioners is also hereby vested with full power and authority, if deemed necessary and expedient by such board, to operate any and all property or facilities in any way acquired or owned by any such port district. [L. '15, p. 153, § 8.]

§ 9717. [8165-23.] Partial Invalidity.

If any part of this act shall be adjudged to be invalid such adjudication of invalidity shall not affect the validity of this act as a whole, or any part thereof. [L. '15, p. 154, § 9.]

§ 9718. [8165-24.] Date of Taking Effect.

This act shall take effect and be in force on the first day of July, 1915. [L. '15, p. 155, § 10.]

CHAPTER VIII.

LEASE OF HARBOR AREAS ON FRESH WATERS WITHIN PORT DISTRICTS.

§ 9719. Authority of Port Commission to Lease—Rental Payable to State Treasurer.

The port commission of each port district heretofore created or hereafter to be created under the laws of the state of Washington, shall have full power and authority in the manner hereinafter provided to lease the harbor areas belonging to the state of Washington, on fresh waters situate within such port district to such persons and upon such terms and conditions, as shall conform to the provisions of the Constitution of the state of Washington and the provisions of this act. Every such lease shall provide that the rental thereunder shall be payable to the state treasurer. [L. '17, p. 333, § 1.]

§ 9720. Preference Right of Abutting Owner—Application by Other Persons—Notice—Lease to Highest Bidder—Improvements—Rent.

The owner or owners of any shore land bordering upon any such harbor area, shall have a preference right for the period of time hereinafter mentioned, to lease such harbor area, at an annual rental hereinafter specified. The owner or owners of any such shore lands shall have the exclusive right for a period of six months following the filing of the plat of any such harbor area hereafter to be filed covering harbor area within the limits of any port district, or in case of such plats heretofore filed, then within six months following the taking effect of this act, to file with said port commission a written application for the leasing of such harbor area and to thereafter obtain a lease of such harbor area for a period of thirty (30) years. If such exclusive preference right shall not be exercised by said shore owner within the time aforesaid, then any qualified person, firm or corporation may apply in writing to said port commission for the right to lease said harbor area; and upon filing of such application, the said port commission shall forthwith notify the owner of the abutting shore land of the pendency of said application and said owner shall be allowed sixty (60) days from the date of the service of said notice within which to exercise a preference right to lease said harbor area for a period of thirty (30) years. If said owner be an actual resident of this state, notice shall be served upon him or it personally, but if he be not a resident of this state, said notice shall be sent to him by registered mail to his or its last known address; and if the address of said nonresident be not known to said port commission, no notice shall be required. In case the abutting shore land owner shall not exercise the right to lease within said six (6) months period, then the port commission, whenever it shall deem it advisable, may offer for lease any part of such harbor area and shall give sixty (60) days notice by publication that a lease of such part of such harbor area will be sold, at a time and place to be specified in said notice, to the person, association or corporation offering at such public sale to pay the highest sum as a cash bonus for such lease; and in such case the port commission shall serve notice of such intended sale upon the abutting shore land owner for sixty (60) days, as above set forth, during which time said shore land owner shall have the right to exercise said preference rights to lease on the terms aforesaid. If the abutting owner shall not have exercised his or its preference right to lease prior to the time of sale, such lease shall be sold and made and delivered accordingly, the payment of the sum offered by the successful bidder being required at the time of such sale. Every lease obtained by virtue of the exercise of any such exclusive or preference right shall conform to the provisions of the state Constitution and shall provide that the harbor area described therein or such a reasonable portion thereof as shall be designated by the port commission of such port district, having in view the requirements of the business proposed to be carried on thereon, shall be improved upon plans approved by such commission, the construction of such improvement to be commenced within such time as may be fixed in each case by such port commission, such time to be in no case less than two years from the date of such leases and to be completed within such reasonable time thereafter as such port commission shall fix in each case, any of which time so fixed may be thereafter extended by such commission, the character of which improvements may, with approval of the port commission, be changed either before or after completion but in all cases where the abutting owner or owners claiming under him, had prior to February 22, 1913, built upon such area, such improvements shall, so far as otherwise conforming to the provisions of the state Constitution be recognized and accepted as a sufficient compliance with the requirements of this act, so far as concerns the area covered thereby, and as to uncovered area such improvements shall be given the same consideration as any other case, and every lease obtained by virtue of any such exclusive or preference right shall further provide that the annual rental to be paid shall be a sum equal to two (2) per cent of the assessed valuation for the year preceding the date of such lease of an equal area of adjoining or abutting shore lands exclusive of improvements thereon, and where the adjoining or abutting strip of shore lands is of less width than the harbor area, a value proportional to such width: Provided further, however, that the foregoing provision fixing the rate of rental shall not extend beyond December 21, 1928, but all rentals after that date shall be subject to be controlled and fixed in the manner and by the public authority or authorities then provided by law for the same. [L. '17, p. 333, § 2.]

§ 9721. Bond to Secure Rental—Cancellation of Lease.

The port commission shall require of every lessee under this act a bond with sufficient surety, to be approved by the port commission, in such penalty, and not exceeding twice the amount of the annual rental, but in no case less than five hundred dollars ($500), as may be prescribed by the port commission, conditioned for the payment by the lessee of the rental reserved in his lease at or prior to the time of payment therein specified, during the term of such lease or during such part thereof as the port commission in its discretion shall require to be covered by such bond; and in case only a part of the term of such lease shall be covered thereby, said port commission shall require of such lessee another like bond, to be executed and delivered within three months and not less than one month prior to the expiration of the period covered by the previous bond, covering the remainder of the term of the lease, or such part thereof as the port commission in its discretion shall require to be covered thereby. The port commission shall have power at any time to summon sureties upon any bond and to examine into the sufficiency thereof, and if it shall find the same to be insufficient it shall require the lessee to file a new and sufficient bond within thirty days after receiving notice so to do, under penalty of cancellation of the lease; and the port commission shall have power upon sixty (60) days' notice to cancel any lease for a substantial breach by the lessee of any of the conditions thereof, or for lack of a bond therewith as herein required. Notwithstanding any such lease now or hereafter existing the state shall ever retain and does hereby reserve the right to regulate the rates of wharfage, dockage or other tolls to be imposed by the lessee or his assigns upon commerce for any of the purposes for which the leased land may be used, and the right to prevent extortion and discrimination in such use thereof. [L. '17, p. 335, § 3.]

§ 9722. Preference Right on Cancellation of Lease.

The lessee under any lease now existing of harbor area on fresh water situate in a port district, which shall be canceled or annulled for any reason, shall, upon such cancellation or annulment, have, for ninety (90) days thereafter, a preference right to a new lease, for the remainder of the term of the lease canceled or annulled, upon the terms and conditions provided in sections 9720 and 9721; but in all cases where any canceled or annulled lease contained provisions relating to the right of the state to annul or cancel the same, like provision shall be incorporated in any new lease covering in whole or in part of the same area. [L. '17, p. 336, § 4.]

§ 9723. Act of Leasing not to Work any Estoppel.

The application for or the making or acceptance of any lease authorized by this act shall not work any estoppel against either party thereto or against those in privity with either party as to any claim or right which might otherwise be made or contested. [L. '17, p. 337, § 5.]

CHAPTER IX.

COMMERCIAL WATERWAYS.

§ 9724. [8166a.] Organization—Powers and Duties of Commissioners.

Any county or portions of a county requiring commercial waterways may be organized into a commercial waterway district, and when so organized such district, and the board of commissioners hereinafter provided for, shall have and possess the power herein conferred, or that may hereafter be conferred by law upon such district and board of commissioners, and said district shall be known and designated as commercial waterway district No. — of the county of —, the state of Washington, and shall have the right to sue and be sued by and in the name of its board of commissioners hereinafter provided for, and shall have perpetual succession, and shall adopt and use a seal.

The commissioners hereinafter provided for, and their successors in office, shall, from the time of the organization of such commercial waterway district, have the power, and it shall be their duty to manage and conduct the business and affairs of the district; make and execute all necessary contracts, employ and appoint such agents, officers and employees as may be required, and prescribe their duties, and perform such other acts as hereinafter provided, or that may hereafter be provided by law. [L. '11, p. 12, § 1. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 8, § 1.]

§ 9725. [8167a.] Petition, Contents and Requisites of—Cost Bond.

For the purpose of the formation of such waterway district a petition shall be presented to and filed with the board of county commissioners of the county in which said proposed commercial waterway district is located, which petition shall set forth the object for the creation of said district; shall designate the boundaries thereof and set forth therein the area of land to be benefited by the proposed commercial waterway system, and shall also contain the names of all freeholders residing within said proposed district, so far as known, and shall contain a brief description of the proposed system of waterways, route over which the same is to be constructed, together with the proposed spurs or branches, if any there may be, and the termini thereof, and set forth the further fact that the establishment of said district and the proposed system of commercial waterways will be of special benefit to the property included therein, and will be conducive to the public health and sanitation and increase the public revenue. Said petition shall be signed by the owners of at least a majority of the area of land in the proposed district, or by their agents, and shall pray that the same may be organized under the provisions of this act. Said petitioners shall at the time of the filing of said petition file a bond with such county commissioners, running to the state of Washington, in the penal sum of five hundred dollars, with two or more sureties, to be approved by the board of county commissioners, conditioned that they will pay all costs, in case said district, for any reason, shall not be established. [L. '11, p. 12, § 2. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 9, § 2.]

§ 9726. [8168a.] Hearing, Notice of—Objections—Extension of Boundaries.

Said petition shall be heard at a regular or special meeting of the board of county commissioners of said county, and said board of county commissioners shall give notice of said hearing by publishing such notice for at least two weeks in two successive issues of some weekly newspaper printed and published in said county, and in case no such newspaper be printed or published in said county, then in some such newspaper of general circulation therein, before the time at which the same is to be heard. Said notice shall give a general description of the nature of the improvement petitioned for, the boundaries and approximate area of the proposed district, the number of freeholders residing therein, so far as known, as shown by said petition, the number of petitioners on said petition, together with the total estimated amount of acreage represented to be owned by said petitioners. Said notice shall further state that said petition is on file at the office of the said county commissioners, where the same may be examined or inspected by any person interested in said proposed district. When such petition is presented for hearing, the board of county commissioners shall hear the same, or may adjourn said hearing from time to time, not exceeding one month in all; and any person or corporation may appear before said board of county commissioners and make objections to the establishment of said district, or the proposed boundary lines thereof, and upon a final hearing said board of county commissioners shall make such changes in the proposed boundaries as they may deem to be proper, and shall establish and define such boundaries, and shall ascertain and determine the area of land that will be benefited by said proposed system of commercial waterways, and shall find whether the proposed commercial waterways will be conducive to the public health, sanitation, welfare and convenience, increase the public revenue, and be of special benefit to the majority of the land included within said boundaries of said proposed district so established by said board of county commissioners: Provided, that no changes shall be made by said board of county commissioners in said boundary lines so as to include territory outside of the boundaries described in said petition: Provided further, that any person or corporation owning lands within the proposed boundaries and who did not sign said petition, or any person, or corporation owning land not included within the proposed boundaries may file a petition with the board of county commissioners asking that the proposed boundaries be extended so as to include other lands described therein; setting forth in said petition the reason therefor, but no person, persons or corporations not owning land included within the boundaries, as originally petitioned for, shall have the right to file such petition unless they ask therein to have their own lands included within the proposed boundaries: Provided, any corporation owning land within the boundaries described in the original petition may also petition the board of county commissioners for an extension of the proposed boundaries: Provided further, that the boundaries of any commercial waterway district heretofore or hereafter established may be extended by the board of county commissioners so as to include other lands in said county, upon petition signed by the owners of a majority of the area of said lands in the proposed extension; which said petition for extension shall set forth and contain, with reference to the extension, such matters and things and data so far as applicable, as is provided for in the petition required for presentation to the board of county commissioners for the purpose of the formation of the original waterway district: Provided further, that all necessary expenses incident to making such extension, together with the proportionate share of the first cost of any system of commercial waterways existing in the original commercial waterway district at the time of making said extension, shall be levied against and apportioned to the land included in such extension as in this act provided. In such case, the board of county commissioners shall give like notice as provided for in this section of the hearing of the original petition, and the final hearing thereof may in such case be continued from time to time for a period of not exceeding sixty days, and if on final hearing the board of county commissioners deem it advisable and for the best interest of all concerned, they may grant the prayer of said petitioners in whole or in part, and said board of county commissioners of such county shall enter an order on the records of their office setting forth all facts found by them upon the final hearing of said petition, and which may be adduced by them from the evidence heard upon the final hearing thereof. [L. '11, p. 13, § 3. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 9, § 3.]

§ 9727. [8169a.] Notice of Election, Requisites of—Commissioners.

Upon the entry of the findings of the final hearing of said petition as set forth in the last preceding section, said board of county commissioners of said county, if they find said proposed system of commercial waterways will be of great special benefit to the majority of the area of lands included within said boundaries and will be conducive to the public health, sanitation, welfare and convenience, and will increase public revenue, shall give notice of an election to be held in such proposed commercial waterway district for the purpose of determining whether the same shall be organized under the provisions of this act as a commercial waterway district of the state of Washington, and for the further purpose of choosing at such election three commissioners, who shall be known and designated as "Commercial Waterway Commissioners" for said district proposed to be organized, which said three commissioners shall, upon their election, be the district authorities of said commercial waterway district, and such notice shall describe the boundaries as established by the board of county commissioners on its final hearing of said petition and shall state the name of such proposed commercial waterway district, and approximately, the area of land in said district to be benefited thereby, and the same shall be published for at least two weeks prior to such election in a weekly newspaper printed and published within the county within which said district is located, and in case no such newspaper be printed or published in such county, then in such newspaper of general circulation therein for two successive issues thereof, and shall be posted for the same period in at least four public places within the boundaries of said proposed district, which notice shall designate the places within the proposed district where the said election shall be held and require the voters to cast ballots which shall contain the words, "Commercial Waterway District, Yes" or "Commercial Waterway District, No," and also the names of the persons voted for for commissioners for said commercial waterway district. The board of county commissioners shall also appoint two judges, one inspector and two clerks for each of said election places and the compensation shall be the same as hereinafter provided for, and shall be a charge upon said district in case the same be established and shall be paid in the same manner as other expenses are paid which are incurred in the establishment and construction of said improvement. In case said district be not established, then all costs and expenses shall be collectable from the bond hereinafter provided for, and any person having a charge against said district shall have a right of action thereon. [L. '11, p. 15, § 4. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 11, § 4.]

Said election shall be held on the day designated in such notice and shall be conducted as hereinafter provided for, and no person shall be entitled to vote at such election unless he shall be a qualified elector of the county in which such district is located, and shall have resided within the boundaries of said proposed district for a period of not less than ninety days next preceding the date of such election, or, unless he shall be the owner of real estate situated within said proposed district. The board of county commissioners shall on the Monday next succeeding said election count and canvass the votes cast thereat, and if on said canvass and count it appears that the majority of votes cast are for the "Commercial Waterway District, Yes," the board shall immediately enter an order upon its records declaring the proposed territory duly organized as a commercial waterway district, giving to such district a proper number, followed by the name of the county and state, and shall, also, declare the three persons who received the highest number of votes duly elected commercial waterway commissioners of such commercial waterway district for the following respective terms of office: The one receiving the highest number of votes, three years; the one receiving the next highest number of votes, two years; and the third member one year. Said commissioners so elected shall hold office for said respective terms and until their successors are elected and qualified. Said board shall cause a copy of the order entered of record duly signed to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and from and after the date of such filing said organization shall be deemed complete, and the members of said board of commissioners so chosen at such election, before entering upon the discharge of their duties shall qualify as county commissioners are required to qualify and to enter into a bond payable to the state of Washington for the benefit of said district with two or more sureties in the penal sum of not less than one thousand ($1,000) dollars nor more than five thousand ($5,000) dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duties as commercial waterway commissioners, to be approved by the board of county commissioners and to be filed with the county clerk of the county in which said district is situated. The members of each successive board of commercial waterway commissioners, whether elected or appointed, shall before entering upon their duties take an oath and enter into a bond, as herein provided, and after being approved by the board of county commissioners shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of the county in which said district is situated. [L. '11, p. 17, § 5; L. '13, p. 115, § 1. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 13, § 5.]

§ 9729. [8171a.] General Elections — Time and Manner of Holding — Judges, etc.

A general election for the election of one member of said board of commercial waterway commissioners for such district shall be held upon the first Tuesday after the first Monday in December of each year after the year in which said district shall have been established and organized, and the term of office of the persons elected thereat shall begin the second Monday of the following January: Provided, that in case of districts heretofore organized an entire board of commissioners shall be elected at the first election to be held hereunder, whose terms of office shall be one, two and three years respectively from said second Monday in January following, in accordance with the respective number of votes received by said three persons as provided in section 9728 for original elections. Said elections shall be held in accordance with the school laws of the state of Washington. No official ballot shall be required at the first or any subsequent election, and the law known as the direct primary law of this state shall have no application to the election held under this act, and the expense thereof shall be defrayed by said district, and the judges, clerks, and inspectors of said election shall each receive as compensation for the services rendered at such election the sum of three ($3) dollars per day: Provided, that at least thirty days' notice immediately preceding any such general election shall be given thereof by the board of commissioners of such commercial waterway district by posting the same in four public places within the said district. Said notice shall designate the voting places and contain the names of two electors of said district for each of said voting places as judges of said election, and the name of one elector of said district, for each of said voting places as inspector thereof, the same to be chosen by said board of commissioners. Said board of commissioners shall act as a canvassing board to canvass the votes of each election, and they shall meet the day following such election and canvass said votes and declare the result thereof and issue certificates of election. [L. '11, p. 18, § 6; L. '13, p. 116, § 2. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 14, § 6.]

§ 9730. Issuance of Refunding Bonds.

That all bonds heretofore issued or hereafter to be issued by any commercial waterway district of the state of Washington, may be refunded in the discretion of the board of commissioners of such district in the manner hereinafter provided, whenever in the discretion of the board it becomes advisable so to do: Provided, however, that such refunding shall not operate so as to accelerate the maturity of any outstanding bonds which are so sought to be refunded. All the provisions of the existing laws relating to bonds of commercial waterway districts shall apply to any such refunding bonds, except that such refunding bonds may be exchanged for outstanding bonds without notice: Provided, that the same are so exchanged at not less than par value: And provided further, that such refunding bonds shall be payable in not less than five (5) years, nor more than twenty (20) years from their date, and may be payable in installments from year to year covering a period of not less than five (5) years commencing from said five (5) years from date. [L. '17, p. 616, § 1.]

§ 9731. [8172a.*] Powers of Commissioners.

Any commercial waterway district organized or validated under the provisions of this act, or attempted to be organized under the provisions of any previous act and validated under the provisions of any other act, shall have the following powers and authority:

(a) The right of eminent domain, with power by and through its board of commissioners to cause to be condemned and appropriated private property for the use of said organization in the construction and maintenance of a system of commercial waterways and make just compensation therefor: Provided, that the property of private corporations may be subjected to the same rights of eminent domain as that of private individuals: Provided, further, that the said board of commissioners shall have the power to acquire by purchase all the property necessary to make the improvements herein provided for.

(b) Said board of commissioners herein provided shall have the right, power and authority to straighten, widen, deepen and improve any and all rivers, watercourses, streams, whether navigable or otherwise, flowing through or located within the boundaries of said district, or extensions or enlargements thereof.

(c) To construct all needed and auxiliary ditches, canals, flumes, locks, dikes, and all other artificial appliances in the construction of a commercial waterway system, and which may be necessary or advisable to protect the land in any commercial waterway district, from overflow, or to assist and become necessary in the preservation and maintenance of such commercial waterway system.

(d) In the accomplishment of the foregoing objects, the commissioners of said waterway district are hereby given the right, power and authority by purchase or the exercise of the power and authority of eminent domain, or otherwise, to acquire all necessary and needed rights of way in the straightening, deepening, or widening, or otherwise improving of such rivers, watercourses or streams, and such auxiliary ditches, canals, flumes and dikes hereinabove mentioned, and when so acquired shall have and are hereby given the right, power and authority by and with the consent and approval of the United States government in cases where such consent is necessary, to divert, alter and change the bed or course of or otherwise improve any such river, watercourse or stream aforesaid, or to deepen, widen or straighten the same: Provided, that such diversion, alteration or change shall not be had without payment of compensation or damages for any property rights, riparian or otherwise, that may be taken or damaged thereby. Said district and its board of commissioners shall also have the right, power and authority to acquire, either by condemnation or purchase, or both, all such property and property rights adjoining or in the vicinity of any system of commercial waterways as may be necessary or advantageous or proper for the construction and establishment of slips, docks, wharves or landing places or other aids to navigation and commerce in connection with the use of any such commercial waterway, and to pay for any or all such, either by means of the proceeds of sale of abandoned beds of streams, which the district may have acquired, or by exchanging property in said abandoned beds, as the board of commissioners may deem advisable. Said district through its board, shall also have power to lease all properties or lands on such terms and in such manner as the commissioners may deem advisable from time to time.

(e) The right, power and authority to acquire the necessary and needed rights of way for any and all purposes created by this act may be acquired by the commissioners of any waterway district over and across or upon any land or interest therein of the state of Washington, or any county of this state, and streets, alleys and avenues, or public places of any city, town or municipal corporation of this state: Provided, however, that the construction of such commercial waterway or commercial waterways shall not have the effect of impairing any right, power or authority now existing on the part of any city or town to construct in, upon, underneath, above or across such commercial waterway or commercial waterways, sewers, water-pipes, mains, the granting of any franchise thereon, or improve by the way of planking, replanking, paving, repaving or any other power, right and authority which, but for this act, such city or town would have in or to such street, avenue, alley or public place, except, however, that such right, power and authority on behalf of such city or town shall not be exercised either by such city or town or by any person or persons, firms or corporations, to whom it might grant any right or franchise which will materially impair the efficiency of said commercial waterway or commercial waterways. The provision of this section as regards such system of commercial waterway or commercial waterways, to be constructed within the boundaries of any incorporated city or town, shall apply to the extension or enlargement of any commercial waterway or commercial waterways already existing upon, over, and across any street, avenue, alley or public place, of any city or town, as well as the original construction thereof. trict v. Seattle Factory Sites Co., 76 Wash, 181, 135 Pac. 1042.

All the right, title and interest of the state of Washington in and to so much of the beds and shores of any navigable river, stream, waterway or watercourse located within the boundaries of any commercial waterway district up to and including the line of ordinary high tide in waters where the tide ebbs and flows and up to and including the line of ordinary high water within the banks of any navigable rivers and lakes, to the extent that the same, under any proceedings to be had under this act, shall cease to become part of such river, stream, waterway or watercourse by reason of the diversion of such river, stream, waterway or watercourse, under any proceedings had under this act, are hereby given and granted and vested in the respective commercial waterway districts now existing, or hereafter to be formed, and the commissioners of such respective commercial waterway districts are hereby given the right, power and authority to sell such beds and shores in such manner and upon such notice and proceedings as govern, under the existing laws of the state, the board of county commissioners in the sale and disposition of any real estate belonging to the counties of this state. The proceeds of such sales are to be used for the benefit of such commercial waterway districts, and the payment of any expenses connected with the construction of such commercial waterways or maintenance thereof: Provided, however, that the commissioners of such commercial waterway district may, in their discretion, exchange such abandoned beds and shores, for other property needed in the straightening, deepening or widening of such rivers, watercourses or streams, and which exchange may be made upon such terms and conditions and in such areas as, in the discretion of such commissioners, they may deem advisable and for the best interests of such commercial waterway district without any notice or other formality or proceedings whatever. [L. '11, p. 21, § 8. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 16, § 8.]

Riparian owners upon a navigable stream acquire no title to portions of the beds and shores abandoned by the state in improving and straightening the stream, under this section, since the state's title is paramount, and riparian rights are subject to the rights of navigation, and extend only to the use and accustomed flow of water, unless new lands result from accretion, reliction, or avulsion: Hill v. Newell, 86 Wash. 227, 149 Pac. 951.

In every case where the state of Washington has heretofore sold to any purchaser from the state any second class shore lands bordering upon navigable waters of this state by description wherein the water boundary of the land so purchased is not defined, such water boundary shall be held and is hereby declared to be the line of ordinary navigation in such water; and whenever such waters have heretofore been or shall hereafter be lowered by any action done or authorized either by the state of Washington or the United States such water boundary shall thereafter be held and is hereby declared to be the line of ordinary navigation as the same shall be found in such waters after such lowering, and there is hereby granted and confirmed to every such purchaser, his heirs and assigns, all such lands: Provided, however, that this act shall not apply to such portions of such second class shore lands which shall as hereinafter provided be selected by the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington for harbor areas, slips, docks, wharves, warehouses, streets, avenues, parkways and boulevards, alleys, or other public purposes: Provided, further, that all shore lands and the bed of Lake Washington from the southerly margin of the plat of Lake Washington shore lands southerly along the westerly shore of said lake to a line three hundred feet south of and parallel with the east and west center line of section 35, township 24 north, range 4 east, W. M., are hereby reserved for public uses and are hereby granted and donated to the city of Seattle for public park, parkway and boulevard purposes, and as a part of its public park, parkway and boulevard system and any diversion or attempted diversion of such lands so donated from such purposes shall cause the title to said lands to revert to the state. [L. '13, p. 667, § 1.]

This section, undertaking to confirm to purchasers of certain shore lands upon a lake the title to shore lands subsequently uncovered by the artificial lowering of the waters of the lake, excepting portions reserved for harbor area and certain public purposes, is an acknowledgment of an existing right rather than a grant of a new right; and the rights of purchasers are to be measured by pre-existing laws: State v. Sturtevant, 76 Wash. 158, 135 Pac. 1035, 138 Pac. 650.

Under this section, a grant of shore lands is made in contemplation of a change in physical conditions and that a new line of navigability will be assimilated on the lowering of the waters; but, until that change occurs, the established harbor line is the limit of the fixed title of the shore owners; hence the relative rights of shore owners and occupants of lands in front of the present line of navigability is determined by the granting act supra: State v. Sturtevant, 86 Wash. 1, 149 Pac. 33.

§ 9734. [8173-2.] Commissioner of Public Lands to Survey and Select Dock Sites, etc.—Title of Streets.

Within twelve months after the taking effect of this act it shall be the duty of the commissioner of public lands to survey such second class shore lands and in platting such survey to designate thereon as selected for public use all of such shore lands as in the opinion of said commissioner of public lands is available, convenient or necessary to be selected for the use of the public as harbor areas and sites for slips, docks, wharves, warehouses, streets, avenues, parkways and boulevards, alleys and other public purposes. Upon the filing of such plat in the office of the commissioner of public lands, the title to all harbor area so selected shall remain in the state, the title to all selections for streets, avenues and alleys shall vest in any city or town within the corporate limits of which they may be then situate, otherwise in the county in which situate, the title to and control of any lands so selected and designated upon such plat for parkway and boulevard purposes shall, if the same lie outside of the corporate limits of any city or town and if the same form a part of the general parkway and boulevard system of a city of the first class, be in such city, the title to all selections for commercial waterway district purposes shall vest in the commercial waterway district in which situate, or for which selected, and the title to all selections for slips, docks, wharves, warehouses and other public purposes shall vest in the port district if they be situate in a port district, otherwise in the county in which situate. [L. '13, p. 668, § 2.]

§ 9735. [8174a.] State, Counties and Cities may Sign Petition—Appropriations.

(b) Whenever any city or town owns any land situated within the boundaries of a proposed commercial waterway district, the city comptroller, when so directed by the council of said city or town in which such lands are situated, is hereby authorized to sign the petition praying for the formation of such commercial waterway districts for and on behalf and as the act and deed of such city or town, and when so signed the same shall be considered in determining the question of majority signature in the area of land to the petition for the formation of such district.

(c) Whenever the state of Washington owns any land situated within the boundaries of the proposed commercial waterway district the commissioner of public lands of the state of Washington, when so directed by the board of said land commissioners of said state, is hereby authorized to sign the petition praying for the formation of such commercial waterway district for and on behalf and as the act and deed of such state, and when so signed the same shall be considered in determining the question of majority signature in the area of the land to the petition for the formation of such district.

(d) Whenever any highway, roads or bridges are maintained by the county in which a commercial waterway district may be established, as herein provided, and it shall appear that the construction and maintenance of such commercial waterway system will be beneficial to such highways, roads and bridges or which will be beneficial to such highways, roads and bridges as may hereafter be constructed or maintained by the county in which such system of commercial waterways is situated, then the board of county commissioners of such county may, and it shall be the duty of such board to appropriate to such commercial waterway district an amount of money sufficient to pay the proportionate share of such county in accordance with the benefits received or to be received; whenever it may appear to the board of county commissioners of any county that any improvements made or to be made in any commercial waterway district under the provisions of this act shall, on account of the health of the people of the county, be beneficial in respect thereto, the board of county commissioners may make an appropriation of money to such commercial waterway district in such an amount to such board as may seem proper.

(e) Whenever it shall appear to the city or town council of any incorporated city or town, not included or wholly or partly included within the limits of any commercial waterway district that the construction and maintenance of such commercial waterway system will be of special commercial benefit and will be beneficial to the health and sanitation of the inhabitants of such incorporated city or town and to the general welfare of the said city or town, then the said city or town council is hereby empowered and authorized to appropriate such amount of money out of the general funds of the said city or town as may to the said city or town council seem proper and just to such commercial waterway system, or the city or town council may for such purpose levy an assessment upon all the property in said city and town subject to taxation by said city or town, which shall not exceed one-half mill for each dollar of property.

(f) Public highways, streets and alleys shall not be considered in computing the area of said district. [L. '11, p. 22, § 9. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 17, § 9.]

§ 9736. [8175a.] Board of Commissioners, Powers and Duties of—Vacancies.

Said board of commercial waterway commissioners hereinbefore provided for shall have the exclusive charge of the construction and maintenance of all commercial waterways or commercial waterways systems which may be constructed within the said district, and shall be the executive officers thereof, with full power to bind said district by their acts in the performance of their duties as provided by law. In case of vacancy or vacancies occurring in said board by the death, failure to elect, failure to qualify, resignation, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled at once from the freeholders and qualified electors of said district by the judge of the superior court of said county, and said appointee shall serve until the next annual election and until his successor is elected and qualified: Provided, that in counties where there may be more than one superior judge, the judge eldest in age shall make such appointment. [L. '11, p. 24, § 10; L. '13, p. 117, § 3. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 19, § 10.]

Whenever it is desired to prosecute the construction of a system of waterways within said district, said district, by and through its board of commissioners, shall file a petition in the superior court of the county in which said district is located, setting forth therein the route or routes over which the same is to be constructed, with a reasonably accurate description thereof, together with the estimated cost of such proposed improvement, showing therein the names of the land owners whose lands are to be benefited by such proposed improvement, the description of the land owned by each such land owner, and the maximum amount of benefits to be derived by each such lot, tract or parcel of land set forth therein from the construction of said proposed improvement, and that the same will be conducive to the public health, sanitation, convenience and welfare and increase the value of all of said property for purposes of public revenue. Said petition shall further set forth a reasonably accurate description of the tracts or parcels of land or property which will be taken or damaged by said improvement, and the names of the owners and occupants thereof, and all persons having any interest therein so far as known to the officers filing the petition or appearing from the records in the office of the county auditor, the total amount of land necessary to be taken therefor, and an estimate of the value of said land so sought to be taken. The said petition shall set forth as defendants therein all persons or corporations whose lands would be benefited by said improvement, or whose lands are sought to be appropriated for said improvement, or whose lands will be damaged thereby, or who have any interest in any of said lands or property as mortgagee, or otherwise appearing on the records of the county auditor's office. Said petition shall also set forth that said proposed system of waterways is necessary, and that all lands sought to be appropriated for rights of way or other purposes are necessary to be used in the construction and maintenance of said improvement. [L. '11, p. 24, § 11. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 20, § 11.]

§ 9738. [8177a.] Board may Employ Engineers, Surveyors, etc.

In the preparation of the facts and data to be inserted in said petition and filed therewith for the purpose of presenting the matter to the said superior court, or at any other time, the said board of commissioners of said commercial waterway district may employ one or more good and competent engineers, surveyors and draftsmen to assist them in compiling data required to be presented to the court with said petition as hereinbefore provided, and such legal and other assistance as may be necessary, with full power to bind said district for the compensation of such assistance or employees employed by them, and such services shall be taxed as costs in the suit. [L. '11, p. 25, § 12. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 20, § 12.]

Cited in 80 Wash. 281, 282.

Under this section, the commissioners have no power to enter into a contract to employ an engineer as an expert adviser for the purpose of preparing the assessment-roll, at $300 per month, the employment to continue until the roll had been finally settled by the superior court;

since after the work was completed and before termination of the employment, a considerable period of time must elapse during which no service could be rendered: Merrifield v. Commercial Waterway Dist. No. 1, 80 Wash. 279, 141 Pac. 685.

§ 9739. [8177-1.] Summons—Service—Proof.

A summons stating briefly the objects of the petition and containing a description of the land, real estate, premises or property sought to be appropriated or damaged, and those which it is claimed to be benefited by such improvement, and stating the court wherein said petition is filed, the date of the filing thereof and when the defendants are required to appear (which shall be ten days, exclusive of the day of service, if served within the county in which the petition is pending, and if in any other county, then twenty days after such service, and if served by publication, then within thirty days from the date of the first publication), shall be served on each and every person named therein as owner, encumbrancer, tenant or otherwise interested therein. Said summons must be subscribed by the commissioners, or their attorney, running in the name of the state of Washington and directed to the defendants; and service thereof shall be made by delivering a copy of such summons to each of the persons or parties so named therein, if a resident of the state, or in case of the absence of the person or party from his or her usual place of abode, by leaving a copy of such notice at his or her usual place of abode, or in case of a foreign corporation, at its principal place of business in this state, with some person more than sixteen years of age; in case of domestic corporations, said service shall be made upon the president, secretary or other director or trustee for such corporation; in case of minors, on their guardians; or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person who has the care and custody of such minor; in case of idiots, lunatics or insane persons, on their guardian; or in case no guardian shall have been appointed, then on the person in whose care or charge they are found. In case the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated or damaged, or which it is claimed will be benefited by such improvement, is state, tide, school or county land, the summons shall be served on the auditor of the county in which the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated or damaged, or which it is claimed will be benefited, is situated. In all cases where the owner or person claiming an interest in such real or other property is a nonresident of this state, or where the residence of such owner or person is unknown, an affidavit of one or more of the commissioners of said district shall be filed that such owner or person is a nonresident of this state, or that after diligent inquiry his residence is unknown or cannot be ascertained by such deponent, service may be made by publication thereof in a newspaper published in the county where such lands are situated, once a week for three successive weeks; and in case no newspaper is published in such county, then such publication may be had in a newspaper published in the county nearest to the county in which lies the land sought to be appropriated or damaged, or which it is claimed will be benefited by said improvement. Such publication shall be deemed service upon each nonresident person or person whose residence is unknown. Such summons may be served by any competent person over twenty years of age. Due proof of service of such summons by affidavit of publication shall be filed with the clerk of such court before the court shall proceed to hear the matter. Want of service of such notice shall render the subsequent proceedings void as to the person not served; but all persons or parties having been served with summons as herein provided, either by publication or otherwise, shall be bound by the subsequent proceedings. In all cases not otherwise provided for service of notice, order and other papers in the proceedings authorized by this chapter may be made as the superior court, or the judge thereof, may direct: Provided, that personal service upon any party outside of the state shall be of like effect as service by publication. [L. '11, p. 25, § 13.]

§ 9740. [8177-2.] Defendants may Appear for Hearing.

Any or all of said defendants may appear jointly or separately at the time and place appointed for hearing said petition, or to which the same may have been adjourned. If the court or judge thereof shall have satisfactory proof that all of the defendants in said action have been duly served with said summons, as above provided, and shall be fully satisfied by competent proof that said improvement is practicable and conducive to the public health, sanitation, welfare and convenience, and will increase the value of said lands for the purpose of public revenue, and that the contemplated use for which the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated is really a public use, and that the land, real estate, premises or other property sought to be appropriated are required and necessary for the establishment of said improvement, the court or judge thereof shall cause a jury of twelve qualified persons to be impaneled to fix the compensation and to assess the damages and benefits, as herein provided, if in attendance upon his court, unless a jury is waived; and if not he may, if satisfied that the public interests require the immediate construction of said improvement, direct the sheriff of his county to summons from the citizens of the county in which the petition is filed as many qualified persons as may be necessary in order to form a jury of twelve persons, unless a jury be waived. If necessary, to complete the jury in any case, the sheriff, under the directions of the court or the judge thereof, shall summons as many qualified persons as may be required to complete the jury from the citizens of the county in which the petition is filed. In case a special jury is summoned the cost thereof shall be taxed as part of the cost in the proceedings and paid by the district seeking to appropriate said land, the same as other costs in the case; and no person shall be competent as a juror who is a resident of, or land owner in, the district seeking to appropriate said land. The jurors at such trial shall make in each case a separate assessment of damages which shall result to any person, corporation or company, or to the state, by reason of the appropriation and use of such land, real estate, premises or other property for said improvement and shall ascertain, determine and award the amount of damages to be paid to said owner or owners, respectively, and to all tenants, encumbrancers and others interested, for the taking or injuriously affecting such land, real estate, premises or other property for the establishment of said improvement; and shall further find a maximum amount of benefits per acre or per lot or tract to be derived by each of the land owners. And upon a return of the verdict into court the same shall be reported as in other cases; whereupon, a decree shall be entered in accordance with the verdict so rendered, setting forth all the facts found by the jury, and decreeing that said property be appropriated, and directing the commissioners of the district to draw their warrant on the county treasurer for the amount awarded by the jury to each person for damages sustained by reason of the establishment of said improvement, payable out of the funds of said district. [L. '11, p. 27, § 14.]

Cited in 76 Wash. 187; 77 Wash. 189, 204.

This section is not objectionable in that the amount of benefits found may exceed the cost of the improvement; and the jury must determine the maximum benefits at the time of the trial, without deductions for streets that might be opened in the future: Newell v. Loeb, 77 Wash. 172, 137 Pac. 811.

Under this section, failure to serve all of the defendants does not vitiate the proceedings as to defendants already duly served, in view of the provision that want of service shall render the proceedings void as to the parties not served, but that all persons served shall be bound, and sections 9747 and 9748, providing for bringing in persons not served and for subsequent trials in such cases: State ex rel. Puget Mill Co. v. Superior Court, 68 Wash. 425, 123 Pac. 791.

§ 9741. [8181a.] Procedure as to Parties Claiming Interest in Property Damaged.

Such jury shall also ascertain the just compensation to be paid to any person claiming an interest in any lot, parcel of land or property which may be taken or damaged by such improvement, whether or not such person's name or such lot, parcel of land or other property is mentioned or described in such petition: Provided, such person shall first be admitted as a party defendant to said suit by such court and shall file a statement of his interest in and description of the lot, parcel of land or other property in respect to which he claims compensation. [L. '11, p. 29, § 15. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 22, § 16.]

§ 9742. [8182a.] View by Jury.

The court may, upon the motion of such district or of any defendant, direct that said jury (under the charge of any officer of the court and accompanied by such person or persons as may be appointed by the court to point out the property sought to be taken or damaged) shall view the lands and property affected by said improvement. [L. '11, p. 29, § 16. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 22, § 17.]

§ 9743. [8183a.] Buildings—Assessment and Measure, of Damages.

If there be any building standing, in whole or in part, upon any land to be taken, the jury shall add to their finding of the value of the land taken the damages to said building. If the entire building is taken, or if the building is damaged so that it cannot be readjusted to the premises, then the measure of damages shall be the fair market value of the building. If part of the building is taken or damaged and the building can be readjusted or replaced on the part of the land remaining, then the measure of damages shall be the cost of readjusting or moving the building, or the part thereof left together with the depreciation in the market value of said building by reason of said readjustment or moving. [L. '11, p. 29, § 17. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 22, § 18.]

§ 9744. [8184a.] Separate Findings as to Several Interests—Adverse Claimants.

If the land and buildings belong to different parties, or if the title to the property be divided into different interests by lease or otherwise, the damages done to each of such interests may be separately found by the jury on the request of any party. In making such findings, the jury shall first find and set forth in their verdict the total amount of the damage to said land and buildings and all premises therein, estimating the same as an entire estate and as if the same were the sole property of one owner in fee simple; and they shall then apportion the damages so found among the several parties entitled to the same in proportion to their several interests and claims and the damages sustained by them respectively, and set forth such apportionment in their verdict. No delay in ascertaining the amount of compensation shall be occasioned by any doubt or contest which may arise as to the ownership of the property, or any part thereof, or as to the extent of the interest of any defendant in the property to be taken or damaged, but in such case the jury shall ascertain the entire compensation or damage that should be paid for the property and the entire interests of all the parties therein, and the court may thereafter require adverse claimants to interplead, so as to fully determine their rights and interests in the compensation so ascertained. And the court may make such order as may be necessary in regard to the deposit or payment of such compensation. [L. '11, p. 30, § 18. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 22, § 19.]

§ 9745. [8184-1.] Providing for Omission—Levy.

If the board of waterway commissioners shall, at any time, discover that any lands within said district will be benefited by the waterway system, and the same were by mistake, inadvertence or other cause omitted from the assessment of benefits as provided for herein, or which were omitted for the reason that they were not at the time of assessing the benefits provided for herein, for any cause, subject to a legal assessment, said commissioners shall file a petition in the superior court in the original cause setting forth the facts of such benefits, describing the lands omitted, the reason the same were omitted in said original proceedings and giving the names of the owners or reputed owners thereof and praying that said original cause, as to such lands, be opened up for further proceedings for the assessment of the alleged benefits, and upon the filing of said petition summons shall issue thereon and be served on the defendants named in said petition the same as summons is served and issued in original proceedings, and the jury, in assessing the benefits, shall take into consideration the length of time said lands are to receive the benefits from said improvement and its future maintenance, estimating said time from the date when said lands first became legally assessable, which date must be found by the jury in their verdict as to each tract or parcel found to be benefited: Provided, that a jury may be waived as in other proceedings herein: And provided, further, that in case the expense and the cost of the improvements has been paid for by assessments levied against the land assessed in the original proceedings before the lands provided for in this section are assessed, as provided herein, then, in such case, the assessments levied from time to time on said last-mentioned land shall be paid into the maintenance fund of said district. [L. '11, p. 30, § 19.]

§ 9746. [8184-2.] Appeal to Supreme Court.

Every person or corporation feeling himself or itself aggrieved by any judgment for damages or compensation or any assessment of benefits provided in this act, may appeal to the supreme court of the state within thirty days after the entry of the judgment, and such appeal shall bring before the supreme court the propriety and justness of the amount of compensation or damages or assessment of benefits in respect to the parties to the appeal. Upon such appeal no bonds shall be required and no stay shall be allowed. [L. '11, p. 31, § 20.]

§ 9747. [8185a.] Procedure—Judgment—New Trial, Parties not Served.

Upon the return of the verdict the proceedings of the court regarding new trial and the entry of judgment thereon shall be the same as in other civil actions, and the judgments shall be such as the nature of the case shall require. The court shall continue or adjourn the case from time to time as to all occupants and owners named in such petition who shall not have been served with process or brought in by publication, and new summons may issue or new publication may be made at any time; and upon such occupants or owners being brought in, the court shall impanel a jury to ascertain the compensation so to be made to such defendant or defendants for property taken or damaged, and to ascertain and determine the maximum benefits received by any such property, and like proceedings shall be had for such purpose as herein provided. [L. '11, p. 31, § 21. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 23, § 20.]

§ 9748. [8186a.] Change in Ownership—Procedure.

The court shall have power at any time, upon proof that any such owner or owners named in such petition who has not been served with process has ceased to be such owner or owners since the filing of such petition, to impanel a jury unless a jury be waived, and ascertain the just compensation to be made for the property, or the damages thereto or benefits received by said property which has been owned by the person or persons so ceasing to own the same, and the court may, upon any finding or findings of any jury or juries, or at any time during the course of such proceedings enter such order. [L. '11, p. 32, § 22. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 23; § 21.]

§ 9749. [8187a.] Infants, Insane, etc., Guardian ad Litem for.

When it shall appear from the said petition or otherwise, at any time during the proceedings upon such petition, that any infant or insane or incompetent person is interested in any property that is to be taken or damaged, or benefited, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for such infant or insane or incompetent person to appear and defend him, her or them, and the court shall make such order or decree as it shall deem proper to protect and secure the interest of such infant or insane or incompetent person in such property or the compensation which shall be awarded therefor and benefits to be assessed. [L. '11, p. 32, § 23. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 24, § 22.]

§ 9750. [8188a.] Finality and Conclusiveness of Judgment—Costs—Appeal.

Any final judgment or judgments rendered by said court upon any finding or findings of any jury or juries, or upon any finding or findings of the court in case a jury be waived, shall be lawful and sufficient condemnation of the land or property to be taken, or of the right to damage the same in the manner proposed, upon the payment of the amount of such findings and all costs, which shall be taxed as in other civil cases: Provided, that in any case defendant recovers no damages, no costs shall be taxed. Such judgment or judgments shall be final and conclusive as to the damages caused by such improvement, and as to the compensation to be allowed for property taken, unless appealed from, and no appeal from the same shall delay the proceedings, if such district shall pay into court for the owners and parties interested, as directed by the court, the amount of the judgment and costs, and such districts, after making such payment into court, shall be liable to such owner or owners or parties interested for the payment of any further compensation or damages which may at any time be finally awarded to such parties so appealing in said proceeding, and his or her costs, and shall pay the same on the rendition of judgment therefor and abide any rule or order of the court in relation to the matter in controversy. In case of an appeal to the supreme court of the state by any party to the proceedings, the money so paid into the superior court by such district, as aforesaid, shall remain in the custody of said superior court until the final determination of the proceedings. If the owner of the land, real estate, premises, or other property accepts the sum awarded by the jury or the court, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively an appeal to the supreme court and final judgment may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases. [L. '11, p. 32, § 24. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 24, § 23.]

§ 9751. [8189a.] Title Vests upon Payment of Judgment into Court.

The court, upon proof that just compensation so found by the jury, or by the court in case the jury is waived, together with the costs, has been paid to the person entitled thereto, or has been paid into court as directed by the court, shall enter an order that the district shall have the right at any time thereafter, to take possession of or damage the property in respect to which such compensation shall have been so paid or paid into court as aforesaid, and thereupon the title to any property so taken shall be vested in fee simple in such district. [L. '11, p. 33, § 25. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 25, § 24.]

§ 9752. [8190a.] Dismissal When Damages and Costs Exceed Benefits.

In case the damages or amount of compensation for such property, together with the estimated costs of the improvement, amount to more than the maximum amount of benefits which will be derived from said improvement, or, if said improvement is not practicable, or will not be conducive to the public health, sanitation, welfare and convenience, or will not increase the public revenue, the court shall dismiss such proceedings, and in such case a judgment shall be rendered for the costs of said proceedings against said district, and no further proceedings shall be had or done therein; and upon the payment of the costs, said organization shall be dissolved by decree of said court. [L. '11, p. 34, § 26. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 25, § 25.]

§ 9753. [8191a.] Conflicting Claims to Money Paid into Court — Procedure.

Any person or corporation claiming to be entitled to any money ordered paid by the court, as provided in this chapter, may apply to the court therefor, and upon furnishing evidence satisfactory to the court that he is entitled to the same, the court shall make an order directing the payment of such claimant of the portion of such money as he or it may be found entitled to; but if, upon application, the court or judge thereof shall decide that the title to the land, real estate or premises specified in the application of such claimant is in such condition as to require that an action be commenced to determine the title of claimants thereto, it shall refuse such order until such action is commenced and the conflicting claims to such land, and real estate or premises be determined according to law. [L. '11, p. 34, § 27. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 25, § 26.]

§ 9754. [8192a.] Collection of Assessments—Extension of Tax-rolls.

Upon the entry of the judgment, the clerk of said court shall immediately prepare a transcript which shall contain a list of the names of all persons and corporations benefited by said improvement and the amount of benefit derived by each, respectively, and shall duly certify the same, together with a list of the lands benefited by such improvement belonging to each person and corporation, and shall file the same with the auditor of the county for convenience of reference; and from and after the entry of such judgment in the office of the clerk of the court in which the same is rendered, all the lands included in the list of lands benefited by such improvement shall stand charged with the entire cost and expense of said improvement and the other costs, expenses and charges provided for by this act, not exceeding with respect to any lot or tract of land (so far as concerns the original cost) the maximum amount stated or declared in such judgment to be the maximum amount of benefits to be derived by such lot or tract of land or the owners thereof, and all such lands shall thereafter be subject to the assessments to be levied by the board of commissioners for said purposes, which assessments shall be levied pro rata in proportion to the maximum amount of benefits as to each lot or tract of land as stated or declared in such judgment. All assessments shall be levied from time to time by the board of commissioners by written notice to be addressed to and served on the county assessor of the county, which notice shall be so served on the county assessor on or before the first day of November in each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and such assessments shall be levied against and apportioned to the lands in such district benefited by said improvement in proportion to the maximum benefits originally determined by the judgment of the court and such assessments shall fall due during the then ensuing calendar year at the time of the falling due of general taxes, and the amount so designated shall be added by the county assessor to the general taxes of each person or corporation, and to the general taxes against each lot or tract of land or other property, according to such notice, and the several amounts thereof shall be placed upon the general tax-rolls in the office of the county assessor and shall be deemed for all purposes a part of the general taxes, and shall constitute liens against each such lot or tract of land of equal rank with state, county and city taxes and shall have the same priority over all other liens as state, county and city taxes have, and shall be subject to the same interest and penalties in case of delinquency as in case of general taxes, and for all purposes of delinquency, certificates of delinquency, foreclosure and other proceedings leading up to final payment, enforcement and collection, such assessments shall be deemed a part of the general taxes as aforesaid. The amount of the assessment levied by the commissioners during any one year shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of the amount estimated by the board of commissioners to be necessary to pay the cost of the proceedings and the establishment of said district and waterway system, and the cost of construction of said work: Provided, that this limitation shall not apply to assessments levied to pay the principal or interest of any bonds issued under authority of this act, or levied for maintenance charges as provided by section 9759. And provided further, that where the amount realized from the original assessment shall not prove sufficient to complete the original plans and specifications of any waterway system, alterations, extensions or changes therein for which the said original assessment was made, the board of commissioners of said district shall make such further assessment as may be necessary to complete said system according to the original plans and specifications, which assessment shall be made and collected in the manner provided herein for the original assessment. This amendment shall not be construed to impair or prejudice any proceedings had or taken by any commercial waterway district prior to this amendment under the act hereby amended or any other act relating to commercial waterway districts, but all such proceedings may be continued and carried out under the provisions of this act as hereby amended the same as if originally commenced under the provisions of this act as hereby amended. All proceedings, acts and things which may heretofore have been had or done or attempted to be had or done under the provisions of the act hereby amended or any other act of the legislature relating to commercial waterways shall be considered and deemed a full compliance with the provisions of this amendatory act with reference thereto. And in all cases where any county assessor has prior to this amendment entered upon any county tax-rolls by direction of the board of commissioners of any such district an assessment ordered by them and made pro rata in proportion to the several amounts fixed in any such court judgment as to the respective maximum amounts of benefits to be derived by each lot or tract of land, notwithstanding that the provisions of this section or of the other sections of the act of which this act is amendatory have not been strictly pursued, nevertheless the said entries upon said tax-rolls be and the same are hereby validated and confirmed and given the same effect in all respects as if the said amounts had been entered upon such tax-rolls strictly in accordance with the provisions of the law then existing, and all such assessments shall be treated as if levied under the provisions of said act as hereby amended. [L. '11, p. 34, § 28; L. '13, p. 118, § 4. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess. p. 26, § 27.]

§ 9755. [8193a.] Dismissal—Levy and Collection of Taxes to Pay Costs.

In the event of the dismissal of said proceedings and the rendition of judgment against said district, as hereinbefore provided, said waterway commissioners shall levy a tax upon all the real estate within said district, taking as a basis the last equalized assessment of said real estate for state and county purposes, sufficient to pay said judgment and the costs of levying said tax, and shall cause said tax-roll to be filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court in which such judgment was rendered. If said tax is not paid within sixty days after the filing of said tax-roll, the court shall, upon the application of any party interested, direct said real estate to be sold in payment of said tax, said sale to be made in the same manner and by the same officer as is or may be provided by law for the sale of real estate for taxes for general purposes; and the same right of redemption shall exist as in the sale of real estate for the payment of taxes for general purposes. [L. '11, p. 36, § 29. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 27, § 28.]

§ 9756. [8194a.] Construction—Letting of Contract—Contractor's Bonds.

After the filing of said transcript said commissioners of such waterway district shall proceed at once in the construction of said improvement, and in carrying on said construction or any extensions thereof, they shall have full charge and management thereof, shall have the power to employ such assistance as they may deem necessary and purchase all material and employ all labor that may be necessary in the construction and carrying on of the work of said improvement; and shall have power to let the whole or any portion of said work to any responsible contractor which said contract shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder after advertising for bids for such work in two successive issues of some weekly newspaper printed and published in such county, and shall in such case enter into all necessary agreements with such contractor that may be necessary in the premises: Provided, that the commissioners of said commercial waterway district may sell or otherwise dispose of all excavating material of every kind in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as in their discretion they may deem advisable and for the best interest of such commercial waterway district without any notice or other formalities or proceedings whatever. The proceeds of any sale of such excavated material are to be used for the benefit of such commercial waterway district and the payment of any expense connected with the cost of construction or maintenance thereof: Provided further, that in case the whole or any portion of said improvement is let to any contractor said commissioners shall require said contractor to give a bond in double the amount of the contract price of the whole or of such portion of said work covered by said contract, with two or more sureties to be approved by the board of commissioners of said waterway district and running to said district as obligee therein, conditioned for the faithful and accurate performance of said contract by said contractor, his executors, administrators or assigns, according to the terms and conditions of said agreement, and shall cause said contractor to enter into a further or additional bond in the same amount, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by said board of commissioners of said waterway districts in the name of said district as obligee therein, conditioned that said contractor, his executors, administrators or assigns, or subcontractor, his executors, administrators or assigns, performing the whole or any portion of said work under contract of said original contractor, shall pay or cause to be paid all just claims for all persons performing labor or rendering services in the construction of said work, or furnishing materials, merchandise or provisions of any kind or character used by said contractor or subcontractor, or any employee thereof in the construction of said improvement: Provided further, that no sureties on said last-mentioned bond shall be liable thereon unless the persons or corporations performing said labor and furnishing said materials, goods, wares, merchandise and provisions, shall, within ninety days after the completion of said improvement file their claim, duly verified, that the amount is just and due and remains unpaid, with the board of commissioners of said waterway district. § 9757. [8195a.] Changes in Location, System, etc., Procedure to Obtain.

The work on said improvement shall begin and shall be completed with all expedition possible, and said board of commissioners of such waterway district, or any contractor thereunder, shall have no power whatever to change said route or system of improvement or the manner of doing the work therein so as to make any radical changes in said improvement, without the written consent of all the land owners to be benefited thereby, and the land owners which may be damaged thereby. And in case any substantial changes in said system of improvement or the manner of the construction thereof shall be deemed necessary by said board of commissioners at any time during the progress thereof, and if the written consent to such changes cannot be procured from said land owners, then said commissioners, for and on behalf of said district, shall file a petition in the superior court of the county within which said district is located, setting forth therein the changes which they deem necessary to be made in the plan or manner of the construction of said improvement, and praying therein to be permitted to make such changes, and upon the filing thereof, the commissioners shall cause a summons to be served, setting forth the prayer of said petition, which summons shall be served in the same manner as the service of summons in the case of the original petition, upon all the land owners of or others claiming any lien or record interest in the lands benefited or damaged by said improvement or by said proposed change in said improvement, and any or all of said parties so served may appear in said cause and submit their objections thereto, and after the time for the appearance of all of said parties has expired, the court shall proceed to hear said petition at once without further delay, and if it appears during the course of said proceedings that the property rights of any of said land owners will be affected by such proposed change in said improvements, then the court, after having passed upon all preliminary questions as in the original proceedings shall cause, unless a jury be waived, a jury to be impaneled as in the case of the original proceeding for the establishment of said improvements, and upon the final hearing of said cause, the jury shall return a verdict finding the amount of damages, if any, sustained by all persons and corporations, the same as upon the original petition, by reason of such proposed change, and shall readjust the amount of benefits claimed to have been increased or diminished by any of said land owners by reason of said proposed change in said improvements, and the proceedings thereafter shall be the same as to rendering judgment, appeal therefrom, payment of compensation and damages and filing of the certificate with the auditor, as hereinbefore provided for in the proceedings upon the original petition, and said commissioners shall have a right thereafter to proceed with the construction of said improvements according to the changes made therein. [L. '11, p. 37, § 31. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 28, § 30.]

During the construction of said improvement said commissioners shall have the right to allow payment thereof, in installments as the work progresses, in proportion to the amount of work completed: Provided, that no allowance or payment shall be made for said work to any contractor or subcontractor to exceed seventy-five per cent of the proportionate amount of the work completed by such contractor or subcontractor, and twenty-five per cent of the contract price shall be reserved at all times by said board of commissioners until said work is wholly completed, and shall not be paid upon the completion of said work until ninety days have expired for the presentation of all claims for labor performed and materials, goods, wares, merchandise and provisions furnished or used in the construction of said improvements; and upon the completion of said work and the payment of all claims hereinbefore provided for according to the terms and conditions of said contract, said commissioners shall accept said improvement and pay the contract price therefor. [L. '11, p. 39, § 32. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 30, § 31.]

§ 9759. [8197a.] Annual Maintenance Tax, Levy of.

The board of commissioners of any commercial waterway district shall on or before the first day of November of each year, make an estimate of the cost of maintenance of the waterway system, constructed in such district which estimate shall include the cost of making any necessary repairs that it might become necessary to make in the maintenance of such system. Such estimates shall be made for the succeeding year and the amount so estimated shall be certified by the board of commissioners to the auditor of the county in which such district is located, on or before said date and the amount thereof shall be levied against and apportioned to the lands in such district benefited by said improvement in proportion to the maximum benefits originally assessed by the judgment of the court, and said amount shall be added to the general taxes against said lands and collected therewith. [L. '11, p. 39, § 33. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 30, § 32.]

§ 9760. [8198a.] Board, Organization and Officers of — Warrants.

The board of commissioners of such district shall elect one of their number chairman and one secretary, and shall keep minutes of all their proceedings, and may issue warrants of such district in payment of all claims of indebtedness against such district; such warrants shall be in form and substance the same as county warrants, or as near the same as may be practicable, and shall draw interest at a rate to be fixed by said board, from the date of their presentation to the treasurer for payment, as hereinafter provided, and shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of said board: Provided, that no warrants shall be issued by said board of commissioners in payment of any indebtedness of such district for less than the face or par value. [L. '11, p. 40, § 34; L. '13, p. 122, § 6. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 31, § 33.]

§ 9761. [8199a.] Issuance of Bonds and Payments of Warrants.

At any time after the entry of a judgment in a proceeding brought under the foregoing provisions of this act, the board of commissioners of such waterway district may issue bonds as hereinafter provided for all or any part of the total amount of the cost of construction of said improvement, together with the cost of the establishment of the district and any and all other expenses of every kind connected with the completion of such waterway system, including the damages assessed and compensation made to land owners for right of way and the expenses and costs of the entire proceedings, and the purpose of issuing such bonds may embrace, in whole or in part, the funding of any outstanding warrants or obligations of such district. In case such bonds are issued there is hereby appropriated and pledged for the payment thereof a sufficient amount of all the maximum benefits stated or declared, or to be stated or declared, by the judgment of the court against all the lands benefited and to be benefited by the improvement within such district and there is hereby appropriated and pledged for such payment a sufficient amount of all sums charged against such lands and the assessments therefor as will be sufficient to pay all such bonds as the same or any part thereof become due; and while any such bonds shall be outstanding the board of commissioners shall at no time levy any assessment for any purpose, other than their payment, which shall so far impair the fund to be realized from the collection of all the assessments as to jeopardize the payment of such bonds or to reduce such fund below the point where there will be ample amounts still leviable to provide for the payment thereof. The bonds hereby authorized shall not be sold for less than par value. All bonds and warrants issued under the authority of this act shall be legal securities which may be used by any bank or trust company for deposit with the state treasurer, or any county or city treasurer as security for deposits in lieu of a surety bond under any law relating to deposits of public moneys. When the county treasurer shall have on hand money of such district available for the payment of the warrants of such district, he shall call such warrants in the same manner and under the same conditions as county warrants. [L. '11, p. 40, § 35; L. '13, p. 122, § 7. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 31, § 34.]

§ 9762. [8200a.] Bonds—Form, Denomination, Interest—Coupons.

Said bonds shall be numbered from one upwards, consecutively, and be in denominations of not less than one hundred ($100) dollars, nor more than one thousand ($1,000) dollars. They shall bear the date of issue, shall be made payable to the bearer in not more than ten (10) years nor less than five (5) years from the date of their issue, and bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, with coupons attached for each interest payment. The bonds and each coupon shall be signed by the chairman of the board of waterway commissioners, and shall be attested by the secretary of the board, and the seal of such district shall be affixed to each bond, but not to the coupons: Provided, however, that said coupons in lieu of being so signed may have printed thereon a facsimile of the signatures of such officers. [L. '11, p. 41, § 36; L. '13, p. 124, § 8. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 32, § 35.]

§ 9763. [8201a.] Bonds may be Exchanged for Warrants.

Said bonds may be exchanged at not less than their par value for an equal amount of the warrants of the district issuing such bonds. [L. '11, p. 41, § 37. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 32, § 36.]

§ 9764. [8202a.] Liquidation of Bonds, Levy of Assessment for—Separate Fund.

Beginning five years before said bonds shall become due, the commissioners of such commercial waterway district issuing them are hereby authorized and required to levy four annual assessments each equal to twenty-five per cent of the total amount necessary to liquidate said bonds at maturity; such assessments shall be collected by the county treasurer and kept as a separate fund for the sole purpose of liquidating said bonds in accordance with the provisions of the following section. [L. '11, p. 41, § 38; L. '13, p. 124, § 9. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 32, § 37.]

§ 9765. [8203a.] Bonds, Payment of and Calls for.

It shall be the duty of the treasurer in any county in which there may be a district issuing bonds under the provisions of this chapter to call in for payment on each interest day on and after five years from the date of any such bonds in numerical order beginning with bond number one, as many of such bonds as can be paid out of the funds on hand for that purpose. Said call shall be published for two consecutive weeks in the newspaper doing the county printing, the first publication to be two weeks prior to the said interest day, and shall state the numbers of bonds so called and that interest thereon will cease on said interest day. [L. '11, p. 41, § 39; L. '13, p. 124, § 10. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess. p. 32, § 38.]

§ 9766. [8204a.] Payment of Coupons, Annual Levy for.

It shall be the duty of such waterway commissioners annually to levy an assessment sufficient for the payment of the coupons hereinbefore mentioned as they fall due. The proceeds of said levy shall be set apart by the county treasurer as a special fund to be known as the "Interest Fund." Said coupons shall be considered for all purposes as warrants drawn upon the funds of the district issuing bonds under the provisions of this chapter, and, when presented to the county treasurer, and no funds are in the treasury to pay said coupons, it shall be his duty to indorse said coupons as presented for payment in the same manner as other warrants upon the funds of said district are indorsed, and thereafter said coupons shall bear interest at the same rate as the bond to which they belong and be subject to call in the same manner as other warrants. [L. '11, p. 42, § 40; L. '13, p. 125, § 11. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 33, § 39.]

§ 9767. [8205a.] Registration of Bonds.

Before the bonds are delivered to the purchaser they shall be presented to the county treasurer, who shall register them in a book kept for that purpose and known as the bond register, in which register he shall enter the number of each bond, the date of issue, the maturity, amount and rate of interest, to whom and when payable, and the proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall in all cases be paid by the purchaser thereof to the county treasurer. [L. '11, p. 42, § 41. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 33, § 40.]

§ 9768. [8206a.] Warrants—Presentation and Indorsement—Calls for.

All warrants issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be presented by the holders thereof to the county treasurer, who shall indorse thereon the day of presentation for payment, with the additional indorsement thereon, in case of nonpayment, that they are not paid for want of funds; and no warrant shall draw interest under the provisions of this act until it is so presented and indorsed by the county treasurer. And it shall be the duty of such treasurer, from time to time, when he has sufficient funds in his hands for that purpose, to advertise in the newspapers doing the county printing for the presentation to him for payment of as many of the outstanding warrants as he may be able to pay: Provided, that thirty days after the first publication of said notice of the treasurer calling in any of said outstanding warrants, said warrants shall cease to bear interest, which shall be stated in the notice. Said notice shall be published two weeks consecutively, and said warrants shall be called in and paid in the order of their indorsement. [L. '11, p. 42, § 42. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 33, § 41.]

§ 9769. [8207a.] Submission of Questions to Jury.

Upon the trial of any questions of issue by a jury under the provisions of this chapter the trial court may, in its discretion, submit all questions to be found by the jury in the form of separate findings, or may submit to such jury separate forms of verdict on all such questions to be found by the jury therein. [L. '11, p. 43, § 43. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 34, § 42.]

§ 9770. [8208a.] Eminent Domain Extended to Public Lands.

All state, county, school district, or other lands belonging to other public corporations shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and such corporations, by and through the proper authorities, shall be made parties in all proceedings herein affecting said lands, and shall have the same rights as private persons, and their lands shall be subject to the right of eminent domain the same as the lands of private persons or corporation. [L. '11, p. 43, § 44. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 34, § 44.]

§ 9771. [8209a.] Assessment of Benefits Against State and Municipalities —Payment.

In case lands belonging to the state, county, school district or other public corporation are benefited by any improvement instituted under the provisions of this chapter, all benefits shall be assessed against such lands, and the same shall be paid by the proper authorities of such public corporation at the times and in the manner as assessments are called and paid in case of private persons, out of any general fund of such corporation. [L. '11, p. 43, § 45. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 34, § 44.]

§ 9772. [8210a.] Fees for Service of Process.

Fees for services of all process necessary to be served under the provisions of this chapter shall be the same as for like services in other civil cases, or as is or may be provided by law. [L. '11, p. 43, § 46. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 34, § 45.]

§ 9773. [8211a.] Compensation of Board, Objections to.

In performing their duties under the provisions of this chapter the board of waterway commissioners shall receive such compensation as may be just and reasonable for all necessary services actually performed, not exceeding three dollars per day, to be determined and allowed by the court upon presentation by said commissioners, or either of them, of an itemized statement duly verified by either or all of such board, that the same is just, reasonable, necessary and that such services were actually performed, and that no part of said compensation has ever been paid, and in case such services are rendered by said board in the establishment or construction of said improvement, or any extension thereof, the amount thereof so allowed by the court shall be deemed to be a part of the cost of the construction and establishment of said improvement, and in case such compensation to be allowed by the court shall be for services rendered by said board in the repairing or maintenance of such improvement, such allowance shall be added to the annual cost of maintenance of such system: Provided, that any person interested therein may file objections to the allowance asked for either in whole or in part, and such claims so filed shall not be passed upon or allowed by the court until the expiration of thirty days from the filing thereof. Said board of commissioners, or the member thereof, presenting such claims or allowance, shall, at the time of the filing thereof in the court, post notices in at least four public places within said district, which said notices shall set forth therein the fact that an application for allowance has been filed in said court, giving the date of the filing thereof and the amount of the allowance applied for, and demand that any and all persons having any interest therein shall file objections in said court, if any they have, to the allowance of such claim or any portion thereof, within thirty days from the filing of such application for allowance, and the court shall hear said application and the objections thereto, if any be made and filed, and shall in its discretion, make such allowance in such amount as it may deem to be just in the premises, and the same shall be paid as other claims against said district are paid. [L. '11, p. 43, § 47. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 34, § 46.]

The superior court may compel the performance of the duties imposed by this chapter, and may, in its discretion, on proper application therefor, issue its mandatory injunction for such purpose. [L. '11, p. 44, § 48. Cf. L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 35, § 47.]

§ 9775. [8212b.] Former Districts Declared Valid.

The organization, establishment and creation of all commercial waterway districts in this state heretofore had, or made, or attempted under provisions of Remington and Ballinger's Code, sections 8166 to 8212, under which attempted organization, establishment or creation, an organized district has been maintained since the date of such attempted organization, establishment or creation is hereby for all purposes declared legal and valid, and such commercial waterway districts are hereby declared duly organized, established and created. And all debts, contracts and obligations heretofore made or incurred by or in favor of any such commercial waterway district so attempted to be organized, established and created, and all official bonds or other obligations executed in connection with or in pursuance of such attempted organization, are hereby declared legal and valid and of full force and effect: Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to legalize or validate any attempted assessment or condemnation which may have been had by such district prior to the passage of this act. [L. '11, p. 10, § 1; L. '11, p. 45, § 49.]

§ 9776. [8212c.] Districts Formed Under Previous Acts.

Nothing herein contained shall be considered as repealing any of the provisions of any act of the legislature relating to the validation and legalization of commercial waterway districts and obligations incurred by such attempted organizations, but all provisions of this act relating to the conferring of rights, powers and authority shall be deemed applicable to all commercial waterway districts, whether organized or validated under the provisions of this act or organized or validated or legalized under or by virtue of any other act. All proceedings, acts and things which may heretofore have been had or done or attempted to be had or done under the provisions of any other act of the legislature relating to commercial waterways shall be considered and deemed a full compliance with the provisions of this act with reference thereto. And any such district so validated or legalized shall be permitted to continue its operations in accordance with the provisions of this act with like effect as if said district had been originally organized under the provisions hereof, and as if said acts, proceedings or things had been had or done by it under the provisions of this act, it being the intention hereby to enable and permit such validated or legalized district to continue and complete its operations with like force and effect as if such district had been organized and had proceeded under the provisions of this act. [L. '11, p. 45, § 50.]

CHAPTER X.PUBLIC WATERWAYS.*§ 9777. [8212-1.] Public Waterway District—Improvement by County.

Whenever in any county of this state the owners of lands bordering upon or accessible to any navigable water shall desire to improve their said lands, hereinafter designated as the “district,” by the construction of a new public waterway, or the deepening or enlargement of an existing public waterway, for the floatage of vessels and the drainage of swamp and overflowed lands, and the proposed improvement will increase the public revenues and be of other public benefit, they may present the plan of such proposed waterway to the board of county commissioners of such county, hereinafter designated the “board,” and have the same acted upon as provided in this act. [L. '11, p. 64, § 1.]

§ 9778. [8212-2.] Accessible Lands.

Lands shall be deemed accessible to such waterway when by reason of their nearness to the same their value will be materially increased by the construction or deepening or widening of such waterway. [L. '11, p. 64, § 2.]

§ 9779. [8212-3.] Petition—Signatures—Map—Evidence—Hearing.

The plan of such proposed waterway shall be presented to the board by a written petition of owners of lands which it is represented will be improved by the construction, deepening or widening of such waterway; and such petition shall be signed by the owners of thirty-five per cent or more of the area of lands in the district, and shall be verified by one or more of the petitioners to the effect that the signatures attached are the genuine signatures of the persons or corporations signing the same. Each petitioner shall add a description of the lands he owns. If petitioners are unmarried persons they shall so state. If lands are owned by married persons, husband and wife shall join in the petition. If the petitioner is a corporation, the signature shall be accompanied by a certified copy of a resolution of the board of directors or trustees of the corporation authorizing the person signing the petition for the corporation to execute it. If lands included in the petition are owned by minors, insane persons, or other persons under guardianship in this state, the petition may be signed by the guardians of such persons: Provided, that the signature be accompanied by a certified copy of an order of the superior court having the guardianship of such person in charge, authorizing the guardian to sign the petition. A petition may consist of one or more separate papers or sheets which are identified with the subject matter.

The petitioners shall file with the board, with their petition, a map of the lands in the district and a statement showing each separate ownership of lands as shown by the public records of the county, and their location in the county, with the names of the owners as shown by such records, and the location of the proposed waterway if a new waterway is to be constructed. If an existing waterway is to be deepened the map shall show its location, and if it is to be widened the map shall show its location and the extent to which it is to be widened. With the petition there shall also be presented satisfactory evidence from the real property records of the county that the petitioners are severally the owners in fee simple of their respective tracts of land, and that all taxes and assessments due thereon are paid. If it is proposed that any lands in the district shall be filled with the material dug or dredged from such waterway, the petition shall so state, and the map of the district and plan of the improvement shall show the location, depth and yardage of such fill. The petition may also fix the price per cubic yard at which such fill shall be charged to the land filled, which charge shall be added to the assessment for the improvement to be made upon such lands and be paid as a part thereof. If the price of filling is not fixed by the petition it may be fixed by the board.

At any time after the filing of such petition one or more of the petitioners may file and record in the office of the auditor of the county, notice of the pendency of the proceeding, describing the boundaries of the proposed district, and from the time of such filing all persons shall be deemed to have notice of the pendency of the proceeding and be bound thereby. Upon the hearing upon such petition, hereinafter provided, if the same be denied any person interested may file in the office of said county auditor a certified copy of the order denying the same, whereupon the auditor shall enter the discharge of the notice of the pendency of the proceeding on the margin of the record thereof. And the like discharge may be filed whenever the proceeding is terminated for any other reason. [L. '11, p. 65, § 3.]

§ 9780. [8212-4.] Petitioner to File Bond—Costs.

Said petitioners shall at the time of filing their petition with the board, file a bond executed by one or more of their number as principals, and in behalf of all, and by a surety corporation authorized to become surety upon public bonds in this state, which bond shall run to the state of Washington as obligee and be in the sum of five hundred dollars, conditioned that they will pay all costs of the proceeding in case for any reason the petition shall not be granted, or in case no fund shall thereafter be created for the payment of the expense attending said proposed waterway improvement. And said petitioners shall, from time to time as the board shall estimate and order, pay the costs and expenses of such proceeding. [L. '11, p. 66, § 4.]

§ 9781. [8212-5.] Hearing—Dismissal—Notice—Objections.

Said petition, after the filing thereof, shall be taken up and considered by the board at the next regular or special meeting thereof, or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, and if the petition be defective in any particular it may be amended and an adjournment of the matter may be had to permit of such amendment, for a time not exceeding thirty days. If the petition be defective and be not sufficiently amended within the adjournment taken, it shall be dismissed. But if such petition be in fact sufficient, or if by amendment it be made sufficient, it shall be the duty of the board to enter an order setting a time for a public hearing thereon within thirty days from the date of such order, and directing the clerk of the board to give notice of the time and place of such hearing in the official newspaper of the county by publication therein at least once each week for three successive weeks before the time of hearing; and in case there be no such official newspaper, then in some newspaper of general circulation in said county. Such notice shall be addressed to the owners of land not petitioning, as shown by the petition or as may be ascertained to be the fact, and to all other persons known and unknown having or claiming an interest in the lands in the district, and shall state the pendency of the proceeding, its object, the names of the signers of the petition, the number of acres of land they claim to own, the whole number of acres proposed to be improved, the boundaries of the lands to be included in the improvement district, and the time and place of hearing. And notice shall also be given that at the time and place named, or at such time as the same may be adjourned to, the board will consider the petition under the provisions of this act, and will hear all objections offered by interested parties and grant or refuse the petition as it may be advised. The clerk of the board shall keep a record of all orders, hearings and proceedings of the board in reference to such waterway district in a separate bound book, designated as the record of the proceedings as to such district. [L. '11, p. 67, § 5.]

§ 9782. [8212-6.] Consent of Owner—Findings—Decree.

At the time and place prescribed in the said notice any owner of land within said proposed improvement district may file with the board his written consent to the proposed improvement, and he shall then be considered as a petitioner; and if the owners of more than one-half of the lands within the district, including the lands represented by the petition, shall assent to the prayer of said petition, the board shall then proceed to hear and consider any objections which may have been filed at that or any previous time, and may adjourn such hearing from day to day. If the board after full hearing on the merits of the proposed waterway shall be satisfied that the same will be of benefit to the public interests, and that private benefit will result to the lands within the district sufficient to equal the cost of the proposed improvement, they may make their findings accordingly, and declare their intention to establish the waterway district under the name of the "—— Waterway District" and make the improvement as prayed for; but if the owners of less than one-half of the lands in the district shall assent to the creation thereof and the making of the proposed improvement, the board shall deny the petition and the proceeding shall be dismissed. [L. '11, p. 68, § 6.]

§ 9783. [8212-7.] Right to Sue and be Sued.

Upon the entry of an order creating such waterway district by the board, it shall have power to perform all the duties and exercise all of the authority conferred upon it by this act, and shall have the right to sue and be sued in all matters pertaining to such district as the representative thereof, in the same manner and to the same extent as in all other county affairs. But such district shall bear all the expenses of such action on the part of the board, and the county shall be at no expense or charge therefor. [L. '11, p. 68, § 7.]

Said board shall have the right of eminent domain for the acquisition of lands necessary to the construction or widening of the proposed waterway, and may cause all necessary lands to be condemned and appropriated or damaged for the use of said waterway, and make just compensation therefor. The private property of the state, the county, and other public or quasi-public corporations (except incorporated cities and towns), and of private corporations, shall be subject to the same rights of eminent domain at the suit of said board as the property of private individuals. [L. '11 p. 68, § 8.]

§ 9785. [8212-9.] Bridging Part of Cost.

Whenever in aid of the construction or widening of any such waterway it shall be necessary to cross or disturb any existing public highway or railroad, the cost of bridging the waterway or otherwise substantially continuing the highway or railroad may be ascertained and paid as a part of the cost of the improvement if such cost is not otherwise provided for. [L. '11, p. 69, § 9.]

§ 9786. [8212-10.] Order to Condemn.

Whenever the said board shall desire to condemn and acquire land, or damage lands or property for any purpose authorized by this act, said board shall make an order therefor wherein it shall be provided that such land or damages shall be paid for wholly by special assessment upon the property within said waterway district, and the proceeding thereafter shall be as herein specified. [L. '11, p. 69, § 10.]

§ 9787. [8212-11.] Compensation Ascertained by Jury or Court.

The board shall file a petition, verified by its chairman and signed by the prosecuting attorney, in the superior court of the county, praying that the property described may be taken or damaged for the purpose specified and that compensation therefor be ascertained by a jury or by the court in case a jury be waived. Such petition shall allege the creation of the waterway district and contain a copy of the order directing the proceeding, a reasonably accurate description of the lots or parcels of land or other property which will be taken or damaged, and the names of the owners and occupants of said lands and of persons having any interest therein so far as known to the said board, or as appears from the records in the office of the county auditor. [L. '11 p. 69, § 11.]

§ 9788. [8212-12.] Summons Issued and Served.

Upon the filing of the petition aforesaid a summons returnable as summons in other civil actions, shall be issued and served upon the persons made parties defendant, together with a copy of the petition, as in other civil actions; and in case any of the defendants are unknown or reside out of the state, a summons for publication shall issue and publication be made and return and proof thereof be made in the same manner as is or shall be provided by the laws of the state for service upon nonresident or unknown defendants in other civil actions. Notice so given by publication shall be sufficient to authorize the court to hear and determine the suit as though all parties had been sued by their proper names and had been personally served. [L. '11, p. 69, § 12.]

§ 9789. [8212-13.] Service on Commissioner of Public Lands—Attorney General—Duties.

In case the land or other property sought to be taken or damaged is state land, the summons and copy of petition shall be served upon the commissioner of public lands; if it is county land it shall be served upon the county auditor, and if school land, upon the county auditor and the chairman of the board of directors of the school district. Service upon other parties defendant, public or private, shall be made in the same manner as is or shall be provided by law for service of summons in other civil actions. If the state is made a defendant the attorney general shall represent it. If the county is a defendant the court shall appoint an attorney to represent it at all stages of the proceedings, and may allow him compensation for his services as costs of the proceeding. [L. '11, p. 70, § 13.]

§ 9790. [8212-14.] Jury to Ascertain Compensation.

Upon the return of said summons, or as soon thereafter as the business of the court will permit, the said court shall proceed to the hearing of such petition and shall adjudicate whether the proposed condemnation is for a public use, and if its judgment is that the proposed use is public, it shall impanel a jury to ascertain the just compensation to be paid for the lands or property taken or damaged, unless a jury be waived; but if any defendant or party in interest shall demand, and the court shall deem it proper, separate juries may be impaneled as to the separate compensation or damages to be paid to any one or more of such defendants or parties in interest. Should the court determine that the proposed use is not public, it shall dismiss the proceeding. [L. '11, p. 70, § 14.]

§ 9791. [8212-15.] File Statement of Interest.

The jury or court shall also ascertain the just compensation to be paid to any person found to have an interest in any lot or parcel of land or property which may be taken or damaged for such improvement, whether or not such person's name or such lot or parcel of land or other property is mentioned or described in said petition: Provided, that such person shall first be admitted as a party defendant to such suit by such court and shall file a statement of his interest in, and a description of, the lot or parcel of land or other property in respect to which he claims compensation. [L. '11, p. 71, § 15.]

§ 9792. [8212-16.] Jury View Property.

The court may upon motion of the petitioners, or of any defendant, direct that the jury under the charge of an officer of the court and accompanied by such person or persons as may be appointed by the court to point out the property sought to be taken or damaged, shall view the lands or property taken or damaged for the proposed improvement. [L. '11, p. 71, § 16.]

§ 9793. [8212-17.] Damage to Building.

If there be any building standing in whole or in part upon any land to be taken, the jury or court shall add to the finding of the value of the land taken, the value or damage to such building as the case may require. If the entire building is taken, or if it is damaged so that it cannot be readjusted to premises of the owner, then the measure of damages shall include the fair market value of the building. If part of the building is taken, or it is damaged but can be readjusted or replaced on premises of the owner, then the measure of damages shall be the cost of readjusting or moving the building or part thereof left, together with the depreciation in the market value of said building by reason of said readjustment or moving. [L. '11, p. 71, § 17.]

§ 9794. [8212-18.] Damages as Interest Appears—Interpleader.

If the land and buildings belong to different parties, or if the title to the property be divided into different interests by lease or otherwise, the damage done to each of such parties or interests may be separately found by the jury or court on the written request of any party. And in making such findings the jury or court shall first find and set forth the total amount of the damage to said lands and buildings and all premises therein, estimating the same as an entire estate and as if the same were the sole property of one owner in fee simple; and they shall then apportion the damages so found among the several parties entitled to the same in proportion to their several interests and claims. But no delay in ascertaining the amount of compensation shall be occasioned by any doubt or contest which may arise as to the ownership of the property or any part thereof, or as to the extent of the interest of any defendant in the property to be taken or damaged, but in such case the jury or court shall ascertain the entire compensation or damage that should be paid for the property and the court may thereafter require adverse claimants to interplead so as to fully determine their rights and interests in the compensation so ascertained, and may make such order as may be necessary in regard to the deposit or payment of such compensation and the division thereof. [L. '11, p. 71, § 18.]

§ 9795. [8212-19.] Procedure Same as Civil Action.

Upon the filing of the findings of the jury or court, the proceedings of the court regarding new trial and the entry of judgment thereon, shall be the same as in other civil actions, and the judgment shall be such as the nature of the case may require. The final judgment of the court shall be that the lands and property taken and damaged shall, upon payment of the sums awarded, vest in the county as and for a public waterway. The court shall continue or adjourn the case from time to time as to all defendants named in such petition who shall not have been served with process or brought in by publication, and new summons may issue or new publication be made at any time, and upon such defendants being brought in the court may impanel a jury to ascertain the compensation so to be made to such defendants for property taken or damaged, or may proceed without a jury if none be demanded, and like proceedings shall be had for such purpose as are herein provided. [L. '11, p. 72, § 19.]

§ 9796. [8212-20.] Substitute Defendant.

The court shall have power at any time, upon proof that any defendant who has not been served with process has ceased to be an owner since the filing of such petition, to substitute the new owner as a defendant, and after due service of the summons and petition upon him proceed as though he had been a party in the first instance; and the court may upon any finding of the jury, or at any time during the course of the proceedings, enter every such order, rule, judgment or decree as the nature of the case may require. [L. '11, p. 73, § 20.]

§ 9797. [8212-21.] Guardian ad Litem.

When it shall appear from said petition or otherwise, at any time during the proceedings upon such petition, that any infant, insane or distracted person is interested in any property that is to be taken or damaged, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for such infant or insane or distracted person to appear and defend for him, her or them; and the court shall make such order or decree as it shall deem proper to protect and secure the interest of such infant or insane or distracted person in such property, or the compensation which shall be awarded therefor. [L. '11, p. 73, § 21.]

§ 9798. [8212-22.] Findings to State Damage.

The compensation to be ascertained by the jury or court shall be irrespective of any benefit from the improvement proposed, and the finding shall state separately the value of land taken from any tract and the damage, if any, to remaining land by reason of the severance. [L. '11, p. 73, § 22.]

§ 9799. [8212-23.] Judgment Final.

Any final judgment rendered by said court upon the findings of the court or a jury, shall be the lawful and sufficient condemnation of the land or property to be taken, or of the right to damage the same in the manner proposed, upon the payment of the amount of such findings and all costs which shall be taxed as in other civil cases: Provided, that in case any defendant recovers no award, no costs shall be taxed. Such judgment shall be final and conclusive as to the damages caused by such improvement, unless appealed from, and no appeal from the same shall delay proceedings under the order of said board if it shall pay into court for the owners and parties interested, as directed by the court, the amount of the judgment and costs; but such board after making such payment into court shall be liable to such owner or owners, or parties interested, for the payment of any further compensation which may at any time be finally awarded to such parties so appealing in said proceeding, and his or her costs, and shall pay the same on the rendition of judgment therefor and abide any rule or order of the court in relation to the matter in controversy. In case of an appeal to the supreme court of the state by any party to the proceedings, the money so paid into the superior court by the board, as aforesaid, shall remain in the custody of said superior court until the final determination of the proceedings. If the owner of the land, real estate, premises, or other property, accepts the sum awarded by the jury or the court, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived conclusively an appeal to the supreme court and final judgment may be rendered in the superior court as in other cases. [L. '11, p. 73, § 23.]

§ 9800. [8212-24.] Order to Take Possession of Property.

The court upon proof that the judgment, together with costs, has been paid to the person entitled thereto, or has been paid into court, shall enter an order that the board shall have the right at any time thereafter to take possession of or damage the property in respect to which such compensation shall have been so made or paid into court as aforesaid, and thereupon the title to any property so taken shall be vested in fee simple in the public as a water highway. [L. '11, p. 74, § 24.]

§ 9801. [8212-25.] Assessment for Damages—Interest—Expenses.

Said board shall, upon the entry of the condemnation judgment, file in the same proceeding a supplementary petition, praying the court that an assessment be made upon the lands in the district for the purpose of raising an amount necessary to pay the compensation and damages awarded for the property taken or damaged, with costs of the proceedings, and for the estimated cost of the proposed improvement; and the court shall thereupon appoint three competent disinterested persons as commissioners to make such assessment. Said commissioners shall include in such assessment the compensation and damages awarded for the property taken or damaged, with legal interest from the date of entry of the judgment, and with all costs and expenses of the proceedings incurred to the time of their appointment, or to the time when said proceedings was referred to them, together with the probable further costs and expenses of the proceeding, including therein the estimated cost of making and collecting such assessment. The petitioners for the improvement shall be entitled to have included in the costs of the proceeding, and repaid to them, such reasonable sums as they may have expended in preparing the maps and plans of the improvement and procuring the names of land owners for filing with the petition. Such expenditures to be approved and allowed by the court. [L. '11, p. 74, § 25.]

§ 9802.. [8212-26.] Commissioners' Compensation.

Said commissioners, before entering upon their duties, shall take and subscribe an oath that they will faithfully perform the duties of the office to which they are appointed, and will to the best of their abilities make true and impartial assessments according to the law. Every commissioner shall receive compensation at the rate of five dollars per day for each day actually spent in making the assessment herein provided for, upon his filing in the proceeding a verified statement showing the number of days he has actually spent therein; and upon the approval of said statement by the judge of the court in which the proceeding is pending, the board shall issue a warrant in the amount so approved, upon the special fund created to pay the awards and costs of said proceeding; and the fees of such commissioners so paid, and all expenses returned by them and allowed by the court shall be included in the cost and expense of such proceeding. [L. '11, p. 75, § 26.]

§ 9803. [8212-27.] Assessment—Apportionment.

It shall be the duty of such commissioners to examine the lands in the district and to apportion and assess the amount of the judgment, interest and costs as hereinbefore defined, of the condemnation proceeding, and of the estimated cost of the proposed improvement, and of the price of any fill made with the material dug or dredged from such waterway, upon the several lots, blocks, tracts and parcels of land in said district, in the proportion in which they will be severally benefited; which assessment shall be a proportionate charge upon each square foot of land contained in each separate lot, block, tract or parcel of land. [L. '11, p. 75, § 27.]

§ 9804. [8212-28.] Roll of Owners.

The commissioners shall make or cause to be made an assessment-roll in which shall appear the names of the owners, so far as known, a description of each lot, block, tract or parcel of land or other property, and the amounts assessed thereon as special benefits thereto, specifying separately the benefits from the opening of the waterway, for construction, and for fill if any, and certify such assessment-roll to the court before which said proceeding is pending, within sixty days after the date of the order referring said proceeding to them, or within such extension of said period as shall be allowed by the court. In determining the benefit to be assessed upon any lot or parcel of land for the opening of the waterway, the commissioners shall ascertain from the finding of the court or jury whether or not it is remaining land after the severance of land taken from an original lot or parcel for right of way of such proposed waterway, and the damage awarded to such remaining land, if any, allowed by reason of the severance; and for such opening shall assess as benefits to such remaining land only the excess of the benefit accruing thereto over the damage awarded by the finding. [L. '11, p. 76, § 28.]

§ 9805. [8212-29.] Court to Order Hearing—Notice.

Upon its completion the commissioners shall return their assessment-roll into court, and thereupon the court shall make an order setting a time for the hearing thereon before the court, which day shall be at least thirty days after the entry of such order. The commissioners shall give notice of such assessment and of the day fixed by the court for the hearing thereon in the following manner:

(1) They shall at least twenty days prior to the date fixed for the hearing on said roll, mail to each owner of the property assessed, whose name and address is known to them, a notice substantially in the following form:

“(Title of cause.) To —: Pursuant to an order of the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for the county of —, there will be a hearing in the above-entitled cause on — at—, upon the assessment-roll prepared by the commissioners heretofore appointed by said court to assess the property specially benefited by the (here describe nature of improvement); and you are hereby required if you desire to make any objection to said assessment-roll, to file your objections to the same before the date herein fixed for the hearing upon said roll, a description of your property and the amount assessed against it for the aforesaid improvement is as follows: (Description of property and amount assessed against it.)

 — —,
 Commissioners.”

(2) They shall cause at least twenty days' notice to be given of the hearing, when a daily newspaper is published in such county, by publishing the same in at least five successive issues of said paper; or if no daily newspaper is published in said county and a weekly newspaper is published therein, then in each issue of such weekly newspaper for two successive weeks. Such notice so required to be published may be substantially as follows:

“(Title of cause.) Special Assessment Notice: Notice is hereby given to all persons interested, that an assessment-roll has been filed in the above-entitled cause providing for the assessment upon the property benefited of the cost of (here insert brief description of improvement) and that said roll has been set down for hearing on the — day of — at —. The boundaries of said assessment district are substantially as follows: (here insert an approximate description of the assessment district.) All persons desiring to object to said assessment-roll are required to file their objections before said date fixed for the hearing upon said roll, and appear on the day fixed for the hearing before said court.

 — —,
 Commissioners.”

§ 9806. [8212-30.] Affidavits Filed.

On or before the day fixed for the hearing, the affidavit of one or more of the commissioners shall be filed in said court showing the mailing of the notices above prescribed, and an affidavit of the publisher of the newspaper showing the publication of notice, with a copy of the published notice attached, which affidavit shall be received as prima facie proof of the giving of notice as herein required. [L. '11, p. 78, § 30.]

§ 9807. [8212-31.] Court Order New Notice.

If twenty days shall not have elapsed between the first publication of such notice and the day set for hearing, the hearing shall be continued until such time as the court shall order. The court shall retain full jurisdiction of the matter until final judgment on the assessments, and if the notice given shall prove invalid or insufficient the court shall order new notice to be given. [L. '11, p. 78, § 31.]

§ 9808. [8212-32.] Hearing Objections—Findings.

Any person interested in any property assessed and desiring to object to the assessment thereon, shall file his objections to such report at any time before the day set for hearing said roll, and serve a copy thereof upon the prosecuting attorney. As to all property to the assessment upon which no objections are filed and served, as herein provided, default may be entered and the assessment confirmed by the court. On the hearing of objections the report of the commissioners shall be competent evidence to support the assessment, but either party may introduce such other evidence as may tend to establish the right of the matter. The hearing shall be conducted as in other cases at law tried by the court without a jury; and if it shall appear that the property of the objector is assessed more or less than it will be benefited, or more or less than its proportionate share of the cost of the condemnation and improvement, the court shall so find, and it shall also find the amount in which said property ought to be assessed and correct the assessment accordingly. Judgment shall be entered confirming the assessment-roll as originally filed or as corrected, as the case may require. [L. '11, p. 78, § 32.]

§ 9809. [8212-33.] Roll may be Recast.

The court before which any such proceeding may be pending shall have authority at any time before final judgment to modify, alter, change, annul or confirm any assessment-roll returned as aforesaid, or cause any such assessment-roll to be recast by the same commissioners whenever it shall be necessary for the obtainment of justice; or it may appoint other commissioners in the place of all or any of the commissioners first appointed for the purpose of making such assessment or modifying, altering, changing or recasting the same, and may take all such proceedings and make all such orders as may be necessary to make a true and just assessment of the cost of such condemnation and improvement according to the principles of this act, and may from time to time, as may be necessary, continue the proceeding for that purpose as to the whole or any part of the premises. [L. '11, p. 79, § 33.]

§ 9810. [8212-34.] Appeal shall not Invalidate.

The judgment of the court affirming the assessment-roll shall have the effect of a separate judgment as to each tract or parcel of land or other property assessed, and any appeal from such judgment shall not invalidate or delay the judgment except as to the property concerning which the appeal is taken. Such judgment shall be a proportionate lien upon each square foot of the property assessed from the date of entry until payment shall be made. [L. '11, p. 79, § 34.]

§ 9811. [8212-35.] Interest on Assessments.

The clerk of the court in which such judgment is rendered shall certify a copy of the assessment-roll as confirmed, and of the judgment confirming the same to the treasurer of the county, or if there has been an appeal taken from any part of such judgment, then he shall certify such part of the roll and judgment as is not included in such appeal, and the remainder when final judgment is entered: Provided, that if upon such appeal the judgment of the superior court shall be affirmed, the assessments on such property as to which appeal has been taken shall bear interest at the same rate and from the same date which other assessments not paid within the time hereafter provided shall bear. Such copy of the assessment-roll shall be sufficient warrant to the county treasurer to collect the assessments therein specified in the manner hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 79, § 35.]

§ 9812. [8212-36.] Treasurer to Publish Notice.

The treasurer receiving such certified copy of the assessment-roll and judgment shall immediately give notice thereof by publishing such notice at least once in the official newspaper or newspapers of such county, if such newspaper or newspapers there be; and if there be no such official newspaper, then by publishing such notice in some newspaper of general circulation in the county. Such notice may be in substantially the following form:

“SPECIAL ASSESSMENT NOTICE.

Public notice is hereby given that the superior court of — county, state of Washington, has rendered judgment for a special assessment upon property benefited by the following improvement (herein insert the character and location of the improvement in general terms) as will more fully appear from the certified copy of the assessment-roll on file in my office, and that the undersigned is authorized to collect such assessments. All persons interested are hereby notified that they can pay the amounts assessed, or any part thereof, without interest, at my office (here insert location of office) within sixty days from the date hereof.

Dated this — day of —, A. D. 191—.

_____,
Treasurer of — county, Washington.”

§ 9813. [8212-37.] Payment.

The owner of any land charged with an assessment under this act, may discharge the same from all liability for the cost of such condemnation and improvement by paying the entire assessment charged against his land, without interest, within the time fixed by the notice of the county treasurer for the payment thereof; or within said time he may pay a part of such assessment and allow the remainder to continue as an assessment upon his land to be collected and paid as hereinafter provided; or within said time he may pay the entire assessment per square foot upon any part of his land, providing that he shall when paying such partial assessment give to the treasurer a description of the tract paid for. [L. '11, p. 80, § 37.]

§ 9814. [8212-38.] Treasurer to Note Payment.

When any assessment shall be paid either in full or in part only, within the time for payment without interest fixed by his notice, the treasurer shall note the fact of such payment opposite the assessment. [L. '11, p. 81, § 38.]

§ 9815. [8212-39.] Installments—Collection.

Immediately after the expiration of the time fixed by his notice for payment of assessments without interest, the treasurer shall divide the several assessments which remain unpaid in whole or in part into ten equal amounts or installments, as near as may be, without fractional cents, and enter said installments upon the roll opposite the several assessments, numbering the same from one (1) to ten (10) successively. And thereafter said treasurer shall annually for ten years, before the time fixed by law for the collection of state and county taxes, add one of the said assessment installments with interest for one year from the expiration of the time for payment without interest, or of the anniversary thereof, at the rate of seven per cent per annum on the entire unpaid assessment, to the tax levied upon the property assessed, where said tax appears upon the county tax-roll, and collect said installment and interest, without reduction of percentage for prepayment, at the same time and in the same manner as state and county taxes are collected. And after delinquency said installments and interest shall be subject to the same charges for increased interest and penalties as are other delinquent taxes. But no tax sale of lands assessed under this act shall discharge the same from the lien of any unpaid installments of the assessment against it until all installments and interest are fully paid. [L. '11, p. 81, § 39.]

§ 9816. [8212-40.] Assessment Payments Noted.

As each assessment installment is paid the treasurer shall note the payment thereof in the proper place upon the assessment-roll. [L. '11, p. 82, § 40.]

§ 9817. [8212-41.] May Discharge Payments.

The owner of any lands assessed under this act may at any time after the time fixed by the treasurer's notice for payment without interest, discharge his lands from the unpaid assessment by paying the principal of all installments unpaid with interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum to the next anniversary of the time fixed as aforesaid; or he may pay one or more installments, with like interest, beginning with installment No. 10 and continuing in the inverse numerical order of installments. The successor in title to any part of his lands may have the proportionate assessment segregated on the roll and charged to such part upon his producing to the treasurer his recorded deed to such part. [L. '11, p. 82, § 41.]

§ 9818. [8212-42.] Seven Per Cent Interest.

The last installment of any assessment paid shall include interest thereon at the rate of seven per cent per annum to the actual date of payment. [L. '11, p. 82, § 42.]

§ 9819. [8212-43.] Provision for Public Use.

Should any of the lands assessed under this act be taken for or dedicated to public use, for highway or any other public purpose, before the taking or dedication shall be complete or take effect there shall be paid to the county treasurer a sum equal to the principal of the unpaid assessment upon said land at its proportionate rate per square foot, with interest thereon for one year at seven per cent; and the treasurer shall credit the principal sum paid to the unpaid installments upon the tract as originally assessed. [L. '11, p. 82, § 43.]

§ 9820. [8212-44.] Treasurer to Make Report.

Immediately after expiration of the time fixed by the treasurer for the payment of assessments levied under this act, he shall report to the board in writing the sum collected by him and in his hands to the credit of the assessment-roll; and thereafter and on or before the first days of January and July in each year he shall make written reports to said board of the sums collected by him upon said roll, stating in detail the amount of principal, interest and penalty so collected, the amount of principal remaining uncollected, and also, in detail, the principal and interest paid out by him under authority of the board, and the balance in his hands to the credit of the roll. [L. '11, p. 82, § 44.]

§ 9821. [8212-45.] Bonds may be Issued.

Should the owners of any lands assessed to pay for an improvement contemplated by this act, fail to pay the assessments thereon in full on or before the day fixed by the treasurer's notice as the time for payment without interest, the board shall provide and issue bonds of the district to the total amount of the unpaid assessments, which bonds may either be issued to persons contracting to perform the work of making the improvement, or exchange with them for warrants; or be issued in exchange for work or materials; or they may be sold outright as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 83, § 45.]

§ 9822. [8212-46.] Interest on Bonds.

Such bonds shall be issued pursuant to an order made by the board and by their terms shall be made payable on or before a date not to exceed ten years from and after the date of their issue, which latter date shall also be fixed by such order. They shall bear interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, which interest shall be payable semi-annually at periods named; shall have attached thereto interest coupons for each interest payment; shall be of such denomination as shall be provided in the order directing the issue, but not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars; shall be numbered from one upward consecutively and each bond shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by its clerk: Provided, however, that said coupons may, in lieu of being so signed, have printed thereon facsimile signatures of said officers. Each bond shall in the body thereof refer to the improvement to pay for which the same is issued; shall provide that the principal sum therein named and the interest thereon shall be payable out of the fund created for the payment of the cost and expense of said improvement, and not otherwise; and shall not be issued in an amount which, together with the assessments already paid, will exceed the cost and expense of the said condemnation and improvement. [L. '11, p. 83, § 46.]

§ 9823. [8212-47.] Par Value Maintained.

Said bonds, whether sold or exchanged, shall be disposed of for not less than their par value and accrued interest. [L. '11, p. 84, § 47.]

§ 9824. [8212-48.] Advertise for Bids.

Before making any sale of such bonds the board shall advertise the sale and invite sealed bids therefor, by publication in the county official newspaper at least once, and in such other manner as it sees fit, for a period of thirty days. At the time and place fixed for receiving bids the board shall open all bids presented and may either award the bonds to the highest bidder or reject all bids. Delivery of the bonds and payment therefor may be as required by the board. The purchaser of any such bonds shall pay the money due therefor to the county treasurer, who shall place it in the district fund. [L. '11, p. 84, § 48.]

§ 9825. [8212-49.] Treasurer to Call Bonds for Payment.

The treasurer shall pay the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, on presentation of matured coupons therefor, out of the funds of the district in his hands. Whenever there shall be sufficient money in any such fund (not less than one thousand dollars) over and above sufficient for the payment of matured interest on all outstanding bonds, to pay the principal of one or more bonds, the treasurer shall call in and pay such bonds in their numerical order: Provided, that the said call for bonds shall be made by publication in the official newspaper of the county if there be one, or otherwise in some newspaper of general circulation in the county, within five days after the semi-annual interest period, and shall state that bonds numbered — (giving the serial numbers of the bonds called) will be paid on presentation; and that after a date named, not more than fifteen days thereafter, interest on the bonds called shall cease. [L. '11, p. 84, § 49.]

§ 9826. [8212-50.] Claim Limited.

Neither the holder nor the owner of any bond issued under the authority of this act shall have any claim therefor against any person, body or corporation, except from the special assessment made for the improvement for which such bond was issued; but his remedy in case of nonpayment shall be confined to the enforcement of such assessment. A copy of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each bond so issued. [L. '11, p. 84, § 50.]

§ 9827. [8212-51.] May be Reassessed.

In all cases of assessments for improvements under this act, wherein such assessments shall have failed to be valid in whole or in part for want of form or insufficiency, informality or irregularity, or nonconformance with the provisions of this act, the board is hereby authorized to cause such assessments to be reassessed and to enforce their collection in accordance herewith. [L. '11, p. 85, § 51.]

§ 9828. [8212-52.] Construction—Bonds—Claims—Deposit.

After the confirmation of the assessment-roll of any improvement district provided for herein, the board shall proceed at once with the construction of the improvement, and in carrying on such construction it shall have full charge and management thereof and the power to employ such assistants as it may deem necessary, and purchase all material required in such construction; and it shall have power to let the whole or any part of the work of said improvement to the lowest and best bidder therefor, after public advertisement and call for bids; and in case of such letting of a contract it shall have the power also to enter into all necessary agreements with the contractor in the premises: Provided, that in the case of the letting of a contract the board shall require the contractor to give a bond in the amount of the contract price, with sureties to be approved by the board and running to the board as obligee therein, conditioned for the faithful and accurate performance of his contract by said contractor, and that he will pay, or cause to be paid, all just claims of all persons performing labor upon or rendering services in doing said work, or furnishing materials, merchandise or provisions used by said contractor in the construction of said improvement. Said bond shall be filed and recorded in the office of the auditor of the county and every subcontractor on any such work shall file and record a like bond in the full amount of his subcontract. Unless otherwise paid their claims for labor or services, materials, merchandise or provisions, the claimants may have recourse by suit upon such bond in their own names: Provided, that no such claim or suit shall be maintained unless the persons making said claim shall within thirty days after the completion of said improvement, file their claims, duly verified, to the effect that the amounts thereof are just and due and are unpaid, with the clerk of the board. Each bidder for a contract to be let under this section shall deliver with his bid a check for five per cent of the amount of the bid, drawn upon a bank in this state and certified by the bank, as surety to the board that the bidder will enter into the contract with the board. The checks of unsuccessful bidders will be returned to them when an award of the contract has been made by the board. [L. '11, p. 85, § 52.]

§ 9829. [8212-53.] Payment in Installments.

During the construction of the improvement said board shall have the right to allow payment therefor to contractors in installments as the work progresses, in proportion to the amount of work completed: Provided, that no such allowance or payment shall be made for exceeding seventy-five per cent of the proportionate amount of the work completed; and twenty-five per cent of the contract price shall be reserved at all times by said board until such work is fully completed, and shall not be paid until thirty days have expired after such completion. Upon completion of the work and the production of satisfactory evidence to the board that all just claims for labor, materials, goods, wares, merchandise and provisions furnished to the contractor have been paid, the board shall accept the improvement and pay the contract price therefor. [L. '11, p. 86, § 53.]

§ 9830. [8212-54.] Form of Warrants.

The indebtedness of any such district on contracts, or upon employment or for supplies, shall be paid by warrants on the district fund only, to be issued by the board upon allowed written claims. Such warrants shall be in form the same as county warrants, or as nearly the same as may be practicable; shall draw the legal rate of interest from the date of their presentation to the county treasury for payment, and shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the clerk: Provided, that no warrants shall be issued in payment of any indebtedness of such district for less than the face or par value. [L. '11, p. 86, § 54.]

§ 9831. [8212-55.] Warrants Presented.

All warrants issued under the previous section of this act may be presented by the holders thereof to the county treasurer, who shall pay them or indorse thereon the date of presentation for payment and if the same are not paid, and the reason for their nonpayment; and no warrant shall draw interest until it is so presented and indorsed by the county treasurer. It shall be the duty of the treasurer from time to time, when he has sufficient funds in his hands for the purpose, to give notice to warrant holders to present their warrants for payment; such notice to be given by advertisement in the county newspaper. And thirty days after the first publication of said notice the warrants called cease to bear interest. Said notice shall be published once each week for two weeks consecutively, and such warrants shall be called and paid in the order of their indorsement. [L. '11, p. 87, § 55.]

§ 9832. [8212-56.] Rights of Municipal Corporations.

State, school, county, school district, and other lands belonging to other public corporations which will be benefited by the construction, deepening or widening of any such waterway, and which are not devoted to public use, shall be subject to the provisions of this act, and the owners thereof by and through the proper authorities, shall be made parties in all proceedings affecting said lands, and shall have the same rights and be liable to the same right of eminent domain as the lands of private persons or corporations. [L. '11, p. 87, § 56.]

§ 9833. [8212-57.] Assessment of Lands.

Lands belonging to the state, and school, county, school district and other lands belonging to public corporations and which are not devoted to public use, which are benefited by any improvement instituted under the provisions of this act, shall be assessed in the same manner as lands of private persons and corporations, and the assessment shall be paid by the proper authorities. [L. '11, p. 87, § 57.]

Every defendant feeling aggrieved by any condemnation judgment for compensation or damages, or by any judgment confirming an assessment upon land for benefits under this act, may appeal to the supreme court of the state from such judgments within thirty days after the entry thereof. An appeal from a condemnation judgment may bring before the supreme court either the legality of the proceeding as a taking for a public use, or the justness of the amount of compensation or damages awarded to the appellant; but an appeal from a judgment confirming an assessment of benefits shall bring before the supreme court only the justness of the assessment against the property of the appellant. Two or more defendants may join in an appeal. The bill of exceptions or statement of facts upon such appeals shall contain only such portions of the evidence in the case as relates to the property of the appellants. Otherwise than as provided in this section such appeals shall be taken as provided by law in appeals to the supreme court from final judgments in actions at law. [L. '11, p. 87, § 58.]

§ 9835. [8212-59.] Provision for Payment.

Any defendant in a condemnation proceeding under this act, whose remaining land, or whose other lands in the district, shall be assessed for benefits arising from the improvement, may pay his assessments in full,

if they be less than his condemnation judgment, at or before the time fixed by the treasurer for the payment of assessments without interest, by satisfying his judgment upon the judgment docket and producing to the treasurer the certificate of the county clerk that the judgment has been satisfied. And if his assessments be greater than his condemnation judgments he may, within the same time, pay his assessments to the extent of his judgment by the like satisfaction and the like production of the clerk's certificate to the treasurer. In each case the treasurer shall note the payment and the manner thereof on the assessment-roll and report the same to the board. [L. '11, p. 88, § 59.]

§ 9836. [8212-60.] Providing for Filling Property.

At any time before the completion of excavations required for the construction, deepening or widening of a waterway under this act, when there will be surplus material dug or dredged from such waterway, any owner of land within the district, for the filling of whose land no provision has theretofore been made, may have such surplus material delivered upon his land for filling purposes upon paying the cost of such delivery in a sum to be fixed by the board. The sum so fixed shall be paid to the treasurer at such time and in such manner as the board may prescribe, and shall be credited to the district fund. [L. '11, p. 88, § 60.]

Should there be any money remaining in the district fund after the payment in full of all of the obligations of the district, it shall be transferred to and become a part of the road fund of the county. [L. '11, p. 89, § 61.]

§ 9838. [8212-62.] Uncalled Sums to Road Fund.

Should any sum of money paid into court as compensation or damages for land or property taken or damaged in any condemnation proceeding under this act be uncalled for for the period of two years, the county clerk shall satisfy the judgment therefor and pay the money in his hands to the treasurer for the road fund of the county. But upon application to the board of county commissioners within four years after such payment, the party entitled thereto shall be paid such money by the county without interest: Provided, that if any such party, being a natural person, was under legal disabilities when such money was paid to the treasurer, the time within which he or his legal representatives shall make application for the payment thereof shall not expire until one year after his death or the removal of his disabilities. [L. '11, p. 89, § 62.]

§ 9839. [8212-63.] Corporate Authority Control.

Every waterway constructed, deepened or widened under this act shall, from and after the completion thereof, be a public highway for vessels and an outlet for swamp or overflow water which may be drained into it from any lands in the district or tributary thereto, and shall be under the care and control of the board of county commissioners of the county as are other highways: Provided, that whenever any such waterway shall thereafter be included within the limits of any city or town, the care and control thereof shall pass to the corporate authorities of such city or town. [L. '11, p. 89, § 63.]

§ 9840. [8212-64.] Concurrent Act.

This act shall not be held to be an exclusive method of constructing, deepening or widening such waterways, nor in conflict with any other method which may be provided by law. [L. '11, p. 89, § 64.]

§ 9841. [8212-65.] Fees.

The fees for the service of all process necessary to be served under the provisions of this act shall be the same as those for like services in other civil cases. [L. '11, p. 90, § 65.]

§ 9842. [8212-66.] Injunction.

The superior court may compel the performance of duties imposed by this act, and may on proper application therefor issue its mandatory injunction for such purpose. [L. '11, p. 90, § 66.]

CHAPTER XI.

REGULATION OF STEAM VESSELS, ETC.

Liens on boats and vessels: See supra, § 1182.

§ 9843. [8213.] Commissioner of Labor to Enforce.

The commissioner of labor shall be charged with the administration of the provisions of this act, shall employ the necessary inspectors to enable him to carry said provisions into effect, and shall exercise supervision over them in the performance of their duties. [L. '07, p. 425, § 1.]

See infra, § 10838, duties devolve upon director of labor and industries.

See infra, § 10893, commissioner of labor abolished.

"Act" in this and the following sections refers to this chapter.

Cited in 111 Wash. 246, 248.

The former pilotage law, Ballinger's Code, sections 3216—3243, applied to vessels propelled by steam as well as sailing vessels: State v. Ames, 47 Wash. 328, 92 Pac. 137.

The pilotage law, Ballinger's Code, sections 3216—3243, as amended by Laws of 1901, page 17, was not objectionable as indefinite or as prescribing different penalties for the same offense: State v. Ames, 47 Wash. 328, 92 Pac. 137.

§ 9844. [8214.] Inspection of Vessels—Investigation of Accidents.

The commissioner of labor shall annually, or oftener if he has good cause to believe it reasonable, inspect, or cause to be inspected, every steam vessel or other vessel operated by machinery engaged in carrying passengers for hire or towing for hire, except vessels which are subject to inspection under the laws of the United States, examine carefully her hull, boats and other equipment, examine her engine and boilers, ascertain how long it will be safe to use the same, determine the pressure of steam to be allowed and so regulate the fusible plugs, safety valves and steam-cocks as to insure safety, and he may require such changes, repairs and improvements to be adopted and used as he may deem expedient for the contemplated route. He shall also fix the number of passengers that may be transported. He shall also, whenever he deems it expedient, visit any vessel licensed under this act and examine into her condition for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not any party thereon having a certificate from him has conformed to and obeyed the conditions of such certificate and the provisions of this act. The owner, master, pilot, captain or engineer of such vessel shall answer all reasonable questions, and shall give all the information in his or their power, in regard to said vessel, her machinery and the manner of managing the same. In case of damage by fire or explosion or by means of an electrical apparatus, he may investigate the cause thereof, and if found by him to have been occasioned by a violation of any of the provisions of this act, or of the orders, regulations and requirements issued by him, he shall so certify to the prosecuting attorney of the county where such violation occurred, together with the names of the persons guilty thereof and of the witnesses. [L. '07, p. 425, § 2.]

See notes to § 9843.

§ 9845. [8215.] Boiler Tests—Inspection of Launches.

The commissioner shall also test the boilers of all steam vessels, before the same shall be used, and at least once in every year thereafter. In subjecting to the hydrostatic test, boilers called and usually known under the designation of high pressure boilers, the hydrostatic pressure applied must be in proportion of one hundred and fifty pounds to the square inch to one hundred pounds to the square inch of the steam pressure allowed. And in subjecting to the hydrostatic test, that class of boilers usually designated and known as low pressure boilers, the commissioner shall allow as the working power of each new boiler, a pressure of only three-fourths the number of pounds to the square inch, to which it shall have been subjected by the hydrostatic test, and found to be sufficient therefor; but should said commissioner be of the opinion that such boiler, by reason of its construction or material will not safely allow so high a working pressure he may, for reasons specifically stated in his certificate, fix the working pressure of such boiler at less than three-fourths of said test pressure; and no boiler or pipe, or any of the connections therewith, shall be approved, which is made in whole or in part, of bad material, or is unsafe in its form, or dangerous from defective workmanship, age, use or other cause. In addition to the hydrostatic test as herein provided, the commissioner may cause a hammer test to be made and an internal examination of such boiler or boilers so tested, whenever deemed necessary. Any boiler having been in use ten years or more may be drilled at the bottom of shell or boiler, and also at such other points as the inspectors may direct to determine the thickness of such material at those points, and the general condition of such boiler or boilers at the time of inspection and the steam pressure allowed shall be determined by such ascertained thickness and general condition of the boiler. He shall also see that all connections to the said boiler or engines are of suitable material, size and construction; and that the boiler, machinery and appurtenances are such as may be employed with safety in the service to be performed. He shall also satisfy himself that the safety valves are of suitable dimensions and that the weights of the same are properly adjusted, so as to allow no greater pressure than the maximum amount prescribed by him; and that there is a sufficient number of gauge cocks, properly attached to the boiler, so as to indicate the quantity of water therein; and suitable steam gauges to correctly show the amount of steam carried; and as to any other matter connected with such steam vessel or the machinery thereof, that to said commissioner shall seem necessary to the safety of her passengers and crew. And he shall make such inspection, examination and test of naphtha launches and electric launches and their apparatus and machinery, as will enable him to determine whether they can be safely used in navigation. [L. '07, p. 426, § 3.]

See notes to § 9843.

See supra, § 2401, manslaughter through reckless operation of engines and boilers.

§ 9846. [8216.] Certificate of Inspection.

The commissioner, if satisfied that such vessel is in all respects safe and conforms to the requirements of this act, shall make and subscribe duplicate certificates, setting forth the age of the vessel, the date of inspection, the name of the vessel, the name of the owner, the master, the number of licensed officers and crew which he deems necessary to manage the vessel with safety, the number of boats and life-preservers required, and the number of passengers that she can safely carry, and if a steam vessel, the age of the boiler, and the pressure of steam she is authorized to carry. One of such certificates shall be kept posted in some conspicuous place on the vessel to be designated by the commissioner in the certificate and the other copy shall be kept by the commissioner and by him recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose. If the commissioner refuses to grant a certificate of approval, he shall make a statement in writing, giving his reasons for such refusal, and deliver the same to the owner or master of the vessel. [L. '07, p. 427, § 4.]

See notes to § 9843.

§ 9847. [8217.] Number of Passengers.

No greater number of passengers shall be transported upon any licensed steam vessel or other vessel included within the provisions of this act, than the number allowed in the certificate of such vessel, under a penalty of ten dollars, to be paid by the master for each passenger in excess of the allowed number, unless special permission is first obtained from the commissioner under such precautions as he deems expedient. [L. '07, p. 428, § 5.]

See supra, § 2400, manslaughter causing death through overloading.

§ 9848. [8218.] Protection of Woodwork Against Fire.

All steamboats and other vessels to which this act is applicable, shall hereafter be so constructed that the woodwork about the boilers, chimneys, fire-boxes, cook-houses, stove and steam pipes, or any machinery or apparatus involving danger of fire, where such woodwork is exposed to ignition, shall be so shielded by some incombustible material, that the air may circulate freely between such material and woodwork or other ignitable substances, and before granting a certificate of inspection, the commissioner shall require that all other necessary provisions be made throughout such vessel, as he may judge expedient to guard against loss or damage by fire. [L. '07, p. 428, § 6.]

§ 9849. [8219.] Stairways and Gangways.

Every vessel engaged in carrying passengers, shall be provided with permanent stairways and other sufficient means convenient for passing from one deck to the other, with gangways large enough to allow persons freely to pass, which shall be open fore and aft of the length of the vessel, and to and along the guards; and whoever obstructs such gangways by freight or otherwise shall forfeit fifty dollars to the state of Washington for every such violation. [L. '07, p. 428, § 7.]

§ 9850. [8220.] Rules for Navigation of Vessels.

From and after the passage of this act, the following rules shall be observed in navigating all steam vessels when under steam, and all boats propelled by machinery on the waters within the jurisdiction of the state, excepting the waters which are under the jurisdiction of the United States:

(1) When two steamboats are meeting, end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

(2) When two steam vessels are crossing so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

(3) When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel.

(4) When, by any of these rules, one of two vessels is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed.

(5) Every vessel under steam, when approaching another steamboat or small boat or vessel of any kind, so as to involve the risk of collision, shall slacken her speed, or if necessary, shall stop and reverse her engine, and every vessel under steam shall, when in a fog, go at a moderate speed.

(6) Any steam vessel overtaking another steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the last mentioned steam vessel.

(7) When two steam vessels are going in the same direction the stern steam vessel wishing to pass the other shall signal the forward steam vessel of her intention to pass on the port side by two distinct whistles, and to pass on her starboard side, by one distinct whistle, which shall be answered by the forward steam vessel with the same number of whistles, and the forward steam vessel shall keep on her course as though no signal had been given.

(8) Steamboats approaching each other shall, at not less than three hundred yards distance between each other, give a signal with one loud distinct whistle.

(9) When two steamboats are approaching each other, and if the course of such steamboats is so far on the starboard side of each as not to be considered by the pilots as meeting end on, or nearly so, or if the steamboats are approaching each other, in such manner that passing to the right as in rule one is deemed unsafe by the pilot of either steamboat, the pilot so first deciding shall give two short and distinct blasts on his steam whistle, which the pilot of the other steamboat shall answer promptly by two blasts of his steam whistle, and they shall pass to the left (on the starboard) side of each other.

(10) When two steamboats are approaching each other and the pilot of either steamboat fails to understand the course or intention of the other, whether from the signals being given or answered erroneously or from other cause, the pilot so in doubt shall immediately signify the same by giving several short and rapid blasts of the steam whistle, and if the boats shall have approached within five hundred yards of each other, both shall be immediately slowed to a speed barely sufficient for steerageway until the proper signals are given, answered and understood, or until the boats have passed each other.

(11) When a steamboat is running in a fog or thick weather it shall be the duty of the pilot to cause a long blast of the steam whistle to be sounded at intervals not exceeding one minute.

(12) Signals of distress shall be four distinct blasts of the whistle, and shall be recognized by the master of any steamboat hearing the same, and he shall render such assistance as is in his power.

(13) In construing these provisions, due regard must be had to all the dangers of navigation, and to any special circumstances which may exist, rendering a departure therefrom necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

(14) Every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam or otherwise propelled by machinery, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

(15) Nothing in this act shall be construed to extend to any boat or lighter not being masted, or if masted and not decked, employed in the harbor of any town or city.

(16) All steamboats licensed under the provisions of this act shall conform to and obey such other rules and regulations as the commissioner may prescribe, not inconsistent herewith.

(17) The commissioner and the inspectors provided for in this act are authorized to make further rules and regulations applying generally to all steamboats, or especially to one or more of them; and on framing rules for the government of managers and employees of boats, the commissioner shall, as far as practicable, be governed by the general rules and regulations prescribed by the United States board of supervising inspectors of steam vessels.

(18) Every steam vessel or other vessel propelled by machinery, carrying passengers for hire on the waters within the jurisdiction of this state, shall have two copies of this section framed, one to be placed in the pilot-house for the government of the pilot, and the other to be hung in a conspicuous place on the boat, for the inspection of the passengers. [L. '07, p. 429, § 8.]

The master of every steamboat or vessel propelled by machinery when navigating between sunset and sunrise, shall cause the same to carry the following lights:

(1) At the foremast head, a bright light of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least two miles; and be so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of twenty points of the compass, and to be fixed so as to throw the light ten points on each side of the vessel from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on either side.

(2) On the starboard side a green light of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least two miles; and be so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side.

(3) On the port side a red light of such a character as to be visible on a dark night, with a clear atmosphere, at a distance of at least two miles, and so constructed as to show a uniform and unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of ten points of the compass, and so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the port side. The green and red lights shall be fitted with inboard screens, projecting at least three feet forward from the lights, so far as to prevent them from being seen across the bow.

(4) The master of every vessel other than a steamboat anchored in the night-time shall cause her peak to be lowered and a good and sufficient light to be thrown from her taffrail in some part of her rigging and at least twenty feet above her deck. In the case of small vessels, the commissioner may make specific rules for lights different from the foregoing. [L. '07, p. 431, § 9.]

See supra, § 2654, penalty for displaying false lights.

§ 9852. [8222.] Fire Apparatus, Ready for Immediate Use.

Every steam vessel permitted by her certificate to carry one hundred passengers or upwards, shall be provided with a good double acting steam fire pump or other equivalent apparatus for throwing water, the same to be at all times during the navigation of such vessel, kept ready for immediate use, having at least one hundred feet of hose of suitable size and of sufficient strength to stand a pressure of at least seventy-five pounds to the square inch. [L. '07, p. 432, § 10.]

§ 9853. [8223.] Vessels to Carry Small Boats.

Every ferry-boat propelled by steam or electricity shall be provided with at least one substantial boat, fifteen feet or more in length, and properly supplied with oars and kept tight and in good condition at all times, and so attached to such ferry-boat that it may in case of need be launched into the water for immediate use. Every steamboat or vessel propelled by machinery and carrying passengers shall be provided, if of the measurement of two hundred and fifty and less than five hundred tons burden, with at least two substantial rowboats, with life-lines attached and properly supplied with oars, and kept tight and in good condition at all times, and so attached as to be capable of being launched into the water for immediate use in case of need; and if of the measurement of five hundred tons or more, with at least one first-class lifeboat and one rowboat twenty-five feet long by seven wide, capable of carrying or supporting fifty persons each, and at least one rowboat of the usual size and construction, all to be properly supplied with oars, and kept tight and in good condition at all times, and so attached as to be capable of being launched into the water for immediate use in case of need. Every such vessel may also be required to carry such other boats as the commissioner, on account of the route, or the number of passengers, shall deem requisite, and the master of such vessel shall exercise and discipline his crew in the launching, use and management of the boat until they become skillful boatmen. [L. '07, p. 432, § 11.]

§ 9854. [8224.] Life-preservers—Buckets and Axes.

Every steam vessel or vessel propelled by machinery used in the transportation of passengers for hire, shall have a life-preserver or life-float for each passenger she is allowed to carry and for each member of her crew. At least one-half thereof shall be life-preservers of the sort prescribed by the supervising inspector appointed under this act, and the other half or part thereof may be life-floats, to be constructed of dry pine plank, four feet long, two inches thick and twelve inches wide, with lines properly attached in such manner as to be convenient for use; and it shall be the duty of the commissioner to satisfactorily ascertain that every life-preserver and such life-boats are as herein required. Such life-preservers and life-floats shall be kept in convenient accessible places in such vessel in readiness for immediate use in case of accident, and the places where the same are to be kept shall be designated in the commissioner's certificate, and also pointed out by printed notices posted in such places as the commissioner directs. Every such vessel shall carry in convenient places, at least ten buckets filled with water, with dip lines attached, and three axes in good condition, but the inspectors may, if they deem it necessary or proper, require a larger, or in case of very small vessels, permit a smaller number of buckets and axes. [L. '07, p. 433, § 12.]

§ 9855. [8225.] Obstruction of Safety Valves, etc., Prohibited—Penalty.

Whoever intentionally loads or obstructs, or causes to be loaded or obstructed, in any way, the safety valve of the boiler, or employs any other means or device whereby the boiler may be subjected to a greater pressure than the amount allowed by the commissioner's certificate, or intentionally deranges or hinders the operation of any machinery or device employed to denote the stage of the water or steam in any boiler, or to give warning of any approaching danger, or intentionally permits the water to fall below the prescribed low water limit of the boiler, shall forfeit to the state of Washington the sum of five hundred dollars for each violation. [L. '07, p. 434, § 13.]

§ 9856. [8226.] Examination for License as Master, Pilot and Engineer.

Every person employed as master, pilot or engineer on board of a steam vessel or a vessel propelled by machinery, carrying passengers for hire or towing for hire, shall be examined by the commissioner as to his qualifications, and if satisfied therewith he shall grant him a license for a term of one year for such boat, boats or class of boats as said commissioner may specify in such license. In a proper case, the license may permit and specify that the master may act as pilot, and in case of small vessels also as engineer and pilot. The license shall be framed under glass, and posted in some conspicuous place on the vessel on which he may act. Whoever acts as master, pilot or engineer, without having first received such license, or upon a boat or class of boats not specified in his license, shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars for each day that he so acts, except as in this act otherwise specified, and such license may be revoked by the commissioner for intemperance, incompetency or willful violation of duty. [L. '07, p. 434, § 14.]

See notes to § 9843.

§ 9857. [8227.] Standard Quality of Oil, to be Used in Lights.

No licensed vessel carrying passengers for hire shall be allowed to use in lamps, lantern or other lights on such vessels, any oil which will not stand a fire test of at least three hundred degrees Fahrenheit. [L. '07, p. 434, § 15.]

§ 9858. [8228.] Name and Home Port on Stern.

Every vessel subject to the provisions of this act, shall have her name and the port to which she belongs painted on her stern on a black background in white, yellow or gilt letters, or on a white background in black, yellow or gilt letters, of not less than three inches in length. If any vessel, which is subject to the provisions of this act, shall be found without having her name, and the name of the port to which she belongs so painted, the owner or owners shall be liable to a penalty of fifty dollars to the state of Washington. The commissioner may, however, in the case of small vessels, permit such name to be placed elsewhere and in letters of less length, the permission, the place of the name and length of letters to be stated in a certificate to be given to the master, who shall exhibit the same whenever requested. [L. '07, p. 435, § 16.]

§ 9859. [8229.] Landing Passengers in Small Boats.

Small boats containing passengers may be landed from or drawn to a steamboat by means of a line hauled in by hand, but in no case shall the line be attached to or hauled in by the machinery of any vessel. No passenger shall be put or suffered to go into any such small boat for the purpose of being landed until such small boats shall be completely afloat and wholly disengaged from the vessel, except held by a painter. A good and sufficient pair of oars suitable for the purpose shall be kept in such small boat. In landing or receiving any passenger in the night-time, there shall be a signal from the small boat at the shore by means of a horn or trumpet, to enable those having charge on board the vessel to determine when the small boat, having landed or received her passengers, is ready to leave the shore. [L. '07, p. 435, § 17.]

§ 9860. [8230.] Same—Engines to be Stopped.

While landing or receiving passengers the engine of the vessel shall not be put in motion except:

- (1) To give sufficient force to carry the small boat to the shore, or,
- (2) To keep the vessel in proper direction and to prevent her from drifting or being driven on shore; but in no case shall it be put in motion while passengers are being transferred from such vessel into a small boat for the purpose of being landed. [L. '07, p. 435, § 18.]

§ 9861. [8231.] Regulation as to Carrying Combustibles.

No loose hay, loose cotton or loose hemp, camphene, nitroglycerine, naphtha, benzine, benzole, coal oil, crude petroleum or other like explosive burning fluids or dangerous articles, shall be carried as freight or used in stoves on any steamer or vessel licensed to carry passengers under this act; except that refined petroleum which will not ignite at a temperature of less than one hundred and twenty degrees Fahrenheit may be carried on the main deck of any vessel, provided the barrels or cases containing such oil are fully provided with a tarpaulin. But nothing in this section provided shall be construed to prevent any vessel of twenty tons burden or under which uses petroleum for fuel from carrying sufficient petroleum with which to replenish the fires and properly equip such vessel for use; said petroleum to be carried in metal cans or tanks, which shall be properly protected by a covering of wood or other substance which would equally protect from accident, and be approved by said commissioner, and to be conveyed from said cans or tanks to said fires through metal pipes. [L. '07, p. 436, § 19.]

§ 9862. [8232.] Unsafe Steam Pressure Prohibited.

No master, engineer or other person having charge of the boiler or apparatus for the generation of steam of any steamboat or vessel shall create, or allow to be created any undue or unsafe quantity of steam in order to increase the speed of such boat or to excel another boat in speed. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the state of Washington the sum of five dollars for every such violation. [L. '07, p. 436, § 20.]

See supra, § 2532, penalty for violation.

See supra, § 2401, manslaughter, through reckless operation.

§ 9863. [8233.] Penalty.

Every master of a steamboat or vessel who shall violate any of the preceding sections of this act shall, for every such violation, forfeit to the state of Washington the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, unless a different penalty is prescribed. [L. '07, p. 436, § 21.]

§ 9864. [8234.] Liability of Owner of Vessel for Misconduct of Master.

The owner of every steamboat or vessel shall be responsible for the good conduct of the master employed by him, and if any penalty incurred by such master is not paid by him and cannot be collected from him by due course of law, it may be recovered of the owner or owners, jointly or severally, of the steamboat or vessel in whose employ he was at the time of the incurring of such penalty, in the same manner as if such owner or owners were sureties of such master. [L. '07, p. 436, § 22.]

§ 9865. [8235.] Copy of Act shall be Posted.

The master of every vessel shall keep a copy of the preceding sections of this act posted in a conspicuous place on such vessel for the inspection of all persons on board thereof. Every master violating the provisions of this section shall forfeit to the state of Washington, twenty-five dollars, and the additional sum of twenty-five dollars for each month which such violation continues. [L. '07, p. 437, § 23.]

§ 9866. [8236.] Commissioner's Report to Governor.

The commissioner shall on or before the 1st day of January in each year, make a verified report to the governor containing a detailed statement of the names and number of vessels examined and licensed, the names and number of vessels to which licenses were refused and stating the reasons for the refusal, the names and number of persons examined and licensed, the names and number to whom licenses were refused and stating the reasons therefor, and may include in such report any other information he may deem desirable. [L. '07, p. 437, § 24.]

See notes to § 9843.

§ 9867. [8237.] Penalty for Noncompliance With Act—Renewal of Certificates, etc.—Requirements of Launches Navigating the Straits.

All steam vessels, naphtha, gasoline and electric launches, or any craft propelled by machinery, carrying passengers for hire, or towing for hire must comply with all the terms and provisions of this act, and with all orders, regulations and requirements of the commissioner except that any such vessel not propelled by steam, or when not under steam, is exempt from the provisions in regard to the blowing of whistles. If any such vessel is navigated without complying therewith, except as herein stated, or without the requisite certificates of the commissioner, the owners and masters shall forfeit to the state of Washington the penalties prescribed in this act, and the vessel so navigated shall also be liable therefor, and may be attached and proceeded against in any court having jurisdiction. But if any such vessel is deprived of the services of any licensed officer, without the consent, fault or collusion of the master, owner or any person interested in the vessel, the deficiency may be temporarily supplied, until a licensed officer can be obtained. If the owner or master of any vessel shall at least twenty days before the expiration of his certificate notify the commissioner of such expiration and request a new inspection and certificate, the certificate then expiring shall continue in force until an inspection is made and such owners and masters are not liable for any of the penalties provided in this act on account of navigating said vessel, without such new certificate. No launch under ten tons carrying passengers shall navigate the waters of the straits of Juan de Fuca, unless provided with a boat of sufficient size to accommodate said passengers and be under the management of a person holding a United States license for steam vessels. [L. '07, p. 437, § 25.]

See supra, § 2635, penalty for false register.

§ 9868. [8238.] Fees.

For each inspection provided for in sections 9844 and 9845 the owner or master of each vessel shall pay the commissioner of labor an inspection fee, which shall not be less than five dollars, nor more than twenty dollars, to be fixed by the commissioner of labor with reference to the size of the vessel inspected. For each license issued under section 9860 of this act the person so licensed shall pay to the commissioner of labor the sum of five dollars. All of the fees received from this source shall be accounted for by the commissioner of labor to the state treasurer, and credited to the general fund. [L. '07, p. 438, § 26.]

See notes to § 9843.

§ 9869. [8239.] Compensation of Inspectors.

The inspectors provided for in this act shall receive seven dollars per diem for the time actually engaged in making the inspections and examinations provided for herein, and shall be paid necessary traveling expenses when making such inspections and conducting such examinations at other than the domicile of said inspectors. [L. '07, p. 438, § 27.]

§ 9870. [8240.] Authority of Inspectors.

Any inspector duly employed by the commissioner of labor for the execution of any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed to be a deputy of said commissioner for the purposes hereof, and may perform any act and exercise any authority herein prescribed for the commissioner of labor. [L. '07, p. 438, § 28.]

See notes to § 9843.

CHAPTER XII.

PILOTAGE ON PUGET SOUND.

§ 9871. [8241.] United States License Required.

No person shall pilot on Puget Sound waters unless he shall hold a pilot's license from the United States government for Puget Sound waters and he shall not pilot a vessel of any greater tonnage than his license provides and must have had at least one year's experience as pilot of over-sea or coasting vessels of at least fifteen hundred gross tons. [L. '07, p. 291, § 1.]

For former laws on this subject, see L. '88, pp. 175—179, §§ 1—29; 1 H. C., §§ 2272—2279; Bal. Code, §§ 3216—3243.

The legislature has power to regulate pilotage of the public waters within the boundaries of the state so far as relates to vessels engaged in strictly foreign commerce, since congress has not attempted to regulate the same: State v. Ames, 47 Wash. 328, 92 Pac. 328.

License of pilots. 39 L. R. A. 183.

§ 9872. [8242.] Lien of Pilot for Services.

Each vessel, its tackle, apparel and furniture, and the master and the owner thereof, are jointly and severally liable for the compensation of any pilot employed for such vessel; and such pilot shall have a lien upon such vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, for such compensation. [L. '07, p. 291, § 2.]

Maritime lien for services of pilot. 70 L. B. A. 384.

§ 9873. [8243.] Penalty for Employing Other Than Licensed Pilot.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to compel any vessel to employ a pilot; but no pilot shall be employed by any such vessel for the waters aforesaid except one licensed under the provisions of this chapter. The master of any vessel subject to the provisions of this chapter who knowingly employs any person to act as pilot in such waters who is not so licensed shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars, and not more than five hundred dollars, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the county wherein he is so convicted until said fine, and the costs of prosecution, are paid. [L. '07, p. 291, § 3.]

Power to impose penalty for failure to take pilot, for benefit of private individual or corporation. 13 A. L.

B. 835.

§ 9874. [8244.] Penalty for Acting as Pilot Without License.

Any person who has not been licensed as provided in this chapter, or whose license is then suspended or has been revoked, who shall offer or undertake to pilot, or shall pilot, any vessel subject to the provisions of this act, upon any of the waters of Puget Sound, its bays, harbors or inlets, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than two hundred dollars, and not more than five hundred dollars, and shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the county wherein he is so convicted until said fine, and the costs of his prosecution, are paid. [L. '07, p. 292, § 4.]

See supra, § 2527, intoxication while on duty.

See supra, § 2545, acting without a license.

§ 9875. [8245.] Exemptions.

Vessels regularly in the coasting trade between ports of the United States or between such port and ports in Alaska, whether such vessels touch at a British Columbia port or not, and vessels regularly in the carrying trade between United States ports and British Columbia ports and pilots of such vessels while engaged thereon, are exempt from the provisions of this chapter. [L. '07, p. 292, § 5.]

CHAPTER XIII.

PILOTAGE ON COLUMBIA RIVER.

§ 9876. [8246.] Appointment of Pilot Commissioners and Pilots on Columbia River.

It shall be the duty of the governor to appoint three suitable persons, who shall constitute a board of pilot commissioners, for the purpose of examining candidates for the pilotage of the Columbia River and bar, and the said board of commissioners shall, on application; appoint one or more suitable persons, if the [they] deem it necessary, to be pilots on the Columbia River and bar, giving each of such pilots a branch or warrant for the execution of his office, with an authority to appoint deputies in the cases to be specified in such branch or warrant: Provided, each pilot shall report his said deputies for the approbation of said board of commissioners: Provided, that whenever there shall be a vacancy in said board of commissioners, such vacancy shall be filled by appointment, made by the governor. Said commissioners, before entering upon the duties of their office, shall qualify, by oath or affirmation, for the faithful discharge of their duties, and shall be entitled to hold said office of commissioner for the term of two years from the date of their appointment, and after said board of commissioners shall have organized, they shall forthwith notify the governor thereof, and they shall make a report of their proceedings to the governor at least once in every year thereafter. [L. '88, p. 171, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2300.]

Compare L. '54, pp. 389—391; L. '61, p. 58; L. '63, pp. 482—485; L. '66, pp. 121—125; L. '71, pp. 86—88; L. '77, p. 297.

State regulation of pilots and their charges. 27 Am. St. Rep. 557.

§ 9877. [8247.] Duty and Authority of Branch Pilot—Pilotage not Required, When.

Every such branch pilot is authorized and directed, by himself or his deputies, to take charge of any vessel requiring his services, bound into or out of the Columbia River, but shall first show the master of such vessel his warrant, but no vessel licensed or engaged exclusively in the coasting trade between any port in the state of Washington and any port on the Pacific coast shall be compelled to pay pilotage, unless the services of a pilot are required; and in all cases where the services of a pilot are required by the master of any vessel, said vessel shall be liable to pay the pilot his fees as specified in this chapter. [L. '88, p. 172, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2301.]

§ 9878. [8248.] Pilot Fees—Rates Fixed—Half and Quarter Fees.

The fee for piloting a ship or vessel from the open sea beyond the bar to Astoria or Knappton shall be eight dollars per foot draft for the first twelve feet, and for piloting a ship or vessel from Astoria or Knapp-ton to the open sea beyond the bar, eight dollars per foot draft for the first twelve feet, and ten dollars per foot draft for the excess above twelve feet. If a pilot shall board a ship or vessel bound in, while she is either on or within the bar and not above Sand Island, he shall be entitled to only half fees from thence to Astoria; and if at the time of boarding she shall be above Sand Island, he shall be entitled to quarter fees only; but no ship or vessel bound in shall be required to pay pilotage, which refuses to take a pilot after arriving on the bar. The fees of pilots on the river above Astoria shall be fixed from time to time by the pilot commissioner. [L. '88, p. 172, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2302.]

§ 9879. [8249.] Bond of Pilots.

Every bar pilot to whom a branch or warrant shall be granted by said board shall, before entering upon the duties of his or their office, give bonds with sufficient surety to the said board of pilot commissioners in the sum of five thousand dollars, and every river pilot to whom a branch or warrant shall be granted by said board shall, before entering upon the duties of his or their office, give bonds with sufficient security to the said board of pilot commissioners in the sum of three thousand dollars, for the faithful performance of his or their duties while in office. [L. '88, p. 172, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2303.]

§ 9880. [8250.] Commissioners to Visit Columbia River Bar.

It shall be the duty of the board of pilot commissioners to make semi-annual visits to the bar of the Columbia River, examine into the conduct of the pilots, and the condition of the boats employed on said bar as is hereafter specified. [L. '88, p. 173, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2304.]

§ 9881. [8251.] Duties of Bar Pilots.

The bar pilots appointed under the provisions of this chapter must keep a good, seaworthy boat or boats of not less than sixty-five tons burden, and shall at all times cruise outside the bar of the Columbia River, unless prevented by tempestuous weather; and if any such pilot or pilots fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section, it shall be good cause for suspension or removal: Provided, that this section shall not affect any claim of salvage arising out of the services involving extraordinary damages or risk. [L. '88, p. 173, § 6; 1 H. C. § 2305.]

§ 9882. [8252.] Qualification of Bar Pilot.

No person shall be licensed as a pilot by said board unless he is an American citizen of the age of twenty-one years, of temperate habits, and good moral character; nor unless he possesses the requisite skill and experience as a navigator and pilot, together with practical knowledge of the currents, tides, soundings, and bearings, and the distances of the several shoals, rocks, bars, points of land, lights, and fog signals, of or pertaining to the navigation of the pilot ground, nor unless it satisfactorily appears that the applicant is provided with or is attached to a pilot boat of such character and conditions as the board has prescribed for that service. No bar pilot license shall be issued to the owner or owners of any steam tugboat, or any person or persons in the employ of any such tugboats or the owners thereof, or any other person, firm, or corporation; and it shall be unlawful for any bar pilot to be employed or interested in any such tugboat in the capacity of a bar pilot, and any bar pilot violating this provision shall forfeit his license. [L. '88, p. 173, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2306.]

See supra, § 2527, intoxication while on duty.

See supra, § 2545, acting without a license.

§ 9883. [8253.] Supplies of Pilot Boat—Duties of Pilot.

The said pilots' boat or boats shall at all times carry a sufficient supply of provisions and water as may be necessary for the relief of vessels in distress, and it shall be the duty of the pilots at all times to offer such aid to vessels in stress of weather or in case of disaster. [L. '88, p. 173, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2307.]

§ 9884. [8254.] Liability of Pilot for Negligence and Unskillfulness.

If a vessel while under the charge of a branch or warrant pilot shall be lost or run aground, or sustain any damage through the negligence or unskillfulness of such pilot, such pilot shall be liable to pay all damages sustained by any person interested in such vessel or her cargo and may, moreover, be removed from his office. [L. '88, p. 173, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2308.]

§ 9885. [8255.] Exemptions from Pilotage.

Any master of a vessel who may choose to pilot his own vessel from outside of the Columbia River bar into said river shall be permitted to do so, but he shall, notwithstanding, when bound into the river pay to such pilot as shall first offer his services, off the bar one-half pilotage, according to the fees specified in said warrant; and if bound out, one-half pilotage: Provided, that in the following cases a vessel is exempt from compulsory pilotage, and is not required to pay a pilot unless one is actually employed:—

1. A vessel engaged in the whaling or fishing trade;
2. A vessel licensed and engaged in the coaling [coasting] trade between any port in Washington, and any port on the Pacific Coast. [L. '88, p. 173, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2309.]

§ 9886. [8256.] Complaints Against Pilots.

The said board of commissioners are authorized to hear and determine all complaints exhibited against the pilots appointed by them as aforesaid, and to suspend or remove them and appoint others in their place. [L. '88, p. 174, § 11; 1 H. C., § 2310.]

§ 9887. [8257.] Liability for Pilot Fees.

Should any shipmaster omit or refuse to pay the pilotage fees in any instance, when by this chapter he has become liable, then his consignees shall become liable for the same. [L. '88, p. 174, § 12; 1 H. C., § 2311.]

§ 9888. [8258.] Detention of Pilot on Board Vessel Outward Bound—Penalty.

If a pilot, acting under the provisions of this chapter, shall have boarded any vessel outward bound, and shall be detained on board said vessel and carried to sea, or to any foreign port, the officers of said vessel so detaining said pilot shall be liable to pay the pilot so detained a compensation equal to the pay of the highest officer on board of said vessel for all the time he shall be necessarily detained from his proper port. [L. '88, p. 174, § 13; 1 H. C., § 2312.]

§ 9889. [8259.] Fees and Expenses of Board, etc.

The board of commissioners created by this chapter shall be entitled to receive, for the execution of a branch or warrant, the sum of twenty dollars, to be paid by the person applying for the branch or warrant; also, five dollars per day for adjusting difficulties that may arise between such pilots and shipmasters or owners, the said fees to be paid by the parties in fault; and for every [day] the said board of commissioners are in actual session, except when engaged in adjusting or settling disputes between pilots and shipmasters or owners, they shall be entitled to receive the sum of five dollars per day, and mileage at the rate of two dollars for every twenty miles traveled in coming to and going from the place where the sessions of said board are held: Provided, however, that they shall not receive pay for more than three days' time at any one session; and all money received for the execution of any branch warrant or warrants shall constitute a fund to defray the incidental expenses of the said board of pilot commissioners, and the secretary of said board shall, at the end of each regular session, make a written statement of the number of days and the amount of mileage for which each commissioner is entitled to receive pay, which statement shall be signed by the secretary and chairman of the said board of commissioners, and the state auditor, if he shall find said statement correct as herein provided, shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer for the amount which each commissioner is entitled to receive pay, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized to pay the same out of any money not otherwise appropriated. [L. '88, p. 174, § 14; 1 H. C., § 2313.]

§ 9890. [8260.] Forfeitures, etc.—Jurisdiction Over.

All forfeitures, liabilities, and penalties incurred under this chapter shall be tried and determined in any court of record having cognizance of the same. [L. '88, p. 175, § 15; 1 H. C., § 2314.]

CHAPTER XIV.

CRAFT ADRIFT.

§ 9891. [8287.] Water Craft Found Adrift—Owner to be Notified.

Any person taking up any scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft found adrift and out of the custody of the owner, in any stream or body of water within or bordering upon this state, shall forthwith notify the owner thereof, if to him known, or if upon reasonable inquiry he can ascertain the name and residence of the owner, and request such owner to pay all reasonable charges, and take such water craft away. [L. '54, p. 386, § 1; Cd. '81, § 3242; 1 H. C., § 2339.]

§ 9892. [8288.] Notice—How Served, and What to Contain.

Such notice shall be given personally or in writing; if in writing, it shall be served upon the owner, or may be sent by mail to the postoffice where such owner usually receives his letters. Such notice shall inform the party where the scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft was taken up, and where it may be found, and what amount the taker-up or finder demands for his charges. [L. '54, p. 386, § 2; Cd. '81, § 3243; 1 H. C., § 2340.]

§ 9893. [8289.] Notice to be Posted, When—What to Contain.

In all cases where notice is not given personally, it shall be the duty of the taker-up to post up at the postoffice nearest the place where such scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft may be taken up, a written notice of the taking up of such water craft, which shall contain a description of the same, with the name, if any is painted thereon, also the place where taken up, the place where the property may be found, and the charge for taking the same up. If the taker-up is traveling upon such stream or body of water, such notice shall be posted up at the first postoffice he shall pass after the taking up; and in all cases he shall, at the time when and place where he posts up such notice, also mail a copy of such notice, directed to the postmaster of each postoffice on said stream or body of water, and within fifty miles of the place where such water craft is taken up. [L. '54, p. 386, § 3; Cd. '81, § 3244; 1 H. C., § 2341.]

§ 9894. [8290.] Compensation—Failure to Give Notice—Penalty.

Every person, taking up any scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft, so found adrift, and giving the notice herein required, shall be entitled to receive from the owner claiming the property a reasonable compensation for his time, services, expenses, and risk in taking up said property, and take notice of the same, to be settled by agreement between the parties. In case he has not, within ten days after the taking up, substantially complied with the provisions of this chapter in giving the notice, he shall be entitled to no compensation, but he shall be liable to all damages the owner may have suffered, and be also liable to the owner for the value of the use of said water craft, from the time of taking it up until the same is delivered to the owner. [L. '54, p. 386, § 4; Cd. '81, § 3245; 1 H. C., § 2342.]

In case the parties cannot agree on the amount to be paid the taker-up, or the ownership, and the sum claimed is less than one hundred dollars, the owner may file a complaint, setting out the facts, and the justice, on hearing, shall decide the same with a jury, or not, and in the same manner as is provided in ordinary civil actions before a justice of the peace. If the amount claimed by the taker-up is more than one hundred dollars, the owner shall file his complaint in the superior court of the county where the property is, and trial shall be had as in other civil actions; but if the taker-up claims more than one hundred dollars, and a less amount is awarded him, he shall be liable for all the costs in the superior court; and in all cases where the taker-up shall recover a less amount than has been tendered him by the owner or claimant, previous to filing his complaint, he shall pay the costs before the justice or in the superior court: Provided, that in all cases the owner, after filing his complaint before a justice of the peace, shall be entitled to the possession of such water craft, upon giving bond, with security to the satisfaction of the justice, in double the amount claimed by the taker-up. When the complaint is filed in the superior court, the clerk thereof shall approve the security of the bond. The bond shall be conditioned to pay such costs as shall be awarded to the finder or taker-up of such scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft. [L. '54, p. 386, § 5; Cd. '81, § 3246; 1 H. C., § 2343.]

§ 9896. [8292.] Unclaimed Boat—Liability for Using.

In case the taker-up shall use the scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft more than is necessary to put it into a place of safety, he shall be liable to the owner for such use, and for all damage; and in case it shall suffer injury from his neglect to take suitable care of it, he shall be liable to the owner for all damage. In case such water craft is of less value than one hundred dollars, and is not claimed within three months, the taker-up may apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the property is, who, upon being satisfied that due notice has been given, and that the owner cannot, with reasonable diligence, be found, shall order the scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft to be sold, and after paying the taker-up such sum as he shall be entitled to, and the costs, the balance shall be paid the county treasurer, as is provided in the case of the sale of estrays. In case the scow, boat, skiff, canoe, or other water craft exceeds one hundred dollars, and is not claimed within six months, application shall be made to the superior court of the county, and the same proceedings shall be thereupon had. All sales made under this section shall be conducted as sales of personal property on execution. [L. '54, p. 387, §§ 6, 7; Cd. '81, § 3247; 1 H. C., § 2344.]

CHAPTER XV.

OBSTRUCTIONS TO NAVIGATION.

§ 9897. [8293.] Obstructing Navigation.

Every person who shall in any manner obstruct the navigable portion or channel of any bay, harbor, or river or stream within or bordering upon this state, navigable and generally used for the navigation of vessels, boats, or other water crafts, or for the floating down of logs, cordwood, fencing posts, or rails, shall, on conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars: Provided, that the placing of any mill dam or boom across a stream used for floating saw-logs, cordwood, fencing posts, or rails shall not be construed to be an obstruction to the navigation of such stream, if the same shall be so constructed as to allow the passage of boats, saw-logs, cordwood, fencing posts, or rails without unreasonable delay. [Cf. L. '54, p. 94, § 104; Cd. '81, § 919; L. '88, p. 190, § 1; 2 H. P. C., § 226.]

CHAPTER I.

NOTARIES PUBLIC.

§ 9899. [8295.] Appointment and Qualifications.

The governor may appoint and commission, as notaries public, as many persons having the qualifications of electors as he shall deem necessary: Provided, that no person shall be appointed a notary public except upon the petition of at least twenty freeholders of the county in which such person resides: Provided further, that women over the age of twenty-one years resident within this state and of good moral character may be appointed. [L. '90, p. 473, § 1; 1 H. C., § 329; L. '07, p. 264, § 1.]

§ 9900. [8296.] Term of Office.

Every notary public shall be appointed for the state, and shall hold his office for four years, unless sooner removed by the governor. [L. '90, p. 473, § 2; 1 H. C., § 330.]

§ 9901. [8297.] Bond, Fee, Seal and Oath of Office.

Before a commission shall issue to the person appointed, he shall,—

1. Execute a bond, payable to the state of Washington, in the sum of one thousand dollars, with sureties to be approved by the county clerk of the county in which the applicant resides, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office;

2. Pay into the state treasury the sum of ten dollars for special state library fund, taking the treasurer's receipt therefor;

3. Procure a seal, on which shall be engraved the words "Notary Public" and "State of Washington," and date of expiration of his commission, with surname in full, and at least the initials of his Christian name;

4. To take and subscribe the oath of office required of state officers;

5. File the said oath of office, bond, and treasurer's receipt in the office of the secretary of state; and before performing any official acts, shall file in the office of the secretary of state a clear impression of his official seal, which seal shall be approved by the governor. [L. '90, p. 473, § 3; 1 H. C., § 331.]

What amounts to notary's seal. 7 A. L. R. 1663.

§ 9902. [8298.] Powers of Notary.

Every duly qualified notary public is authorized in any county in this state,—

1. To transact and perform all matters and things relating to protests, protesting bills of exchange and promissory notes, and such other duties as pertain to that office by the custom and laws merchant;

2. To take acknowledgments of all deeds and other instruments of writing, and certify the same in the manner required by law;

3. To take depositions and affidavits, and administer all oaths required by law to be administered; and every attorney at law who is a notary public may administer any oath to his client, and no pleading or affidavit shall, on that account, be held by any court to be improperly verified. [L. '90, p. 474, § 4; 1 H. C., § 332.]

Cited in 21 Wash. 505; 33 Wash. 168; 69 Wash. 87; 91 Wash. 483, 486.

Under this section, authorizing a notary public to take depositions and affidavits and administer all oaths required by law to be administered, a notary cannot, unless it is required by law, administer an oath with such binding force as is necessary to support a charge of perjury, in case of a false sworn statement: State v. Dallagiovanna, 69 Wash. 84, 124 Pac. 209, 40 L. R. A. (N. S.) 249.

Under this section, authorizing a notary public to take affidavits and administer all oaths required by law to be administered, false swearing or perjury in the second degree may be predicated upon a false affidavit sworn to before a notary public, although the affidavit was not required by law; an affidavit being not only a written oath but a statement of things sworn to: State v. Howard, 91 Wash. 481, 158 Pac. 104.

Liability for Negligence: See Remington's Digest, Notaries, § 6; Ehlers v. United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co., 87 Wash. 662, 152 Pac. 518.

§ 9903. [8298-1.] Powers of Notaries in Banks and Corporations.

It shall be lawful for any notary public who is a stockholder, director, officer or employee of a bank or other corporation to take the acknowledgment of any party to any written instrument executed to or by such corporation or to protest for nonacceptance or nonpayment of bills of exchange, drafts, checks, notes and other negotiable instruments which may be owned or held for collection by such corporation: Provided, it shall be unlawful for any notary public to take the acknowledgment of an instrument by or to a bank or other corporation of which he is a stockholder, director, officer or employee, where such notary is a party to such instrument individually or to protest any negotiable instrument owned or held for collection by such corporation, where such notary is individually a party to such instrument. [L. '13, p. 89, § 1.]

§ 9904. [8299.] Signature—Seal Need not be Affixed, When.

It shall not be necessary for a notary public, in certifying an oath to be used in any of the courts in this state, to append an impression of his official seal, but in all other cases when the notary public shall sign any instrument officially, he shall, in addition to his name and the words "notary public," add his place of residence and affix his official seal. Right of notary to attach or correct certificate of acknowledgment after date of acknowledgment. 22 L. R. A. (N. S.) 216.

§ 9905. [8300.] Record of Notices of Protest.

Every notary public is required to keep a true record of all notices of protest given or sent by him, with the time and manner in which the same were given or sent, and the names of all the parties to whom the same were given or sent, with the copy of the instrument in relation to which the notice is served, and of the notice itself; said record, or a copy thereof, duly certified under the hand and seal of the notary public, or county clerk having the custody of the original record, shall be competent evidence to prove the facts therein stated, but the same may be contradicted by other competent evidence. [L. '90, p. 474, § 6; 1 H. C., § 334.]

§ 9906. [8301.] Records to be Deposited in County Clerk's Office, When.

On the death, resignation, or removal from office, and at the expiration of the term of office, of any notary public, provided his commission is not renewed, his records and all his official papers shall, within three months therefrom, be deposited in the office of the county clerk of the county from which such notary shall have been appointed, and if any notary public, on his resignation or removal from office, shall for the space of three months, neglect to so deposit his records, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, to be recovered in a civil action by any person injured by such neglect, and it shall also be the duty of the executor or administrator of the estate of any notary public, deceased, to deposit the records and official papers of such notary with the said clerk, and within three months after his appointment, under like penalty. [L. '90, p. 475, § 7; 1 H. C., § 335.]

§ 9907. [8302.] Fees of Notary.

Every notary public is entitled to demand and receive the fees herein enumerated:—

1. Protest of a bill of exchange or promissory note.....$1.00
2. Attesting any instrument of writing, with or without seal..... .50
3. Taking acknowledgment, two persons, with seal50
4. Taking acknowledgment, each person over two..... .25
5. Certifying affidavit, with or without seal..... .50
6. Registering protest of bill of exchange or promissory note for nonacceptance or nonpayment..... .50
7. Being present at demand, tender or deposit, and noting the same, besides mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile..... .50
8. Noting a bill of exchange or promissory note, for nonacceptance or nonpayment..... .50
9. For copying any instrument or record, besides certificate and seal per folio..... .15
10. Each oath or affirmation, without seal..... .25
11. For any instrument of writing, or depositions or affidavits written, exclusive of the certificate thereto, drawn by a notary public, for each hundred words..... .25

After the delivery of a commission to a notary public, appointed and qualified as heretofore provided, the secretary of state shall make a certificate of such appointment, with the date of said commission, and file the same in the office of the county clerk of the county where such notary resides, who shall file and preserve the same, and it shall be deemed sufficient evidence to enable such clerk to certify that the person so commissioned is a notary public during the time such commission is in force. [L. '90, p. 475, § 9; 1 H. C., § 337.]

§ 9909. [8304.] Certificate as to Official Character—Fee.

The county clerk of the county in which such notary resides, or the secretary of state, may grant certificates of official character of notaries public. The certificate of the clerk shall be under his hand and official seal, and that of the secretary of state under the seal of the state. The fee for such certificates shall be one dollar, and shall be paid by county clerks into the treasury of their respective counties, and by the secretary of state into the state treasury. [L. '90, p. 476, § 10; 1 H. C., § 338.]

CHAPTER II.

COMMISSIONERS OF DEEDS.

§ 9910. [8305.] Appointment.

The governor may appoint in each of the United States, and the territories thereof, one or more commissioners, under the seal of this state, to continue in office for the term of four years, who shall have power to administer oaths, and to take depositions and affidavits, to be used in this state, and also to take the acknowledgment of any deed or other instrument to be used or recorded in the state. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 2626; L. '90, p. 90, § 1; L. '90, p. 91, § 1; 1 H. C., § 339.]

§ 9911. [8306.] Oath, Seal, Fee, etc.

Before any commissioner appointed as aforesaid shall proceed to perform any of the duties of his office, he shall take and subscribe an oath before any clerk of a court of record, or other officer having an official seal authorized to administer oaths in the state or territory for which such commissioner is appointed, that he will faithfully discharge all duties of his office, a certificate of which shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and shall provide and keep an official seal, upon which must be engraved his name and the words "Commissioner of Deeds for the State of Washington," and the name of the state or territory for which he is commissioned, with the date at which his commission expires, and shall pay into the state treasury the sum of five dollars for the special state library fund. [Cd. '81, § 2627; L. '90, p. 90, § 2; 1 H. C., § 340.]

§ 9912. [8307.] Public Nuisance Defined.

A public nuisance is one which affects equally the rights of an entire community or neighborhood, although the extent of the damage may be unequal. [L. '75, p. 79, § 2; Cd. '81, § 1236; 1 H. C., § 2883.]

See supra, § 943 et seq., what nuisances are actionable.

Cited in 8 Wash. 582, 583; 35 Wash. 595.

§ 9913. [8308.] Public Nuisances Enumerated.

It is a public nuisance,—

1. To cause or suffer the carcass of any animal or any offal, filth or noisome substance to be collected, deposited or to remain in any place to the prejudice of others;

2. To throw or deposit any offal or other offensive matter, or the carcass of any dead animal, in any watercourse, stream, lake, pond, spring, well, or common sewer, street or public highway, or in any manner to corrupt or render unwholesome or impure the water of any such spring, stream, pond, lake or well, to the injury or prejudice of others;

3. To obstruct or impede, without legal authority, the passage of any river, harbor, or collection of water;

4. To obstruct or encroach upon public highways, private ways, streets, alleys, commons, landing places, and ways to burying places;

5. To carry on the business of manufacturing gun-powder, nitroglycerine or other highly explosive substance, or mixing or grinding the materials therefor, in any building within fifty rods of any valuable building, erected at the time such business may be commenced;

6. To establish powder magazines near incorporated cities or towns, at a point different from that appointed by the corporate authorities of such city or town; or within fifty rods of any occupied dwelling-house;

7. To erect, continue, or use any building, or other place, for the exercise of any trade, employment or manufacture, which, by occasioning obnoxious exhalations, offensive smells or otherwise is offensive or dangerous to the health of individuals or of the public;

8. To suffer or maintain on one's own premises, or upon the premises of another, or to permit to be maintained on one's own premises, any place where wines, spirituous, fermented, malt or other intoxicating liquors are kept for sale or disposal to the public in contravention of law.

And every person who has the care, government, management or control of any building, structure, powder magazine, or any other place mentioned in this section shall, for the purposes of this section, be taken and deemed to be the owner or agent of the owner or owners of such building, structure, powder magazine or other place, and, as such, may be proceeded against for the erecting, contriving, causing, continuing or maintaining such nuisance. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 1246; 1 H. C., § 2893; L. '95, p. 19, § 1.]

Any person may abate a public nuisance which is specially injurious to him, by removing, or if necessary destroying, the thing which constitutes the same, without committing a breach of the peace or doing unnecessary injury. [L. '75, p. 80, § 11; Cd. '81, § 1245; 1 H. C., § 2892.]

See supra, § 2503, abatement authorized, when.

The obstructing of a public road by building a fence therein is a nuisance which may be abated by any person injuriously affected thereby, provided it be done without committing a breach of the peace, or doing unnecessary injury: Johnson v. Maxwell, 2 Wash. 482, 27 Pac. 1071.

§ 9924. [8319.] Certain Places of Resort Declared Nuisances—Penalty.

Houses of ill fame, kept for the purpose, in which are embraced all squaw dance-houses, or squaw brothels, otherwise called mad houses; all houses, rooms, saloons, booths, scows, boats, or other structures used as a place of resort, where women are employed to draw custom, dance, or for purposes of prostitution; all public houses or places of resort where gambling is carried on or permitted; all houses or places within any city, town, or village, or upon any public road or highway, where drunkenness, gambling, fighting, or breaches of the peace are carried on or permitted; all opium dens or houses, or places of resort where opium smoking is permitted, are nuisances, and may be abated, and the owners, keepers, or persons in charge thereof, and persons carrying on such unlawful business, shall be punished as provided in this chapter. [L. '75, p. 81, § 13; Cd. '81, § 1247; 1 H. C., § 2894.]

The keeping and having in charge of a public house or resort and engaging in betting, winning, and losing money in selling pools on horseraces to persons congregating and resorting in such place for that purpose, may be informed against under this section: State v. Shanklin, 51 Wash. 35, 97 Pac. 35.

Under this section, it is necessary to allege that the character of the women employed or their deportment was such as to tend to draw together crowds of disorderly persons or to corrupt the morals of those resorting to the place: State v. Brown, 7 Wash. 10, 34 Pac. 132; State v. Clancy, 99 Wash. 47, 168 Pac. 894.

§ 9925. [8320.] Punishment and Abatement.

Whoever is convicted of erecting, causing, or contriving a public or common nuisance, as described in this title, or at common law, when the same has not been modified or repealed by statute, where no other punishment therefor is specially provided, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and the court, with or without such fine, may order such nuisance to be abated, and issue a warrant as hereinafter provided. [L. '75, p. 81, § 14; Cd. '81, § 1248; 1 H. C., § 2896.]

"Title" substituted for "chapter." The act of November 12, 1875, as given in the Code of 1881, except as modified by subsequent legislation, constitutes this title.

Indictment of street railway company for maintaining public nuisance because of overcrowding of cars. 6 A. L. R. 134.

§ 9926. [8321.] Process.

When, upon indictment (or information), complaint or action, any person is adjudged guilty of a nuisance, the court before whom such conviction is had may, in addition to the fine imposed, if any, or to the judgment for damages or costs, for which a separate execution may issue, order that such nuisance be abated or removed, at the expense of the defendant, and after inquiry into and estimating, as nearly as may be, the sum necessary to defray the expenses of such abatement, the court may issue a warrant therefor. When the conviction is had upon an action before a justice of the peace, and no appeal is taken, the justice, after estimating, as aforesaid, the sum necessary to defray the expenses of removing or abating the nuisance, may issue a like warrant. [L. '75, p. 81, §§ 15, 16; Cd. '81, §§ 1249, 1250; 1 H. C., §§ 2896, 2897.]

§ 9927. [8322.] Stay of Warrant—Bond.

Instead of issuing such warrant, the court or justice may order the same to be stayed upon motion of the defendant, and upon his entering into a bond in such sum and with such surety as the court may direct to the state, conditioned either that the defendant will discontinue said nuisance, or that within a time limited by the court, and not exceeding six months, he will cause the same to be abated and removed, as either is directed by the court, and upon his default to perform the condition of his bond, the same shall be forfeited, and the court, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, upon being satisfied of such default, may order such warrant forthwith to issue, and a rule to show cause why judgment should not be entered against the sureties of said bond. [L. '75, p. 81, § 17; Cd. '81, § 1251; 1 H. C., § 2898.]

See supra, § 946, stay in action for private nuisance.

§ 9928. [8323.] Costs of Abating Nuisance.

The expense of abating a nuisance by virtue of a warrant can be collected by the officer in the same manner as damages and costs are collected on execution, except that the materials of any buildings, fences, or other things that may be removed as a nuisance may be first levied upon and sold by the officer, and if any of the proceeds remain after satisfying the expense of the removal, such balance must be paid by the officer to the defendant or to the owner of the property levied upon, and if said proceeds are not sufficient to pay such expenses, the officer must collect the residue thereof. CHAPTER II.

OFFICIAL BONDS.

§ 9930. [8324.] Form and Conditions of.

All official bonds required by law of officers shall be in form joint and several, and made payable to the state of Washington, in such penal sum and with such conditions as may be required by law. [L. '90, p. 34, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2900.]

§ 9934. [8328.] By Whom Approved, and Where Filed.

The official bonds of officers shall be approved and filed as follows, to wit: The official bond of the secretary of state shall be approved by the governor and filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the seat of government is fixed. The official bond[s] of all other state officers required by law to give bond[s], except as otherwise expressly provided by law, shall be approved by the governor, filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state. The official bond[s] of all county and township officers shall be approved by the board of county commissioners, if in session, and if not in session, by the chairman of such board and filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of their respective counties: Provided, that the bond of the county clerk shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county auditor or recorder of the proper county. [L. '90, p. 35, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2904.]

§ 9935. [8329.] Procedure When Bond Becomes Insufficient.

Whenever the sureties, or any one of them, in the official bond of any county or township officer shall die, remove from the state, become insolvent or insufficient, or the penalty of such bond shall become insufficient on account of recoveries had thereon, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of the proper county, of their own motion, or on the showing of any person supported by affidavit, to summon any such officer to appear before them at a stated time, not less than five days after service of such summons, and show cause why he should not execute an additional official bond with good and sufficient sureties. [L. '90, p. 35, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2905.]

Cited in 48 Wash. 428; 53 Wash. 550.

§ 9936. [8330.] Additional Bond may be Required—Effect of Failure to File.

Should such officer, after due notice, fail to appear at the time appointed, the matter may be heard and determined in his absence; if after examination the board of county commissioners shall be of opinion that the bond of such officer has become insufficient from any cause whatever, they shall require an additional bond, with such security as may be deemed necessary, which said additional bond shall be executed and filed within such time as the board of county commissioners may order; and if any such officer shall fail to execute and file such additional bond within the time prescribed by such order, his office shall become vacant. [L. '90, p. 36, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2906.]

Cited in 53 Wash. 550.

§ 9937. [8331.] Remedy Where Bond of State Officer Becomes Insufficient.

Whenever the official bond of any state officer shall become insufficient from any cause whatever, the like proceedings may be had before the superior court of the county in which said state officer holds his office with reference thereto: Provided, that such proceedings may be commenced by a written motion, supported by affidavit. [L. '90, p. 36, § 8; 1 H. C., § 2907.]

§ 9938. [8332.] Force and Obligation of Additional Bond.

Every such additional bond shall be of like force and obligation upon the principal and sureties therein, and shall subject the officer and his sureties to the same liabilities, as are prescribed respecting the original bonds of officers. [L. '90, p. 36, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2908.]

§ 9939. [8333.] Number of Sureties Required.

Unless otherwise expressly provided, there shall be at least two sureties upon the official bond of every officer. [L. '90, p. 36, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2909.]

See supra, § 974 et seq., action to protect sureties.
See next chapter, release of sureties.

Cited in 28 Wash. 686.

§ 9940. [8334.] Justification of Sureties.

In all cases where official bonds are required or may be hereafter required, from state, county, township or precinct officers, the officer or officers whose duty it is or may be to approve such bonds, shall not accept or approve any such bonds except such bond be that of a surety company, unless the sureties thereon shall severally justify before an officer authorized to administer oaths as follows: (1) On a bond given by a state or county officer that he is a resident and freeholder within this state, and on a bond given by a township or precinct officer that he is a resident and freeholder within the county in which such township or precinct is situated; (2) that he is worth double the amount for which he becomes surety over and above all his debts and liabilities, in property situated within this state which is not exempt from seizure and sale under execution. [L. '90, p. 36, § 11; 1 H. C., § 2910; L. '01, p. 13, § 1.]

Cited in 28 Wash. 686.

§ 9941. [8335.] Sureties' Liability, Limitation.

When the penal sum of any bond amounts to more than two thousand dollars, the sureties may become severally liable for portions not less than five hundred dollars, of such penal sum, making in the aggregate at least two sureties for the whole penal sum. [L. '90, p. 37, § 12; 1 H. C., § 2911.]

CHAPTER III.

RELEASE OF SURETIES ON OFFICIAL BONDS.

§ 9942. [8336.] Surety may be Released, When.

Any surety on the official bond of any state, county, or city officer, or on the official bond of any executor or administrator, or on the bond or undertaking of any person where by law a bond or undertaking is required, may be released from all liability thereon accruing from and after proper proceedings had therefor, as provided in this chapter. [L. '90, p. 43, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2912.]

§ 9943. [8337.] Proceedings to Obtain Release of—Statement—Notice.

Any surety desiring to be released from liability on the bond of any state officer shall file with the governor or secretary of state a statement in writing, duly subscribed by himself, or some one in his behalf, setting forth the name and office of the person for whom he is surety, the amount for which he is liable as such, and his desire to be released from further liability on account thereof. A notice containing the object of such statement shall be served personally on the officer, unless he shall have left the state, in which case the same may be served by publication for twenty days in some newspaper printed at the seat of government, or if none be printed there, then in such newspaper as shall be designated by the governor or secretary of state. Any surety desiring to be released from the official bond of any county officer shall file and serve a similar statement; the statement, except when it concerns the county clerk personally, shall be filed with the county clerk, and when the county clerk is personally concerned, the statement shall be filed with the county auditor or treasurer. Any surety desiring to be released from liability on the bond of any city officer shall file and serve a similar statement with the city clerk or other proper officer. Any surety desiring to be released from an executor's or administrator's bond or undertaking shall file and serve a similar statement with the clerk of the superior court. Any surety desiring to be released from any other official bond or undertaking shall file and serve a similar statement with the proper officer, person, or authority. All statements provided for in this section must be served as in the first clause of this section provided: Provided, the same, if served by publication, may be published in the newspaper in the same, or if no newspaper be published therein, then in an adjoining or other county, without any order from any court or other authority: Provided further, in all cases for which publication is provided, a printed or written notice posted in at least ten conspicuous places in the county for the time specified shall be deemed legal notice thereof. [L. '90, p. 43, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2913.]

§ 9944. [8338.] Failure to File New Bond Vacates Office, When—Vacancy, etc.

If any officer or person shall fail to file, within ten days from the date of personal service, or within thirty days from the date of the first insertion of a publication or posted notice, a new or additional bond or undertaking, the office or appointment of the person or officer so failing shall become vacant, and such officer or person shall forfeit his office or appointment, and the same shall be filled as in other cases of vacancy, and in manner provided by law; and the person applying to be released from liability on such bond or undertaking shall not be holden or liable thereon after the date herein provided for the vacating and forfeiting of such office or appointment: Provided, if a number of sureties on any such bond or undertaking representing half the amount of the penalty thereof shall unite in the same, or file and serve separate statements as herein provided, the right of such officer or person to exercise the duties or functions of his office or appointment shall immediately cease, until he shall file and have accepted and approved a new or additional bond or undertaking. Whenever, by operation of this chapter, the functions of any sheriff shall become suspended, it shall be the duty of the clerk, with whom the statement as hereinbefore provided shall have been filed, to notify the acting coroner of the county forthwith of such suspension; and upon being so notified, such coroner shall succeed to all the powers and discharge all the duties of sheriff of his county, pending such suspension of the functions of sheriff. [L. '90, p. 44, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2914.]

§ 9945. [8339.] Liability of Sureties Where New Bond is Given.

In case a new or additional undertaking be filed, the sureties on the original not asking to be released, and on the new or additional bond or undertaking, shall be and continue liable for the official acts of such officer or person, jointly and severally, the same as if all were sureties on one and the same instrument. [L. '90, p. 45, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2915.]

§ 9946. [8340.] Amount of New Undertaking, How Determined.

Whenever a statement is filed, or filed and served as herein provided, the proper authority shall prescribe the penalty or amount in which a new or additional bond or undertaking shall be filed; and if no such order be made, then such new or additional bond or undertaking shall be executed for the same amount as the original. [L. '90, p. 45, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2916.]

CHAPTER IV.

TRAVELING EXPENSE VOUCHERS.

§ 9947. [8341.*] Certified Vouchers for Expenses.

Hereafter no state or county officer shall be allowed by the state auditor, or board of county commissioners, or any other officer or board charged with the auditing of accounts, any sum or sums of money whatsoever for railroad or steamboat transportation, horse hire or other conveyance, hire of any kind whatsoever, or for hotel or restaurant subsistence, or any other expense, unless the same shall be presented in an account duly sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and, also attested by a voucher or vouchers duly and regularly signed by the person or agent furnishing said railroad, steamboat, horse or other conveyance hire, hotel or restaurant subsistence for all items of expenditure exceeding fifty cents which said voucher or vouchers must, before the signing thereof by said proprietor or authorized agent, be first written out in full, plainly giving the date of the same, the amount paid, and for what purpose so paid, and in case the same is paid for railroad or steamboat hire at an office which has a regular dater-stamp used in the stamping of railroad or steamboat tickets, then in addition to the signature of the agent thereof, said dater-stamp shall be impressed thereon. Provided, that, it shall not be necessary for any state officer, his deputies or assistants, to accompany said account with signed vouchers for items of expenditure, but it shall be sufficient if the accounts presented by such persons shall show in detail such items of expenditure on forms prescribed by the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices and sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oaths. Such accounts together with all vouchers, shall, upon approval and allowance of the officer or board charged with that duty, be plainly marked or stamped with the date of allowance, and duly filed in a safe place in such office, and safely kept for the period of at least three years: Provided, the same shall be at all times open to public inspection. Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 258, § 1; L. '99, p. 106, § 1.]

§ 9948. [8342.] Form of Verification.

Each state or county officer making a claim before any state auditor, board of county commissioners, or any other officer or board authorized to audit claims, shall in addition to the presentation of the said vouchers, have the same accompanied with the following oath or affirmation:

State of Washington, }
County of —, } ss.

I, —, holding the office of —, having herewith presented my account for expenses for the period ending —, accompanied by vouchers numbered — to — inclusive, amounting to the sum of — dollars, I do hereby, having been first duly sworn, depose and say: That the foregoing account is just and true as therein stated, that no payment has been received by me on account thereof; that no rebate of any character, kind or description has been made to me by any person or persons furnishing any of said railroad or steamboat transportation, horse hire or subsistence; that the expenses charged were actually and necessarily incurred and paid by me in lawful money; and that each voucher herewith accompanying said account was actually written out and duly signed by the person whose signature thereon appears at the time of the payment of said money and before the delivery of the same to me, and the amount thereon was mutually understood.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this — day of —, A. D. —.
—, Notary Public.

CHAPTER VI.

INSPECTION AND SUPERVISION OF PUBLIC OFFICES.

§ 9952. [8347.] Uniform System of Accounting.

The state auditor, through said bureau, shall formulate, prescribe and install a system of accounting and reporting in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, that shall be uniform for every state office and every state educational, benevolent, penal and reformatory institution, public institution and every public office and every public account of the same class, and which shall exhibit true accounts and detailed statements of funds collected, received and expended for account of the public for any purpose whatever, and by all public officers, employees or other persons, such accounts to show the receipt, use and disposition of all public property, and the income, if any, derived therefrom, and of all sources of public income and the amounts due and received from each source, all receipts, vouchers and other documents kept, or that may be required to be kept, necessary to isolate and prove the validity of every transaction, and all statements and reports made or required to be made, for the internal administration of the office to which they pertain, and all reports published, or that may be required to be published, for the information of the people, regarding any and all details of the financial administration of public affairs. [L. '09, p. 137, § 2.]

"Said bureau" refers to the Bureau of Inspection and Supervision of Public Officers.

See infra, § 10803, duties of state auditor and bureau as to county and city officers devolve upon director of taxation.

See infra, § 10805, duties of state auditor and bureau as to state officers devolve upon director of efficiency.

See infra, § 10893, bureau of inspection and supervision of public officers and public office inspectors and deputy abolished.

The salary provided by Rem. Code, infra, providing for the drawing of a § 8346, was "ascertained and allowed by warrant: State ex rel. Helander v. Clausen," within the meaning of section 11015, sen, 98 Wash. 253, 167 Pac. 947.

§ 9953. [8348.] Separate Accounts for Each Fund.

Separate accounts shall be kept for every appropriation or fund made by a taxing body or legislative, showing date and manner of each payment made out of the funds provided by such appropriation, the name, address and vocation of each person, organization, corporation or association, to whom paid, and for what purpose paid. Separate accounts shall be kept for each department, public improvement, undertaking, institution and public service industry under the jurisdiction of every taxing body, and of the state, and all service rendered by, or property transferred from, one department, public improvement, undertaking, institution or public service industry to another, shall be paid for at its true and full value by the department, public improvement, undertaking, institution or public service industry receiving the same, and no department, public improvement, undertaking, institution or public service industry shall benefit in any financial manner whatever by an appropriation or fund made for the support of another department, public improvement, undertaking, institution or public service industry. All unexpended balances or appropriations shall be transferred to the fund from which appropriated whenever the account with an appropriation is closed. [L. '09, p. 137, § 3.]

See notes to § 9952.

§ 9954. [8349.] Separate Accounts for Public Service Industries.

Separate accounts shall be kept for every public service industry which shall show the true and entire cost of the ownership and operation thereof, the amount collected annually by general or special taxation for service rendered to the public and the amount and character of the service rendered therefor, and the amount collected annually from private users, if any, for service rendered to them, and the amount and character of the service rendered therefor. [L. '09, p. 138, § 4.]

See notes to § 9952.

§ 9955. [8350.] Annual Report of Taxing Districts and Public Institutions—Comparative Statistics.

The state auditor, through said bureau, shall require from every taxing district, state, educational, penal, benevolent and reformatory institution and public institution financial reports covering the full period of each fiscal year, in accordance with the forms and methods prescribed by him, which shall be uniform for all accounts of the same class, which said reports shall be prepared, certified and filed with said bureau within thirty days after the close of each fiscal year by the auditing department of said taxing district or public institution. Such reports shall contain an accurate statement in summarized form of all collections made by or receipts received by the officers from all sources, all accounts due the public treasury but not collected, and of all expenditures for every purpose and by what authority authorized, and also: (a) A statement of all costs of ownership and operation and of all income of each and every public service industry owned and operated by a municipality; (b) a statement of the entire public debt of every taxing district to which power has been delegated by the state to create a public debt, showing the purpose for which each item of the debt was created, the provisions made for the payment of the debt; a classified statement of all receipts and expenditures by any state office, state educational, penal, benevolent and reformatory institution and all public institutions, together with such other information as may be required by the state auditor. Such reports shall be certified as to their correctness by said state auditor, his deputies, the chief inspector and supervisor of public offices, or other person legally authorized to make such certificate. Their substance shall be published in an annual volume of comparative statistics that shall be issued for each class of accounts at the expense of the state as a public document, and shall be submitted by the state auditor to the governor for transmittal to the legislature at the next regular session, or at a special session when required. [L. '09, p. 138, § 5.]

See notes to § 9952.

§ 9956. [8351.] Officers to Keep Accounts—Penalty—Deposit of Collections.

It shall be the duty of every public officer and employee to keep all accounts of his office in the form prescribed and to make all reports required by the state auditor. Refusal or neglect to perform these duties shall be deemed an offense against the efficiency of public administration and the welfare of the people, and shall be punished by removal from office, after trial and conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction. Every public officer and employee whose duty it is to collect or receive payments due or for the use of the public shall deposit such moneys collected or received by him with the treasurer of the taxing district once every twenty-four consecutive hours. In case a public officer or employee collects or receives funds for the account of a taxing district of which he is an officer or employee, he shall, during the Saturday of each week, pay to the proper officer of the taxing district for account of which the collection was made or payment received, the full amount collected or received during the current week for the account of such taxing district. [L. '11, p. 108, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 139, § 6.]

See notes to § 9952.

§ 9957. [8352.*] State Examiners—Appointment—Compensation.

After the bureau of inspection and supervision shall have formulated and installed the system of uniform accounting in any or all classes of public offices, the state auditor is hereby empowered to appoint additional assistants as required to administer the provisions of this chapter, said additional assistants shall be known as state examiners, who shall each be paid at the rate of not more than two hundred dollars ($200) per month for the time necessary to the performance of his duties, and in addition thereto, his railroad fare and three dollars ($3) per day for his expenses when away from his domicile. [L. '19, p. 289, § 1; L. '11, p. 108, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 140, § 7.]

See notes to § 9952.

§ 9958. [8353.] Examination of All Public Offices—Witnesses—Prosecution.

The state auditor, a deputy state inspector and supervisor, and every state examiner shall have power by himself or by any person legally appointed to perform the service, to examine into all financial affairs of every public office and officer; such examination of the financial affairs of townships, incorporated cities and towns and school districts shall be made at least once in every two years; all other examinations shall be made at least once a year. On every such examination inquiry shall be made as to the financial condition and resources of the taxing district; whether the Constitution and statutory laws of the state, the ordinances and orders of the taxing district and the requirements of the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices have been properly complied with; and into the methods and accuracy of the accounts and reports. The state auditor, his deputies, every state examiner and every person legally appointed to perform such service, shall have and may exercise the necessary authority to issue subpoenas and compulsory process and to direct the service thereof by any constable or sheriff, to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers before him at any designated time and place and to administer oaths. Where any person summoned to appear before the person making such examination and give testimony, shall neglect or refuse to appear, or shall neglect or refuse to answer any question that may be put to him touching any matter under examination, or to produce any books or papers required, the person making such examination shall apply to a superior judge of the proper county to issue a subpoena for the appearance of such person before him; and it shall be the duty of such superior judge to order the issuing of such subpoenas for the appearance of such person forthwith before him to give testimony; and if any person so summoned shall fail to appear or appearing shall refuse to testify or to produce any books or papers required, he shall be subject to like proceedings and penalties for contempt as witnesses in actions pending in the superior court. Willful false swearing in any such examination shall be perjury and shall be punishable as such. A report of such examination shall be made in triplicate, one copy to be filed in the office of the state auditor, one in the auditing department of the taxing district reported upon, and one in the office of the attorney general. If any such examination discloses malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance in office on the part of any public officer or employee, within thirty days from the receipt of such copy of said report, it shall be the duty of the attorney general and he is hereby authorized to institute and prosecute without delay in the proper county such legal action as is proper in the premises by civil process and promptly and efficiently prosecute the same to final determination to carry into effect the findings of any such examination. Before or after such legal action is commenced it shall not be lawful for the county commissioners or any board or officer to make a settlement or compromise of any claim arising out of such malfeasance, misfeasance or nonfeasance or any action commenced therefor or for any court to enter up any compromise or settlement of such action, without the written approval and consent of the attorney general and the state auditor. [L. '09, p. 140, § 8.]

See notes to § 9952.

§ 9959. [8354.] Affidavit of Claim for Services, etc.

Each and every claim for services performed, supplies furnished or claims of any nature for which compensation is asked, shall be sworn to before an officer authorized to administer oaths; that all public officers are required to take such affidavits without charge: Provided, that this section shall not apply to officers or employees drawing annual or monthly salaries, nor to the salaries of legislators, legislative employees, nor to the fees of jurors and witnesses: And provided further, that pay-rolls for daily wages may be sworn to by the superintendent, foreman or person in charge of the work. [L. '09, p. 142, § 9; L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 56, § 1.]

Cited in 67 Wash. 316.

§ 9960. [8355.] Expenses of Bureau Levied Among Counties.

The expense of maintaining and operating the bureau herein provided for shall be paid out of the state general fund in the same manner as other state employees. [L. '11, p. 108, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 142, § 10.]

See notes to § 9952.

Cited in 98 Wash. 256, 258.

§ 9961. [8356.] Expenses for Local Examination in Tax Districts.

The expense of auditing public accounts shall be borne by each taxing district for the auditing of all accounts under its jurisdiction and the state auditor is hereby authorized and empowered to certify the expense of such audit to the auditor of the county in which said taxing district is situated, who shall promptly issue his warrant on the county treasurer payable out of the current expense fund of the county, said fund, except as to auditing the financial affairs and making inspection and examination of the county, to be reimbursed by the county auditor out of the money due said taxing district at the next monthly settlement of the collection of taxes and to be transferred monthly by the county treasurer to the current expense fund; Provided, that when such examiners are used in auditing the accounts of state offices and institutions, they shall be paid by the state. This section does not violate Const., Art. XI, § 12, providing that the legislature shall not impose taxes upon counties and cities: State ex rel. Clausen v. Burr, 65 Wash. 524, 118 Pac. 639.

§ 9962. [8357.] County Auditor Deputy Supervisor.

Each county auditor shall be ex-officio deputy supervisor and in such capacity shall be under the direction of the chief inspector and the supervisor of public offices, but shall receive no additional salary or compensation by virtue of the same and shall perform no duties as such, except in connection with county business. [L. '09, p. 143, § 12.]

§ 97. Relation—Division of Profits—Right to Accounting—Evidence: Nudd v. Rowe, 111 Wash. 322, 190 Pac. 902.

Where articles of limited partnership were not drawn under this act, nor a certificate of an assumed business name filed for the protection of the public, as required by section 9976, infra, a dormant or silent partner constitutes the visible partners agents of the partnership, and a creditor may offset his debt against the partnership: Hanson v. Roesch, 104 Wash. 257, 176 Pac. 349.

A nontrading partnership for the growing of potatoes is not within this section, relating to limited partnerships for the transaction of mercantile, mechanical or manufacturing business: Gordon v. Marburger, 109 Wash. 496, 187 Pac. 354.

§ 9967. [8360.] Of Whom Composed, and Liability of Members.

A limited partnership may consist of two or more persons, who are known and called general partners, and are jointly and severally liable as general partners now are by law, and of two or more persons who shall contribute to the common stock a specific sum in actual money as capital, and are known and called special partners, and are not personally liable for any debts of the partnership, except as in this chapter specially provided. [L. '69, p. 380, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2918.]

The persons forming such partnership shall make and severally subscribe a certificate, in duplicate, and file one of such certificates with the county auditor of the county in which the principal place of business of the partnership is to be. Before being filed, the execution of such certificate shall be acknowledged by each partner subscribing it, before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds, and such certificate shall contain the name assumed by the partnership and under which its business is to be conducted, the names and respective places of residence of all the general and special partners, the amount of capital which each special partner has contributed to the common stock, the general nature of the business to be transacted, and the time when the partnership is to commence, and when it is to terminate. [L. '69, p. 380, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2919.]

Construction of statutory requirement as to posting names of limited partnership. Ann. Cas. 1913B, 917.

§ 9969. [8362.] False Statement—Publication of Copy.

Such partnership cannot commence before the filing of the certificate of partnership, and if a false statement is made in such certificate, all the persons subscribing thereto are liable as general partners for all the debts of the partnership. The partners shall, for four consecutive weeks immediately after the filing of the certificate of partnership, publish a copy of the same in some weekly newspaper published in the county where the principal place of business of the partnership is, or if no such paper be published therein, then in some newspaper in general circulation therein, and until such publication is made and completed, the partnership is to be deemed general. [L. '69, p. 380, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2920.]

§ 9970. [8363.] Renewal of Limited Partnership.

A limited partnership may be continued or renewed by making, acknowledging, filing, and publishing a certificate thereof, in the manner provided in this chapter for the formation of such partnership originally, and every such partnership, not renewed or continued as herein provided, from and after the expiration thereof according to the original certificate, shall be a general partnership. [L. '69, p. 381, § 5; 1 H. C., § 2921.]

§ 9971. [8364.] Name of Firm—When Special Liable as General Partner.

The business of the partnership may be conducted under a name in which the names of the general partners only shall be inserted, without the addition of the word "company" or any other general term. If the name of any special partner is used in such firm with his consent or privately, he shall be deemed and treated as a general partner, or if he personally makes any contract, respecting the concerns of the partnership, with any person except the general partners, he shall be deemed and treated as a general partner in relation to such contract, unless he makes it appear that in making such contract he acted and was recognized as a special partner only. [L. '69, p. 381, § 6; 1 H. C., § 2922.]

§ 9972. [8365.] Withdrawal of Stock and Profits—Effect of.

During the continuance of any partnership formed under this chapter no part of the capital stock thereof shall be withdrawn, nor any division of interests or profits be made, so as to reduce such capital stock below the sum stated in the certificate of partnership before mentioned; and if at any time during the continuance or at the termination of such partnership, the property or assets thereof are not sufficient to satisfy the partnership debts, then the special partners shall be severally liable for all sums or amounts by them in any way received or withdrawn from such capital stock, with interest thereon from the time they were so received or withdrawn respectively. [L. '69, p. 381, § 7; 1 H. C., § 2923.]

§ 9973. [8366.] Suits by and Against Limited Partnership—Parties.

All actions, suits, or proceedings respecting the business of such partnership shall be prosecuted by and against the general partners only, except in those cases where special partners or partnerships are to be deemed general partners or partnerships, in which case all the partners deemed general partners may join therein; and excepting also those cases where special partners are severally liable on account of sums or amounts received or withdrawn from the capital stock, as provided in the last preceding section. § 9974. [8367.] Dissolution, How may be Accomplished.

No dissolution of a limited partnership shall take place, except by operation of law, before the time specified in the certificate of partnership, unless a notice of such dissolution, subscribed by the general and special partners, is filed with the original certificate of partnership, or the certificate, if any, renewing or continuing such partnership, nor unless a copy of such notice be published for the time and in the manner prescribed for the publication of the certificate of partnership. [L. '69, p. 382, § 9; 1 H. C., § 2925.]

§ 9975. [8368.] Liabilities and Rights of Members of Firm.

In all cases not otherwise provided for in this chapter, all the members of limited partnerships shall be subject to all the liabilities and entitled to all the rights of general partners. [L. '69, p. 382, § 10; 1 H. C., § 2926.]

CHAPTER II.

ASSUMED BUSINESS NAMES.

§ 9976. [8369.] True Name to be Filed, When Business Under Assumed Name.

No person or persons shall hereafter carry on, conduct or transact business in this state under any assumed name or under any designation, name or style, corporate or otherwise, other than the true and real name or names of the person or persons conducting such business or having an interest therein, unless such person, or all of such persons, conducting said business, or having an interest therein, shall file a certificate in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which said business is to be conducted, which certificate shall set forth the designation, name or style under which said business is to be conducted, and the true and real name or names of the party or parties conducting, or intending to conduct, the same, or having an interest therein, together with the postoffice address or addresses of said person or persons. Such certificate shall be executed and acknowledged by the party or parties conducting, or intending to conduct, said business, or having an interest therein, before an officer authorized to take acknowledgment of deeds. [L. '07, p. 288, § 1.]

Cited in 52 Wash. 510; 53 Wash. 76; 59 Wash. 57; 61 Wash. 452; 63 Wash. 145; 66 Wash. 461; 70 Wash. 483, 484; 80 Wash. 450; 85 Wash. 237; 98 Wash. 136; 104 Wash. 264, 508, 625; 107 Wash. 559.

The contracts of a partnership are not invalidated by reason of its failure to file with the county clerk a certificate showing the names of the partners, as required by this section; since the statute does not so provide and contains nothing from which such effect can be inferred, under the strict construction requiring a law in derogation of a common-law right to clearly show the intent: Sutton & Co. v. Coast Trading Co., 49 Wash. 694, 96 Pac. 428.

The filing of a certificate of an assumed name is merely a condition precedent to action, and is not necessary to give legal existence to a partnership: Powelson v. Seattle, 87 Wash. 617, 152 Pac. 329.

A certificate as to the assumed name under which plaintiff was doing business complies with this section, where it recites that the plaintiff is engaged in and conducting a general retailing business at Metaline Falls, Pend Oreille county, state of Washington. And it need not give the name of her husband, when she was the owner of the business and her husband was merely a manager: Remly v. Swanson, 80 Wash. 449, 141 Pac. 899.

The bringing of a suit does not constitute doing business in this state, within this section: Singmaster v. Hall, 98 Wash. 134, 167 Pac. 136.

§ 9977. [8370.] Certificate to be Filed Before Commencing Business.

Any person or persons now conducting any business under such assumed name, or under any designation, name or style other than the true and real name or names of all of the parties having an interest therein, shall file a certificate as provided for in section 9976 within thirty days after this act shall take effect; and persons hereafter conducting, or intending to conduct, any business, as set forth in section 9976, shall, before commencing business, file such certificate in the manner hereinbefore prescribed. [L. '07 p. 289, § 2.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 237.

§ 9978. [8371.] Filing, When Change in Ownership.

Whenever any business is being conducted under any assumed name, or under any designation, name or style other [than] the true and real name or names of all the parties having an interest therein, and there shall be any change in the ownership or interest therein, then the party or parties who are to conduct such business, or have an interest therein after such change in interest, shall file a certificate as provided in section 9976, before conducting or transacting any business whatsoever. [L. '07, p. 289, § 3.]

Cited in 85 Wash. 237.

§ 9979. [8372.] Not Applicable to Firms Using True Names, Corporations, etc.

This chapter shall in no way affect or apply to any corporation duly organized under the laws of this state, or to any corporation organized under the laws of another state and lawfully doing business in this state; nor shall this chapter be deemed or construed to prevent the lawful use of a partnership designation, name or style: Provided, that such partnership designation, name or style shall include the true and real name or names of all of the parties conducting such business or having an interest therein; nor shall this chapter affect or apply to any limited partnership now legally organized or to be organized within this state. [L. '07, p. 289, § 4.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 461; 70 Wash. 483, 484; 85 Wash. 237; 104 Wash. 626.

Under this section, plaintiffs doing business under the name of "Hale-Tindall Co.," which contains the names of all the partners, are exempt from the requirements of the statute: Hale v. City Cab, Carriage & Transfer Co., 66 Wash. 459, 119 Pac. 837.

A person conducting a business in which he alone is interested, in the name of a company containing his full name, is exempt from filing with the county clerk the designation of the firm with the true and real names of all persons conducting the business or having an interest therein: Merrill v. Caro Investment Co., 70 Wash. 482, 127 Pac. 122.

The filing of a certificate of an assumed name is not required of one doing business in the name of a company containing his full name as proprietor, he being the only person interested therein, in view of this section: McGillivray v. Columbia Salmon Co., 104 Wash. 623, 177 Pac. 660.

§ 9980. [8373.] Compliance Condition Precedent to Bringing Suit.

No person or persons carrying on, conducting or transacting business as aforesaid, or having an interest therein, shall hereafter be entitled to maintain any suit in any of the courts of this state without alleging and proving that such person or persons have filed a certificate as provided for in section 9976, and failure to file such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of fraud in securing credit. See supra, § 1696 et seq., adoption of children.

§ 9986. [8379.] Aid to Nonresidents, etc., When.

When any nonresident, or any other person not coming within the definition of a pauper, shall fall sick in any county in this state, not having money or property to pay his board, nursing, or medical aid, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the proper county, on complaint being made, to give or order to be given such assistance to such poor person as they may deem just and necessary; and if said sick person shall die, then the said commissioners shall give or order to be given to such person a decent burial; and the said commissioners shall make [such] allowance for board, nursing, medical aid, or burial expenses, as they shall deem just and equitable, and order the same to be paid out of the county treasury. [L. '54, p. 396, § 6; Cd. '81, § 2701; 1 H. C., § 3092.]

§ 9987. [8380.] Length of Residence Necessary.

When application is made by any pauper to the board of county commissioners of any county in the state, for relief, it shall be necessary for said commissioners to require of said pauper satisfactory evidence that he has been a resident of said county for six months immediately preceding the day upon which such application was made. Compare last part of § 2680, Cd. '81 (283, 1 Hill's Code), omitted as obsolete.

§ 9989. [8382.] Proceedings to Expel Pauper.

When application is made by any pauper to the board of county commissioners as aforesaid, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of said board that the person so applying for relief has resided in said county agreeably to the provisions of the foregoing section [9987] he shall be entitled to all the relief provided by this title; but if, on the contrary, it shall appear to the satisfaction of said board that such pauper has not been a resident of said county agreeably to the provisions of section 9987, they shall proceed to remove from their county, at the expense of said county, such pauper to the county where such pauper may have his residence, or may, if they think best, issue a notice directed to some constable of the county, which notice said constable shall serve forthwith on said pauper, requiring him to depart forthwith from the county; and after so serving said notice by reading the same to said pauper, said constable shall, within five days thereafter, return the same to the said clerk of the board of county commissioners issuing the same, noting the time and manner of service. [L. '54, p. 397, § 8; Cd. '81, § 2704; 1 H. C., § 3095.]

§ 9990. [8383.] Denial of Relief, When.

After service of such notice as aforesaid, no pauper shall be entitled to relief from such county, unless the county commissioners shall deem it absolutely necessary. [L. '54, p. 397, § 9; Cd. '81, § 2705; 1 H. C., § 3096.]

§ 9991. [8384.] Workhouse for Paupers.

The board of county commissioners of any county in this state may, if they think proper, cause to be built or provided in their respective counties workhouses for the accommodation and employment of such paupers as may from time to time become a county charge; and said workhouses and paupers shall be under such rules and regulations as said board of commissioners may deem proper and just. If any person shall bring and leave any pauper in any county in this state wherein such pauper is not lawfully settled, knowing him to be a pauper, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for every such offense, to be sued for and recovered by and to the use of such county, in a civil action before any court having jurisdiction of the same. [L. '54, p. 397, §§ 10, 11; Cd. '81, § 2706; 1 H. C., § 1297.]

Cited in 90 Wash. 244, 247.

§ 9992. [8385.] Importing Pauper.

If any person knowingly bring within this state any pauper or poor person with the intent of making him a charge on any county or counties therein, he shall be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, and stand charged with his support. [Cd. '81, § 932; 2 H. P. C., § 162.]

CHAPTER II.

MOTHERS' PENSIONS.

§ 9993. [8385-1.*] Counties to Help Destitute Mothers.

In every county it shall be the duty of the county commissioners to provide out of the moneys of the county treasury an amount sufficient to meet the purposes of this law for the support of mothers who, by reason of destitution, insufficient property or income, or lack of earning capacity, are unable to support their children under the age of fifteen years. [L. '19, p. 254, § 1; L. '15, p. 364, § 1. Cf. L. '13, p. 644, § 1.]

Mothers' pension acts. 3 A. L. R. 1233.

§ 9994. [8385-2.] Allowance.

The allowance to such mother shall not exceed fifteen (15) dollars per month when she has but one child under the age of fifteen years, and if she has more than one child under the age of fifteen years, it shall not exceed the sum of fifteen dollars per month for the first child, and five dollars per month for each of the other children under the age of fifteen years. [L. '15, p. 365, § 2. Cf. L. '13, p. 644, § 2.]

§ 9995. [8385-3.] Courts to Make Allowance.

Such allowance shall be made by the juvenile court in the counties where such court is held and elsewhere by the superior court, and only upon the following conditions: (1) The child or children for whose benefit the allowance is made must be living with the mother of such child or children; (2) When by means of such allowance the mother will be able to maintain a home for her child or children; (3) The mother must in the judgment of the court, be a proper person, morally, physically and mentally, for the bringing up of her children; (4) No person shall receive the benefit of this act who shall not have been a resident of the state for three (3) years and of the county in which such application is made for at least one year next before the making of such application for such allowance. [L. '15, p. 365, § 3. Cf. L. '13, p. 645, § 3.]

§ 9996. [8385-4.] Benefit Ceases, When.

Whenever any child shall reach the age of fifteen years any allowance made to the mother of such child for the benefit of such child shall cease. The court may in its discretion at any time before such child reaches the age of fifteen years, discontinue or modify the allowance to any mother and for any child. [L. '15, p. 365, § 4. Cf. L. '13, p. 645, § 4.]

§ 9997. [8385-5.] Penalties.

Any person procuring fraudulently any allowance for a person, not entitled thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '15, p. 365, § 5. Cf. L. '13, p. 645, § 5.]

§ 9998. [8385-6.] Prosecuting Attorney to Bring Proceedings—Payment of Warrants.

In each case where an allowance is made to any woman under the provisions of this act, an order to that effect shall be entered upon the records of the court, making such allowance. Proceedings to obtain the benefit of this act shall be instituted and maintained in the same manner as proceedings are instituted and maintained in the juvenile court, and the prosecuting attorney shall render all necessary assistance to applicants under this act and shall appear in every such proceeding and through the probation officer, the charity commissioner or any person having knowledge of the facts, shall carefully investigate the merits of every application to the end that this act may be fairly administered and no person granted relief hereunder except those justly entitled thereto, and no officer of the court or county officer shall receive any fees for any service rendered in carrying out the provisions of this act. A certified copy of said order shall be filed with the county auditor of the county in which such child's mother is resident, and thereupon and thereafter and so long as such order remains in force and unmodified it shall be the duty of the county auditor each month to draw his warrant on the current expense fund of the county in favor of the mother for the amount specified in such order, which warrant shall be by the auditor delivered to the mother upon her executing duplicate receipts therefor, one to be retained by the auditor and the other to be filed by the clerk with the other records in the proceedings relating to such child or children. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to pay such warrant out of funds in the current expense fund of the county. [L. '15, p. 365, § 6. Cf. L. '13, p. 645, § 6.]

CHAPTER III.

AID TO ADULT BLIND.

§ 9999. Supervisor of Aid to Adult Blind.

The supervisor of industrial relations, with the approval of the director of labor and industries shall appoint an assistant to be known as the supervisor of industrial aid to the adult blind. [L. '21, p. 207, § 1.]

§ 10000. General Aid—Persons Entitled.

The director of labor and industries shall have the power and it shall be his duty through and by means of the division of industrial relations, to promote the educational and industrial welfare of the adult blind residents of the state, in both home and factory, to secure suitable employment, furnish materials for adult blind workers and market the products of their labor. [L. '21, p. 208, § 2.]

§ 10001. County Aid—Persons Entitled.

It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners of the several counties to, from time to time, provide funds for the aid of the industrial and general education of the adult blind of the county who are unable to support themselves, but no person shall be entitled to such aid unless he is a blind person over the age of eighteen years and has been an actual bona fide resident of the state of Washington for more than three years and of the county for at least one year immediately preceding his application for such aid, or was blinded within the state while a bona fide resident thereof and is unable to earn a livelihood from the consequence of his blindness and is a person of such physical and mental capacity as is likely to be benefited by the aid herein provided for. [L. '21, p. 208, § 3.]

§ 10002. Application for Aid.

Any adult blind person entitled to aid under the provisions of this act and desiring to obtain the same, shall make application therefor in writing upon a blank to be furnished by the supervisor of industrial aid to the adult blind, verified under oath by the applicant and supported by the recommendation of the director of labor and industries, setting forth the facts in the particular case; the board of county commissioners shall hear the application and may require the furnishing of additional evidence in support thereof. In case the application is granted, the board shall enter an order specifying the aid to be granted, not to exceed the sum of thirty-five dollars per month, nor to exceed the sum of three hundred dollars in all: Provided, that when it shall appear that the earnings of the blind person are exceeding the sum of fifteen dollars per month, the county aid shall be reduced by the amount of the excess of such earnings over the sum of fifteen dollars. It shall be the duty of every person granted county aid under the provisions of this act to, on or before the tenth day of each calendar month, file with the county auditor upon a blank to be furnished for that purpose, a statement of his earnings for the preceding calendar month, subscribed and verified under oath by the person entitled to the aid. A certified copy of the order granting the aid shall be filed with the county auditor of the county in which the blind person is a resident and thereupon and thereafter, so long as such order remains in force, it shall be the duty of the county auditor, on or before the tenth day of each calendar month, to draw his warrant on the current expense fund of the county in favor of such blind person, in the amount specified in such order, less the amount of the earnings of the blind person in excess of fifteen dollars for the preceding calendar month, and to deliver such warrant to the person granted the aid. [L. '21, p. 208, § 4.]

§ 10003. Removal to Another County No Bar to Aid.

The removal of any blind person receiving aid under the provisions of this act to any part of the state other than the county of his legal residence, for the purposes of education or employment, shall not deprive such blind person of the aid provided for in this act. [L. '21, p. 209, § 5.]

§ 10004. Rescission of Order Granting Aid.

Whenever it shall be made to appear to the board of county commissioners that any blind person receiving aid under the provisions of this act is through willful neglect, indolence or incapacity, not profiting by such aid, the board shall be authorized to rescind the order granting the aid. [L. '21, p. 209, § 6.]

§ 10005. Adult Blind Revolving Fund.

There is hereby created in the state treasury a special fund, to be known as the adult blind revolving fund, from which shall be paid all sums required for the purchase of materials for blind workers and into which shall be paid all sums received from the sale of the products of blind workers, equal to the cost of the materials furnished therefor. The director of labor and industries shall have the power to authorize the supervisor of industrial aid to the adult blind, to purchase and distribute materials to blind workers and to market the products manufactured therefrom and to pay to the blind workers all sums received in excess of the cost of the materials used in such products, and to pay the cost of such materials into the state treasury, to the credit of the adult blind revolving fund. [L. '21, p. 210, § 7.]

§ 10006. Appropriations.

There is hereby appropriated out of the general fund in the state treasury into the adult blind revolving fund, the sum of seventy-five hundred dollars; for the purpose of purchasing materials for the use of the adult blind, there is hereby appropriated out of the adult blind revolving fund the sum of twenty thousand dollars; for the purpose of salaries and wages, supplies, materials and service for the department of labor and industries in carrying out the provisions of this act, there is hereby appropriated out of the general fund the sum of five thousand dollars. [L. '21, p. 210, § 8.]

§ 10007. Fraudulently Procuring Aid.

Any person fraudulently procuring aid from any county as herein provided for any person not entitled thereto shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '21, p. 210, § 9.]

CHAPTER I.

PHYSICIANS.

§ 10008. [8391.*] Certificates to Practice—Qualifications.

Only one form of certificate shall be issued by the said board. [State medical examiners] Such certificate shall be under the seal of the board and signed by the president and secretary, and shall authorize the holder thereof to practice medicine and surgery within this state. Upon compliance with the requirements of this act by an applicant for a license to practice medicine and surgery in this state, the board shall issue such certificate, authorizing the holder thereof to use drugs or what are known as medicinal preparations in or upon human beings and to sever or penetrate the tissues of human beings and to use any and all other methods in the treatment of diseases, injuries, deformities, or other physical or mental conditions.

In order to procure a certificate to practice medicine and surgery, the applicant for such certificate must file with said board at least thirty days prior to a regular meeting thereof, satisfactory testimonials of his moral character, and a diploma issued by some legally chartered medical school, the requirements of which shall have been at the time of granting such diploma in no particular less than those prescribed by the Association of American Medical Colleges for that year, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, and he must file with such diploma an application sworn to before some person authorized to administer oaths, and attested by the hand and seal of such officer, if he have a seal, stating that he is the person named in said diploma, that he is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. From and after July 1, 1919, said applicant must furnish evidence that he has served for not less than one year as interne in a thoroughly equipped hospital which shall have had at least twenty-five beds for each interne devoted to the treatment of medical, surgical, gynecological and special diseases, and he also must have had a service of six weeks, or the equivalent thereof in the maternity department of the same or some other hospital, during which time he shall have attended or participated in the attendance upon not less than six confinements. He shall furnish evidence that he has had some experience in, and a practical working knowledge of pathology, and the administration of anaesthetics: Provided, that when an applicant who has graduated before July 1, 1919, has not completed one year as interne as above provided, he must furnish evidence that he has been engaged in the active practice of medicine and surgery for a period of at least two years prior to that date. The said application shall be made upon a blank furnished by said board, and it shall contain such information concerning said medical instruction and the preliminary education of the applicant as said board may by rule provide. Applicants who have failed to meet the requirements must be rejected. [L. '19, p. 373, § 3; L. '09, p. 679, § 6.]

Rem. & Bal. Code, section 8386 et seq., as amended, being a complete act regulating the practice of medicine and the issuance of licenses therefor, and making certain violations of the act felonies or misdemeanors, and authorizing the state medical board to prosecute all persons guilty of violation of the act, but failing to expressly authorize the board to employ private counsel, and failing to provide any special punishments or procedure for prosecuting offenders, stands on the plane of the general criminal statutes as respects violations of the act and punishments therefor, and such duties therefore fall upon the prosecuting attorneys, and the state medical board has no authority to employ private counsel: State ex rel. State Board of Medical Examiners v. Clausen, 84 Wash. 279, 146 Pac. 630.

This section, providing for a diploma the requirements of which shall have been "in no particular less than those prescribed by the Association of American Medical Colleges for that year," is not unconstitutional as granting legislative functions to such association: State v. Bonham, 93 Wash. 489, 161 Pac. 377, L. R. A. 1917D, 996.

Such provision could not be objected to by one applying for a license to practice osteopathy, as he was not affected by it, and it will not render the whole act unconstitutional: State v. Bonham, 93 Wash. 489, 161 Pac. 377, L. R. A. 1917D, 996.

§ 10009. [8392.*] Subjects of Examination—Questions and Papers.

In addition to the requirements above set forth, such applicants for a certificate must be personally examined by said board as to their qualifications. The examination shall be conducted in the English language, shall be practical in character and designed to discover the applicant's fitness to practice medicine and surgery, and shall be, in whole or in part, in writing on the following fundamental subjects, to wit: Anatomy, histology, gynecology, pathology, bacteriology, chemistry, toxicology, physiology, obstetrics, general diagnosis, hygiene, practice of medicine and surgery and any other branches thereof that the board shall deem advisable. Examinations in each subject shall consist of not less than ten questions, answers to which shall be marked upon a scale of zero to ten. All applicants must obtain not less than sixty per cent in any one subject: Provided, that applicants who can show at least ten years of reputable practice shall be granted a credit of five per cent upon the general average, and five per cent additional for each subsequent ten years of such practice. The examination papers shall form a part of the records of the board and shall be kept on file by the secretary for a period of one year after each examination. In said examination the applicant shall be known and designated by number only, and the name attached to the number shall be kept secret until after the board has finally voted upon the application. § 10010. [8393.] Examination Fee.

Each applicant, on making application, shall pay the secretary of the board a fee of twenty-five ($25) dollars, which shall be turned over to the treasurer of the board, who shall retain fifteen ($15) dollars for the fee in his possession until the board shall have passed upon the credentials of the applicant, and in case they are insufficient the sum of fifteen ($15) dollars shall be returned upon application.

All money received or collected by said board or any member or officer thereof, during any month, shall be turned over, before the tenth day of the succeeding month to the state treasurer together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. The treasurer of said board shall give security bond to be approved by and deposited with the auditor of the state, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). The cost of said bond shall be paid by the state.

Each member of the board of medical examiners shall receive a compensation of five dollars per day for each day in which he is actually and necessarily engaged in attendance upon meetings of the board, in going to and returning from the place of meeting, and all necessary expenses incurred in attending such meetings. All such compensation and expenses, and all other expenses incident to the execution of the provisions of this act shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state auditor upon the presentation of proper vouchers to be approved by a majority of said board, as in the case of state officers. The secretary and treasurer of said board shall receive a compensation to be determined by said board not to exceed fifty dollars per annum. [L. '13, p. 256, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 681, § 7.]

§ 10011. [8394.] Records of Board.

Said board shall keep an official record of all its proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for certificates under this act, with the result of each application. Said record shall be evidence of all the proceedings of said board which are set forth therein. [L. '09, p. 681, § 8.]

See notes to § 10008.

§ 10012. [8395.*] Certificates Recorded With County Clerk.

Every person holding a certificate authorizing him to practice medicine and surgery in this state, must have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the holder of said certificate is practicing his profession, and the fact of such recording shall be indorsed on the certificate by the county clerk recording the same. Every such person, on each change of his residence, must have the certificate recorded in the county to which he shall have changed his residence. The absence of such record shall be prima facie evidence of the want of possession of such certificate. And any person holding a certificate to practice medicine and surgery in this state who shall attempt to practice medicine or surgery in this state, without first having filed his certificate with the county clerk as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 376, § 5; L. '09, p. 681, § 9.]

An information is not duplicitous in that it charges the offense of practicing without having the certificate recorded under this section, and also the offense of practicing without having a certificate under section 10018, where it does not state sufficient facts to charge a complete offense of practicing without recording the certificate in the county of his residence; since its allegations in that respect, being insufficient to sustain a conviction, may be rejected as surplusage: State v. Sanford, 89 Wash. 669, 154 Pac. 1114.

§ 10013. [8396.*] Clerk's Record of Certificates.

The county clerk shall keep in a book provided for the purpose, a complete list of the certificates recorded by him, with the date of the record; and said book shall be open to public inspection during his office hours. The county clerk shall forthwith give written notice to the secretary of the board, notifying him of the name of each licensee recorded after this act shall go into effect, together with the date of such recording. [L. '19, p. 376, § 6; L. '09, p. 682, § 10.]

§ 10014. [8397.*] Unprofessional Conduct—Refusal or Revocation of License—Procedure.

Said board must refuse a certificate to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct; but before such refusal the applicant must be cited by citation, signed by the secretary of the board, and sealed with its seal. No such citation shall be issued except upon a sworn complaint filed with the secretary of the board, charging the applicant with having been guilty of unprofessional conduct, and setting forth the particular act constituting such unprofessional conduct. On filing of such complaint the secretary must forthwith issue a citation and make the same returnable at a regular or special meeting of said board, occurring at least thirty days next after filing the complaint. Such citation shall notify the applicant of the time and place when and where the matter of said unprofessional conduct shall be heard, the particular unprofessional conduct with which the applicant is charged, and that the applicant shall file his written answer, under oath, within twenty days next after service upon him of said citation, or default will be taken against him, and his application for certificate refused. The attendance of witnesses at such hearing shall be compelled by subpoenas issued by the secretary of the board under its seal; and said secretary shall in no case refuse to issue any such subpoena, upon a fee of twenty cents being paid him for each subpoena. Said citation and said subpoenas shall be served in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to the service of summons and subpoenas generally and all provisions of the statutes of this state then in force relating to subpoenas are hereby made applicable to the subpoenas provided for herein. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena served upon him in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force providing for the manner of serving subpoenas, the fact of such refusal shall be certified by the secretary of said board, under the seal thereof, to the superior court of the county in which the service was had and the said court shall thereupon proceed to hear said matter in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to contempt for disobedience of process of the court, and should said court find that the subpoena had been legally served and that the party so served has willfully disobeyed the same, it shall proceed to impose such penalty as provided in cases of contempt of court. In all cases of alleged unprofessional conduct arising under this act, testimonies of witnesses may be taken, the same as in civil cases, and all the provisions of the statutes of this state then in force as to the taking of testimony are hereby made applicable to the taking of depositions under this section. If the applicant shall fail to file with the secretary of said board his answer, under oath, to the charges made against him, within twenty days after service on him of said citation or within such further time as the board may give him, and the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, default shall be entered against him and his application refused. If the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, and issue be joined thereon by answer, the board shall proceed to determine the matter, and to that end shall hear such evidence as may be adduced before it; and if it appear to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant is guilty as charged, no certificate shall be issued to him. No certificate shall be refused on the grounds of unprofessional conduct unless the applicant has been guilty of such conduct within two years next preceding his application. Whenever any holder of a certificate to practice medicine and surgery in this state is guilty of unprofessional conduct, as the same is defined in this act, and said unprofessional conduct has been brought to the attention of the board in the manner hereinafter pointed out, or whenever a certificate has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation, or issued by mistake, it shall be their duty to, and they must, revoke the same at once, and the holder of said certificate shall not be permitted to practice medicine and surgery in this state. But no such revocation shall be made unless such holder is cited to appear and the same proceedings are had as is hereinbefore provided in this section in case of refusal to issue certificates. Said secretary in all cases of revocation shall enter on his register the fact of such revocation and shall certify the fact of such revocation under the seal of the board, to the county clerk of each county in which the certificate of the person whose certificate has been revoked is recorded; and said clerk must thereupon write upon the margin or across the face of his register of the certificate of such person, the following: "This certificate was revoked on the — day of —," giving the day, month and year of revocation in accordance with certification to him by the secretary. The record of such revocation so made by said county clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the fact thereof, and of the regularity of all the proceedings of said board in the matter of said revocation. From the time of the revocation of a certificate the holder thereof shall be disqualified from practicing medicine or surgery in this state. [L. '19, p. 376, § 7; L. '09, p. 682, § 11.]

Ballinger's Code, section 3015, making a conviction conclusive evidence of unprofessional conduct, was but a rule of evidence to which the statute of limitations does not apply: State Medical Examining Board v. Stewart, 46 Wash. 79, 89 Pac. 475, 123 Am. St. Rep. 915, 13 Ann. Cas. 653, 11 L. R. A. (N. S.) 557.

An act providing that a conviction of an offense involving "moral turpitude," shall be conclusive evidence of unprofessional conduct is not unconstitutional and the board could not go back of the record of conviction: State Board of Medical Examiners v. Harrison, 92 Wash. 577, 159 Pac. 769.

The term "moral turpitude" in such act is not so vague and uncertain as to render the law unconstitutional: State Board of Medical Examiners v. Harrison, 92 Wash. 577, 159 Pac. 769.

§ 10015. [8397½.] Acts Constituting Unprofessional Conduct.

The words "unprofessional conduct," as used in this chapter, are hereby declared to mean:

First. The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion.

Second. The willfully betraying of a professional secret.

Third. All advertising of medical business which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons, and so be harmful or injurious to public morals or safety.

Fourth. All advertising of any medicine or of any means whereby the monthly periods of women can be regulated or the menses re-established if suppressed.

Fifth. Conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of such conviction shall be conclusive evidence.

Sixth. Habitual intemperance.

Seventh. The personation of another licensed practitioner.

Eighth. Wrongfully encouraging or conspiring with any person to bring, or cause to be brought, any action in any court against any licensed practitioner for alleged malpractice, or agreeing with any person for a share or part of any sum of money to be recovered in such action: Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any licensed practitioner from testifying against any other licensed practitioner in any action for alleged malpractice. [L. '15, p. 238, § 1. Cf. L. '90, p. 116, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2847; L. '09, p. 684, § 11.]

This section is not void for uncertainty in failing to furnish any standard by which it can be determined what advertisements offend: State Board of Medical Examiners v. Jordan, 92 Wash. 234, 158 Pac. 982.

Under this section, the question of moral turpitude is not essential, as the statute determines what advertisements are bad, nor is it necessary to show that actual harm has come to anyone through the accused: State Board of Medical Examiners v. Jordan, 92 Wash. 234, 158 Pac. 982.

An advertisement enumerating six incurable diseases which the accused cures, as well as others that are incurable in the majority of cases, shows the accused's bad faith in advertising with intent to deceive, within this section: State Board of Medical Examiners v. Jordan, 92 Wash. 234, 158 Pac. 982.

§ 10016. [8398.] Reasons for Revocation Filed.

In any case of the refusal or revocation of a license by said board under the provisions of this chapter, said board shall file a brief and concise statement of the grounds and reasons for such refusal or revocation in the office of the secretary of said board, which said statement, together with the decision of said board, in writing, shall remain of record in said office. [L. '09, p. 685, § 12.]

Cited in 68 Wash. 358.

The loss or destruction of the statement of the medical board showing the grounds for its refusal of license to practice, required by this section, to be filed and kept of record, does not entitle an applicant to a rehearing, other records of the board showing the rejection and reasons therefor: State ex rel. Stanley v. Witter, 68 Wash. 356, 123 Pac. 471.

Neither does failure to notify an applicant that a license has been refused entitle him to a rehearing: State ex rel. Stanley v. Witter, 68 Wash. 356, 123 Pac. 471.

§ 10017. [8399.] Appeal from Order of Board—Notice, Bond, etc.

In any case of the refusal or revocation of a license by said board under the provisions of this act, the applicant whose application shall be so refused, and the licentiate whose license shall be so revoked by said board, shall have the right to appeal from the decision so refusing or revoking such license within thirty days after the filing of such decision in the office of the secretary of said board, as hereinbefore in this chapter provided. Such appeal shall be to the superior court in and for the county in which was held the last general meeting of said board, prior to the refusal of such license, in the case of such refusal; and to the superior court in and for the county in which the hearing was had upon which such license was revoked, in case of such revocation. In any case a person desiring to take such appeal shall serve or cause to be served, upon the secretary of said board, a written notice of such appeal, which shall contain a statement of the grounds of such appeal, and shall file in the office of such secretary an appeal bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by said secretary, to the state of Washington, conditioned for the speedy prosecution of such appeal, and the payment of such cost as may be adjudged against him upon such appeal. Said secretary shall within ten (10) days after the service of said notice of appeal, and the filing and approval of said appeal bond, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which such appeal is taken, a certified copy, under the seal of said board, of the decision of said board, and the grounds thereof in the case of the refusal of the license; and in addition thereto, a certified copy under such seal of the complaint in the case of the revocation of a license, together with the bond and notice of appeal. The clerk of such court shall thereupon docket such appeal causes, and they shall stand for trial in all respects as ordinary civil actions, and like proceedings be had thereon. Upon such appeal said cause shall be tried de novo. Either party may appeal from the judgment of said superior court to the supreme court of the state in like manner as in civil actions within sixty (60) days after the rendition and entry of such judgment in said superior court. If such judgment shall be in favor of the party appealing from the decision of said board, and in case said examining board does not appeal from said judgment within said sixty (60) days, then, and in that case, said board shall, at the end of said sixty (60) days, and immediately upon the expiration thereof, issue to such successful party the usual license to practice medicine and surgery in this state, and in addition thereto, shall reinstate upon the records of said board the name of such successful applicant, in case of the revocation of his license by such board. In case of such appeal to the supreme court by said board, no such license shall be issued nor reinstatement be required until the final determination of said cause, and as hereinafter provided. In case the final decision of the supreme court be against said medical examining board, then, and in that case, said court shall make such order in the premises as may be necessary, and said board shall act accordingly: Provided, that in no case shall an appeal bond be required of said board, nor shall any costs be adjudged or taxed against the same. The court on appeal has a right to administer the provisions of the medical act relating to examinations: Littlefield, In re, 61 Wash. 150, 112 Pac. 234.

An appeal from the decisions of the medical board refusing a physician a license to practice, under this section, brings up for review all questions of fact, notwithstanding expert evidence may be required to determine the qualifications of the applicant, in view of the provisions requiring a trial de novo, and that the examination papers be a part of the record, and that the case stand for trial as an ordinary civil action: Littlefield, In re, 61 Wash. 150, 112 Pac. 234.

This section does not provide for a trial by jury; since a jury trial is not required in all civil actions: State Board of Medical Examiners v. Macy, 92 Wash. 614, 159 Pac. 801.

Mandamus does not lie to review the action of the board of medical examiners in refusing a license to practice, there being an adequate remedy by appeal, under this section: State ex rel. Brunn v. State Board of Medical Examiners, 61 Wash. 623, 112 Pac. 746.

§ 10018. [8044.*] Practicing Without License—Penalty.

Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice, or hold himself out as practicing medicine and surgery in this state, without having, at the time of so doing, a valid, unrevoked certificate as provided in this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. In each such conviction the fine shall be paid, when collected, to the state treasurer, and shall constitute a special fund for the prosecution of illegal practitioners as defined in this act, and the said board is authorized to prosecute all persons guilty of a violation of the provisions of this act. § 10019. [8401.] False Personation, a Felony.

Every person filing for record, or attempting to file for record, the certificate issued to another, falsely claiming himself to be the person named in such certificate, or falsely claiming himself to be the person entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to such penalties as are provided by the laws of this state for the crime of forgery. Under this section an information charging that the defendant was falsely claiming to be the person named in and entitled to a certain filed certificate which named another as the person entitled thereto, is insufficient; since it is a necessary ingredient of the offense to file or attempt to file the certificate for record, the false claims in respect thereto not being alone sufficient: State v. Stanley, 82 Wash. 492, 144 Pac. 689.

§ 10020. [8402.*] Fraudulently Acting as Member of Board.

Any person assuming to act as a member of the state board of medical examiners without so being, or who shall sign, or subscribe, or issue, or cause to be issued, or seal, or cause to be sealed, a certificate authorizing any person to practice medicine or surgery in this state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 380, § 9; L. '09, p. 687, § 16.]

See notes to § 10008.

§ 10021. [8403.*] Licenses Heretofore Issued Valid—Issuance Without Examination.

Any person who holds a license authorizing him to practice medicine and surgery from the board of medical examiners heretofore existing, under the provisions of any laws of this state, past or present, shall be entitled to practice medicine and surgery in this state the same as if issued under this act; and said board is hereby authorized to issue under proper application, but without examination, certificates to practice medicine and surgery to any person who was legally practicing medicine and surgery in this state prior to the organization of the first board of medical examiners in 1890, and also to any person who is the legal holder of a certificate of examination from the National Medical Examining Board: Provided, however, that all licenses herein mentioned may be revoked for unprofessional conduct, in the same manner and upon the same grounds as if issued under this act. [L. '19, p. 380, § 10; L. '09, p. 687, § 17.]

§ 10022. [8404.] Laws to be Observed.

All persons granted licenses or certificates under this chapter, shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying to births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal. [L. '09, p. 688, § 18.]

§ 10023. Licenses of Other States.

Applicants for a certificate, who have been examined and licensed by a state board of medical examiners of another state, which through a reciprocity provision in its law, similarly accredit the holders of certificates from the board of medical examiners of this state to the full privileges of practice within its borders, on payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars to the board, and on filing with the secretary of the board a copy of such license certified by the president or secretary of the state board of medical examiners issuing the same to be a full, true copy thereof, and showing also that the standard of requirements adopted by such state board of medical examiners as provided by the law of such state is equal to that provided for by the provisions of this act, shall without further examination receive a certificate to practice medicine and surgery in this state: Provided, that such applicant has not previously failed at an examination held by the board of medical examiners of this state. [L. '19, p. 380, § 11.]

See notes to § 10008.

§ 10024. [8405.*] Application and Construction of Act.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of family remedies, or the practice of midwifery; nor shall this act apply to any commissioned medical officer in the United States army, navy, or marine hospital service, in the discharge of his official duties; nor to any licensed dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry; nor shall this act apply to any practitioner from any other state or territory in which he resides: Provided, that such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients or receive calls within the limits of this state. This act shall not be construed to apply in any manner to the practice of osteopathy or to any drugless method of treating the sick or afflicted, or to apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or any kind of treatment by prayer; nor to any person now holding a license from the state board of medical examiners for any system of drugless practice. This section does not exclude from the operation of the chapter the practice of suggestive therapeutics, a system of treating the sick by the laying on of hands with suggestions from the mind of the operator to the mind of the patient;

since the same is not any kind of treatment by prayer: State v. Pratt, 80 Wash. 96, 141 Pac. 318.

One who treats the sick by a method called "Suggestive Therapeutics," consisting of the laying on of hands and giving mental suggestions, cannot escape conviction.

DEAD BODIES.

§ 10026. [8408.] Who may Possess Subjects for Purposes of Instruction.

Any physician or surgeon of this state, or any medical student under the authority of any such physician or surgeon, may obtain, as hereinafter provided, and have in his possession, human dead bodies, or the parts thereof, for the purposes of anatomical inquiry or instruction. See supra, § 6040, public morgues.

See supra, § 8313, embalmers.

Rights as to Burial: See Remington's Dig., Dead Bodies, §§ 1—4, and cases cited.

§ 10027. [8409.] Body may be Dissected, When.

Any sheriff, coroner, keeper of a county poorhouse, public hospital, county jail, or state prison must surrender the dead bodies of such persons as are required to be buried at the public expense to any physician or surgeon, to be by him used for the advancement of anatomical science, preference being always given to medical schools by law established in this state, for their use in the instruction of medical students. But if such deceased person during his last sickness requested to be buried, or if within forty-eight hours after his death some person claiming to be a kindred or a friend of deceased requires the body to be buried, or if such deceased person was a stranger or traveler who suddenly died before making himself known, such dead body must be buried without dissection. [L. '91, p. 227, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2429.]

§ 10028. [8410.] Conditions Precedent to Receiving Body.

Every physician or surgeon before receiving the dead body must give to the board or officer surrendering the same to him a certificate from the medical society of the county in which he resides, or if there is none, from the board of supervisors of the same, that he is a fit person to receive such dead body. He must also give a bond with two sureties, that each body so by him received will be used only for the promotion of anatomical science, and that it will be used for such purpose in this state only, and so as in no event to outrage the public feeling. [L. '91, p. 227, § 3; 1 H. C., § 2430.]

§ 10029. [8411.] Penalty for Violation of This Act.

Any person violating any provision of this chapter shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars. [L. '91, p. 227, § 4; 1 H. C., § 2431.]

CHAPTER III.

DENTISTRY.

§ 10030. [8416.] Examinations—Certificate.

Any person or persons seeking to practice dentistry in the state of Washington, or to [own,] operate or cause to be operated, [or to run or manage] a dental office or place for the practice of dentistry in the state of Washington after the passage of this act shall file his or her name, together with an application for examination, with the secretary of the state board of dental examiners, and at the time of making such application shall pay to the secretary of the board a fee of twenty-five dollars, and to present him or herself at the first regular meeting thereafter of said board to undergo examination before that body. No person shall be eligible for such an examination unless he or she shall be of good moral character and shall present to said board his or her diploma from some dental college in good standing and shall give satisfactory evidence of his or her rightful possession of the same: Provided, this section shall not apply to persons engaged in the practice of dentistry at the time of the passage of this act who are bona fide citizens of the state of Washington. All persons successfully passing such examination shall be registered as licensed dentists in the board register as hereinafter provided, and also receive a certificate, said certificate to be signed by the president and secretary of said board and in substantially the following form, to wit:

This is to certify that — is hereby licensed to practice dentistry in the state of Washington. This certificate must be filed for record in the office of the auditor of any county in which the party holding such certificate desires to practice, and it is unlawful for him (or her) to practice dentistry in any county in which said certificate is not filed for record.

An information for practicing dentistry without a license, in the language of the statute, is sufficient without alleging the nature of the disease or lesion or the treatment: State v. Austin, 103 Wash. 63, 173 Pac. 725.

Evidence of Practicing Without a License: See Remington's Digest, Phys., § 7; State v. Brown, 37 Wash. 106, 79 Pac. 638; State v. Sexton, 37 Wash. 110, 79 Pac. 634; State v. Newton, 39 Wash. 491, 81 Pac. 1002; State v. Thompson, 48 Wash. 683, 74 Pac. 667; State v. Littooy, 52 Wash. 87, 100 Pac. 170, 17 Ann. Cas. 292.

Right of corporation to practice dentistry. 19 Ann. Cas. 882.

§ 10031. [8417.] Certificate to be Recorded.

The certificates in this chapter provided for shall entitle the holder thereof to practice dentistry in any county in the state of Washington: Provided, such certificate shall first be filed for record in the office of the auditor of the county in which such holder desires to practice, and nothing herein contained shall be construed to permit any holder of any certificate to practice in any county in this state unless such certificate shall have been first recorded in the office of the auditor of such county as herein provided: Provided further, that any such holder of a certificate may practice in more than one or any number of counties in this state on having such certificate recorded in each of such counties in which such holder desires to so practice. Said board of dental examiners shall, upon satisfactory proof of the loss of any certificate issued under the provisions of this chapter, issue a new certificate in place thereof. Any person failing to pass the first examination successfully may demand a second examination at a subsequent meeting of said board, and no fee shall be charged to [for] said examination: Provided, that the second examination is taken before the expiration of one year. [L. '93, p. 91, § 5.]

See notes to § 10030.

§ 10032. [8418.] Register of Practicing Dentists—Certificate.

Every person having been admitted to the practice of dentistry by said board in this state after the approval of this act shall on or before the first day of July, 1901, cause his or her name, residence and place of business to be registered with the board of dental examiners, if not already registered. A statement of every such person that he was engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state at the time of approval of this act shall be verified under oath by him and placed with the board of dental examiners. It shall be the duty of the secretary of the said board to send to each person registered under the provisions of this act without fee a certificate similar in form to the other certificate provided for by this act, signed by the president and secretary of said board of examiners, which certificate the holder thereof shall have recorded with the county auditor of the county in which the holder desires to practice, within ninety days from the date of said certificate. [L. '93, p. 91, § 6; L. '01, p. 315, § 2.]

See notes to § 10030.

"Act" in this section refers to this chapter.

§ 10033. [8419.] Firms to Display Names of Employees.

Hereafter if any association or company of persons, whether incorporated or not, shall engage in the practice of dentistry under the name of "company," "association," or any other title, said company or association shall cause to be displayed and kept in a conspicuous place at the entrance to its place of business the name of each and every person employed by said company or association in the practice of dentistry; and any person employed by such company or association whose names shall not be displayed as above provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished as hereinafter provided, and the said association or company, if incorporated, or the persons comprising the same if not incorporated, shall for such failure to display the aforesaid name be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as hereinafter provided. [L. '01, p. 316, § 3.]

All of the act of 1901, except this section, was amendatory of sections of the earlier act.

§ 10034. [8420.] Auditor's Record.

The county auditor of each county is required to record, in a special book to be kept by him for that purpose, all certificates issued under the provisions of this chapter which may be presented to him for that purpose. After the record of any such certificate, such auditor shall return the same with a certificate of its record to the party entitled to the same. Said auditor shall receive for such filing and record a fee of one dollar. [L. '93, p. 92, § 7.]

§ 10035. [8421.] Penalty.

Any person who, as principal, agent, employer, employee or assistant, who in any manner whatsoever shall practice dentistry or who shall [own, run] operate or cause to be operated, [or manage] a dental office or headquarters in the state of Washington without having first filed for record and had recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein he shall so practice or do such act, a certificate from said board of dental examiners as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars, or be confined for any period not exceeding six months in the county jail for each and every offense: Provided, the foregoing provisions of this section shall not, prior to the tenth day of July, 1901, apply to any person who shall be practicing dentistry in this state at the time of the passage of this act and whose name shall be registered under the provisions of this act in the records of said board. After said tenth day of July, 1901, all the provisions of this section shall apply to all persons whomsoever. All fines recovered under this

An information for practicing dentistry without a license, in the language of the statute, is sufficient without alleging the nature of the disease or lesion or the treatment: State v. Littooy, 52 Wash. 87, 100 Pac. 170, 17 Ann. Cas. 292.

A complaint for practicing medicine without a license is sufficient where the acts constituting the offense are set forth in ordinary concise language without repetition in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what was intended: State v. Greiner, 63 Wash. 46, 114 Pac. 897.

An act providing a penalty for practicing dentistry without a license is not unconstitutional because of the failure of the title to specify that the act provides for a penalty, since the title of the act, "An act to regulate the practice of dentistry in the state of Washington," is comprehensive enough to include the means necessary to effect the object sought by the statute: State ex rel. Smith v. Dental Examiners, 31 Wash. 492, 72 Pac. 110.

§ 10036. [8422.] Certificate of Auditor as Evidence.

In any prosecution for misdemeanor under the provisions of this chapter, the certificate of the county auditor of the county within which such misdemeanor is alleged to have been committed, to the effect that there is no certificate of the board of dental examiners of this state on file in such auditor's office, issued under the provisions of this chapter to the person accused of such misdemeanor, shall be sufficient proof prima facie that such person is not entitled to practice dentistry in such county. [L. '93, p. 92, § 9.]

This section is not exclusive and does not preclude other proof: State v. Littooy, 52 Wash. 87, 100 Pac. 170.

§ 10037. [8423.] Fees—Compensation of Board.

Each member of the board of dental examiners shall receive a compensation of five dollars a day for each day in which he is actually and necessarily engaged in attendance upon the meetings of the board, and in going to and returning from the place of meeting, and all necessary expenses incurred in attending such meetings; all such compensation and all other expenses incident to the execution of the provisions of this act shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state auditor upon the presentation of proper vouchers to be approved by a majority of said board as in the case of state officers. The secretary of said board shall receive a compensation to be determined by said board not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum. He shall give surety bond to be approved by and deposited with the auditor of the state in the sum of one thousand dollars. The costs of said board shall be paid by the state. All money received or collected by said board or any member or officer thereof during any month shall be turned over to the state treasurer before the tenth day of the succeeding month together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. The board shall make an annual report of its proceedings to the governor on or before the first day of January of each year together with an account of money received and disbursed by them pursuant to this act. Where private counsel of the state dental board assisted in prosecutions instituted by the board, it will be presumed that the prosecuting attorney consented thereto as required by this section: State Board of Dental Examiners, 50 Wash. 100, 96 Pac. 693.

The authority of the state dental board to employ private counsel does not depend upon the consent of the prosecuting attorney, under this act, requiring the consent of the prosecuting attorney to assistance by private counsel in prosecutions by the state dental board; consent being necessary only to participation in the prosecution: Stern v. State Board of Dental Examiners, 50 Wash. 100, 96 Pac. 693.

§ 10038. [8424.] Practicing Dentistry Defined.

All persons shall be said to be practicing dentistry within the meaning of this chapter who shall contrary to this act for a fee or salary or other reward paid either to himself or another person for operations or parts of operations of any kind, treat diseases or lesions of the human teeth or of jaws or correct malpositions thereof, [or who shall own, run or manage a dental office or department] in the state of Washington, without registering and procuring the license as herein provided. § 10039. [8425.] Duties of Prosecuting Attorney.

It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney for each county to attend to the prosecution of all complaints made under this chapter, both upon the preliminary hearing in the justice court, or before any magistrate before whom such complaint may be made, and also upon any hearing in the court, either upon such complaint or upon any information or indictment filed against any person under this act: Provided, nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the prosecution of any person for violation of any provision of this chapter upon information of the prosecuting attorney directly. The attorney general of this state shall appear in the supreme court and attend to the prosecution of all criminal cases arising under this chapter which may be appealed to said court or be taken to said court by writ of error. CHAPTER IV.

VETERINARY.

§ 10040. [8426.] Veterinary Practice Defined.

Any person who shall be regarded as practicing veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry within the meaning of this chapter who shall, within this state, (a) by advertisement, or by any notice, sign, or other indication, or, by a statement written, printed or oral, in public or private, made, done, or procured by himself or herself, or any other, at his or her request, for his or her, claim, announce, make known or pretend his or her ability or willingness to diagnose or prognose diseases, deformities, defects, wounds, or injuries of animals; (b) or who shall so advertise or make known or claim his or her ability and willingness to prescribe or administer any drug, medicine, treatment, method or practice, or to perform any operation, manipulation, or apply any apparatus or appliance for cure, amelioration, correction or reduction or modification of any animal disease, deformity, defect, wound, or injury, for hire, fee, compensation, or reward, promised, offered, expected, received or accepted, directly or indirectly; (c) or who shall within this state diagnose or prognose any animal diseases, deformities, defects, wounds or injuries, for hire, fee, reward, or compensation promised, offered, expected, received, or accepted directly or indirectly; (d) or who shall within this state prescribe or administer any drug, medicine, treatment, method or practice, or perform any operation, or manipulation, or apply any apparatus or appliance for the cure, amelioration, alleviation, correction, or modification of any animal disease, deformity, defect, wound, or injury, for hire, fee, compensation, or reward, promised, offered, expected, received or accepted directly or indirectly. [L. '07, p. 228, § 1.]

Cited in 59 Wash. 320.

§ 10041. [8427.] Practice Unlawful, When.

It shall be unlawful for any person to practice the profession of veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry in this state, who shall not have complied with the provisions of this chapter. [L. '07, p. 229, § 2.]

§ 10042. [8428.] Practitioners Entitled to Registration.

Any person who has practiced the profession of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry as herein defined in this state for a period of two years immediately preceding the passage of this act may be deemed eligible to registration as an existing practitioner, and upon presentation to the secretary of the board of veterinary medical examiners, which shall be hereinafter constituted, his sworn affidavit and letters of recommendation from ten responsible freeholders and stock owners in his locality, all such applications to be made on or before July 1, 1907. [L. '07, p. 229, § 3.]

See infra, § 10854, duties of board devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, board of veterinary medical examiners abolished.

§ 10043. [8429.] Graduates of Veterinary College—Registration on Diploma.

Any person who is a graduate of a legally chartered and authorized veterinary college or veterinary department of any university or agricultural college, at the time of the passage of this act, or who shall hold a diploma from such institution prior to 1908, shall be entitled to registration as an existing practitioner upon the presentation of his diploma, duly verified: Provided, that this shall apply also to any member of the medical profession who can certify that he is a graduate of any reputable medical college in the United States, Canada or Great Britain. [L. '07, p. 229, § 4.]

§ 10044. [8431.] Powers of Board.

This board shall have power to make all needed regulations for its government and proper discharge of its duties in accordance with this chapter, and shall have power to administer oaths, and take testimony concerning all matters within its jurisdiction. [L. '07, p. 230, § 6.]

See notes to § 10042.

§ 10045. [8433.] Certificates to Existing Practitioners.

Said board shall receive applications for registration, according to sections 10042 and 10043, and shall issue a certificate of qualification to all applicants who conform to the requirements for such registration, signed by the members of the board: Provided, that the certificate thus granted specifically and plainly states whether or not the one to whom it is granted is a graduate in veterinary medicine. Such certificate shall be conclusive as to the rights of the lawful holder of the same to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry in this state. [L. '07, p. 230, § 8.]

See notes to § 10042.

§ 10046. [8434.] Fees.

The fee of registration shall be five dollars payable in advance to the secretary of the board. [L. '07, p. 231, § 9.]

§ 10047. [8435.] Examination—License—Fee.

From and after July 1, 1907, any person not authorized to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry in this state, and desiring to enter upon such practice, shall pass the examination required by said board of veterinary medical examiners. Any person passing the required examination shall be eligible to and shall receive a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, or dentistry within this state which license shall be signed by the members of the board. This license shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county in which said person resides, the recording fee to be paid by holder of certificate. The fee for such examination shall be fifteen dollars payable in advance to the secretary of the board. [L. '07, p. 231, § 10.]

§ 10048. [8436.] Temporary Certificate, Pending Meeting of Board.

Any person who is a graduate of a duly chartered recognized veterinary college or veterinary department of a university or agricultural college, who shall make application for examination under this chapter shall be given a temporary certificate to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry until the first meeting thereafter called and held by the board and no longer. Such temporary certificate must be surrendered at time of such meeting. Failure to surrender such certificate upon receipt of notice from the secretary of said board shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall subject the offender to the penalties provided in section 10051. [L. '07, p. 231, § 11.]

§ 10049. [8437.] Registry of Practitioners—Disposition of Fees and Funds.

The board shall keep a register of all registered practitioners in the state setting forth such facts as the board may see fit. All money received or collected by said board or any member or officer thereof during any month shall be turned over before the tenth day of the succeeding month to the state treasurer together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. The treasurer of said board shall give surety bond to be approved and deposited with the auditor of the state in the sum of one thousand dollars. The cost of said bond shall be paid by the state. [L. '13, p. 253, § 1. Cf. L. '07, p. 231, § 12.]

See notes to § 10042.

§ 10050. [8438.] Compensation of Board.

Each member of the board of veterinary medical examiners shall receive a compensation of five dollars per day for each day in which he is actually and necessarily engaged in attendance upon the meetings of the board and in going to and returning from the place of meeting and all necessary expenses incurred in attending such meetings. All such compensation and expenses and all other expenses incident to the execution of the provisions of this act shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state auditor upon the presentation of proper vouchers to be approved by a majority of said board as in the case of state officers. The secretary and treasurer of the board shall each receive a compensation to be determined by said board and not to exceed fifty dollars per annum. [L. '13, p. 253, § 2. Cf. L. '07, p. 232, § 13.]

See notes to § 10042.

§ 10051. [8439.] Penalty for Violations of Act.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than thirty days for each and every such offense. It shall be the duty of the county attorney of the county in which such violation occurs to conduct all proceedings against violators of this chapter. [L. '07, p. 232, § 14.]

§ 10052. [8440.] Persons Excepted from Operation of Act.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to apply to commissioned veterinarians in the United States army or to persons who only dehorn or vaccinate cattle, or castrate or spay domestic animals, or to persons who gratuitously treat diseased animals. [L. '07, p. 232, § 15.]

The gratuitous administration of hog cholera serum by one who is not a licensed veterinarian, and whose charge was merely for serum manufactured by him, does not violate this section, and does not render the manufacturer liable for the loss of hogs, there being no negligence in the manufacture or treatment: Peechos v. Johnson, 106 Wash. 163, 179 Pac. 78.

§ 10053. [8441.] Unlawfully Advertising as Veterinarian—Penalty.

Any person who shall, without having been authorized so to do legally, append any veterinary title to his name, or shall assume or advertise any veterinary title in such a manner as to convey the impression that he is a lawful practitioner of veterinary medicine or any of its branches, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished according to the provisions of section 10051 of this chapter. [L. '07, p. 232, § 16.]

§ 10054. [8442.] Re-examination.

In case the examination of any person shall prove unsatisfactory and his name be not registered he shall be permitted to present himself for re-examination within any period not exceeding twelve months next thereafter, and no charges shall be made for re-examination. [L. '07, p. 232, § 17.]

§ 10055. [8443.] Board to Render Account to Governor.

The board shall render on or before January 1st of each year to the governor a concise statement or report of all matters pertaining to the duties imposed upon the board in this act and making such suggestions as they shall deem expedient and proper. [L. '13, p. 254, § 3. Cf. '07, p. 232, § 18.]

See notes to § 10042.

CHAPTER V.

OSTEOPATHY.

§ 10056. Certification—Forms—Qualifications to Practice.

Two forms of certificates shall be issued by said board under the seal thereof, and signed by the president and secretary-treasurer: First, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice osteopathy; second, a certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice osteopathy and surgery.

In order to procure a certificate to practice osteopathy, the applicant for such certificate must file with said board at least thirty days prior to a regular meeting thereof, satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and a diploma issued by some legally chartered school of osteopathy and surgery, the requirements of which shall have been at the time of granting such diploma in no particular less than those prescribed by the Association of Osteopathic Colleges for that year, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, and he must file with such diploma an application sworn to before some person authorized to administer oaths, and attested by the hand and seal of such officer, if he have a seal, stating that he is the person named in said diploma, that he is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. The said application shall be made upon a blank furnished by said board, and it shall contain such information concerning said medical instruction and the preliminary education of the applicant as said board may by rule provide: Applicants who have failed to meet the requirements must be rejected.

An applicant for a license to practice osteopathy and surgery must furnish evidence that he has served for not less than one year as interne in a thoroughly equipped hospital which shall have had at least twenty-five beds for each interne devoted to the treatment of medical, surgical, gynecological and special diseases, and he also must have had a service of six weeks, or the equivalent thereof in the maternity department of the same or some other hospital, during which time he shall have attended or participated in the attendance upon not less than six confinements. He shall furnish evidence that he has had sufficient experience in and a practical working knowledge of pathology, and the administering of anaesthetics: Provided that when an applicant who has graduated before July, 1917, has not completed one year as interne as above provided, he must furnish evidence that he has been engaged in the active practice of osteopathy for a period of at least two years prior to that date: Provided further, that any person holding a valid unrevoked certificate to practice osteopathy in the state of Washington who is a graduate of a college recognized by the Association of Osteopathic Colleges and desiring a certificate to practice osteopathy and surgery shall be examined in surgery and the management of surgical cases (including anaesthetics) and be granted said certificate if satisfactorily passing said examination. [L. '19, p. 5, § 4.]

"Said board" the board of osteopathic examiners.

§ 10057. Examination of Applicants.

In addition to the requirements above set forth, such applicants for a certificate must be personally examined by said board as to their qualifications. The examination shall be conducted in the English language, shall be practical in character and designed to discover the applicant's fitness to practice osteopathy, and shall be in whole or in part in writing on the following fundamental subjects, to wit: Anatomy, histology, gynecology, pathology, bacteriology, chemistry, toxicology, physiology, obstetrics, general diagnosis, hygiene, principles and practice of osteopathy and any other branches thereof that the board shall deem advisable. Provided, that those seeking a certificate to practice osteopathy and surgery shall also taken [take] an examination in surgery and the management of surgical cases (including anaesthetics) before being granted said certificate. Examination in each subject shall consist of not less than ten questions, answers to which shall be marked upon a scale of zero to ten. All applicants must obtain not less than sixty per cent in any one subject. The examination papers shall form a part of the records of the board and shall be kept on file by the secretary for a period of one year after examination. In said examination the applicant shall be known and designated by number only, and the name attached to the number shall be kept secret until after the board has finally voted upon the application. [L. '19, p. 7, § 5.]

See notes to § 10056.

§ 10058. Examination and License Fees — Annual License Fee — Disposition—Bond—Expenses.

Each applicant on making application shall pay the secretary-treasurer of the board a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) which shall be paid to the state treasurer by said secretary-treasurer and used to defray the expenses and compensation of said board. In case the applicant's credentials are insufficient, or in case he does not desire to take the examination, the sum of fifteen dollars ($15) shall be returned. All persons licensed to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery within this state who are engaged in active practice shall pay on or before the first day of May of each year to the secretary-treasurer of the said board a renewal license fee of five dollars ($5), except that the first payment after the passage of this act shall be paid on or before the first day of August 1917. This fee shall be reduced to two ($2) dollars after 1925. Licenses not so renewed will not be valid. The secretary-treasurer shall thirty (30) days or more before May 1st of each year mail to all active practitioners of osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state at their last known address a notice of the fact that the renewal fee will be due on or before the first of May: except that the first notice after the passage of this act shall be sent on or before July 11, 1917. Nothing in this act shall be construed so as to require that the receipt shall be recorded as original licenses are required to be recorded.

All money received or collected by said board or any member or officer thereof, during any month, shall be turned over, before the tenth day of the succeeding month to the state treasurer together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. The secretary-treasurer of said board shall give surety bond to be approved by and deposited with the auditor of the state, in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), the cost of said bond shall be paid by the state.

Each member of said board shall receive a compensation of five dollars ($5) per day for each day in which he is actually and necessarily engaged in attendance upon meetings of the board, in going to and returning from the place of meeting, and all necessary expenses incurred in attending such meetings. All such compensation and expenses, and all other expenses incident to the execution of the provisions of this act shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state auditor upon the presentation of proper vouchers to be approved by a majority of said board, as in the case of state officers: Provided the expense does not exceed the receipts of said board. The secretary-treasurer of said board shall receive a compensation to be determined by said board not to exceed fifty ($50) dollars per annum. [L. '19, p. 8, § 6.]

See notes to § 10056.

§ 10059. Records of Board.

Said board shall keep an official record of all its proceedings, a part of which record shall consist of a register of all applicants for certificates under this act, with the result of such application. Said record shall be evidence of all the proceedings of said board which are set forth therein. [L. '19, p. 9, § 7.]

§ 10060. Recordation of Certificates.

Every person holding a certificate authorizing him to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state, must have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the holder of said certificate is practicing his profession, and the fact of such recording shall be indorsed on the certificate by the county clerk recording the same. Every such person, on each change of his residence, must have the certificate recorded in the county to which he shall have changed his residence. The absence of such record shall be prima facie evidence of the want of possession of such certificate. And any person holding a certificate to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state who shall attempt to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state without first having filed his certificate with the county clerk as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 9, § 8.]

§ 10061. County Clerk's Record and Duties.

The county clerk shall keep in a book provided for the purpose, a complete list of the certificates recorded by him, with the date of the record; and said book shall be open to public inspection during his office hours. The county clerk shall forthwith give written notice to the secretary of the board, notifying him of the name of each licensee recorded after this act shall go into effect, together with the date of such recording. [L. '19, p. 10, § 9.]

§ 10062. Refusal of Certificate for Unprofessional Conduct—Procedure.

Said board must refuse a certificate to any applicant guilty of unprofessional conduct; but before such refusal the applicant must be cited by citation, signed by the secretary-treasurer of the board, and sealed with its seal. No such citation shall be issued except upon a sworn complaint filed with the secretary-treasurer of the board, charging the applicant with having been guilty of unprofessional conduct, and setting forth the particular act constituting such unprofessional conduct. On filing of such complaint the secretary-treasurer must forthwith issue a citation and make the same returnable at a regular or special meeting of said board, occurring at least thirty days next after filing the complaint. Such citation shall notify the applicant of the time and place when and where the matter of said unprofessional conduct shall be heard, the particular unprofessional conduct with which the applicant is charged, and that the applicant shall file his written answer, under oath, within twenty days next after service upon him of said citation, or default will be taken against him, and his application for certificate refused. The attendance of witnesses at such hearing shall be compelled by subpoenas issued by the secretary-treasurer of the board under its seal; and said secretary-treasurer shall in no case refuse to issue any such subpoena, upon a fee of twenty cents being paid him for each subpoena. Said citation and said subpoenas shall be served in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to the service of summons and subpoenas generally and all provisions of the statutes of this state then in force relating to subpoenas are hereby made applicable to the subpoenas provided for herein. If any person refuses to obey a subpoena served upon him in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force providing for the manner of service [of] subpoenas, the fact of such refusal shall be certified by the secretary-treasurer of said board, under the seal thereof, to the superior court of the county in which the service was had and the said court shall thereupon proceed to hear said matter in accordance with the statutes of this state then in force as to contempt for disobedience of process of the court, and should said court find that the subpoena had been legally served and that the party so served has willfully disobeyed the same, it shall proceed to impose such penalty as provided in cases of contempt of court. In all cases of alleged unprofessional conduct arising under this act, testimonies of witnesses may be taken, the same as in civil cases, and all the provisions of the statutes of this state then in force as to the taking of testimony are hereby made applicable to the taking of depositions under this section. If the applicant shall fail to file with the secretary-treasurer of said board his answer, under oath, to the charges made against him, within twenty days after service on him of said citation or within such further time as the board may give him, and the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, default shall be entered against him and his application refused. If the charges on their face be deemed sufficient by the board, and issue be joined thereon by answer, the board shall proceed to determine the matter, and to that end shall hear such evidence as may be adduced before it; and if it appear to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant is guilty as charged, no certificate shall be issued to him. No certificate shall be refused on the grounds of unprofessional conduct unless the applicant has been guilty of such conduct within two years next preceding his application. Whenever any holder of a certificate to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state is guilty of unprofessional conduct, as the same is defined in this act, and said unprofessional conduct has been brought to the attention of the board in the manner hereinafter pointed out, or whenever a certificate has been procured by fraud or misrepresentation, or issued by mistake, it shall be their duty to, and they must, revoke the same at once, and the holder of said certificate shall not be permitted to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state. But no revocation shall be made unless such holder is cited to appear and the same proceedings are had as is hereinbefore provided in this section in case of refusal to issue certificates. Said secretary-treasurer in all cases of revocation shall enter on his register the fact of such revocation and shall certify the fact of such revocation under the seal of the board, to the county clerk of each county in which the certificate of the person whose certificate has been revoked is recorded; and said clerk must thereupon write upon the margin or across the face of his register the certificate of such person, the following: "This certificate was revoked on the — day of —, —," giving the day, month and year of revocation in accordance with certification to him by the secretary-treasurer. The record of such revocation so made by said county clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the fact thereof, and of the regularity of all the proceedings of said board in the matter of said revocation. From the time of the revocation of a certificate the holder thereof shall be disqualified from practicing osteopathy or surgery in this state. [L. '19, p. 10, § 10.]

See notes to § 10056.

§ 10063. Unprofessional Conduct Defined.

The words "unprofessional conduct," as used in this chapter, are hereby declared to mean:

First. The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion.

Second. The willfully betraying of a professional secret.

Third. All advertising of any kind or character other than the carrying of a professional card, window or street sign.

Fourth. All advertising of any medicine or of any means whereby the monthly periods of women can be regulated or the menses re-established if suppressed.

Fifth. Conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of such conviction shall be conclusive evidence.

Sixth. Habitual intemperance.

Seventh. The personation of another licensed practitioner of a like or different name.

Eighth. Exploiting or advertising through the press, or by the use of handbills, circulars or other periodicals, other than professional cards, giving only name, address, profession, office hours and telephone connections. [L. '19, p. 13, § 11.]

See notes to § 10056.

§ 10064. Record of Revocation and Refusal of Licenses.

§ 10065. Appeals from Action of Board—Procedure.

In any case of the refusal or revocation of a license by said board under the provisions of this act, the applicant whose application shall be so refused, and the licentiate whose license shall be so revoked by said board, shall have the right to appeal from the decision so refusing or revoking such license within thirty days after the filing of such decision in the office of the secretary-treasurer of said board, as hereinbefore in this chapter provided. Such appeal shall be to the superior court in and for the county in which was held the last general meeting of said board, prior to the refusal of such license, in the case of such refusal; and to the superior court in and for the county in which the hearing was had upon which such license was revoked, in case of such revocation. In any case a person desiring to take such appeal shall serve or cause to be served upon the secretary-treasurer of said board, a written notice of such appeal, which shall contain a statement of the grounds of such appeal, and shall file in the office of such secretary-treasurer an appeal bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by said secretary-treasurer to the state of Washington, conditioned for the speedy prosecution of such appeal, and the payment of such cost as may be adjudged against him upon such appeal. Said secretary-treasurer shall within ten (10) days after the service of said notice of appeal, and the filing and approval of said appeal bond, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which such appeal is taken, a certified copy, under the seal of said board, of the decision of said board, and the grounds thereof in the case of the refusal of the license; and in addition thereto, a certified copy under such seal of the complaint in the case of the revocation of a license, together with the bond and notice of appeal. The clerk of such court shall thereupon docket such appeal causes, and they shall stand for trial in all respects as ordinary civil actions, and like proceedings be had thereon. Upon such appeal said cause shall be tried de novo. Either party may appeal from the judgment of said superior court to the supreme court of the state in like manner as in civil actions within sixty (60) days after the rendition and entry of such judgment in said superior court. If such judgment shall be in favor of the party appealing from the decision of said board, and in case said examining board does not appeal from said judgment within sixty (60) days, then in that case, said board shall, at the end of said sixty (60) days, and immediately upon the expiration thereof, issue to such successful party the usual license to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state, and in addition thereto, shall reinstate upon the records of said board the name of such successful applicant, in case of the revocation of his license by such board. In case of such appeal to the supreme court by said board, no such license shall be issued nor reinstatement be required until the final determination of said cause, and as hereinafter provided. In case the final decision of the supreme court be against said medical examining board, then, and in that case, said court shall make such order in the premises as may be necessary, and said board shall act accordingly: Provided, that in no case shall an appeal bond be required of said board, nor shall any costs be adjudged or taxed against the same. [L. '19, p. 14, § 13.]

See notes to § 10056.

§ 10066. Illegal Practice a Misdemeanor—Disposition of Fines.

Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice, or hold himself out as practicing osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state, without having, at the time of so doing, a valid, unrevoked certificate as provided in this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. In each such conviction the fine shall be paid, when collected, to the state treasurer, and shall constitute a special fund to be used by the board created in this act, for the prosecution of illegal practitioners as defined in this act, and the said board is authorized to prosecute all persons guilty of a violation of the provisions of this act. [L. '19, p. 15, § 14.]

§ 10067. False Personation of Certificate Holder.

Every person filing for record, or attempting to file for record, the certificate issued to another, falsely claiming himself to be the person named in such certificate, or falsely claiming himself to be the person entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to such penalties as are provided by the laws of this state for the crime of forgery. [L. '19, p. 16, § 15.]

§ 10068. Wrongfully Acting as Board Member.

Any person assuming to act as a member of the state board of osteopathic examiners without so being, or who shall sign, or subscribe, or issue, or cause to be issued, or seal, or cause to be sealed, a certificate authorizing any person to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery in this state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '19, p. 16, § 16.]

§ 10069. Licenses Under Pre-existing Laws or from Other States.

Any person who holds a license authorizing him to practice osteopathy from a board of medical examiners heretofore existing, under the provision of any laws of this state, past or present, shall be entitled to practice osteopathy in this state the same as if issued under this act, and any person, who shall have been examined and licensed to practice osteopathy by a state board of osteopathic examiners of another state or the duly constituted authorities of another state authorized to issue licenses to practice osteopathy upon examination, shall be entitled to receive a license to practice osteopathy in this state upon the payment of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) to the state treasurer and filing a copy of his license in such other state, duly certified by the authorities granting the license to be a full, true and correct copy thereof, and certifying also that the standard of requirements adopted by such authorities as provided by the law of such state is equal to that provided for by the provisions of this act: Provided, that no license shall issue without examination to any person who has previously failed in an examination held in this state: Provided, further, that all licenses herein mentioned may be revoked for unprofessional conduct, in the same manner and upon the same grounds as if issued under this act: Provided, further, that the term osteopathy, as used in this act, shall be held to be the practice and procedure as taught and recognized by the regular colleges of osteopathy: Provided, further, that no one shall be permitted to practice surgery who has not a license therefor. [L. '21, p. 224, § 1; L. '19, p. 16, § 17.]

§ 10070. Subject to Health Regulations.

All persons granted licenses or certificates under this act shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying to births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal. [L. '19, p. 17, § 18.]

Osteopath as a physician within meaning of statute in relation to vital statistics.
8 A. L. R. 1070.

§ 10071. Persons Exempt from Provisions of Act.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of family remedies, or the practice of midwifery; nor shall this act apply to any commissioned medical officer in the United States army, navy, or marine hospital service, in the discharge of his official duties; nor to any licensed dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry; nor shall this act apply to any practitioner from any other state or territory in which he resides. Provided, that such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients or receive calls within the limits of this state.

• This act shall not be construed to apply in any manner to any other system or method of treating the sick or afflicted or to apply to or interfere in any way with the practice of religion or any kind of treatment by prayer. [L. '19, p. 17, § 19.]

§ 10072. Advertising Matter to Carry Word "Osteopathic."

On all cards, signs, letter-heads, envelopes and bill-heads used by those licensed by this act to practice osteopathy or osteopathy and surgery the word "osteopathic" shall always immediately precede the word "physician" and if the word "surgeon" is used in connection with said name, the word "osteopathic" shall also immediately precede said word "surgeon." [L. '19, p. 17, § 20.]

§ 10073. Interchangeable Terms.

The words "certificates" and "licenses" shall be known as interchangeable terms in this act. [L. '19, p. 18, § 21.]

CHAPTER VI.

CHIROPODY.

§ 10074. Chiropody Defined.

For the purpose of this act the practice of chiropody is defined to be the surgical, mechanical and medical treatment of bunions, corns, abnormal nails, warts, callouses and all superficial excrescences; but shall not include surgical operations upon the feet for congenital or acquired deformities or conditions, requiring the use of anaesthetics other than local, nor shall it include amputations. [L. '21, p. 380, § 1; L. '17, p. 186, § 1.]

§ 10075. License Required.

From and after sixty days from the taking effect of this act it shall be unlawful for any person to practice chiropody in this state without having first obtained a license so to do as in this act provided, and without having recorded such license in the office of the county clerk of the county where the licensee shall reside or practice his profession, and without having his said license on exhibition in a conspicuous place in his office or place of business. [L. '17, p. 187, § 2.]

§ 10076. License of Existing Practitioners—Application Fee.

Licenses for the practice of chiropody shall be issued by the state board of chiropody without examination to all persons who shall within sixty days from the taking effect of this act have and maintain a fixed place of business with the necessary facilities for the sterilization of instruments, and who shall at the time of making application file with said board an affidavit to the effect that he or she has such fixed place of business, and is a resident of the state, and been engaged in the practice of chiropody in this state for at least two years prior to making application; said application to be accompanied by the certificate of two licensed physicians resident at the place of business of the applicant, to the effect that they are acquainted with the applicant and believe him or her to be a person of good moral character. Said applicant shall at the time of making application pay to the said board the sum of ten dollars ($10). [L. '17, p. 187, § 3.]

See infra, § 10854, duties of board devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, board of chiropody abolished.

§ 10077. Examination of Applicants.

The state board of chiropody shall as herein provided examine applicants for licenses to practice chiropody and said board shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to properly conduct such examinations, such examinations to relate only to the following subjects: Anatomy, physiology, pathology, bacteriology, chemistry, therapeutics, clinical chiropody, asepsis, diagnosis and treatment. Not less than ten questions on each subject may be given, and all such examinations shall be conducted in the English language written, oral and clinical. The board shall make and preserve a complete record of all its transactions. [L. '21, p. 380, § 2; L. '17, p. 187, § 4.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10078. Record of Licensees.

The secretary of the state board of chiropody shall keep in a book kept for that purpose, a record showing the name, age, place of residence, the time spent in the study and practice of chiropody, the time spent in schools of chiropody, and the date of graduation therefrom and the degree if any, and the date and number of the license issued to such applicant, and whether the same was issued upon or without examination; and the copy of such record certified by the secretary of said board shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated in all courts and all actions and proceedings where proof of such facts is competent. [L. '17, p. 188, § 5.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10079. Application for License.

Before any person shall be permitted to take an examination for the issuance of a license under the provisions of this act he or she shall file an application on a form to be prepared and furnished by the state board of chiropody, signed and verified by the applicant, showing that he or she is more than twenty-one years of age, and has obtained a preliminary education which is equivalent to a four years' instruction in a high school or its equivalent, and such applicant must be a graduate with at least two years' attendance of a legally incorporated and recognized school of chiropody, and shall file a certificate signed by two licensed physicians of this state to the effect that they are acquainted with the applicant and believe him or her to be a person of good moral character. All licenses issued under the provisions of this act, whether with or without examination, shall be identical in form, and shall be numbered and recorded in the book kept for that purpose by the secretary of the state board of chiropody, and shall be signed by the president of said board, and attested by the secretary under the official seal of the board. [L. '21, p. 381, § 3; L. '17, p. 188, § 6.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10080. Re-examinations.

An applicant who fails to pass an examination satisfactory to the board, and is therefore refused registration, shall be entitled, at the expiration of six months from the date of the examination at which he failed, to a re-examination at a meeting of the board called for the examination of applicants, upon the payment of a fee of fifteen dollars ($15) for each such re-examination. [L. '21, p. 381, § 4; L. '17, p. 188, § 7.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10081. Minimum Requirement.

The minimum requirement for registration of applicants under this act shall be based upon a general average of seventy-five per cent of all the subjects involved taken collectively, and not less than fifty per cent in any one subject. [L. '17, p. 189, § 8.]

§ 10082. License Fee.

Every applicant for a license to practice chiropody shall pay to the secretary of the state board of chiropody, for the use of the state, the sum of thirty-five dollars ($35) and a renewal for each year of three dollars ($3). [L. '21, p. 382, § 5; L. '17, p. 189, § 9.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10083. Evidence of Practice of Chiropody.

It shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the practice of chiropody or as holding himself out as a practitioner of chiropody within the meaning of this act for any person to treat in any manner the human foot by medical, surgical or mechanical means or appliances, or to use the title "chiropodist" or any other words or letters which designate or tend to designate to the public that the person so treating or holding himself out to treat, is a chiropodist. [L. '21, p. 382, § 6; L. '17 p. 189, § 10.]

§ 10084. License to be Filed With County Clerk.

It shall be the duty of everyone licensed to practice chiropody under the provisions of this act, to file his license and have the same recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county where the licensee resides or practices his profession, and the absence of such record in any county where such person shall practice or attempt to practice chiropody, shall be prima facie proof of the fact that such person is not licensed to practice chiropody; and it shall be unlawful for any person to practice or attempt to practice chiropody in any county without having first had his license recorded in said county as herein provided. [L. '17, p. 189, § 11.]

§ 10085. Clerk's Record.

It shall be the duty of the county clerk of each county to record in a book kept for that purpose, licenses issued under the provisions of this act and filed for record in his office, and to collect for such license so recorded a fee of one dollar ($1), and to, at any time upon request of the state board of chiropody certify to the board a list of all licenses so recorded in his office giving the number of each license and the name of the licensee together with such other information as the board may require. [L. '17, p. 189, § 12.]

§ 10086. Revocation of License.

The state board of chiropody may revoke any license under the provisions of this act upon proof being made that the holder of such license has been convicted of a violation of any of the provisions of this act, or of the commission of any crime involving moral turpitude, or that the license was procured by fraud or deceit practiced upon the board either in the presentation of any false statement as to the qualifications of the applicant or in the examination of the applicant, or for unprofessional conduct or inefficiency in the practice of his profession by the licensee; and unprofessional conduct shall include the employment of persons to solicit business for the licensee, the obtaining of any fee by fraud or misrepresentation, the willful betrayal of professional secrets, the employment directly or indirectly of any student or unlicensed chiropodist to perform operations of any kind except dressing following an operation, advertising by means tending to deceive the public, or being habitually intemperate or grossly immoral. Before any license shall be revoked the licensee shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint or the charges against him, and be given a hearing before the state board of chiropody, and may be represented by legal counsel. [L. '17, p. 190, § 13.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10087. Record of Refusals and Revocations—Notice to County Clerk.

In case the state board of chiropody shall refuse to grant a license upon application being made therefor under the provisions of this act, or in case the board shall revoke any license issued under the provisions of this act, the secretary of the board shall make and file in the records of this [his] office a concise statement of the grounds and reasons for such refusal or revocation, which statement together with the decision of the board in writing and signed by the president of the board shall remain a permanent record, and upon the revocation of any license as herein provided the secretary of the board shall notify the clerk of the county where such license is recorded of the fact of such revocation, and the clerk shall thereupon cancel the record in his office and note the fact that such license has been revoked. [L. '17, p. 190, § 14.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10088. Appeals to Superior Court.

Any person feeling himself aggrieved by the order of the state board of chiropody in refusing to grant him a license or in revoking his license shall have the right to appeal to the superior court of the county where the meeting of the board was held at which the order refusing to grant a license, or revoking a license was entered. [L. '17, p. 191, § 15.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10089. Use of Title "Doctor."

It shall be unlawful for any persons licensed to practice chiropody under the provisions of this act to use, advertise or display the title "doctor" or its synonyms independent of the title "chiropodist" or its synonyms, and it shall be unlawful for any person to exhibit as his own any license that has not been issued to him. [L. '17, p. 191, § 16.]

§ 10090. Office Requirements.

Every person practicing chiropody in this state shall maintain an office for the treatment of patients, which office shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition and equipped with the proper facilities for sterilizing all instruments, and no instrument of any kind shall be used on any person before it has been thoroughly sterilized. [L. '21, p. 382, § 7; L. '17, p. 191, § 17.]

§ 10091. Physicians and Surgeons not Affected.

Nothing in this act contained shall be construed as preventing any licensed physician, surgeon, osteopath or other person licensed to treat the sick and afflicted, from treating the hands or feet by the methods and means permitted by his license, nor to prevent the domestic administration of family remedies, nor shall this act be construed to discriminate against any particular school of medicine or surgery or osteopathy and surgery, or any licensed system or mode of treating the sick or afflicted, or to interfere in any way with the practice of religion: Provided, that nothing herein shall be held to apply to or to regulate any kind of treatment by prayer. [L. '17, p. 191, § 18.]

§ 10092. Partial Invalidity.

If any provision of this act shall be held void or unconstitutional, all other provisions and all other sections of the act which are not expressly held to be void or unconstitutional shall continue in full force and effect. [L. '17, p. 191, § 19.]

§ 10093. State Board of Chiropody—Appointment—Meetings.

Within thirty days after the taking effect of this act there shall be appointed by the governor a state board of chiropody consisting of three chiropodists in active practice within the state of Washington for at least two years, whose duties shall be as prescribed in the preceding sections of this act. Said board shall be appointed for a term of four years without salary, but shall be paid their actual traveling expenses when engaged in the work as herein provided, upon proper vouchers approved by the state auditor. All sums paid for licenses and examinations shall be paid into the state treasury in a separate fund and shall be paid out only upon warrants drawn by the state auditor, but in no case shall the amounts paid exceed the amounts obtained for licenses and examinations.

10094 PHYSICIANS, SURGEONS AND TREATMENT OF THE SICK. [TITLE LXVIII

Said board shall meet on the eighteenth day of July, 1917, and organize by electing a president and secretary, each of whom shall hold his office for four years, vacancies to be filled in the usual manner, and thereafter said board shall meet once every six months alternately at Seattle, Spokane and Tacoma for the purpose of holding examinations as herein provided, the time and place of said examinations to be given applicants by mail. The headquarters of said board shall be the place of residence of the secretary and each officer shall take the oath prescribed by law for public officers. [L. '17, p. 192, § 20.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10094. Violations of Act.

Every person violating or failing to comply with the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly. [L. '17, p. 192, § 21.]

§ 10095. Suspension of Certificate for Misconduct.

The board may suspend any certificate granted under this act for a period not exceeding six months, on account of misconduct on the part of the person registered which would not in the judgment of the board justify the revocation of his or her certificate. [L. '21, p. 382, § 8.]

See notes to § 10076.

§ 10096. Renewal of Lapsed License.

Any license provided for in this act that has been allowed to lapse may be renewed by presentation of a new character certificate as required for examination, together with the payment of the annual license fee. [L. '21, p. 383, § 9.]

§ 10097. Applicants of Other States.

Applicants registered or certified by examiners of other states where requirements are equal to those of this state may, upon the payment of a fee of thirty-five dollars ($35), be granted a certificate without examination: Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall be extended only to those states which extend to this state the same privilege. [L. '21, p. 383, § 10.]

CHAPTER VII.

CHIROPRACTIC PRACTICE.

§ 10098. Powers and Duties of Board—Record of Proceedings.

. . . . (c) Said board [of chiropractic examiners] shall have authority to administer oaths, take affidavits, summon witnesses and take testimony as to matters pertaining to their duties. They shall adopt a seal, which shall be affixed to all licenses issued by them and shall from time to time adopt such rules and regulations as they deem proper and necessary for the performance of their duties, and they shall adopt a schedule of minimum educational requirements, which shall be without prejudice, partiality or discrimination as to the different schools of chiropractic. The secretary of said board shall at all times keep a record of the proceedings of the board which shall at all times be open to public inspection. Said board shall also keep on file with the secretary of state a copy of their rules and regulations for public inspection, and shall elect annually a president, vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum.

(d) No professor or person financially interested in any chiropractic school or college shall be a member of said board.

(e) A license to practice chiropractic within this state shall be issued to the individual members of said board at the first meeting of said board upon the payment of the regular fee as provided for in this act. [L. '19, p. 19, § 3.]

See infra, § 10854, duties devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, board of chiropractic examiners abolished.

Validity of special regulation of chiropractic treatment of disease. Ann. Cas. 1917B, 798.

§ 10099. Practicing Without License.

It shall be unlawful for any person to practice chiropractic in this state, unless they shall have obtained a license as provided in this act: Provided, however, that nothing in this act shall apply to or affect any persons who are now actually engaged in the practice of such profession, except as hereinafter provided. [L. '19, p. 20, § 4. Cf. L. '17, p. 187, § 2.]

§ 10100. Application for Licenses—Qualifications—Fees.

(a) Any person wishing the right to practice chiropractic in this state, before it shall be lawful for him to do so, shall make application to the said board of chiropractic examiners through the secretary-treasurer thereon [thereof], upon such form thereof and in such manner as may be adopted and directed by the board at least fifteen (15) days prior to any meeting of said board. Each applicant shall be a graduate of a chartered chiropractic school or college which teaches a course of two years of nine months each or more, or its equivalent, requiring actual attendance in same. Applications shall be in writing and shall be signed by the applicant in his own handwriting and shall be sworn to before some officer authorized to administer oath[s], and shall recite the history of the applicant as to his educational advantages, his experience in matters pertaining to a knowledge of the care of the sick, how long he has studied chiropractic, under what teachers, what collateral branches, if any, he has studied, the length of time he has engaged in clinical practice; accompanying the same by reference therein, with any proof thereof in the shape of diplomas, certificates, and shall accompany said application with satisfactory evidence of good character and reputation.

(b) There shall be paid to the secretary-treasurer of the state board of chiropractic examiners by each applicant for a license, a fee of twenty-five dollars, ten dollars of which shall accompany application and the remainder, fifteen dollars, shall be paid upon issuance of license. Like fees shall be paid for any subsequent examination and application. [L. '19, p. '20, § 5.]

Part of this section omitted as superseded. See notes to § 10098.

10101 PHYSICIANS, SURGEONS AND TREATMENT OF THE SICK. [TITLE LXVIII

§ 10101. Examinations—Subjects for Examination.

Examinations for license to practice chiropractic shall be made by said board according to the method deemed by it to be the most practicable and expeditious to test the applicant's qualifications. Such application shall be designated by a number instead of his or her name, so that the identity [shall] not be discovered or disclosed to the members of the board until after the examination papers are graded.

(b) All examinations shall be made in writing, the subject of which shall be as follows: Anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, nerve-tracing, chiropractic-orthopedy, principles of chiropractic and adjusting, as taught by chiropractic schools and colleges. A license shall be granted to all applicants who shall correctly answer seventy-five per centum (75%) of all questions asked, and if any applicant shall fail to answer correctly sixty per centum (60%) of the questions on any branch of said examination, he or she shall not be entitled to a license.

(c) Any chiropractor who has complied with the provisions of this act may adjust by hand any articulation of the spine, but shall not prescribe for or administer to any person any medicine or drugs now or hereafter included in materia medica, nor practice obstetrics, nor practice osteopathy or surgery. [L. '19, p. 21, § 6. Cf. L. '17, p. 187, § 4.]

See notes to § 10098.

§ 10102. Examinations Dispensed With, When.

All chiropractors practicing within this state six (6) months prior to the passage of this act and who shall be a graduate of a chartered school or college of chiropractic requiring actual attendance in the same, during his course, shall be granted a license as herein provided, without examination, provided that application be made within sixty (60) days after the taking effect of this act and accompanied by the required fee, as herein provided. [L. '19, p. 22, § 7.]

§ 10103. Revocation and Refusal of Licenses—Restoration of Right.

(a) The state board of chiropractic examiners may refuse to grant or may revoke a license to practice chiropractic in this state or may cause a licentiate's name to be removed from the records in the office of the county clerk of any county in this state upon any of the following grounds, to-wit: The employment of fraud or deception in applying for a license or in passing an examination provided for in this act; the practice of chiropractic under a false or assumed name, or the impersonation of another practitioner of like or different name; the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude; habitual intemperance in the use of ardent spirits, narcotics or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of their professional duties, exploiting or advertising through the press, or by the use of handbills, circulars or other periodicals, other than professional cards, giving only name, address, profession, office hours and telephone connections. Any person who is a licentiate, or who is an applicant for a license to practice chiropractic against whom any of the foregoing grounds for revoking or refusing a license, is presented to said board with a view of having the board revoke or refuse to grant a license, shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint, and shall have a hearing before said board in person or by attorney, and witnesses may be examined by said board respecting the guilt or innocence of said accused.

(b) Said board may at any time within two years of the refusal or revocation or cancellation of registration under this section, by a majority vote, issue a new license or grant a license to the person affected, restoring him to, or conferring upon him all rights and privileges of, and pertaining to the practice of chiropractic as defined and regulated by this act. Any person to whom such have been resotred [restored] shall pay to the secretary-treasurer the sum of twenty-five dollars upon issuance of a new license. [L. '19, p. 22, § 8. Cf. L. '17, p. 190, § 13.]

See notes to § 10098.

§ 10104. Recordation of Licenses—Cancellation for Failure to Record.

(a) Every person who shall receive a license from the state board of chiropractic examiners shall have it recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which he resides and shall likewise have it recorded in the counties to which he shall subsequently remove for the purpose of practicing chiropractic.

(b) The failure or refusal on the part of the holder of a license to have it recorded before he or she shall begin the practice of chiropractic in this state after having been notified by the state board of chiropractic examiners to do so, shall be sufficient grounds to revoke or cancel a license and render it null and void. The county clerk shall keep for public inspection, in a book provided for that purpose, a complete list and description of the licenses recorded by him. When any such licenses shall be presented to him for record, he shall stamp upon the face thereof his signed memorandum of the date when such license was presented for record. [L. '19, p. 23, § 9.]

See notes to § 10098.

§ 10105. Annual License Fee—Notice to Practitioners.

All persons practicing chiropractic within this state shall pay on or before the first day of September of each year, after a license is issued to them as herein provided, to said board of chiropractic examiners a renewal license fee of five ($5) dollars. The secretary-treasurer shall, thirty (30) days or more before September 1st, of each year mail to all chiropractors in this state a notice of the fact that the renewal fee will be due on or before the first of September. Nothing in this act shall be construed so as to require that the receipts shall be recorded as original licenses are required to be recorded. [L. '19, p. 24, § 10.]

See notes to § 10098.

§ 10106. Disposition of Fees—Annual Fiscal Reports.

(a) All examinations and renewal fees received by the state board of chiropractic examiners under this act shall be paid to the secretary-treasurer of said board, who shall on or before the tenth (10) day of the succeeding month deposit the same with the state treasurer, together with a verified statement showing the sources from which the money was derived.

(b) The secretary-treasurer shall keep a true and accurate account of all funds received and all vouchers issued by the board; and on the first day of December of each year he shall file with the governor of this state a report of all receipts and disbursements, and the proceedings of said board for the fiscal year.

(c) The members of said board shall receive a per diem of five ($5) dollars for each day during which they shall be actually engaged in the discharge of their duties in attendance upon the meetings of the board and in going to and returning from the place of meeting, and all necessary expenses incurred in attendance of such meetings.

(d) All such compensation and expenses, and all other expenses incident to the execution of the provisions of this act, shall be paid by warrants drawn by the state auditor upon the presentation of vouchers to be approved by a majority of the board, as in the case of state officers. [L. '19, p. 24, § 11.]

See notes to § 10098.

§ 10107. Practitioners Subject to Health Regulations.

Chiropractic practitioners shall observe and be subject to all state and municipal regulations relating to the control of contagious and infectious diseases, sign death certificates and any and all matters pertaining to public health, reporting to the proper health officers the same as other practitioners. [L. '19, p. 25, § 12.]

§ 10108. Licensing Practitioners from Other States.

Persons licensed to practice chiropractic under the laws of any other state having equal requirements of this act, may, in the discretion of the board, be issued a license to practice in this state without examination, upon payment of the fee of twenty-five ($25) dollars as herein provided. [L. '19, p. 25, § 14.]

§ 10109. Illegally Practicing—Penalty.

Any person who shall practice or attempt to practice chiropractic, or any person who shall buy, sell, or fraudulently obtain any diploma or license to practice chiropractic, whether recorded or not, or who shall use the title chiropractor, D. C. Ph. C., or any word or title to induce belief that he is engaged in the practice of chiropractic without first complying with the provisions of this act, or any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and every person filing for record, or attempting to file for record, the certificate issued to another, falsely claiming himself to be the person named in said certificate, or falsely claiming himself to be the person entitled to the same, shall be guilty of a felony. All subsequent offenses shall be punished in like manner. Nothing herein shall be held to apply or to regulate any kind of treatment by prayer: Provided, that on all cards, books, papers, signs or other written or printed means of giving information to the public, used by those licensed by this act to practice chiropractic, the practitioner shall use after or below his name the term chiropractor or D. C. Ph. C. designating his line of drugless practice, and shall not use the word "doctor," abbreviation "Dr." or the letters M. D. or D. O. [L. '19, p. 25, § 15. Cf. L. '17, p. 192, § 21.]

§ 10110. Prosecutions for Violations of Act.

It shall be the duty of the several prosecuting attorneys of this state to prosecute all persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this act. It shall be the duty of the secretary-treasurer of said board, under the direction of said board, to aid said attorneys of this state in the enforcement of this act. [L. '19, p. 26, § 16.]

§ 10111. Repealing Clause.

All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. [L. '19, p. 26, § 17.]

CHAPTER VIII.

DRUGLESS HEALING.

§ 10112. Examinations—Secretary's Records.

. . . . It [The board] shall hold examinations alternately at Spokane and Seattle, Washington, said examinations to begin at 9 o'clock A. M. on the first Monday of February and August of each year. Examinations to continue at least one (1) day and until all applications are properly disposed of. The secretary shall keep a record of all proceedings, including the register of applicants for licenses, giving their age, a description of their education in drugless therapeutics, and results of examinations. Said record shall be prima facie evidence of the matters therein contained. [L. '19, p. 64, § 1.]

Part of this section omitted as superseded.

See infra, § 10854, duties of drugless examiners devolve upon director of licenses.

§ 10113. License Fee—Qualifications—Examinations—Refusals and Cancellations.

Only persons desiring to practice drugless therapeutics in this state shall apply to said board of examiners for a license and pay a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) as hereinafter specified, which sum in no case shall be refunded. If at a time appointed, or at the next regular examination he or she shall prove he or she has completed a residence course of three entire sessions of thirty-six weeks each at a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a high school education, or its equivalent and shall pass an examination in the following subjects, to wit: Anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, urinalysis, dietetics, hydrotherapy, radiography, electrotherapy, gynecology, obstetrics, psychology, mechanical and manual manipulation, they shall be granted a license by said board, or if the school attendance of said applicant was prior to the passage of this act a diploma from a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a common school education or its equivalent, and two years continuous practice in this state shall suffice; or if the applicant has no diploma but has been in continuous practice in any of the drugless systems herein mentioned for the past four years, two years of which shall have been in continuous practice in one place in this state, he or she shall be allowed to practice: Provided, said applicant shall take an examination on the following subjects: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, mechanical and manual manipulation. After such examination, the board, if five (5) members consent, shall grant the applicant a license to practice drugless therapeutics in the state of Washington. The examinations shall be both scientific and practical and thoroughly test the fitness of the candidate. All answers to questions peculiar to any school of therapeutics shall be scrutinized and their sufficiency passed upon by the members of the board belonging to such school and their decisions shall be final, but the following subjects, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis and gynecology, shall be construed to be in common with all systems herein mentioned, and each candidate shall be examined in each of said subjects: Provided, after 1921, the following subjects shall be construed as common to all systems, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis, symptomatology, hydrotherapy and gynecology. The board may refuse to grant a license to, or may revoke the license of any person guilty of unprofessional conduct, subject to the right of appeal within ninety (90) days, to the superior court of the county where the board met when said license was refused, or revocation made. Any license granted without a full and fair compliance with the provisions of this act may be canceled in any action brought in the name of the state by the prosecuting attorney of the county where the examination was held, or said action may be brought by the attorney general; and if a license is denied an applicant shall have the right to petition the superior court where said examination was held for an order compelling said board to issue said license.

Continuous practice as herein provided shall be construed to apply to drugless physicians who have actually been practicing in this state, even if they have not received a license under the present medical laws. [L. '19, p. 65, § 3.]

See notes to § 10112.

§ 10114. Forms of Certificates to Practice—Affidavits and Testimonials.

The following forms of certificates shall be issued by said board under the seal thereof, and signed by the president and secretary:

First. A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice mechanotherapy;

Second. A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice suggestive therapeutics;

Third. A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice food science;

Fourth. A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice physcultopathy;

Fifth. A certificate for any other separate and co-ordinate system of drugless practice, and such system shall be given two representations on the board: Provided, they shall show evidence of not less than fifty graduates, practicing in this state, whose requirements shall be no less than as set forth in this act. Practitioners hereunder shall confine their practice to the subjects and system or systems represented by their certificate or certificates granted by said board. The applicant for an examination must file at least thirty days prior to a regular meeting satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and a diploma issued by some legally chartered drugless college, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, except as herein otherwise provided, and must fill out a blank application to be sworn to before some person authorized to take acknowledgments, showing that he or she is the person named in the diploma, is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. The said application shall be made on a blank furnished by said board, and shall contain such other information concerning the instruction and preliminary education of the applicant as said board may by rule adopt. [L. '19, p. 67, § 4.]

See notes to § 10112.

§ 10115. Disposition of Moneys Collected—Drugless Practitioner's Fund.

All money received by said board or any member thereof, shall be turned over before the tenth day of the succeeding month to the state treasurer, together with verified statement showing the source from which it was derived. The treasurer of said board shall give a surety bond to be approved by and deposited with the auditor of the state in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). Each member of the board of examiners shall receive a compensation from said fund of five dollars ($5) for each day in which he is actually engaged in attendance upon the meetings of the board, in going to and returning from meetings, and all necessary expenses incurred in attending such meetings, all such compensation and premium for treasurer's bond, also postage and printing, shall be paid by the state treasurer from funds accumulated by license fees herein provided for, same to be paid on warrants drawn by the state auditor upon presentation of proper vouchers approved by said board.

All the fees collected under the provisions of this act shall be credited to a fund to be known as "the drugless practitioner's fund," and at the end of each three year period, any amount of money accumulated in said fund over and above the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) shall be part of the general fund and shall accordingly be transferred by the state treasurer from said "drugless practitioner's fund" to the general fund. The secretary of said board shall receive a compensation not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100) per annum. [L. '19, p. 68, § 5.]

See notes to § 10112.

§ 10116. Recordation of Licenses.

Before engaging in practice, the holder shall file his license for record with the county clerk in the county where he resides. Upon removal to another county he shall file his license in like manner. Such clerk shall keep in the record book of said licenses an index, showing the date and page record, and on demand shall furnish the secretary of the board a list of licenses on file. Upon notice to the clerk of the death or removal of a licensee, or revocation of a license, he shall note the same upon the records. [L. '19, p. 69, § 6.]

§ 10117. Health and Vital Statistics Regulations.

All persons granted licenses or certificates under this act, shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations, relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying of births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal. [L. '19, p. 69, § 7.]

§ 10118. Persons Excepted from Provisions of Act.

Nothing in this act shall be construed as to prohibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of families' remedies, nor shall this act apply to any commissioned health officer in the United States army, navy or marine hospital service, in discharge of his official duties, nor to any licensed dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry, nor to any duly licensed physician in the practice of medicine, or surgery, nor to a person duly licensed to practice osteopathy, from using or recommending drugless methods of healing in the course of their practice, nor shall this apply to any practitioner from any other state who visits this state in response to a call to treat a particular patient: Provided, such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients within the limits of this state, nor shall this act be construed to discriminate against any particular school of drugless therapeutics or to interfere in any way with the practice of religion: Provided, also that nothing in this act shall be held to apply to, or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer. [L. '19, p. 69, § 8.]

§ 10119. Unprofessional Conduct Defined.

The words "unprofessional conduct" as used in this act is hereby declared to mean:

First. The procuring, aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion.

Second. The willful betraying of a professional secret.

Third. Advertising any means or remedy whereby the monthly periods of women can be regulated, or menses re-established.

Fourth. Conviction of any offense involving moral turpitude.

Fifth. Habitual intemperance.

Sixth. The personation of another licensed practitioner.

Seventh. Exploiting or advertising through the press, or by the use of handbills, circulars or other periodicals, other than professional cards, giving only name, address, profession, office hours and telephone connections.

Eighth. All advertising which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons.

Ninth. Conspiring to bring or cause to be brought any action in court against any licensed practitioner for alleged malpractice or agree with anyone for a share or part of any sum of money to be recovered in such action: Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any licensed practitioner from testifying against any other licensed practitioner in any action for alleged malpractice. [L. '19, p. 70, § 9.]

§ 10120. Illegally Practicing.

Any person not heretofore authorized by law who shall practice or attempt to practice or hold himself out as practicing drugless therapeutics in the state of Washington without having obtained the license herein provided for, contrary to any provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided by law for such offenses. Any person shall be regarded as practicing within the meaning of this act who shall use, prescribe, direct or recommend, any drugless treatment for the relief of any wound, fracture, bodily injury, or disease, either mental or physical: Provided, this act shall not be construed to discriminate against any particular school of drugless therapeutics, or to interfere in any way with the practice of religion: Provided, also, that nothing in this act shall be held to apply to or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer. [L. '19, p. 71, § 10.]

§ 10121. Examination Regulations—Fee—Credits—Conduct of Examinations.

The examination held by the state board of drugless examiners under this act shall be conducted in accordance with the following regulations:

First. Each applicant is required to make an affidavit setting forth his age, place of residence, time and place of each course of lectures, or other work connected with his drugless education and the date of graduation, or length of time in practice. The affidavit must be corroborated by the exhibition of a certificate from the proper officers of the college, showing that the applicant had completed the prescribed course for graduation. No advance standing shall be recognized for work done at other than drugless colleges.

Second. A fee of twenty-five dollars ($25) must accompany the application. This fee is under no consideration to be returned, but if the applicant should fail to secure an average of sixty-five per cent (65%), and should be denied a license, such applicant shall, without paying a further fee and without losing his classification under the provisions of this act, be permitted to take another examination any time within two years. Drugless practitioners who hold a diploma from a legally incorporated drugless school who have practiced in this state two years previous to the passing of this act and those having no diploma but who have been in continuous practice in this state for three years, shall be given a credit of fifteen per cent (15%) on the general average.

Third. The examination shall be in charge of three or more of the members of the board of examiners, and the papers of candidates shall be known by numbers which shall be arranged as follows: envelopes shall be numbered and each containing a blank corresponding to the number, on which blank the applicant shall write his name and address, and return to the envelope, sealed by the applicant, and delivered to the examiners. Each candidate shall place on his paper the number given him and the year of graduation.

Fourth. Examination papers will be collected, and sent to the member or members of the board in charge of that subject. Such member or members shall examine the papers and place the mark opposite each candidate's number. These marks shall be sent to the secretary, who shall tabulate them and present them to the members of the board at a meeting which shall be held at the time of the examination or within thirty days thereafter. When the markings are completed, the envelopes containing the names are to be opened and the names placed, opposite their respective numbers.

Fifth. No dishonest methods will be tolerated, and any candidate disregarding these rules shall be debarred from further examination.

Sixth. Each subject for examination shall be covered by ten questions, and two hours' time shall be allowed for each subject. All of the questions given on the subjects of anatomy, physiology and hygiene must be approved by five members of said board, and all of the questions on the other subjects mentioned in common in this law shall be approved by at least four members of the entire board.

Seventh. No candidate shall be allowed to leave the examination room after the question papers have been distributed, until the questions are answered and delivered to the examiners in charge.

Eighth. All examinations shall be in English. Within twenty days after a license is granted or refused, the reasons shall be set forth in writing and placed with the papers used in the examination, and all of said examination papers shall be filed with the secretary of the board within thirty days after said license has been granted or refused. [L. '19, p. 71, § 11.]

See notes to § 10112.

§ 10122. Definitions.

The term "separate and co-ordinate system" as used in this act is defined as follows:

Food Science: Is the science of treating disease through the chemical action of foods, water, nonmedicinal herbs, roots, barks and all natural food elements other than pharmaceutic drugs and poisons, to bring about a normal condition of health.

Mechano-Therapy: Is a system of therapeutics which enables the practitioner to know how to apply scientifically the mechanics of hydrotherapy, dietetics, circumstances, idea and manual manipulation for the stimulation of phycho and physiological action to establish a normal condition of the body.

Suggestive Therapeutics. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know how to offer suggestions that will cause the mind of the patient to overcome the disease of the body and bringing mind and body into harmony, and both into harmony with environment.

Physcultopathy. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know the scientific effect of movements on the body and how to direct a system of mechanical gymnastics that restore the diseased parts or functions to a normal condition. [L. '19, p. 73, § 12.]

Cited in 113 Wash. 372.

§ 10123. Drugless Therapeutics Defined.

The term "drugless therapeutics," as used in this act consists of hydrotherapy, dietetics, electro-therapy, radiography, sanitation, suggestion, mechanical and manual manipulation for the stimulation of physiological and psychological action to establish a normal condition of mind and body, but shall in no way include the giving, prescribing or recommending of pharmaceutic drugs and poisons for internal use, the purpose of this act being to confine practitioners hereunder to drugless therapeutics.

The words "certificate" and "license" shall be known as interchangeable terms. [L. '19, p. 74, § 13.]

§ 10124. Advertising Matter.

On all cards, books, papers, signs, or other written or printed means of giving information to the public on any system of practice, the practitioner shall use after or below his name the proper term designating the special line of drugless practice in which he is engaged, and shall not use after his name the letters, "M. D." or Doctor of Medicine and Surgery, nor "D. O." or Doctor of Osteopathy, or "D. C." or Doctor of Chiropractic. [L. '19, p. 74, § 14.]

§ 10125. Penalty for Violations of Act.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided by law. [L. '19, p. 75, § 17.]

CHAPTER IX.

PHARMACY.

§ 10126. [8445.] Pharmacists to be Registered.

It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person to compound or dispense drugs, medicines or poisons, or to institute any pharmacy, store or shop for wholesaling or retailing, compounding or dispensing drugs, medicines or poisons, unless such person shall be a registered pharmacist or shall place in charge of said pharmacy store or shop a registered pharmacist except as hereinafter provided. [L. '99, p. 216, § 1.]

For former laws, see L. '91, pp. 372—377; 1 H. C., §§ 2864—2879; L. '93, p. 272; Bal. Code, §§ 3034—3049; all repealed by L. '99, p. 224, § 18.

§ 10127. [8446.] Qualifications for Registration.

In order to be a registered pharmacist, all persons must be either graduated in pharmacy, licentiates in pharmacy, assistant pharmacists or licensed physicians. [L. '99, p. 216, § 2.]

§ 10128. [8447.] Graduate Pharmacists.

Graduates in pharmacy shall be such persons as have obtained a diploma from such college or school of pharmacy as be approved by the state board of pharmacy, as sufficient guaranty of their attainments and proficiency. [L. '99, p. 217, § 3.]

§ 10129. [8448.] Licentiates in Pharmacy.

Licentiates in pharmacy shall be such persons, not less than twenty-one years of age, as shall have had three years' practical experience in drug stores where prescriptions of medical practitioners are compounded, together with such preliminary education as may be designated by the said board, and have passed a satisfactory examination. The state board of pharmacy may grant certificates of registration to licentiates of such other state boards as it may deem proper without examination. [L. '99, p. 217, § 4; L. '09, p. 727, § 1.]

Cited in 110 Wash. 71.

§ 10130. [8449.] Assistant Pharmacists.

Assistant pharmacists shall be such persons not less than eighteen years of age as have had two years' practical experience under a registered pharmacist, together with such preliminary education as may be designated by the state board of pharmacy, the time of attendance at any reputable school of pharmacy to be accredited to such time, and who shall have passed a satisfactory examination before the state board of pharmacy. Persons who have passed a similar examination before any other state board of pharmacy, upon furnishing satisfactory proof thereof, may receive a certificate of registration as assistant pharmacist without further examination, at the discretion of the state board. The holder of a certificate of registration as assistant pharmacist shall be deemed competent to act as clerk or salesman in a drug store or pharmacy under the supervision of a registered pharmacist in charge thereof, and during the temporary absence of said registered pharmacist. [L. '99, p. 217, § 5; L. '09, p. 727, § 2.]

See notes to § 10129.

§ 10131. [8450.] Registry of Apprentices.

It shall be the duty of registered pharmacists who take into their employ an apprentice for the purpose of becoming a registered pharmacist to report to the board within three months thereafter such facts regarding his or her schooling and preliminary qualifications as the board may require for the purpose of registration, and to satisfy himself that such apprentice does possess those qualifications demanded by the board. The board shall furnish proper blanks for this purpose, and may issue to such apprentice a certificate of registration as a registered apprentice, and the date of the certificate shall be proof of the time when practical experience began with the apprentice named therein; and the fee for such registration shall be one dollar. Every registered pharmacist shall report to the state board of pharmacy the names of all clerks and apprentices employed in their respective pharmacy at least once during each year, and at such time as the state board of pharmacy shall determine. [L. '99, p. 217, § 6; L. '09, p. 728, § 3.]

See notes to § 10129.

§ 10133. [8452.] Board — Officers — Powers and Duties — Meetings — By-laws.

The state board of pharmacy shall annually elect a president and a secretary from the number of its own members, who shall be elected for the term of one year, and shall perform the duties prescribed by the board.

It shall be the duty of the board to examine all applicants for registration, submitting application in proper form; to grant certificates of registration to such persons as may be entitled to the same under the provisions of this act; to cause prosecutions of all persons violating the provisions of this act; to report annually to the governor and to the Washington state pharmaceutical association upon the condition of pharmacy in the state, which said report shall furnish a record of the proceedings of said board for the year, as well as the names of all persons registered under this act; and also an itemized account of all moneys received and disbursed by them as said board, which account shall be audited by the Washington state pharmaceutical association annually.

The board shall hold meetings for the examination of applicants for registration and the transaction of such other business as shall pertain to its duties at least once in six months: Provided, that the president of the board of pharmacy may call special meetings of said board not more than twice in any one year for the purpose of transacting such business as may properly come before it, and said board shall give thirty days' public notice of the time and place of all of its meetings.

The said board shall have power to make such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of the state, as may be necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this act.

The board shall have power to investigate all alleged violations of the provisions of this act, or any other law of this state regulating the dispensing or sale of drugs, medicines or poisons, or the practice of pharmacy, which may come to its notice, and whenever there appears reasonable cause therefor to take and hear testimony with reference to the same.

The board shall keep a book of registration in which shall be entered the names and places of business of all persons registered under this act, together with a record of the conditions justifying such registration. Three members of said board shall constitute a quorum for the § 10134. [8453.] Who Entitled to Registration.

All persons hitherto registered, either as pharmacists, assistant pharmacists or physicians, under the laws of this state, shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of registration under this chapter: Provided, that physicians to be entitled to the benefits of this chapter must make application for registration hereunder within thirty days of the taking effect of this act. [L. '99, p. 219, § 9.]

§ 10135. [8454.] Registration Fee—Shopkeeper's License.

Every person claiming registration as a graduate in pharmacy or as a licentiate of some other state board, shall, before a certificate be granted, pay the secretary of the state board of pharmacy the sum of eight dollars, and every applicant for registration by examination under this chapter shall pay the secretary the sum of ten dollars before the examination be attempted: Provided, that in case the applicant fails to pass a satisfactory examination he shall have the privilege of a second examination without any charge any time within one year.

Every shopkeeper not a pharmacist, desiring to secure the benefits and privileges of this chapter, is hereby required to secure a shopkeeper's license, and he or she shall pay the sum of six dollars for the same, and annually thereafter the sum of six dollars for renewal of same. [L. '99, p. 219, § 10; L. '09, p. 730, § 5.]

§ 10136. [8455.] Annual Renewal of Registration—Fee—Certificate to be Displayed.

Every registered pharmacist and assistant pharmacist who desires to continue the practice of his profession shall annually on or before the first day of June of each year pay to the secretary of said board a renewal registration fee, the amount of which shall be fixed by the board, and which in no case shall exceed two dollars for a pharmacist and one dollar for an assistant, in return for which payment he shall receive the renewal of such registration. Every certificate of registration and every renewal shall be conspicuously exposed in the pharmacy or shop to which it applies. Any registered pharmacist, assistant pharmacist or shopkeeper who shall fail or neglect to conspicuously expose such certificates as are herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars, and the costs of the action. [L. '99, p. 220, § 11.]

See notes to § 10129.

§ 10137. [8456.] Compensation of Board—Bond by Secretary.

Each member of the state board of pharmacy shall receive a compensation of five dollars a day for each day in which he is actually and necessarily engaged in attendance upon meetings of the board and in going to and returning from the place of meeting, and all necessary expenses incurred in attending such meeting; all such compensation and expenses and all other expenses incident to the execution of the provisions of this act shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state auditor, upon the presentation of proper vouchers to be approved by a majority of said board, as in the case of state officers.

The secretary of said board shall receive a compensation to be determined by said board not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum.

All money received or collected by said board or any member or officer thereof during any month shall be turned over before the tenth day of the succeeding month, to the state treasurer together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. The secretary of said board shall give a surety bond to be approved by and deposited with the auditor of the state, in the sum of one thousand ($1,000) dollars. The cost of said bond shall be paid by the state. [L. '13, p. 257, § 1. Cf. L. '99, p. 220, § 12; L. '09, p. 730, § 6.]

See notes to § 10129.

§ 10138. [8457.] Penalties for Violations—Exceptions.

Any person not a registered pharmacist and not having in his employ a registered pharmacist within the full meaning of this chapter, who shall retail, compound or dispense medicines, or who shall take, use or exhibit the title of registered pharmacist, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not to exceed fifty dollars.

Every place in which physicians' prescriptions are compounded shall be deemed to be a pharmacy, or a drug store, and the same shall be under the personal supervision of a licensed pharmacist.

Any person who shall permit the compounding and dispensing of prescriptions, or vending of drugs, medicines or poisons in his store or place of business, except under the supervision of a registered pharmacist, or any registered pharmacist or shopkeeper registered under this chapter while continuing in business, who shall fail or neglect to procure annually his renewal of registration, or any person who shall willfully make any false representations to procure registration for himself or any other person, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter willfully and knowingly, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not to exceed fifty dollars: Provided, that nothing in this chapter shall operate in any manner to interfere with the business of any physician in regular practice, or prevent him from supplying to his patients such medicines as he may deem proper, nor with the making or selling proprietary medicine or medicines placed in sealed packages, nor with the exclusive wholesale business of any dealer except as hereinafter provided, nor prevent shopkeepers from dealing in and selling the commonly used medicines, or patent and proprietary medicines, if such medicines are sold in the original packages of the manufacturer, or in packages put up by a registered pharmacist in the manner provided by the state board of pharmacy; such shopkeeper shall have obtained a license as hereinafter provided. [L. '99, p. 220, § 13; L. '09, p. 730, § 7.]

Cited in 99 Wash. 450.

§ 10139. [8458.] Adulteration—Penalty.

Every proprietor of a wholesale or retail drug store shall be held responsible for the quality of all drugs, chemicals or medicines sold or dispensed by him except those sold in original packages of the manufacturer and except those articles or preparations known as patent or proprietary medicines. Any person who shall knowingly, willfully or fraudulently falsify or adulterate any drug or medicinal substance or preparation authorized or recognized by the pharmacopoeia of the United States or used or intended to be used in medical practice, or shall willfully, knowingly or fraudulently offer for sale, sell or cause the same to be sold for medicinal purposes, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in any sum not less than seventy-five nor more than one hundred and fifty dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than one month nor more than three months, and any person convicted a third time for violation of any of the provisions of this section may suffer both fine and imprisonment. In any case he shall forfeit to the state of Washington all drugs or preparations so falsified or adulterated. [L. '99, p. 222, § 14.]

See supra, §§ 2943, 2944, sale of morphine regulated.

§ 10140. [8459.] Poisons and Liquors—Record of Sales.

The proprietor of every drug store shall keep in his place of business a record in which shall be entered all sales of the compounds and salts of arsenic, baring, chromium, gold, mercury (calomel excepted), silver, the caustic hydrates of sodium, and potassium, the concentrated mineral acids, hydrocyanic acids and their salts, yellow phosphorus, paris green, the essential oils of almonds, pennyroyal, tansy and savin, croton oil, creosote, chloroform, chloral hydrate, cantharides, or any aconite, belladonna, bitter almonds colchicum, cotton root, coccolus indicus, conium, cannabis, indica, digitalis, hyoseyamus, ignatia, lobella, nux vomica, opium, physostigma, phytolacca, strophanthus, stramonium, veratrum viride, or any of the poisonous alkaloids or alkaloidal salts or other poisonous principles derived from the foregoing, or veratrine or any other poisonous alkaloids or their salts, or any poisonous compound, combination or preparation thereof, also all wines and spirituous or malt liquors. Said record shall state quantity purchased, the date, for what purpose used, buyer's name and address, and said record at all times during business hours shall be subject to the inspection of the prosecuting attorney or any duly authorized agent of the board of pharmacy: Provided, that no such wines, spirituous or malt liquors shall be sold for any other than medicinal, scientific, mechanical or sacramental purposes, and no other license shall be necessary under any ordinance of any municipality for pharmacists to make said sale in compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

He shall not deliver any of said poisons without satisfying himself that the purchaser is aware of its poisonous nature and that the said poison is to be used for a legitimate purpose. [L. '99, p. 222, § 15; L. '09, p. 731, § 8.]

This section, relating to the drug business and authorizing the sale of spirituous liquors by druggists for medical purposes, did not impliedly repeal the act relating to the sale and disposal of intoxicating liquors and requiring sales by druggists for medical purposes to be upon the written prescription of a reputable physician; since repeals by implication are not favored, and this rule has special application where the laws relate to different subjects: Seattle v. Foster, 47 Wash. 172, 91 Pac. 642; State v. Krook, 58 Wash. 23, 107 Pac. 1032.

This section amending the pharmacy law so as to provide that "no other license shall be necessary under any ordinance of any city" to make sales in intoxicating liquors under the pharmacy act, merely means that the state law shall govern, and was not intended to authorize sales without a state license and physician's prescription: State v. Krook, 58 Wash. 23, 107 Pac. 1032.

§ 10141. [8460.] Peddler's License.

Any itinerant vendor or any peddler of any medicine, drug, nostrum or ointment or preparation, for the treatment of disease or injury, shall pay a license fee of not less than one dollar nor more than twenty-five dollars per month into the treasury of the board, subject to regulations formulated by said board of pharmacy. It shall be lawful for said board to issue license to such itinerant vendor or peddler on application made to the state board of pharmacy, such license to be signed by the president and attested by the secretary with the seal of the board. And such itinerant vendor or peddler, or who shall vend or sell or offer to sell any such medicine, drug, nostrum or ointment or preparation without having a license so to do as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty dollars, and not exceeding fifty dollars for such offense, and each sale, or offer for sale, shall constitute a separate offense. [L. '99, p. 223, § 16.]

See supra, §§ 8341—8358, licenses for peddlers.

§ 10142. [8461.] Duty of Prosecuting Attorney—Fines to School Fund.

All suits for the recovery of the several penalties prescribed in this chapter shall be prosecuted in the name of the state of Washington in any court having jurisdiction, and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein such offense is committed to prosecute all persons violating the provisions of this chapter upon the filing of proper complaint. All penalties collected under the provisions of this chapter shall inure to the school fund of the county in which suit was prosecuted and judgment obtained. [L. '99, p. 224, § 17; L. '09, p. 732, § 9.]

§ 10143. [8462.] Refusal or Revocation of License—Procedure.

When, upon investigation, the state board of pharmacy becomes convinced that anyone registered under the laws of this state or applying for examination and registration, either as a licentiate, as an assistant pharmacist or as a registered apprentice, is guilty of a felony, misdemeanor, gross immorality or sells or gives away morphine, cocaine or any other narcotic to any person addicted to the use of such drugs or is addicted to the liquor or drug habit to such a degree as to render him or her unfit for the practice of pharmacy, or is guilty of selling, disposing of or giving away spirituous, fermented, malt or other intoxicating liquors contrary to law and not in good faith, the board of pharmacy may examine and refuse to register, or revoke, cancel and suspend the registration of such licentiate, assistant pharmacist or registered apprentice. In any case of the refusal or revocation of a license by said board of pharmacy under the provisions of this chapter, said board shall file a brief and concise statement of the grounds and reasons for such refusal or revocation in the office of the secretary of said board, which said statement, together with the decision of said board in writing, shall remain of record in said office. Before a license can be revoked by said board of pharmacy under the provisions of this chapter, a complaint of some person under oath must be filed in the office of the secretary of said board of pharmacy, charging the acts of misconduct and facts complained of against the applicant, licentiate, assistant pharmacist or registered apprentice accused, in ordinary and concise language, and thereupon said board shall cause to be served upon such accused applicant, licentiate, assistant pharmacist or registered apprentice a written notice and copy of such complaint, which said notice shall contain a statement of the time and place of hearing of the matters and things set forth and charged in such complaint, and said notice shall be so served at least ten days prior to the time of such hearing. Such accused applicant, licentiate, assistant pharmacist or registered apprentice may appear at such hearing, and defend against the accusation of such complaint, personally and by counsel, and may have the sworn testimony of witnesses taken and present other evidence in his behalf at such hearing, and said board may receive the arguments of counsel at such hearing. [L. '09, p. 733, § 10.]

See notes to § 10129.

This and the following sections were added to this chapter by the amendatory act.

§ 10144. [8463.] Decisions of Appeals from Board.

In any case of the refusal or revocation of a license by said board under the provisions of this chapter, the applicant whose application shall be so refused, and the licentiate, assistant pharmacist and licensed apprentice whose license shall be so revoked by said board, shall have the right to appeal from the decision so refusing or revoking such license within thirty days after the filing of such decision in the office of the secretary of said board, as hereinbefore in this act provided. Such appeal shall be to the superior court in and for the county in which was held the last general meeting of said board, prior to the refusal of such license, in the case of such refusal; and to the superior court in and for the county in which the hearing was had upon which such license was revoked, in case of such revocation. In any case the person desiring to take such appeal shall serve, or cause to be served, upon the secretary of said board a written notice of such appeal, which shall contain a statement of the grounds of such appeal and shall file in the office of such secretary an appeal bond, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by said state board of pharmacy of the state of Washington, conditioned for the speedy prosecution of such appeal, and the payment of such costs as may be adjudged against him upon such appeal. Said secretary of the state board of pharmacy shall, within ten (10) days after the service of such notice of appeal and the filing and approval of said appeal bond, transmit to the clerk of the superior court to which such appeal is taken, a certified copy, under the seal of said board, of the decision of said board, and the grounds thereof, in the case of the refusal of a license; and in addition thereto a certified copy under such seal of the complaint in the case of the revocation of a license, together with the bond and notice of appeal. The clerk of such court shall thereupon docket such appeal causes, and they shall stand for trial in all respects as ordinary civil actions, and like proceedings be had thereon. Upon such appeal said cause shall be tried de novo. Either party may appeal from the judgment of said superior court to the supreme court of the state in like manner as in civil actions within sixty (60) days after the rendition and entry of such judgment in said superior court. If such judgment shall be in favor of the party appealing from the decision of said board, and in case said examining board does not appeal from said judgment within sixty (60) days, then, and in that case, said board shall, at the end of sixty (60) days, and immediately upon the expiration thereof, issue to such successful party the usual license to practice pharmacy in this state, and in addition thereto, shall reinstate upon the records of said board the name of such successful applicant, in case of the revocation of his license by such board. In case of such appeal to the supreme court by said board, no such license shall be issued nor reinstatement be required until the final determination of said cause, and as hereinafter provided. In case the final decision of the supreme court be against said examining board, then and in that case said court shall make such order in the premises as may be necessary, and said board shall act accordingly: Provided, that in no case shall an appeal bond be required of said board nor shall any costs be adjudged or taxed against the same. [L. '09, p. 734, § 11.]

§ 10145. [8464.] Registration of Ownership of Pharmacy.

Within ninety days from and after the passage of this act, the owner of each and every drug store, pharmacy or dispensary, shall file with the secretary of the state board of pharmacy on a blank therefor provided, a declaration of ownership and location, and shall then receive from the board a duly signed registration of location, which declaration of ownership and location so filed as aforesaid shall be deemed presumptive evidence of ownership of the pharmacy, drug store or business mentioned therein. It shall be the duty of the owner to notify the board of any change of location and ownership, and shall keep the registration of location certificate properly exhibited in said drug store. Failure to conform with this provision shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction ecution of a liquor charge against a druggist: State v. Billingsley, 99 Wash. 445, 169 Pac. 845.

§ 10146. [8465.] General Penal Provisions.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter and for which a penalty is not hereinbefore provided for shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars, or may be imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding six months. [L. '09, p. 736, § 13.]

CHAPTER X.

OPTOMETRY.

§ 10147. Practice of Optometry Defined.

Any person shall be deemed to be practicing optometry within the meaning of this act, who shall in any manner, except as provided in section 10159, 1st, display any sign, circular, advertisement or device purporting or offering to in any manner examine eyes, test eyes, fit glasses, adjust frames or setting himself or herself forth as an optometrist, optician, specialist, optical specialist, eyesight specialist or refractionist, with intent to induce people to patronize himself, herself, or any other person; 2d, who shall make in any manner a test or examination of the eye or eyes of another, to ascertain the refractive, muscular or pathological condition thereof; 3d, who shall in any manner adapt lenses to the human eye for any purpose either directly or indirectly. [L. '19, p. 396, § 1.]

Statutes regulating practice of medicine as applicable to oculists, opticians, or optometrists. 9 Ann. Cas. 203; L. E. A. 1917C, 826.

§ 10148. Permit to Practice.

It shall be unlawful for any person to practice optometry in the state of Washington without first obtaining a certificate of registration or other permit from the board of examiners, and filing the same for record with the clerk of each and every county in which he may desire to practice. [L. '19, p. 396, § 2. Cf. L. '09, p. 851, § 4.]

§ 10149. Powers and Duty of Board.

The powers and duties of the optometry board shall be as follows:

(1) To organize and elect from among their members a president and treasurer of said board, who shall hold office for one year or until their successors are elected, and to elect a secretary who may or may not be a member of said board, and who may be removed from office at any time by a majority vote of the board. To adopt and use a common seal, which shall be in the custody of the secretary. The secretary shall execute a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), which shall meet the approval of the board. The secretary shall collect all moneys due the board and pay the same to the treasurer, shall keep all records and perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the board. All moneys received or collected by said board, or any member or officer thereof, during any month shall be turned over before the tenth of the succeeding month to the state treasurer, together with a verified statement showing source from which such money is derived.

(2) The treasurer shall furnish a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), and shall safely deposit all moneys of the board in a suitable bank, which shall be approved by the board, and shall pay the same out only on orders signed by the secretary and president of the board, and no such orders shall be issued for any other purpose than may be necessary for the execution of the provisions of this act.

(3) To employ agents, attorneys and inspectors to secure evidence of, report on, and to prosecute any violations of any of the provisions of this act, and to employ other necessary assistants for the execution of this act: Provided, that no state officer shall be eligible to employment by the board.

(4) To hold meetings of the board in the month of August in each year, and as often in addition as may be necessary for the examination of candidates or the transaction of other necessary business. Such meetings may be held at such times and at such places as shall be deemed expedient by the board: Providing that one meeting each year shall be held in the city of Spokane.

(5) To keep an accurate record of the proceedings of all meetings and actions of the board, and of all receipts and disbursements of the funds of the board together with all vouchers for same. Of all prosecutions for violations of this act, of all examinations for certificates, recording the names and addresses of all persons taking such examinations and the record of their standing in the examination. To keep an accurate inventory of all property of the board and to obtain a receipt therefor from their successors in office. All records of the board shall be public and shall be kept in the office of the board.

(6) To visit and examine public schools wherein the science of optometry is taught in this state, and accredit the same if found to be furnishing a sufficient course of study for the preparation of optometrists.

(7) To keep a book to be known as the Official Optometry Register, in which shall be recorded the names and addresses of all optometrists registered in the state of Washington, together with the number and date of issue of the certificate of registration, and a complete record of the renewals or revocations thereof.

(8) To grant or refuse to grant certificates of registration as herein provided and to revoke the certificate of registration of any optometrist for any of the causes specified in section 10156.

(9) To administer oaths for any purpose connected with the work of the board, including the taking of testimony regarding the revoking of certificates.

(10) To make rules for the procedure of the board and for the conduct and government of candidates for examination, which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

(11) To report to the governor annually, between the first and fifth days of January the official acts of the board for the preceding year, giving an account of all funds collected and disbursed during the year. [L. '19, p. 397, § 4.]

See infra, § 10854, duties of optometry board devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, optometry board abolished.

§ 10150. Qualifications and Examination of Applicants.

Persons eligible for examination for registration, shall be any citizen of the United States of America, who shall have a preliminary education of or equal to, two years in a state high school, has completed a full attendance course in a regularly chartered school of optometry maintaining a standard which is deemed sufficient and satisfactory by the optometry board, or who has studied at least three years in the office of a regularly registered optometrist or who has successfully passed an examination before a board of optometry in some other state, who is of good moral character, who is not afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease, who has a visual acuity in at least one eye, of a standard known as 20/40 under correction. Such person shall file an application for examination and registration with said board at any time fifteen days prior to the time fixed for such examination, or at a later date if approved by the board, and such application must be on forms approved by the board, and properly attested, and if found to be in accordance with the provisions of this act shall entitle the applicant upon payment of the proper fee, to take the examination prescribed by the board. Such examination shall not be out of keeping with the established teachings and adopted text books of the recognized schools of optometry, and shall be confined to such subjects and practices as are recognized as essential to the practice of optometry. All candidates without discrimination, who shall successfully pass the prescribed examination, shall be registered by the board and shall, upon payment of the proper fee, be issued a certificate of registration. [L. '19, p. 400, § 5.]

See notes to § 10149.

§ 10151. County Clerk to Keep Register—Penalty for Misfeasance.

It is hereby made the duty of the county clerk of each organized county in this state to keep a book known as the "Optometry Register" of such county, and set apart one full page for the registration of each optometrist, and to record in said optometry register, the name and record of each optometrist who presents a certificate from the board of examiners, issued under this act. The county clerk shall receive the sum of one dollar ($1) from each optometrist so registered, which shall be his full compensation for all duties required under this act. When an optometrist shall die, or remove to another county, or have his certificate revoked, it shall be the duty of said clerk to make a note of the fact at the bottom of the page as closing the record. On January 1st in each year said clerk shall, upon request of the board, certify to the office of the state optometry board, a correct list of the optometrists then registered in the county, together with such other information as said board may require. Any county clerk upon conviction of knowingly violating any of the provisions of this act shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) or more than fifty dollars ($50). A copy from the "Optometry Register," pertaining to any person, certified to by said county clerk, under the seal of his office, also a certificate issued by said official, certifying that any person named has or has not registered in said office, as required by this act, shall be admitted as evidence in all hearings for revocation of certificates. [L. '19, p. 400, § 6. Cf. L. '09, p. 851, § 4.]

See notes to § 10149.

§ 10152. Unlawful Acts.

It shall be unlawful for any person:

- (1) To sell or barter, or offer to sell or barter any certificate of registration issued by the optometry board; or
- (2) To purchase or procure by barter any certificate or registration with intent to use the same as evidence of the holder's qualification to practice optometry; or
- (3) To alter with fraudulent intent in any material regard such certificate of registration; or
- (4) To use or attempt to use any such certificate of registration which has been purchased, fraudulently issued, counterfeited or materially altered as a valid certificate of registration; or
- (5) To practice optometry under a false or assumed name, or as a representative or agent of any person, firm or corporation with which the accused has no connection; or
- (6) To willfully make any false statements in material regard in an application for an examination before the optometry board, or for a certificate of registration; or
- (7) To practice optometry in this state without having at the time of so doing a valid unrevoked certificate of registration, or other permit, issued by the optometry board of this state, and properly recorded as provided in this act; or
- (8) To in any manner barter or give away as premiums either on his own account or as agent or representative for any other purpose, firm or corporation, any eye-glasses, spectacles, lenses or frames.
- (9) To use drugs in the examination of the eyes. [L. '19, p. 401, § 7.]

§ 10153. Temporary Permits to Practice.

The optometry board may at its discretion, issue a permit to practice optometry during the interim between examinations, to any person who has filed an application for examination which has been accepted by said board, as admitting the applicant to the next examination. Such permit shall be valid only until the date of the next examination and shall not be issued sooner than thirty days following any regular examination, and no permit shall be issued to any person who has failed before the optometry board, nor where a certificate has been revoked. [L. '19, p. 402, § 8.]

§ 10154. Fees.

The fee for application for examination shall be fifteen dollars ($15) and the fee for issuing a certificate of registration shall be ten dollars ($10), which shall be paid to the board as they shall prescribe. [L. '19, p. 402, § 9.]

§ 10155. Board Proceedings by Mail—Records as Evidence.

The board shall have power to act upon any question that may require a decision, by mail, such action shall be by form of resolution and shall be signed by each member of the board, properly attested, and shall bear the seal of the board and become a part of the regular records of the proceedings of the board, and shall be admitted as evidence in any court, or hearing for revocation of certificate. [L. '19, p. 403, § 10.]

See notes to § 10149.

§ 10156. Revocation of Certificates—Grounds.

The board may, at its discretion, revoke the certificate of registration of any optometrist for any one of the following causes:

(1) Conviction of the accused of any crime of the grade of felony, or one which involved moral turpitude; or

(2) Any form of fraud or deceit used in securing a certificate of registration; or

(3) Any grossly unprofessional conduct, of a nature likely to deceive or defraud the public; or

(4) The obtaining of any fee by fraud or misrepresentation; or

(5) The employing either directly or indirectly of any person or persons commonly known as "cappers" or "steerers" to obtain business; or

(6) To employ any person to solicit from house to house, or to personally solicit from house to house; or

(7) The employment of any unregistered person to perform the work covered by this act; or

(8) To advertise in any way in which untruthful, improbable or impossible statements are made regarding treatments, cures or values; or

(9) The use of the term "eye specialist" in connection with the name of such optometrist; or

(10) For habits of intemperance or habitual drunkenness, addiction to the drug habit, in a manner likely to destroy the accuracy of the work of an optometrist; or

(11) Affliction with a contagious or infectious disease, or one which is likely to destroy the accuracy of the work of the afflicted; or

(12) For any cause for which the optometry board might refuse to admit a candidate to their examination; or

(13) For the violation of any of the provisions of this act; or

(14) Gross ignorance regarding the work of an optometrist, which shall be deemed to mean, "inability to demonstrate in manner satisfactory to the optometry board, their practical ability to correctly measure eyes, fit glasses, adjust frames and neutralize lenses correctly." [L. '19, p. 403, § 11. Cf. L. '09, p. 855, § 12.]

See notes to § 10149.

§ 10157. Notice of Charges—Hearings.

Before any certificate shall be revoked, the optometry board shall mail to the holder of such certificate, at the last known postoffice address, a notice of the charges against him, and the holder of said certificate shall have ten days from the date of such notice, in which to file his answer with the optometry board and shall, if requested, be given a public hearing and opportunity to produce testimony in his favor and to confront the witness against him, and the revocation of any certificate of registration revoked for any of the above causes except those specified in one and two of section 10156 may be set aside upon application of the holder of said certificate, at any time within six months from the date of such revocation, upon proof being made to the satisfaction of the optometry board, that the cause of such revocation no longer exists and that the applicant has been sufficiently punished. Before setting aside the revocation of any certificate, the board may, at its discretion, require the applicant to pass the regular examination given for applicants for certificates of registration. [L. '19, p. 404, § 12.]

See notes to § 10149.

§ 10158. Annual Renewal Fee.

During the month of January of each year, every registered optometrist shall pay to the optometry board the sum of two dollars ($2), as a renewal fee, and failure to pay such fee within the prescribed time shall ipso facto, cause the suspension of such optometrist. The secretary shall mail a notice of said suspension to the last known postoffice address of the one so suspended, between the first and fifth days of February, March and April, next following, and if the fee is not paid by the first of May, the board may declare the certificate revoked in the regular manner, and shall immediately notify the county clerk of the county in which the revoked certificate is recorded. [L. '19, p. 405, § 13.]

See notes to § 10149.

§ 10159. Inapplicable to Oculists and Merchants.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to pertain in any manner to the practice of any regularly qualified oculist or physician, who is regularly licensed to practice medicine in the state of Washington, nor to any person who in the regular course of trade, sells or offers for sale, spectacles or eyeglasses as regular merchandise without pretense of adapting them to the eyes of the purchaser, and not in evasion of this act. [L. '19, p. 405, § 15. Cf. L. '09, p. 855, § 13.]

§ 10160. Prior Certificates to Remain in Force.

Any certificate which may have been issued by an optometry board of this state, and which shall be in full force and effect at the time of the passage of this act, shall be continued under the provisions of this act. [L. '19, p. 406, § 17.]

§ 10161. Partial Invalidity.

Any question of unconstitutionality arising concerning any of the sections or provisions of this act shall in no wise affect any other section or provision of the act. [L. '19, p. 406, § 18.]

§ 10162. Designation of Act.

This act shall be known, and may be referred to as, "The Optometry Law." [L. '19, p. 406, § 20.]

§ 10163. Penalty for Violations.

Any person violating any provision of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both.. [L. '19, p. 406, § 22. Cf. L. '09, p. 855, § 12.]

CHAPTER XI.

NURSES.

§ 10164. [8479.] Misrepresentation as Registered Nurse Prohibited.

From and after the expiration of the ninety days immediately following the passage of this act no person shall in the state of Washington, in any manner whatsoever, represent herself to be a registered nurse, or allow herself to be so represented, unless she has been and is registered by the nurses' examining board in accordance with the provisions of this act. [L. '09, p. 66, § 1.]

"Act" in this and the following sections refers to this chapter.

See infra, § 10854, duties of nurses' examining board devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, nurses' examining board abolished.

State regulation of practice of nursing. Ann. Cas. 1917C, 168.

Nursing as practice of medicine. Ann. Cas. 1918E, 687.

§ 10165. [8481.] Officers, Meetings, Records, Examinations.

The nurses' examining board shall meet in the state of Washington within ninety days after their appointment and organize the board and annually thereafter shall elect from its members a president, secretary and treasurer. It shall adopt such by-laws as it shall deem necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this act, and may amend the same from time to time at the discretion of said board. The secretary shall be required to keep a record of all meetings of the board, and also a register of the names of all nurses duly registered under this act, which register shall be open to the public at all reasonable times, and to furnish a certificate of registration to all such nurses, said certificate to be renewed at end of five years upon payment of one dollar to the examining board, at least three months' notice having been given, by registered letter, of expiration of said certificate. The said board shall hold examinations at least once a year, and the notice of such examination shall be given in one daily newspaper published in three first-class cities of the state of Washington, and in a nursing journal published on the Pacific coast at least thirty days prior to said examination. [L. '09, p. 67, § 3.]

See notes to § 10164.

§ 10166. [8482.] Scope of Examination—Qualifications—Fee.

Every nurse desiring to style herself a registered nurse in the state of Washington shall make application to the nurses' examining board for examination for registration, such examination to consist of questions in surgical nursing, contagions, materia medica, dietetics, medical nursing, obstetrics and gynaecology, anatomy, physiology and hygiene, and at the time of making such application applicant shall pay to the treasurer of said board five dollars, no portion of said fee to be returned. Said applicant must furnish satisfactory evidence that she is over twenty years of age, of good moral character, and free from habits liable to interfere with her services as a nurse, and further, that she holds a diploma from a training school for nurses of a reputable hospital: Provided, that training school shall give not less than two years' training in a general hospital, or instruction of same kind, and, to at least the same extent, as that given in the general hospital, all of which shall be determined by the nurses' examining board. [L. '09, p. 67, § 4.]

See notes to § 10164.

§ 10167. [8483.] Certificates Without Examination—To Whom.

Any person possessing the qualifications required in section 10166 who is engaged in nursing in the state of Washington at the time of the passage of this act or shall graduate from a reputable training school of a general hospital within three years of passage of this act, shall be entitled to registration without examination upon payment of registration fee. [L. '09, p. 68, § 5.]

§ 10168. [8484.] Revocation of Certificates.

The registration of any person as a nurse in the state of Washington may be revoked and the certificate of such person canceled if it should be found to have been obtained by fraud, or if she be found guilty by the nurses' examining board of any act derogatory to the standing and morals of the profession of nursing. But before any certificate shall be revoked the holder thereof shall be entitled to thirty days' notice of the charges against her, and after a full and fair hearing the certificate can be revoked by a majority vote of the whole board. [L. '09, p. 68, § 6.]

See notes to § 10164.

§ 10169. [8485.] Expenses and Compensation of Board.

Each member of the nurses' examining board shall receive a compensation of five dollars per day for each day in which she is actually and necessarily in attendance upon the meetings of the board and in going to and returning from the place of meeting, and all necessary expenses incurred in attending such meetings. All such compensation and expenses and all other expenses incident to the execution of the provisions of this act shall be paid by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state auditor upon presentation of proper vouchers to be approved by a majority of said board, as in the case of state officers. The secretary and treasurer of said board shall receive a compensation to be determined by said board and not to exceed one hundred dollars per annum. All moneys received or collected by said board or any officer or any member thereof during any month shall be turned over to the state treasurer before the tenth day of the succeeding month together with a verified statement showing the sources from which such money was derived. [L. '13, p. 255, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 68, § 7.]

See notes to § 10164.

§ 10170. [8486.] Violation, a Misdemeanor.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '09, p. 68, § 8.]

§ 10171. [8487.] Nurses from Other States.

The nurses' examining board shall have power to register in like manner without examination, any person who has been registered as a graduate nurse in another state or territory under laws which in the opinion of said board maintains a standard substantially equivalent to that provided for by this chapter. [L. '09, p. 68, § 9.]

See notes to § 10164.

§ 10172. [8488.] Construction of Act.

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent any person from nursing any other person in the state of Washington either gratuitously or for hire: Provided, that such person so nursing shall not represent herself as being a registered nurse. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as authorizing any person to practice medicine or surgery, or midwifery, in said state. [L. '09, p. 69, § 10.]

§ 10173. [8489.] "She" Includes "He."

The word "she" and the derivatives thereof, wherever they occur in this chapter, shall be construed so as to include the word "he" and derivatives. [L. '09, p. 69, § 11.]

CHAPTER XII.

MIDWIFERY.

§ 10174. License Required.

Any person who shall practice midwifery in this state after July first, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, shall first obtain from the state board of medical examiners of the state of Washington a license so to do, and the said board is authorized to grant such license after examination of the applicant as hereinafter provided. [L. '17, p. 717, § 1.]

See infra, § 10854, duties devolve upon director of licenses.

See infra, § 10893, state board of medical examiners abolished.

Practice of midwifery as practice of medicine. 13 Ann. Cas. 571; 17 L. R. A. (N. S.) 94.

§ 10175. Application for License.

Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the said board, at least ten days before the commencement of the said examination, a written application on a form or forms provided by the said board setting forth under affidavit the name, age, nativity, residence, moral character and time spent in obtaining a common school education or its equivalent; that the candidate has received a certificate or diploma from a legally incorporated school on midwifery in good standing, granted after at least two courses of instruction of at least seven months each in different calendar years or a certificate or diploma in a foreign institution on midwifery of equal requirements conferring the full right to practice midwifery in the county in which it was issued. The diploma must bear the seal of the institution from which the applicant was graduated. Foreign applicants must present with the application a translation of the foreign certificate or diploma made by and under the seal of the consulate of the country in which the said certificate or diploma was issued. The application must be indorsed by a duly registered reputable physician of the State of Washington. [L. '17, p. 717, § 2.]

See notes to § 10174.

§ 10176. Admission to Examination.

If the application is approved and the candidate shall have deposited the sum of fifteen dollars ($15) as an examination fee with the secretary of the said board, the candidate shall be admitted to the examination, and in case of failure to pass the examination, may be re-examined at any regular examination within one year without the payment of an additional fee, said fee to be retained by the board after failure to pass the second examination. [L. '17, p. 718, § 3.]

See notes to § 10174.

§ 10177. Examination—Subjects—Issuance of License.

The state board of medical examiners is hereby authorized and empowered to execute the provisions of this act and shall hold examinations in midwifery on the first Monday in January and July, at such places as the board may select, from ten o'clock A. M. to five o'clock P. M., and at such other times as the said board may deem expedient. The examinations may be oral, written, or both, and shall be in the English language; if desired in any other language, an interpreter may be provided by said board upon notification of the secretary at least ten days before examination. The cost of said interpreter shall be defrayed by the applicant for the license.

Examinations shall be held on the following subjects:

- (1) Anatomy of pelvis and female genital organs.
- (2) Physiology of menstruation.
- (3) Diagnosis and management of pregnancy.
- (4) Diagnosis of foetal presentation and position.
- (5) Mechanism and management of normal labor.
- (6) Management of puerperium.

10178 PHYSICIANS, SURGEONS AND TREATMENT OF THE SICK. [TITLE LXVIII

- (7) Injuries to the genital organs following labor.
- (8) Sepsis and anti-sepsis in relation to labor.
- (9) Special care of the bed and lying-in room.
- (10) Hygiene of mother and infant.
- (11) Asphyxiation, convulsions, malformation and infectious diseases of the new-born.
- (12) Causes and effects of ophthalmia neonatorum.
- (13) Abnormal conditions requiring attention of a physician.
- (14) Requirements of the vital statistics laws pertaining to the reporting of births and the rules of the state board of health relative to ophthalmia neonatorum or other infectious diseases of the new-born.

Said examination shall be sufficient to test the scientific and practical fitness of candidates to practice midwifery and the board may require examination on other subjects relating to midwifery from time to time. All application papers shall be deposited with the secretary of the state board of medical examiners and there retained for at least one year, when they may be destroyed.

If said examination is satisfactory, said board shall issue to such candidate a license with the certified copy signed by its president and secretary, and attested by its seal, entitling the candidate to practice midwifery in the state of Washington: Provided, that said license shall not authorize the holder to prescribe any drugs or medicine except some household remedy after the birth of the infant. [L. '17, p. 718, § 4.]

§ 10178. Registration of License.

Every person holding a license authorized in this act must have the same recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county in which the holder is practicing her profession, and the fact of such recording shall be indorsed on the certificate by the county clerk recording the same. Every such person, on a change of her residence, must have the license recorded in the county to which she shall have removed. The absence of such record shall be prima facie evidence of the want of possession of such certificate; and any person practicing midwifery in this state without first having filed her certificate with the county clerk as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [L. '17, p. 719, § 5.]

See notes to § 10174.

§ 10179. Record Book.

The county clerk shall keep in a book provided for the purpose, a complete list of the certificates recorded by him, with the date of the record, and such book shall be open to public inspection during his office hours. [L. '17, p. 720, § 6.]

§ 10180. Refusal or Revocation of License—Grounds—Right to Hearing.

Said board of medical examiners may refuse to grant or may revoke any license herein provided for, for any of the following reasons: Persistent inebriety; the practice of criminal abortion; the commission of any crime involving moral turpitude; presentation of a certificate or diploma for registration or license illegally obtained; application for examination under fraudulent misrepresentation; neglect or refusal to make proper returns to the health officer or health department of births or of puerperal contagion or infectious diseases within the required limit of time; failure to record her license with the clerk of the county in which the licentiate resides or practices; failure to secure the attendance of a reputable physician in a case of miscarriage, hemorrhage, abnormal presentation or position, retained placenta, convulsions, prolapse of the cord, fever during parturient stage, inflammation or discharge from the eyes of a new-born infant, or whenever there are any abnormal or unhealthy symptoms in either the mother or the infant during labor or the puerperium.

In complaints of violations of the provisions of this section, the accused shall be furnished with a copy of the complaint and be given a hearing before said board in person or by attorney. Any midwife refused admittance to the examination or whose license has been revoked who shall attempt or continue the practice of midwifery, shall be subject to the penalties hereinafter prescribed. [L. '17, p. 720, § 7.]

See notes to § 10174.

§ 10181. "Practicing Midwifery," Defined.

Any person shall be regarded as practicing midwifery within the meaning of this act who shall render medical aid to a woman in childbirth for a fee or compensation or who shall advertise as a midwife by signs, printed cards or otherwise. Nothing shall be construed in this act to prohibit gratuitous services. It shall be the duty of a midwife to always secure the immediate services of a legally qualified physician whenever any abnormal signs or symptoms appear either in the mother or the infant. [L. '17, p. 721, § 8.]

§ 10182. Penalty for Violations of Act.

Any person hereafter practicing midwifery in this state without first complying with the provisions of this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than six months, or both, at the discretion of the court. [L. '17, p. 721, § 9.]

§ 10183. Repealing and Saving Clause.

All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act may be and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, this act shall not repeal the provisions of the vital statistics laws of the state, but shall be deemed as additional and cumulative provisions. [L. '17, p. 721, § 10.]

§ 10184. "Certificate" and "License" Synonymous.

The words "certificate" and "license" shall be known as interchangeable terms in this chapter. [L. '17, p. 721, § 11.]

§ 10185. Construction of Act.

This act shall not be construed to interfere in any way with the practice of religion, nor be held to apply to or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer. [L. '17, p. 721, § 12.]

CHAPTER I.

COUNTY AND CITY JAILS.

§ 10186. [8490.] Jailer may have Assistance, When—Compensation.

Whenever the board of county commissioners of any county of the state of Washington deem it necessary for the sheriff of any county to employ assistance for the safekeeping of any person or persons in custody of said sheriff on criminal charge or otherwise it shall be lawful for said commissioners to authorize said sheriff to employ one or more jailers for such purpose, and said county shall pay said jailer quarterly out of any funds in the county not otherwise appropriated: Provided, such compensation shall in no case exceed fifty dollars per month, and shall be fixed by said board of county commissioners. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 2077; L. '83, p. 45, subd. 6; 1 H. C., § 1189.]

See supra, § 4034, county to provide jail.

See supra, § 4160, sheriff may appoint deputies.

See supra, §§ 8966, 9034, first and second class cities may erect.

See supra, § 9180, fourth class city, jail.

§ 10187. [8491.] Temporary Confinement—Price of Board.

All prisoners whom it may be necessary to convey to the place where the superior court is held, or to any place for an examination before the judge, if conveyed beyond the bounds of the county in which they are confined, shall be conveyed to and from their place of confinement by the sheriff of the county in which they are confined, or the sheriff of the county to which such prisoner belongs, at the expense, in the first instance, of the county to which such prisoner belongs; and such sheriff shall have a right to the custody of the prisoner within the limits of any county in this state through which he may pass; and for the temporary confinement of his prisoner may use the county [jail of any county free of charge, except for board, which shall not exceed thirty cents a meal]. [Cd. '81, § 1165; 1 H. C., § 1190.]

§ 10188. [8492.] Board of Prisoners, Price of.

It shall be unlawful for the board of county commissioners of any county in this state to allow more than sixty cents per day for the boarding of each prisoner confined in the county jail of their respective counties. [L. '93, p. 26, § 1.]

§ 10189. [8493.] City Prisoners Sentenced by Justice of Peace to Work, When.

When a person has been sentenced by any justice of the peace in a city in this state to a term of imprisonment in the city jail, whether in default of payment of a fine or otherwise, such person may be compelled on each day of such term, except Sundays, to perform eight hours' labor upon the streets, public buildings, and grounds of such city, and to wear an ordinary ball and chain while performing such labor. [Cd. '81, § 2075; 1 H. C., § 1192.]

§ 10190. [8494.] County Prisoners may be Compelled to Work, When and How.

When a person has been sentenced, by a justice of the peace, or a judge of the superior court, to a term of imprisonment in the county jail, whether in default of payment of a fine or costs, or otherwise, such person may be compelled to work eight hours each day of such term in and about the county buildings, public roads, streets, and grounds: Provided, this section and the last preceding one of this chapter shall not apply to persons committed in default of bail. [Cf. L. '58, p. 10; Cd. '81, § 2076; 1 H. C., § 1193.]

See supra, §§ 1933, 2209, fines how worked out.

See supra, § 2279, employment of prisoners.

See supra, § 4062, county commissioners may order convicts to work.

See infra, § 10208, working prior to conviction prohibited.

See infra, § 10221, and notes, employment of convicts.

§ 10191. [8495.] Superior Judges to Prescribe Rules for Keeping Jails.

The judges of the superior courts of the several counties of this state shall, from time to time, as they may deem necessary, prescribe in writing, rules for the regulation and government of the jails in the several counties, upon the following subjects:

1. The cleanliness of the prisoners;
2. The classification of prisoners in regard to sex;
3. Bed and clothing for persons sentenced for felonies;
4. Warming, lighting and ventilation of the prison;
5. The employment of medical and surgical aid, when necessary;
6. Employment, temperance, and instruction of the prisoners;
7. The supplying of each prisoner with a Bible;
8. The intercourse between prisoners and their counsel and other persons;
9. The punishment of prisoners for violation of the rules of the prison;
10. Such other regulations as said judges may deem necessary to promote the welfare of said prisoners: Provided, that such rules shall not be contrary to or in any way impair laws now existing in this state. [L. '77, p. 302, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1194.]

For validity of this statute, see Cd. '81, §§ 1295, 3320.

§ 10192. [8496.] Rules to be Printed and Furnished to Officers.

The said judges shall, as soon as necessary, cause a copy of said rules to be delivered to the county commissioners in the several counties, and it shall be the duty of said commissioners forthwith to cause the same to be printed, and to furnish the sheriff of their county with a copy of said rules for each and every room or cell of said jail, and also to forward a copy of said rules to the secretary of state, who shall file away and preserve the same. [L. '77, p. 302, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1195.]

§ 10193. [8497.] Sheriff to Keep Rules Posted in Conspicuous Place.

The sheriff shall, on the receipt of said rules, cause a copy thereof to be posted up and continued in some conspicuous place in each and every room or cell of said jail. [L. '77, p. 303, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1196.]

§ 10194. [8498.] Rules—Judges may Revise and Amend—Distribution of.

The judges aforesaid may, from time to time, as they may deem necessary, revise, alter, or amend said rules, and such revised rules shall be printed and disposed of by said commissioners and sheriff, in the same manner as is directed by sections 10191, 10192. [L. '77, p. 303, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1197.]

§ 10195. [8499.] Sheriff to have Charge of Jail and to Conform to Rules.

The sheriff, or in case of his death, removal, or disability, the person appointed by law to supply his place, shall have charge of the county jail of his proper county and of all persons by law confined therein, and such sheriff or other officer is hereby required to conform in all respects to the rules and directions of said judge above specified, or which may from time to time by such judge be made and communicated to him by said commissioners. [L. '77, p. 303, § 5; 1 H. C., § 1198.]

This and the next section are but declaratory of the common law as to the sheriff's duty to exercise ordinary care toward prisoners: Kusah v. McCorkle, 100 Wash. 318, 170 Pac. 1023, L. R. A. 1918C, 1158.

§ 10196. [8500.] Jail Register—Must Contain What Entries.

The sheriff or other officer performing the duties of sheriff of each county in this state shall, as soon as necessary after the passage of this chapter, procure at the expense of the proper county a suitable book to be called the jail register, in which the said sheriff, by himself or his jailer, shall enter—

1. The name of each prisoner, with the date and cause of his or her commitment, together with a list and value of property taken from said prisoner, or delivered to the sheriff or other officer at the time of the commitment of said prisoner;

2. The date or manner of his or her discharge;

3. What sickness, if any, has prevailed in the jail during the year, and if known, what was the cause of such disease;

4. Whether any or what labor has been performed by the prisoners, and the value thereof;

5. The practice observed during the year of whitewashing and cleaning the occupied cells or apartments, and the times and seasons of so doing;

6. The habits of the prisoners as to personal cleanliness, diet, and order;

7. The means furnished prisoners of literary, moral and religious instruction;

8. All other matters required by said rules or in the discretion of such sheriff deemed proper; that the said sheriff, or other officer performing the duties of sheriff, shall carefully keep and preserve the said jail register in the office of the jailer of his proper county, and at the expiration of said office shall deliver the same to his successor in office. [L. '77, p. 303, § 6; 1 H. C., § 1199.]

Cited in 100 Wash. 322.

§ 10197. [8501.] Sheriff must Make Report—Copies of.

The sheriff or other officer performing the duties of the sheriff shall, on or before the first day of October in each year, make out in writing from said jail register a jail report, one copy of which said report he shall forthwith file in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the proper county, one copy with the county auditor of his county for the use of the commissioners thereof, and one copy of said report he shall transmit to the secretary of state, and it shall be the duty of said secretary to communicate the report of the several sheriffs of this state to the legislature on or before the tenth day of its session. [L. '77, p. 303, § 7; 1 H. C., § 1200.]

§ 10198. [8502.] Duty of Court to Inform Grand Jury of Rules, Plans, etc.

It shall be the duty of the superior court to give this chapter in charge of the grand jury once each session of said court (if a grand jury is in attendance), and lay before them any and all rules, plans, or regulations established by the superior judge relating to county jails and prison discipline which shall then be in force. [L. '77, p. 304, § 8; 1 H. C., § 1201.]

§ 10199. [8503.] Visiting and Management of.

The grand jury of each county shall visit the jail of the county where the court is held, examine its state and condition; examine and inquire into the discipline and treatment of prisoners, their habits, diet, and accommodation; and it shall be their duty to report to said court, in writing, whether the rules of the said judges have been faithfully kept and observed, or whether any of the provisions of this act have been violated. It shall also be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of each county, once in each year, to visit the jails not accessible to the grand jury, and he shall make a report to the superior court to the same effect as required of the grand jury. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of each county of this state to visit the jail of their county once during each of their regular meetings of each year. [L. '77, p. 304, § 9; 1 H. C., § 1202.]

§ 10200. [8504.] Sheriff to Visit Jail in Person—Whitewashing.

The sheriff shall visit the jail in person and examine into the condition of each prisoner at least once each month, and it is hereby made his duty to cause all the cells and rooms used for the confinement of prisoners to be thoroughly whitewashed at least three times in each year. [L. '77, p. 304, § 10; 1 H. C., § 1203.]

§ 10201. [8505.] Prisoner may be Ordered into Solitary Confinement, When.

Whenever any person committed to prison for any cause whatever shall be unruly, or shall disobey any of the regulations established for the management of prisons, the sheriff or keeper may order such prisoner in solitary confinement, and fed on bread and water only, unless other food shall be necessary for the preservation of his health, and no intercourse shall be allowed with such prisoner during such confinement, except for conveyance of food and other necessary purposes, but such period of confinement shall not exceed twenty days for each offense. [L. '77, p. 304, § 11; 1 H. C., § 1204.]

See supra, § 2208, forms of sentence and solitary confinement.

§ 10202. [8506.] Keeper of Jail may have Prisoner's Hair Cropped.

The keeper of any prison may, upon the commitment after judgment of a person convicted of a felony punishable by imprisonment, cause the hair on the head of said prisoner to be closely crop[p]ed and so kept during his term of imprisonment. [L. '77, p. 304, § 12; 1 H. C., § 1205.]

§ 10203. [8507.] Jailer must be an Appointed Deputy—Oath of Office.

The jailer or keeper of the jail, unless the sheriff elect to act as jailer in person, shall be a deputy appointed by the sheriff, and such jailer shall take the necessary oath before entering upon the duties of his office; the sheriff shall in all cases be liable for the negligence and misconduct of the jailer as of other deputies. [L. '77, p. 305, § 13; 1 H. C., § 1206.]

See supra, § 10186.

That portion of this section regarding pay of jailer is omitted as repealed.

§ 10204. City and Town Jails and Workhouses.

Cities and towns shall have authority to acquire, build, operate and maintain jails, workhouses, workshops, stockades and other places of detention and confinement at any place within the territorial limits of the county in which such city or town is situated, as may be selected by the legislative authority of such municipality. [L. '17, p. 346, § 1.]

§ 10205. County Jails, etc.

Counties shall have authority to acquire, build, operate and maintain jails, workhouses, workshops, stockades, and other places of detention and confinement at any place within the limits of such county as may be designated by the county commissioners thereof. [L. '17, p. 346, § 2.]

§ 10206. Contracts Between City and County for Joint Jails, etc.—Employment of Inmates.

Any city or town shall have authority to contract with the county in which such city or town may be located, and such county shall have authority to contract with any such city or town for the joint acquirement, erection, ownership, control and maintenance of any jail, workhouse, workshop, stockade, or other place of detention and confinement within the limits of any such county and for the care, keep, custody, control, confinement and employment of the city, town or county prisoners heretofore or hereafter convicted of offenses against the laws of the state or of the ordinances of such city or town punishable by fine or by confinement in any such county, city or town jail, in any jail, workhouse, workshop, stockade or other place of detention and confinement so provided by such county, city or town, or which may be so jointly provided by such county, city or town. The legislative authority of any city or town and the county commissioners of any county shall have authority to employ persons so convicted and under sentence upon such public works as may be designated by such county, city or town, or by any contract between same as in this act authorized. [L. '17, p. 346, § 3.]

§ 10207. Joint Authority and Powers.

When such contract shall have been entered into by and between any city or town and county for the joint acquirement, ownership, control and maintenance of any jail, or for the care, keep, custody, control, confinement and employment of any such persons in any jail, workhouse, workshop, stockade, or other place of detention and confinement, the legislative authority of any such city or town and the board of county commissioners of any such county shall have authority acting under and by virtue of any sentence imposed by any court upon any person so convicted to provide for the care, keep, and custody of any such person in any such place of confinement so provided, and to further provide for the employment of such person or persons at or upon such public work as may be designated from time to time by such authority. [L. '17, p. 347, § 4.]

§ 10208. Working Accused Prior to Conviction.

No person now or hereafter accused of an offense shall before conviction be put to any employment while confined in any place of detention herein specified. [L. '17, p. 347, § 5.]

§ 10209. Prisoners Committed by United States.

It shall be the duty of all county sheriffs or other officials having charge of jails to receive and keep in such jail, where room therefor is available, all prisoners committed thereto by process or order issued under the authority of the United States until discharged according to law, the same as if such prisoners had been committed under process issued under authority of the state of Washington, provisions being made by the United States for the support of said prisoners, and any extra guards or attendants required. [L. '17, p. 347, § 6.]

CHAPTER II.

THE STATE PENITENTIARY.

§ 10210. [8508.] Penitentiary at Walla Walla, What Constitutes.

The entire area of lands situated near the city of Walla Walla, donated to the territory of Washington for penitentiary purposes by the people of Walla Walla, together with all structures, buildings, and inclosures thereon, are hereby declared to be, and they shall hereafter be known as the state penitentiary. [L. '91, p. 353, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1141.]

For former laws on the subject of this chapter, see L. '55, pp. 9, 10; L. '57, pp. 32, 33; L. '61, pp. 4—6; L. '63, pp. 498—500; L. '67, pp. 118—124; L. '69, pp. 358—360; L. '71, pp. 80—82; L. '75, pp. 77, 78; L. '83, pp. 82, 83; L. '86, pp. 152—155; L. '88, pp. 158—161 and 164—168.

§ 10211. [8509.] General Duties of Board.

It shall be the duty of the state board of control to determine the necessary officers and employees of the penitentiary, other than those provided for by law, specifying their duties severally and fixing their salaries, to prescribe rules and regulations for the government of the penitentiary, and to revise and change the same from time to time as circumstances may require, and to board and lodge the officers and employees; Provided, the superintendent may make temporary rules in case of emergency, to remain in force until the succeeding meeting of the board. At least two of the board shall visit the penitentiary once in each month, and oftener if necessary, at such time as they may select. The said board shall audit all claims for supplies, service, and expenses of officers, and employees, and all other demands against the penitentiary;

2. To enter, or cause to be entered, on their journal, by the clerk, all official acts, which shall be signed by at least two members of the board.

3. On or before the 1st day of December of each year, to report to the governor the condition of the penitentiary, together with detailed statements of receipts and expenditures, and such suggestions concerning the prisoners as may appear to be necessary and expedient;

4. The board shall also adopt rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, for the government of the board, and may change them at their pleasure. [L. '91, p. 354, § 5; 1 H. C., § 1145.]

See infra, § 10794, duties of board of control devolve upon director of business control.

See infra, § 10893, state board of control abolished.

Query: To what extent this section is continued in force or repealed by § 10918, infra.

"Superintendent" substituted for "warden": See § 10902, infra.

See infra, § 10899, duties generally.

See infra, § 10901, visits every three months.

§ 10212. [8510.] Superintendent—Bond, and Official Term of.

The superintendent of the penitentiary shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation faithfully to perform the duties of his office, as prescribed by law and by the rules and regulations of the board, and to enter into a bond to the state of Washington in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board and the attorney general of the state, conditioned to the faithful performance of such duties as such officer aforesaid, and he shall hold office four years after such appointment, unless sooner removed for cause by the board. [L. '91, p. 354, § 6; 1 H. C., § 1146; L. '95, p. 342, § 1.]

Adapted; "superintendent" substituted for "warden" in this chapter: See § 10902, infra.

See infra, § 10902, appointment, salary and term.

§ 10213. [8511.] General Duties of Superintendent—Residence.

The superintendent shall reside at the penitentiary in a house provided and furnished at the expense of the state, as may be ordered by the board, and it shall be his duty—

1. Under the order and direction of the board to prosecute all suits at law or in equity that may be necessary to protect the rights of the state in matters or property connected with the penitentiary and its management, such suits to be prosecuted by the prosecuting attorney of Walla Walla county, in the name of the board of control; and that he be allowed ten dollars per day for each day actually employed by said board: Provided, this amount shall not exceed five hundred dollars per annum;

2. To supervise the government, discipline, and police of the penitentiary, and to enforce all orders and regulations of the board in respect to the penitentiary. He shall keep a registry of the convicts, in which shall be entered the names of each convict, the crime for which he is convicted, the period of his sentence, from what county sentenced, by what court sentenced, his nativity, to what degree educated, an accurate description of his person, and whether he has previously been confined in a prison in this or any other state, and if so where, and how he was discharged;

3. He shall report to the governor before the 20th of each month the names of all prisoners whose terms are about to expire, giving in such report the terms of their sentences, the date of imprisonment, the amount of total credits to date of such report, and the date when their date [term] would expire by limitation of sentence;

4. To perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board of directors. [L. '91, p. 355, § 7; 1 H. C., § 1147.]

See notes to §§ 10211, 10212.

See infra, § 10903, furnished with quarters.

Cited in 19 Wash. 76.

§ 10214. [8512.] May Appoint a Clerk—Oath—Bond of.

The state board shall appoint a clerk for the penitentiary, who shall take an oath of office, and enter into a bond to the state, with sureties satisfactory to the board, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge the duties required of him. The clerk shall hold his office for the period of four years after his appointment, unless sooner removed for cause by the board. [L. '91, p. 355, § 8; 1 H. C., § 1148; L. '95, p. 342, § 2.]

See notes to §§ 10211, 10212.

See § 10902, infra, authorizing the board to determine and fix the number and salary of employees.

Under this section the directors, acting in their official capacity, may bring an action in their own names for the benefit of the state upon the official bond of the warden to recover on account of his defalcation of public funds: Nye v. Kelly, 19 Wash. 73, 52 Pac. 528.

§ 10215. [8513.] Accounts, How Kept.

The clerk shall require from the superintendent daily, a statement of his cash receipts and expenditures, and shall keep the financial accounts of the penitentiary and books by the double entry system, and in such manner as will exhibit clearly all the financial transactions of the penitentiary. The clerk shall keep such books by double entry system as will clearly and accurately show the transactions of and between the different departments, and by proper and systematic accounts show accurately expense of each department, and earnings, if any. He shall, by vouchers, requisitions and receipts, provide an absolute check upon each department's transactions. He shall also perform such other duties as may from time to time be required of him by the board. [L. '91, p. 356, § 9; 1 H. C., § 1149; L. '95, p. 342, § 3.]

See notes to §§ 10211, 10212.

See § 10899, authorizing the board to provide a uniform system of keeping accounts, etc.

§ 10216. [8514.] No Intemperate Person shall be Employed—Removal of.

No person shall be appointed to any office or be employed in the penitentiary on behalf of the state, who is in the habit of intemperate use of liquors, and a single act of intemperance shall justify his discharge or removal. [L. '91, p. 356, § 10; 1 H. C., § 1150.]

§ 10217. [8515.] General Power of Removal for Misconduct, etc.

Any officer or employee may be removed by the state board at any time for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty. [L. '91, p. 356, § 11; 1 H. C., § 1151.]

See notes, to §§ 10211, 10212.

See infra, § 10902, power of removal.

§ 10218. [8516.] Receipt and Disbursement of Moneys—Penitentiary Fund—Vouchers.

All moneys received or collected by the superintendent by virtue of this act, unless otherwise provided, shall be paid by him into the state treasury to the credit of a fund to be known as the penitentiary fund, at least as often as once per month, excepting so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the expenses and money allowed discharged prisoners, and the current expenses of maintaining and operating the penitentiary, and the expenses of his officers and employees. The superintendent shall require vouchers for all moneys by him expended, and safely keep the same on file in his office at the penitentiary. For all sums of money required to be paid, other than for the uses above named, as well as for said uses, when there is not sufficient money in the hands of the superintendent, drafts shall be drawn on the auditor of state, signed by at least two members of the board, and the auditor of state shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer, who shall pay the same out of any moneys belonging to the penitentiary fund or appropriated for the use or support of the penitentiary. The amount of all money retained by the superintendent, and the aggregate amount paid out shall be reported quarterly to the auditor of state, and the proper entries shall be made on the auditor's books. [L. '91, p. 357, § 15; 1 H. C., § 1155.]

Sections 10210—10232, 10908, comprise "this act."

See notes to §§ 10211, 10212.

See supra, § 5501, a later enactment, requiring daily payments by state officers authorized to receive or collect money.

§ 10219. [8517.] Superintendent has Control of Revenues.

All revenues of the penitentiary, unless herein otherwise provided, shall be paid to the superintendent, who alone is authorized to receipt for the same and discharge him from liability. When any sum of money is paid to the superintendent he shall cause the same to be properly entered on the books by the clerk. [L. '91, p. 358, § 16; 1 H. C., § 1156.]

See note to last section.

§ 10220. [8518.] Reports of Moneys to be Made to State Auditor.

On payment of any moneys into the state treasury, as provided in this act, the superintendent and state treasurer shall report to the auditor of state the amount so paid, and the state treasurer shall give the superintendent a receipt therefor which receipt shall be filed with the auditor. The superintendent shall report to the auditor of state the amount of money paid into said treasury by him during each month, and shall also report to said auditor of state the amount received and disbursed by him every three months, and during the period for which such report shall be made, which quarterly report shall be signed by the warden and at least two members of the board. [L. '91, p. 358, § 17; 1 H. C., § 1157.]

See note to § 10218, as to "this act."

§ 10221. [8519.] Employment of Convicts—Manufacture and Sale of Articles.

All convicts may be employed by authority of the board, under charge of the superintendent and such skilled foremen as they may deem necessary in the performance of work for the state, or the manufacture of any article or articles for the state, or the manufacture of which is sanctioned by law. At Walla Walla, at the state penitentiary, no articles shall be manufactured for sale, except jute fabrics and brick. The board is hereby authorized to purchase, from time to time, such tools, machinery, and materials, and to direct the employment of such skilled foremen, as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and to dispose of the articles manufactured and not needed by the state, for cash, at private sale, in such manner as provided by law. [L. '91, p. 358, § 18; 1 H. C., § 1158.]

See note to § 10211, supra.

See supra, § 10190, and notes, employment of prisoners.

See infra, § 10223, working convicts, commutation of time.

§ 10222. [8520.] Rules as to Treatment of Prisoners—Insane Convicts.

In the treatment of the prisoners the following general rules shall be observed:—

1. Each convict shall be provided with a bed of straw or other suitable material, and sufficient covering of blankets, and shall be supplied with garments of coarse, substantial material, of distinctive manufacture, and with sufficient plain and wholesome food of such variety as may be most conducive of good health;

2. No punishment shall be inflicted except by the order and under the direction of [the] superintendent;

3. The superintendent shall keep a correct account of all money and valuables upon the prisoner when delivered at the prison, and shall pay the amount, or the proceeds therefor, or return the same, to the convict when discharged, or to his legal representative in case of his death; and in the case of the death of such convict without being released, if no legal representative shall demand such property within five years, the same shall be paid into the penitentiary fund;

4. The rules and regulations prescribing the duties and obligations of the prisoners shall be printed and hung up in each cell and shop;

5. Each convict when he leaves the penitentiary shall be supplied with the money taken from him when he entered, and which he has not disposed of, together with any sum which may have been earned by him for his own account, allowed to him by the state for good conduct or diligent labor, or may have been presented to him from any source; and in case the prisoner has not funds sufficient for present purposes he shall be furnished with five dollars in money, a suit of clothes costing not more than ten dollars, and transportation by the cheapest route to the place where sentenced from, which shall be void if not used in twenty-four hours, if the prisoner desires to return there, or to any other place of the same cost; and he shall be entitled, if he so elect, to immunity from having his hair cut or from having been shaved for three calendar months immediately prior to his discharge. It shall not be lawful for the officers of the penitentiary to furnish or permit to be furnished to anyone for publication the name of any prisoner about to be discharged. When the superintendent, and such other officers as may be designated by the directors to act with him in such cases, shall be of opinion that any convict is insane, they shall make proper examination, and if they remain of the opinion that such person is insane, the superintendent shall certify the fact to the superintendent of one of the state asylums for the insane, and shall forthwith send such convict to said asylum for care and treatment. If at the expiration of the term of sentence the insane convict is still in the insane asylum, he shall be allowed to remain there until discharged cured. It shall be the duty of the superintendent also to send to the board a copy of such certificate, and thereafter a statement as to his subsequent acts, regarding the said insane convict. And it shall be the duty of the superintendent of the insane asylum to receive such convict, and keep him until cured. It shall be his duty, upon receipt of such insane convict, to notify the board of the fact, giving name, date, and where from, and from whose hands received. When in the opinion of the superintendent such insane convict is cured of insanity, it shall be his duty to immediately notify the board thereof; and it shall be his duty also to notify the superintendent of the prison from whence he was received, who shall immediately send for, take, and receive the said convict back into the penitentiary, the time passed at the asylum counting as a part of such convict's sentence. Before discharging any convict who may be insane at the time of the expiration of his sentence, the superintendent shall first give notice in writing to a judge of a superior court of the county in which the penitentiary is located, of the fact of such insanity, whereupon said court shall forthwith make an order, and deliver the same to the sheriff of said county, commanding him to remove such insane convict, and take him before said court. Upon receipt of such order it shall be the duty of said sheriff to whom it is directed to execute and return the same forthwith to the court by whom it was issued, and thereupon the said court shall cause proper examination to be made by medical experts, and if it shall satisfactorily appear that such convict is insane, said court shall order him to be confined in one of the insane asylums. [The sheriff shall receive the same compensation as for transferring a prisoner to the penitentiary, and to be paid in the same manner.] If any judge, after having been notified by the superintendent, shall neglect to cause such order to be made as herein provided, or any such sheriff shall neglect to remove any such insane convict as required by the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of the superintendent to cause such insane convict to be removed before a superior court of a county in which the penitentiary is located, in charge of an officer of the penitentiary, or other suitable person, for the purpose of examination; and the cost of such removal shall be paid out of the state treasury, in the same manner as when removed by the sheriff as herein provided. [L. '91, p. 359, § 19; 1 H. C., § 1159.]

§ 10223. [8521.] Working Convicts—Commutation of Time, etc.

The board of control shall require of every able-bodied convict confined in the penitentiary as many hours of faithful labor in each and every day during his term of imprisonment as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the penitentiary. Every convict who shall have no refraction of the rules and regulations of the penitentiary or laws of the state recorded against him, and who performs in a faithful, orderly and peaceful manner the duties assigned him, shall be allowed from his term, instead and in lieu of the credits heretofore allowed by law, a deduction of two months in each of the first two years, four months in each of the next two years, and five months in each of the remaining years of his term, and pro rata for any part of the year where the sentence is for more or less than a year. Each convict shall be entitled to these deductions unless the board of directors shall find that for misconduct or other cause he should not receive them. But if any convict shall commit any assault upon his keeper or any foreman, officer, convict or person, or otherwise endanger life, or shall be guilty of any flagrant disregard of the rules of the penitentiary, or commit any misdemeanor, or in any manner violate any rules and regulations of the penitentiary, he shall forfeit all deductions of time earned by him for good conduct before the commission of such offense, or that, under this section, he may earn in the future, or shall forfeit such part of such deductions as to the board of directors may seem just; such forfeiture, however, shall be made only by the board after due proof of the offense and notice to the offender, nor shall any forfeiture be imposed when a party has violated any rule or rules without violence or evil intent, of which the board shall be sole judges. The board shall have power to restore credits forfeited, for such reasons as to them may seem proper. [Cf. L. '88, p. 55, § 1; L. '91, p. 361, § 20; 1 H. C., § 1160; L. '97, p. 201, § 1.]

§ 10224. [8522.] Superintendent's Report to Governor.

The superintendent of the penitentiary shall report to the governor at least once in three months the names of the convicts who by their faithful performance of duty, good and meritorious conduct, he believes entitled to executive clemency, stating the time of conviction, for what crime convicted, length of sentence, and reasons for favorable consideration; which report shall be kept on file in the governor's office for reference. [L. '97, p. 202, § 2.]

See note to §§ 10211, 10212.

This section does not appear to be covered in the title of the act.

§ 10225. [8523.] Contract for Supply of Water—Power to Erect Buildings.

The board of control shall have power to contract for the supply of water for said penitentiary, upon such terms as said board shall deem to be for the best interests of the state, or furnish water themselves, at their option. The board shall have full power to erect any building or structure deemed necessary by them, or to alter or improve the same, and to pay for the same from the fund appropriated for the use or support of the penitentiary, or from the earnings thereof, without advertising or contracting therefor: Provided, that no buildings or structure the cost of which will exceed three thousand dollars shall be erected or constructed without first obtaining the consent of the governor, secretary, and treasurer of the state, or a majority thereof: Provided, that such expenditure shall in no instance exceed ten thousand dollars without special appropriation therefor by the state legislature. [L. '91, p. 362, § 21; 1 H. C., § 1161.]

§ 10226. [8524.] Compensation of Officers and Employees—Restrictions—Penalty.

No officer or employee shall receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation for his services other than that prescribed by the board; nor shall he receive any compensation whatever, directly or indirectly, for any act or service which he may do or perform for or on behalf of any contractor or agent or employee of a contractor. For any violations of the provisions of this section the officer, agent, or employee of the state shall be discharged from his office or service; and every contractor, or employee or agent of a contractor, engaged therein shall be expelled from the penitentiary grounds, and not again permitted within the same as a contractor, agent, or employee. [L. '91, p. 362, § 22; 1 H. C., § 1162.]

See notes to §§ 10211, 10212.

§ 10227. [8525.] Dealings With Prisoners Prohibited—Penalty.

No officer or employee of the state, or contractor or employee of a contractor, shall, without permission of the board of control, make any gift or present to a convict, or receive any from a convict, or have any barter or dealing with a prisoner. For every violation of the provisions of this section the party engaged therein shall incur the same penalty as prescribed in the last preceding section. [L. '91, p. 362, § 23; 1 H. C., § 1163.]

See notes to §§ 10211, 10212.

§ 10228. [8526.] Officers and Employees not to be Interested in Contracts.

No officer or employee of the penitentiary shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or purchase made or authorized to be made by anyone for or on behalf of the penitentiary. [L. '91, p. 363, § 24; 1 H. C., § 1164.]

All the bonds of officers and employees under this act shall be deposited with the secretary of state. [L. '91, p. 363, § 26; 1 H. C., § 1166.]

See note to § 10218, as to "this act."

§ 10231. [8529.] Rewards—Power of Board to Offer.

The board shall have power to offer rewards not exceeding two hundred dollars, in the one case for the return of escaped convicts, and to pay the expenses of the apprehension, safekeeping, and return of all escaped convicts by the officers of the penitentiary. They shall certify the amount of reward allowed and expenses incurred to the state auditor, who shall draw his warrant for the amount found due on the state treasurer, who shall pay the same out of the penitentiary fund. See note to § 10211.

§ 10232. [8530.] Penalty for Assisting Prisoner to Escape, etc.

Any person who shall unlawfully take or carry, or cause to be taken or carried to the penitentiary, for the use of any person confined therein, any weapon or explosive, shall be guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, or any term of years. [L. '05, p. 76, § 1. Cf. L. '91, p. 363, § 28; 1 H. C., § 1168.]

See supra, §§ 2343—2346, aiding prisoner to escape.

§ 10233. [8531.] Felony to Provide Means of Escape.

Any person who shall unlawfully take or carry, or cause to be taken or carried to the penitentiary, for the use of any person confined therein, any rope, cord, wire or mechanical tool or device which can be used to attempt an escape, or any opium, morphine or other drug, or who shall aid any prisoner confined therein, in any way to escape, or who shall harbor or conceal any escaped prisoner, shall be guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than ten (10) years nor less than one (1) year, or by fine not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) nor less than one hundred dollars ($100), or by both fine and imprisonment. [L. '05, p. 76, § 1.]

See references and note to § 10232.

§ 10234. [8532.] Governor to Appoint Chaplain.

There shall be appointed by the governor a chaplain of the state penitentiary who shall hold office for the term of two years, unless sooner removed by the governor. [L. '05, p. 63, § 1.]

§ 10235. [8533.] Duties and Quarterly Reports of Chaplain.

It shall be the duty of the chaplain of the state penitentiary to perform religious services in the prison, at least once every Sabbath, himself, unless prevented by sickness, in which case he may furnish a regularly ordained preacher, and to attend to the spiritual wants of the convicts; to visit the convicts in their cells for the purpose of giving them religious and moral instructions, and to devote at least one hour in each week day and the afternoon of each Sunday to such instructions; to take charge of the library and to take care that no improper books are introduced into the cells of the convicts, and if any such books shall be found either in the cells or in the possession of the convicts, to take away and return the same to the superintendent, and for the purpose of properly discharging these duties, to visit weekly each cell in the prison; to visit daily the sick in the hospital; to make quarterly report to the governor, stating the number of convicts that have been instructed during the last quarter, the branches of education in which they shall have been instructed, the text-books used in such instruction, and the progress made by the convicts, and to note especially, any cases in which an unusual progress has been made by a convict; to make an annual report on or before the first day of November in each year, to the governor, which report shall be attested by his oath or affirmation to be just and true, relative to the religious and moral conduct of the prisoners during the year ending with the last day of the previous September, stating therein what services he has performed and the results, if any, of his instructions, and he shall append thereto, as far as practicable in tabular form, a statement exhibiting the number of the convicts in prison on the last day of such September, and at what age convicted, specifying separately the number born in the United States, foreigners, and of what country, and the nativity of their parents, the number that cannot read, that can read only, read and write, well educated, classically educated, temperate, intemperate, healthy, diseased, whether employed at the time of the commission of the crime, counties where convicted, occupation, sentence, how many times recommitted and social state: Provided, that at no time shall such chaplain visit any portion of the state penitentiary or any convict therein without the consent of the superintendent; and provided further, that all reports of such chaplain shall be made to the superintendent. [L. '05, p. 63, § 2.]

§ 10236. [8534.] Salary and Office of Chaplain.

He shall receive for his services a yearly salary of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) which shall be paid in the same manner as that of other state officers. He shall be supplied with an office in the state penitentiary, which shall be furnished with fuel and light. [L. '05, p. 64, § 3.]

See Const., Art. I, § 11, no public money to be appropriated for religious worship.

§ 10237. [8535.] No Distinction as to Denominations.

Nothing in the last section contained shall be so construed as to exclude ministers of any denomination from giving gratuitous religious or moral instruction to prisoners. [Cd. '81, § 3297.]

"Last section" refers to Code of 1881, § 3296, superseded by §§ 10234—10236.

§ 10238. [8536.] Transportation of Prisoners—Costs.

The costs of transporting prisoners convicted and sentenced to imprisonment in the state penitentiary by the laws of this state shall be paid for by the state as hereinafter provided. [L. '88, p. 54, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1178.]

See infra, § 10920, transportation of convicts, etc., under supervision of state board of control.

§ 10239. [8537.] Term of Confinement Commences, When.

When a person is sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary, his term of confinement therein commences from the day of his delivery at such prison to the proper officer thereof, and no time during which such person is voluntarily absent from such penitentiary can be estimated or counted a part of the term for which such person was sentenced. [L. '88, p. 57, § 6; 1 H. C., § 1181.]

See supra, §§ 1745, 1746, commencement of term, appeal, effect.

§ 10240. [8538.] Record of Credits of Prisoner Sentenced for Life.

A record of the credits for good behavior shall be kept in the case of any convict undergoing a sentence in the penitentiary for life, as though said convict were undergoing a sentence for a term of years, such record to be certified by the superintendent to the governor, in the case of an application for pardon by said convict. [L. '88, p. 56, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1182.]

See supra, § 2282, boards to determine period of confinement and grant paroles.

See supra, § 2223, pardons.

See infra, § 10247, parole.

§ 10241. [8539.] Governor may Purchase Literature for Use of Convicts.

The governor of said state [shall] be and he is hereby authorized to purchase newspapers, magazines, or books for the use of the convicts in the state penitentiary to the amount of fifty dollars annually; and he is hereby authorized to purchase a number of volumes of the Seaside and Franklin Square Library, to the amount of twenty-five dollars. [Cd. '81, p. 3295; 1 H. C., § 1183.]

Part of this section is manifestly temporary.

§ 10242. [8540.] Governor to Visit Penitentiary—Expenses, How Paid.

The governor of the state shall visit the penitentiary at least once a year, and as much oftener as he shall deem necessary, and shall be allowed all actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred by reason of his said visits, and he shall certify the same to the state auditor. [L. '88, p. 168, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1184.]

Cited in 19 Wash. 637.

§ 10243. [8541.] Conviction of Felony to be Certified to State Auditor.

In all convictions for felony punishable by imprisonment in the state penitentiary, the clerk of the superior court in which such conviction shall have occurred shall forthwith, after sentence, certify the fact of such conviction to the state auditor, giving date of such sentence, the name and age (if known) of the party, the nature of the crime for which convicted, and the duration of the sentence imposed by the court. [L. '83, p. 71, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1185.]

§ 10244. [8542.] Information as to Prisoners—Superintendent to Report, etc.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent or keeper of the state penitentiary, immediately upon the expiration of the time for which any prisoner confined in the state prison is convicted, or upon the death, pardon, release, or escape of any such prisoner, to give official notice thereof to the state auditor. It shall be the duty of said superintendent or keeper of the prison, on or before the first day of January, 1884, to make out a detailed report to the state auditor, to be filed in his office, showing—

1. The names of all prisoners committed to the penitentiary from and after the first day of June, 1878;
2. The county from which committed;
3. The nature of the crime for which convicted;
4. The duration of the sentence, also the names and number of all those who have died, who have been discharged, or who have escaped from said penitentiary since the first day of June, 1878. [L. '83, p. 71, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1186.]

See supra, § 10213, general duties of superintendent.

See infra, § 10910, record of inmates kept by board of control.

§ 10245. [8543.] Penalty for Neglect or Refusal to Give Such Information.

Should the superintendent or keeper of the state penitentiary neglect or refuse to give notice to the state auditor, as provided in the last preceding section of this chapter, he shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to a fine in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, in any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall stand committed until said fine is paid. [L. '83, p. 72, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1187.]

§ 10246. [8544.] Record to be Kept by State Auditor, and to Embody What Facts.

It shall be the duty of the state auditor to keep a public record of all convictions of parties sentenced to the state penitentiary, such record to embody the full data of facts reported to him under sections 10243 and 10244. [L. '83, p. 72, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1188.]

CHAPTER III.

PARDONS AND PAROLES.

§ 10247. [8545.] Power of Governor to Parole.

The governor shall have the authority, upon recommendation of the superintendent of the state penitentiary, under such rules and regulations as the governor may prescribe, to suspend the sentence of, issue a parole to, and permit to go at large within the state, any convict who now is or hereafter may be imprisoned in the state penitentiary, under a sentence other than a life sentence, or for the crime of murder, who may have served one year for the crime for which he was convicted, and who has not previously served one term of imprisonment in any penal institution for felony. [L. '99, p. 36, § 1.]

See supra, § 2223, pardons.

See supra, § 2282, paroles by boards.

See infra, § 10291, paroles from reformatory.

In General: See Remington's Digest, Pardons, §§ 1—4, and cases cited.

Under Ballinger's Code, section 6997, authorizing conditional pardons to be granted by the governor, on such limitations as he may think proper, the provision that he may "issue his warrant to carry into effect such pardon," is not limited to the issuance of the warrant granting the pardon, but reposes power in the governor to issue a warrant revoking a pardon which expressly provides that violation of its conditions shall cause its revocation, in the absence of any other statutory provision for determining when the conditions are violated: Spencer v. Kees, 47 Wash. 276, 91 Pac. 963.

By Ballinger's Code, sections 204—208, establishing the state board of pardons, the legislature did not intend to abrogate the pardoning powers of the governor under Constitution, Article III, section 9, and recommendations of the board are not binding on the governor: State ex rel. Rogers v. Jenkins, 20 Wash. 78, 54 Pac. 765.

Revocation for condition broken, of conditional pardon or parole, without notice or hearing. L. B. A. 1915F, 541.

§ 10248. [8546.] Governor may Withdraw Parole.

Every such convict while on parole shall remain in the legal custody and under the control of the governor and shall be subject at any time to be taken back within the inclosure of the prison from which he was thereby permitted to go at large, for any reason that shall be satisfactory to the governor, and at his sole discretion and full power to retake and return any such paroled convict to the prison from which he was permitted to go at large, is hereby expressly conferred upon the governor, whose written order, when duly attested by the secretary of state, shall be a sufficient warrant authorizing all officers named therein to return to actual custody in the prison from which he was permitted to go at large, any such paroled convict, and it is hereby made the duty of all officers to execute said order the same as an ordinary criminal process. [L. '99, p. 37, § 2.]

See, also, infra, § 10292.

§ 10249. [8547.] Time of Sentence Runs With Parole—Breaking of Parole.

This act shall not be construed to in any sense operate as a release of any convict paroled under its provisions, but simply as a suspension of his sentence and a permit granted to such convict to go without the inclosure of the prison. At the expiration of the time for which he was originally sentenced, if he has faithfully complied with his parole the original sentence shall be held to be revoked, and said convict shall stand as fully pardoned of the crime for which he was convicted. If, however, any convict while on parole shall go beyond the limits of the state without written permission from the governor he shall be held to be an escaped convict and treated as such and retaken. [L. '99, p. 37, § 3.]

See infra, § 10292, retaking prisoners paroled from state reformatory.

If a prisoner rearrested after release on a conditional pardon, is entitled to trial in habeas corpus proceedings to determine whether he has violated the conditions of the pardon, he cannot complain if he is awarded a trial before the court and the burden of proof is placed on the state: Spencer v. Kees, 47 Wash. 276, 91 Pac. 963.

A prisoner who is pardoned upon condition that he should be placed under the care and surveillance of Dr. B., and that he should remain with and be supported by his relatives as long as he lives, is shown to have violated the conditions of the pardon where he remained with his relatives only a few days, was permitted to support himself, was married, visited houses of prostitution and frequently became intoxicated: Spencer v. Kees, 47 Wash. 276, 91 Pac. 963.

CHAPTER IV.

PENITENTIARY PRODUCTS AND EMPLOYMENT OF CONVICTS.

§ 10257. [8555.] Labor Employed in Manufacture of Jute Fabrics and Brick.

In the manufacture of jute fabrics and brick the board of control shall employ such skilled labor as is found necessary and as many convicts as possible. [L. '91, p. 202, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1170.]

See notes to § 10211.

Validity of statute requiring goods made by convict labor to be so marked. Ann. Cas. 1913B, 817.

§ 10258. [8556.] Revolving Fund for Purchase of Jute, etc.

The sum of fifty thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated to provide a permanent revolving fund for the purchase and delivery at the state penitentiary of jute, clay and other materials for the manufacture of jute and other fabrics and brick. [L. '91, p. 202, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1173; L. '93, p. 212, § 1.]

See appropriations, L. '97, p. 199.

Provisions relating to the revolving fund seem to be superseded by § 5501, supra, requiring daily payments into the state treasury.

Cited in 13 Wash. 321.

§ 10259. [8557.] Payment from Fund, How Made.

Payments from the revolving fund shall be made by the state treasurer upon warrants drawn by the state auditor upon the certified accounts of the directors of the state penitentiary audited by him. [L. '91, p. 203, § 5; 1 H. C., § 1174; L. '93, p. 212, § 2.]

See note to last section.

§ 10260. [8558.] Use of Fund.

All money taken from the revolving fund shall be used exclusively in the purchase of and the payment of freights on jute, clay and other material and fuel delivered at the state penitentiary to be used in the manufacture of jute and other fabrics and brick thereat. [L. '93, p. 212, § 3.]

§ 10261. [8559-1.] Purchase of Jute and Other Fabrics.

The state board of control is authorized and empowered to purchase jute and other products and fabrics for use in the state penitentiary; and the jute and other fabrics and products manufactured at the state penitentiary shall be sold for such prices as shall in the judgment of the board be for the best interests of the state. [L. '11, p. 645, § 1.]

See infra, § 10893, board of control abolished.

§ 10262. [8559-2.*] Sale to Farmers, Oyster and Wool Growers and in Open Market.

The jute grain sacks and other fabrics and products manufactured at the state penitentiary shall be sold directly to the farmers, oyster growers or wool growers of the state of Washington, who are actually engaged in farming, oyster culture and wool growing, and no sacks shall be sold within the state of Washington to any person not engaged in farming or oyster culture and wool growing: Provided, however, that the state board of control may, between June 1st and January 1st of each year, dispose of any of the penitentiary products, including grain sacks, in the open market of the world at such prices as they shall deem to be for the best interests of the state. The products sold to residents of the state of Washington shall be sold under such rules, regulations and terms as may be provided by said board, for cash: Provided, that the said board of control may in its discretion accept in lieu of cash a certificate of deposit upon any state or national bank doing business in the state of Washington, payable not later than the fifteenth day of December of the current year, said certificate of deposit to bear interest at the rate of three per cent per annum. The products of the penitentiary shall be apportioned and sold to the individual farmers, oyster growers and wool growers within each county as near as may be pro rata according to the quantities of grain, oysters and wool produced by said farmers, oyster growers and wool growers during the current year, as determined by the state board of control. All payments for jute products and other fabrics and products shall be made to the superintendent of the state penitentiary, who is alone authorized to receipt therefor, and he shall keep a correct account of all sales, showing to whom sold, when sold, the quantity of each article sold, and the amount paid; and the superintendent of the penitentiary shall submit a transcript of said account of sales to the legislature through the board at each session thereof, and shall report the amount of such sales monthly to the state auditor. [L. '17, p. 213, § 1; L. '11, p. 645, § 2.]

See notes to § 10261.

§ 10263. [8559-3.] Authority of Board.

The state board of control is authorized to purchase jute and other raw material for use in the penitentiary in the open market of the world, upon such terms as shall be for the best interests of the state; and the said board is authorized to make such freight arrangements for the transportation of such raw material and jute as may be for the best interests of the state; and the board of control in conjunction with the superintendent of the penitentiary may appoint a purchasing agent or agents for the purchase of such raw material or jute, and an agent or agents for the sale and disposition of the manufactured product, which agents shall be under the direction and exclusive jurisdiction of the state board of control, and the compensation and necessary expenses of such agents shall be paid out of the proper fund provided by law for the penitentiary. [L. '11, p. 646, § 3.]

See notes to § 10261.

§ 10264. [8559-4.] Prices—Profit Allowed—Distribution.

The price at which all grain sacks manufactured at the penitentiary shall be offered for sale shall be fixed by the state board of control at such time in each year as the board shall consider proper, which price shall not exceed the estimated cost of manufacturing thereof plus a profit of twelve and one-half per cent on said estimated cost; and the board shall apportion all sacks manufactured among the grain growing counties of the state of Washington, pro rata, according to the quantity of grain produced in each of said counties, during the current year as determined by the state grain inspector, and it shall be the duty of the state grain inspector to ascertain and determine approximately the yield of grain in each of said counties for said purpose. Such estimate shall be furnished to the board on or before December 31st, of each year, and it shall be the duty of the board immediately following such apportionment to cause notice to be published in an official newspaper in each of the said counties, in which notice of the quantities of grain sacks apportioned to such county and the price fixed for the sale of the same shall be stated, and the manner and time of application shall be set forth: Provided, however, that such apportionment shall not be necessary from June 1st to January 1st of each year, at which time the grain sacks manufactured at the penitentiary may be sold in the open market of the world. [L. '11, p. 646, § 4; L. '13, p. 98, § 1.]

See notes to § 10261.

§ 10265. [8559-5.] Application for Sacks.

Any resident of the state of Washington actually engaged in growing grain within the state may apply for as many of said sacks as he shall require for his individual use, which application shall be made upon blanks prescribed and furnished by the board. In making the application he shall state, under oath, the acreage of grain sown by him for that season, the probable aggregate yield therefrom, that the sacks applied for are for his individual use, and such other facts as the board of control may require. All such applications for grain sacks must be made and filed with the superintendent of the state penitentiary prior to the first day of April of each year. In the event that all of the sacks assigned to any one county shall not be applied for and sold, the state board of control shall apportion the amount not applied for in such county pro rata to such counties as may have therein an excess of applications in proportion to the excess, and if there shall be no excess the sacks not applied for shall not be sold until the first day of June, during which time any resident of the state of Washington, actually engaged in growing grain within said state may apply for such sacks in accordance with the terms of this act and upon the conditions herein stated, and after June first any sacks not sold may be sold anywhere in the open market of the world on such terms and prices as the board of control shall deem to be for the best interests of the state. [L. '11, p. 642, § 5; L. '13, p. 99, § 2.]

§ 10266. [8559-6.] Payment.

Upon receiving notice of the acceptance of his application, wholly or in part, the applicant shall forthwith transmit to the superintendent of the state penitentiary one-tenth of the purchase price of said sacks, and the balance before delivery and not later than September 1st. If payment in full is not made before September 1st, in cash or by certificate of deposit, as provided for in this act, the one-tenth paid as above shall be forfeited to the state of Washington. [L. '11, p. 647, § 6.]

§ 10267. [8559-7.] Board Make Rules.

The state board of control shall make all rules and regulations consistent with this act, and necessary to carry into effect the purposes thereof, and shall provide a uniform and complete form of application for sacks and furnish the same free of cost to all applicants therefor. [L. '11, p. 648, § 7.]

See notes to § 10261.

§ 10268. [8559-8.] Construction.

This act shall be construed liberally with reference to the powers and duties of the warden of the state penitentiary and the state board of control, so that the best interests of the state will be subserved thereby. [L. '11, p. 648, § 8.]

§ 10269. [8568.] Payment of Monthly Receipts into Revolving Fund.

On or before the fifth day of each month the superintendent of the state penitentiary shall pay into the state treasury, to be placed in the revolving fund, the moneys received by him during the preceding month from the sales of jute and other fabrics and brick, and he shall at the same time report to the state auditor the amounts and their sources so paid in. [L. '91, p. 203, § 6; 1 H. C., § 1175; L. '93, p. 213, § 6.]

See supra, § 5501, state officers, authorized to receive money to make daily payments into state treasury.

§ 10270. [8569.] Use of Revolving Fund.

None of the money received from the sale of jute and other fabrics and brick, and turned into the revolving fund, shall be used for any other purpose than the purchase of materials and fuel, and the payments of freights thereon, until after said revolving fund shall contain fifty thousand dollars. [Cf. L. '91, p. 202, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1173; L. '93, p. 213, § 7.]

See note to § 10258.

§ 10271. [8570.] Convict Labor may be Employed at Rock-crushing, etc.

All convicts confined in the state penitentiary at Walla Walla may be employed under authority of the state board of control, under charge of the superintendent of the penitentiary, or of such other persons in the employ of the state as the state board of control shall direct, in the crushing, preparation or handling of rock or other materials for roads or streets. Such labor shall be performed at such place or places in this state as the said state board of control shall direct. [L. '03, p. 264, § 1.]

§ 10272. [8571.] Purchase of Materials, Tools, etc.

Said state board of control shall have power and authority to purchase out of the revolving fund of the state penitentiary all necessary materials, tools and implements and to do all things necessary to carry out the spirit and intent of this act. [L. '03, p. 264, § 2.]

See notes to § 10261.

"This act" refers to §§ 10272—10274.

See infra, § 10906, purchase of supplies, notice, bids, etc.

§ 10273. [8572.] Sale of Crushed Rock.

Said state board of control shall have authority to sell and dispose of such crushed rock or other materials for roads and streets in such manner and for such price as they shall deem most advantageous for the state. [L. '03, p. 264, § 3.]

See notes to § 10261.

§ 10274. [8573.] Receipts Paid into Revolving Fund.

All moneys derived from the sale of such crushed rock or other road materials shall be paid into the revolving fund of the state penitentiary. [L. '03, p. 264, § 4.]

§ 10275. [8574.] May Use Brick in Construction of Penitentiary Buildings.

The state board of control is hereby authorized in its discretion, to use brick manufactured at the state penitentiary for the enlargement, or the construction of any buildings used in connection with the state penitentiary. [L. '07, p. 402, § 1.]

See notes to § 10261.

§ 10276. [8575.] Employment of Convicts on State Roads.

All convicts confined and not otherwise employed shall be employed under authority of the state board of control in charge of the superintendent of the penitentiary or of such other persons in the employ of the state as the state board of control shall direct, in the building of state roads in this state. All expenses of whatsoever nature incurred through such employment shall be paid from the fund appropriated by the state legislature for the construction of the particular road or roads upon which such convicts may be employed. The places where and the manner in which work shall be performed upon state roads by such convicts shall be designated by the state highway board. [L. '07, p. 173, § 1.]

See notes to § 10261.

See, also, § 10271, supra.

§ 10277. [8575-1.] Employment of Convicts on Roads.

Whenever there are persons confined in the state penitentiary who are physically able to perform manual labor upon the public highways, and who shall not be engaged in other work required by the state board of control, the same may be employed upon the construction and improvement of the public highways within the state. [L. '13, p. 347, § 1.]

See notes to § 10261.

See infra, § 10786, duties of highway commissioner devolve upon director of public works.

§ 10278. [8575-2.] Monthly List of Eligibles.

The board of control shall monthly certify to the state highway commissioner the number of persons in the institution named who may be used for the work authorized under this act, and the state highway commissioner shall, whenever possible, use such persons in the building or repair of public roads. [L. '13, p. 347, § 2.]

See notes to § 10261.

§ 10279. [8575-3.] Supervision of Work and Men.

The work done, as in this act provided, shall be under the direction and supervision of the state highway commissioner, but the control and management of all the persons taken from the said penitentiary shall be under the supervision of the state board of control. The expense of the care, maintenance and transportation of all persons so taken from said institution to work upon the roads shall be paid out of the fund or funds authorized to be used upon the particular road upon which such work is being done: Provided, that a part of such expense equalizing twenty-five cents per day per person so employed shall be paid out of the appropriation for the maintenance of the particular institution from which such persons are taken. [L. '13, p. 347, § 3.]

See notes to § 10261.

See infra, § 10786, duties of highway commissioner devolve upon director of public works.

CHAPTER V.

STATE REFORMATORY.

§ 10280. [8576.] Establishment.

There is hereby established the Washington state reformatory, the same to be located, constructed, equipped and managed in the manner and for the purpose in this act hereinafter provided [in Snohomish County]. [L. '07, p. 385, § 1.]

"This act" embraces this chapter and § 2195.

See infra, § 10299, state training school, formerly state reform school.

The omitted portions of the next section provided for a site in Snohomish County.

§ 10281. [8577.] Board of Managers—Powers and Duties.

The board of managers [hereinafter mentioned] shall have power to construct such additional buildings as may be necessary and equip the same, make such improvements as may be required from time to time and shall perform such other duties as shall be required of them by law and shall have general charge and supervision of said Washington state reformatory and shall conduct the same strictly upon nonpartisan principles. [L. '07, p. 385, § 2.]

See infra, § 10794, duties devolve upon director of business control.

See infra, § 10893, board of managers abolished.

Portions of this section relating to site and buildings omitted as temporary.

Cited in 86 Wash. 617.

The legislature, by outlining, in broad and general terms this and following sections, the powers and duties of the board of managers of the state reformatory, without any complete system of specific rules or regulations, has by necessary implication accorded to the officers all those powers which experience has proven necessary, with a wide latitude of discretion, including the power to take and preserve, and send to police officers elsewhere, in good faith, photographs and physical measurements of prisoners, in order to prevent escape and to facilitate recapture, reformation, and the investigation of past records required by statute, and as an aid in enforcing the habitual criminal law: Hodgeman v. Olsen, 86 Wash. 615, 150 Pac. 1122, L. R. A. 1916A, 739.

§ 10282. [8579.] Board—Meetings—Duties—Annual Report—Rules.

. . . . The managers shall make an annual report thereon to the governor on or before the first day of October of each year. And in said annual report the board shall give the classification of all prisoners, showing their ages, term of sentence, offense committed, cause of crime, habits, education and industrial training and pursuits, and such other information and recommendations as they may deem best for the information of the legislature. The board shall prepare rules for its own government and for the government of the Washington state reformatory in accordance with the provisions of this act. [L. '07, p. 386, § 4.]

Part of this section omitted as superseded.

"This act": See note to § 10280.

See notes to § 10281.

§ 10283. [8580.] Superintendent — Appointment, Term, etc.—Physician and Assistants.

The board of managers as soon as they may deem it necessary shall appoint as superintendent a person who possesses the ability and qualifications to successfully carry on the industries of the reformatory and who possesses the executive ability essential for the proper management of the officers and other employees under his jurisdiction and to enforce and maintain proper discipline in every department; said superintendent shall hold his office during the pleasure of the board. Any vacancy shall be filled by appointment by such board as hereinbefore provided. They shall also appoint a physician and surgeon in chief, and the necessary medical assistants, including a druggist and assign to them the necessary office room, and fix the salaries and duties of such officers who shall serve during the pleasure of the board. [L. '07, p. 387, § 5.]

See notes to § 10281.

Cited in 86 Wash. 617.

§ 10284. [8581.] Officers, Guards, and Employees—Compensation.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent by and with the advice and consent of the board of managers to appoint such subordinate officers, guards and employees as the number of prisoners or the needs of the institution may from time to time require; said officers, guards and employees shall receive as compensation salaries fixed by the board of managers not to exceed those now provided by law for similar services by officers, guards and employees, performing like duties in the Washington penitentiary, and all salaries shall be fixed on or before the first day of April each year and no changes shall be made in the salaries to be paid excepting at the time prescribed in this section. [L. '07, p. 387, § 6.]

See notes to § 10281.

§ 10285. [8582.] Superintendent, Salary and Bond of—Chaplain.

The superintendent shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the board of managers. He shall give bond, with good and sufficient sureties, approved by the governor, in the sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars, conditioned upon the faithful performance of duty. The said board of managers shall also appoint a chaplain for said Washington state reformatory, who shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the board of managers. He shall receive as compensation for his services a sum to be fixed by the board of managers, and shall be assigned suitable office room quarters in said reformatory, by the board of managers. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office. [L. '07, p. 387, § 7.]

See notes to § 10281.

§ 10286. [8583.] Quarters, Board, etc., for Officers and Employees.

The superintendent, the chaplain, the physician and the chief engineer of the reformatory shall be furnished with quarters, household furniture, board, fuel and lights for themselves and their families; and the board of managers may by unanimous vote, when in their opinion the institution would be benefited by so doing, extend this privilege to any other officer. The word "family" or "families" used in this section shall be construed to mean only the wife and minor children of an officer. Employees shall be furnished with quarters and board for themselves. [L. '07, p. 388, § 8.]

§ 10287. [8584.] Labor by Inmates—Transfer of Inmates of Penitentiary.

The labor necessary for the construction of buildings and shops and the manufacture of materials therefor, and the inclosure of the grounds of said reformatory as well as such other improvements as in the judgment of the board of managers may be required shall be performed by the inmates as far as practicable; and it shall be the duty of the warden of the Washington penitentiary at Walla Walla and the board of control to select from the number of inmates of said penitentiary, such convicts as shall, as nearly as may be, come within the requirements of section 10288, as to age and crime, and transfer the same to the Washington state reformatory when requested by the board of managers thereof. [L. '07, p. 388, § 9.]

"Warden," the superintendent: See § 10902, infra.

§ 10288. [8585.] Certain Criminals to be Sentenced to Reformatory.

The said board of managers shall receive all male criminals between the ages of sixteen and thirty, and who shall be legally sentenced to said Washington state reformatory on conviction of any criminal offenses, in any court having jurisdiction thereof; and it shall be incumbent upon any such court to sentence to the Washington state reformatory any such male person between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one convicted of a crime punishable by imprisonment in the Washington state reformatory, and any court, in its discretion may sentence to the Washington state reformatory any such male person between the ages of twenty-one and thirty, so convicted, whom said court may deem amenable to reformatory methods: Provided, that no person convicted of murder in the first or second degree and no person who shall have been convicted and sentenced more than three times either to fine or imprisonment shall be sentenced or transferred to said Washington state reformatory. [L. '07, p. 388, § 10.]

See notes to §§ 10261, 10281.

See supra, § 2195, indeterminate sentence to reformatory, being § 13 of this act.

Cited in 75 Wash. 203.

This section wherein no discretion is given to the court to sentence to the penitentiary male persons between the ages of sixteen and thirty is superseded by the act of 1909, §§ 2277 and 2278, supra: Pellissier v. Reed, 75 Wash. 201, 134 Pac. 813.

Commitments to Reformatory: See Remington's Digest, Reformatories, §§ 1, 2; Mason, In re, 3 Wash. 609, 28 Pac. 1025; Barbee, In re, 19 Wash. 306, 53 Pac. 155; State v. Rasch, 24 Wash. 332, 64 Pac. 531; State v. Packenham, 40 Wash. 403, 82 Pac. 597.

§ 10289. [8586.] Discipline—Credit and Payment of Earnings—Forfeitures.

The discipline to be observed in said Washington state reformatory shall be reformatory, and the managers shall have power to employ such means of reformation for the improvement of the inmates as they may deem expedient. The labor imposed upon inmates, or industrial pursuits prescribed for the employment of their time, shall also be at the discretion of the board of managers, except that what is known as the contract system of prison labor shall not be employed. The superintendent is hereby authorized to place to the credit of each prisoner, such amount of his earnings as the board of managers may deem equitable and just, taking into consideration the character of the prisoner, the nature of the crime for which he is imprisoned, and his general deportment: Provided, that such credit shall in no case exceed twenty per cent of his earnings, and the funds thus accruing to the credit of any prisoner shall be paid to him or his family, at such times and in such manner as the board of managers may deem best: Provided, that at least twenty-five per cent of such earnings shall be left for and paid to such prisoner at the time of his restoration to citizenship: And provided, further, that the superintendent may, with the approval of the managers, by way of punishment for violation of rules, and of propriety, or any other misconduct, cancel such portion of such credit as may be deemed best by him. [L. '07, p. 389, § 11.]

See notes to § 10281.

See supra, § 2282, board to determine period of confinement.

For § 13 of this act, see supra, § 2195, indeterminate sentence to reformatory.

§ 10290. [8587.] Transfer of Prisoners to Penitentiary.

The board of managers shall have power to transfer, with the written consent of the governor of the state, to the Washington penitentiary, any prisoner, who subsequent to his committal, shall be shown to have been at the time of his conviction more than thirty years of age, and may also so transfer any apparently incorrigible prisoner whose presence in the Washington state reformatory appears to be seriously detrimental to the well being of the institution. [L. '07, p. 390, § 14.]

See notes to § 10281.

See supra, § 2278, power to transfer prisoners.

§ 10291. [8588.] Governor may Parole on Recommendation.

The governor shall have the authority to establish rules and regulations under which prisoners within said Washington state reformatory may be allowed to go upon parole, in legal custody, and under the control of the governor, and subject at any time to be returned to said reformatory; but no prisoner shall be considered eligible to parole, and no application for parole shall be considered by the governor until such prisoner shall have been recommended as worthy of such consideration by the superintendent, and chaplain of said Washington state reformatory, and in no case shall any prisoner be released on parole unless there is in the opinion and judgment of the governor reasonable ground to believe that he will if released be and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that his release on parole is not incompatible with the welfare of society, and such judgment shall be based upon the record and character of the prisoner as established in the reformatory, considering also his previous record, nature and character of the crime committed, and all such other facts as the governor may be able to obtain bearing upon the advisability of parole or refusal of the same. [L. '07, p. 390, § 15.]

See supra, § 2282, paroles by board.

§ 10292. [8589.] Reimprisonment of Paroled Convicts.

The governor shall have full power to retake and to reimprison any convict so upon parole and his written order shall be sufficient warrant for all officers named in it to authorize such officers to arrest and return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner and should such paroled prisoner be in the custody of an officer of the law, either under an order of arrest or by virtue of a conviction and sentence for any crime other than manslaughter or murder, then in such case said written order shall be a sufficient warrant under which said paroled prisoner may be taken into the custody of such officer of said Washington state reformatory; and it is hereby made the duty of all officers named in such order to arrest and return to actual custody any conditionally released or paroled prisoner. [L. '07, p. 391, § 16.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 205.

§ 10293. [8590.] Board of Managers may Adopt Rules and Regulations.

The board of managers shall have the power to make all rules and regulations necessary and proper for the employment, discipline, instruction, education and removal of all prisoners of said Washington state reformatory. [L. '07, p. 391, § 17.]

See notes to § 10281.

Cited in 86 Wash. 617.

§ 10294. [8591.] Selection and Transfer of Convicts from Penitentiary.

Whenever the board of control shall have completed the construction of the buildings herein provided of the Washington state reformatory, same shall then be turned over to the board of managers who shall have authority to make requisitions upon the managers of the Washington penitentiary, who shall select the number required from the youthful, well-behaved and most trusty class of convicts, whose record shall be subject to the approval of said board making such requisition, and transfer them to said reformatory for the purpose of labor, education and treatment, under the rules and regulations thereof; and the board of managers are hereby authorized to receive and detain during the term of their sentence to the Washington penitentiary, such prisoners so transferred; and the laws applicable to the convicts in the Washington penitentiary so far as they relate to the commutation of imprisonment for good conduct, shall be applicable to said convicts. [L. '07, p. 392, § 18.]

See notes to §§ 10261, 10281.

§ 10295. [8592.] Business Management Vested in Board of Control.

The business management and the purchase of supplies and the sale of products and manufactures, together with the auditing and keeping of all accounts pertaining thereto shall be vested in the state board of control. [L. '07, p. 392, § 19.]

See notes to §§ 10261, 10281.

§ 10296. [8593.] Reformatory Treatment—Register of Prisoners.

It shall be the duty of said board of managers to maintain such control over all prisoners committed to their custody, as shall prevent them from committing crime, best secure their self support and accomplish their reformation. When any prisoner shall be received into the Washington state reformatory upon direct sentence thereto, they shall cause to be entered in a register the date of said admission, the name, age, nativity and nationality, with such facts as can be ascertained of parentage, or early education and social influences as seen to indicate the constitutional defects and tendencies of the prisoner, and the best probable plan of treatment. Upon such register shall be entered quarterly, or oftener, minutes of observed improvement or deterioration of character, affecting the standing or situation of such prisoner, the circumstances of the final release and any subsequent facts of the personal history which may be brought to their knowledge. [L. '07, p. 392, § 20.]

See notes to § 10281.

§ 10297. [8594.] System of Credits for Inmates—Discharge by Governor.

The board of managers shall under a system of marks, or otherwise fix upon a uniform plan under which they shall determine what number of marks or what credit shall be earned by each prisoner sentenced under the provisions of this act as to the conditions (of increased privileges, or of release from their control) which system shall be subject to revision from time to time. Each prisoner so sentenced shall be credited for good personal demeanor, diligence in labor or study, and for the results accomplished, and recharge for derelictions, negligence or offenses. The board of managers shall establish rules and regulations by which the standing of each prisoner's account of marks shall be made known to him as often as once a month. When it appears to the governor that there is a strong or reasonable probability that any prisoner on parole may live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and his release is not incompatible with the welfare of society he may thereupon in his discretion grant an absolute release to such prisoner, and in his discretion restore such prisoner to citizenship. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to impair the power of the governor to grant a pardon or commutation in any case. [L. '07, p. 393, § 21.]

"This act": See note to § 10280.

See notes to § 10281.

See supra, § 2223, pardons by governor.

See supra, § 2282, board to determine period of confinement and grant paroles.

§ 10298. [8595.] Sentences for Definite Time not Void.

If through oversight, or otherwise, any person be sentenced to imprisonment in said Washington state reformatory for a definite period of time, said sentence shall not for that reason be void; but the person so sentenced shall be entitled to the benefit and subject to the liabilities of this act, in the same manner and to the same extent, as if sentence had been in the terms required by section 2195 of this code, and in such case said managers shall deliver to such offender a copy of this act and written information of his relation to said managers. [L. '07, p. 393, § 22.]

See supra, § 2195, indeterminate sentence to reformatory.

CHAPTER VI.

THE STATE TRAINING SCHOOL.

§ 10299. [8596.] Establishment of.

A reform school [shall] be and is hereby established, to be known as the Washington state training school. [L. '90, p. 271, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1207; L. '07, p. 171, § 1.]

In the earlier act, this was called the "Washington state reform school."

Constitutionality of statute concerning juvenile reformatories. 120 Am. St. Rep. 952.

§ 10300. [8597.] Aim and Purpose of.

Said school to be for the keeping and reformatory training of all youths between the ages of eight and eighteen who are residents of the state of Washington, and who, on presentation to the presiding officer of said school by an accompanying officer, parent, or guardian, shall be accompanied by a certificate of commitment from a court legally authorized to make such commitment. [L. '90, p. 272, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1208.]

This section harmonizes with § 4625, supra. See note to § 4624.

§ 10301. [8598.] Bills to be Certified, Audited, etc.—Payment of.

All bills against the state for supplies or material furnished or labor performed in connection with said school shall be certified to by the president and secretary of the board of control, and such board shall not certify to any bill or sanction the payment of any account for labor performed, or material or supplies furnished, except the same shall have been duly contracted for and the provisions of the contract fully complied with. All bills and accounts of said school shall be audited by the state auditor, who shall draw a warrant on the state treasurer for the amount so certified to by the president and secretary of the board, which warrant shall state on its face the person in whose favor it is drawn, and for what particular purpose it is drawn; but the auditor shall draw no warrant for any bill or account connected with said school, except said bill or account be certified to according to the provisions of this act. [L. '90, p. 274, § 10; 1 H. C., § 1215.]

See infra, § 10794, duties devolve upon director of business control.

See infra, § 10893, state board of control abolished.

The present force of this section is doubtful. So far as inconsistent with § 8931 of Rem. & Bal. Code, it was repealed by § 10918.

§ 10302. [8599.] Employment of Director and Matron—Appointments.

The superintendent shall have immediate control of the male department of said school, and shall, by and with the consent of the board, employ a matron, who shall have immediate control of the female department of the school, and the superintendent shall also appoint such other officers and teachers as may be necessary for the management of the school. [L. '90, p. 275, § 13; 1 H. C., § 1217.]

Part of this section is omitted as temporary.

"Director" changed to "superintendent" in this and the following sections on the authority of § 10902, infra.

§ 10303. [8600.] Superintendent to Give Bond.

The superintendent, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall execute and file with the board a bond, with good and approved sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as superintendent of said training school. [L. '90, p. 275, § 15; 1 H. C., § 1219.]

See note to last section.

See notes to § 10301.

§ 10304. [8600½.] Duties and Powers of Superintendent.

The superintendent shall be present at all meetings of the board after his appointment and qualification, and shall there confer with the board regarding the management and interests of the school. He shall have entire supervision of the school, subject, however, to the control of the board, and shall hold his office during the pleasure of the same. [L. '90, p. 276, § 16; 1 H. C., § 1220.]

See notes to § 10301.

See note to § 10302.

The present force of this section is doubtful: See §§ 10899, 10902, infra.

The requirement to attend all meetings of the board originally applied to "directors'" meetings, and cannot now be operative.

See infra, § 10902, term of office four years.

§ 10305. [8601.] Investigations by Board—Inmate to be Returned, When.

It shall be the duty of the board to investigate any and all complaints made against the superintendent, matron, or any employee of said training school, and for good and sufficient reason remove the person against whom such complaint shall have been made. The board shall further investigate any and all charges may [made] by the superintendent against any inmate or inmates of the school, and if, after the investigation of such charges, any inmate or inmates of said school shall be found incorrigible, unmanageable, or detrimental to the best interest of the school, such inmate or inmates, as the case may be, shall be returned to the court which made the commitment. [L. '90, p. 276, § 17; 1 H. C., § 1221.]

§ 10306. [8602.] Separation of Sexes.

Said state training school shall consist of two departments, one for the male and one for the female inmates, and the two departments shall be entirely separate. The matron shall be directly accountable to the superintendent for the management of the female department of the school. [L. '90, p. 276, § 18; 1 H. C., § 1222.]

Superseded by provisions for state school for girls. See § 4631, supra.

§ 10307. [8603.] Branches to be Taught and Instruction Given—Nature of.

All the branches taught in the public schools of the state shall be taught in the state training school, and the inmates shall be taught and trained in morality, temperance, and frugality, and they shall also be instructed in the different trades and callings of the two sexes, as far as possible in the scope of the institution. [L. '90, p. 276, § 19; 1 H. C., § 1223.]

See § 4630, supra, this section duplicated. See note to § 4624.

§ 10308. [8604.] Superintendent to Make Report, When.

The superintendent shall, at the close of each year, make a full and complete report to the board of the condition, number, and standing of the inmates of the school, as well as the number received and the number dismissed during the year, and he shall give such further information as the board may require. [L. '90, p. 276, § 21; 1 H. C., § 1225.]

CHAPTER VII.

TRUANT SCHOOLS.

§ 10309. [8605.] Establishment in Cities of Fifty Thousand.

In cities having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or more, there may be established, maintained and conducted, one or more parental or truant schools for the purpose of affording a place of confinement, discipline, instruction and maintenance of children of compulsory school age who may be committed thereto in the manner hereinafter provided. [L. '03, p. 109, § 1.]

This chapter was not included in the "school code" of 1909, while provisions relating to the state training school were included. Treating both as "reformatories" to which commitments are made by courts, and therefore outside of the title of that act, "a uniform system of public schools" (see note to § 4518), this chapter is still in force. Otherwise it may be repealed by L. '09, p. 376, §§ 2 and 3.

Cited in 113 Wash. 624.

§ 10310. [8606.] Sites Purchased or Leased—Location—Furnishing.

For the purpose of establishing such school or schools, sites may be purchased and buildings constructed or premises rented in the same manner as in the case of public schools in such cities. And in addition school or schools may be established and site or sites may be purchased and buildings constructed or premises rented outside of said cities: Provided, no school or schools shall be established, or sites be purchased, any buildings constructed or premises rented which shall be distant more than ten miles from the city so establishing or erecting said schools or purchasing said site or sites: And, provided further, that no school shall be erected at or near any penal institution. And it shall be the duty of the board of directors to furnish all such schools which are by them at any place established, with such furniture, fixtures, apparatus and provisions as may be necessary for the maintenance and operation thereof. [L. '03, p. 109, § 2.]

§ 10311. [8607.] Superintendent, Officers, Teachers, etc.

The board of directors may also employ a superintendent and all other necessary officers, agents and teachers and shall prescribe the methods of discipline and the course of instruction, and shall exercise the same powers and perform the same duties as is prescribed by law for the management of other schools. [L. '03, p. 110, § 3.]

§ 10312. [8608.] Religious Services.

No religious instruction shall be given in such school, but the board of directors may make suitable regulations so that the inmates may receive religious training, either by allowing religious services to be established in the institution, or by arranging for attendance elsewhere. [L. '03, p. 110, § 4.]

§ 10313. [8609.*] Petition to Superior Court for Commitment.

It shall be the duty of any truant officer or agent of such board of directors to petition and any reputable citizen of the city may petition the superior court, to inquire into the case of any child of compulsory school age, who is not attending school, or who has been guilty of habitual truancy, or incorrigibility, and the petition shall also state the name, if known, of the father and mother of said child, or the survivor of them; and if neither father nor mother of said child is living or cannot be found in the county or if their names cannot be ascertained, then the name of the guardian if there be one known, and if there be a parent living whose name can be ascertained, or guardian, the petition shall show whether or not the father or mother or guardian consents to the commitment of child to such parental or truant school. Such petition shall be verified by oath upon the belief of the petitioner and upon being filed the judge of the superior court shall have such child named in the petition brought before him for the purpose of determining the application contained in such petition. But no child shall be committed to such school who has ever been convicted of any offense punishable by confinement in any penal institution. Any child so received from the juvenile court shall be subject to the other provisions of this act and may at any time, by order of the school directors be returned to the juvenile court and shall not thereafter be returned to the parental school without the consent of the directors of such school district. [L. '19, p. 708, § 1; L. '03, p. 110, § 5.]

§ 10314. [8610.] Procedure—Notice of Hearing.

Upon the filing of such petition the clerk of the court shall issue a writ to the sheriff of the county directing him to bring such child before the court; and if the court shall find that the material facts set forth in the petition are true, and in the opinion of the court such child is a fit person to be committed to such parental or truant school, an order shall be entered that such child be committed to such parental or truant school, to be kept there until he or she arrives at the age of fourteen years, unless sooner discharged in the manner hereinafter set forth. Before the hearing aforesaid, notice in writing shall be given to the parent or guardian of such child if known, of the proceedings about to be instituted, that he or she may appear and resist the same if they so desire. [L. '03, p. 110, § 6.]

§ 10315. [8611.] Parents to Provide Clothing.

It shall be the duty of the parent or guardian of any child committed to this school to provide suitable clothing upon his or her entry into such school and from time to time thereafter as it may be needed, upon notice in writing from the superintendent or other proper officer of the school. In case any parent or guardian shall refuse or neglect to furnish such clothing the same may be provided by the board of school directors, and such board may have an action, in the name of said directors, against such parent or guardian of said child to recover the cost of such clothing with ten (10) per cent addition thereto. [L. '03, p. 111, § 7.]

§ 10316. [8612.] Rules and Regulations by Board of Education—Parole.

The board of education of such city shall have power to establish rules and regulations under which children committed to such parental or truant schools may be allowed to return home upon parole, but to remain while upon parole in the legal custody and under control of the officers and agents of such school, and subject at any time to be taken back within the inclosure of such school by the superintendent or any authorized officer of such school except as hereinafter provided; and full power to enforce such rules and regulations to take any such child upon parole is hereby conferred upon the board of school directors. No child shall be released upon parole in less than four weeks from the time of his or her commitment nor thereafter until the superintendent of such parental or truant school shall have become satisfied from the conduct of such child that if paroled, he or she will attend regularly the public or private school to which he or she may be sent by his or her parents or guardian, and shall so certify to said board of school directors. [L. '03, p. 111, § 8.]

§ 10317. [8613.] Monthly Reports—Final Discharge.

It shall be the duty of the principal or other person having charge of the school to which such child so released on parole may be sent to report at least once each month to the superintendent of the parental or truant school stating whether or not such child attends school regularly, and obeys the rules and requirements of said school, and if such child so released upon parole shall be regular in his or her attendance at school and his or her conduct shall be satisfactory for a period of one year from date on which he or she was released upon parole, he or she shall then be finally discharged from the parental or truant school and shall not be committed thereto except upon petition as hereinbefore provided. [L. '03, p. 111, § 9.]

§ 10318. [8614.] Violations of Parole.

In case any child released from said school upon parole as hereinbefore provided shall violate the conditions of his or her parole at any time within one year thereafter, he or she shall upon the order of the board of school directors as hereinbefore provided, be taken back to such parental or truant school and shall not be again leased upon parole within the period of three months from the date of such entry; and if he or she shall violate the conditions of a second parole he or she shall be recom-mitted to such parental or truant school, and shall not be released therefrom on parole until he or she shall remain in such school at least one year. [L. '03, p. 112, § 10.]

§ 10319. [8615.] Incurrigibles Sent to Reformatory.

In any case where a child is found to be incorrigible and his or her influence in such school to be detrimental to the interests of the other pupils, the board of directors may authorize the superintendent or any officer of the school to represent there [these] facts to the superior court by petition, and the court shall have power to commit such child to some reformatory institution. TITLE LXX.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENT CONTRACTS.

10320. Contracts—Reserve fund—Lien for labor or supplies. 10322. Foreclosure of liens—Limitation of actions.
10321. Time for full payment.

§ 10320. Contracts—Reserve Fund—Lien for Labor or Supplies.

That contracts for public improvements or work by the state, or any county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, shall provide, and there shall be reserved from the moneys earned by the contractor on estimates during the progress of the improvement or work, a sum equal to fifteen per cent (15%) of such estimates, said sum to be retained by the state, county, city, town, district, board, or other public body, as a trust fund for the protection and payment of any person or persons, mechanic, subcontractor or materialman who shall perform any labor upon such contract or the doing of said work, and all persons who shall supply such person or persons or subcontractors with provisions and supplies for the carrying on of such work. Said fund shall be retained for a period of thirty (30) days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work as completed, and every person performing labor or furnishing supplies towards the completion of said improvement or work shall have a lien upon said fund so reserved, provided such notice of the lien of such claimant shall be given in the manner and within the time provided in section 1161 of this Code as now existing and in accordance with any amendments that may hereafter be made thereto: Provided, however, that where in any improvement or work the contract price shall exceed two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000), but ten per cent (10%) shall be reserved on estimates in excess of said sum or where the aggregate of previous estimates equals or exceeds said amount. The provisions of this act shall be deemed exclusive and shall supersede all provisions and regulations in conflict herewith. [L. '21, p. 657, § 1.]

§ 10321. Time for Full Payment.

That after the expiration of thirty (30) days following the final acceptance of said improvement or work, and the expiration of the time for the filing of lien claims, as herein provided, said reserve, or all amounts thereof in excess of a sufficient sum to meet and discharge the claims of materialmen and laborers who have filed their claims, as provided for in section 10320, together with a sum sufficient to defray the cost of such action and to pay attorneys' fees, shall be paid to said contractor. [L. '21, p. 658, § 2.]

§ 10322. Foreclosure of Liens—Limitation of Actions.

Any person, firm or corporation filing a lien claim against said reserve fund shall have four (4) months from the time of the filing of claims against said fund in which to bring an action for the foreclosure of such lien. The liens provided for in this chapter shall be enforced by a civil action in the superior court of the county wherein the lien was filed, and shall be governed by the laws regulating the proceedings in civil actions touching the mode and manner of trial, and the proceedings and laws to secure property so as to hold it for the satisfaction of any lien that be against it. In the event the lien claimant fails to bring an action within the time provided for and limited herein, the said reserve fund shall be discharged from the lien of said claimant and the moneys so held shall be forthwith paid to the contractor: Provided, however, that the limitation of four (4) months provided for herein shall not be construed as a limitation upon the right to sue the contractor or his surety where no right of foreclosure against said fund is sought. CHAPTER I.

PUBLIC PRINTER.

§ 10323. [8616.] Appointment of Public Printer.

The office of public printer is hereby created, which office shall be filled by appointment, by the governor, and who, when appointed, shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor, until his successor is appointed and qualified. [L. '05, p. 332, § 1.]

§ 10324. [8617.] Bond.

Before entering upon the duties of his office, the public printer shall execute to the state of Washington, a good and sufficient bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful and punctual performance of all the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the governor and filed with the secretary of state. [L. '05, p. 333, § 2.]

§ 10325. [8618.*] Duty of Printer—Printing by State Institutions.

The public printer shall print and bind the Session Laws, the journals of the two houses of the legislature, all bills, resolutions, documents and other printing and binding of either the senate or house, as the same may be ordered by the legislature; and such forms, blanks, record books and printing and binding of every description as may be ordered by all state officers, boards, commissions and institutions, and the supreme court and officers thereof, as the same may be ordered on requisition, from time to time, by the proper authorities: Provided, this act shall not apply to the printing of the supreme court reports: And provided further, that where any institution of the state may become equipped with facilities for doing such work, it may do any printing for itself, or for any other state institution, which may be practical to the extent of such facilities, and when requested by the governor. [L. '17, p. 510, § 1; L. '15, p. 60, § 2. Cf. L. '05, p. 333, § 3.]

§ 10326. [8619.] Supervision—Requisition for Work Ordered.

All printing and binding shall be done under the general superintendence of the authorities ordering the same, and when completed shall be delivered to such authorities, who shall sign receipts in duplicate therefor: Provided, however, that before the public printer shall execute any printing or binding for any office, board, commission or institution, the proper officer thereof shall apply for, and, if such printing and binding is found to be necessary and proper, they shall be furnished with requisitions in duplicate for such printing and binding approved by the governor, who shall also approve all bills for printing or binding before the same are paid. [L. '05, p. 333, § 4.]

§ 10327. [8620.] Duplicate Bills for Each Job.

Upon the delivery of work and receiving a receipt therefor the public printer shall make out, and deliver to the secretary of state a bill in duplicate therefor, stating what the book, work or job is when the requisition therefor was received by him and when the same was finished and delivered, and specify particularly by item everything charged for in such bill, giving the amount and the price charged for each separate item as hereinafter specified, and the aggregate amount charged for such job or work, together with the number of copies thereof printed and delivered, and with the original requisition issued by the governor for such job or work attached. One copy of such bill shall have attached a copy of the book, job or work herein mentioned and a receipt from the officer receiving such work, and together with the original requisition of the governor shall remain on file in the office of the secretary of state. No bills shall cover more than one book, report, blank or job of any kind. [L. '05, p. 333, § 5.]

§ 10328. [8621.*] State Printing Expert—Salary—Register—Bills—Allowance.

The secretary of state is hereby authorized to appoint some competent person, who has had a practical experience in the printing business, and who has a knowledge of accounting, who shall be designated "state printing expert," whose duties shall be prescribed by the secretary of state. He shall hold his office during the pleasure of the secretary of state and shall perform such other duties as may be required by the secretary of state. He shall receive for his services the sum of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, the same to be paid in monthly payments out of any appropriation made for that purpose, in the same manner as payments are made to state officers and employees, and to be charged upon the books of the secretary of state as an expense account for auditing the state printing and binding accounts.

All bills shall be numbered, and the secretary of state shall register the same in a book designated as "Register of Public Printing," which shall be so ruled and printed as to show the cost of composition, press-work, binding, stock used and the class of printing ordered and charged to the several departments, boards and commissions ordering the same. Immediately after the registration of such bill the secretary of state shall designate on the duplicate of said bill, such item or items as he shall disallow in whole or in part, and shall certify thereon to the state auditor the amount by him allowed and upon presentation of such duplicate together with the duplicate requisition issued by the governor therefor, with the approval of the governor covering the items listed thereon, the state auditor shall issue a warrant therefor on the state treasurer, payable out of any funds appropriated for that purpose: Provided, that the state auditor may include in one warrant the aggregate amount of any number of bills as audited and certified by the secretary of state when such bills are payable out of the same funds. [L. '17, p. 510, § 2; L. '05, p. 334, § 5.]

§ 10329. [8622.*] Classification and Rates of Compensation.

For the purpose of providing for the compensation of the public printer for his services, the public printing shall be divided into the following classes, and be paid for as herein stated:

FIRST CLASS. The bills, resolutions, and other matters that may be ordered by the legislature, or either branch thereof, in bill form, shall constitute the first class, and shall be printed on half sheet cap paper, weighing not less than twelve pounds to the ream of 14x17 inches in small pica type; each page to contain not more than forty-four lines of said matter of the usual length of forty pica ems, and the lines shall be successively numbered, with a nonpareil slug between each line; and the same shall be measured as solid matter at single price when lines are not underscored, and when more than five lines on any one page are underscored, at price and one-half; and every fraction of a page shall be measured as a full page, but no blank pages shall be counted or paid for. The compensation to be paid for printing of the first class shall be as follows:

Composition, 55 cents per one thousand ems.

Presswork, 60 cents for the first one hundred impressions of a form, and 18 cents for each subsequent one hundred impressions thereof; a form to consist of two pages, or fraction thereof in any one bill form.

SECOND CLASS. The second class shall consist of printing and binding of the journals of the senate and house of representatives, and the annual and biennial reports of the several state officers, state commissions, boards and institutions, with the exception of the reports of the attorney general and the governor's message to the legislature, which shall be printed and bound in the same style as heretofore. Said journals and reports shall be printed on what is known as machine finish book paper weighing not less than fifty pounds to the ream of 25x38 inches, and set in brevier, or what is known as eight point type, with a six to pica lead between each line, and without unnecessary blanks, broken pages or paragraphs. All communications, resolutions, reports of committees, messages and similar documents making up a part of said journals to be set in nonpareil or what is known as six point type, with a six to pica lead between each line. All tabular matter to be set in nonpareil or what is known as six point type; the type matter for a page to be $4\frac{1}{2} \times 7\frac{1}{2}$ inches, which is to include all running heads and foot-notes. All reports are to be 6×9 inches when trimmed. The general style of all reports are to be the same as those printed in 1918, and the general style of the journals of the house and senate of the session of 1917 shall be followed in the printing and binding of the journals hereafter. There shall be no duplicates of reports or parts of reports printed except by permit of the governor. The compensation to be paid for printing of the second class shall be as follows:

Composition, 72 cents per one thousand ems, which shall include proof-reading, make-up and lockup of forms ready for the press, and there shall be no extra charge made therefor unless alterations are made from original copy.

Presswork, 55 cents for the first one hundred impressions of a form, which shall include all make ready, and 18 cents for each subsequent one hundred impressions thereof, a form to consist of eight pages.

THIRD CLASS. The third class shall consist of all reports, communications, and all other documents that may be ordered printed in book form by the legislature or either branch thereof, and all reports, books, pamphlets, and other like matters printed in book form required by all state officers, boards, commissions and institutions shall be printed in such form and style, and set in such size type, and printed on such grade of paper as may be desired by the state officer, board, commission or institutions ordering same, and which they think will best serve the purpose for which said work is intended. The compensation to be paid for printing of the third class shall be as follows:

Composition, 72 cents per one thousand ems, which shall include proof-reading, make-up and lockup ready for the press, and there shall be no extra charge made therefor unless alterations are made from original copy.

Presswork, 55 cents for the first one hundred impressions of a form, which shall include all make ready, and 18 cents for each additional one hundred impressions thereof. When a form in any class contains fifty per cent or more of half-tones or engravings, and same are printed on enamel book paper, there shall be an allowance of thirty per cent additional to the above presswork scale. A form to consist of eight standard size pages, or a sheet 19×25 inches.

FOURTH CLASS. The fourth class shall consist of the Session Laws, and shall be printed and bound in the same style, size of page and form as the Session Laws published by this state heretofore, with similar marginal notes; the size of the type to be eleven point for the laws or body of the book and six point for the marginal notes and index, and shall be printed on machine finish book paper weighing not less than 60 pounds to the ream of 25×38 inches. The compensation to be paid for printing for the fourth class shall be as follows:

Composition, 72 cents per one thousand ems, with marginal notes measured in the type in which they are set separate from the body of the page, said price shall include proof-reading, make-up and lockup ready for the press, and there shall be no extra charge made therefor unless alterations are made from the original copy.

Presswork, 55 cents for the first one hundred impressions of a form, which shall include all make ready, and 18 cents for each subsequent one hundred impressions thereof, a form to consist of eight pages.

Reprints of the Session Laws, when authorized by law, shall be printed and paid for as fourth class printing.

FIFTH CLASS. The fifth class shall consist of the printing of all stationery, blanks, record books and circulars, and all printing and binding required by the respective state officers, boards, commissions and institutions not covered by classes one, two, three and four, and the rate and compensation to be paid therefor shall be as follows:

Composition, 75 cents per one thousand ems, with a minimum charge of 75 cents for each individual job which shall cover proof-reading, make-up and lockup ready for the press, and there shall be no extra charge made therefor unless alterations are made from original copy: Provided, that all job work set in larger than eleven point type shall be measured and charged for as eleven point type.

Presswork, 50 cents for the first one hundred impressions of a form, and 15 cents for each subsequent one hundred impressions thereof, a form to consist of one side of the sheet on which the job is printed and delivered. [L. '19, p. 76, § 1; L. '05, p. 334, § 6; L. '17, p. 511, § 3.]

§ 10330. [8622½.*] Reprinting from Standing Type, Rates.

Whenever required by law or by the legislature, or either branch thereof, or by any state officer, board, commission or institution the public printer shall keep the type used in printing any matter forming a part of classes one, two, three and four standing for a period not exceeding sixty days for use in reprinting such matter, and in case a reprint is had shall charge not to exceed 25 cents per one thousand ems for the use of the type so kept standing. [L. '19, p. 80, § 2; L. '07, p. 398, § 1.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 440, 655, 657.

§ 10331. [8623.] Measurements.

All measurements of composition shall be based on the published rule of the international typographical union. [L. '05, p. 336, § 7.]

§ 10332. [8624.*] Rates for Binding, Time Work, etc.

Compensation for binding on all classes of work shall be under and according to the following schedule:

Standard size pages shall be 6x9 inches. A signature shall consist of sixteen pages or necessary fraction thereof.

For pamphlets containing one signature or less, including folding, gathering, stitching, covering and trimming, for one thousand finished pamphlets $4.75, and for each additional signature or fraction thereof $1.60 for each one thousand finished pamphlets.

For pamphlets containing more than twelve and not more than eighteen signatures, including item as above, for one thousand finished pamphlets, $35.

For case covered bound books, cloth or full sheep or skiver, including folding, gathering, sewing on three bands, forwarding and finishing, stamping and trimming complete and finished as follows:

Per volume of not over six signatures, 30 cents.

Per volume over six sections and not over twelve sections, 35 cents.

Per volume over twelve sections and not over eighteen sections, 40 cents.

Per volume over eighteen sections and not over twenty-four sections, 45 cents.

Per volume over twenty-four sections, 5 cents for each additional six sections or fraction thereof.

For gathering inserts to be bound in, per thousand inserts 50 cents; inserts in closed folds, per thousand inserts $1.50.

Tipping: On outside of section, per one thousand $1.25; on center of section, per one thousand $1.50; cut in on section, per one thousand $2.00.

Gathering miscellaneous items not covered in binding schedule as above, 25 cents for each one thousand sections or pieces.

Miscellaneous items of work not covered in schedule to be charged for at current commercial rates less a discount of 25 per cent.

All time work not covered by the above described work shall be paid for at the rate of $1.25 per hour.

All ruled work to be paid for at the rate of $1.75 per hour for time of machine and attendants. [L. '19, p. 80, § 3; L. '05, p. 336, § 8; L. '17, p. 514, § 4.]

§ 10333. [8625.*] Printer to Furnish Stock—Charged to State.

The public printer shall furnish all paper, stock and binding materials required in all public work and shall charge the same to the state, as the same is actually used, at the actual price at which same was purchased plus five per cent for waste, insurance, storage, and the handling of same. Whenever a piece of work is delivered to the state, the public printer shall make and file in the office of the secretary of state an affidavit stating the amount of material actually used in said piece of work and the actual value of same, calculated at the wholesale price at which the same was purchased. [L. '17, p. 516, § 5; L. '05, p. 337, § 9.]

See supra, § 8147, legislative supplies, how purchased.

§ 10334. [8626.*] Material Bills.

The public printer shall also file in the office of the secretary of state all bills for material purchased by him for state work, accompanied by his affidavit that same is true and correct, and that said bills show the true amount actually paid therefor. [L. '17, p. 516, § 6; L. '05, p. 337, § 10.]

CHAPTER II.

PUBLIC PRINTING FOR MUNICIPALITIES, ETC.

§ 10335. Work to be Done in State—Exception.

All printing, binding and stationery work executed for or on behalf of any county, city, town, port district or school district in this state shall be executed within the state, except as hereinafter provided, and all proposals, requests or invitations to submit bids, prices, or contracts for, and all contracts for such work shall so stipulate: Provided, that whenever it shall be established that any such work cannot be executed within the state or that the lowest charge for which it can be procured within the state, exceeds the charge usually and customarily made to private individuals and corporations for work of similar character and quality, or that all bids for such work or any part thereof are excessive and not reasonably competitive, the officer or officers of any such municipal corporation shall have power to have said work to be executed outside the state. [L. '19, p. 157, § 1.]

§ 10336. Allowance of Claims for Printing.

No bill or claim for any such work shall be allowed by any officer or officers of any such municipal corporation or be paid out of the funds thereof, unless it shall appear that such work was executed within the state or that the execution thereof within the state could not have been procured, or procured at reasonable and competitive rates, and no action shall be maintained against any such municipal corporation or its officers upon any contract for any such work unless it shall be alleged and proven that such work was executed within the state or that the bids received therefor were unreasonable or not truly competitive. [L. '19, p. 157, § 2.]

§ 10337. Contracts Outside State—Conditions.

All contracts for such work to be executed outside the state as hereinabove provided, shall provide and require that such work shall be executed under conditions of labor and employment which shall substantially conform to the laws of this state respecting hours of labor and the minimum wage scale for women and minors, and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Industrial Welfare Commission of the state of Washington regarding conditions of employment, hours of labor and minimum wages, and the violation of such provision of any contract shall be ground for cancellation thereof. [L. '19, p. 158, § 3.]

§ 10338. Inferior Quality.

Nothing in this act shall be construed as requiring any public official to accept any such work of inferior quality or workmanship. [L. '19, p. 158, § 4.]

The commission is authorized to procure all necessary books, maps, charts, stationery, instruments, office furniture and other appliances deemed by the commission necessary.

All proceedings of the commission, and all documents and records in its possession, shall be public records. The commission shall make and submit to the governor an annual report containing full and complete accounts of the transactions and proceedings of its office, together with the information gathered by the commission as herein required, and such other facts, suggestions and recommendations as may be by it deemed necessary, which report shall be published as the reports of the heads of departments. [L. '11, p. 540, § 6.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10343. [8626-7.] Quorum—Powers of a Commissioner.

A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, for the performance of any duty, or for the exercise of any power of the commission, and may hold hearings at any time or place within or without the state. Any investigation, inquiry or hearing which the commission has the power to undertake or to hold may be undertaken or held by or before any commissioner. All investigations, inquiries and hearings of a commissioner shall be and be deemed to be the investigations, inquiries and hearings of the commission, and all findings, orders or decisions, made by a commissioner, when approved and confirmed by the commission and filed in its office, shall be and be deemed to be the findings, orders or decisions of the commission. [L. '11, p. 541, § 7.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10344. [8626-8.] Definitions.

The term "commission," when used in this act, means the public service commission hereby created.

The term "commissioner," when used in this act, means one of the members of such commission.

The term "corporation," when used in this act, includes a corporation, company, association or joint stock association.

The word "person," when used in this act, includes an individual, a firm or copartnership.

The term "street railroad," when used in this act, includes every railroad by whatsoever power operated, or any extension or extensions, branch or branches thereof, for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire, being mainly upon, along, above, or below any street, avenue, road, highway, bridge or public place within any one city or town, and includes all equipment, switches, spurs, tracks, bridges, right of trackage, subways, tunnels, stations, terminals and terminal facilities of every kind used, operated, controlled or owned by or in connection with any such street railroad, within this state.

The term "railroad," when used in this act, includes every railroad, other than a street railroad, by whatsoever power operated for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire, with all bridges, ferries, tunnels, equipment, switches, spurs, tracks, stations and terminal facilities of every kind used, operated, controlled or owned by or in connection with any such railroad.

The term "street railroad company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, and every city or town, owning, controlling, operating or managing any street railroad or any cars or other equipment used thereon or in connection therewith within this state.

The term "railroad company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership or person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling or managing any railroad or any cars or other equipment used thereon or in connection therewith within this state.

The term "express company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, who shall engage in or transact the business of carrying any freight, merchandise or property for hire on the line of any common carrier operated in this state.

The term "common carrier," when used in this act, includes all railroads, railroad companies, street railroads, street railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies, car companies, sleeping car companies, freight companies, freight line companies, and every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, and every city or town, owning, operating, managing or controlling any such agency for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire within this state.

The term "gas plant," when used in this act, includes all real estate, fixtures and personal property, owned, leased, controlled, used or to be used for or in connection with or to facilitate the manufacture, distribution, sale or furnishing of gas (natural or manufactured) for light, heat or power.

The term "gas company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, and every city or town, owning, controlling, operating or managing any gas plant within this state.

The term "electric plant," when used in this act, includes all real estate, fixtures and personal property operated, owned, used or to be used for or in connection with or to facilitate the generation, transmission, distribution, sale or furnishing of electricity for light, heat, or power for hire; and any conduits, ducts or other devices, materials, apparatus or property for containing, holding or carrying conductors used or to be used for the transmission of electricity for light, heat or power.

The term "electrical company," when used in this act, includes any corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever (other than a railroad or street railroad company generating electricity solely for railroad or street railroad purposes or for the use of its tenants and not for sale to others), and every city or town owning, operating or managing any electric plant for hire within this state.

The term "transportation of property," when used in this act, includes any service in connection with the receiving, delivery, elevation, transfer in transit, ventilation, refrigeration, icing, storage and handling of the property transported, and the transmission of credit.

The term "transportation of persons," when used in this act, includes any service in connection with the receiving, carriage and delivery of the person transported and his baggage and all facilities used, or necessary to be used in connection with the safety, comfort and convenience of the person transported.

The term "service," is used in this act in its broadest and most inclusive sense.

The term "telephone company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, and every city or town owning, operating or managing any telephone line or part of telephone line used in the conduct of the business of affording telephonic communication for hire within this state.

The term "telephone line," when used in this act, includes conduits, ducts, poles, wires, cables, cross-arms, receivers, transmitters, instruments, machines, appliances, instrumentalities and all devices, real estate, easements, apparatus, property and routes used, operated, owned or controlled by any telephone company to facilitate the business of affording telephonic communication.

The term "telegraph company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, or managing any telegraph line or part of telegraph line used in the conduct of the business of affording for hire communication by telegraph within this state.

The term "telegraph line," when used in this act, includes conduits, poles, wires, cables, cross-arms, instruments, machines, appliances, instrumentalities and all devices, real estate, easements, apparatus, property and routes used, operated or owned by any telegraph company to facilitate the business of affording communication by telegraph.

The term "water system," when used in this act, includes all real estate, easements, fixtures, personal property, dams, dikes, headgates, weirs, canals, reservoirs, flumes or other structures or appliances operated, owned, used or to be used for or in connection with or to facilitate the supply, storage, distribution, sale, furnishing, diversion, carriage, apportionment or measurement of water for power, irrigation, reclamation, manufacturing, municipal, domestic or other beneficial uses for hire.

The term "water company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees, or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, and every city or town owning, controlling, operating or managing any water system for hire within this state.

The term "vessel," when used in this act, includes every species of water craft, by whatsoever power operated, for the public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire over and upon the waters within this state (excepting rowboats and sailing boats under twenty gross tons burden, open steam launches of five tons gross and under, and vessels under five gross tons propelled by gas, fluid, naphtha or electric motors).

The term "steamboat company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, controlling, leasing, operating or managing any vessel over and upon the waters of this state.

The term "dock" or "wharf" when used in this act, includes any and all structures at which any steamboat, vessel or other water craft lands for the purpose of receiving or discharging freight from or for the public, together with any building or warehouse used for storing such freight for the public for hire.

The term "warehouse," when used in this act, includes any building or structure in which freight is received for storage from the public for hire, intended for shipment or discharged by any water craft.

The term "wharfinger" or "warehouseman," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership and person, their lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, operating or managing any dock, wharf, or structure where steamboats, vessels or other water craft land for the purpose of discharging freight for the public, and where such freight is received on such dock, wharf or structure for the public for hire within this state.

The term "public service company," when used in this act, includes every common carrier, gas company, electrical company, water company, telephone company, telegraph company, wharfinger and warehouseman as such terms are defined in this section. [L. '11, p. 541, § 8.]

This section and sections 10366, 10369, dealing with the questions of the safety, efficiency, rates and equality of public service, did not abrogate or affect a prior city franchise granting the right to transmit and furnish electric current for the purposes of furnishing heat and power and lighting for street-cars on condition that the grantee should not furnish electricity for lighting purposes. Tacoma R. & Power Co. v. Tacoma, 79 Wash. 508, 140 Pac. 565.

"Private" Rights.—The public service commission is given no power to inquire into the private contracts of a public traction company whereby it sells its surplus electrical power to private individuals, since the "rates" falling within the scope of the act, must mean a charge to the public for a service open to all upon the same terms, and not a consideration of a private contract in which the public has no interest: State ex rel. Public Service Commission v. Spokane & Inland Empire R. Co., 89 Wash. 599, 154 Pac. 1110.

§ 10345. [8626-9.] Charges—Duties of Common Carriers.

All charges made for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of persons or property, or in connection therewith, by any common carrier, or by any two or more common carriers, shall be just, fair, reasonable and sufficient.

Every common carrier shall construct, furnish, maintain and provide safe, adequate and sufficient service facilities, trackage, sidings, railroad connections, industrial and commercial spurs and equipment to enable it to promptly, expeditiously, safely and properly receive, transport and deliver all persons or property offered to or received by it for transportation, and to promote the safety, health, comfort and convenience of its patrons, employees and the public.

All rules and regulations issued by any common carrier affecting or pertaining to the transportation of persons or property shall be just and reasonable. [L. '11, p. 546, § 9.]

The state having no power to place a burden upon interstate commerce, an interstate express company doing business in this state is free to renounce its intrastate business, notwithstanding the constitutional provisions making express companies common carriers subject to state control, and sections 10344—10346, 10389, prohibiting discrimination in privileges and transportation charges (overruling on rehearing Id., 76 Wash. 636, 136 Pac. 1160): *State v. § 10346. [8626-10.] Duty of Carriers and Persons to Expedite Traffic.

Every common carrier shall under reasonable rules and regulations promptly and expeditiously receive, transport and deliver all persons or property offered to or received by it for transportation. All persons receiving cars for loading shall promptly and expeditiously load the same, and all persons receiving property shall promptly and expeditiously receive and remove the same from the cars and freight rooms. § 10347. [8626-11.] Distribution of Cars.

Every railroad company shall, upon reasonable notice, furnish to all persons and corporations who may apply therefor and offer property for transportation sufficient and suitable cars for the transportation of such property in carload lots. In case at any particular time a railroad company has not sufficient cars to meet all the requirements for transportation of property in carload lots, all cars available for such purpose shall be distributed among the several applicants therefor, without unjust discrimination between shippers, localities or competitive or noncompetitive points. Every railroad company shall keep, subject to the inspection of any bona fide shipper, a book or books known as "car distributing book," which shall be kept by such officer or officers, employees of such railroad, and in such manner and form as the commission shall direct, showing among other things all orders for cars received by such railroad company, the name of the person ordering the same, the time when and place where such cars are required, the time when and place where such cars were supplied, and such other matters and information as the commission may prescribe. [L. '11, p. 547, § 12.]

See notes to § 10395.

§ 10349. [8626-13.] Switch and Side-track Connections.

A railroad company upon the application of any shipper shall construct, maintain and operate upon reasonable terms a switch connection or connections with a lateral line of railway or private side-track owned, operated or controlled by such shipper, and shall upon the application of any shipper provide upon its own property a side-track and switch connection with its line of railway, whenever such a side-track and switch connection is reasonably practicable, and can be put in with safety and the business therefor is sufficient to justify the same. § 10350. [8626-14.] Tariff Schedules—Publication.

Every common carrier shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open to the public inspection schedules showing the rates, fares, charges and classification for the transportation of persons and property within the state between each point upon its route and all other points thereon; and between each point upon its route and all points upon every route leased, operated or controlled by it; and between each point on its route or upon any route leased, operated or controlled by it and all points upon the route of any other common carrier, whenever a through route and joint rate shall have been established or ordered between any two such points. If no joint rate over a through route has been established, the several carriers in such through route shall file, print and keep open to the public inspection, as aforesaid, the separately established rates, fares, charges and classifications, applied to the through transportation. The schedules printed as aforesaid, shall plainly state the places between which property and persons will be carried, and shall also contain classification of passengers or property in force, and shall also state separately all terminal charges, storage charges, icing charges, and all other charges which the commission may require to be stated, all privileges or facilities granted or allowed, and any rules and regulations which may in any wise change, affect, or determine any part, or the aggregate of, such aforesaid rates, fares and charges, or the value of the service rendered to the passenger, shipper or consignee. Such schedule shall be plainly printed in large type, and a copy thereof shall be kept by every such carrier readily accessible to and for inspection by the public in every station or office of such carrier where passengers or property are respectively received for transportation, when such station or office is in charge of any agent, and in every station or office of such carrier where passenger tickets for transportation or tickets covering sleeping or parlor cars or other train accommodation are sold or bills of lading or receipts for property are issued. All or any of such schedules kept as aforesaid shall be immediately produced by such carrier for inspection upon the demand of any person. A notice printed in bold type and stating that such schedules are on file with the agent and open to inspection by any person and that the agent will assist any such person to determine from such schedules any transportation rates or fares, or rules and regulations which are in force shall be kept posted by the carrier in two public and conspicuous places in every such station or office. The form of every such schedule shall be prescribed by the commission and shall conform in the case of railroad companies as nearly as may be to the form of schedules required by the interstate commerce commission under the act of congress entitled "An act to regulate commerce," approved February 4th, 1887, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto.

The commission shall have power, from time to time, in its discretion, to determine and prescribe by order such changes in the form of such schedules as may be found expedient, and to modify the requirements of this section in respect to publishing, posting and filing of schedules either in particular instances or by general rule or order applicable to special or peculiar circumstances or conditions.

The commission may, in its discretion, suspend the operation of this section in whole or in part as applied to vessels engaged in jobbing business not operating on regular routes. [L. '11, p. 548, § 14.]

§ 10351. [8626-15.] Changes in Schedule—Notice Required.

Unless the commission otherwise orders no change shall be made in any classification, rate, fare, charge, rule or regulation which shall have been filed and published by a common carrier in compliance with the preceding section, except after thirty days' notice to the commission and to the public published as aforesaid, which shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force, and the time when the changed rate, classification, fare or charge will go into effect; and all proposed changes shall be shown by printing, filing and publishing new schedules or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept open to public inspection. The commission, for good cause shown, may by order allow changes in rates without requiring the thirty days' notice and the publication herein provided for. When any change is made in any rate, fare, charge, classification, rule or regulation, the effect of which is to increase any rate, fare or charge then existing, attention shall be directed to such increase by some character on the copy filed with the commission immediately preceding or following the item in such schedule, such character to be designated by the commission. § 10352. [8626-16.] Concurrence in Joint Tariffs—Contracts, Agreements or Arrangements Between Carriers.

The names of the several carriers which are parties to any joint tariff shall be specified therein, and each of the parties thereto, other than the one filing the same, shall file with the commission such evidence of concurrence therein or acceptance thereof as may be required or approved by the commission; and where such evidence of concurrence or acceptance is filed, it shall not be necessary for the carriers filing the same also to file copies of the tariffs in which they are named as parties.

Every common carrier shall file with the commission copies of every contract, agreement or arrangement with any other common carrier or common carriers relating in any way to the transportation of persons or property. [L. '11, p. 550, § 16.]

§ 10353. [8626-17.] Common Carriers to File Interstate Tariffs.

Every common carrier shall print and file or cause to be filed with the commission schedules showing the rates, fare, charges and classifications for the transportation of persons and property between all points within the state and all points without the state upon its route, and between each point within the state and all points without the state upon every route leased, operated or controlled by it, and between each point upon its route within the state and all points without the state upon the route of any common carrier, whenever a through route and joint rate shall have been established between any two such points. If no joint rate over a through route has been established, the carrier operating within this state shall print and file with the commission the separately established rates, fares, charges and classifications applied to the through transportation. The schedules printed aforesaid shall plainly state the places between which property and persons will be carried, and shall also contain the classification of passengers or property in force, and shall also state separately all terminal charges, storage charges, icing charges or other charges which the commission may require to be stated, all privileges granted or allowed, and any rules or regulations which may in anywise change, affect or determine any part or the aggregate of such aforesaid rates, fares, and charges or the value of the service rendered to the passenger, shipper or consignee. [L. '11, p. 551, § 17.]

§ 10354. [8626-18.] Published Rates to be Charged—Free or Reduced Transportation.

No common carrier shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for transportation of persons or property, or for any service in connection therewith, than the rates, fares and charges applicable to such transportation as specified in its schedules filed and in effect at the time; nor shall any such carrier refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates, fares, or charges so specified excepting upon order of the commission as hereinafter provided, nor extend to any shipper or person any privileges or facilities in the transportation of passengers or property except such as are regularly and uniformly extended to all persons and corporations under like circumstances. No common carrier shall, directly or indirectly, issue or give any free ticket, free pass or free or reduced transportation for passengers between points within this state, except its employees and their families, its officers, agents, surgeons, physicians and attorneys at law; to ministers of religion, traveling secretaries of railroad Young Men's Christian Associations, inmates of hospitals, charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons exclusively engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work; to indigent, destitute and homeless persons and to such persons when transported by charitable societies or hospitals, and the necessary agents employed in such transportation; to inmates of the national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and of soldiers' and sailors' homes, including those about to enter and those returning home after discharge; to necessary caretakers of livestock, poultry, milk and fruit; to employees of sleeping-car companies, express companies, and to linemen of telegraph and telephone companies; to railway mail service employees, postoffice inspectors, customs inspectors and immigration inspectors; to newsboys on trains; baggage agents, witnesses attending any legal investigation in which the common carrier is interested; to persons injured in accidents or wrecks and physicians and nurses attending such persons; to the National Guard of Washington when on official duty, and students going to and returning from state institutions of learning: Provided, that this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the interchange of passes for the officers, attorneys, agents and employees and their families, of railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies and sleeping-car companies with other railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies, and sleeping-car companies, nor to prohibit any common carrier from carrying passengers free with the object of providing relief in cases of general epidemic, pestilence, or other calamitous visitation: And provided, further, that this provision shall not be construed to prohibit the exchange of passes or franks for the officers, attorneys, agents, employees, and their families of such telegraph, telephone and cable lines, and the officers, attorneys, agents, employees, and their families of other telegraph, telephone or cable lines, or with railroad companies, express companies or sleeping-car companies: Provided, further, that the term "employee" as used in this section shall include furloughed, pensioned, and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of any such common carrier, and the remains of a person killed or dying in the employment of a carrier, those entering or leaving its service and ex-employees traveling for the purpose of entering the service of any such common carrier; and the term "families" as used in this section shall include the families of those persons named in this proviso, also the families of persons killed and the widows during widowhood and minor children during minority of persons who died while in the service of any such common carrier: And provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the issuance of mileage, commutation tickets or excursion passenger tickets: And provided, further, that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the issuance of free or reduced transportation by any street railroad company for mail carriers or policemen or members of fire departments, city officers, and employees when engaged in the performance of their duties as such city employees.

Common carriers subject to the provisions of this act may carry, store or handle, free or at reduced rates, property for the United States, state, county or municipal governments, or for charitable purposes, or to or from fairs and exhibitions for exhibition thereat, and may carry, store or handle, free or at reduced rates, the household goods and personal effects of its employees and those entering or leaving its service and those killed or dying while in its service.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit the making of a special contract providing for the mutual exchange of service between any railroad company and any telegraph or telephone company, where the line of such telegraph or telephone company is situated upon or along the railroad right of way and used by both such companies. [L. '11, p. 551, § 18.]

The fact that a railway company's published tariff of rates is greater than the amount agreed upon between the railway and a logging company for the carriage of its logs is not conclusive evidence that the latter is discriminatory, where an independent consideration passed between the parties in addition to the rates charged: Sultan R. & Timber Co. v. Great Northern R. Co., 58 Wash. 604, 109 Pac. 320, 1020.

The constitutional provision requiring the legislature to establish reasonable maximum transportation rates does not prevent the delegation of such power to a railroad commission, and this act providing a railroad commission impliedly repeals former maximum rate laws of the state, upon the taking effect of conflicting rates established by the commission: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 33, 100 Pac. 184.

This act not having expressly conferred upon the public service commission authority to fix the rates to be charged by booming and driving companies for booming and driving logs, the commission has no jurisdiction over such companies in the matter of fixing tolls: Wishkah Boom Co. v. Greenwood Timber Co., 88 Wash. 568, 153 Pac. 367.

Tickets.—The constitutional and statutory provisions against discrimination by carriers, with the proviso (§ 10354) that nothing therein shall prevent the issuance of commutation tickets, give the carrier the right to issue temporary commutation tickets at its discretion: State ex rel. § 10355. [8626-19.] Railroads shall have Scales.

It shall be the duty of all railroads operating in this state, to provide suitable facilities for the testing of all track scales used by such railroads. The commission is hereby authorized, after a hearing, upon its own motion and after notice to the railroads operating in this state, to order a suitable car or other device or facility to be provided by the railroad companies operating in this state, to be used in testing the track scales used by such railroads, the expenses of providing such car, device or facility to be equitably and reasonably apportioned among the different railroad companies by the commission. Such car, device or facility shall be used by the commission to test the accuracy of all track scales, and the different railroad companies shall transport and move such car, device or facility without charge therefor, to the different places designated by the commission under such reasonable rules and regulations as the commission may prescribe. Such car, device or facility may be used in adjoining states to test the scales of railroad companies and for that purpose may be taken beyond the limits of the state under such reasonable rules and regulations for the due care and return thereof as the commission may prescribe. The commission is hereby authorized to prescribe and collect a reasonable fee sufficient to cover the cost and expenses connected therewith for the inspection and testing of all scales. [L. '11, p. 554, § 19.]

§ 10356. [8626-20.] Unjust Discrimination.

No common carrier shall, directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device or method, charge, demand, collect or receive from any person or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered in the transportation of persons or property except as authorized in this act, than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any person or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service in the transportation of a like kind of traffic under the same or substantially similar circumstances and conditions. § 10357. [8626-21.] Unreasonable Preference.

No common carrier shall make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person or corporation or to any locality or to any particular description of traffic in any respect whatsoever, or subject any particular person or corporation or locality or any particular description of traffic, to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever. It is not unlawful discrimination in charges or facilities for a railroad company to refuse to extend a spur of its track away from its existing tracks and over land not belonging to the railroad to a warehouse or elevator, when it has never done a like service to other shippers in the same line of business, but has confined its service to according them facilities for shipment by granting to them leases upon its right of way for the construction of elevators abutting upon its tracks: Northwestern Warehouse Co. v. Oregon R. & Nav. Co., 32 Wash. 218, 73 Pac. 388.

In an action by a shipper for unjust discrimination by a common carrier, seeking to recover switching charges paid, a complaint is insufficient where it fails to allege that the defendant had failed to comply with the provisions of the act to regulate commerce with reference to the filing of a schedule of rates and that the rate charge exceeded the rate shown on the schedule: Lilly Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 64 Wash. 589, 117 Pac. 401.

A community is entitled to something more than mere reasonable rates, since the rates must be relatively equal to all shippers where there is no structural or operative difference favoring a haul from one point over a haul from another to the same shipping points; and it is an unreasonable and unlawful discrimination for a railroad company to charge less rates on class commodities from Seattle than from Tacoma to the "jobbing center" of Spokane and tributary points, the difference in rates being sufficiently great to drive the Tacoma manufacturers and jobbers from the markets: Public Serv. Com. ex rel. Transportation Bureau of Tacoma Commercial Club v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 77 Wash. 635, 138 Pac. 270.

The railway commission law, prohibiting discrimination between shippers by common carriers, does not prevent a railway company from entering into a contract with a shipper to carry particular goods at a fixed rate for a given time, or to the amount of a given quantity: Sultan R. & Timber Co. v. Great N. R. Co., 58 Wash. 604, 109 Pac. 320, 1020.

The prohibition of this and last previous section is only against discrimination which is unjust and unreasonable; and milling in transit privileges may be granted if not unjust; and allowance for a back haul may be fair on a long haul which the road could not be compelled to grant on a shorter haul: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 112 Wash. 520, 192 Pac. 1075.

Upon an issue as to the reasonableness of allowing a back haul, a long haul may make it fair to grant the privilege which the road could not be compelled to grant on a shorter haul: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Service Com., 112 Wash. 520, 192 Pac. 1075.

Right of railroad company to grant exclusive facilities to express company. 13 Ann. Cas. 1079.

§ 10358. [8626-22.] Long and Short Haul.

No common carrier, subject to the provisions of this act, shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transportation of persons or of a like kind of property, for a shorter than a longer distance over the same line in the same direction, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or to charge any greater compensation as a through rate than the aggregate of the intermediate rates, subject to the provisions of this act; but this shall not be construed as authorizing any such common carrier to charge and receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance or haul. Upon application of a common carrier the commission may by order authorize it to charge less for a longer than for a shorter distance for the transportation of persons or property in special cases after investigation by the commission, but the order must specify and prescribe the extent to which the common carrier making such application is relieved from the operation of this section, and only to the extent so specified and prescribed shall any common carrier be relieved from the operation and requirements of this section. [L. '11, p. 555, § 22.]

Action to recover overcharges, see notes to § 10433.

§ 10359. [8626-23.] False Billing, etc., by Carrier or Shipper.

No common carrier, or any officer or agent thereof, or any person acting for or employed by it, shall assist, suffer or permit any person or corporation to obtain transportation for any person or property between points within this state at less than the rates then established and in force in accordance with the schedules filed and published in accordance with the provisions of this act, by means of false billing, false classification, false weight or weighing, or false report of weight, or by any other device or means. No person or corporation, or any officer, agent or employee of a corporation, who shall deliver property for transportation within the state to a common carrier, shall seek to obtain or obtain such transportation for such property at less than the rates then established and in force therefor, as aforesaid, by false billing, false or incorrect classification, false weight or weighing, false representation of the contents or substance of a package, or false report or statement of weight, or by any device or means, whether with or without the consent or connivance of a common carrier or any of its officers, agents or employees.

No person, corporation, or any officer, agent, or employee, of a corporation, shall knowingly or willfully, directly or indirectly, by false statement or representation as to the cost, value, nature or extent of injury, or by the use of any false billing, bill of lading, receipt, voucher, roll, account, claim, certificate, affidavit, or deposition, knowing the same to be false, fictitious or fraudulent, or to upon any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or entry, obtain or attempt to obtain any allowance, rebate or payment for damage, or otherwise, in connection with or growing out of the transportation of persons or property, or agreement to transport such persons or property, whether with or without the consent or connivance of such common carrier or any of its officers, agents or employees, whereby the compensation of such carrier for such transportation shall be in fact made less than the rates then established and in force therefor.

No person, corporation, or any officer, agent or employee of a corporation, who shall deliver property for transportation within the state to a common carrier, shall seek to obtain or obtain such transportation by any false representation, false statement or false paper or token as to the contents or substance thereof, where the transportation of such property is prohibited by law. [L. '11, p. 556, § 23.]

§ 10360. [8626-24.] Discrimination Prohibited—Connecting Lines.

Every railroad company shall, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the commission, afford all reasonable, proper and equal facilities for the interchange of passengers, tonnage and cars loaded or empty, between the lines, owned, operated, controlled or leased by it and the lines of every other railroad company; and shall, under such regulations as the commission may prescribe, receive and transport, without delay or discrimination, the passengers, tonnage and cars, loaded or empty, of any connecting line of railroad: Provided, that perishable freight of all kinds and livestock shall have precedence of shipment. Every railroad company as such is required to receive from every other railroad company at a connecting point the tonnage carried by such other railroad company in the cars in which the same may be loaded, and haul the same through to the point of destination if the destination be upon a line owned, operated or controlled by such railroad company, or, if the destination be upon the line of some other railroad company, to haul such tonnage in such cars through to the connecting point upon the line operated, owned, controlled or leased by it by way of route over which such car is billed, and there deliver the same to the next connecting carrier, under such regulations as the commission may prescribe. [L. '11, p. 557, § 24.]

See notes to § 10389.

§ 10361. [8626-25.*] Fares and Transfers on Street Railroads.

No street railroad company shall charge, demand or collect more than five cents for one continuous ride within the corporate limits of any city or town: Provided, that such rate may be exceeded or lowered as to any municipally owned street railroad when the corporate authorities of the municipality owning such railroad shall, by an ordinance duly passed, authorize the collection of a higher or lower rate of fare, to be specified in such ordinance, and as to any other street railroad company, such rate may be exceeded or lowered with the permission or upon the order of the Public Service Commission after the filing of a tariff or a complaint by such street railroad company and a hearing thereon as provided in this act. Every street railroad company shall, upon such terms as shall be just and reasonable, furnish to its passengers transfers entitling such passenger to one continuous trip over and upon portions of its lines within the said city or town not reached by the originating car. [L. '19, p. 61, § 1; L. '11, p. 558, § 25.]

See notes to § 10389.

This section, prior to amendment, and section 10444, making it a gross misdemeanor for any officer or agent to violate the law or fail to comply with any order of the railway commission, punishable under section 2267, by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both, is unconstitutional as being a denial of the equal protection of the laws in that the company may only have a hearing upon a claim of the unconstitutionality of the statute at the risk of such heavy and successive penalties as to amount to intimidation and foreclose its right to litigate the question: State v. Crawford, 74 Wash. 248, 133 Pac. 590, 46 L. R. A. (N. S.) 1039.

Under this section, prior to amendment, providing that no street railroad company shall charge or collect more than five cents for one continuous ride within the corporate limits, the public service commission had no power to increase the fare which a street railway company may charge within city limits to more than five cents, although that sum is found insufficient to pay a reasonable return on the property devoted to the public service and provide an adequate and sufficient service (see §§ 10345, 10389, infra), since to harmonize the various provisions of the act, it must be construed as intending to give power to regulate rates so long only as it does not exceed the limit of five cents: State ex rel. Tacoma R. & Power Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 101 Wash. 601, 172 Pac. 890.

This act does not abrogate a prior franchise ordinance by which a street-car company was obligated to carry city policemen and firemen in uniform free while in the discharge of their duties: State ex rel. Seattle v. Seattle & Rainier Val. R. Co., 113 Wash. 684, 194 Pac. 820.

§ 10362. [8626-26.] Duties of Gas, Electrical and Water Companies.

All charges made, demanded or received by any gas company, electrical company or water company for gas, electricity or water, or for any service rendered or to be rendered, in connection therewith, shall be just, fair, reasonable and sufficient.

Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall furnish and supply such service, instrumentalities and facilities as shall be safe, adequate and efficient, and in all respects just and reasonable.

All rules and regulations issued by any gas company, electrical company or water company, affecting or pertaining to the sale or distribution of its product, shall be just and reasonable.

Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall construct and maintain such facilities in connection with the manufacture and distribution of its product as will be efficient and safe to its employees and the public. [L. '11, p. 558, § 26.]

This section authorizes an adjustment between different classes of customers and an increase over those asked for, if necessary to make them just and fair to each class in order to enable the company to continue services: State ex rel. Seattle v. Public Serv. Com., 107 Wash. 17, 180 Pac. 913.

§ 10363. [8626-27.] Gas, Electrical and Water Companies shall File Schedules.

Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open to public inspection schedules in such form as the commission may prescribe, showing all rates and charges made, established or enforced, or to be charged or enforced, all forms of contract or agreement, all rules and regulations relating to rates, charges or service, used or to be used, and all general privileges and facilities granted or allowed by such gas company, electrical company or water company. § 10364. [8626-28.] Change in Schedule—Notice Required.

Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change shall be made in any rate or charge or in any form of contract or agreement or in any rule or regulation relating to any rate, charge or service, or in any general privilege or facility which shall have been filed and published by a gas company, electrical company or water company in compliance with the requirements of the preceding section, except after thirty days' notice to the commission and publication for thirty days, which notice shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force and the time when the change will go into effect and all proposed changes shall be shown by printing, filing and publishing new schedules, or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept open to public inspection. The commission, for good cause shown, may allow changes without requiring the thirty days' notice by duly filing, in such manner as it may direct, an order specifying the changes so to be made and the time when it shall take effect. All such changes shall be immediately indicated upon its schedules by the company affected. When any change is made in any rate or charge, form of contract or agreement, or any rule or regulation relating to any rate or charge or service, or in any general privilege or facility, the effect of which is to increase any rate or charge, then in existence, attention shall be directed on the copy filed with the commission to such increase by some character immediately preceding or following the item in such schedule, such character to be in form as designated by the commission. [L. '11, p. 559, § 28.]

§ 10365. [8626-29.] Published Rates to be Charged—Exceptions.

No gas company, electrical company or water company shall charge, demand, collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered than the rates and charges applicable to such service as specified in its schedule filed and in effect at the time, nor shall any such company directly or indirectly refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates or charges so specified, or furnish its product at free or reduced rates except to its employees and their families, and its officers, attorneys, and agents; to hospitals, charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work; to indigent and destitute persons; to national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and soldiers' and sailors' homes: Provided, that the term "employees" as used in this paragraph shall include furloughed, pensioned and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of any such company; and the term "families," as used in this paragraph, shall include the families of those persons named in this proviso, the families of persons killed or dying in the service, also the families of persons killed, and the widows during widowhood, and minor children during minority of persons who died while in the service of any of the companies named in this paragraph: And provided, further, that water companies may furnish free or at reduced rates water for the use of the state, or for any project in which the state is interested.

No gas company, electrical company or water company shall extend to any person or corporation any form of contract or agreement or any rule or regulation or any privilege or facility except such as are regularly and uniformly extended to all persons and corporations under like circumstances. [L. '11, p. 560, § 29.]

See, also, § 10354, supra.

This section does not require an independent valuation of a street railway system prior to fixing reasonable rates for passenger fares: State ex rel. Seattle v. Public Serv. Com., 103 Wash. 72, 173 Pac. 737.

§ 10366. [8626-30.] Unreasonable Preference.

No gas company, electrical company or water company shall make or grant any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person, corporation, or locality, or to any particular description of service in any respect whatsoever, or subject any particular person, corporation or locality or any particular description of service to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatsoever. § 10368. [8626-32.] Sliding Scale of Charges.

Nothing in this act shall be taken to prohibit a gas company, electrical company or water company from establishing a sliding scale of charges, whereby a greater charge is made per unit for a lesser than a greater quantity for gas, electricity or water, or any service rendered or to be rendered. [L. '11, p. 561, § 32.]

§ 10369. [8626-33.] Distribution Without Discrimination.

Every gas company, electrical company or water company, engaged in the sale and distribution of gas, electricity or water, shall, upon reasonable notice, furnish to all persons and corporations who may apply therefor and be reasonably entitled thereto, suitable facilities for furnishing and furnish all available gas, electricity and water as demanded. § 10370. [8626-34.] Existing Contracts—Effect.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any gas company, electrical company or water company from continuing to furnish its product or the use of its lines, equipment or service under any contract or contracts in force at the date this act takes effect, or upon the taking effect of any schedule or schedules of rates subsequently filed with the commission, as herein provided, at the rates fixed in such contract or contracts: Provided, that the commission shall have power, in its discretion, to direct by order that such contract or contracts shall be terminated by the company party thereto, and thereupon such contract or contracts shall be terminated by such company as and when directed by such order: Provided further, that the commission shall have no power to order the termination of any contract relating to the furnishing of water for irrigation or irrigation and domestic use, where such contract is based upon a consideration passing at the time of the execution of such contract. Under this section the commission may, after ordering the termination of contracts for free water, upon the intervention of the parties interested, vacate its order, where it appears that the water company's deed for its water supply and the contracts for free water to the grantors in such deed were parts of one and the same transaction, and that one was the consideration for the other: State ex rel. Raymond Light & Water Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 83 Wash. 130, 145 Pac. 215.

Agreements made by a water company, in acquiring all the water supply of mill companies without reservation, to furnish the mill companies with water for a stated period, free or at reduced rates, are not either void or voidable under the terms of this act; and this section does not authorize the commission to terminate the contracts, but only authorizes a termination of such contracts, if legal, by the consent of the parties or such legal proceedings by the company as may be proper: State ex rel. Raymond Light & Water Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 83 Wash. 130, 145 Pac. 215.

This section does not operate to terminate contracts for the supplying of water in force at the date of its taking effect, or upon the taking effect of schedules fixed by the public service commission, but it does confer power on the commission to order the parties to terminate such contracts: Raymond Lumber Co. v. Raymond Light & Water Co., 92 Wash. 330, 159 Pac. 133, L. R. A. 1917C, 574.

§ 10371. [8626-35.] Charges and Service of Telephone and Telegraph Companies.

All rates, tolls, contracts and charges, rules and regulations of telephone and telegraph companies, for messages, conversations, services rendered and equipment and facilities supplied, whether such message, conversation or service to be performed be over one company or line or over or by two or more companies or lines, shall be fair, just, reasonable and sufficient, and the service so to be rendered any person, firm or corporation by any telephone or telegraph company shall be rendered and performed in a prompt, expeditious and efficient manner and the facilities, instrumentalities and equipment furnished by it shall be safe, kept in good condition and repair, and its appliances, instrumentalities and service shall be modern, adequate, sufficient and efficient.

Every telephone and telegraph company operating in this state shall provide and maintain suitable and adequate buildings and facilities therein, or connected therewith, for the accommodation, comfort and convenience of its patrons and employees.

Every telephone company shall, upon reasonable notice, furnish to all persons and corporations who may apply therefor and be reasonably entitled thereto suitable and proper facilities and connections for telephonic communication and furnish telephone service as demanded. [L. '11, p. 562, § 35.]

§ 10372. [8626-36.] Tariff Schedule—Publication.

Every telephone and telegraph company shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open to public inspection at such points as the commission may designate, schedules showing the rates, tolls, rentals, contracts and charges of such companies for messages, conversations and services rendered and equipment and facilities supplied for messages and services to be performed within the state between each point upon its line and all other points thereon, and between each point upon its line and all points upon every other similar line operated or controlled by it, and between each point on its line or upon any line leased, operated or controlled by it and all points upon the line of any other similar company, whenever a through service and joint rate shall have been established or ordered between any two such points. If no joint rate covering a through service has been established, the several companies in such through service shall file, print and keep open to public inspection as aforesaid the separately established rates, tolls, rentals, contracts and charges applicable for such through service. The schedules printed as aforesaid shall plainly state the places between which telephone or telegraph service, or both, will be rendered, and shall also state separately all charges and all privileges or facilities granted or allowed, and any rules or regulations or forms of contract which may in any wise change, affect or determine any of the aggregate of the rates, tolls, rentals or charges for the service rendered. A schedule shall be plainly printed in large type, and a copy thereof shall be kept by every telephone company and telegraph company readily accessible to and for convenient inspection by the public at such places as may be designated by the commission, which schedule shall state the rates charged from such station to every other station on such company's line, or on any line controlled and used by it within the state. All or any of such schedules kept as aforesaid shall be immediately produced by such telephone company or telegraph company upon the demand of any person. A notice printed in bold type, and stating that such schedules are on file and open to inspection by any person, the places where the same are kept, and that the agent will assist such person to determine from such schedules any rate, toll, rental, rule or regulation which is in force shall be kept posted by every telephone company and telegraph company in a conspicuous place in every station or office of such company. [L. '11, p. 563, § 36.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10373. [8626-37.] Changes in Schedules.

Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change shall be made in any rate, toll, rental, contract or charge, which shall have been filed and published by any telephone or telegraph company in compliance with the requirements of the preceding section, except after thirty days' notice to the commission and publication for thirty days as required in the case of original schedules in the preceding section, which notice shall plainly state the changes proposed to be made in the schedule then in force, and the time when the changed rate, toll, contract or charge will go into effect, and all proposed changes shall be shown by printing, filing and publishing new schedules, or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept open to public inspection. The commission for good cause shown may allow changes in rates, charges, tolls, rentals or contracts without requiring the thirty days' notice and publication herein provided for, by an order specifying the change so to be made and the time when it shall take effect, and the manner in which the same shall be filed and published. When any change is made in any rate, toll, contract, rental or charge, the effect of which is to increase any rate, toll, rental or charge then existing, attention shall be directed on the copy filed with the commission to such increase by some character immediately preceding or following the item in such schedule, which character shall be in such form as the commission may designate. The names of the several companies which are parties to any joint rates, tolls, contracts or charges of telephone companies and telegraph companies for messages, conversations and service to be rendered shall be specified therein, and each of the parties thereto, other than the one filing the same, shall file with the commission such evidence of concurrence therein or acceptance thereof as may be required or approved by the commission; and where such evidence of concurrence or acceptance is filed, it shall not be necessary for the companies filing the same to also file copies of the tariff in which they are named as parties. [L. '11, p. 565, § 38.]

§ 10375. [8626-39.] Telephone and Telegraph Companies shall Furnish Copies of Contracts.

Every telephone and telegraph company shall file with the commission, as and when required by it, a copy of any contract, agreement or arrangement in writing with any other telephone company or telegraph company, or with any other corporation, association or person relating in any way to the construction, maintenance or use of a telephone line or telegraph line or service by, or rates and charges over and upon, any such telephone line or telegraph line. [L. '11, p. 565, § 39.]

§ 10376. [8626-40.] Schedule Rate to be Charged—Exceptions.

No telephone or telegraph company shall charge, demand, collect or receive different compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered than the charge applicable to such service as specified in its schedule on file and in effect at that time, nor shall any telephone company or telegraph company refund or remit, directly or indirectly, any portion of the rate or charge so specified, nor extend to any person or corporation any form of contract or agreement or any rule or regulation or any privilege or facility except such as are specified in its schedule filed and in effect at the time, and regularly and uniformly extended to all persons and corporations under like circumstances for like or substantially similar service.

No telephone company or telegraph company subject to the provisions of this act shall, directly or indirectly, give any free or reduced service or any free pass or frank for the transmission of messages by either telephone or telegraph between points within this state, except to its officers, employees, agents, pensioners, surgeons, physicians, attorneys at law, and their families and persons and corporations exclusively engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work, and ministers of religion, Young Men's Christian Associations, Young Women's Christian Associations; to indigent and destitute persons, and to officers and employees of other telephone companies, telegraph companies, railroad companies and street railroad companies. § 10377. [8626-41.] Unjust Discrimination.

No telegraph or telephone company shall, directly or indirectly, or by any special rate, rebate, drawback or other device or method, charge, demand, collect or receive from any person or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered with respect to communication by telegraph or telephone or in connection therewith, except as authorized in this act than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any other person or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service with respect to communication by telegraph or telephone under the same or substantially the same circumstances and conditions. § 10379. [8626-43.] Existing Contracts—Effect.

Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent any telegraph company or telephone company from continuing to furnish the use of its line, equipment or service under any contract or contracts in force at the date this act takes effect or upon the taking effect of any schedule or schedules of rates subsequently filed with the commission, as herein provided, at the rates fixed in such contract or contracts: Provided, however, that the commission shall have power, in its discretion, to direct by order that such contract or contracts shall be terminated by the telephone company or telegraph company party thereto, and thereupon such contract or contracts shall be terminated by such telephone company or telegraph company as and when directed by such order. [L. '11, p. 567, § 43.]

Where there is no compliance with this section, a franchise limiting one-party residence rates to two dollars, is not affected by the company's filing a schedule raising the rate to three dollars, until affirmative action is taken by the commission: State ex rel. Ellertsen v. Home Tel. & Tel. Co., 102 Wash. 196, 172 Pac. 899.

§ 10380. [8626-44.] Unjust Discrimination.

No telephone or telegraph company subject to the provisions of this act shall charge or receive any greater compensation in the aggregate for the transmission of any long distance conversation or message of like kind for a shorter than for a longer distance over the same line, in the same direction, within this state, the shorter being included within the longer distance, or charge any greater compensation for a through service than the aggregate of the intermediate rates subject to the provision of this act, but this shall not be construed as authorizing any such telephone company or telegraph company to charge and receive as great a compensation for a shorter as for a longer distance. Upon application of any telephone company or telegraph company the commission may, by order, authorize it to charge less for longer than for a shorter distance service for the transmission of conversation or messages in special cases after investigation, but the order must specify and prescribe the extent to which the telephone company or telegraph company making such application is relieved from the operation of this section, and only to the extent so specified and prescribed shall any telephone company or telegraph company be relieved from the requirements of this section. [L. '11, p. 567, § 44.]

§ 10381. [8626-45.] Transmission of Messages of Other Lines.

Every telephone company or telegraph company operating in this state shall receive, transmit and deliver, without discrimination or delay, the messages of any other telephone or telegraph company. [L. '11, p. 568, § 45.]

§ 10382. [8626-46.] Charges, Duties of Wharfingers.

All charges made for any service rendered or to be rendered in the receipt, storage or handling of property or in connection therewith by any wharfinger or warehouseman shall be just, fair, reasonable and sufficient. Every wharfinger or warehouseman shall furnish and supply such wharves, docks, buildings, service, instrumentalities and facilities as shall be safe, adequate and efficient and in all respects just and reasonable. All rules and regulations issued by any wharfinger or warehouseman affecting or pertaining to the dockage, storage, handling and care of property shall be just and reasonable. Every wharfinger and warehouseman shall construct and maintain such facilities in connection with his warehouse, wharf, dock and structure as will be efficient and safe to its employees and the public. [L. '11, p. 568, § 46.]

§ 10383. [8626-47.] Tariff Schedule—Publication.

Every warehouseman or wharfinger shall file with the commission and shall print and keep open to the public inspection schedules in such form as the commission may prescribe, showing all rates and charges made, used or enforced, or to be charged or enforced, all forms of contract or agreement, all rules and regulations relating to rates, charges or service used or to be used, and all general privileges and facilities granted or allowed by such warehouseman or wharfinger. [L. '11, p. 568, § 47.]

§ 10384. [8626-48.] Change in Schedule, Notice Required.

Unless the commission otherwise orders, no change will be made in any rate or charge or in any form of contract or agreement or in any rule or regulation relating to any rate, charge or service, or in any general privilege or facility which shall have been filed and published by the wharfinger or warehouseman in compliance with the requirements of the preceding section, except by thirty days' notice to the commission and publication for thirty days, which schedule shall plainly state the changes to be made in the schedule then in force and the time when the change will go into effect, and all proposed changes shall be shown by printing, filing, and publishing new schedules or shall be plainly indicated upon the schedules in force at the time and kept open to the public inspection. The commission for good cause shown may allow changes without requiring the thirty days' notice by duly filing in such manner as it may direct an order specifying the changes so to be made and the time when it shall take effect; all such changes shall be immediately indicated upon its schedule by the warehouseman or wharfinger affected. [L. '11, p. 568, § 48.]

§ 10385. [8626-49.] Published Rates to be Charged—Exceptions.

No wharfinger or warehouseman shall charge, demand, collect, or receive a greater, less or different compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered, than the rates charged applicable to such service as specified in its schedule filed and in effect at the time. Nor shall any such wharfinger or warehouseman directly or indirectly refund or remit in any manner or by any device, any portion of the rate or charge so specified, or furnish dockage, wharfage or storage or free or reduced rates except to its employees and their families and its officers, attorneys and agents; to hospitals, charitable and eleemosynary institutions and persons engaged in charitable and eleemosynary work; to indigent and destitute persons; to national homes or state homes for disabled volunteer soldiers and soldiers' and sailors' homes: Provided, that the term "employees," as used in this section shall include furloughed, pensioned and superannuated employees, persons who have become disabled or infirm in the service of such wharfinger or warehouseman, and the term "families," as used in this section, shall include the families of those persons named in this proviso, also the families of persons killed or dying in the service, also the families of persons killed, and the widows, during widowhood, and the minor children during minority of persons who died while in the service of any such wharfinger or warehouseman.

No wharfinger or warehouseman shall extend to any person or corporation any form of contract or agreement, or any rule or regulation or any privilege or facility except as are regularly and uniformly extended to all persons and corporations under like circumstances. [L. '11, p. 569, § 49.]

§ 10386. [8626-50.] Unreasonable Preference.

No wharfinger or warehouseman shall make or grant any undue or unreasonable preference or advantage to any person, corporation or locality, or to any particular description of service in any respect whatsoever, or subject any particular person, corporation or locality or any particular description of service or traffic to any undue or unreasonable prejudice or disadvantage in any respect whatever. [L. '11, p. 570, § 50.]

§ 10387. [8626-51.] Unjust Discrimination.

No wharfinger or warehouseman shall, directly or indirectly or by any special rate, rebate, drawback or other device or method, charge, demand, collect or receive from any person or corporation a greater or less compensation for the wharfage, dockage or storage of property, or for any service rendered or to be rendered or in connection therewith, except as authorized by this act, than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any person or corporation for doing a like or contemporaneous service with respect thereto under the same or substantially similar circumstances and conditions. [L. '11, p. 570, § 51.]

§ 10388. [8626-52.] Service Without Discrimination.

Every wharfinger or warehouseman shall upon demand furnish to all persons or corporations who may apply therefor and be reasonably entitled thereto suitable facilities for storing and transferring property from such warehouse, wharf, dock or structure, to any vessel and from any vessel to any such warehouse, wharf, dock or structure. [L. '11, p. 570, § 52.]

§ 10389. [8626-53.] Charges and Services to be Fixed by Commission.

Whenever the commission shall find, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, as herein provided, that the rates, fares or charges demanded, exacted, charged or collected by any common carrier for the transportation of persons or property within the state or in connection therewith, or that the regulations or practices of such common carrier affecting such rates are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or in any wise in violation of the provisions of law, or that such rates, fares or charges are insufficient to yield a reasonable compensation for the service rendered, the commission shall determine the just, reasonable or sufficient rates, fares or charges, regulations or practices to be thereafter observed and enforced and shall fix the same by order as hereinafter provided.

Whenever the commission shall find, after such hearing, that the rules, regulations, practices, equipment, appliances, facilities or service of any such common carrier in respect to the transportation of persons or property are unjust, unreasonable, unsafe, improper, inadequate or insufficient, the commission shall determine the just, reasonable, safe, adequate, sufficient and proper rules, regulations, practices, equipment, appliances, facilities or service to be observed, furnished, constructed or enforced and be used in the transportation of persons and property by such common carrier, and fix the same by its order or rule as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 571, § 53.]

The reduction of rates as to ten per cent of the passengers carried by an interurban road to a figure that will give a profit on the actual cost of that part of the haul, although not an adequate return upon the investment, is justified where the company thereby earns a revenue that it could not otherwise obtain and its profits on its other business is not affected and when the same is all that such patrons can afford to pay for the service; and such a rate is not unjust discrimination against persons and places: Puget Sound Electric R. v. Railroad Com., 65 Wash. 75, 117 Pac. 739, Ann. Cas. 1913B, 763.

It is not unjust discrimination to reduce the rates of an interurban railroad below the amounts charged by steam railroads touching certain points, where the railroads are not seeking to handle that class of traffic and have not the facilities or the time schedules to make them in reality competing lines: Puget Sound Electric R. v. Railroad Com., 65 Wash. 75, 117 Pac. 739, Ann. Cas. 1913B, 763.

This section authorizes the commission to require a common carrier to accommodate its business and facilities to the requirements of the law, to the end that it furnish adequate service at a reasonable price: State v. Northern Express Co., 76 Wash. 636, 136 Pac. 1160. But see Id., 80 Wash. 309, 141 Pac. 757.

This act revokes the power of a city, after the taking effect of the law, to legislate upon the subject of overcrowding the street-cars, or operating in accordance with specified schedules, and vests the same in the public service commission: Seattle Electric Co. v. Seattle, 78 Wash. 203, 138 Pac. 892.

The granting of milling privileges in transit must be without wrongful prejudice to the rights of other shippers, and its control is within the jurisdiction of the public service commission, under this section: State ex rel. Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 95 Wash. 376, 163 Pac. 1143, 166 Pac. 793.

This section conferring power upon the public service commission to deal with questions of safety, efficiency, rates and service of street railway companies, does not confer power to abrogate franchise provisions theretofore imposed by cities under the authority of section 8966, supra, subdivision 7: Seattle v. Puget S. Tr. L. & P. Co., 103 Wash. 41, 174 Pac. 464.

Under this section the commission has power to abrogate a pre-existing franchise provision requiring the sale of commutation tickets at a certain price; since the city could not bind itself as against the state's exercise of the police power in fixing reasonable rates: State ex rel. Seattle v. Public Serv. Com., 103 Wash. 72, 173 Pac. 737.

§ 10390. [8626-54.] Charges and Service of Gas Companies, Electrical and Water Companies to be Fixed by Commission.

Whenever the commission shall find, after a hearing had upon its own motion, or upon complaint as herein provided, that the rates or charges demanded, exacted, charged or collected by any gas company, electrical company or water company, for gas, electricity or water, or in connection therewith, or that the rules, regulations, practices or contracts affecting such rates or charges are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential, or in any wise in violation of the provisions of the law, or that such rates or charges are insufficient to yield a reasonable compensation for the service rendered, the commission shall determine the just, reasonable, or sufficient rates, charges, regulations, practices or contracts to be thereafter observed and in force, and shall fix the same by order as hereinafter provided.

Whenever the commission shall find, after such hearing, that the illuminating or heating power, purity or pressure of gas, the efficiency of electric lamp supply, the voltage of the current supplied for light, heat or power, or the purity, volume and pressure of water, supplied by any gas company, electrical company or water company, as the case may be, is insufficient, impure, inadequate or inefficient, it shall order such improvement in the manufacture, distribution or supply of gas, in the manufacture, transmission or supply of electricity, or in the storage, distribution or supply of water, or in the methods employed by such gas company, electrical company or water company, as will in its judgment be efficient, adequate, just and reasonable.

Whenever the commission shall find, after hearing, that any rules, regulations, measurements, or the standard thereof, practices, acts or services of any such gas company, electrical company or water company are unjust, unreasonable, improper, insufficient, inefficient or inadequate, or that any service which may be reasonably demanded is not furnished, the commission shall fix the reasonable rules, regulations, measurements or the standard thereof, practices, acts or service to be thereafter furnished, imposed, observed and followed, and shall fix the same by order, or rule, as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 571, § 54.]

See notes to §§ 10340, 10362, supra, and §§ 10422, 10424, infra.

Cited in 76 Wash. 498, 499.

It is a reasonable regulation of a gas company to require that its customers owning apartment houses and desiring to install more than one meter shall provide a separate meter-room on each floor or in the basement where all meters may be installed, where it appears that such an arrangement would be more sanitary, and there would be less danger of explosion in case of fire and less trouble and expense in making repairs and collections: State ex rel. Hallett v. Seattle Lighting Co., 60 Wash. 81, 110 Pac. 799, 30 L. R. A. (N. S.) 492.

The waiver by a gas company of its regulations as to buildings that had already been constructed does not estop the company from enforcing the regulations as to new buildings constructed with notice of the rules: State ex rel. Hallett v. Seattle Lighting Co., 60 Wash. 81, 110 Pac. 799, 30 L. R. A. (N. S.) 492.

Where a proposed change was contested on the complaint of third persons, it is not error for the commission to rule that the company does not assume the burden of proving the reasonableness of the rates; and a finding by the commission, negative in form, to the effect, that neither party had produced convincing evidence tending to show either the reasonableness or unreasonableness of the rates and charges proposed, and dismissing the proceeding for failure of the complainant to prove its unreasonableness, results in such new rate becoming automatically effective: State ex rel. Seattle v. Public Serv. Com., 76 Wash. 492, 136 Pac. 850.

Under this section and §§ 10423, 10424, the discretion of the commission to enter upon an inquiry on its own motion, or to pursue an inquiry beyond the evidence brought before it by the complaining or defending parties, when no convincing evidence is offered by either party, cannot be controlled by the courts: State ex rel. Seattle v. Public Serv. Com., 76 Wash. 492, 136 Pac. 850.

§ 10391. [8626-55.] Commission to Fix Charges and Service of Telephone and Telegraph Companies.

Whenever the commission shall find, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, that the rates, charges, tolls or rentals demanded, exacted, charged or collected by any telegraph company or telephone company for the transmission of messages by telegraph or telephone, or for the rental or use of any telegraph line, telephone line or any telegraph instrument, wire, appliance, apparatus or device or any telephone receiver, transmitter, instrument, wire, cable, apparatus, conduit, machine, appliance or device, or any telephone extension or extension system, or that the rules, regulations or practices of any telegraph company or telephone company affecting such rates, charges, tolls, rentals or service are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential, or in any wise in violation of law, or that such rates, charges, tolls or rentals are insufficient to yield reasonable compensation for the service rendered, the commission shall determine the just and reasonable rates, charges, tolls or rentals to be thereafter observed and in force, and fix the same by order as hereinafter provided.

Whenever the commission shall find, after such hearing that the rules, regulations or practices of any telegraph company or telephone company are unjust or unreasonable, or that the equipment, facilities or service of any telegraph company or telephone company is inadequate, inefficient, improper or insufficient, the commission shall determine the just, reasonable, proper, adequate and efficient rules, regulations, practices, equipment, facilities and service to be thereafter installed, observed and used, and fix the same by order or rule as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 573, § 55.]

See notes to § 10340.

See notes to §§ 10407, 10409.

Charges.—The rule of a telephone company that its rentals shall be payable monthly in advance, and fifty cents added as a collection fee if not paid on the tenth of the month, is a reasonable rule which such a company may enforce as a public service corporation; and the fifty-cent fee is not in addition to the maximum charge allowed by its franchise, but is a reasonable regulation and charge for default and delinquency: State ex rel. MacMahon v. Independent Tel. Co., 59 Wash. 156, 109 Pac. 366, 31 L. R. A. (N. S.) 329.

Under this section the commission has power to require a telephone company to raise its rates above the maximum permitted by its city franchise, where such increased rate has become necessary to provide sufficient revenue to give an adequate service: State ex rel. Webster v. Superior Court, 67 Wash. 37, 120 Pac. 861, Ann. Cas. 1913D, 78, L. R. A. 1915C, 287.

A telephone franchise ordinance limiting the amount of the rates or charges is a contract obligation, binding until abrogated by the state in the exercise of its police power; and the company having accepted and agreed upon the terms cannot complain thereof until relieved by the public service commission: State ex rel. Ellertsen v. Home Tel. & Tel. Co., 102 Wash. 196, 172 Pac. 899.

Duty to Furnish Service and Facilities.

A telephone company will not be compelled by mandamus to publish on or about April 15th a directory of subscribers to its telephone system, where it had answered that it was then engaged in compiling and publishing such a directory in the regular course of its business, which it would have ready for distribution early in the month of April: State ex rel. Bauer v. Sunset Tel. & Tel. Co., 30 Wash. 676, 71 Pac. 198.

Where one telephone company has by contract opened its lines to physical connection and services for another telephone company upon certain terms, its act is equivalent to a declaration of a purpose to waive its primary right of independence, and it can be required, as a state regulation within the police power, to accord the same facilities, conveniences and uses to other telephone companies upon equal terms: State ex rel. Public Serv. Com. v. Skagit River Tel. & Tel. Co., 85 Wash. 29, 147 Pac. 885.

§ 10392. [8626-56.] Charges and Service of Wharfingers and Warehouseman to be Fixed by Commission.

Whenever the commission shall find, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, as herein provided, that the rates or charges demanded, exacted, charged or collected by any wharfinger or warehouseman for the receipt, storage or handling of freight, or in connection therewith, or that the rules, regulations or practices affecting such rates or charges are unjust, unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential, or in any wise in violation of the provisions of law, or that such rates and charges are insufficient to yield a reasonable compensation for the service rendered, the commission shall determine the just, reasonable or sufficient rates, charges, rules, regulations, or practices to be thereafter observed and in force, and shall fix the same by order as hereinafter provided.

Whenever the commission shall find, after such hearing, that the rules, regulations or practices of any wharfinger or warehouseman are unjust or unreasonable, or that the equipment, facilities or service of any wharfinger or warehouseman are inadequate, inefficient, improper, insufficient, or unsafe, the commission shall determine the just, reasonable, proper, adequate, efficient and safe rules, regulations, practices, equipment, facilities and service to be thereafter installed, observed and used, and fix the same by order of the commission as hereinafter provided. [L. '11, p. 573, § 56.]

See notes to § 10340.

Legislative regulation of warehouse rates. 33 L. B. A. 178.

§ 10393. [8626-57.] Joint Rates and Through Routes on Railroads.

Whenever the commission shall be of opinion, after hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, that the rates and charges in force over two or more railroads, between any two points in the state, are unjust, unreasonable or excessive, or that no satisfactory through route or joint rate exists between such points, and that the public necessities and convenience demand the establishment of a through route and a joint rate between such points, the commission may order such railroads to establish such through route, and may establish and fix a joint rate which will be fair, just, reasonable and sufficient, to be followed, charged, enforced, demanded and collected in the future, and the commission may order that carload freight moving between such points shall be carried by the different companies, parties to such through route and joint rate, without being transferred from the originating cars. In case no agreement exists between such railroads for the interchange of cars, then the commission, before making such order, shall be empowered to, and it shall be its duty, to make rules for the expeditious and safe return and proper compensation for the cars so loaded by the company or companies receiving the same. [L. '11, p. 574, § 57.]

See notes to § 10340.

The public service commission has power to apportion joint rates between common carriers, under this section: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 76 Wash. 625, 137 Pac. 132.

§ 10394. [8626-58.] Interstate Fares—Rates, Charges, etc.

The commission shall have power, and it is hereby made its duty, to investigate all interstate rates, fares, charges, classifications or rules or practices in relation thereto, for or in relation to the transportation of persons or property or the transmission of messages or conversations, where any act in relation thereto shall take place within this state, and when the same are, in the opinion of the commission, excessive or discriminatory, or are levied or laid in violation of the act of congress entitled "An act to regulate commerce," approved February 4, 1887, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto, or in conflict with the rulings, orders or regulations of the interstate commerce commission, the commission shall apply, by petition, to the interstate commerce commission for relief, and may present to the interstate commerce commission all facts coming to its knowledge as to violations of the rulings, orders or regulations of that commission, or as to violations of the said act to regulate commerce or acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto. [L. '11, p. 575, § 58.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10395. [8626-59.] Powers of Commission to Provide Rules for Expediting Traffic.

The commission shall have, and it is hereby given, power to provide by proper rules and regulations the time within which all railroads shall furnish, after demand therefor, all cars, equipment and facilities for the handling of freight in carload and less than carload lots, and receiving, gathering and transporting, after demand, of all express packages and the delivery thereof at destination, the extent of free gathering and distributing limits for express packages in cities and towns, the distance that freight shall be transported each day after receipt, the time within which consignors or persons ordering cars shall load the same, and the time within which consignees and persons to whom freight may be consigned shall unload and discharge the same and receive freight from the freight-rooms, and to provide the penalties to be paid to consignors and consignees for delays on the part of railroads to conform to such rules, and prescribe the penalty to be paid by consignors and consignees to railroads for failure to observe such rules. [L. '11, p. 575, § 59.]

See notes to § 10340.

Cited in 94 Wash. 278, 279—281.

This section and section 10427, empowering the public service commission to fix the time for furnishing cars and provide the penalty to be paid shippers for delays, is not unconstitutional as an unlawful delegation of legislative powers, in contravention of Constitution, Article II, section 1: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 94 Wash. 274, 162 Pac. 523.

The public service commission cannot, under authority to adopt rules governing reciprocal demurrage charges for failure to furnish cars, adopt a rule providing that, when any dispute or controversy arises between shipper and carrier with reference to the application of the rules for demurrage, a complaint shall be filed with the commission and a trial had subject to review in the same manner as other decisions and orders of the commission: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 94 Wash. 274, 162 Pac. 523.

The statute providing no method for the collection of demurrage charges to be paid to shippers for delay in furnishing cars, the remedy of the shipper is by action at law; there being no right without a remedy: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 94 Wash. 274, 162 Pac. 523.

Although the terms of this section and section 10427, empowering the public service commission to fix the time for furnishing cars and provide the penalty to be paid shippers for delays is broad enough to apply to cars ordered for interstate commerce, the dominant purposes of the act, to be gathered from all of its provisions, to regulate only intrastate commerce must be read into all its provisions: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 94 Wash. 274, 162 Pac. 523.

It will not be assumed that the legislature intended to adopt the construction of other state courts that such rules applied to both kinds of commerce when to do so would make the law unconstitutional: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 94 Wash. 274, 162 Pac. 523.

Orders of the railroad commission respecting railroad service and facilities will not be set aside on appeal as unreasonable, unless they clearly so appear, the presumptions being that they are reasonable: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 60 Wash. 218, 110 Pac. 1075.

An order of the railroad commission requiring an additional train from Anacortes to Burlington and return, to connect with the noon trains on the main line, held not unreasonable: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 60 Wash. 218, 110 Pac. 1075.

An order of the railroad commission requiring a daily mixed freight and passenger service over a branch line fourteen miles long is unreasonable, where the income from passenger travel resulting therefrom was only nine cents per mile, and cost over thirty cents per mile, the present bi-weekly freight service was adequate, and a financial loss to the company, which loss would be increased by the change without any great necessity for it: State ex rel. Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 62 Wash. 193, 113 Pac. 252.

Although a railroad company operates only interstate trains, it may be required by the public service commission to render an adequate local service for the accommodation of the traveling public: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 81 Wash. 275, 142 Pac. 684.

A finding by the public service commission that train service furnished the town of K. was inadequate, and that a change of schedule would be to the advantage of the inhabitants thereof, held warranted by the evidence: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 81 Wash. 275, 142 Pac. 684.

An order requiring a railroad to designate the name of a station in its tariffs, folders and tickets as Bingen and White Salmon, held to be unreasonable: State ex rel. Spokane, Portland & Seattle R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 69 Wash. 523, 125 Pac. 953, Ann. Cas. 1914A, 830.

Validity of statute or rule providing for reciprocal demurrage. 13 Ann. Cas. 964; 19 Ann. Cas. 1092; Ann. Cas. 1916E, 701.

§ 10396. [8626-60.] Weighing of Freight—Scale Tests.

The commission shall have power to enforce reasonable regulations for the weighing of cars and freight offered for shipment over any line of railroad, and to test the weights made by any railroad and scales used in weighing freight on cars. [L. '11, p. 576, § 60.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10397. [8626-61.*] Track Connections.

Whenever the commission shall find, after a hearing made upon complaint or upon its own motion, that the public necessities and conveniences would be subserved by having track connections made, between any two or more railroads at any of the points hereinafter specified, the commission shall order any two or more railroads of the same or similar gauge to make physical connections at any and all crossings, and at all points where a railroad shall begin or terminate at or near any other railroad, and at or near all towns or cities, so that the cars of any such railroad company may be speedily transferred from one railroad to another, and shall order whether the expense thereof shall be borne jointly or otherwise. [L. '19, p. 431, § 1; L. '11, p. 576, § 61.]

See notes to § 10340.

Under the act of 1907, vesting the state railroad commission with power to make regulations concerning the sufficiency of the trackage, railroad connections, siding, etc., and to order additional trackage or siding constructed, the commission has power to order physical track connections between different railroads: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

Such act was not an interference with property, amounting to the taking of the same without due process of law; since the act provides for a review of the order of the commission by the superior court: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

Such act was not an unlawful delegation of legislative power on the theory that the legislature has established no standards or principles for the guidance of the commission, since the act provides in many places that the enforcement of its provisions shall be just, fair and reasonable: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

Power of commission to compel connections between public service corporations. Ann. Cas. 1915C, 850.

Delegation by legislature to railroad commission of power as to track connections and crossings. 32 L. R. A. (N. S.) 654.

§ 10398. [8626-62.] Sidetrack Connections.

Whenever the commission shall find, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, as herein provided, that application has been made by any shipper for a switching connection or connections with a lateral line of railway or private sidetrack owned, operated or controlled by such shipper, or that application has been made by any shipper for the installation of a sidetrack upon the property of such railroad, and that such switch connection or sidetrack is reasonably practicable, can be put in with reasonable safety, and the business therefor is sufficient to justify the same, and that the railroad company has refused to install or provide the same, the commission shall enter its order requiring such connection or the construction of such sidetrack: Provided, such shipper so to be served shall pay the legitimate cost and expense of constructing such connection or sidetrack as shall be determined in separate items by the commission, and before the railroad company shall be compelled to incur any cost in connection therewith the same shall be secured to the railroad company in such manner as the commission may require. Whenever such lateral line of railway, private sidetrack or sidetrack upon the property of the railroad company shall be constructed under the provisions of this section, any person or corporation shall be entitled to connect therewith or use the same upon the payment to the shipper incurring the primary expense of a reasonable proportion of the cost thereof, to be determined by the commission after notice to the interested parties: Provided, that such connection can be made without unreasonable interference with the right of such shipper incurring the primary expense. [L. '11, p. 576, § 62.]

This section is not unconstitutional as depriving the company of property without due process of law; since the spur is to be built entirely on land of the company held for public use, there is a full hearing, and the spur is to be paid for by others, and is open to the use of all shippers on reasonable terms: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 77 Wash. 529, 137 Pac. 1057, Ann. Cas. 1915D, 202, L. R. A. 1918B, 786.

An order requiring an extension of a spur-track so as to permit teams to unload at all points of the extension held to be unreasonable: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 60 Wash. 218, 110 Pac. 1075.

The sufficiency of a demand for side-track connections cannot be questioned by a railroad company, where it appears that, after some correspondence, its general counsel absolutely refused to entertain further negotiations looking to the installation of any kind of a spur-track at or near the point in question, and its division superintendent testified that he would not have recommended any kind of a spur there, and none would have been put in except on his recommendation, and no objection was made by the company to the form or sufficiency of the demand: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 77

A spur-track intended primarily for the immediate use of a single shipper, open upon reasonable terms to the use of the public, is a public use: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 77 Wash. 529, 137 Pac. 1057, Ann. Cas. 1915D, 202, L. R. A. 1918B, 786.

Whether an order of the public service commission requiring the installation of industrial sidetrack connections interferes with interstate commerce is a question of fact, and it will not be so held where the evidence fails to show any appreciable effect upon interstate business, and it appears that the spur is reasonable and practicable, and can be operated with reasonable safety: State ex rel. Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 77 Wash. 529, 137 Pac. 1057, Ann. Cas. 1915D, 202, L. R. A. 1918B, 786.

§ 10399. [8626-63.] Investigation of Wrecks.

Every public service company is hereby required to give immediate notice to the commission of every accident resulting in death or injury to any person occurring on its lines, plant or system, in such manner as the commission may prescribe. The commission may require reports to be made by any common carrier of all wrecks, collisions or derailments occurring on the line of any such common carrier. Such notice shall not be admitted as evidence or used for any purpose against such public service company giving such notice in any suit or action for damages growing out of any matter mentioned in such notice.

The commission is hereby authorized and directed to investigate all accidents that may occur upon the lines of any common carrier resulting in loss of life, to any passenger or employee, and may investigate any and all accidents or wrecks occurring on the line of any such common carrier, or any accident resulting in death or injury to any person occurring in connection with the plant or system of any public service company. Notice of such investigation shall be given in all cases for a sufficient length of time to enable the public service company affected to participate in the hearing and such notice may be given orally or in writing, in such manner as the commission may prescribe.

Such witnesses may be examined as the commission may deem necessary and proper to thoroughly ascertain the cause of the accident or wreck and fix the responsibility therefor. Such examination and investigation may be conducted by the inspector or any deputy inspector, and such inspector or deputy inspector shall have the power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses, and when such examination is conducted by the inspector or deputy inspector, he shall make a full and complete report thereof to the commission. [L. '11, p. 577, § 63.]

§ 10400. [8626-64.] Power of Commission to Order Facilities, Repairs or Changes.

Whenever the commission shall, after a hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, find that, additional tracks, switches, terminals, terminal facilities, stations, motive power or any other property, apparatus, equipment, facilities or device for use by any common carrier in, or in connection with the transportation of persons or property, ought reasonably to be provided, or any repairs or improvements to, or changes in, any theretofore in use ought reasonably to be made, or any additions or changes in construction should reasonably be made thereto, in order to promote the security or convenience of the public or employees, or in order to secure adequate service or facilities for the transportation of passengers or property, the commission may, after a hearing, either on its own motion or after complaint, make and serve an order directing such repairs, improvements, changes or additions to be made. [L. '11, p. 578, § 64.]

Location and Establishment of Stations
—Powers of Courts Irrespective of Statute: See Remington's Digest, R. R., § 13; Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Territory ex rel. Dustin, 3 W. T. 303, 13 Pac. 604. Reversed on writ of error in Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Territory, 142 U. S. 492, 35 L. Ed. 1092, 12 Sup. Ct. Rep. 283.

Orders requiring a railroad to furnish flush toilets at a depot in a small town and running water for drinking purposes, held unreasonable: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 60 Wash. 218, 110 Pac. 1075.

Under this act, the power to fix the time within which a depot must be completed is conferred by necessary implication: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Great Northern R. Co., 68 Wash. 257, 123 Pac. 8.

Removal or Abandonment of Stations.—An order of the railroad commission requiring a railroad depot to be moved five hundred feet, in a town of seventy-five people, is unreasonable, where the only reason therefor was to bring the depot to the point on the railroad nearest the business center of the town: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 60 Wash. 218, 110 Pac. 1075.

Injunction does not lie to prevent a street railway company from abandoning that part of its road lying between two stations served by a competing road lying closely parallel, merely because the abandonment necessarily results in depriving all persons to whom both roads are accessible of competitive service; since the whole theory of the public service law is opposed to the idea that the public will be better served with two closely parallel lines of road where one road will amply suffice: Day v. Tacoma R. & Power Co., 80 Wash. 161, 141 Pac. 347, L. R. A. 1915B, 547.

Under this and other sections, the public service commission was not authorized to change city street grades or exercise the power of eminent domain for the purpose of eliminating railroad grade crossings in a city: Spokane v. Spokane & Inland Empire R. Co., 75 Wash. 651, 135 Pac. 636.

§ 10401. [8626-65.] Commission to Investigate Equipment, Track, etc.

If upon investigation the commission shall find that the equipment or appliances in connection therewith, or the apparatus, tracks, bridges or other structures of any common carrier are defective, and that the operation thereof is dangerous to the employees of such common carrier or to the public, it shall immediately give notice to the superintendent or other officer of such common carrier of the repairs or reconstruction necessary to place the same in a safe condition, and may also prescribe the rate of speed for trains or cars passing over such dangerous or defective track, bridge or other structure until the repairs or reconstruction required are made, and may also prescribe the time within which the same shall be made. Or if, in its opinion, it is needful or proper, it may forbid the running of trains or cars over any defective track, bridge or structure until the same be repaired and placed in a safe condition.

There shall be no appeal from or action to review any order of the commission made under the provisions of this section. [L. '11, p. 579, § 65.]

§ 10402. [8626-66.] Safety Appliances—Fixing of Standards.

Each locomotive on every railroad in this state shall be equipped with power-driving wheel brakes and appliances for operating the train brake system, so equipped that the engineer on the locomotive drawing such train can control its speed without requiring brakeman to use the common hand-brakes for that purpose, with couplers coupling automatically by impact, which can be coupled or uncoupled without the necessity of men going between the locomotive and the locomotive or car to which the same is being coupled or from which it is being uncoupled, and with proper flanges, sill steps and grab-irons, or uncoupling levers in lieu of such grab-irons, and, excepting such as may be assigned to daylight runs or switching service exclusively, with electric headlights of approved design and capacity (except that locomotives may be operated without such headlight upon permission and order of the commission), with proper cocks, valves, pistons, valve stems and appliances which will prevent the escape of steam in such volume as to obstruct the view of the engineman operating such locomotive, and, in the case of locomotives used in the switching service, with proper foot-boards and toe-boards, and with a headlight on each end, and with such other appliances, apparatus and machinery necessary for safe operation of the locomotive or the train to which the same is attached, as the commission may prescribe: Provided, that in case of emergency the commission may permit the use of road engines in switching service.

Each car shall be equipped with couplers coupling automatically, which can be coupled or uncoupled without the necessity of men going between the ends of the cars, with power brakes, with proper hand-brakes, sill steps and grab-irons, and, where secure ladders and running-boards are required, with such ladders and running-boards, and all cars having ladders shall also be equipped with secure handholds or grab-irons on their roofs at the tops of such ladders, and with such other appliances necessary for the safe operation of such cars, and the trains containing such cars, as may be prescribed by the commission: Provided, that in the loading and hauling of long commodities requiring more than one car, hand-brakes may be omitted from all save one of the cars, while they are thus combined for such purpose: And provided further, that in the operation of trains not less than eighty-five per cent of the cars in such train, which are associated together, shall have their power brakes used and operated by the engineer of the locomotive drawing such train.

Every street-car shall be equipped with proper and efficient brakes, steps, grab-irons or hand-rails, fenders or aprons or pilots, and with such other appliances, apparatus and machinery necessary for the safe operation of such street-car as the commission may prescribe.

The commission shall, as soon as practicable, after the taking effect of this act, designate the number, dimensions, location and manner of application of the appliance provided for herein, or such as may be prescribed by the commission, and shall give notice of such designation to all railroad companies and street railroad companies subject to the provisions of this act, by such means as the commission may deem proper, and thereafter such number, dimensions, location and manner of application as designated by the commission shall remain as the standards of equipment to be used on all cars and locomotives subject to the provisions of this act. The commission shall have power to add to, change or modify said standards of equipment at any time or to provide different standards under different circumstances and conditions: Provided, that the commission may, upon full hearing, for good cause, extend the period within which any railroad or street railroad may comply with the provisions of this section with respect to the equipment of locomotives or cars actually in service at the date of the passage of this act. The commission is hereby given authority to fix the time within which such modification or change shall become effective or obligatory. After the time so fixed it shall be unlawful to use any car, motor, or locomotive which does not comply with the standards so prescribed by the commission: Provided, that when any car, motor or locomotive shall have been properly equipped as provided in this act, and such equipment shall have become defective or insecure while such car, motor or locomotive was being used by such railroad company upon its line of railroad, such car, motor or locomotive may be hauled from the place where such equipment was first discovered to be defective or insecure to the nearest available point where such car, motor or locomotive can be repaired, without liability for the penalties imposed herein if such movement is necessary to make such repairs, and such repairs cannot reasonably be made except at such repair point. Nothing in this proviso shall be construed to permit the hauling of defective cars by means of chains instead of drawbars in revenue trains, or in association with other cars that are commercially used, unless such defective cars contain livestock or perishable freight.

It shall be unlawful for any railroad company or street railroad company to use or operate any car, motor, locomotive or train that is defective, or any car, motor, locomotive or train upon which any appliance, machinery or attachment thereto belonging is defective, or to knowingly operate its train over any defective track, bridge or other structure, excepting in cases of emergency and under proper precautions: Provided, that this section shall not apply to boarding and outfit cars when moved as work trains, or to trains consisting wholly of logging trucks or of logging trucks and a passenger-car or caboose at the rear end thereof, or of logging trucks and not to exceed five freight-cars at the rear end thereof. [L. '11, p. 579, § 66.]

§ 10403. [8626-67.] Duties of Inspector of Safety Appliances.

It shall be the duty of the inspector of tracks, bridges, structures, and equipment, and such deputies as may be appointed to inspect all equipment, and appliances connected therewith, and all apparatus, tracks, bridges and structures, depots and facilities and accommodations connected therewith, and facilities and accommodations furnished for the use of employees, and make such reports of his inspection to the commission as may be required. He shall, on discovering any defective equipment or appliances connected therewith, rendering the use of such equipment dangerous, immediately report the same to the superintendent of the road on which it is found, and to the proper official at the nearest point where such defect is discovered, describing the defect. Such inspector may, on the discovery of any defect rendering the use of any car, motor or locomotive dangerous, condemn such car, motor or locomotive, and order the same out of service until repaired and put in good working order. He shall, on discovering any track, bridge or structure defective or unsafe in any particular, report such condition to the commission, and, in addition thereto, report the same to the official in charge of the division of such railroad upon which such defect is found. In case any track, bridge or structure is found so defective as to be dangerous to the employees or public for a train or trains to be operated over the same, the inspector is hereby authorized to condemn such track, bridge or structure and notify the commission and the office in charge of the division of such railroad where such defect is found of his action concerning the same, reporting in detail the defect complained of, and the work or improvements necessary to repair such defect. He shall also report to the commission the violation of any law governing, controlling or affecting the conduct of public service companies in this state.

The inspector, or such deputies as may be appointed, shall have the right and privilege of riding on any locomotive, either on freight or passenger trains, or on the caboose of any freight train, for the purpose of inspecting the track or any railroad in the state: Provided, that the engineer or conductor in charge of any such locomotive or caboose may require such inspector to produce his authority, under the seal of the commission, showing that he is such inspector or deputy inspector.

The inspector, or such deputy inspector or inspectors as may be appointed, shall, when required by the commission, inspect any street railroad, gas plant, electrical plant, water system, telephone line or telegraph line, and upon discovering any defective or dangerous track, bridge, structure, equipment, apparatus, machinery, appliance, facility, instrumentality or building, rendering the use of the same dangerous to the public or to the employees of the company owning or operating the same, report the same to the commission and to the official in charge of such road, plant, system or line. [L. '11, p. 582, § 67.]

See supra, § 10838, duties of division of safety.

§ 10404. [8626-68.] Safeguarding Frogs and Switches.

Every railroad and street railroad operating in this state shall so adjust, fill, block and securely guard all frogs, switches and guard-rails so as to protect and prevent the feet of persons being caught therein. [L. '11, p. 583, § 68.]

§ 10405. [8626-69.] Trains shall Stop at Railroad Crossings.

All railroads and street railroads, operating in this state shall cause their trains and cars to come to a full stop at a distance not greater than five hundred (500) feet before crossing the tracks of another railroad crossing at grade, excepting at crossings where there are established signal towers and signal men, interlocking plants or gates. [L. '11, p. 584, § 69.]

See notes to § 10516.

§ 10406. [8626-70.] Gas Plants, Electrical Plants and Water Systems—Repairs, Improvements and Changes.

Whenever the commission shall find, after hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, that repairs or improvements to, or changes in, any gas plant, electrical plant or water system ought to be made, or that any additions or extensions should reasonably be made thereto, in order to promote the security or convenience of the public or employees, or in order to secure adequate service or facilities for manufacturing, distributing or supplying gas, electricity or water, the commission may enter an order directing that such reasonable repairs, improvements, changes, additions, or extensions of such gas plant, electrical plant or water system be made. [L. '11, p. 584, § 70.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10407. [8626-71.] Telephone and Telegraph Companies — Repairs, Improvements and Changes.

Whenever the commission shall find, after a hearing had on its own motion, or upon complaint, that repairs or improvements to, or changes in, any telegraph line or telephone line ought reasonably to be made, or that any additions or extensions should reasonably be made thereto in order to promote the security or convenience of the public or employees, or in order to secure adequate service or facilities for telegraphic or telephonic communications, the commission shall make and serve an order directing that such repairs, improvements, changes, additions or extensions be made in the manner to be specified therein. [L. '11, p. 584, § 71.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10408. [8626-72.] Docks, Wharves and Warehouses—Repairs, Improvements and Changes.

Whenever the commission shall find, after hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint, that repairs or improvements to, or changes in, any dock, wharf or warehouse ought reasonably to be made, or that any additions or extensions should reasonably be made thereto in order to promote the security of adequate service or facilities for the receipt, storage or handling of freight, the commission shall make and serve an order directing that such repairs, improvements, changes, additions or extensions shall be made in the manner specified therein. [L. '11, p. 585, § 72.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10409. [8626-73.] Physical Connections and Joint Rates Between Telephone and Telegraph Companies.

Whenever the commission shall find that any two or more telephone companies, whose lines form a continuous line of communication, or could be made to do so by the construction and maintenance of suitable connections for the transfer of messages or conversations at common points between different localities which are not reached by the line of either company alone, and that such connections or facilities for the transfer of messages or conversations at common points can reasonably be made, an efficient service obtained and that a necessity exists therefor, or shall find that any two or more telegraph or telephone companies, have failed to establish joint rates or charges for service by or over their said lines, and that joint rates or charges ought to be established, the commission may, by its order, require such connection to be made, and that conversations be transmitted and messages transferred, and prescribe through lines and joint rates and charges to be made, and to be used, observed and in force in the future, and fix the same by order to be served upon the company or companies affected. [L. '11, p. 585, § 73.]

See notes to § 10340.

When such an order is void as a taking of property without due process. Id.

Where two telephone companies are willing to make a physical connection upon terms agreed upon, the public service commission, in ordering the connection, has no power to provide for the cost: State ex rel. Public Serv. Com. v. Skagit River Tel. & Tel. Co., 89 Wash. 625, 155 Pac. 144.

Under this section, the commission has no power to establish the rates or tolls until the companies "have failed" to do so after the connection is ordered: State ex rel. Public Service Com. v. Skagit River Tel. & Tel. Co., 89 Wash. 625, 155 Pac. 144.

Likewise, the commission in such a case has no authority in the first instance to make rules or regulations to prevent interference between one of such connected companies and a third company, when using the lines of the other connected company; as such interference must be avoided by mechanical means or operating rules put in force by the companies: State ex rel. § 10410. [8626-74.] Inspectors of Gas, Electric and Water Meters.

The commission may appoint inspectors of gas and water meters whose duty it shall be when required by the commission to inspect, examine, prove and ascertain the accuracy of any and all gas and water meters used or intended to be used for measuring or ascertaining the quantity of gas for light, heat or power, or the quantity of water furnished for any purpose by any public service company to or for the use of any person or corporation, and when found to be or made to be correct such inspectors shall seal all such meters and each of them with some suitable device to be prescribed by the commission.

No public service company shall thereafter furnish, set or put in use any gas or water meter which shall not have been inspected, proved and sealed by an inspector of the commission under such rules and regulations as the company may prescribe.

The commission may appoint inspectors of electric meters whose duty it shall be when required by the commission to inspect, examine, prove and ascertain the accuracy of any and all electric meters used or intended to be used for measuring and ascertaining the quantity of electric current furnished for light, heat or power by any public service company to or for the use of any person or corporation, and to inspect, examine and ascertain the accuracy of all apparatus for testing and proving the accuracy of electric meters, and when found to be or made to be correct the inspector shall stamp or mark all such meters and apparatus with some suitable device to be prescribed by the commission. No public service company shall furnish, set or put in use any electric meters the type of which shall not have been approved by the commission.

Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall prepare and maintain such suitable premises, apparatus and facilities as may be required and approved by the commission for testing and proving the accuracy of gas, electric or water meters furnished for use by it by which apparatus every meter may be tested.

If any consumer to whom a meter has been furnished shall request the commission in writing to inspect such meter, the commission shall have the same inspected and tested, and if the same, on being so tested, shall be found to be more than four per centum if an electric meter, or more than two per centum if a gas meter, or more than two per centum if a water meter, defective or incorrect to the prejudice of the consumer, the expense of such inspection and test shall be borne by the gas company, electrical company or water company, and if the same, on being so tested shall be found to be correct within the limits of error prescribed by the provisions of this section, the expense of such inspection and test shall be borne by the consumer.

The commission shall prescribe such rules and regulations to carry into effect the provisions of this section as it may deem necessary, and shall fix the uniform and reasonable charges for the inspection and testing of meters upon complaint. [L. '11, p. 585, § 74.]

REFERRED ACT.

§ 10412. Certificate of Public Necessity for New Company to Operate in Territory Covered.

No public service company or prospective public service company shall hereafter construct, extend or thereafter maintain or operate any part of its plant, system or facilities for the purpose of rendering service in a locality wherein similar service is then being rendered by any other public service company in this state, without first applying for and obtaining the certificate of public necessity and convenience from the director of public works, as herein provided. Upon the filing of an application for such certificate the director of public works shall give reasonable notice in writing to the public service company then furnishing such service in such locality or vicinity of the time and place when such application will be heard, and after hearing and investigation if the director of public works finds from the evidence that the public necessity and convenience require that such service be furnished by the public service company or prospective public service company applying for such certificate, the director of public works shall by order grant such certificate of public necessity and convenience. Such order shall specify and define the character, extent and location of the service to be furnished under said certificate and the time within which such service shall be furnished; and any such certificate may be recalled and made null and void in whole or in part by the director of public works in the event that the grantee of such certificate shall fail to comply with any of the provisions or conditions thereof: Provided, however, that this section shall not be construed as requiring such application or certificate for the extension by any public service company, whether privately or municipally owned or operated, of its physical property or service within the locality in which such public service company may now be furnishing similar service to the public or as requiring such application or certificate for the construction of additional plants or extensions of existing plants outside the limits of such locality for making such service within such locality. It shall be the duty of the director of public works, either upon his own motion or upon the complaint of any public service company, to enforce the provisions of this section. Any public service company or prospective public service company may appeal from any order of the director of public works rendered under this section in the same manner and under the same procedure as specified in this act: Provided, however, that the superior court shall require the filing of an adequate supersedeas bond and the pendency of any writ of review shall stay or suspend the operation of any order of the director of public works granting such certificate of necessity and convenience: Provided, however, that until such time as the director of public works shall be appointed and qualified and shall assume and exercise the duties of his office, all of the powers and duties imposed upon the director of public works by the provisions of this act shall be exercised and performed by the Public Service Commission of the state of Washington: Provided, further, that nothing in this act shall authorize the commission to make or enforce any order affecting rates, tolls, rentals, contracts or charges or service rendered, or the safety, adequacy or sufficiency of the facilities, equipment, instrumentalities or buildings, or the reasonableness of rules or regulations made, furnished, used, supplied or enforced affecting any water system owned and operated by any city or town: Provided, further, that any municipal corporation may perfect an appeal without the filing of a supersedeas bond. [L. '21, p. 175, § 1.]

This section is subjected to referendum and suspended, until the general election in November, 1922.

§ 10413. [8626-75.] Power to Administer Oaths.

Each commissioner shall have power to administer oaths, certify to all official acts, and to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, waybills, books, accounts, documents and testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding in any part of the state.

The superior court of the county in which any such inquiry, investigation, hearing or proceeding may be had, shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, waybills, books, accounts, documents and testimony as required by such subpoena. The commission or the commissioner before which the testimony is to be given or produced, in case of the refusal of any witness to attend or testify or produce any papers required by the subpoena, shall report to the superior court in and for the county in which the proceeding is pending by petition, setting forth that due notice has been given of the time and place of attendance of said witnesses, or the production of said papers, and that the witness has been summoned in the manner prescribed in this act, and that the fees and mileage of the witness have been paid or tendered to the witness for his attendance and testimony, and that the witness has failed and refused to attend or produce the papers required by the subpoena, before the commission, in the cause or proceedings named in the notice and subpoena, or has refused to answer questions propounded to him in the course of such proceedings, and ask an order of said court, compelling the witness to attend and testify before the commission. The court, upon the petition of the commission, shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before said court at a time and place to be fixed by the court in such order, and then and there show cause why he has not responded to said subpoena. A copy of said order shall be served upon said witness. If it shall appear to the court that said subpoena was regularly issued by the commission, the court shall thereupon enter an order that said witness appear before the commission at said time and place as fixed in said order, and testify or produce the required papers, and upon failing to obey said order, said witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court. In all proceedings before the commission the commission shall have the right, in their discretion, to limit the number of witnesses testifying upon any subject or proceeding to be inquired of before the commission. [L. '11, p. 587, § 75.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10414. [8626-76.] Depositions—Service of Process—Witness' Fees.

The commission shall have the right to take the testimony of any witness by deposition, and for that purpose the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, waybills, documents, papers and accounts may be enforced in the same manner as in the case of hearings before the commission, or any member thereof. Process issued under the provisions of this act shall be served as in civil cases. Each witness who shall appear before the commission under subpoena shall receive for his attendance three dollars ($3) per day and five (5) cents per mile traveled by the nearest practicable route in going and returning from the place of hearing: Provided, that no witness shall be entitled to fees or mileage from the state of Washington when summoned at the instance of the public service corporations affected. The claim by any witness that any testimony sought to be elicited may tend to incriminate him shall not excuse such witness from testifying, but such evidence or testimony shall not be used against such person on the trial of any criminal proceeding, excepting in a prosecution for perjury. The commissioner shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses at any place within the state. [L. '11, p. 588, § 76.]

§ 10415. [8626-77.] Inspection of Books, Papers and Documents.

The commission and each commissioner, or any person employed by the commission, shall have the right, and at any and all times, to inspect the accounts, books, papers and documents of any public service company, and the commission, or any commissioner, may examine under oath any officer, agent or employee of such public service company in relation thereto, and with reference to the affairs of such company: Provided, that any person other than a commissioner who shall make any such demand shall produce his authority from the commission to make such inspection. [L. '11, p. 589, § 77.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10416. [8626-78.] Reports.

Every public service company shall annually furnish to the commission a report in such form as the commission may require, and shall specifically answer all questions propounded to it by the commission, upon or concerning which the commission may need information. Such annual reports shall show in detail the amount of capital stock issued, the amounts paid therefor and the manner of payment for same, the dividends paid, the surplus fund, if any, and the number of stockholders, the funded and floating debts and the interest paid thereon, the cost and value of the company's property, franchises and equipment, the number of employees and the salaries paid each class, the accidents to passengers, employees and other persons and the cost thereof, the amounts expended for improvements each year, how expended and the character of such improvements, the earnings or receipts from each franchise or business and from all sources, the proportion thereof earned from business moving wholly within the state and the proportion earned from interstate traffic, the nature of the traffic movement showing the percentage of the ton miles each class of commodity bears to the total ton mileage, the operating and other expenses and the proportion of such expense incurred in transacting business wholly within the state, and the proportion incurred in transacting interstate business, such division to be shown according to such rules of division as the commission may prescribe, the balances of profit and loss, and a complete exhibit of the financial operations of the carrier each year, including an annual balance sheet. Such report shall also contain such information in relation to rates, charges or regulations concerning fares, charges or freight, or agreements, arrangements or contracts affecting the same, as the commission may require; and the commission may, in its discretion, for the purpose of enabling it the better to carry out the provisions of this act, prescribe the period of time within which all public service companies subject to the provisions of this act shall have, as near as may be, a uniform system of accounts, and the manner in which such accounts shall be kept. Such detailed report shall contain all the required statistics for the period of twelve months ending on the last day of any particular month prescribed by the commission for any public service company. Such reports shall be made out under oath and filed with the commission at its office in Olympia within three months after the close of the designated year for which such report is made, unless additional time be granted in any case by the commission. The commission shall have authority to require any public service company to file monthly reports of earnings and expenses, and to file periodical or special, or both periodical and special, reports concerning any matter about which the commission is authorized or required by this or any other law, to inquire into or keep itself informed about, or which it is required to enforce, such periodical or special reports to be under oath whenever the commission so requires.

The commission may, in its discretion, prescribe the forms of any and all accounts, records and memoranda to be kept by public service companies, including the accounts, records and memoranda of the movement of traffic, sales of its product, the receipts and expenditures of money. The commission shall at all times have access to all accounts, records and memoranda kept by public service companies, and may employ special agents or examiners, who shall have power to administer oaths and authority, under the order of the commission, to examine witnesses and to inspect and examine any and all accounts, records, and memoranda kept by such companies. The commission may, in its discretion, prescribe the forms of any and all reports, accounts, records and memoranda to be furnished and kept by any public service company whose line or lines extend beyond the limits of this state, which are operated partly within and partly without the state, so that the same shall show any information required by the commission concerning the traffic movement, receipts and expenditures appertaining to those parts of the line within the state. [L. '11, p. 589, § 78.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10417. Payment of Fee.

That hereafter every person, firm, company and corporation making and filing with the director of public works the annual statement required by section 10416, shall, at the time of filing such statement, pay to the director of public works, a fee, based on the gross operating revenues as follows:

When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is
$5,000 and less than $10,000.....	$10 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is
$10,000 and less than $25,000.....	20 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is
$25,000 and less than $50,000.....	30 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is
$50,000 and less than $100,000.....	40 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is
$100,000 and less than $250,000.....	50 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is
$250,000 and less than $500,000.....	100 00

When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is $1,000,000 and less than $2,000,000.....	200 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is $2,000,000	200 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is $2,000,000 and less than $3,000,000.....	300 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is $3,000,000 and less than $4,000,000.....	400 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is $4,000,000 and less than $5,000,000.....	500 00
When the annual gross operating revenue of the public utility is $5,000,000 or over.....	600 00

§ 10418. Disposition of Fees.

All sums collected by the director of public works under the provisions of this act shall within thirty days after their receipt be paid to the state treasurer, and by him deposited in a fund to be known as the public service revolving fund. [L. '21, p. 354, § 2.]

§ 10419. Penalty for Failure to Pay Fees.

Every person, firm, company or corporation, or the officers and agents thereof, failing or neglecting to pay the fees herein required shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in addition thereto shall be subject to a penalty of $25 for each and every day that the fee remains unpaid after it becomes due, said penalty to be collected by the director of public works in a civil action. All fines and penalties collected under the provisions of this act shall be deposited into the public service revolving fund of the state treasury. [L. '21, p. 355, § 3.]

§ 10421. [8626-79.] Production of Books and Records.

In case any public service company shall refuse to exhibit at its principal office in the United States any book, record or document to the commission or to any member thereof, or to any agent or employee thereof properly authorized, or to furnish a sworn copy of such book, record or document on demand the commission may require from any such company the production within the state, at such time and place as it may designate, of any books, records or documents kept by such company without the state.

The commission may require from any public service company the production of any books, records or documents kept by such company in any office or place without the state of Washington. Such demand shall be served upon the public service company in the manner provided for the service of orders herein. Such public service company shall have the right to appear before the commission and show cause, if any there be, why such order should not be complied with and such order shall be made after such hearing as the commission may deem proper. [L. '11, p. 591, § 79.]

§ 10422. [8626-80.] Complaints.

Complaint may be made by the commission of its own motion or by any person or corporation, chamber of commerce, board of trade, or any commercial, mercantile, agricultural or manufacturing society, or any body politic or municipal corporation, by petition or complaint in writing, setting forth any act or thing done or omitted to be done by any public service corporation in violation, or claimed to be in violation, of any provision of law or of any order or rule of the commission: Provided, that no complaint shall be entertained by the commission except upon its own motion, as to the reasonableness of the schedule of the rates or charges of any gas company, electrical company, water company, or telephone company, unless the same be signed by the mayor, council or commission of the city or town in which the company complained of is engaged in business, or not less than twenty-five consumers or purchasers of such gas, electricity, water or telephone service: Provided, further, that when two or more public service corporations, (meaning to exclude municipal and other public corporations) are engaged in competition in any locality or localities in the state, either may make complaint against the other or others that the rates, charges, rules, regulations or practices of such other or others with or in respect to which the complainant is in competition, are unreasonable, unremunerative, discriminatory, illegal, unfair or intending or tending to oppress the complainant, to stifle competition, or to create or encourage the creation of monopoly, and upon such complaint or upon complaint of the commission upon its own motion, the commission shall have power, after notice and hearing as in other cases, to, by its order, subject to appeal as in other cases, correct the abuse complained of by establishing such uniform rates, charges, rules, regulations or practices in lieu of those complained of, to be observed by all of such competing public service corporations in the locality or localities specified as shall be found reasonable, remunerative, nondiscriminatory, legal, and fair or tending to prevent oppression or monopoly or to encourage competition, and upon any such hearing it shall be proper for the commission to take into consideration the rates, charges, rules, regulations and practices of the public service corporation or corporations complained of in any other locality or localities in the state.

All matters upon which complaint may be founded may be joined in one hearing, and no motion shall be entertained against a complaint for misjoinder of complaints or grievances or misjoinder of parties; and in any review of the courts of orders of the commission the same rules shall apply and pertain with regard to the joinder of complaints and parties as herein provided: Provided, all grievances to be inquired into shall be plainly set forth in the complaint. No complaint shall be dismissed because of the absence of direct damage to the complainant.

Upon the filing of a complaint, the commission shall cause a copy thereof to be served upon the person or corporation complained of, which shall be accompanied by a notice fixing the time when and place where a hearing will be had upon such complaint. The time fixed for such hearing shall not be less than ten days after the date of the service of such notice and complaint, excepting as herein provided. Rules of practice and procedure not otherwise provided for in this act may be prescribed by the commission. [L. '11, p. 592, § 80; L. '13, p. 452, § 1.]

Under Laws of 1905, page 145, section 3, authorizing the railroad commission to determine the reasonableness of rates, "Upon complaint made," and after a full hearing, the commission cannot, upon a complaint as to certain distance tariffs, make an order that certain other commodity rates shall not be increased, where the complaint alleged the latter to be fair and reasonable; since no issue was presented thereon and no order could be made relating thereto without notice and hearing; the remedy for an increase of such rates being by another complaint: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 47 Wash. 627, 92 Pac. 457.

The act of 1907, authorizing the state railroad commission to hear and determine complaints against railroad companies as a mediatory court on matters of railroad regulation is not objectionable in that the commission may be the accuser and file the complaint against the companies, there being no presumption of partiality or unfairness from such fact: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

A complaint filed by the railroad commission before itself, alleging that the depot facilities of the defendant at its various stations are inadequate, is a sufficient compliance with Rem. & Bal. Code, section 8632, requiring all grievances to be set out in the complaint; and confers jurisdiction to enter an order requiring the company to erect suitable depots at certain stations within a specified time: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Oregon R. & Nav. Co., 68 Wash. 160, 123 Pac. 3.

A consumer, discriminated against by a water company in the matter of rates charged for water, has authority to file a complaint with the public service commission, under this section; the proviso pertaining only to complaints affecting the reasonableness of the schedule of rates or charges of a public service corporation, and not abridging the authority of an individual to complain of a discrimination in rates: State ex rel. Goss v. Metaline Falls Light & Water Co., 80 Wash. 652, 141 Pac. 1142.

Where an order of the public service commission was not superseded and became effective in twenty days, it will be presumed that it was complied with and therefore it cannot be objected to as too indefinite to be enforced: State ex rel. Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 95 Wash. 376, 163 Pac. 1143, 166 Pac. 793.

Irregularity in fixing gas rates without the ten days' notice required by this section, is not available to a city which was not required to litigate the issue until after the fullest opportunity to do so; and the city cannot deprive the commission of jurisdiction by filing a complaint within the ten days: State ex rel. Seattle v. Public Serv. Com., 107 Wash. 17, 180 Pac. 913.

Under this section, an order of the commission fixing reasonable rates after a hearing, without fixing any time for it to become effective, takes effect and becomes operative twenty days after the service thereof: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 80 Wash. 218, 141 Pac. 351.

Public necessity for a joint freight rate does not depend upon the number of persons asking for the change, and may be based upon the application of but one person: State ex rel. Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 95 Wash. 376, 163 Pac. 1143, 166 Pac. 793.

§ 10423. [8626-81.] Hearings, Orders and Record.

At the time fixed for the hearing mentioned in the preceding section, the complainant and the person or corporation complained of shall be entitled to be heard and introduce such evidence as he or it may desire. The commission shall issue process to enforce the attendance of all necessary witnesses. At the conclusion of such hearing the commission shall make and render findings concerning the subject matter and facts inquired into and enter its order based thereon. A copy of such order, certified under the seal of the commission, shall be served upon the person or corporation complained of, or his or its attorney, which order shall, of its own force, take effect and become operative twenty days after the service thereof, except as otherwise provided. Where an order cannot, in the judgment of the commission, be complied with within twenty days, the commission may prescribe such additional time as in its judgment is reasonably necessary to comply with the order, and may, on application and for good cause shown, extend the time for compliance fixed in its order. A full and complete record of all proceedings had before the commission, or any member thereof, on any formal hearing had, and all testimony shall be taken down by a stenographer appointed by the commission, and the parties shall be entitled to be heard in person or by attorney. In case of an action to review any order of the commission, a transcript of such testimony, together with all exhibits introduced, and of the record and proceedings in the cause, shall constitute the record of the commission. [L. '11, p. 593, § 81.]

Under Rem. & Bal. Code, section 8629, providing that an order of the railroad commission for furnishing additional facilities shall be served on the company by delivering a certified copy, an oral announcement by the chairman at the end of a hearing is not an order binding on the company, and does not preclude the commission from later entering a formal order and serving a copy on the company: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Oregon R. & Nav. Co., 68 Wash. 160, 123 Pac. 3.

The procedure before the state railroad commission upon disputed hearings concerning the regulation of railroads is not objectionable for lack of due process because the attendance of witnesses cannot be compelled; since attendance may be compelled through an order of the superior court, under section 4, Laws of 1907, page 544: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

Nor is it objectionable for want of penalties for perjury, since the general law of perjury applies: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

The railroad commission act creating a regulative railroad commission with executive and administrative duties may also confer on the commission judicial powers as a mediatory court, since the constitutional division of governmental powers into three separate departments applies only in a limited sense, and does not restrict one set of officers to one department exclusively: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

The act is not objectionable in that it empowers the commission to limit the number of witnesses: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

Objection that complaint of a railroad company's depot facilities at all its stations was too general and indefinite to authorize an inquiry as to the facilities at a specific station, is waived where the company entered upon the trial of the issue without objection, and took no appeal to the courts from the order of the commission requiring the erection of a depot: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Oregon R. & Nav. Co., 68 Wash. 160, 123 Pac. 3.

Under the railroad commission act, making the commission an intermediate tribunal with original jurisdiction to hear and determine questions relating to the duty of common carriers to furnish additional transportation facilities, with power to order the construction of depots, its orders being final unless appealed from, under fixed penalties for violation of the order, the power to fix the time within which a depot must be completed is conferred by necessary implication: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Great Northern R. Co., 68 Wash. 257, 123 Pac. 8.

§ 10424. [8626-82.] Increase in Rates—Suspension—Burden of Proof.

Whenever any public service company shall file with the commission any schedule, classification, rule or regulation, the effect of which is to increase any rate, fare, charge, rental or toll theretofore charged, the commission shall have power, either upon its own motion or upon complaint, upon notice, to enter upon a hearing concerning such proposed increase and the reasonableness and justice thereof, and pending such hearing and the decision thereon the commission may suspend the operation of such rate, fare, charge, rental or toll for a period of ninety (90) days from the time the same would otherwise go into effect, and after a full hearing the commission may make such order in reference thereto as would be provided in a hearing initiated after the same had become effective: Provided, that if any such hearing cannot be concluded within the period of suspension, as above stated, the commission may, in its discretion, extend the time of suspension for a further period not exceeding sixty (60) days.

At any hearing involving any change in any schedule, classification, rule or regulation the effect of which is to increase any rate, fare, charge, rental or toll theretofore charged, the burden of proof to show that the changed schedule, classification, rule, or regulation, or the increased or proposed increased rate, fare, charge, rental or toll, is just and reasonable shall be upon the public service company.

The commission shall give to the hearing and decision of such questions preference over all other questions pending before it and shall decide the same as speedily as possible.

If the commission shall at the conclusion of the hearing refuse to permit such increase, either in whole or in part, no supersedeas shall be granted in any action or proceeding brought to review the order of the commission pending the final determination of such action by the superior court, or, if appealed to the supreme court, by such supreme court. [L. '15, p. 362, § 1. Cf. L. '11, p. 594, § 82.]

§ 10425. [8626-83.] Order Requiring Joint Action.

Whenever any order of the commission shall require joint action by two or more public service companies, such order shall specify that the same shall be made at their joint cost, and the companies affected shall have thirty days, or such further time, as the commission may prescribe, within which to agree upon the part or division of cost which each shall bear, and costs of operation and maintenance in the future, or the proportion of charges or revenue each shall receive from such joint service and the rules to govern future operations. If at the expiration of such time such companies shall fail to file with the commission a statement that an agreement has been made for the division or apportionment of such cost, the division of costs of operation and maintenance to be incurred in the future and the proportion of charges or revenue each shall receive from such joint service and the rules to govern future operations, the commission shall have authority, after further hearing, to enter a supplemental order fixing the proportion of such cost or expense to be borne by each company, and the manner in which the same shall be paid and secured. [L. '11, p. 594, § 83.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10426. [8626-84.] Remunerative Charges cannot be Changed.

Whenever the commission shall find, after hearing had upon its own motion or upon complaint as herein provided, that any rate, toll, rental or charge which has been the subject of complaint and inquiry is sufficiently remunerative to the public service company affected thereby, it may order that such rate, toll, rental or charge shall not be changed, altered, abrogated or discontinued, nor shall there be any change in the classification which will change or alter such rate, toll, rental or charge without first obtaining the consent of the commission authorizing such change to be made. [L. '11, p. 595, § 84.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10427. [8626-85.] Rules and Regulations.

The commission is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt, promulgate and issue rules and regulations covering the bulletining of trains, showing the time of arrival and departure of all trains, and the probable arrival and departure of delayed trains; the conditions to be contained in and become a part of contracts for transportation of persons and property, transmission and delivery of messages and conversations, and the furnishing and supply of gas, electricity and water, and any and all services concerning the same, or connected therewith; the time that station rooms and offices shall be kept open; rules governing demurrage and reciprocal demurrage, and to provide reasonable penalties to expedite the prompt movement of freight and release of cars, the limits of express deliveries in cities and towns, and generally such rules as pertain to the comfort and convenience of the public concerning the subjects treated of in this act. Such rules and regulations shall be promulgated and issued by the commission on its own motion, and shall be served on the public service company affected thereby as other orders of the commission are served. Any public service company affected thereby, and deeming such rules and regulations, or any of them, improper, unjust, unreasonable, or contrary to law, may within twenty days from the date of service of such order upon it file objections thereto with the commission, specifying the particular grounds of such objections. The commission shall, upon receipt of such objections, fix a time and place for hearing the same, and after a full hearing may make such changes or modifications thereto, if any, as the evidence may justify. The commission shall have, and it is hereby given, power to adopt rules to govern its proceedings, and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings: Provided, no person desiring to be present at such hearing shall be denied permission. Actions may be instituted to review rules and regulations promulgated under this section as in the case of orders of the commission. [L. '11, p. 595, § 85.]

Reciprocal demurrage, see notes to § 10359.

The railroad commission having adopted no rules as to the time for keeping a company's station rooms open, as empowered by this section, a passenger, in order to recover damages from a company's failure to keep its waiting-room open between the hours of 4:30 and 8

A. M., must allege and prove that its rules providing therefor are unreasonable: Davenport v. Chicago Mil. & St. P. R. Co., 103 Wash. 645, 175 Pac. 298.

§ 10428. [8626-86.] Review.

Any complainant or any public service affected by any order of the commission, and deeming it to be contrary to law, may, within thirty days after the service of the order upon him, or it, apply to the superior court of the county in which such proceeding was instituted for a writ of review, for the purpose of having its reasonableness and lawfulness inquired into and determined. Such writ shall be made returnable not later than thirty days from and after the date of the issuance thereof, unless upon notice to all parties affected a further time be fixed by the court, and shall direct the commission to certify its record in the case to the court. On such return day the cause shall be heard by the court, unless for good cause shown the same be continued. Said cause shall be heard by the court without the intervention of a jury on the evidence and exhibits introduced before the commission and certified to by it. Upon such hearing the superior court shall enter judgment either affirming or setting aside the order of the commission under review. In case said order is reversed by reason of the commission failing to receive testimony properly proffered, the court shall remand the cause to the commission, with instructions to receive the testimony so proffered and rejected, and enter a new order based upon the evidence theretofore taken, and such as it is directed to receive. The court may, in its discretion, remand any cause which is reversed by it to the commission for further action. [L. '11, p. 596, § 86.]

A railroad company having failed to avail itself of the right to appeal from a decision of the railroad commission ordering the construction of a depot within a specified time, is precluded from questioning its reasonableness or legality: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Great Northern R. Co., 68 Wash. 257, 123 Pac. 8.

It is not material that the act of 1907, page 538, conferring authority upon the state railroad commission to order track-age connections between railroads, and for an appeal therefrom, requires a review of the order in the superior court upon the testimony taken before the railroad commission; since the act provides a complete remedy if the commission refuses to accept competent evidence, by a reversal for error with instructions to receive the evidence proffered and rejected: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

Rem. & Bal. Code, section 8629, providing for appeals from orders of the superior court reviewing orders of the railroad commission reducing railroad rates, which the superior court in its discretion might "suspend" pending the hearing, and which requires that bonds "shall" be required in addition to the usual appeal bond, was mandatory and contemplates a compensatory bond to supersede the judgment pending the appeal to the supreme court; especially in view of the provision allowing appeal "as in other civil cases": State ex rel. Puget Sound Elec. R. v. Mitchell, 60 Wash. 660, 111 Pac. 873.

Upon certiorari to review an order of the state railroad commission, the evidence used in other cases, under stipulation, may be certified by reference thereto in the return to the writ, it not being objected that it was not certified, as the form of certification was not material: State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Railroad Com., 52 Wash. 17, 100 Pac. 179.

An order of the railroad commission reducing switch charges, based largely upon an old rate that had been continued in force for some time, and upon conflicting evidence as to the time consumed in the service and as to the other services performed by the switching crew, is aided by the presumption that a rate continued in force for some time is presumed to be remunerative and by the presumption that the findings of the commission are correct; and the order will not be disturbed on appeal although the testimony is meager, indefinite, and unsatisfactory: Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 57 Wash. 134, 106 Pac. 611.

The provision in the railway commission law, giving to railroad companies the right of appeal from orders of the superior court on reviewing orders of the railroad commission, was not intended to restrict the right of appeal to railroad companies: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 60 Wash. 218, 110 Pac. 1075.

The railroad commission has such an interest in defending its orders concerning railroad service and facilities made in proceedings instituted by it, as to entitle it to appeal to the supreme court from orders of the superior court reversing the orders of the commission: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Railroad Com., 60 Wash. 218, 110 Pac. 1075.

This section is not limited to final orders, and a writ is properly quashed if not taken out within such time: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 76 Wash. 625, 137 Pac. 132.

Under this section, only the superior court in which the proceeding was instituted has any jurisdiction to issue a writ of review, and the word "instituted" cannot be construed to mean "originated" so as to give jurisdiction to review an order in a controversy "originating" in a county other than the one where the proceeding was "instituted": State ex rel. Russell v. Public Serv. Com., 75 Wash. 487, 135 Pac. 244.

The reasonableness and lawfulness of an order of the public service commission respecting train service to be rendered a town is reviewable, and the presumption that the commission acted reasonably and lawfully must be clearly overthrown before the order will be set aside: State ex rel. Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 81 Wash. 275, 142 Pac. 684.

Under this section, certiorari lies to review the commission's order for the repayment by a carrier of an overcharge; and the carrier need not first assail the order in an action to recover the overcharge authorized by section 10431: State ex rel. Tacoma Eastern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 102 Wash. 589, 173 Pac. 626.

Where a judgment fixed tolls during the war period that might work an injustice, an appeal will not be dismissed as presenting only a moot question: State ex rel. Seattle v. Public Serv. Com., 110 Wash. 130, 188 Pac. 7.

A public service corporation cannot maintain an action to set aside an order of the public service commission, made without notice, annulling its previous judgment fixing rates, since the only remedy is by writ of review, in view of this section and § 10448, providing for such review and that an order is conclusive unless set aside in the review provided for in the act: Willapa Power Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 110 Wash. 193, 188 Pac. 464.

A decision ordering a recovery for overcharges on complaint filed by a shipper, and judgment on certiorari affirming the same are not decisions on the merits, reviewable on appeal; since they but give the shipper the right to sue on the award, and are merely prima facie evidence of the facts stated: State ex rel. Tacoma v. Public Serv. Com., 112 Wash. 629, 192 Pac. 1079.

§ 10429. [8626-87.] Supersedeas.

The pendency of any writ of review shall not of itself stay or suspend the operation of the order of the commission, but the superior court in its discretion may restrain or suspend, in whole or in part, the operation of the commission's order pending the final hearing and determination of the suit.

No order so restraining or suspending an order of the commission relating to rates, fares, charges, tolls or rentals, or rules or regulations, practices, classifications or contracts affecting the same, shall be made by the superior court otherwise than upon three days' notice and after hearing, and if a supersedeas is granted the order granting the same shall contain a specific finding, based upon evidence submitted to the court making the order, and identified by reference thereto, that great or irreparable damage would otherwise result to the petitioner, and specifying the nature of the damage: Provided, however, that when any rate has been in force for any length of time exceeding one year, and such rate is advanced by the public service company, and the order of the commission reinstates such prior rate, in whole or in part, no supersedeas shall be allowed in any case from such order pending the final determination of the cause in the superior court, or if appealed to the supreme court by such supreme court.

In case the order of the commission under review is superseded by the court, it shall require a bond, with good and sufficient surety, conditioned that such company petitioning for such review shall answer for all damages caused by the delay in the enforcement of the order of the commission, and all compensation for whatever sums for transportation, transmission or service any person or corporation shall be compelled to pay pending the review proceedings in excess of the sum such person or corporation would have been compelled to pay if the order of the commission had not been suspended.

The court may, in addition to or in lieu of the bond herein provided for, require such other or further security for the payment of such excess charges or damages as it may deem proper. [L. '11, p. 597, § 87.]

In view of this section, a railroad company is bound by an order of the railroad commission ordering the construction and maintenance of a spur-track to serve a warehouse, and cannot have the same reviewed on certiorari on the theory that the order was a continuing one, where the company complied with the order by building the spur at the shipper's expense, which was paid, and took no appeal: Great Northern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 69 Wash. 579, 125 Pac. 948.

§ 10430. [8626-88.] Appeal to the Supreme Court.

The commission, any public service company or any complainant may, within twenty days after the entry of judgment in the superior court in any action of review, prosecute an appeal to the supreme court of the state of Washington. The appellant shall have fifty days after the entry of such judgment in which to serve and file his opening brief, and the respondent shall have thirty days after the service of such opening brief in which to answer the same. The appellant shall have twenty days after the service of respondent's brief in which to reply to the same. After the filing of such brief, or the expiration of the time for filing briefs, the cause shall be assigned for hearing at the earliest motion day of the court, or at such other time as the court shall fix, and the clerk of the court shall notify the attorneys for the respective parties of the date set for the hearing in time to permit the parties to participate in the hearing. Such appeal shall be taken by giving a notice of appeal in open court at the time of the rendition of judgment, or by the service and filing of a notice of appeal within twenty days from and after the entry of the judgment.

The original transcript of the record and testimony filed in the superior court in any action to review an order of the commission, together with a transcript of the proceedings in the superior court, shall constitute the record on appeal to the supreme court.

No appeal shall be effective, when taken by a public service company or a complainant, unless a cost bond on appeal in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) shall be filed within five days after the service of the notice of appeal.

The superior court may, in its discretion, suspend its judgment pending the hearing in the supreme court, upon the filing of a bond, with a good and sufficient surety, conditioned as provided for bonds upon actions for review, or upon such other or further terms and conditions as it may deem proper. The general laws relating to appeals to the supreme court shall, so far as applicable and not in conflict with the provisions of this act, apply to appeals taken under the provisions of this act. [L. '11, p. 598, § 88.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10431. [8626-89.] Rehearings.

Any public service company affected by any order of the commission, and deeming itself aggrieved, may, after the expiration of two years from the date of such order taking effect, petition the commission for a rehearing upon the matters involved in such order, setting forth in such petition the grounds and reasons for such rehearing, which grounds and reasons may comprise and consist of changed conditions since the issuance of such order, or by showing a result injuriously affecting the petitioner which was not considered or anticipated at the former hearing, or that the effect of such order has been such as was not contemplated by the commission or the petitioner, or for any good and sufficient cause which for any reason was not considered and determined in such former hearing. Upon the filing of such petition, such proceedings shall be had thereon as are provided for hearings upon complaint, and such orders may be reviewed as are other orders of the commission: Provided, that no order superseding the order of the commission denying such rehearing shall be granted by the court pending the review. In case any order of the commission shall not be reviewed, but shall be complied with by the public service company, such petition for rehearing may be filed within six months from and after the date of the taking effect of such order, and the proceedings thereon shall be as in this section provided. The commission, may, in its discretion, permit the filing of a petition for rehearing at any time. No order of the commission upon a rehearing shall affect any right of action or penalty accruing under the original order unless so ordered by the commission. [L. '11, p. 599, § 89.]

§ 10432. [8626-90.] Commission may Change Orders.

The commission may at any time, upon notice to the public service company affected, and after opportunity to be heard as provided in the case of complaints rescind, alter or amend any order or rule made, issued or promulgated by it, and any order or rule rescinding, altering or amending any prior order or rule shall, when served upon the public service company affected, have the same effect as herein provided for original orders and rules. [L. '11, p. 600, § 90.]

§ 10433. [8626-91.] Overcharge.

When complaint has been made to the commission concerning the reasonableness of any rate, fare, toll, rental or charge for any service performed by any public service company, and the same has been investigated by the commission, and the commission shall determine that the public service company has charged an excessive or exorbitant amount for such service, the commission may order that the public service company pay to the complainant the amount of the overcharge so found, with interest from the date of collection.

If the public service company does not comply with the order for the payment of the overcharge within the time limited in such order, suit may be instituted in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the same, and in such suit the findings and order of the commission shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. If the complainant shall prevail in such action, he shall be allowed a reasonable attorney's fee, to be fixed and collected as part of the costs of the suit. All complaints concerning overcharges shall be filed with the commission within two years from the time the cause of action accrues, and the petition for the enforcement of the order shall be filed in the court within one year from the date of the order of the commission. [L. '11, p. 600, § 91.]

See infra, § 10435, judgment may be entered in favor of the director of public works for amount of overcharge.

Cited in 97 Wash. 598, 600, 603; 99 Wash. 40, 45; 102 Wash. 590, 592; 110 Wash. 399; 112 Wash. 631, 634.

This section is an exclusive remedy to the extent that it requires a submission of the action to the public service commission within two years as a condition precedent to the right to maintain an action; and it is not unconstitutional or beyond the power of the legislature, as curtailing the common law, as declared by Constitution, Article XII, section 15, compelling fairness in freight charges, to provide an inquiry by a board skilled in the science, as a prerequisite to the institution of a suit and within a definite time; since there is no abolition of the remedy and no vested right in procedure: Hewitt Logging Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 97 Wash. 597, 166 Pac. 1153.

It is a condition precedent to an action to recover overcharges that the public service commission determines the amount, under this section; hence an order of the public service commission does not furnish a sufficient basis for action where it does not designate the individual shippers entitled to recover nor fix the amount due to each: Belcher v. Tacoma Eastern R. Co., 99 Wash. 34, 168 Pac. 782.

Where a railroad company invoked the aid of the public service commission to cancel charges which were admitted to be unjust and discriminatory, and undertook with the commission to make a refund to all claimants, it cannot invoke the statute of limitations provided by this section, requiring all claims for overcharges to be filed with the commission within two years from the time the cause of action accrues: Belcher v. Tacoma Eastern R. Co., 99 Wash. 34, 168 Pac. 782.

In such case, the railroad's petition revives claims for overcharges that theretofore had been barred by lapse of time; since claims arising out of a violation of the long and short haul do not rest in tort, but in implied assumpsit: Belcher v. Tacoma Eastern R. Co., 99 Wash. 34, 168 Pac. 782.

The public service commission has jurisdiction to investigate a charge of discrimination growing out of the violation of the long and short haul provision, under the comprehensive provisions of this section: Belcher v. Tacoma Eastern R. Co., 99 Wash. 34, 168 Pac. 782.

Under section 10428, authorizing an appeal from "any order," certiorari lies to renew an order for the repayment of an overcharge: State ex rel. Tacoma Eastern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 102 Wash. 589, 173 Pac. 626.

Where a telephone company put into effect and collected a schedule of rates in excess of the rates fixed by its franchise, before the public service commission had exercised its discretion or taken any steps to terminate the franchise contract by authorizing an increase of rates, the superior court has jurisdiction of an action to recover the excess charges; and this section, authorizing the public service commission, upon complaint as to the "reasonableness" of any rate or toll, to order an overcharge to be repaid, is not applicable, since the franchise contract in force at the time was violated and the reasonableness of the rate is not a factor: State ex rel. Home Telephone & Telegraph Co. v. Superior Court, 110 Wash. 396, 188 Pac. 404.

The superior court has jurisdiction of such an action, although it relates to refund of excess freight charges prior to the passage of this section: State ex rel. Tacoma Eastern R. Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 112 Wash. 629, 192 Pac. 1079.

Validity of statute requiring claims for refund of overcharges by carriers to be submitted to public service commission. 3 A. L. R. 203.

§ 10434. Refunds and Overcharges—Determination by Director of Public Works.

The director of public works shall have power and it shall be his duty, upon complaint in writing being made to him, to determine the amount of overcharge made and refund due in all cases where any public service company, as defined in this chapter, charges an amount for any service rendered in excess of the lawful rate in force at the time such charge was made, or which may thereafter be declared to be the legal rate which should have been applied to the service rendered, and to determine to whom the overcharge should be paid: Provided, that this act shall not apply to controversies arising in relation to contracts in existence prior to the taking effect of this chapter. [L. '21, p. 336, § 1.]

§ 10435. Judgment for Overcharge—Collection.

Upon determining the amount of overcharge due from any such public service company, the director of public works may, if he deem it necessary to insure the prompt payment of the same to him, render judgment against such public service company for the amount of such overcharge. From and after the time that a transcript of said judgment is filed with and recorded and indexed by the county auditor as instruments relating to real and personal property are filed, recorded and indexed, it shall be a lien against all real and personal property of such public service company located in the county in which such transcript is filed, recorded and indexed. Such judgment may be enforced by execution and sale through the sheriff of any county in which is found any real or personal property belonging to such public service company, said execution to be delivered to the sheriff by the director of public works and the execution to be levied and the sale made by the sheriff in the same manner as levies and sales are made on judgments of the superior court. [L. '21, p. 336, § 2.]

See supra, § 10433, judgment may order public service company to pay complainant the amount of the overcharge.

§ 10436. Payment of Refunds Collected.

All refunds collected by the director of public works under this act shall immediately be paid to the person, firm or corporation entitled thereto less a fee of ten per cent on the amount collected, which shall be charged by the director of public works, deducted by him and paid into the public service revolving fund of the state treasury. [L. '21, p. 337, § 3.]

§ 10437. Unclaimed Refunds.

All refunds collected by the director of public works and which at the expiration of two years are unclaimed, or which he is unable to deliver to the person entitled thereto, shall be paid by the director of public works into the public service revolving fund of the state treasury. [L. '21, p. 337, § 4.]

§ 10438. Rules and Regulations.

The director of public works shall have power to make rules and regulations for carrying out the provisions of this act. [L. '21, p. 337, § 5.]

§ 10439. Hearings and Procedure.

Hearings to determine the amount of any refund due under this act shall be held in the same manner, the same procedure followed, and judgments and orders subject to review and appeal in the courts as is provided for hearings, procedure, reviews and appeals in matters before the public service commission of Washington under the provisions of this chapter. [L. '21, p. 337, § 6.]

§ 10441. [8626-92.] Valuation of Property—Procedure.

The commission shall ascertain, as early as practicable, the cost of construction and equipment, the amount expended in permanent improvements, and proportionate amount of such permanent improvements charged in construction and to operating expenses respectively, the present as compared with the original cost of construction, and the cost of reproducing in its present condition the property of every public service company.

It shall also ascertain the amount and present market value of the capital stock and funded indebtedness of every public service company.

It shall also ascertain in the case of companies engaged in interstate business, the relative value of the use to which such property in this state is actually put in the conduct of interstate business and state business respectively.

It shall also ascertain the total market value of the property of each public service company operating in this state used for the public convenience within the state.

It shall also ascertain the time intervening between the expenditure of money in the cost of construction and time when returns in the shape of dividends were first received by each of these companies.

It shall also ascertain the probable earning capacity of each public service company under the rates now charged by such companies and the sum required to meet fixed charges and operating expenses, and in case of a company doing interstate business it shall also ascertain the probable earning capacity of such company upon intrastate business, and the sum required to meet fixed charges and operating expenses on intrastate business, and the relative proportion of intrastate and interstate business, the relative proportion of the operating expenses connected therewith, the relative proportion of the revenue which should be derived therefrom.

It shall also ascertain the density of traffic and of population tributary to every public service company, and the conditions which will tend to show whether such traffic and population is likely to continue, increase or diminish.

It shall also ascertain the existence of grades, curvatures and other physical conditions affecting the movement of traffic and business of common carriers.

It shall also ascertain whether the expenditures already made by any public service company in procuring its property were such as were justified by the then existing conditions, and such as might reasonably be expected in the immediate future and whether the money expended by such company has been reasonable for the present needs of the company and for such needs as may reasonably be expected in the immediate future.

The commission is hereby authorized to cause a hearing or hearings to be held at such time or times and place or places as the commission may designate for the purpose of ascertaining the matters and things provided for in this section.

The commission shall, before any hearing is had, notify the company concerned of the time and place of such hearing, by giving at least thirty days' written notice thereof, specifying that at the time and place designated a hearing will be held for the purpose of ascertaining the value of such company's property within the state, which shall be a sufficient complaint to authorize the commission to inquire into the matters designated in this section.

All companies affected shall be entitled to be heard and introduce evidence at such hearing. The evidence introduced at such hearing shall be reduced to writing and certified under the seal of the commission.

The commission shall make and render findings of fact in writing covering all matters in this section mentioned concerning which it is directed to inquire into, and shall make findings upon all matters concerning which evidence may have been introduced before it shall tend to show the value of the property used by such company for the public convenience.

Any company affected by the findings, or any of them, believing such findings, or any of them, to be contrary to law or the evidence introduced, or that such findings are unfair, unwarranted or unjust, may institute proceedings in the superior court of the state of Washington in the county in which said hearing has been held, or, if held in more than one county, then in the county in which said hearing was commenced, and have such findings reviewed, and their correctness, reasonableness and lawfulness inquired into and determined. Such review shall be heard by the court without the intervention of a jury and shall be heard upon the evidence and exhibits taken before the commission and certified to by it; and the court before which such hearing is had, in case it finds any such findings so sought to be reviewed unjust, incorrect, unreasonable, unlawful or not supported by the evidence, shall make new and correct findings to take the place of such as may not be sustained, unless such findings are set aside and reversed for error on the part of the commission in rejecting evidence properly proffered in which case it shall remand said hearing to the commission with instructions to receive the evidence so proffered and rejected and make the findings of fact on the evidence so proffered and that already received.

Said public service company or the commission shall have the right to appeal from the decision of the superior court to the supreme court of the state of Washington, as in civil cases. In case the supreme court finds any findings so sought to be reviewed unjust, incorrect, unlawful or unreasonable, or not supported by the evidence, it shall either make and render proper findings or remand the case to the superior court with instructions to make proper findings on the evidence already submitted, unless the same is reversed for error in rejecting evidence properly proffered in which case the hearing shall be remanded to the commission with instructions to receive the evidence so proffered and make findings on the evidence so proffered and rejected and that already received.

The findings of the commission so filed, or as the same may be corrected by the courts, when properly certified under the seal of the commission, shall be admissible in evidence in any action, proceeding or hearing, excepting with respect to matters of assessment and taxation, in which the state or any officer, department or institution thereof, or any county, municipality, or other body politic and the public service company affected is interested, whether arising under the provisions of this act or otherwise, and such findings when so introduced shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated in such findings as of the date therein stated under conditions then existing, except as a basis for taxation, and such facts can only be controverted by showing a subsequent change in conditions bearing upon the facts therein determined.

The commission shall hereafter, from time to time, cause further hearings to be had for the purpose of ascertaining the betterments, improvements, additions, and extensions made by any public service company to its property subsequent to the date of any prior hearing, and shall examine into all traffic movement and every matter and thing that would change, modify or affect any finding of fact previously made, and shall at such time make findings of fact supplemental to those theretofore made, showing the amount expended in betterments, improvements, extensions and additions since such prior findings and the cost of reproducing the same, the value of the property used by such company at the time of such subsequent hearing, the relative value of the use to which such property is put in the performance of intrastate and interstate business, respectively, and the value of the property of such company in the state used for the public convenience of intrastate business. Such hearing shall be had upon the same notice, the examination conducted in the same manner, and the findings so made shall have the same force and effect as is provided herein for such original notice, hearing and findings: Provided, that such findings made at such supplemental hearing shall be considered in connection with and as a part of the original findings except in so far as such supplemental findings shall change or modify the findings made at the original hearing. [L. '11, p. 601, § 92; L. '13, p. 662, § 1.]

Under this section, there is such arbitrary and unlawful action on the part of the taxing boards in assessing railroad property, as to warrant an action on the equity side of the court for relief, where the state board of tax commissioners and the state board of equalization refused to consider and hear evidence on the application of a railroad company showing that its operating properties have depreciated in value since the finding made in the previous year by the public service commission, but accepted such previous valuation as conclusive for the assessment year in dispute: Spokane & Inland Empire R. Co. v. Spokane County, 82 Wash. 24, 143 Pac. 307.

Under this section, "goodwill" may be considered as an asset in determining the value of a company's lines and property: Northern Pac. R. Co. v. State, 84 Wash. 510, 147 Pac. 45, Ann. Cas. 1916E, 1166.

Under this section and section 11161, the railroad commission has power to classify the operating property of railroads and having classified real estate adjoining terminal grounds as operating property, the state tax commission has no authority to reclassify the same as nonoperating property because not used in operating that year, so as to authorize its assessment by the county assessor in like manner as the real estate of individuals: Northern Pac. R. Co. v. King County, 93 Wash. 89, 160 Pac. 8.

Where the value of railway property has been fixed by the state railway commission, the state tax commission had no power to fix another valuation for the purposes of taxation, under the act of 1907 (Rem. & Bal. Code, § 9141): State ex rel. Oregon R. & Nav. Co. v. Clausen, 63 Wash. 535, 116 Pac. 7.

The physical valuation of the old operating properties as fixed by the public service commission is conclusive on the state tax commission in its annual assessments for taxation, subject to revision by the courts: Oregon-Washington R. & Nav. Co. v. Thurston County, 98 Wash. 218, 167 Pac. 930.

What is an excessive valuation: Id.

§ 10442. [8626-93.] Summary Proceedings.

Whenever the commission shall be of opinion that any public service company is failing or omitting, or about to fail or omit, to do anything required of it by law, or by order, direction or requirement of the commission, or is doing anything, or about to do anything, or permitting anything, or about to permit anything to be done contrary to or in violation of law or of any order, direction or requirement of the commission authorized by this act, it shall direct the attorney general to commence an action or proceeding in the superior court of the state of Washington for Thurston county or in the superior court of any county in which such company may do business, in the name of the state of Washington on the relation of the commission, for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented, either by mandamus or injunction. The attorney general shall thereupon begin such action or proceeding by petition to such superior court, alleging the violation complained of, and praying for appropriate relief by way of mandamus or injunction. It shall thereupon be the duty of the court to specify a time, not exceeding twenty days after the service of the copy of the petition, within which the public service company complained of must answer the petition. In case of default in answer or after answer, the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances in such manner as the court shall direct, without other or formal pleadings, and without respect to any technical requirement. Such persons or corporations as the court may deem necessary or proper to be joined as parties, in order to make its judgment, order or writ effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that the writ of mandamus or injunction, or both, issue as prayed for in the petition, or in such other modified form as the court may determine will afford appropriate relief. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court from such final judgment in the same manner and with the same effect as appeals from judgments of the superior court in actions to review orders of the commission. All provisions of this act relating to the time of appeal, the manner of perfecting the same, the filing of briefs, hearings and supersedeas, shall apply to appeals to the supreme court under the provisions of this section. [L. '11, p. 605, § 93.]

§ 10443. [8626-94.] Penalties for Violation of Act or Orders.

Every public service company, and all officers, agents and employees of any public service company, shall obey, observe and comply with every order, rule, direction or requirement made by the commission under authority of this act, so long as the same shall be and remain in force. Any public service company which shall violate or fail to comply with any provision of this act, or which fails, omits or neglects to obey, observe or comply with any order, rule, or any direction, demand or requirement of the commission, shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars for each and every offense. Every violation of any such order, direction or requirement of this act shall be a separate and distinct offense, and in case of a continuing violation every day's continuance thereof shall be and be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense. [L. '11, p. 606, § 94.]

The penalty for failure to obey an order to construct a depot within a specified time attaches at the expiration of the period: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Great Northern R. Co., 68 Wash. 257, 123 Pac. 8.

In a proceeding to recover a penalty for failing to comply with an order of the railroad commission for the erection of a depot, complaint cannot be made of the order that it was indefinite as to the size and location of the building, where the company accepted and acted upon the order except as to the time for its erection, and it was definite as to such time: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Oregon R. & Nav. Co., 68 Wash. 160, 123 Pac. 3.

Under Rem. & Bal. Code, § 8631, prescribing a penalty if a railroad company "refuse or neglect" to obey any order of the railroad commission, the penalty is imposed for neglect, as well as refusal, to obey an order to construct a depot within a specified time, and the penalty cannot be restricted to cases of willful or contumacious refusal to obey an order; the word "neglect" meaning omission or forbearance, irrespective of carelessness or imprudence: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Great Northern R. Co., 68 Wash. 257, 123 Pac. 8.

In a prosecution to recover a penalty for failing to obey an order of the railroad commission to construct a depot within a specified time, which became final and conclusive because not appealed from, it is no defense that the defendant's system of work entailed such delay that the time fixed for performance was unreasonably short, where these facts were well known to the company at the time the order was made and the objection could have been raised on direct appeal from the order: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Great Northern R. Co., 68 Wash. 257, 123 Pac. 8.

In such a case, it is no defense that unprecedented floods delayed the performance, where such floods occurred after the expiration of the time prescribed by the order for performance: State ex rel. Railroad Com. v. Great Northern R. Co., 68 Wash. 257, 123 Pac. 8.

Proceedings to Compel Operation: Individuals, living along the line of a street railway, cannot maintain an action to prevent the company from abandoning the route merely because they, "and many other residents similarly situated," are dependent on the line for railway service, in the absence of any allegation as to the number of persons affected who are too remote to use a new parallel route, or the manner in which the public convenience will be affected: Day v. Tacoma R. & Power Co., 80 Wash. 161, 141 Pac. 347, L. R. A. 1915B, 547.

Injunction does not lie to prevent a street railway company from abandoning that part of its road lying between two stations served by a competing road lying closely parallel, merely because the abandonment necessarily results in depriving all persons to whom both roads are accessible of competitive service; since the whole theory of the public service law is opposed to the idea that the public will be better served with two closely parallel lines of road where one road will amply suffice: Day v. Tacoma R. & Power Co., 80 Wash. 161, 141 Pac. 347, L. R. A. 1915B, 547.

§ 10444. [8626-95.] Officers and Employees Subject to Penalty.

Every officer, agent or employee of any public service company, who shall violate or fail to comply with, or who procures, aids or abets any violation by any public service company of any provision of this act, or who shall fail to obey, observe or comply with any order of the commission, or any provision of any order of the commission, or who procures, aids or abets any such public service company in its failure to obey, observe and comply with any such order or provision, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '11, p. 606, § 95.]

§ 10445. [8626-96.] Corporations Violating Act or Orders—Penalty.

Every corporation, other than a public service company, which shall violate any provision of this act, or which shall fail to obey, observe or comply with any order of the commission under authority of this act, so long as the same shall be and remain in force, shall be subject to a penalty of not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each and every offense. Every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense, and the penalty shall be recovered in an action as provided in section 10447. [L. '11, p. 607, § 96.]

§ 10446. [8626-97.] Persons Violating Act—Penalty.

Every person who, either individually, or acting as an officer or agent of a corporation other than a public service company, shall violate any provision of this act, or fail to observe, obey or comply with any order made by the commission under this act, so long as the same shall be or remain in force, or who shall procure, aid or abet any such corporation in its violation of this act, or in its failure to obey, observe or comply with any such order, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '11, p. 607, § 97.]

§ 10447. [8626-98.] Suit for Penalties.

Actions to recover penalties under this act shall be brought in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county, or in the superior court of any county in or through which such public service company may do business. In all such actions the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as in ordinary civil actions, except as otherwise herein provided. All fines and penalties recovered by the state under this act shall be paid into the treasury of the state. [L. '11, p. 607, § 98.]

§ 10448. [8626-99.] Orders and Rules Conclusive.

In all actions between private parties and public service companies involving any rule or order of the commission, and in all actions for the recovery of penalties provided for in this act, or for the enforcement of the orders or rules issued and promulgated by the commission, the said orders and rules shall be conclusive unless set aside or annulled in a review as in this act provided. [L. '11, p. 608, § 99.]

See notes to § 10428.

Cited in 85 Wash. 37, 39; 110 Wash. 195.

In view of this section, a public service corporation cannot maintain an action to set aside an order, made without notice, annulling a previous judgment of the commission fixing rates: Willapa Power Co. v. Public Serv. Com., 110 Wash. 193, 188 Pac. 464.

§ 10449. [8626-100.] Findings of Prima Facie Correct.

Whenever the commission has issued or promulgated any order or rule, in any writ of review brought by a public service company to determine the reasonableness of such order or rule, the findings of fact made by the commission shall be prima facie correct, and the burden shall be upon said public service company to establish the order or rule to be unreasonable or unlawful. [L. '11, p. 608, § 100.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10450. [8626-101.] Commission shall Enforce Laws.

It shall be the duty of the commission to enforce the provisions of this act and all other acts of this state affecting public service companies, the enforcement of which is not specifically vested in some other officer or tribunal. [L. '11, p. 608, § 101.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10451. [8626-102.] Companies Liable for Damages.

In case any public service company shall do, cause to be done or permit to be done any act, matter or thing prohibited, forbidden or declared to be unlawful, or shall omit to do any act, matter or thing required to be done, either by any law of this state, by this act or by any order or rule of the commission, such public service company shall be liable to the persons or corporations affected thereby for all loss, damage or injury caused thereby or resulting therefrom, and in case of recovery if the court shall find that such act or omission was willful, it may, in its discretion fix a reasonable counsel or attorney's fee, which shall be taxed and collected as part of the costs in the case. An action to recover for such loss, damage or injury may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction by any person or corporation. [L. '11, p. 608, § 102.]

§ 10452. [8626-103.] Commission to Furnish Copy of Rates, etc.—Fees.

Upon the application of any person the commission shall furnish certified copies of any classification, rate, rule, regulation or order established by such commission, and the printed copies published by authority of the commission, or any certified copy of any such classification, rate, rule, regulation or order, with seal affixed, shall be admissible in evidence in any action or proceeding, and shall be sufficient to establish the fact that the charge, rate, rule, order or classification therein contained is the official act of the commission. When copies of any classification, rate, rule, regulation or order not contained in the printed reports, or copies of papers, accounts or records of public service companies filed with the commission shall be demanded from the commission for proper use, the commission shall charge a reasonable compensation therefor. An action to recover for such loss, damage or injury may be brought in any court of competent jurisdiction by any such person or corporation. [L. '11, p. 609, § 103.]

§ 10453. [8626-104.] Effect of Act—Release of Damages.

This act shall not have the effect to release or waive any right of action by the state or any person for any right, penalty or forfeiture which may have arisen or may hereafter arise under any law of this state; and all penalties accruing under this act shall be cumulative of each other, and a suit for the recovery of one penalty shall not be a bar to the recovery of any other: Provided, that no contract, receipt, rule or regulation shall exempt any corporation engaged in transporting livestock by railway from liability of a common carrier, or carrier of livestock, which would exist had no contract, receipt, rule or regulation been made or entered into. [L. '11, p. 609, § 104.]

Cited in 97 Wash. 600, 604, 606.

An exemption by contract from liability for negligence by a railroad transporting livestock into this state, contrary to the provisions of this section, is void as against public policy, although valid under the laws of the state where the contract was made; and comity does not require its enforcement in this state: Carstens Packing Co. v. Southern Pac. Co., 58 Wash. 239, 108 Pac. 613, 27 L. R. A. (N. S.) 975.

This section is not void as against public policy when freely and fairly made in consideration of the rate given, a higher valuation being available at a higher rate: Carstens Packing Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 64 Wash. 256, 116 Pac. 625.

A stipulation in a contract for the shipment of livestock, rendering claims for loss, injury or damage invalid unless presented in writing within thirty days after the same shall have occurred, is not a contract exempting the company from liability, within this section: Henry v. Chicago, Milwaukee & Puget Sound R. Co., 84 Wash. 633, 147 Pac. 425.

§ 10454. [8626-105.] Effect of Act upon Municipal Utilities.

Nothing in this act shall authorize the commission to make or enforce any order affecting rates, tolls, rentals, contracts or charges or service rendered, or the safety, adequacy or sufficiency of the facilities, equipment, instrumentalities or buildings, or the reasonableness of rules or regulations made, furnished, used, supplied or in force affecting any street railroad, telephone line, gas plant, electrical plant or water system owned and operated by any city or town, but all other provisions enumerated herein shall apply to public utilities owned by any city or town. [L. '11, p. 610, § 105.]

Applicability of public utility acts to municipal corporations owning or operating a public utility. 10 A. L. R. 1432.

§ 10455. [8626-107.] Public Service Commission to Act as Railroad Commission.

Whenever the terms "Railroad Commission of Washington," "Railroad Commissioner," or "Railroad Commission" occur in any law, contract or document, or whenever in any law, contract or document, reference is made to such commission or commissioners, such terms or reference shall be deemed to refer to and include the public service commission as established by this act, so far as such law, contract or document pertains to matters within the jurisdiction of the said public service commission. [L. '11, p. 610, § 107.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10456. [8626-108.] Constitutionality.

If any section, subdivision, sentence or clause of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of this act. [L. '11, p. 611, § 108.]

§ 10457. [8626-110.] Transfer of Records.

The railroad commission of Washington shall transfer and deliver to the public service commission hereby created all books, maps, papers and records, furniture, equipment, instruments and supplies in its possession at the date of the taking effect of this act. [L. '11, p. 611, § 110.]

§ 10458. [8626-111.] Pending Actions and Proceedings.

This act shall not affect pending actions or proceedings, civil or criminal, brought by or against the railroad commission of Washington, or by any other person or corporation, under the provision of chapter 81 of the Laws of 1905, or the acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, but the same may be prosecuted or defended in the name of the railroad commission of Washington, or otherwise, with the same effect as though this act had not been passed. Any investigation, examination or proceeding undertaken, commenced or instituted by the railroad commission of Washington prior to the taking effect of this act may be conducted and continued to a final determination by the public service commission hereby created, in the same manner, under the same terms and conditions, and with like effect as though the railroad commission of Washington had not been abolished.

No cause of action arising under the provisions of chapter 81 of the Laws of 1905, or the acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, or dependent thereon, shall abate by reason of the passage of this act, whether a suit or action has been instituted thereon at the time of the taking effect of this act or not, but actions may be brought upon such causes in the same manner, under the same terms and conditions, and with the same effect as though said chapter (and the acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto) had not been repealed.

All findings, orders and rules made, issued or promulgated by the railroad commission of Washington under the provisions of chapter 81 of the Laws of 1905, or the acts amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, shall continue in force and have the same effect as though this act had not been passed, and the public service commission hereby created is empowered to enforce said findings, orders and rules in the same manner and under the same conditions as though said findings, orders and rules had been made, issued or promulgated by the public service commission hereby created. [L. '11, p. 611, § 111.]

§ 10459. [8626-112.] Construction of Act—Terms of Commissioners.

This act, in so far as it embraces the same subject matter, shall be construed as a continuation of chapter 81 of the Laws of 1905, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, and the members of the railroad commission of Washington created by said act of 1905 shall during the remainder of their terms of office respectively constitute the public service commission created by this act. At the expiration of the term of each commissioner a commissioner shall be appointed under the provisions of this act. [L. '11, p. 612, § 112.]

CHAPTER II.

RIGHT TO CONSTRUCT AND OPERATE RAILWAY LINES.

§ 10460. [8662.] Route of Extension, or Branch Road—How to be Designated.

Any railroad corporation chartered by or organized under the laws of the state, or of any state or territory, or under the laws of the United States, and authorized to do business in this state, may extend its railroads from any point named in its charter or articles of incorporation, or may build branch roads either from any point on its line of road, or from any point on the line of any other railroad connecting or to be connected with its road, the use of which other road between such points and the connection with its own road such corporation shall have secured, by lease or agreement, for a term of not less than ten years from its date. Before making any such extension or building any such branch road, such corporation shall, by resolution of its directors or trustees, to be entered in the record of its proceedings designate the route of such proposed extension or branch by indicating the place from and to which said railroad is to be constructed, and the estimated length of such railroad, and the name of each county in this state through or into which it is constructed, or intended to be constructed, and file a copy of such record, certified by the president and secretary, in the office of the secretary of state, who shall indorse thereon the date of the filing thereof, and record the same. Thereupon such corporation shall have all the rights and privileges to make such extension or build such branch, and receive aid thereto which it would have had if it had been authorized in its charter or articles of incorporation. [L. '90, p. 526, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1535.]

See supra, §§ 8966, 8971, control by cities.

See infra, § 10466, designation of route.

Cited in 5 Wash. 515; 46 Wash. 490—493; 68 Wash. 399.

This section only applies to such roads as shall, by resolution of its directors or trustees be entered in the records of its proceeding, designate the route of such proposed branch and file a copy of such record certified by the president and secretary, in the office of the secretary of state: Biles v. Tacoma etc. R. Co., 5 Wash. 509, 32 Pac. 211.

Where a domestic railway corporation adopted its line of location at a meeting of the directors held in another state, the subsequent bringing of condemnation proceedings in this state for a right of way along the same line amounts to an adoption of the corporate action taken outside of the state: State ex rel. Biddle v. Superior Court, 44 Wash. 108, 87 Pac. 40.

This section is inapplicable to main line routes: State ex rel. Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Superior Court, 68 Wash. 397, 123 Pac. 529.

§ 10461. [8663.] May Own and Guarantee Bonds or Stocks of Irrigating Companies.

It shall be lawful for any corporation, whether such corporation is organized under the laws of the territory or state of Washington, the laws of any other state or territory, or the laws of the United States, owning, leasing, or operating any line or lines of railway within the state of Washington, or which may own, lease, or operate in the future any such line or lines of railway within this state, to take, acquire, own, negotiate, sell, and guarantee bonds and stocks of companies or corporations which are or may hereafter be organized for the purpose of irrigating and reclaiming lands within this state. [L. '90, p. 529, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1543.]

§ 10462. [8664.] May Build, Own and Operate Ditches and Canals.

It shall be lawful for any such corporation to build, own, and operate irrigating ditches and canals in this state for the purpose of irrigating and reclaiming arid lands contiguous to or tributary to such line or lines of railway. [L. '90, p. 529, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1544.]

See supra, § 7417 et seq., irrigation ditches.

See infra, § 11576, appropriation of lands.

§ 10463. [8665.] May Buy Stock, Aid, or Build Other Road—Consolidation of Roads—Articles.

Any railroad company now or hereafter incorporated pursuant to the laws of this state or of the United States or of any state or territory of the United States, may at any time by means of subscription to the capital stock of any other railroad company, or by the purchase of its stock or bonds, or by guaranteeing its bonds, or otherwise, aid such company in the construction of its railroad within or without this state; and any such company owning or operating a railroad within or without this state, may extend the same into this or any other state or territory, and may build, buy, or lease the whole or any part of any other railroad, together with the franchises, powers and immunities and all other property and appurtenances appertaining thereto, whether located within or without this state; or may consolidate with any railroad or railroads in such other state or territory, or with any other railroad in this state, and may operate the same, and may own such real estate and other property in such other state or territory as may be necessary or convenient in the operation of such road; and any such railroad company may sell or lease the whole or any part of its railroad and branches, within or without this state, constructed or to be constructed, together with all property, rights, privileges, and franchises appertaining thereto, to any railroad company organized or existing pursuant to the laws of the United States or of this state, or of any other state or territory of the United States; and any railroad company incorporated or existing under the laws of the United States, or of any state or territory of the United States, may extend, construct, maintain and operate its railroad, or any portion or branch thereof, into and through this state, and may build branches from any point on such extension to any place or places within this state, and the railroad company of any other state or territory of the United States which shall so purchase or lease a railroad, or any part thereof in this state, or consolidate with any such railroad in this state, or shall extend or construct its road, or any portion or branch thereof in this state, shall possess and may exercise and enjoy as to the location, control, management and operation of the said road, and as to the location, construction and operation of any extension or branch thereof, all the rights, powers, privileges and franchises, possessed by railroad corporations organized under the laws of this state, including the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Such purchase, sale, consolidation or lease may be made, or such aid furnished, upon such terms or conditions as may be agreed upon by the directors and trustees of the respective companies; but the same shall be approved or ratified by persons holding or representing seventy-five per cent of the capital stock of the company so selling or disposing of its stock or bonds, or selling, leasing, or otherwise disposing of its railroad property and appurtenances pertaining thereto, at any annual stockholders' meeting or at a special meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose, or by the approval in writing of seventy-five per cent of the stockholders of such company. Articles stating the name selected for such consolidated corporation and the terms of such consolidation shall be approved by each corporation by the vote of the stockholders holding seventy-five per cent of the stock, in person or by proxy, at a regular meeting thereof or a special meeting called for that purpose in the manner provided by the by-laws of the respective consolidating corporations, or by the consent in writing of such seventy-five per cent of such stockholders annexed to such articles; and a copy thereof, with a copy of the records of such approval or consent, duly certified by the respective presidents and secretaries, with the corporate seals of such corporations affixed thereto, shall be filed for record in the office of the secretary of state, and a copy thereof be furnished to the public service commission; and thereupon such consolidating corporations shall be and become one corporation, by the name so selected, which, within this state, shall possess all the powers, franchises, and immunities, including the right of further consolidation with other corporations, and be subject to all the liabilities and restrictions now or hereafter imposed by law: Provided, that no railroad or transportation corporation shall consolidate its stock, property, or franchises with any other railroad or transportation corporation owning a competing line, or purchase either directly or indirectly, any stock or interest in a railroad or transportation corporation owning or operating a competing line: And, provided further, that nothing in the foregoing provisions shall be held or construed as curtailing the right of this state, or of the counties through which any such road or roads may be located to levy and collect taxes upon the same, and upon the rolling stock thereof, in conformity with the provisions of the laws of this state upon that subject, and all roads or branches thereof in this state so consolidated with, purchased or leased, or aided, or extended into this state, shall be subject to taxation and to regulation and control of its operation by the laws of this state in all respects the same as if constructed by corporations organized under the laws of this state; and any corporation of another state or territory or of the United States, being the purchaser or lessee of a railroad within this state or extending its railroad or any portion thereof into or through this state, shall establish and maintain an office or offices in this state, at some point or points on its line, at which legal process and notice may be served as upon railroad corporations of this state: Provided, further, that before any railroad corporation organized under the laws of any other state or territory, or of the United States, shall be permitted to avail itself of the benefits of this act with respect to any railroad constructed, or to be constructed within this state, such corporation shall file with the secretary of state, a true copy of its charter or articles of incorporation, and otherwise comply with the laws of this state respecting foreign corporations doing business within the state: Provided, that any such consolidation shall be approved by the public service commission: Provided, further, that in no case, shall the capital stock of the company formed by such consolidation exceed the sum of the capital stock of the companies so consolidated, at the par value thereof. [L. '15, p. 367, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 698, § 1; L. '90, p. 526, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1536.]

A private citizen cannot raise the question whether a railroad corporation in owning all the stock of other companies violated this section or Constitution, Article XII, section 16, prohibiting the consolidation of its stock, property or franchises with any other railroad owning a competing line: Day v. Tacoma R. & Power Co., 80 Wash. 161, 141 Pac. 347, L. R. A 1915B, 547.

§ 10464. [8666.] Former Actions Legalized.

Any sale or purchase of, and any consolidation by sale, or otherwise, or any lease, or agreement to sell, consolidate with or lease, the whole or any part of any railroad or the branch lines of any company, whether organized or located within or without this state, with the franchises appertaining thereto, to, from or with any railroad company organized under the laws of the United States or of this state or any other state or territory, or any consolidation between such companies, heretofore executed by the proper officers of the respective companies, parties to such sale, lease or consolidation or contract, is hereby legalized and made in all respects valid and binding from the date of its execution: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply when the railroads or transportation corporations involved are competing lines. [L. '09, p. 701, § 2.]

"This act": See the preceding section.

§ 10465. [8667.] Spur Tracks—Limit as to Eminent Domain.

Any railroad corporation organized under the laws of this state or of any other state, and authorized to do business in this state and owning or operating a railway in this state, may construct, maintain and operate public spur tracks, from its railroad or any branch thereof, to and upon the grounds of any mill, elevator, storehouse, warehouse, dock, wharf, pier, manufacturing establishment, lumber-yard, coal dock or other industry or enterprise, with all sidetracks, storage tracks, wyes, turnouts, and connections necessary or convenient to the use of the same; and such company may acquire by purchase or condemnation, in the manner provided by the laws of this state for the acquisition of real estate for railway purposes, all necessary rights of way for such spur tracks, side-tracks, storage tracks, wyes, turnouts and connections; said spur when constructed to be a public spur for the use of all industries located or thereafter located thereon: Provided, that the right to acquire by condemnation herein granted shall not be exercised over unimproved lands for a greater distance than five miles, or over improved lands for a greater distance than one mile, or over lands within the limits of a municipal corporation for a greater distance than one-fourth of a mile: Provided further, that this section shall not be construed as limiting the rights granted under the operation of section 10460, supra, relating to the construction of branch lines. § 10466. [8668.] Extension of Railroad into State—Preliminaries Required.

Any railroad corporation chartered by or organized under the laws of the United States, or of any state or territory whose constructed railroad shall reach or intersect the boundary line of this state at any point, may extend its railroad into this state from any such point or points to any place or places within the state, and may build branches from any point on such extension. Before making such extension or building any such branch road, such corporation shall, by resolution of its directors or trustees, to be entered in the record of its proceedings, designate the route of such proposed extension or branch by indicating the place from and to which such extension or branch is to be constructed, and the estimated length of such extension or branch, and the name of each county in this state through or into which it is constructed, or intended to be constructed, and file a copy of such record, certified by the president and secretary, in the office of the secretary of state, who shall indorse thereon the date of filing thereof, and record the same. Thereupon such corporation shall have all the rights and privileges to make such extension or build such branch, and receive such aid thereto, as it would have had had it been authorized so to do by articles of incorporation duly filed in accordance with the laws of this state. § 10467. [8669.] Control of Railroads is in State.

All such railroad corporations, consolidated companies, and their branches, including their stock, property, and franchises, within the jurisdiction of this state, shall be subject to and controlled by the Constitution and laws of this state. [L. '90, p. 528, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1538.]

Cited in 75 Wash. 277.

§ 10468. [8670.] May Build Bridges Over Navigable Streams.

Any railroad corporation heretofore duly incorporated and organized under the laws of this state or of the territory of Washington, or which may hereafter be duly incorporated and organized under the laws of this state, or heretofore or hereafter incorporated and organized under the laws of any other state or territory of the United States, and authorized to do business in this state, and to construct and operate railroads therein, shall have and hereby is given the right to construct bridges across the navigable streams within this state over which the projected line or lines of railway of said railroad corporations will run: Provided, that said bridges are constructed in good faith for the purpose of being made a part of the constructed line of said railroad: And provided, that they shall be constructed in the course of the construction of said railroad or thereafter for the more convenient operation thereof: And provided, further, that such bridges shall be so constructed as not to interfere with, impede, or obstruct the navigation of such streams. [L. '90, p. 53, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1539.]

The consent of the secretary of war to construct a bridge over a navigable stream is not a condition precedent to condemnation of tide lands to be reached by way of the bridge, inasmuch as the state has given its consent by this section and § 10536, providing that bridges across navigable streams shall be so constructed as not to interfere with or obstruct navigation: State ex rel. Hulme v. Grays Harbor & Puget Sound R. Co., 54 Wash. 530, 103 Pac. 809.

§ 10469. [8671.] Bridges and Trestles Across State Waterways.

Any corporation, copartnership, person or trustee heretofore or hereafter by any state or municipal law or ordinance authorized to construct and operate railroads, interurban railroads or street railroads as common carriers within this state, shall have, and hereby is given, the right to construct bridges or trestles across waterways heretofore or hereafter laid out under the authority of the state of Washington over which the projected line or lines of railroad will run: Provided, such bridges or trestles are constructed in good faith for the purpose of being made a part of the constructed line of such railroad, and may also have included therewith the purpose of providing a roadway for the accommodation of vehicles and foot-passengers. [L. '09, p. 605, § 1.]

CHAPTER III.

RAILWAY EQUIPMENT REGULATIONS.

§ 10470. [8672.] Equipment of Flat Cars—Stakes—Weight Deducted.

The stakes, standards, supports, stays, railings and other equipments, appliances and contrivances necessary to effectually and suitably equip and supply every and all flat cars, and cars belonging to any and every railroad company, or person engaged in the business of carrying for hire in this state shall constitute and be held considered part and parcel of said cars, and the weight of same shall be added to the weight of the cars, and shall be deducted from the weight of the cargo, commodity, or product shipped on any and all such flat car or cars so that the freight charges shall be charged by the carrier only on the cargo, commodity or product carried. [L. '05, p. 238, § 1; L. '07, p. 506, § 1.]

§ 10471. [8673.] Penalties for Violation.

Any railroad company or other common carrier, and any officer, or agent or employee of any railroad company, or other common carrier, and any and every person violating any of the provisions of this act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars, for each unlawful act, and the knowledge and acts of agents or persons employed by corporations in and about the matters covered by or referred to in the provisions of this act, shall be held to be the knowledge and acts of such corporations as well as of such agents and employees. [L. '05, p. 239, § 3.]

"This act" refers to §§ 10470—10472.

§ 10472. [8674.] Punitive Damages for Excessive Rates.

If any freight charges are collected contrary to any of the provisions of this act by any common carrier operating in this state, they may be recovered from such common carrier in a suit at law by the person, firm or corporation from whom they were so collected, together with a sum equal to treble the amount thereof as punitive damages. [L. '05, p. 239, § 4.]

"This act": See note to last section.

§ 10473. [8675.] Shipper may Furnish, When.

Whenever any railroad company or any person engaged in the business of carrying for hire in this state shall set in or furnish any person or persons any flat car or cars that is, or are not, provided with stakes, standards, supports, stays, railings and other equipments, appliances and contrivances necessary to effectually and suitably equip and supply every and all such flat car or cars for the purpose of loading and transporting goods, commodities or products, and it shall be necessary and requisite that the shipper or loader of any goods, commodities or products shall furnish any stakes, standards, supports, stays, railings and other equipments, appliances and contrivances necessary to effectually and suitably equip and supply such flat car or cars for the purpose of transporting any goods, commodities or products, the carrier or railroad company, or person engaged in the business of carrying for hire, shall pay to the shipper or loader of any such flat car or cars the cost and expenses of placing on any and all of such flat car or cars, stakes, standards, supports, stays, railings or other equipments, appliances, and contrivances necessary to effectually and suitably equip or supply every and all such fiat car or cars. [L. '07, p. 506, § 2.]

§ 10474. [8676.] Scales at Junctions.

All railroad companies operating as common carriers within the limits of this state, shall hereafter be required to provide scales, and weigh at junction or at some common point within this state all cars loaded with lumber, shingles or other forest products for shipment. [L. '05, p. 240, § 1.]

Duty of railroad to install stock scales at station. 10 A. L. R. 1339.

§ 10475. [8677.] Charges—How Based.

All charges for freight on said commodities, except where error is apparent, shall be based on the weights determined by the weighing stations within the limits of this state, and all bills of lading of railroad companies operating within the limits of this state shall specify these provisions: Provided, this act shall not apply to switching charges or to the handling of logs where the charge is by the car or by the thousand feet. [L. '05, p. 240, § 2.]

"This act" embraces §§ 10474—10479.

Cited in 43 Wash. 662.

This section arbitrarily fixing the weights is unconstitutional, as unreasonable, and requiring the carriage of part of the lumber without reward; notwithstanding the difference between that and the actual weight is small as compared with the weight of the cargo; and six hundred pounds per car to be carried free is a substantial amount and a confiscation of property without due process of law: State ex rel. Washington Mill Co. v. Great Northern R. Co., 43 Wash. 658, 86 Pac. 1056, 117 Am. St. Rep. 1084, 6 L. R. A. (N. S.) 908.

The fact that section 10474 provides that the shipper shall furnish such standards, and that the weight of the equipment shall be added to the weight of the car, "so that the freight shall be charged by the carriers only on the cargo carried," does not obviate the defects in this section, requiring one thousand pounds to be deducted from the "net weight of the lumber carried," which is an unreasonable regulation and in violation of Article XIV, section 1, of the federal Constitution: State ex rel. Washington Mill Co. v. Great Northern R. Co., 43 Wash. 658, 86 Pac. 1056, 117 Am. St. Rep. 1084, 6 L. R. A. (N. S.) 908.

§ 10476. [8678.] Statement of Weight—Shipper's Count.

Any railroad company's employee acting as weigher shall upon request of any shipper give him a statement showing gross and net weight of any shipment by him. Sworn count and weight of shipper shall be presumptive evidence of true weight where error in railroad weights is apparent. [L. '05, p. 241, § 3.]

See supra, § 8373, weighing lumber and shingles.

See supra, § 8377, what weights to be accepted.

See supra, § 8374, lumber freights based on weight.

§ 10477. [8679.] Cars Weighed Separately.

All cars shall be weighed on the scales separately, and not attached to other cars, and at a standstill. [L. '05, p. 241, § 4.]

§ 10478. [8680.] Penalty for Violation.

In case of violation of the provisions of this act by any railroad company, it shall pay a penalty of twenty dollars ($20) for every car it shall neglect to weigh and bill within the state as above provided, to be recovered from such company in action where there is any agent of such railroad company who may be served with process, and the penalties recovered under this act shall be paid into the county treasury in such county where action is taken. [L. '05, p. 241, § 5.]

"This act" embraces §§ 10474—10479.

§ 10479. [8681.] May Contract Regarding Weights, When.

Nothing contained in this bill shall interfere with the right of the shipper and carrier to enter into a private contract regarding weights when it is impracticable to weigh. [L. '05, p. 241, § 6.]

"This bill": §§ 10474—10479.

§ 10480. [8682.] Guards for Frogs, Switches, etc.—Qualifications of Flagmen.

Any person or persons, railroad companies or corporations, owning or operating a railroad or railroads in this state, shall be and are hereby required on or before the first day of October, 1899, to so adjust, fill, block and securely guard the frogs, switches and guard rails on their roads as to protect and prevent the feet of employees and other persons from being caught therein. That any railroad operating within this state, shall not employ or use as flagman any person or persons who cannot read, write and speak the English language. [L. '99, p. 49, § 1; L. '07, p. 265, § 1.]

This section applies to railroads organized after the act went into effect; and to a logging road of a mill company used in getting out logs to the mill, and not engaged in public service as a common carrier: Alberg v. Campbell Lumber Co., 66 Wash. 84, 119 Pac. 6.

§ 10481. [8683.] Damages Resulting from Noncompliance.

Any person or persons, railroad companies or corporations owning or operating a railroad or railroads in this state, shall be liable for any damage received from a failure to comply with the provisions of this act; such damages to be recovered by the parties entitled to recover as provided in sections 182, 183 and 184 of this code. [L. '99, p. 49, § 2.]

Section "183" refers to Remington & Ballinger's Code, superseded by § 183 of this code.

"This act" embraces §§ 10480—10482.

This section does not limit the right of action to injuries from which death results, the object being only to extend the liability to actions for wrongful death: Alberg v. Campbell Lumber Co., 66 Wash. 84, 119 Pac. 6.

§ 10482. [8684.] Penalty.

Any person or persons, railroad companies or corporations, owning or operating any railroad in this state, failing to comply with the provisions of this act within the time limited, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than five hundred dollars nor more than two thousand dollars. [L. '99, p. 49, § 3.]

"This act" embraces §§ 10480—10482.

§ 10483. [8685.] Caboose Cars—Size and Equipment.

It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or company operating any railroad or railway in this state to require or permit the use of any caboose cars, unless said caboose cars shall be at least twenty-four feet in length, exclusive of platforms, and shall be provided with a door in each end thereof, and with suitable water-closets, cupolas, platforms, guard-rails, grab-irons and steps for the safety of persons in alighting or getting on said caboose cars and said caboose cars shall be equipped with at least two four wheel trucks and an operative hand-brake on each end: Provided, however, that this act shall not apply to logging railways upon which passengers are not regularly carried for hire. [L. '09, p. 51, § 1.]

"This act" refers to §§ 10483—10485.

§ 10484. [8686.] Penalty.

Any person, corporation or company operating any railroad or railway in this state, violating any of the provisions of section 10483, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500), nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), for each offense. [L. '09, p. 51, § 2.]

§ 10485. [8687.] In Effect, When.

This act shall be in force and take effect from and after the first day of January, 1910: Provided, that caboose cars not conforming to the above requirements may be operated on branch lines not exceeding one hundred miles in length, and on work trains, until January 1, 1911. [L. '09, p. 52, § 3.]

"This act": See two preceding sections.

§ 10486. [8687-1.] Full Train Crews.

It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, company, or officer of court operating any railroad or railway, or part of any railroad or railway, in the state of Washington, and engaged, as a common carrier, in the transportation of freight or passengers, to operate over its road or any part thereof, or suffer or permit to be run over its road outside of the yard limits, any passenger, mail or express train consisting of four or more cars with less than a full passenger crew consisting of five men, to wit: one engineer, one fireman, one conductor, one brakeman and one flagman (said flagman to have had at least one year's experience in train service) and none of the said crew shall be required or permitted to perform the duties of train baggagemen or express messenger while on the road. [L. '11, p. 650, § 1.]

§ 10487. [8687-2.] Six Men Crew—Exceptions.

It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation, company, or officer of court operating any railroad or railway, or part of any railroad or railway, in the state of Washington, and engaged, as a common carrier, in the transportation of freight or passengers, to operate over its road or any part thereof, or suffer or permit to be run over its road outside of the yard limits, any freight train consisting of twenty-five or more cars exclusive of engine and caboose, with less than a full train crew consisting of six men, to wit: one engineer, one fireman, one conductor, two brakemen and one flagman (said flagman to have had at least one year's experience in train service): Provided, however, that light engine, without cars, shall have the following crew, to wit: one engineer, one fireman and one conductor. [L. '11, p. 651, § 2.]

§ 10488. [8687-3.] Separate Offenses.

Each train or engine run in violation of section 10486 or 10487 shall constitute a separate offense: Provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed as applying in the case of disability of one or more of any train crew while out on the road between division terminals, wrecking trains, or to any line, or part of line, where not more than two trains are run in each twenty-four hours. [L. '11, p. 651, § 3.]

§ 10489. [8687-4.] Penalty—Fine.

Any person, corporation, company, or officer of court operating any railroad or railway, or part of any railroad or railway in the state of Washington, and engaged, as a common carrier, in the transportation of freight or passengers, who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense. [L. '11, p. 651, § 4.]

§ 10490. [8687-5.] Duty of Commission.

It shall be the duty of the railroad commission to enforce this act. [L. '11, p. 652, § 5.]

CHAPTER IV.

TRANSPORTATION REGULATIONS.

§ 10491. [8688.] Duties of Transportation Companies.

All transportation companies doing business wholly or in part within this state shall, upon receipt of any article of freight, promptly forward the same to its marked destination by the route directed by the shipper, or if no directions are given by shipper, then to any connecting company whose line en route reaches nearest to the point to which such freight is marked. [L. '90, p. 291, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1540.]

§ 10492. [8689.] Liability of Transportation Companies.

Any transportation company failing to comply with the last preceding section shall be liable for any damages that may be sustained, either to the shipper or consignee, from any cause, upon proof that said damages resulted on account of a failure of the transportation company to comply with said section. [L. '90, p. 291, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1541.]

§ 10493. [8690.] Suits for Damages, Who may Commence and Where.

Suit for damages may be instituted either at the place of shipping or destination, either by the shipper or consignee, and before any court competent and qualified to hear and determine like causes between individuals resident of the district in which said court is holding. [L. '90, p. 291, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1542.]

§ 10494. [8717.] Cruelty to Stock in Transit.

Railroad companies in carrying or transporting animals shall not permit them to be confined in cars for a longer period than forty-eight consecutive hours without unloading them for rest, water and feeding for a period of at least two consecutive hours, unless prevented from so unloading them by unavoidable accident. In estimating such confinement, the time during which the animals have been confined without such rest on connecting roads from which they are received shall be included. Animals so unloaded shall, during such rest, be properly fed, watered by the owner or person having the custody of them, or in case of his default in so doing, then by the railroad company transporting them, at the expense of said owner or person in custody thereof, and said company shall in such case have a lien upon such animals for food, care and custody furnished, and shall not be liable for such detention of such animals. If animals are transported where they can and do have proper food, water, space and opportunity to rest, the foregoing provision in regard to their being unloaded shall not apply. Violators of this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. [L. '93, p. 41, § 4.]

See supra, §§ 3124, 3128, unlawful importation.

See supra, § 3195, confinement without food, rest or water.

§ 10495. [8718.] Bicycles are Baggage.

Bicycles are hereby declared to be and are deemed baggage, and shall be transported as baggage for passengers by railroad corporations and steamboats, and subject to the same liabilities as other baggage; and no such passenger shall be required to crate, cover, or otherwise protect any such bicycle: Provided, however, that a railroad corporation or steamboat shall not be required to transport under the provisions of this section more than one bicycle for one person. [L. '99, p. 23, § 1.]

CHAPTER V.

SALE OF TICKETS.

§ 10496. [8719.] Ticket Agents to have Certificate of Authority.

It shall be the duty of the owner or owners or person or persons operating any railroad to provide every agent who may be authorized to sell its tickets or other evidence of a right to travel upon any railroad with a certificate setting forth the authority of such agent to make such sale. Such certificate shall be duly attested by the corporate seal of the owner of such railroad or of the corporation operating the same, and by the signature of the manager, secretary or general passenger agent of said railroad. [L. '05, p. 376, § 1.]

An act prohibiting the business of rail- railway transportation except by agents road ticket brokerage or the selling of licensed by the railroad companies is not unconstitutional upon any ground: O'Neill,

Cas. 869, 3 L. R. A. (N. S.) 558.

Power of state to regulate and restrict sale of passenger tickets. 96
Am. St. Rep. 828.

§ 10497. [8720.] Agents' Fixed Place of Business—Certificate.

Every agent, person, firm, or corporation engaged in selling, issuing or dealing in railroad passenger transportation in this state, must have a fixed place of business in the town or city wherein such agent, person, firm, or corporation transacts said business, and such agent, person, firm or corporation is hereby required to keep the certificate mentioned in section 10496 of this chapter, posted in a conspicuous place in such place of business. [L. '05, p. 376, § 2.]

§ 10498. [8721.] Sale of Tickets Unlawful, When.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation or association of any kind who is not possessed of and has not posted the certificate of authority as prescribed in sections 10496 and 10497 hereof, to sell or exchange or transfer or to offer for sale or exchange or transfer the whole or any part of any railroad ticket or pass or other evidence of a right to travel upon any railroad, whether the same be situated or operated or owned within or without the limits of this state. [L. '05, p. 377, § 3.]

See supra, § 2648, ticket-scalping prohibited.

Statutory regulation of railroad ticket brokerage as burden on interstate commerce. 7 Ann. Cas. 14; Ann.

Cas. 1917A, 997.

§ 10499. [8722.] Sales Without Authority, Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, partnership, corporation or association of any kind to set up, establish, maintain, conduct or operate within this state any office or other place of business for the sale or exchange or transfer of the whole or any part of any railroad tickets or passes or other evidence of a right to travel upon any railroad within or without the limits of this state unless such person, firm, partnership, corporation or association is possessed of and has posted the certificate of authority as prescribed in sections 10496 and 10497 hereof. [L. '05, p. 377, § 4.]

§ 10500. [8723.] Prima Facie Evidence—What Constitutes.

In all prosecutions under section 10499, proof of the maintenance of any office or other place of business within this state upon or within or in connection with which is attached or displayed any sign bearing the words, "railroad ticket office," or "cut rate office," or "railroad tickets," or "ticket brokers," or any combination of such words or any other words intended or calculated to advertise to the public that the whole or any part of any railroad tickets or passes or other evidences of a right to travel upon any railroad are sold or exchanged or transferred therein without having posted within such office or place of business a certificate of authority as provided in section 10498 hereof, shall be sufficient evidence to establish a prima facie case against the owner, proprietor, employee or person in charge of said office or place of business. [L. '05, p. 377, § 5.]

§ 10501. [8724.] Penalty.

Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of sections 10496, 10497, 10498 or 10499 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten nor more than sixty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [L. '05, p. 377, § 6.]

§ 10502. [8725.] Redemption of Unused Tickets.

The owner or owners or person or persons operating any railroad in this state or any railroad doing business therein shall redeem, upon presentation by the lawful holder thereof to any of its ticket agents in this state, the whole or any part of any railroad ticket or other evidence of a right to travel upon his, its or their railroad which had been sold, within or without this state, by any such owner or owners or person or persons or any of his, its or their duly authorized agents, if for any reason, such holder has not used the same, upon the following terms: If no part of such ticket has been used, it shall be redeemed at the full amount paid therefor; and where the ticket has been used in part only, the unused portion shall be redeemed at the remainder after deducting from the price paid for the whole ticket, the regular tariff rate between the points between which the portion of said ticket was used: Provided, such ticket or part thereof is so presented for redemption within sixty days after the right to use said ticket has expired according to the terms thereof. [L. '05, p. 378, § 7.]

See supra, § 2649, redemption of unused tickets, penalty.

§ 10503. [8726.] Penalty for Failure to Redeem.

If any owner or owners or person or persons operating any railroad mentioned in section 10502 shall fail, neglect, or refuse to redeem, as provided in said section 10502, the whole or any part of any railroad ticket or other evidence of a right to travel upon his, its or their railroad, he, it, or they, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and he, it or they shall in an action instituted by the lawful holder of such railroad ticket or other evidence of a right to travel, be liable to such holder in a sum equal to treble the value thereof. [L. '05, p. 378, § 8.]

CHAPTER VI.UNIFORMS OF EMPLOYEES.*§ 10504. [8727.] Requiring to Purchase from Particular Persons.

It shall be unlawful for any railroad or other transportation company doing business in the state of Washington, or of any officer, agent or servant of such railroad or other transportation company, to require any conductor, engineer, brakeman, fireman, purser, or other employee, as a condition of his continued employment, or otherwise to require or compel, or attempt to require or compel, any such employees to purchase of any such railroad or other transportation company or of any particular person, firm or corporation or at any particular place or places, any uniform or other clothing or apparel, required by any such railroad or other transportation company to be used by any such employee in the performance of his duties as such; and any such railroad or transportation company or any officer, agent or servant thereof, who shall order or require any conductor, engineer, brakeman, fireman, purser, or other person in its employ, to purchase any uniform or other clothing or apparel as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have required such purchase as a condition of such employee's continued employment. [L. '07, p. 517, § 1.]

§ 10505. [8728.] Penalty.

Any railroad or other transportation company doing business in the state of Washington, or any officer, agent or servant thereof, violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine in any sum not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or by imprisonment in the county jail of the county where the misdemeanor is committed, not exceeding six months. [L. '07, p. 517, § 2.]

CHAPTER VII.

FENCES AND CROSSINGS.

§ 10507. [8730.] Track to be Fenced—Crossings—Cattle-guards.

Every person, company or corporation having the control or management of any railroad shall, within six months after the passage of this act, outside of any corporate city or town, and outside the limits of any sidetrack or switch, cause to be constructed and maintained in good repair on each side of said railroad, along the line of said right of way of such person, company or corporation operating the same, a substantial fence, and at every point where any roadway or other public highway shall cross said railroad, a safe and sufficient crossing must be built and maintained, and on each side of such crossing and at each end of such sidetrack or switch, outside of any incorporated city or town, a sufficient cattle-guard: Provided, that any person holding land on both sides of said right of way shall have the right to put in gates for his own use at such places as may be convenient. [L. '03, p. 332, § 1; L. '07, p. 169, § 1.]

Former laws cited in 14 Wash. 156; 17 Wash. 648; 19 Wash. 352, 536; 32 Wash. 453; 57 Wash. 469.

"This act" refers to §§ 10507—10509.

See notes to section 10508.

The railroad fence act of 1893, Rem. & Bal. Code, section 8729, requiring railroads, where the same person owns land on both sides of the track, to put in and maintain necessary crossings and gates, was impliedly repealed by this and the next sections: Huffman v. Oregon R. & Nav. Co., 57 Wash. 494, 107 Pac. 362.

This section has no application to the maintenance of sidewalks at railroad crossings for the convenience of pedestrians: Bullock v. Yakima Valley Transp. Co., 108 Wash. 413, 184 Pac. 641, 187 Pac. 410.

This section is not supplanted by a right of way agreement whereby a railroad company was to maintain a private crossing and gates, which the owner could leave open at his own risk, and the owner, in leaving the gates open, assumed only the risk of accidents happening at the crossing: Snodgrass v. Spokane & Inland Empire R. Co., 87 Wash. 308, 151 Pac. 815.

A railroad company is not compelled to fence its depot and side tracks at a station outside of an incorporated city, under this and the next section: Benn v. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. Co., 89 Wash. 522, 154 Pac. 1082.

This section being entitled an act compelling railroads to fence their right of way and to protect the owners of stock and declaring the law of negligence, has no application to the maintenance of sidewalks at railroad crossings for the convenience of pedestrians: Bullock v. Yakima Valley Transp. Co., 108 Wash. 413, 184 Pac. 641, 187 Pac. 410.

Under this and the next section, an omission to fence only, makes a prima facie case of negligence which the company may overcome by evidence: Benn v. Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. Co., 89 Wash. 522, 154 Pac. 1082.

A railroad company is not liable for damages done by trespassing cattle that strayed from its unfenced right of way to and upon the lands of an adjoining land owner, under this and the next section: Hanson v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 90 Wash. 516, 156 Pac. 553, L. R. A. 1916E, 446.

§ 10508. [8731.] Liability for Injury to Stock.

Every such person, company or corporation owning or operating such railroad shall be liable for all damages sustained in the injury or killing of stock in any manner by reason of the failure of such person, company or corporation, to construct and maintain such fence or such crossing or cattle-guard; but when such fences, crossings and guards have been duly made, and shall be kept in good repair, such person, company or corporation shall not be liable for any such damages, unless negligently or unlawfully done. This and the next section does not embrace injuries not happening through the operation of trains; the title of the act being limited to stock "injured by railway trains": Thayer v. Snohomish Logging Co., 101 Wash. 458, 172 Pac. 552.

§ 10509. [8732.] Negligence—Prima Facie Evidence.

In all actions against persons, companies or corporations, operating steam or electric railroads in the state of Washington, for injury to stock by collision with moving trains, it is prima facie evidence of negligence on the part of such person, company or corporation, to show that the railroad track was not fenced with a substantial fence or protected by a sufficient cattle-guard at the place where the stock was injured or killed. § 10510. [8733.] Grade Crossings Prohibited.

All railroads and extensions of railroads hereinafter constructed within the state of Washington shall cross all established and existing railroads and established and existing highways by either passing over or under such highways and railroads and shall not cross the same at grade without first obtaining the consent of the railroad commission of Washington permitting the same to be done, and all highways and extensions of highways hereafter laid out and constructed shall cross railroads by either passing over or under such railroad and shall not cross at grade without first obtaining the consent of such commission authorizing the same to be done. [L. '09, p. 618, § 1.]

See supra, § 10405, to stop at crossings.

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10511. [8733-1.] Grade Crossings—Definitions.

The term "commission," when used in this act, means the Public Service Commission of Washington.

The term "highway," when used in this act, includes all state and county roads, streets, alleys, avenues, boulevards, parkways, and other public places actually open and in use, or to be opened and used, for travel by the public.

The term "railroad," when used in this act, means every railroad, including interurban and suburban electric railroads, by whatsoever power operated, for the public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire, with all bridges, ferries, tunnels, equipment, switches, spurs, sidings, tracks, stations and terminal facilities of every kind, used, operated, controlled, managed, or owned by or in connection therewith. The said term shall also include every logging and other industrial railway owned or operated primarily for the purpose of carrying the property of its owners or operators or of a limited class of persons, with all tracks, spurs and sidings used in connection therewith. The said term shall not include street railways operating within the limits of any incorporated city or town.

The term "railroad company," when used in this act, includes every corporation, company, association, joint stock association, partnership or persons, its, their or his lessees, trustees or receivers appointed by any court whatsoever, owning, operating, controlling or managing any railroad, as that term is defined in this section.

The term "over-crossing," when used in this act, means any point or place where a highway crosses a railroad by passing above the same.

The term "under-crossing," when used in this act, means any point or place where a highway crosses a railroad by passing under the same.

The term "over-crossing" or "under-crossing," shall also mean any point or place where one railroad crosses another railroad not at grade.

The term "grade crossing," when used in this act, means any point or place where a railroad crosses a highway or a highway crosses a railroad or one railroad crosses another, at a common grade. [L. '13, p. 74, § 1.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10512. [8733-2.] Grade Crossing Prohibited.

All railroads and extensions of railroads hereafter constructed shall cross existing railroads and highways by passing either over or under the same, when practicable, and shall in no instance cross any railroad or highway at grade without authority first being obtained from the commission to do so. All highways and extensions of highways hereafter laid out and constructed shall cross existing railroads by passing either over or under the same, when practicable, and shall in no instance cross any railroad at grade without authority first being obtained from the commission to do so: Provided, that this section shall not be construed to prohibit a railroad company from constructing tracks at grade across other tracks owned or operated by it within established yard limits. In determining whether a separation of grades is practicable, the commission shall take into consideration the amount and character of travel on the railroad and on the highway; the grade and alignment of the railroad and the highway; the cost of separating grades; the topography of the country, and all other circumstances and conditions naturally involved in such an inquiry. § 10513. [8733-3.] Petitions for New Crossings—Hearing—Notice—Damage.

Whenever any railroad company desires to cross any highway or railroad at grade, it shall file a written petition with the commission setting forth the reasons why the crossing cannot be made either above or below grade, and whenever the county commissioners of any county, or the municipal authorities of any city or town, or the state officers authorized to lay out and construct state roads, desire to lay out or extend any highway across any railroad at grade, they shall file a written petition with the commission, setting forth the reasons why the crossing cannot be made either above or below grade. Upon receiving such petition the commission shall immediately investigate the same, giving at least ten days' notice to the railroad company or companies and the county or municipality affected thereby, of the time and place of such investigation, to the end that all parties interested may be present and be heard. If the highway involved is a state road, the state highway commissioner shall be notified of the time and place of hearing. The evidence introduced shall be reduced to writing and be filed by the commission. If the commission finds that it is not practicable to cross the railroad or highway either above or below grade, it shall make and file a written order in the cause, granting the right and privilege to construct a grade crossing. The commission, in its discretion, may provide in the order authorizing the construction of a grade crossing, or at any subsequent time, that the railroad company shall install and maintain proper signals, warnings, flagmen, interlocking devices, or other devices or means to secure the safety of the public and its employees. If upon investigation the commission shall find that it is impracticable to construct an over-crossing or under-crossing on the established or proposed highway, and shall find that by deflecting the established or proposed highway a practicable and feasible over-crossing or under-crossing or a safer grade crossing can be provided, it shall continue the hearing on the petition and hold a supplemental hearing thereon. At least ten days' notice of the time and place of such supplemental hearing shall be given to all land owners that may be affected by the proposed change in location of the highway. At such supplemental hearing the commission shall inquire into the propriety, advisability and necessity of changing and deflecting the highway as proposed for the purpose of securing an over-crossing, under-crossing, or safer grade crossing. If the proposed change in route of the highway involves the abandonment and vacation of a portion of an established highway, the owners of land contiguous to the portion of the highway to be vacated and abandoned shall, in like manner, be notified of the time and place of the supplemental hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing on the petition, the commission shall make and file its findings of fact in writing concerning the matters inquired into, and shall determine the location of the crossing which may be constructed, and whether the same shall be an under-crossing, over-crossing, or grade crossing, and shall determine whether or not any proposed change in the route of an existing highway, or the abandonment of a portion thereof is advisable or necessary to secure an over-crossing, under-crossing, or safer grade crossing. If the commission shall find and determine that a change in route of an existing highway, or abandonment and vacation of a portion thereof is necessary or advisable, it shall further find and determine what private lands, property, or property rights, if any, it is necessary to take, damage, or injuriously affect, for the purpose of laying out and constructing the highway along a new route, and what private lands, property or property rights, if any, will be affected by the proposed abandonment and vacation of a portion of an existing highway. The lands, property, and property rights found necessary to be taken, damaged, or affected shall be described in said findings with reasonable accuracy, and the right to take, damage or injuriously affect the same shall be acquired as hereinafter provided. In any action brought to acquire the right to take, damage, or injuriously affect any such lands, property, or property rights, the findings of the commission shall be conclusive as to the necessity for taking, damaging, or injuriously affecting the same. A copy of said findings shall be served upon all parties to the cause. [L. '13, p. 76, § 3.]

§ 10514. [8733-4.*]Petitons for Change in Existing Crossings—Notice—Findings—Order.

The mayor and city council, or other governing body of any city or town, or the county commissioners of any county within which there exists any under-crossing, over-crossing or grade crossing, or where any street or highway is proposed to be located or established across any railroad, or any railroad company whose road is crossed by any highway, may file with the commission their or its petition in writing, alleging that the public safety requires the establishment of an under-crossing or over-crossing, or an alteration in the method and manner of an existing crossing, and its approaches, or in the style and nature of construction of any existing over-crossing, under-crossing or grade crossing, or a change in the location of an existing highway or crossing, the closing or discontinuance of an existing highway crossing, and the diversion of travel thereon to another highway or crossing, or if not practicable, to change such crossing from grade or to close and discontinue the same, the opening of an additional crossing for the partial diversion of travel and praying that the same may be ordered. If the existing or proposed crossing is on a state road or highway the petition may be filed by the state highway commissioner. Upon such petition being filed, the commission shall fix a time and place for hearing the petition and shall give not less than ten days' notice thereof to the petitioner, the railroad company and the municipality or county in which the crossing is situate. If the highway involved is a state highway like notice shall be given to the state highway commissioner. If the change petitioned for requires that private lands, property, or property rights be taken, damaged, or injuriously affected to open up a new route for the highway, or requires that any portion of any existing highway be vacated and abandoned, ten days' notice of the hearing shall be given to the owner or owners of the private lands, property, and property rights which it is necessary to take, damage or injuriously affect, and to the owner or owners of the private lands, property, or property rights that will be affected by the proposed vacation and abandonment of the existing highway. The commission shall also cause said notice of hearing to be published once in some newspaper of general circulation in the community where such crossing is situate, which publication shall appear at least two days prior to the date of hearing. At the time and place fixed in the notice, all persons and parties interested shall be entitled to be heard and introduce evidence. At the conclusion of the hearing the commission shall make and file its written findings of fact concerning the matters inquired into in like manner as provided in the preceding section for findings of fact upon petition for new crossings. The commission shall also enter its order based upon said findings of fact, which shall specify whether the highway shall continue at grade or whether it shall be changed to cross over or under the railroad in its existing location or at some other point, and whether an over-crossing or under-crossing shall be established at the proposed location of any street or highway or at some other point, or whether the style and nature of construction of an existing crossing shall be changed, or whether said highway shall be closed and travel thereon diverted to another channel, or any other change that the commission may find advisable or necessary. In case the order made requires that private lands, property, or property rights be taken, damaged or injuriously affected, the right to take, damage or injuriously affect the same shall be acquired as hereinafter provided.

Any petition herein authorized may be filed by the commission on its own motion, and proceedings thereon shall be the same as herein provided for the hearing and determination of a petition filed by a railroad company. [L. '21, p. 494, § 1; L. '13, p. 78, § 4.]

Cited in 98 Wash. 649.

Rem. Code, § 8733-4, expressly provided that the public service commission may on its own motion file a petition for a change or elimination of a grade crossing: State ex rel. Hayford v. Public Serv. Com., 98 Wash. 648, 168 Pac. 169.

§ 10515. [8733-5.] Duty to Maintain Crossings.

When a highway crosses a railroad by an over-crossing or under-crossing, the framework and abutments of the over-crossing or under-crossing, as the case may be, shall be maintained and kept in repair by the railroad company, and the roadway thereover or thereunder and approaches thereto shall be maintained and kept in repair by the county or municipality in which the same are situated, or if the highway is a state road, the roadway over or under the railroad shall be maintained and kept in repair as provided by law for the maintenance and repair of state roads: Provided, however, that this section shall not apply to over-crossings or under-crossings constructed prior to the passage of this act under special contracts between a railroad company and any county, municipality, or the state, in which different provision is made for the maintenance and repair of the under-crossing or over-crossing. [L. '13, p. 79, § 5.]

Cited in 109 Wash. 308.

Under this section, everything above the framework and abutments would be part of the roadway, and the railway company would not be responsible for a defective bulkhead or railing above the planking of the roadway: Pridmore v. Northern Pacific R. Co., 109 Wash. 305, 186 Pac. 862.

In such a case, if the curve was dangerous, there could be no recovery against the railway company, since the danger would depend upon protection by a barrier or guard-rail: Pridmore v. Northern Pacific R. Co., 109 Wash. 305, 186 Pac. 862.

§ 10516. [8733-6.*] Apportionment of Cost of Crossings.

SUBDIVISION A.

Whenever, under the provisions of this act, new railroads are constructed across existing highways, or highway changes are made either for the purpose of avoiding grade crossings on such new railroads, or for the purpose of crossing at a safer and more accessible point than otherwise available, the entire expense of crossing above or below the grade of the existing highway, or changing the route thereof, for the purpose mentioned in this subdivision, shall be paid by the railroad company.

SUBDIVISION B.

Whenever, under the provisions of this act, a new highway is constructed across a railroad, or an existing grade crossing is eliminated or changed, or the style and nature of construction of an existing crossing is changed, the entire expense of constructing an over-crossing, under-crossing, or safer grade crossing, or changing the nature and style of construction of an existing crossing, including the expense of constructing approaches to such crossing and the expense of securing rights of way for such approaches, as the case may be, shall be apportioned by the commission between the railroad, municipality or county affected, or if the highway is a state road, between the railroad and the state, as justice may require, regard being had for the benefits accruing to the railroad, municipality, county or state by reason of the improvement. If the highway involved is a state road, the amount not apportioned to the railroad company shall be paid as provided by law for constructing such state road. When an existing grade crossing is ordered eliminated by the construction of an over-crossing or under-crossing, the commission may in its discretion pay an amount not to exceed ten per cent of the cost thereof out of the appropriation provided in this act, and in such case the state auditor is hereby authorized and required upon the requisition of the commission, to draw warrants on the state treasury payable to the party designated by the commission for such amount, and the state treasurer is hereby authorized and required to pay such warrants on presentation.

SUBDIVISION C.

Whenever two or more lines of railroad owned or operated by different companies cross a highway, or each other, by an over-crossing, under-crossing or grade crossing required or permitted by this act or by an order of the commission, the portion of the expense of making such crossing not chargeable to any municipality, county or to the state, shall be apportioned between said railroad companies by the commission unless said companies shall mutually agree upon an apportionment. If it becomes necessary for the commission to make an apportionment between the railroad companies, a hearing for that purpose shall be held, at least ten days' notice of which shall be given. [L. '21, p. 496, § 2; L. '13, p. 80, § 6.]

Crossing Other Railroads—Mode and Expense: See Remington's Digest, R. R., §§ 27, 28, and cases cited.

Under Rem. Code, § 8733-6, subdivision c (prior to amendment), providing that the portion of the expense of making a railroad crossing at grade not chargeable to a county or city shall be apportioned between the railroad companies, means not only the expense of constructing the actual crossing, but the expense of constructing and maintaining such protective devices as the public service commission may require: State ex rel. Puget Sound & Willapa Harbor R. Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 94 Wash. 10, 161 Pac. 850.

In the absence of a statute to the contrary, a railroad desiring to cross another at grade must bear the expense of the crossing, including the cost of installing and maintaining such safety devices as the necessities of the case require: State ex rel. Puget Sound & Willapa Harbor R. Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 94 Wash. 10, 161 Pac. 850.

The railroad company first in time takes its right subject to being crossed by the line of another railway; hence Rem. Code, § 8733-6, did not violate the constitutional inhibition against taking private property for public use without compensation: State ex rel. Puget Sound & Willapa Harbor R. Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 94 Wash. 10, 161 Pac. 850.

Under Rem. Code, § 8733-6, subdivision c, providing that the portion of the expense of making a railroad crossing at grade not chargeable to a county or city shall be apportioned between the railroad companies, the public service commission could not charge the entire cost against the road desiring the crossing, merely because the older company was first in point of time, where the record shows no equity in favor of one road over the other; since to require one road to bear all the expense is not an "apportionment": State ex rel. Puget Sound & Willapa Harbor R. Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 94 Wash. 10, 161 Pac. 850.

In apportioning the costs of interlocking devices to be maintained at a grade crossing, the public service commission should not be governed by the priority of the pioneer road, nor by the character of the service or construction by the crossing road; but is to exercise its discretion on the resulting convenience and inconvenience: State ex rel. Tacoma Eastern R. Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 104 Wash. 405, 176 Pac. 539.

In the absence of abuse or arbitrary action, the courts will not review the discretion of the public service commission in apportioning the cost of interlocking devices; and no abuse appears in apportioning two-thirds of the cost to the petitioner seeking to cross a main line road by its branch line, to serve Camp Lewis on request of the government; considering the greater number of trains run on the main line, and the fact that the branch line was for the benefit of territory devoted to a particular use: State ex rel. Tacoma Eastern R. Co. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 104 Wash. 405, 176 Pac. 539.

§ 10517. [8733-7.] Payment of Costs and Apportionment of Construction Work.

In the construction of new railroads across existing highways, the railroads shall do or cause to be done all the work of constructing the crossings and road changes that may be required, and shall acquire and furnish whatever property or easements may be necessary, and shall pay, as provided in the preceding section, the entire expense of such work including all compensation or damages for property or property rights taken, damaged or injuriously affected. In all other cases the construction work may be apportioned by the commission between the parties who may be required to contribute to the cost thereof as the parties may agree, or as the commission may consider advisable. All work within the limits of railroad rights of way shall in every case be done by the railroad company owning or operating the same. The cost of acquiring additional lands, rights or easements to provide for the change of existing crossings shall, unless the parties otherwise agree, in the first instance be paid by the municipality or county within which the crossing is located; or in the case of a state road, shall be paid in the manner provided by law for paying the cost of acquiring lands, rights or easements for the construction of state roads. The expense accruing on account of property taken or damaged shall be divided and paid in the manner provided for dividing and paying other costs of construction. Upon the completion of the work and its approval by the commission, an accounting shall be had, and if it shall appear that any party has expended more than its proportion of the total cost, a settlement shall be forthwith made. If the parties shall be unable to agree upon a settlement, the commission shall arbitrate, adjust and settle the account after notice to the parties. In the event of failure and refusal of any party to pay its proportion of the expense, the sum with interest from the date of the settlement may be recovered in a civil action by the party entitled thereto. In cases where the commission has settled the account, the finding of the commission as to the amount due shall be conclusive in any civil action brought to recover the same if such finding has not been reviewed or appealed from as herein provided, and the time for review or appeal has expired. If any party shall review or appeal from any finding or order of the commission apportioning the cost between the parties liable therefor, the superior court or the supreme court, as the case may be, shall cause judgment to be entered in such review proceedings for such sum or sums as may be found lawfully or justly due by one party to another. [L. '13, p. 81, § 7.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10518. [8733-8.] Plans and Specifications—Proposals.

Plans and specifications of changes in existing crossings proposed under this act, and an estimate of the expense thereof, shall be submitted to the commission for its approval before the commencement of the work. In case the work is to be done by contract, the proposals of the contractor shall be submitted to the commission and if it shall determine that the bids are excessive it shall have power to require the submission of new proposals. [L. '13, p. 82, § 8.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10519. [8733-9.] Temporary Crossings.

The commission, in its discretion, good cause appearing therefor, and upon such conditions as it may prescribe, shall have power, without notice or hearing, to grant a permit to construct and maintain a temporary grade crossing for a period not exceeding six months, and may revoke such permit at any time: Provided, that nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit the commission, after notice and investigation, from permitting the maintenance of a temporary grade crossing for a longer period than six months. Any order granting, refusing to grant, or revoking a permit for a temporary grade crossing shall not be reviewable. [L. '13, p. 83, § 9.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10520. [8733-10.] Commission may Fix Time.

The commission, in any order requiring work to be done, shall have power to fix the time within which the same shall be performed and completed: Provided, that if any party having a duty to perform within a fixed time under any order of the commission shall make it appear to the commission that the order cannot reasonably be complied with within the time fixed by reason either of facts arising after the entry of the order or of facts existing prior to the entry thereof that were not presented, and with reasonable diligence could not have been sooner presented to the commission, such party shall be entitled to a reasonable extension of time within which to perform the work. An order of the commission refusing to grant an extension of time may be reviewed as provided for the review of other orders of the commission. [L. '13, p. 83, § 10.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10521. [8733-11.] Practice and Procedure Before Commission.

Modes of procedure under this act, unless herein otherwise provided, shall be as provided in the Public Service Commission law, being chapter 117, of the Laws of 1911 for procedure under that act. The commission is hereby given power to adopt rules to govern its proceedings and to regulate the mode and manner of all investigations and hearings under this act. [L. '13, p. 83, § 11.]

See notes to § 10340.

The reference in this section is to §§ 10339 to 10459 herein.

§ 10522. [8733-12.] Notices—Form and Manner of Service.

All notices required to be served by this act shall be in writing, and shall briefly state the nature of the matter to be inquired into and investigated. Notices may be served in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in civil cases, or by registered United States mail. When service is made by registered mail, the receipt of the receiving postoffice shall be sufficient proof of service. When, under the provisions of this act, it is necessary to serve notice of hearings before the commission on owners of private lands, property, or property rights, and such owners cannot be found, service may be made by publication in the manner provided by law for the publication of summons in civil actions, except that publication need be made but once each week for three consecutive weeks, and the hearing may be held at any time after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice. [L. '13, p. 84, § 12.]

§ 10523. [8733-13.] Review and Appeal.

Upon the petition of any party to a proceeding before the commission, any finding or findings, or order or orders of the commission, made under color of authority of this act, except as otherwise provided in section 10519, may be reviewed in the superior court of the county in which the crossing is located, and the reasonableness and lawfulness of such finding or findings, order or orders inquired into and determined, as provided in the public service commission law (chapter 117, Laws 1911) for the review of findings and orders made under that act. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court from the judgment of the superior court in like manner as provided in said public service commission law for appeals to the supreme court. [L. '13, p. 84, § 13.]

See notes to § 10340.

See note to § 10521.

Cited in 98 Wash. 650.

Under this section, providing that an order of the public service commission eliminating a grade crossing may be reviewed and the reasonableness and lawfulness determined, an order which the commission had power to make will not be disturbed unless there is a showing of unreasonableness or unlawfulness: State ex rel. Hayford v. Public Serv. Com., 98 Wash. 648, 168 Pac. 169.

§ 10524. [8733-14.] Employment of Engineers and Other Employees.

The commission may employ temporarily such experts, engineers, and inspectors as may be necessary to supervise changes in existing crossings undertaken under this act; the expense thereof shall be paid by the railroad upon the request and certificate of the commission, said expense to be included in the cost of the particular change of grade on account of which it is incurred, and apportioned as provided in this act.

The commission may also employ such engineers and other persons as permanent employees as may be necessary to properly administer this act, and the expense thereof shall be paid out of the appropriation herein provided. [L. '13, p. 85, § 14.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10525. [8733-15.] Eminent Domain.

Whenever to carry out any work undertaken under this act it is necessary to take, damage, or injuriously affect any private lands, property, or property rights, the right so to take, damage, or injuriously affect the same may be acquired by condemnation as hereinafter provided.

Subd. A. In cases where new railroads are constructed and laid out by railroad company authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain, the right to take, damage, or injuriously affect private lands, property, or property rights shall be acquired by the railroad company by a condemnation proceedings brought in its own name and prosecuted as provided by law for the exercise of the power of eminent domain by railroad companies, and the right of eminent domain is hereby conferred on railroad companies for the purpose of carrying out the requirements of this act or the requirements of any order of the commission.

Subd. B. In cases where it is necessary to take, damage, or injuriously affect private lands, property, or property rights to permit the opening of a new highway or highway crossing across a railroad, the right to take, damage, or injuriously affect such lands, property, or property rights shall be acquired by the municipality or county petitioning for such new crossing by a condemnation proceeding brought in the name of such municipality or county as provided by law for the exercise of the power of eminent domain by such municipality or county. If the highway involved be a state highway, then the right to take, damage, or injuriously affect private lands, property, or property rights shall be acquired by a condemnation proceeding prosecuted under the laws relative to the exercise of the power of eminent domain in aid of such state road.

Subd. C. In cases where the commission orders changes in existing crossings to secure an under-crossing, over-crossing, or safer grade crossing, and it is necessary to take, damage, or injuriously affect private lands, property, or property rights to execute the work, the right to take, damage, or injuriously affect such lands, property, or property rights shall be acquired in a condemnation proceeding prosecuted in the name of the state of Washington by the attorney general under the laws relating to the exercise of the power of eminent domain by cities of the first class for street and highway purposes: Provided, however, that in the cases mentioned in this subdivision the full value of any lands taken shall be awarded, together with damages, if any accruing to the remainder of the land not taken by reason of the severance of the part taken, but in computing the damages to the remainder, if any, the jury shall offset against such damages, if any, the special benefits, if any, accruing to such remainder by reason of the proposed improvement. The right of eminent domain for the purposes mentioned in this subdivision is hereby granted. [L. '13, p. 85, § 15.]

See notes to § 10340.

Cited in 98 Wash. 651.

§ 10526. [8733-16.] Illegal Crossings Enjoined or Abated as Nuisance.

If an under-crossing, over-crossing, or grade crossing is constructed, maintained, or operated, or is about to be constructed, operated, or maintained, in violation of the provisions of this act, or in violation of any order of the commission, such construction, operation, or maintenance may be enjoined, or may be abated, as provided by law for the abatement of nuisances. Suits to enjoin or abate may be brought by the attorney general, or by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the unauthorized crossing is located. [L. '13, p. 86, § 16.]

See notes to § 10340.

§ 10527. [8733-17.] Mandamus.

If any railroad company, county, municipality, or officers thereof, or other person, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to perform or discharge any duty required of it or them under this act or any order of the commission, the performance of such duty may be compelled by mandamus, or other appropriate proceeding prosecuted by the attorney general upon the request of the commission. [L. '13, p. 87, § 17.]

§ 10528. [8733-18.] Penalty for Violation by Railroad.

If any railroad company shall fail or neglect to obey, comply with, or carry out the requirements of this act, or any order of the commission made under it, such company shall be liable to a penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars, such penalty to be recovered in a civil action brought in the name of the state of Washington by the attorney general. All penalties recovered shall be paid into the state treasury. [L. '13, p. 87, § 18.]

§ 10529. [8733-19.] Obstructions in Highways.

Whenever to carry out any work ordered under this act, it is necessary to erect and maintain posts, piers, or abutments in a highway, the right and authority to erect and maintain the same is hereby granted. [L. '13, p. 87, § 19.]

§ 10530. [8733-20.] No New Right of Action Conferred.

Nothing contained in this act shall be construed as conferring a right of action for the abandonment or vacation of any existing highway or portion thereof in cases where no right of action exists independent of this act. [L. '13, p. 87, § 20.]

§ 10531. [8733-21.] Act When not Operative.

This act shall not be operative within the limits of cities authorized to frame their own charters, and it shall not be construed to apply to street railway lines operating in, on, through, along, over, or across any street, alley or other public place within the limits of any incorporated city or town, except that no street-car line outside of cities authorized to frame their own charters shall cross a railroad at grade without express authority from the commission. [L. '13, p. 88, § 21.]

§ 10532. [8733-22.] Constitutionality.

If any section, subdivision, sentence, or clause of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. [L. '13, p. 88, § 22.]

§ 10533. [8734.] Petition for Grade Crossing—Hearing—Safety Devices.

Whenever any railroad company desires to cross any established and existing highway or railroad at grade, it shall file with the railroad commission of Washington its petition in writing setting forth the objections and difficulties to making such crossing either above or below the grade of such highway or railroad; and whenever the county commissioners of any county or the municipal authorities of any city or town desire to lay out or extend any highway over and across any established and existing railroad at grade, they shall file with the railroad commission of Washington their petition in writing setting forth the objections and difficulties of making such crossing either above or [below] the grade of such railroad. On receiving such petition it shall be the duty of the railroad commission to immediately investigate the same, notifying the railroad company and the county or municipality affected thereby of the time and place of such investigation, to the end that all parties interested may be present and heard at such investigation. The evidence introduced shall be reduced to writing and filed by the commission. If the commission finds that it ought not to require such highway or railroad to be so constructed as to cross above or below the grade of the existing railroad or highway, it shall by resolution filed in the cause and duly entered upon its minutes, grant the right and privilege to construct such railroad or highway across such established railroad or highway at grade. The commission may in its discretion provide that such railroad shall, before operating its trains over any established highway or at any subsequent time, install and maintain proper signal, warnings, gates or other devices to warn and protect the public, and it may also require such railroad before operating its trains over and across such established railroad at grade, or at any subsequent time, to install and maintain proper interlocking devices and gates or flagmen to protect the traveling public and railroad employees, and may order the installation and maintenance of proper signals, warning, gates or other devices to warn and protect the public, before granting permission for such highway to be constructed across said established railroad at grade. The cost and expenses of such installation shall be apportioned by the railroad commission in such manner as shall be just and equitable under the circumstances surrounding each case. [L. '09, p. 618, § 2.]

See notes to § 10340.

See infra, § 11082, franchises for electric railroads, cities and counties.

§ 10534. [8735.] Not Applicable to Charter Cities.

The two preceding sections shall not be construed as applying to highways and railroads in cities framing their own charters. [L. '09, p. 619, § 3.]

§ 10535. [8736.] Right to Cross Other Roads in Cities Framing Own Charters.

Every corporation formed under this act for the construction of a railroad shall have the power to cross, intersect, join and unite its railway with any other railway before constructed, at any point in its route, and upon the grounds of such other railway company, with the necessary turnouts, sidings, switches, and other conveniences in furtherance of the objects of its connections, and every corporation whose railway is or shall be hereafter intersected by any new railway shall unite with the corporation owning such new railway in forming such intersections and connections and grant the facilities aforesaid; and if the two corporations cannot agree upon the amount of compensation to be made therefor, or the points and manners of such crossings and connections, the same shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided by law for the taking of lands and other property which shall be necessary for the construction of its road, and every corporation formed under this act for the construction of a canal shall have the power to cross and intersect any railway before constructed at any point on its road and upon the grounds of such other railway company, and every corporation whose railway is or shall hereafter be crossed or intersected by any canal shall unite with the corporation owning such canal in forming such crossings and intersections and grant the facilities therefor, and if the two corporations cannot agree upon the compensation to be made therefor, or the points and manner of such crossings and connections, the same shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided by law for the taking of lands and other property which shall be necessary for the construction of said canal. [Cf. Cd. '81, § 2456½; L. '88, p. 64, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1571; L. '95, p. 148, § 3.]

"Act" refers to §§ 10536, 10538, 10539 and 6585—6597.

Superseded by the preceding sections except as to highways and railroads in cities framing their own charters.

See supra, § 7455, crossing by irrigating ditches.

See infra, § 10535, crossing by canals.

Where a railway in process of construction crosses or parallels an existing railway, it must accommodate itself to the established way of the latter, and cannot be so constructed as to overlap the existing track or right of way longitudinally, so that either track cannot be operated when the other is in use: Seattle & M. Ry. Co. v. State, 7 Wash. 150, 34 Pac. 551, 38 Am. St. Rep. 866, 22 L. R. A. 217.

An intersecting road should attempt to agree with the road crossed upon the point and manner of crossing and compensation therefor, before seeking the interposition of a court in proceedings to appropriate the right of way: Id.

A railroad seeking condemnation proceedings to appropriate right of way for crossing the tracks of another railway may, by stipulation tendered, assume the burden of maintaining frogs and crossing apparatus: Id.

A railroad company is not entitled to condemn a right of way across the terminal grounds and spur tracks of another company, already devoted to a public use, and in such a manner as to interfere with such prior use, by virtue of this section, where it appears that there is a reasonable route either to the north or south of such terminal grounds, and no reasonable necessity appears: State ex rel. Portland & Seattle R. Co. v. Superior Court, 45 Wash. 270, 88 Pac. 201.

Under this section one railroad may condemn a crossing over, or part of the right of way of, another road if there is a necessity therefor and the same can be taken without material detriment to the established road: State ex rel. Kent Lumber Co. v. Superior Court, 46 Wash. 516, 90 Pac. 663.

A congressional grant of a railroad right of way of a certain width is not conclusive of the fact that the entire width was necessary for the purposes of the railroad as against another railroad seeking to condemn a portion thereof for public purposes: North Coast R. v. Northern Pacific R. Co., 48 Wash. 529, 94 Pac. 112.

The right of eminent domain under state laws may be exercised by a railroad company to condemn a longitudinal portion of a right of way granted by congress to another railroad company, if public necessity therefor exists and the occupying railroad does not require the portion taken: Id.

In condemning the right to cross at grade the right of way of a prior railroad company, it is proper to charge to the petitioner the cost of installing and maintaining a necessary interlocking device as to the tracks already in operation, or to be constructed within a reasonable time by the prior company to accommodate business already accumulated; but it is error to cover any or all tracks that the prior company might construct at that point in the future, or to confine the petitioner to a single track, as future contingencies should be left to future determination: State ex rel. North Coast R. v. Northern Pac. R. Co., 49 Wash. 78, 94 Pac. 907.

This section is special in its nature and refers to the general law for procedure: State ex rel. Postal Tel. Cable Co. v. Superior Court, 64 Wash. 189, 116 Pac. 855.

Under this section, the court may adjudge the public use subject to defendant's right to use a logging road and upon condition to keep in repair an overhead crossing: State ex rel. Union Lumber Co. v. Superior Court, 70 Wash. 540, 127 Pac. 109.

§ 10536. [8737.] Construction Over Rivers, etc.—Conditions.

Every corporation formed under the laws of this state for the construction of railroads or canals shall possess the power to construct its railway or canal, as the case may be, across, along or upon any river, stream of water, watercourses, plank road, turnpike or canal, which the route of such railway or canal shall intersect or touch; but such corporation shall restore the river, stream, watercourse, plank road or turnpike thus intersected or touched to its former state as near as may be, and pay any damages caused by such construction: Provided, that the construction of any railway or canal by such corporation along, across or upon any of the navigable rivers or waters of this state shall be in such manner as to not interfere with, impede or obstruct the navigation thereof; and all rights, privileges and powers of every description by law conferred upon road or railroad companies are hereby given and granted to canal companies so far as the same may be applicable, and all power and authority possessed by the public or municipal corporations of the state or their local authorities, with reference to road or railroad companies, may be exercised by them with reference to canal companies. [L. '88, p. 64, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1572; L. '95, p. 148, § 4.]

See §§ 6585—6597, supra, for the balance of this act, more particularly applicable to roads and highways.

See supra, § 10468.

Cited in 7 Wash. 152; 54 Wash. 536; 62 Wash. 102; 88 Wash. 88, 90.

This section requiring railroads to restore streams crossed has no application where the roadbed was not maintained in the course or channel of the river or encroached upon: Bachman v. Oregon-Wash. R. & Nav. Co., 88 Wash. 81, 152 Pac. 700.

This section expressly conferring upon railroads the right to cross any river, stream or watercourse, excludes by implication the right to appropriate tide lands belonging to the state: Seattle & M. R. Co. v. State, 7 Wash. 150, 34 Pac. 551, 38 Am. St. Rep. 866, 22 L. R. A. 217.

An intersecting railroad cannot determine for itself the point and manner of its crossing another road, but the necessity therefor is a matter for adjudication by the court: Seattle & M. R. Co. v. State, 7 Wash. 150, 34 Pac. 551, 38 Am. St. Rep. 866, 22 L. R. A. 217.

§ 10537. [8738.] Change of Grade or Location of Road or Canal.

Any corporation may change the grade or location of its road or canal, not departing from the general route specified in the articles of incorporation, for the purpose of avoiding annoyances to public travel, or dangerous or deficient curves or grades, or unsafe or unsubstantial grounds or foundation, or for other like reasonable causes, and for the accomplishment of such change shall have the same right to enter upon, examine, survey, and appropriate the necessary lands and materials as in the original location and construction of such road or canal. [L. '69, p. 343, § 3; Cd. '81, § 2457; 1 H. C., § 1573.]

Cited in 62 Wash. 102; 64 Wash. 600; 68 Wash. 575.

A railroad company may make a change in its location in order to correct an error in engineering, where it was found that high water in a river did not admit of a grade line upon the route as surveyed and adopted; both at common law and by virtue of this section: State ex rel. Sylvester v. Superior Court, 64 Wash. 594, 117 Pac. 487.

CHAPTER VIII.

APPROPRIATION OF LANDS AND HIGHWAYS FOR CORPORATE PURPOSES.

§ 10538. [8739.] Right to Enter Lands for Survey, etc.

A corporation organized for the construction of any railway, macadamized road, plank road, clay road, canal or bridge, shall have a right to enter upon any land, real estate or premises, or any of the lands granted to the state of Washington for school, university or other purposes, between the termini thereof, for the purpose of examining, locating and surveying the line of such road or canal, or the site of such bridge, doing no unnecessary damage thereby. [Cf. L. '69, p. 343, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2455; L. '88, p. 63, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1569; L. '95, p. 146, § 1.]

See supra, § 921 et seq., appropriation of lands for private corporations.

See supra, § 933, appropriation through process.

See supra, §§ 8088—8098, over state lands.

See supra, § 10463, right of eminent domain.

Cited in 6 Wash. 576; 7 Wash. 151, 167; 31 Wash. 452; 36 Wash. 385; 62 Wash. 101.

§ 10539. [8740.] Extent of Right of Appropriation.

Every corporation organized for the construction of any railway, macadamized road, plank road, clay road, canal or bridge, is hereby authorized and empowered to appropriate, by condemnation, land and any interest in land or contract right relating thereto, including any leasehold interest therein and any rights of way for tunnels beneath the surface of the land, and any elevated rights of way above the surface thereof, including lands granted to the state for university, school or other purposes, and also tide and shore lands belonging to the state (but not including harbor areas), which may be necessary for the line of such road, railway or canal, or site of such bridge, not exceeding two hundred feet in width, besides a sufficient quantity thereof for toll-houses, workshops, materials for construction, excavations and embankments and a right of way over adjacent lands or property, to enable such corporation to construct and prepare its road, railway, canal or bridge, and to make proper drains; and in case of a canal, whenever the court shall deem it necessary, to appropriate a sufficient quantity of land, including lands granted to the state for university, school or other purposes, in addition to that before specified in this section, for the construction and excavation of such canal and of the slopes and berms thereof, not exceeding one thousand feet in total width; and in case of a railway to appropriate a sufficient quantity of any such land, including lands granted to the state for university, schools and other purposes and also tide and shore lands belonging to the state (but not including harbor areas), in addition to that before specified in this section, for the necessary sidetracks, depots and water stations, and the right to conduct water thereto by aqueduct, and for yards, terminal, transfer and switching grounds, docks and warehouses required for receiving, delivering, storage and handling of freight, and such land, or any interest therein, as may be necessary for the security and safety of the public in the construction, maintenance and operation of its railways; compensation therefor to be made to the owner thereof irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation, in the manner provided by law: And provided further, that if such corporation locate the bed of such railway or canal upon any part of the track now occupied by an established state or county road, said corporation shall be responsible to the county commissioners of said county or counties in which such state or county road so appropriated is located, for all expenses incurred by such county or counties in relocating and opening the part of such road so appropriated. The term land as herein used includes tide and shore lands but not harbor areas; it also includes any interest in land or contract right relating thereto, including any leasehold interest therein. [L. '07, p. 674, § 1. Cf. L. '69, p. 343, § 2; Cd.

'81, § 2456; L. '88, p. 63, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1570; L. '95, p. 147, § 2; L. '03, p. 383, § 1.]

As to the mode of proceeding to appropriate land, see §§ 921—936, supra.

Former laws cited in 7 Wash. 151; 31 Wash. 452; 47 Wash. 170; 49 Wash. 388; 54 Wash. 533; 62 Wash. 101, 104; 64 Wash. 600; 65 Wash. 105; 68 Wash. 400, 575; 79 Wash. 41; 83 Wash. 330.

Cited in 91 Wash. 457; 102 Wash. 334.

Under this section prior to amendment, tide lands belonging to the state could not be taken under the power of eminent domain as applied to railroads, for the reason that the law had application only to the taking of private and not public property: Seattle & M. Ry. Co. v. State, 7 Wash. 150, 34 Pac. 551, 38 Am. St. Rep. 373, 22 L. R. A. 217.

This section originally authorized the condemnation of lands by a railway company for a right of way: State ex rel. Trimble v. Superior Court, 31 Wash. 445, 72 Pac. 89, 66 L. R. A. 897.

The power conferred by this section, authorizing a railway company to condemn lands for depots, yards, terminals, etc., is a continuing power, not exhausted by its exercise in the first instance, and may be resorted to to change the location of the depot; hence it is unnecessary, in condemning for a connection between a main line and new terminals in a city, that there be a resolution of the board of directors in any particular form, as required by section 10460, relating to the construction of branch lines: State ex rel. Northern Pac. R. Co. v. Superior Court, 68 Wash. 397, 123 Pac. 529.

Power in General: See Remington's Digest, Em. Dom., §§ 6—19, and cases cited.

Under this section it was not a condition precedent to condemnation proceedings by a railroad company (except in case of railroad crossings) that the company should attempt to agree with the owner as to the compensation to be paid for land already devoted to a public use: State ex rel. Skamania Boom Co. v. Superior Court, 47 Wash. 166, 91 Pac. 637.

As to the priority of conflicting locations by railroad companies, see Columbia Valley R. Co. v. Portland & Seattle R. Co., 49 Wash. 88, 94 Pac. 918.

This section did not authorize condemnation of land held in trust for the public as a city street, since the law must be construed to relate to private property only, in the absence of an express or implied authority to take public lands: State ex rel. Schade Brewing Co. v. Superior Court, 62 Wash. 96, 113 Pac. 576.

This includes the equitable interest in tide lands held by purchasers from the state under contract of sale, subject only to the right of re-entry and forfeiture on the part of the state for failure to pay the balance of the purchase price according to the terms of the state's contract: State ex rel. Trimble v. Superior Court, 31 Wash. 445, 22 Pac. 89.

This section authorizes an appropriation for a slip or waterway adjoining a proposed dock: State ex rel. Patterson v. Superior Court, 102 Wash. 331, 173 Pac. 186.

This section refers to state lands held in a proprietary capacity only: State v. Superior Court, 91 Wash. 454, 157 Pac. 1097.

Negligence cannot be predicated upon the mere construction of a railroad upon a highway under this section: Engelsen v. Spokane, Portland etc. R. Co., 79 Wash. 39, 139 Pac. 599.

CHAPTER IX.

CONDITIONAL SALES OF ROLLING STOCK AND RAILWAY EQUIPMENTS.

§ 10540. [8741.] Contract of Sale or Lease.

In any contract of, or for the sale of railroad equipment or rolling stocks, it shall be lawful to agree that the title to the property sold, or contracted to be sold, although deliverable immediately, or at any time or times subsequently, shall not vest in the purchaser until the purchase price shall be fully paid, or that the seller shall have and retain a lien thereon for the unpaid purchase money; and in any contract of, or for the leasing of such property, it shall be lawful to stipulate for a conditional sale thereof at the termination of such lease, and that the rentals received may, as paid, be applied and treated as purchase money, and that the title to the property shall not vest in the lessee or vendee until the purchase price shall be paid in full, notwithstanding delivery to and possession by such lessee or vendee: Provided, that no such contract shall be valid as against any subsequent judgment creditor, or any subsequent bona fide purchaser, for value and without notice, unless,—

1. The same shall be evidenced by an instrument duly acknowledged before some person authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds;

2. Such instruments shall be filed for record in the office of the county auditor of the county in which, at the time of the execution thereof, is situated the principal office of the vendee or lessee within this territory;

3. Each locomotive engine or car so sold, or contracted to be sold, or leased, as aforesaid, shall have the name of the vendor or lessee plainly marked on each side thereof, followed by the word "owner" or "lessor," as the case may be. [L. '83, p. 63, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1456.]

See supra, § 3779, rolling stock may be mortgaged.

See infra, §§ 11160—11171, taxation of property.

Cited in 94 Wash. 497—499.

A conditional sale of a logging engine, to be used exclusively on a short logging track falls within section 3790, and not this section, which applies only to common carriers: Brady & Son v. Bell, 94 Wash. 496, 162 Pac. 865.

The complaint fails to state a cause of action, in an action against a railroad company, under this section, to recover the cost of relocating and opening a portion of a county road alleged to have been appropriated by the company, where there is no allegation that the road has been relocated or opened, or that any expense has been incurred: Weymouth v. Port Townsend So. R. Co., 6 Wash. 575, 34 Pac. 154.

Under this section and § 927, supra, devotion of the property to a private purpose is an abandonment which calls for an explanation to avoid a reversion: Neitzel v. Spokane International R. Co., 65 Wash. 100, 117 Pac. 864, 36 L. R. A. (N. S.) 522.

§ 10541. [8742.] Recording of Contract.

The contracts herein authorized shall be recorded by the said county recorder, in the book of records of mortgages of real estate in said county; and on payment in full of purchase money, and the performance of the terms and conditions stipulated in any such contract, a declaration in writing to that effect shall be made by the vendor or his assignee, which declaration may be made on the margin of the record of the contract, attested by the said recorder, or it may be made by a separate instrument, to be acknowledged and recorded as aforesaid, and for such services the county recorder shall be entitled to the fees provided by law for the recording of deeds and mortgages of real estate. [L. '83, p. 62, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1457.]

CHAPTER X.

SPECIAL POLICE FOR RAILROADS.

§ 10542. [8742-1.] Appointment by Governor.

The governor shall have the power to and may in his discretion appoint and commission special police officers at the request of any steam or electric railroad corporation and may revoke any such appointment at his pleasure. [L. '15, p. 339, § 1.]

§ 10543. [8742-2.] Application for Special Police.

Any steam or electric railroad corporation desiring the appointment of any of its officers, agents or servants not exceeding five in number for any one division of any railroad operating in this state, (division, as herein intended, shall mean the part of any railroad or railroads under the jurisdiction of any one division superintendent), as special police officers shall file with the governor an application stating the name, age and place of residence of the person whose appointment it desires, the position he occupies with the steam or electric railroad corporation, the nature of his duties and the reasons why his appointment is desired, which application shall be signed by the president or some managing officer of the steam or electric railroad corporation and shall be accompanied by an affidavit of such officer to the effect that he is acquainted with the person whose appointment is sought, that he believes him to be of good moral character, and that he is of such character and experience that he can be safely intrusted with the powers of a police officer. [L. '15, p. 339, § 2.]

§ 10544. [8742-3.] Oath of Policemen.

Before receiving his commission each person appointed under the provisions of this act shall take, subscribe and file with the governor an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution and laws of the state and to faithfully perform the duties of his office. [L. '15, p. 339, § 3.]

§ 10545. [8742-4.] Duties Restricted to Railroad Property.

Every police officer appointed and commissioned under the provisions of this act shall when on duty have the power and authority conferred by law on peace officers, but shall exercise such power only in the protection of the property belonging to or under the control of the corporation at whose instance he is appointed and in preventing, and making arrest for, violations of law upon or in connection with such property. [L. '15, p. 340, § 4.]

§ 10546. [8742-5.] Badge.

Every such special police officer shall, when on duty, wear in plain view a metal shield bearing the words "special police" and the name of the corporation by which he is employed. [L. '15, p. 340, § 5.]

§ 10547. [8742-6.] Liability for Unlawful Acts.

The corporation procuring the appointment of any special police shall be solely responsible for the compensation for his services and shall be liable civilly for any unlawful act of such officer resulting in damage to any person or corporation. [L. '15, p. 340, § 6.]

CHAPTER I.

AGE OF MAJORITY.

§ 10548. [8743.] Men are of Age at Twenty-one, Women at Eighteen.

Males shall be deemed and taken to be of full age for all purposes at the age of twenty-one years and upwards; females shall be deemed and taken to be of full age at the age of eighteen years and upwards. [L. '54, p. 407, § 1; L. '63, p. 434, § 1; L. '66, p. 92, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2363; 1 H. C., § 1416.]

Cited in 72 Wash. 453; 80 Wash. 617, 619; 109 Wash. 108.

A minor husband becomes of full age upon the performance of the ceremony, and may maintain an action in his own name to secure the custody and society of his wife: Hollopeter, In re, 52 Wash. 41, 100 Pac. 159, 132 Am. St. Rep. 952, 17 Ann. Cas. 91, 21 L. R. A. (N. S.) 847.

Since, under section 186, supra, only females over twenty-one years of age may maintain an action for their own seduction, the right of action for seduction while a minor accrues to her when she becomes twenty-one years of age; and not at the age of majority, eighteen years, under this section: Gates v. Shaffer, 72 Wash. 451, 130 Pac. 896.

§ 10549. [8744.] Married Female Deemed to be of Age, When.

All females married to a person of full age shall be deemed and taken to be of full age. [L. '54, p. 407, § 2; L. '63, p. 434, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2364; 1 H. C., § 1417.]

Cited in 82 Wash. 151; 109 Wash. 108.

The juvenile court law, section 1987-1, defining delinquent and dependent children under the age of eighteen years, makes the age, not minority, the controlling element, and applies to a girl under eighteen years of age married to a man of full age, notwithstanding this section: Lundy, In re, 82 Wash. 148, 143 Pac. 885, Ann. Cas. 1916E, 1007.

CHAPTER II.

DEEDS AND OTHER INSTRUMENTS AFFECTING REAL PROPERTY.

§ 10550. [8745.] Conveyances to be by Deed.

All conveyances of real estate or of any interest therein, and all contracts creating or evidencing any encumbrance upon real estate shall be by deed. [L. '54, p. 402, § 1; L. '60, p. 299, § 1; L. '63, p. 430, § 1; L. '73, p. 465, § 1; L. '77, p. 312, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2311; L. '86, p. 177, § 1; L. '88, p. 50, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1422.]

To be valid, a deed by a testator to a devisee must have been delivered in his lifetime; and passes title to the estate at the date of delivery, leaving nothing for the will to operate upon: White v. Chellew, 108 Wash. 526, 185 Pac. 619.

§ 16. Sufficiency—In General: Richmond v. Morford, 4 Wash. 337, 30 Pac. 241, 31 Pac. 513; Coe v. Wormell, 88 Wash. 119, 152 Pac. 716.

Where deeds of a husband and wife, tendered and filed in court, were, at all times pending an appeal by the adverse parties, subject to recall on abandonment of the controversy, they became ineffectual for any purpose as to the wife's interest upon her death before termination of the suit: Gordon v. Hillman, 109 Wash. 223, 186 Pac. 651.

§ 17. — Delivery to Third Person: Healy v. Seward, 5 Wash. 319, 31 Pac. 874; Bender v. Ragan, 53 Wash. 521, 102 Pac. 427; Simmons v. Macomber, 60 Wash. 469, 111 Pac. 579; Rhines v. Young, 97 Wash. 437, 166 Pac. 642.

Sufficient delivery to an escrow is not shown if the grantor had control and no present intent to part with title: Bloor v. Bloor, 105 Wash. 110, 177 Pac. 722.

§ 17-1. — Deposit for Delivery on Death of Grantor: Maxwell v. Harper, 51 Wash. 351, 98 Pac. 756; Eves v. Roberts, 96 Wash. 99, 164 Pac. 915; James v. Lueders, 97 Wash. 560, 166 Pac. 772.

Simultaneous deeds by husband and wife to each other, placed in escrow, to be delivered to the survivor, take effect presently, if at all, and negative each other, and are not effectively delivered: Bloor v. Bloor, 105 Wash. 110, 177 Pac. 722.

Where a deed and will of the same property were made in extremis one day before the grantor's death, and it is evident no reservation was made, an immediate delivery of the deed was intended where the grantor stated they were all right and left them with the scrivener without directions as to delivery: White v. Chellew, 108 Wash. 628, 185 Pac. 621.

§ 18. — Record or Delivery for Record: Prignon v. Daussat, 4 Wash. 199, 29 Pac. 1046, 31 Am. St. Rep. 914; Bjmerland v. Eley, 15 Wash. 101, 45 Pac. 730; Kellogg v. Cook, 18 Wash. 516, 52 Pac. 233.

VALIDITY: See Remington's Digest, Deeds, §§ 21—21-3.

§ 21-1. Capacity and Assent of Parties in General: Jackson v. Lamar, 58 Wash. 383, 108 Pac. 946.

A finding of mental capacity on the part of a woman aged eighty to execute a deed to her daughter, with whom she had made her home for years, is sustained, although relatives testified she was childish, where disinterested witnesses testified to facts showing more than ordinary mental capacity for one of her age: Parr v. Campbell, 109 Wash. 376, 186 Pac. 858.

A finding that a woman eighty years of age was not unduly influenced by her daughter with whom she had resided for years, to execute a deed to her, is sustained by evidence of her sense of obligation to her daughter and repeated expressions of her intent to compensate her; it not being undue influence for a daughter to persuade or solicit her mother to make a conveyance, so long as she was not overborne or rendered incapable of acting upon her own motives: Parr v. Campbell, 109 Wash. 376, 186 Pac. 858.

§ 21-2. Mistake: Town v. Greer, 53 Wash. 350, 102 Pac. 239.

§ 21-3. Fictitious Names: Farmers & Mechanics' Bank v. Western Loan & Bldg. Co., 103 Wash. 349, 174 Pac. 1.

§ 10552. [8747.] Warranty Deed, Form and Effect of.

Warranty deeds for the conveyance of land may be substantially in the following form:—

The grantor (here insert the name or names and place of residence), for and in consideration of (here insert consideration), in hand paid, convey and warrant to (here insert the grantee's name or names) the following described real estate (here insert description), situate in the county of —, state of Washington.

Dated this — day of —, 18—. — —. (Seal)

Every deed in substance in the above form, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a conveyance in fee simple to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, with covenants on the part of the grantee:

1. That at the time of the making and delivery of such deed he was lawfully seised of an indefeasible estate in fee simple in and to the premises therein described, and had good right and full power to convey the same;

2. That the same were then free from all encumbrances; and

3. That he warrants to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, the quiet and peaceable possession of such premises, and will defend the title thereto against all persons who may lawfully claim the same; and such covenants shall be obligatory upon any grantor, his heirs and personal representatives, as fully and with like effect as if written at full length in such deed. [L. '86, p. 177, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1427.]

The use of private seals on deeds, etc., has been abolished by § 10556.

Covenants of Warranty in General:
See Remington's Digest, Covenants, § 11, and cases cited.

In view of this section as to fee-simple title, plaintiff's title is sufficiently shown by a warranty deed, without having disclaimed her title, where the defendants claimed under a common source through a void tax foreclosure naming the plaintiff as owner: Darrin v. Humes, 60 Wash. 537, 111 Pac. 767.

While, by virtue of the statute, certain covenants are implied from the use of the word "warrant" in a deed, they are to be implied only when no others are expressed; and not where the deed sets out the particular things warranted against: Leddy v. Emos, 6 Wash. 247, 33 Pac. 508, 34 Pac. 665.

§ 10553. [8748.] Bargain and Sale Deed, Form and Effect of.

Bargain and sale deeds for the conveyance of land may be substantially in the following form:—

The grantor (here insert name or names and place of residence), for [and] in consideration of (here insert consideration), in hand paid, bargain, sell, and convey to (here insert the grantee's name or names) the following described real estate (here insert description), situated in the county of —, state of Washington.

Dated this — day of —, 18—. — —. (Seal.)

Every deed in substance in the above form shall convey to the grantee, his heirs or other legal representatives, an estate of inheritance in fee simple, and shall be adjudged an express covenant to the grantee, his heirs or other legal representatives, to wit, that any grantor was seized of an indefeasible estate in fee simple, free from encumbrance, done or suffered from the grantor, except the rents and services that may be reserved, as also for quiet enjoyment against the grantor, his heirs and assigns, unless limited by express words contained in such deed; and the grantee, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, may, in any action, recover for breaches, as if such covenants were expressly inserted. [L. '86, p. 178, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1425.]

Cited in 36 Wash. 644—646; 49 Wash. 63; 64 Wash. 63.

A deed of standing timber using the words "has granted, bargained and sold" is a substantial compliance with the statutory form prescribed by this section, and under it the covenants of seisin and warranty are implied: Blood v. Sielert, 38 Wash. 643, 80 Pac. 799.

An after-acquired title of mortgagors inures to the benefit of the mortgagee, although the mortgage contained no express words of warranty, where it did contain a granting clause, which, under this section, would in a deed constitute a covenant of seisin and for quiet enjoyment, sufficient to pass to a grantee an after-acquired title under section 10571; since the same rule applies as between mortgagor and mortgagee: American Sav. Bank & Trust Co. v. Helgesen, 64 Wash. 54, 116 Pac. 837, Ann. Cas. 1913A, 390.

§ 10554. [8749.] Quitclaim Deed, Form and Effect of.

Quitclaim deeds may be in substance in the following form:—

The grantor (here insert name or names and place of residences), for the consideration (here insert consideration), convey and quitclaim to (here insert grantee's name or names) all interest in the following described real estate (here insert description), situated in the county of —, state of Washington.

Dated this — day of —, 18—. — —. (Seal.)

Every deed in substance in form prescribed in this section, when otherwise duly executed, shall be deemed and held a good and sufficient conveyance, release, and quitclaim to the grantee, his heirs and assigns, in fee of all the then existing legal or equitable rights of the grantor in the premises therein described, but shall not extend to the after-acquired title unless words are added expressing such intention. [L. '86, p. 178, § 5; 1 H. C., § 1426.]

Cited in 31 Wash. 443; 36 Wash. 592.

Under this section and section 10571, a quitclaim deed is sufficient to convey the after-acquired title of the grantor when it recites that it remises, releases and quitclaims to the grantee certain lands, "to have and to hold, all and singular the said described premises, together with the appurtenances unto the said party of the second part and to his heirs and assigns forever": West Seattle Land etc. Co. v. Novelty M. Co., 31 Wash. 435, 72 Pac. 69.

§ 10555. [8750.] Mortgages, Form and Effect of.

Mortgages of land may be in the following form, substantially:—

The mortgagor (here insert name or names) mortgages to (here insert name or names of mortgagee or mortgagees) to secure the payment of (here recite the nature and amount of indebtedness, showing when due, rate of interest, and whether secured by note or not) the following described real estate (here insert description), situated in the county of —, state of Washington.

Dated this — day of —, 18—.

Every such mortgage, when otherwise properly executed, shall be deemed and held a good and sufficient conveyance and mortgage to secure the payment of the money therein specified. The parties may insert in such mortgage any lawful agreement or condition. [L. '86, p. 179, § 6; L. '88, p. 51, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1647.]

Absolute Deed as Mortgage—In General: See Remington's Digest, Mtg., § 14, and cases cited.

An acknowledgment of a mortgage which the mortgagor inadvertently omitted to sign, and her intention to sign, is not equivalent to, or a substitute for, an actual signing, which is required by the statute in order to pass title, nor can it be said that she intended to adopt as her signature her name written in the mortgage as the grantor (overruling, on rehearing, Id., 64 Wash. 54, 116 Pac. 837, Ann. Cas. 1913A, 390): American Savings Bank & Trust Co. v. Helgesen, 67 Wash. 572, 122 Pac. 26, Ann. Cas. 1913A, 390.

§ 10556. [8751.] Private Seals Abolished.

The use of private seals upon all deeds, mortgages, leases, bonds, and other instruments, and contracts in writing, is hereby abolished, and the addition of a private seal to any such instrument or contract in writing hereafter made, shall not affect its validity or legality in any respect. [Cf. L. '71, p. 83, §§ 1, 2; L. '86, p. 165, § 1; L. '88, p. 50, § 3; and p. 184, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1427.]

Abolishing Use of Seal: In an action upon an indemnity bond under seal, a nonsuit cannot be sustained for mere failure to prove a consideration, since the seal imports a consideration notwithstanding this section abolishing the use of private seals: Monro v. National Surety Co., 47 Wash. 488, 92 Pac. 280.

The fact that an unauthorized broker's contract to sell real estate was executed under seal does not prevent an implied ratification of the contract from silence and acquiescence therein, especially in view of this section abolishing the use of private seals in contracts and deeds: McLeod v. Morrison & Eshelman, 66 Wash. 683, 120 Pac. 528, 38 L. R. A. (N. S.) 783.

A separation agreement affecting only separate property of the spouses need not be sealed, even conceding that this is not operative as to conveyance of community property between husband and wife: Worden v. Worden, 96 Wash. 592, 165 Pac. 501.

§ 10557. [8752.] Validation of Prior Deeds Without Seal.

All deeds, mortgages, or other instruments in writing, for the conveyance or encumbrance of real estate, or any interest therein, which have heretofore been executed without the use of a private seal, are, notwithstanding, hereby declared to be legal and valid in all courts of law or equity in this state. [L. '88, p. 184, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1428.]

§ 10558. [8753.] Term "Heirs" Unnecessary.

The term "heirs," or other technical words of inheritance, shall not be necessary to create and convey an estate in fee simple. [L. '88, p. 51, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1429.]

v. Seattle Construction Co., 102 Wash. 608, 173 Pac. 508.

The omission of the word "heirs" is immaterial: Pioneer Sand & Gravel Co.

§ 10559. [8754.] Acknowledgments, Who Authorized to Take.

Acknowledgments of deeds, mortgages, and other instruments in writing may be taken, in this state, before a judge of the supreme court, or the clerk thereof, or the deputy of such clerk, before a judge of the superior court in this state, or the clerk thereof, or the deputy of such clerk, or before a justice of the peace, or a county auditor, or the deputy of such auditor, or a qualified notary public, or any qualified United States commissioner appointed by any district court of the United States for the state of Washington. All deeds, mortgages, and other instruments in writing at any time heretofore acknowledged according to the provisions of this act are hereby declared legal and valid, in so far as such acknowledgment is concerned. [L. '13, p. 29, § 1. Cf. L. '73, p. 466, § 5; L. '75, p. 107, § 1; L. '77, p. 317, § 5; L. '79, p. 110, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2315; 1 H. C., 1430.]

Taking and Certificate: See Remington's Digest, Ack., §§ 4—7; Nixon v. Post, 13 Wash. 181, 43 Pac. 23; Kley v. Geiger, 4 Wash. 484, 30 Pac. 727; Richmond v. Voorhees, 10 Wash. 316, 38 Pac. 1014; Carson v. Thompson, 10 Wash. 295, 38 Pac. 1116; Sullivan v. Treen, 13 Wash. 261, 43 Pac. 68; Johnson v. Irwin, 16 Wash. 652, 48 Pac. 345; Griffin v. Catlin, 25 Wash. 474, 65 Pac. 755, 87 Am. St. Rep. 782; Keene Guaranty Sav. Bank v. Lawrence, 32 Wash. 572, 73 Pac. 680.

Authority of officer de facto to take acknowledgment of a deed cannot be questioned collaterally: Bullene v. Garrison, 1 W. T. 587; Forrester v. Reliable Transfer Co., 59 Wash. 86, 109 Pac. 312, Ann. Cas. 1912A, 1093.

The fact that the notary public taking the acknowledgment of a mortgage is an officer of the corporation to whom the mortgage is executed does not invalidate the acknowledgment, as that is purely a ministerial act: Keene Guaranty Sav. Bank v. Lawrence, 32 Wash. 572, 73 Pac. 680.

A purchase money mortgage without actual acknowledgment, signed by the mortgagees when a certificate of acknowledgment was already filled out and signed, is valid as between the parties or purchasers of the property with notice: Lynch v. Cade, 41 Wash. 216, 83 Pac. 118.

Acknowledgment of Mortgage: See Remington's Digest, Mtg., § 28; Richmond v. Voorhees, 10 Wash. 316, 38 Pac. 1014; Kley v. Geiger, 4 Wash. 484, 30 Pac. 727; Keene Guaranty Sav. Bank v. Lawrence, 32 Wash. 572, 73 Pac. 680; Lynch v. Cade, 41 Wash. 216, 83 Pac. 118.

§ 10560. [8755.] Acknowledgments Out of State.

Deeds or conveyances of lands, or of any estate or interest therein situated in this state, may be executed or acknowledged in any other state or territory of the United States in the form prescribed for executing and acknowledging deeds within this state, and the execution thereof may be acknowledged before any person authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds by the laws of the state or territory wherein the acknowledgment is taken, or before any commissioner appointed by the governor of this state for such purpose. [Cf. L. '65, p. 25, § 1; rep. by L. '66, p. 89, § 1; L. '67, p. 93, § 1; L. 73, p. 466, § 6; L. '77, p. 313, § 6; Cd. '81, § 2316; 1 H. C., § 1431.]

Cited in 3 Wash. 624; 10 Wash. 297; 29 Wash. 633; 51 Wash. 272.

§ 10561. [8756.] Certificate of Authentication, When.

In the case provided for in the preceding section, unless the acknowledgment be taken before a commissioner appointed by the governor of this state for that purpose, or by the clerk of the court of record of said state or territory, or by a notary public or other officer having a seal of office, then such deed shall have attached thereto a certificate of the clerk of the court of record, under the seal of said court of said county or district, or a certificate of any other proper certifying officer of said district or county, within which said acknowledgment was taken, that the person whose name is subscribed to the certificate of acknowledgment was at the date thereof such officer as he therein represents himself to be, that he is authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, and that he verily believes the signature of the person subscribed thereto to be genuine. [L. '67, p. 94, § 2; L. '73, p. 466, § 7; L. '77, p. 313, § 37; Cd. '81, § 2317; 1 H. C., § 1432.]

Cited in 10 Wash. 85; 29 Wash. 633.

The verification of a lien claim before a foreign notary, whose certificate is attested by his notarial seal, is sufficient to authorize the record of the instrument in the proper county of this state: Duggan v. Washougal L. & L. Co., 10 Wash. 84, 38 Pac. 856.

A deed of assignment made in another state and properly acknowledged, but lacking the notary's seal and clerk's certificate as required by this section, is sufficient to pass the equitable title to the assignee, and enable him to maintain an action to quiet title thereto, under § 793, as against foreign creditors, inasmuch as they do not occupy the relation of bona fide purchasers: Bloomington v. Weil, 29 Wash. 611, 70 Pac. 94.

Operation, Conclusiveness of, and Impeachment: See Remington's Digest, Ack., §§ 8—10; Jackson v. Tatebo, 3 Wash. 456, 28 Pac. 916; Gardner v. Port Blakely Mill Co., 8 Wash. 1, 35 Pac. 402; Howard v. Gemming, 10 Wash. 30, 38 Pac. 766; Blewett v. Bash, 22 Wash. 536, 61 Pac. 770; Western Loan & Savings Co. v. Waisman, 32 Wash. 644, 73 Pac. 703; Forrester v. Reliable Transfer Co., 59 Wash. 86, 109 Pac. 312, Ann. Cas. 1912A, 1093; Drew v. Bouffleur, 69 Wash. 610, 125 Pac. 947; Smith v. Allen, 78 Wash. 135, 138 Pac. 683, Ann. Cas. 1915D, 300; Chaffee v. Hawkins, 89 Pac. 130, 154 Pac. 143, 157 Pac. 35; Kangley v. Rogers, 85 Wash. 250, 147 Pac. 898.

Prima facie proof of acknowledgment: Blewett v. Bash, 22 Wash. 536, 61 Pac. 770.

§ 10562. [8757.] Defective Acknowledgments Validated.

All deeds, mortgages, or other instruments in writing, which, prior to the passage of this chapter, may have been acknowledged before either of the foregoing named officers, or deputies, or before the clerk of any court, or his deputies, heretofore established by the laws of this territory, are hereby declared legal and valid, in so far as such acknowledgment is concerned. [Cf. L. '66, p. 94, § 3; L. '73, p. 466, § 8; L. 77, p. 313, § 8; L. '79, p. 110, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2318; 1 H. C., § 1433.]

"Territory" is retained, because the provisions of the section relate only to acts prior to the passage of "this chapter," which was chapter 171 of the Code of 1881.

Cited in 10 Wash. 297.

Statute of 1867, curing defects in acknowledgments previously executed, is constitutional and applies to acknowledgments by married women: Skellinger v. Smith, 1 W. T. 369.

§ 10563. [8758.] Foreign Acknowledgments, Who may Take.

Acknowledgments of all deeds, mortgages and other instruments in writing that are required to be acknowledged by any law of this state may be made and taken in any foreign country beyond the limits of the United States, before any minister plenipotentiary, secretary of legation, charge d'affaires, consul-general, consul, vice-consul, consular agent, or commercial agent appointed by the government of the United States, or before any notary public or before the proper officer of any court of said country, or before the mayor or other chief magistrate of any city, town or other municipal corporation therein. All deeds, mortgages and other instruments at any time heretofore acknowledged according to the provisions of this act are hereby declared legal and valid: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not affect any existing rights. [L. '75, p. 118, § 2; L. '77, p. 157, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2319; L. '88, p. 1, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1434; L. '01, p. 65, § 1.]

§ 10564. [8759.] Certificate of Acknowledgments.

The person or officer taking such acknowledgment shall certify the same by a certificate written on or annexed to said mortgage, deed, or instrument, which certificate shall be under his official seal, if any he has, and such certificate shall recite in substance that the deed, mortgage, or instrument was acknowledged by the person or persons whose name or names are signed thereto as grantor or principal before him as such officer, with the date of such acknowledgment. [L. '79, p. 158, § 2; Cd. '81, § 2320; 1 H. C., § 1435.]

This section providing the manner in which acknowledgments shall be taken, applies to acknowledgments taken in this state: Forrester v. Reliable Transfer Co., 59 Wash. 86, 109 Pac. 312, Ann. Cas. 1912A, 1093.

§ 10565. [8760.] Certificate as Evidence, etc.

Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein recited, and on such certificate, such deed, instrument, or mortgage shall be admitted to record in the auditor's office of the proper county, with like effect as if the same was acknowledged in this state before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments of deeds; and certified copies of such deeds, mortgages, or other instruments of writing, certified by the auditor of the county where recorded, shall be received in evidence to the same extent and with like effect as certified copies of deeds acknowledged within this state are received in evidence when certified by such auditor. [L. '77, p. 158, § 3; Cd. '81, § 2321; 1 H. C., § 1436.]

§ 10566. [8761.] Certificate of Acknowledgment, Form of.

A certificate of acknowledgment, substantially in the following form, shall be sufficient:—

State of Washington, }
County of —, } ss.

I (here give name of officer and official title), do hereby certify that on this — day of —, 18—, personally appeared before me (name of grantor, and if acknowledged by wife, her name, and add “his wife”), to me known to be the individual or individuals described in and who executed the within instrument, and acknowledged that he (she or they) signed and sealed the same as his (her or their) free and voluntary act and deed, for the uses and purposes therein mentioned.

Given under my hand and official seal this — day of —, A. D., 18—.

— — —.

“Signed and sealed”: See § 10556, which was passed at the same session and one day later.

The form prescribed by this section is not exclusive and it is not essential to recite that the grantors acted “freely and voluntarily”: Kley v. Geiger, 4 Wash. 484, 30 Pac. 727.

It is sufficient to recite that they “duly acknowledged the execution of the same”: Johnson v. Irwin, 16 Wash. 652, 48 Pac. 345.

Where a notary before whom a lien was sworn to omitted to add his signature and official place of residence, such notice may be amended by the addition of the place of residence of the notary: Sullivan v. Treen, 13 Wash. 261, 43 Pac. 38.

The negligence of a notary public in taking the acknowledgment of impostors, upon a mere introduction by a person of good reputation, is a question for the jury, in view of this section: Ehlers v. United States Fidelity & Guaranty Co., 87 Wash. 662, 152 Pac. 518.

§ 10567. [8761½.] Corporate Acknowledgment.

Certificates of acknowledgment of an instrument acknowledged by a corporation substantially in the following form shall be sufficient:

State of —, }
County of —, } ss.

On this — day of —, A. D., 190—, before me personally appeared —, to me known to be the (president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, or other authorized officer or agent, as the case may be) of the corporation that executed the within and foregoing instrument, and acknowledged the said instrument to be the free and voluntary act and deed of said corporation, for the uses and purposes therein mentioned and on oath stated that he was authorized to execute said instrument and that the seal affixed is the corporate seal of said corporation.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal the day and year first above written.

§ 10568. [8762.] Validating Deeds, etc.

All deeds, mortgages, and other instruments at any time heretofore acknowledged according to the provisions of this chapter are hereby declared legal and valid. [L. '79, p. 158, § 4; Cd. '81, § 2322; 1 H. C., § 1438.]

From a consideration of the curative acts passed from time to time in this state relating to defective acknowledgments, it appears that it was the settled policy of the law not to render conveyances in good faith signed by the grantors ineffectual in consequence of an informality or defect as to proof of their execution, whether in the matter of acknowledgment or of attesting witnesses: Carson v. Thompson, 10 Wash. 295, 38 Pac. 1116.

Although at time of execution and record of a deed the acknowledgment was invalid for want of authority in the officer before whom it was taken, yet, where under a subsequent curative act such acknowledgments are validated in all cases where the rights of third parties have not intervened, the record of the instrument, which was improper at the time, becomes thereby cured, and is full constructive notice to all subsequent purchasers: Id.

In the certificate of the notary public who took the acknowledgment of the first deed, he described himself as notary for territory: Held, that if this defect was material, it was cured by the act of November 10, 1873: Carson v. Railsback, 3 W. T. 168, 13 Pac. 618.

A defectively acknowledged deed is as good to the grantee in possession of the granted premises, against the grantor and all persons claiming under him with notice, as if the deed was in all respects formally executed: Mann v. Young, 1 W. T. 454.

A purchaser is fairly charged with information which he would have obtained by inquiring into matters brought to his notice; and in equity and perhaps in law, under our statute, the unrecorded deed of a bona fide purchaser is good as against a recorded deed of one who is not a bona fide purchaser: Id.

While this court does not pass upon the validity of a deed acknowledged before a county auditor in the year 1867, and not authenticated by his official seal, it holds that if such deed were, for that reason, defective, the defect was remedied by the curative act of 1873, p. 481: Kenyon v. Knipe, 2 W. T. 422, 7 Pac. 854.

§ 10569. [8763.] Validating Sheriffs' Deeds.

In all cases where real estate has been heretofore duly sold by a sheriff in pursuance of law, by virtue of an execution or other process, and no deed having been made therefor in the manner required by law to the purchaser therefor [thereof], or other person entitled to the same, by the sheriff making the sale, the successor in office of the sheriff making the sale having made a deed of the premises so sold to the purchaser or other person entitled to the same, such deed shall be valid and effectual to convey to the grantee the lands or premises so sold: Provided, that this section shall not be construed to affect the equities of third parties in the premises. [L. '91, p. 178, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1441.]

See supra, § 4175, successor to complete process.

§ 10570. [8764.] Defective Attestations Cured.

All deeds, mortgages, or other instruments in writing, heretofore executed, to convey real estate, or any interest therein, and which have no subscribing witness or witnesses thereto, are hereby cured of such defect and made valid, notwithstanding such omission: Provided, nothing in this section shall be construed to affect vested rights, or impair contracts made in good faith between parties prior to the passage of this section: And provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed to give validity to, or in any manner affect, the sale or transfer of real estate made by the territory or state of Washington, or any officer, agent, or employee thereof, prior to the passage of this section. [L. '90, p. 89, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1442.]

§ 10571. [8765.] Subsequently Acquired Titles to Vest in Grantees.

Whenever any person or persons having sold and conveyed by deed any lands in this state, and who, at the time of such conveyance, had no title to such land, and any person or persons who may hereafter sell and convey by deed any lands in this state, and who shall not at the time of such sale and conveyance have the title to such land, shall acquire a title to such lands so sold and conveyed, such title shall inure to the benefit of the purchasers or conveyee or conveyees of such lands to whom such deed was executed and delivered, and to his or their heirs and assigns forever. And the title to such land so sold and conveyed shall pass to and vest in the conveyee or conveyees of such lands, and to his or their heirs and assigns, and shall thereafter run with such land. [L. '71, p. 195, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2436.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 556; 10 Wash. 30; 31 Wash. 443; 39 Wash. 624; 57 Wash. 278; 64 Wash. 63; 102 Wash. 616.

A covenant in a deed following upon and connected with the habendum et tenendum clause, in the words "and the said B, his heirs and assigns will warrant, and by these presents forever defend," is sufficient to pass an after-acquired title of the grantor: Mann v. Young, 1 W. T. 454.

Where one by bargain and sale, for a consideration received and enjoyed, undertakes to convey property which he does not own, his after-acquired title inures to the benefit of his vendee: Brazee v. Schofield, 2 W. T. 209, 3 Pac. 265.

A deed in the form of a quitclaim which purports to convey the real estate would operate to convey an after-acquired title: Ankeny v. Clark, 1 Wash. 549, 20 Pac. 583.

A mortgage covering tide lands belonging to the state which contains a covenant of seisin and general warranty against all lawful claims, conveys the after-acquired title of the mortgagor, secured through a state deed issued after the decree and foreclosure sale, upon an application for purchase made pending the foreclosure: People's Sav. Bank v. Lewis, 37 Wash. 344, 79 Pac. 932.

A bond for a deed, made by a patentee prior to the issuance of a patent, is not a conveyance, and is insufficient to pass an after-acquired title: Turner v. Ladd, 42 Wash. 274, 84 Pac. 866.

An oral agreement between husband and wife that real property thereafter acquired by either should be the separate property of such party is void, and does not change its community character, in view of the acts making the same community property, and providing that conveyances of any interest in real estate shall be by deed: Graves v. Graves, 48 Wash. 664, 94 Pac. 481.

Under this section, and independently thereof, an after-acquired title inures to the benefit of the grantee, and this rule applies to titles acquired through mortgage foreclosure: Gough v. Center, 57 Wash. 276, 106 Pac. 774.

A duly acknowledged contract between parties in possession of tide lands with preference right to purchase, granting easement for a waterway, is a deed, within this section relating to after-acquired title: Pioneer Sand & Gravel Co. v. Seattle Const. & Dry Dock Co., 102 Wash. 608, 173 Pac. 508.

§ 10572. [8766.] Conveyances Between Husband and Wife.

A husband may give, grant, sell, or convey directly to his wife, and a wife may give, grant, sell, or convey directly to her husband his or her community right, title, interest, or estate in all or any portion of their community real property. And every deed made from husband to wife, or from wife to husband, shall operate to divest the real estate therein recited from any or every claim or demand as community property, and shall vest the same in the grantee as separate property. The grantor in all such deeds, or the party releasing such community interest or estate, shall sign, seal, execute and acknowledge the deed as a single person, without the joinder therein of the married party therein named as grantee: Provided, however, that the conveyances or transfers hereby authorized shall not affect any existing equity in favor of creditors of the grantor at the time of such transfer, gift, or conveyance: And provided further, that any deeds of gift conveyances or releases of community estate by or between husband and wife heretofore made, but in which the husband and wife have not joined as grantors, said deeds, where made in good faith and without intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, shall be and the same are hereby fully legalized as valid and binding. [L. '88, p. 52, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1443.]

See supra, § 5828, burden of proof as to transactions between spouses.

See supra, §§ 6891—6893, community property.

See supra, § 6894, agreements as to status of community property.

Seal.—This section, so far as it requires a seal, seems to prescribe a rule for this class of deeds differing from those in other cases: See § 10556, which was approved on the same day.

Contracts and Conveyances Between Husband and Wife: See Remington's Digest, Husb. & Wife, §§ 63, 64; McKnight v. McDonald, 34 Wash. 98, 74 Pac. 1060; Stewart v. Bank of Endicott, 82 Wash. 106, 143 Pac. 458; Ewing v. Wagenen, 6 Wash. 39, 32 Pac. 1009; Klosterman v. Harrington, 11 Wash. 138, 39 Pac. 376; Dillon v. Dillon, 13 Wash. 594, 43 Pac. 894; Sawtelle v. Weymouth, 14 Wash. 21, 43 Pac. 1101; Churchill v. Stephenson, 14 Wash. 620, 45 Pac. 28; Zeimantz v. Blake, 39 Wash. 6, 80 Pac. 822; Graves v. Graves, 48 Wash. 664, 94 Pac. 481; Carpenter v. Brackett, 57 Wash. 460, 107 Pac. 359; Hayden v. Zerbst, 49 Wash. 103, 94 Pac. 909; Shorrett v. Signor, 58 Wash. 89, 107 Pac. 1033; Sponogle v. Sponogle, 86 Wash. 649, 151 Pac. 43.

Section 5882, supra, casting the burden of proving the good faith of transactions between husband and wife upon the party asserting the good faith, does not authorize a subsequent creditor to raise the question of good faith; especially in view of this section: Smith v. Weed, 75 Wash. 452, 134 Pac. 1070.

This section must be construed as in pari materia with section 5882, supra: Erfurth v. Erfurth, 90 Wash. 521, 156 Pac. 523.

Under this section, property acquired by and in the possession of a husband becomes his separate property upon his wife's making a quitclaim deed thereof to him, although he subsequently proceeded to remove clouds from the title by purchasing tax titles and other interests, where such steps and the quitclaim deed were all parts of one transaction whereby the husband, living separate and apart from the wife, sought and claimed to acquire a separate estate: Hayden v. Zerbst, 49 Wash. 103, 94 Pac. 909.

The husband's contingent liability upon a lease, upon which no rent was due at the time, is an "existing equity" in favor of creditors, within this section: Sallaske v. Fletcher, 73 Wash. 593, 132 Pac. 648, Ann. Cas. 1914D, 760, 47 L. R. A. (N. S.) 320; Robinson v. Agnew-Copping Realty & Investment Co., 100 Wash. 651, 171 Pac. 1057.

Under the statutes of this state, conveyances which are fraudulent as to creditors are subject to be defeated by creditors having contingent claims subsequently maturing: Sallaske v. Fletcher, 73 Wash. 593, 132 Pac. 648, Ann. Cas. 1914D, 760, 47 L. R. A. (N. S.) 320.

Property acquired by a man before marriage, which he afterward deeded to his wife, and which she the next day deeded back to him, is his separate property, under this section: Brown v. Davis, 98 Wash. 442, 167 Pac. 1095.

This section with reference to the form of a conveyance between husband and wife of community property has no application to conveyances of an interest in separate property: Powers v. Munson, 74 Wash. 234, 133 Pac. 453.

By this section a conveyance of community property from husband to wife, makes it her separate property: Sponogle v. Sponogle, 86 Wash. 649, 151 Pac. 43.

Under this section, upon a deed of community realty from a husband to the wife, the same becomes her separate property, and is not liable for a community debt subsequently contracted by the husband: Stewart v. Kleinschmidt, 51 Wash. 90, 97 Pac. 1105.

The grantors shall execute the deed, as a single person, without joinder by the grantee: Union Savings & Trust Co. v. Manney, 101 Wash. 274, 172 Pac. 251.

Simultaneous deeds, between husband and wife, when void for want of effective delivery: Bloor v. Bloor, 105 Wash. 110, 177 Pac. 722.

§ 10573. [8767.] Husband and Wife—Power of Attorney.

A husband or wife may make and execute powers of attorney for the sale, conveyance, transfer, or encumbrance of his or her separate estate, both real and personal, without the other spouse joining in the execution thereof. Such power of attorney shall be acknowledged and certified in the manner provided by law for the conveyance of real estate. Nor shall anything herein contained be so construed as to prevent either husband or wife from appointing the other his or her attorney in fact for the purposes provided in this section. [L. '88, p. 53, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1444.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 279.

Under the laws of this state making it competent for the wife to authorize her husband to execute a mortgage in her behalf, power to authorize him to execute a note in her name is necessarily included therein: Richmond v. Voorbees, 10 Wash. 316, 38 Pac. 1014.

A husband having a general power of attorney from his wife authorizing him to mortgage all their real estate can make a valid mortgage of their homestead, which is community property, without her joining in it: Oregon Mortgage Co. v. Hersner, 14 Wash. 515, 45 Pac. 40; affirmed in Stone v. So Relle, 14 Wash. 704, 46 Pac. 119.

In a power of attorney by a wife to her husband authorizing him to borrow money, make and execute notes and mortgages, etc., on realty owned by her: Held, that the primary object of the power was to enable the husband to borrow money upon the faith of himself and wife, and as incident thereto to execute a note and mortgage upon their property, including that which the wife owned in her individual capacity or as a member of the community: Richmond v. Voorhees, supra.

The execution by the husband and wife of a power of attorney reciting that certain real estate is the property of the wife is a binding admission of such fact by the husband, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, despite the subsequent revocation of the power: Yesler v. Hochstettler, 4 Wash. 349, 30 Pac. 398.

A general power of attorney by a wife to her husband to sell land will not authorize him to make a dedication for street purposes: Anderson v. Bigelow, 16 Wash. 198, 47 Pac. 426.

§ 10574. [8768.] Execution of Conveyance Under Power.

Any conveyance, transfer, deed, lease, or other encumbrances executed under and by virtue of such power of attorney shall be executed, acknowledged, and certified in the same manner as if the person making such power of attorney had been unmarried. [L. '88, p. 53, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1445.]

See infra, § 11347, power of attorney transmitted by telegraph.

§ 10575. [8769.] Power of Attorney to Convey Community Property.

A husband may make and execute a letter of attorney to the wife, or the wife may make and execute a letter of attorney to the husband, authorizing the sale or other disposition of his or her community interest or estate in the community property, and as such attorney in fact to sign the name of such husband or wife to any deed, conveyance, mortgage, lease, or other encumbrance or to any instrument necessary to be executed by which the property conveyed or transferred shall be released from any claim as community property. And either said husband or said wife may make and execute a letter of attorney to any third person to join with the other in the conveyance of any interest either in separate real estate of either, or in the community estate held by such husband or wife in any real property. And both husband and wife owning community property may jointly execute a power of attorney to a third person authorizing the sale, encumbrance, or other disposition of community real property, and so execute the necessary conveyance or transfer of said real estate. [L. '88, p. 53, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1446.]

Cited in 4 Wash. 279; 14 Wash. 518.

A general power of attorney to a husband by a wife to sell land will not authorize him to make a dedication for street purposes and accordingly declarations and acts of his tending to show dedication by estoppel are not binding on the wife: Anderson v. Bigelow, 16 Wash. 198, 47 Pac. 426.

§ 10576. [8770.] Validation of Powers of Attorney.

All powers of attorney heretofore made and executed by any married woman joined with her husband and duly acknowledged and certified, and all powers of attorney heretofore made or executed by husband or wife to the other, authorizing the sale or other disposition of real estate, whether separate or community real estate, duly acknowledged, conformably with the [four] previous sections, and all conveyances heretofore and hereafter executed under and by virtue of such powers of attorney, and acknowledged and certified in the manner provided herein, shall be valid and binding: Provided, that any rights vested in third persons shall not be affected by anything in this section contained. [L. '88, p. 53, § 5; 1 H. C., § 1447.]

§ 10577. [8771.] Bona Fide Purchaser Protected by Record Title, When.

Whenever any person, married or single, having in his or her name the legal title of record to any real estate, shall sell or dispose of the same to an actual bona fide purchaser, a deed of such real estate from the person holding such legal record title to such actual bona fide purchaser shall be sufficient to convey to and vest in such purchaser the full legal and equitable title to such real estate free and clear of any and all claims of any and all persons whatsoever not appearing of record in the auditor's office of the county in which such real estate is situated. [L. '91, p. 368, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1448.]

This section relates to community property only.

Cited in 5 Wash. 191; 6 Wash. 503; 21 Wash. 383; 80 Wash. 212; 102 Wash. 87.

This act is restricted by its title to the protection of innocent purchasers of community property only: Sengfelder v. Hill, 21 Wash. 371, 58 Pac. 250.

Under this section, subsequent purchasers of portions of a tract conveyed to their common grantor are not bound to take notice of his improvements and inclosures as indicating an error in the description in the deeds, where his fences only partially inclosed the land; but they are bona fide purchasers where they bought with reference to the description contained in the deeds as they appeared on the public records: McIver v. Hilstad, 80 Wash. 206, 141 Pac. 306.

A bona fide purchaser from the holder of the record title will be protected: Lanigan v. Mills, 102 Wash. 82, 172 Pac. 894.

§ 10578. [8772.] Claim in Community Realty to be Filed, When.

A husband or wife having an interest in real estate, by virtue of the marriage relation, the legal title of record to which real estate is or shall be held by the other, may protect such interest from sale or disposition by the husband or wife, as the case may be, in whose name the legal title is held, by causing to be filed and recorded in the auditor's office of the county in which such real estate is situated, an instrument in writing setting forth that the person filing such instrument is the husband or wife, as the case may be, of the person holding the legal title to the real estate in question, describing such real estate and the claimant's interest therein; and when thus presented for record such instrument shall be filed and recorded by the auditor of the county in which such real estate is situated, in the same manner and with like effect as regards notice to all the world, as deeds of real estate are filed and recorded. And if either husband or wife fails to cause such an instrument to be filed in the auditor's office in the county in which real estate is situated the legal title to which is held by the other, within a period of ninety days from the date when such legal title has been made a matter of record, any actual bona fide purchaser of such real estate from the person in whose name the legal title stands of record, receiving a deed of such real estate from the person thus holding the legal title, shall be deemed and held to have received the full legal and equitable title to such real estate free and clear of all claim of the other spouse. [L. '91, p. 368, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1449.]

See supra, § 6893, control and disposition of.

Cited in 23 Wash. 392; 82 Wash. 180; 90 Wash. 522.

The filing of an inventory, under the act of 1873, by the wife in the office of the county auditor setting forth that certain property is her separate property, cannot be treated as an admission of that fact by her husband: Yesler v. Hochstettler, 4 Wash. 349, 30 Pac. 398.

Under the statute of 1871, requiring the filing of an inventory of lands claimed by the wife as her separate estate, where a husband took title in his own name to lands purchased with wife's money while such statute was in force, and after its repeal such land was sold, and proceeds invested in other lands, and title taken in the wife's name, her claim thereto was not waived by a failure to file inventory prior to the repeal of the statute: Wey- mouth v. Sawtelle, 14 Wash. 32, 44 Pac. 109.

The failure of one spouse to file in the office of the county auditor an instrument setting up his or her claim in community property held in the name of the other spouse, as provided by this section, does not estop such spouse from claiming an interest therein, except as against such bona fide purchasers as purchase without knowledge of the existence of the marriage relation, or who could not, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, have obtained such knowledge: Dane v. Daniel, 23 Wash. 379, 63 Pac. 268.

A wife is estopped where she deserted her husband for more than ten years, filed no community property claim, and he sold and conveyed to a bona fide purchaser: Magee v. Bisley, 82 Wash. 178, 143 Pac. 1088.

§ 10579. [8773.] Community Claim—Cloud upon Title—Removal of.

The instrument in writing provided for in the last preceding sections shall be deemed to be a cloud upon the title of said real estate, and may be removed by the release of the party filing the same, or by any court having jurisdiction in the county where said real estate is situated, whenever it shall appear to said court that the real estate described in said instrument is the separate property of the person in whose name the title to the said real estate, or any part thereof, appears to be vested, from the conveyances on record in the office of the auditor of the county where said real estate is situated. [L. '91, p. 369, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1450.]

See supra, §§ 785—809, actions to quiet title.

Cited in 90 Wash. 522.

§ 10580. [8774.] Limitation for Compliance With Last Three Sections.

In so far as the last three sections affect married persons having already acquired and now holding real estate under existing laws, a period of three months from the date at which this act shall take effect is hereby allowed to such persons within which to comply with its provisions. [L. '91, p. 369, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1451.]

CHAPTER III.

DISABILITIES OF ALIENS AND INDIANS.

§ 10581. Aliens—Rights and Disabilities—Definitions.

In this act, unless the context otherwise requires,

(a) "Alien" does not include an alien who has in good faith declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, but does include all other aliens and all corporations and other organized groups of persons a majority of whose capital stock is owned or controlled by aliens or a majority of whose members are aliens;

(b) "Land" does not include lands containing valuable deposits of minerals, metals, iron, coal or fire clay or the necessary land for mills and machinery to be used in the development thereof and the manufacture of the products therefrom, but does include every other kind of land and every interest therein and right to the control, possession, use, enjoyment, rents, issues or profits thereof except a mortgage and except a right to the possession, use or enjoyment of land for a period of not more than ten years for a purpose for which an alien is accorded the use of land by a treaty between the United States and the country whereof he is a citizen;

(c) "Land" also includes any share or interest in a corporation or other organized group of persons deemed an alien in this act which has title to land either heretofore or hereafter acquired;

(d) To "own" means to have the legal or equitable title to or the right to any benefit of;

(e) "Title" includes every kind of legal or equitable title;

(f) Ownership of or title to land acquired by inheritance or in good faith either under mortgage or in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts, or acquired by a female citizen afterwards expatriated by marriage to an alien, is excluded;

(g) "Inheritance" includes devise;

(h) "Mortgage" includes every kind of lien upon land;

(i) A mortgage of land under which an alien is entitled before default to any control, possession, use or enjoyment of the land, is an absolute conveyance; and

(j) "Person" includes an individual, partnership, corporation or any other organized group of persons. [L. '21, p. 156, § 1.]

Constitutional and Statutory Restrictions on the Ownership of Lands by Aliens: See Remington's Digest, Aliens, §§ 3, 4; State ex rel. Winston v. Morrison, 18 Wash. 664, 52 Pac. 228; State ex rel. Winston v. Hudson Land Co., 19 Wash. 85, 52 Pac. 574, 40 L. R. A. 430; Oregon Mtg. Co. v. Carstens, 16 Wash. 165, 47 Pac. 421, 35 L. R. A. 841; State ex rel. Morrell v. Superior Court, 33 Wash. 542, 74 Pac. 686; Goon Gan v. Richardson, 16 Wash. 373, 47 Pac. 762; Abrams v. State, 45 Wash. 327, 88 Pac. 327, 122 Am. St. Rep. 914, 9 L. R. A. (N. S.) 186; Keene v. Zindorf, 81 Wash. 152, 142 Pac. 484; Prentice v. How, 84 Wash. 136, 146 Pac. 388.

An alien can acquire lands in this state containing deposits of limestone, silica, silicated rock and clay, to be used in good faith in the manufacture of cement, such deposits being "minerals" within the meaning of Constitution, Article II, § 33, and not to be restricted by the words "metals, iron, coal or fire clay," following; since a construction must be adopted to give effect to every part of the clause and to give words their natural and ordinary meaning: State ex rel. Atkinson v. Evans, 46 Wash. 219, 89 Pac. 565, 10 A. L. R. (N. S.) 1163.

The state cannot maintain an action to escheat lands, conveyed to and held by an alien in violation of the Constitution, after the same have been conveyed by the alien to a citizen: State ex rel. Atkinson v. World Real Estate Com. Co., 46 Wash. 104, 89 Pac. 471.

§ 10582. Aliens—Restrictions as to Land.

An alien shall not own land or take or hold title thereto. No person shall take or hold land or title to land for an alien. Land now held by or for aliens in violation of the Constitution of the state is forfeited to and declared to be the property of the state. Land hereafter conveyed to or for the use of aliens in violation of the constitution or of this act shall thereby be forfeited to and become the property of the state. [L. '21, p. 157, § 2.]

Estoppel of grantor in deed to deny title of alien grantee on ground that latter cannot hold property. 13 Ann. Cas. 532.

Right of alien to acquire title to realty by adverse possession. Ann. Cas. 1913C, 1240.

Right of alien to locate mining claim. 7 L. R. A. (N. S.) 813.

§ 10583. Fiduciary Restrictions.

An alien is not qualified to be trustee under a will, executor, administrator or guardian, if any part of the estate is land: Provided, an alien now lawfully acting in any such capacity may continue for not more than two years. [L. '21, p. 157, § 3.]

Right of alien to act as executor or administrator. 3 Ann. Cas. 988; Ann. Cas. 1912A, 747.

§ 10584. Land Acquired by Aliens by Inheritance, etc.

If hereafter an alien acquire land by inheritance or in good faith either under mortgage or in the ordinary course of justice in the collection of debts and, remaining an alien, hold the same for more than twelve years from the date title was so acquired or control or possession taken, the land shall be forfeited to the state. [L. '21, p. 157, § 4.]

Right of alien to receive or transmit property by inheritance. 12 Am.

St. Rep. 93; 31 L. R. A. 85, 146; 37 L. R. A. (N. S.) 108.

§ 10585. Limitations as to Mortgagee.

If an alien, claiming or holding under a mortgage, has control, possession, use or enjoyment of the mortgaged land, the obligation secured by the mortgage shall be deemed matured and the mortgage shall be foreclosed; and if the land be not sold under foreclosure within three years after the alien has obtained control, possession, use or enjoyment, the mortgage and the obligation thereby secured shall be forfeited to the state and shall be foreclosed for the use of the state. [L. '21, p. 158, § 5.]

§ 10586. Citizenship—Presumption of Bad Faith.

Unless an alien who has declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States be admitted to citizenship within seven years after his declaration was made, it shall be presumed that he declared his intention in bad faith. [L. '21, p. 158, § 6.]

§ 10587. Violations of Act—Offense Enumerated.

Whoever

- (a) Knowingly transfers or conveys land or title to land to an alien; or
- (b) Knowingly takes land or title to land in trust for an alien; or
- (c) Holding in trust for an alien land or title to land, either heretofore or hereafter acquired, fails for thirty days after acquiring knowledge or notice that he holds in trust for an alien to disclose the fact to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county where the land is situated; or
- (d) Being an alien and having title to land or control, possession, use or enjoyment of land, whether heretofore or hereafter acquired, refuses to disclose to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county where the land is situated the nature and extent of his interest in and title to the land; or
- (e) Being an officer or agent of a corporation or other organized group of persons which has title to land or control, possession, use or enjoyment of land, whether heretofore or hereafter acquired, refuses to disclose to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county where the land is situated the nature and extent of the interest of persons not citizens of the United States in the corporation or other organized group of persons; or
- (f) Being an officer or agent of a corporation or other organized group of persons which holds in trust for an alien title to land or control or possession of land, whether heretofore or hereafter acquired, refuses to disclose to the attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of the county where the land is situated the nature and extent of the alien's interest in and title to the land; or
- (g) Willfully counsels, aids or abets another in violating or evading this act,

Is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '21, p. 158, § 7.]

§ 10588. Enforcement of Alien Act.

It shall be the duty of the attorney general and of the prosecuting attorneys of the several counties to enforce this act, and of the attorney general to direct and control its enforcement. [L. '21, p. 159, § 8.]

§ 10589. Forfeitures—Disposition.

Property forfeited to the state by this act shall inure to the permanent common school fund and be managed and disposed of accordingly. [L. '21, p. 159, § 9.]

§ 10590. Scope of Act.

This act shall not impair any title or right heretofore or hereafter acquired from or derived through an alien in good faith and for value by a person not under an alien's disability. [L. '21, p. 159, § 10.]

§ 10591. Partial Invalidity.

If any section or provision of this act shall be adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional, such adjudication shall not [a]ffect the validity of the act as a whole or any section, provision, or part thereof not adjudged invalid or unconstitutional. [L. '21, p. 159, § 11.]

§ 10592. [8777.] Confirmation of Titles to Aliens.

All lands and all estates or interests in lands, within the state of Washington, which were conveyed or attempted to be conveyed to, or acquired or attempted to be acquired by, any alien or aliens, prior to the date of the adoption of the state Constitution, are hereby confirmed to the respective persons at present owning or claiming to own the title thereto derived by, through or under any such alien ownership or attempted ownership, to the extent that title was vested in or conveyed by said alien or aliens: Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to affect, adversely or otherwise, any title to any such lands, or to any interest or estate therein, held or claimed by any private person or corporation adversely to the title hereby confirmed. [L. '95, p. 268, § 1.]

See notes to § 10581.

§ 10593. [8778.] Puyallup Indians Authorized to Convey Lands, etc.

The said Indians [Puyallup] who now hold, or who may hereafter hold, any of the lands of any reservation, in severalty, located in this state, by virtue of treaties made between them and the United States, shall have power to lease, encumber, grant, and alien the same in like manner and with like effect as any other person may do under the laws of the United States and of this state, and all restrictions in reference thereto are hereby removed. [L. '90, p. 500, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2957.]

See note to next section.

The title of this and the next section is "An act enabling the Indians to sell and alien the lands of the Puyallup Indian reservation, in the state of Washington."

§ 10594. [8779.] Conveyance by.

All deeds, conveyances, encumbrances, or transfers of any nature and kind executed by any Indian, or in any manner disposing of any land, or interest therein, shall be by deed executed in the same manner as prescribed for the execution of deeds conveying real estate, or any interest therein, except that the same shall in all cases be acknowledged before a judge of a court of record. In taking said acknowledgment, the said judge shall explain to the grantor the contents of said deed or instrument, and the effect of the signing or execution thereof, and so certify the same in the acknowledgment, and before the same shall be admitted to record shall duly examine and approve the said deed or other instrument. [L. '90, p. 500, § 2; 1 H. C., § 2958.]

See notes to last section.

By the third section of the act from which the above and the next preceding section are taken it is provided that the act should take effect upon the consent of the United States to the removal of the restrictions upon conveyances by the Indians.

§ 10595. [8780.] Indians may Sell Stone, Timber, etc., from Land.

Any Indian who owns within this state any land or real estate allotted to him by the government of the United States may with the consent of congress, either special or general, sell and convey by deed made, executed and acknowledged before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments to deeds within this state, any stone, mineral, petroleum or timber contained on said land or the fee thereof and such conveyance shall have the same effect as a deed of any other person or persons within this state; it being the intention of this section to remove from Indians residing in this state all existing disabilities relating to alienation of their real estate. [L. '99, p. 155, § 1.]

CHAPTER IV.

RECORDING INSTRUMENTS.

§ 10596. [8781.] Recording of Conveyances, Effect of.

All deeds, mortgages, and assignments of mortgages, shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor of the county where the land is situated, and shall be valid as against bona fide purchasers from the date of their filing for record in said office; and when so filed shall be notice to all the world. [Cf. L. '54, p. 403, § 4; L. '58, p. 28, §§ 1, 2; L. '60, p. 299, § 4; L. '63, p. 430, § 4; L. '73, p. 465, § 4; L. '77, p. 312, § 4; Cd. '81, § 2314; 1 H. C., § 1439; L. '97, p. 5, § 1.]

* See supra, §§ 3781, 3787, 3791, recording chattel mortgages, satisfactions and conditional sales.

The grantee in a quitclaim deed, for value and without notice of a prior unrecorded quitclaim deed, is a bona fide purchaser, within this section: McDougall v. Murray, 57 Wash. 76, 106 Pac. 490, 26 L. R. A. (N. S.) 159.

As between real estate mortgages given as security for pre-existing debts, the one first executed and delivered takes priority, although the other was first recorded; a mortgagee for a pre-existing debt not being a bona fide purchaser, within this section: McDonald & Co. v. Johns, 62

Wash. 521, 114 Pac. 175, 33 L. R. A. (N. S.) 57.

A purchase money mortgage does not, under our recording acts, take priority over others unless they concur in time or the priorities are controlled by contract or equities between the several mortgages: Wakefield v. Fish, 62 Wash. 564, 114 Pac. 180.

Record of instrument out of line of title as constructive notice: 18 Ann. Cas. 13; Ann. Cas. 1917E, 486.

veyance of one parcel with covenant of easement affecting another parcel owned by grantor as constructive notice to subsequent purchaser or encumbrancer of latter parcel. 16 A. L. E. 1013.

Effect of recording, as deed, deed intended as mortgage. 8 Ann. Cas. 104.

Sufficiency of record of instrument where statute does not prescribe particular book for recordation. 7 Ann. Cas. 356.

§ 10597. [8782.] Mixed Chattel and Real Estate Mortgage Recorded as Real Estate Mortgage.

Any mortgage upon property of a mixed character, consisting in part of real estate and in part of personal property, and particularly upon railroad property, in the state of Washington, shall be admitted to record and be recorded in the several counties wherein the property is located as a real estate mortgage when acknowledged in the manner provided by law, and the original of such mortgage or a copy thereof certified by the auditor of any county in the state of Washington wherein the original has been recorded may be filed in a file to be kept for that purpose in the office of the auditor of the county wherein such property is situated, and said record and filing shall constitute notice to all persons of the existence of the mortgage lien provided for by said mortgage. [L. '99, p. 118, § 1.]

See supra, §§ 3781, 3791, recording chattel mortgages and conditional sales.

§ 10598. [8783.] Validation of Previously Recorded Mortgages.

In case any mortgage covering mixed real estate and personal property has heretofore been or may hereafter be recorded in the record of mortgages of real estate, or in the record of chattel mortgages, and in case the affidavit required by law to be attached to chattel mortgages was not or shall not be recorded as a part of said chattel mortgage but has been or shall be afterwards recorded upon a separate page of said record and a reference made at the place of the original record of said real estate or chattel mortgage to the said affidavit stating the volume and page on which the same may be found, said record shall constitute notice from and after the date of the filing of said affidavit, the same as if the affidavit and mortgage had been recorded together at the same time and at the same place. [L. '99, p. 119, § 2.]

§ 10599. [8784.] Irregularly Executed Instruments—Effect of Recording.

Every instrument in writing purporting to convey or encumber real property, which has been recorded in the proper auditor's office, although such instrument may not have been executed and acknowledged in accordance with the law in force at the time of its execution, shall impart the same notice to third persons, from the date of recording, as if the instrument had been executed, acknowledged, and recorded in accordance with the laws regulating the execution, acknowledgment, and recording of such instrument then in force. [Cf. L. '73, p. 481, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2323; 1 H. C., § 1440.]

See §§ 10559—10562, and 10568, supra.

Cited in 1 Wash. 556; 10 Wash. 300; 58 Wash. 194; 111 Wash. 641.

This section cures any defect by reason of the omission of the county auditor's seal: Kenyon v. Knipe, 2 W. T. 422, 7 Pac. 854.

Also the omission by a notary to show the county or state: Carson v. Railsback, 3 W. T. 168, 13 Pac. 618; Carson v. Dahms, 3 W. T. 176, 13 Pac. 618; Carson v. Chandler, 3 W. T. 177, 13 Pac. 618.

This section validates acknowledgments taken by officers not previously authorized to act, where the rights of third parties have not intervened: Carson v. Thompson, 10 Wash. 295, 38 Pac. 1116.

In such case the record of the instrument, which was improper at the time, becomes thereby cured, and is full constructive notice to all subsequent purchasers: Carson v. Thompson, 10 Wash. 295, 58 Pac. 1116.

§ 10600. [8785.] To Procure Record Books.

For the purpose of recording deeds and other instruments of writing, required or permitted by law to be recorded, the county auditor shall procure such books for records as the business of the office requires. He has the custody of and must keep at all times in his office all books, records, maps, and papers deposited with him as such officer. [Cd. '81, § 2786; 1 H. C., § 198; L. '93, p. 283, § 10.]

Cited in 1 Wash. 556; 58 Wash. 195; 111 Wash. 642.

Under this section, and in view of the uniform custom to record instruments affecting the title to real property in Deed Records, and of personal property in Miscellaneous Records, the record of an executory contract for the sale of real estate in Miscellaneous Records does not import notice: Bernard v. Benson, 58 Wash. 191, 108 Pac. 439, 137 Am. St. Rep. 1051.

§ 10601. [8786.*] Recording Instruments.

He must, upon payment of his fees for the same, record separately in large and well-bound books:

(1) Deeds, grants and transfers of real property, mortgages and releases of mortgages of real estate, powers of attorney to convey real estate, and leases which have been acknowledged or proved: Provided, that deeds, contracts and mortgages of real estate described by lot and block and addition or plat, shall not be filed or recorded until the plat of such addition has been filed and made a matter of record;

(2) Marriage contracts;

(3) Official bonds;

(4) Instruments describing or relating to the separate property or community interest of married women;

(5) Patents to lands and receiver's receipts, whether for mineral, timber, homestead or pre-emption claims or cash entries;

(6) Certificates of sales for county or municipal taxes;

(7) All such other papers or writings as are required by law to be recorded and such as are required by law to be filed if requested so to do by the party filing the same. [L. '19, p. 556, § 1. Cf. L. '65, p. 26, § 1; Cd. '81, § 2727; 1 H. C., § 199; L. '93, p. 284, § 11.]

See supra, § 4105, fees of county auditors.

§ 10602. Photographic Process.

Any state, county or municipal officer charged with the duty of recording documents, plats or other papers in public records, may, in lieu of transcription, record the same by a photographic or photo-mechanical process; but no process shall be so used that does not produce a clear, legible and durable record and that has not been first tested and approved for the intended purpose by the public archives commission of the state of Washington. [L. '19, p. 295, § 1.]

§ 10603. [8787.] To Keep General Indices.

Every auditor must keep a general index, direct and inverted. The direct index shall be divided into seven columns, and with heads to the respective columns, as follows: Time of reception, grantor, grantee, nature of instrument, volume and page where recorded, remarks, description of property. He shall correctly enter in such index every instrument concerning or affecting real estate which by law is required to be recorded, the names of grantors being in alphabetical order. The inverted index shall also be divided into seven columns, precisely similar, except that "grantee" shall occupy the second column and "grantor" the third, the name of grantees being [in] alphabetical order. For the purposes of this act, the term "grantor" shall be construed to mean any person conveying or encumbering the title to any property, or any person against whom any lis pendens, judgment, notice of lien, order of sale, execution, writ of attachment, or claims of separate or community property shall be placed on record. He shall also keep a well-bound book in which shall be platted all maps of towns, villages, or additions to the same within the county, together with the description, legend, acknowledgment or other writing thereon. He shall keep an index to such book of plats, which shall contain the name of the town, village, or addition. He shall also enter in the general index above referred to, the name of the party or parties platting such town, village, or addition, in the column prescribed for "grantors," describing the grantee in such case as the "public": Provided, that the auditor shall not receive or record any such plat or map until the same shall have been approved by the mayor and common council of the municipality in which the property so platted be situated, or if such property be not situated within any municipal corporation, then such plat must be first approved by the board of county commissioners of such county: Provided further, that the auditor shall not receive for record any plat, map or subdivision of land bearing a name the same or similar to the name of any map or plat already on record in his office. [L. '69, p. 314, § 24; Cd. '81, § 2728; 1 H. C., § 200; L. '93, p. 285, § 12.]

Under this section, requiring a record of plats, and under section 6398, giving the county board general supervision over county roads in the county, and imposing the duty to open roads necessary for public convenience, the approval and filing of a plat does not cast upon the county the duty of keeping open every highway dedicated by the plat; but before such duty devolves upon the county, it must have invited the public to use such highway: Tait v. King County, 85 Wash. 491, 148 Pac. 586.

An index of a record of a deed giving the description as parts of lots 5 and 6 is a sufficient compliance with this section to put a purchaser on inquiry as to a building restriction in the deed: Jones v. Berg, 105 Wash. 69, 177 Pac. 712.

§ 10604. [8788.] Satisfaction of Instruments.

Whenever any mortgage, bond, lien or instrument encumbering real estate has been satisfied, released, or discharged, whether by written release across the record or upon the margin thereof, or by the recording of an instrument of release, or acknowledgment of satisfaction, the auditor shall immediately note in both the indices, in the column headed "remarks," opposite to the appropriate entry, that such instrument, lien, or encumbrance has been satisfied. And in all cases of the satisfaction or release of any recorded lien, mortgage, transcript of judgment, mechanic's lien, registered taxes, or other encumbrance whatsoever, the auditor shall enter, with red ink, across the record of the instrument creating or evidencing such lien or encumbrance, the word "satisfied," with the day of the date of such satisfaction or release, and note the same in index of transcripts of judgment. [Cf. L. '69, p. 315, § 25; Cd. '81, § 2729; 1 H. C., § 201.]

See supra, § 3787, satisfaction of chattel mortgages.

§ 10605. [8789.] To Record Certified Copies of Final Judgments—Notice.

The auditor must file and record, with the record of deeds, grants, and transfers, certified copies of final judgments or decrees partitioning or affecting the title or possession of real property, any part of which is situated in the county of which he is recorder. Every such certified copy or partition, from the time of filing the same with the auditor for record, imparts notice to all persons of the contents thereof, and subsequent purchasers, mortgagees, and lienholders, purchase and take with like notice and effect as if such copy or decree was a duly recorded deed, grant, or transfer. [Cd. '81, § 2730; 1 H. C., § 202.]

See supra, § 445, lien of judgment.

§ 10606. [8790.] Indorsement of Time Instrument Received for Record.

When any instrument, paper, or notice, authorized by law to be recorded, is deposited in the county auditor's office for record, that officer must indorse upon the same the time when it was received, noting the year, month, day, hour, and minute of its reception, and must record the same without delay, together with the acknowledgments, proofs, and certificates written upon or annexed to the same, with the plats, surveys, schedule and other papers thereto annexed, in the order and as of the time when the same was received for record, and must note at the foot of the record the exact time of its reception, and the name of the person at whose request it was recorded. [Cf. L. '69, p. 313, § 19; Cd. '81, § 2731; 1 H. C., § 203.]

Laws of 1886, page 162, § 1, attempted amendment void for defective title.

§ 10607. [8791.] Further Indorsements.

He must also indorse upon such instrument, paper, or notice, the time when, and the book and page in which, it is recorded, and must thereafter deliver it, upon request, to the party leaving the same for record, or to his order. [Cd. '81, § 2732; 1 H. C., § 204.]

§ 10608. [8792.] To Search Records and Furnish Certificate, When.

The auditor must, upon the application of any person, and upon the payment or tender of the fees therefor, make searches for conveyance, mortgages, and all other instruments, papers, or notices recorded or filed in his office, and furnish a certificate thereof, stating the names of the parties to such instruments, papers, and notices, the dates thereof, the year, month, day, hour, and minute they were recorded or filed, the extent to which they purport to affect the property to which they relate, and the book and pages where they are recorded. [Cd. '81, § 2733; 1 H. C., § 205.]

Cited in 37 Wash. 622, 623.

This and the next section were not intended to make the county auditor a public abstractor to the extent of requiring him to make a complete list of all transfers affecting particular tracts, and the keeping of "tract indices" is not justified by said statute: Dirks v. Collin, 37 Wash. 620, 79 Pac. 1112.

Neglect of recording officer with regard to recordation as affecting operation of instrument. 4 Ann. Cas. 561; Ann. Cas. 1913B, 69.

§ 10609. [8793.] Liability for Neglect of Duty.

If any county auditor to whom an instrument, proved or acknowledged according to law, or any paper or notice which may by law be recorded, is delivered for record:

1. Neglects or refuses to record such instrument, paper, or notice within a reasonable time after receiving the same; or
2. Records any instruments, papers, or notices untruly, or in any other manner than as hereinbefore directed; or
3. Neglects or refuses to keep in his office such indexes as are required by this chapter, or to make the proper entries therein; or
4. Neglects or refuses to make the searches and to give the certificate required by this chapter; or if such searches or certificate are incomplete and defective in any important particular affecting the property in respect to which the search is requested; or
5. Alters, changes, or obliterates any records deposited in his office, or inserts any new matter therein,—

He is liable to the party aggrieved for the amount of damage which may be occasioned thereby. [Cd. '81, § 2734; 1 H. C., § 206.]

§ 10610. [8794.] Fees to be Paid in Advance.

Said county auditor is not bound to record any instrument, or file any paper or notice, or furnish any copies, or to render any service connected with his office, until his fees for the same, as prescribed by law, are, if demanded, paid or tendered. [Cd. '81, § 2735; 1 H. C., § 207.]

See supra, § 4105, fees of county auditors.

§ 10611. [8795.] Duties of Auditor as Custodian.

The county auditor, in his capacity of recorder of deeds, is sole custodian of all books in which are recorded deeds, mortgages, judgments, liens, encumbrances, and other instruments of writing, indexes thereto, maps, charts, town plats, survey, and other books and papers constituting the records and files in said office of recorder of deeds; and all such records and files are and shall be matters of public information, free of charge to any and all persons demanding to inspect or to examine the same, or to search the same for titles of property. It is said recorder's duty to arrange in suitable places the indexes of said books of record, and when practicable, the record books themselves, to the end that the same may be accessible to the public, and convenient for said public inspection, examination, and search, and not interfere with the said auditor's personal control and responsibility for the same, or prevent him from promptly furnishing the said records and files of his said office to persons demanding any information from the same. The said auditor or recorder must and shall, upon demand and without charge, freely permit any and all persons, during reasonable office hours, to inspect, examine, and search any or all of the records and files of his said office, and to gather any information therefrom, and to make any desired notes or memoranda about or concerning the same, and to prepare an abstract or abstracts of title to any and all property therein contained. [Cd. '81, § 2736; L. '83, p. 34, § 1; L. '86, p. 163, § 1; 1 H. C., § 208.]

§ 10612. [8796.] Certified Copies as Evidence.

Copies of all deeds or other instruments of writing, maps, documents, and papers, which by law are to be filed or recorded in the office of the county auditor, and all transcripts or exemplifications of the records of the proceedings of the board of county commissioners, certified by said auditor under official seal, shall be admitted as prima facie evidence in all the courts of this state. [L. '69, p. 315, § 27; Cd. '81, § 2737; 1 H. C., § 209.]

See supra, § 1260, certified copies of instruments as evidence.

§ 10613. [8797.] Recording Land Office Receipts.

Every cash or final receipt from any receiver, and every cash or final certificate from any register of the United States land office, evidencing that final payment has been made to the United States as required by law, or that the person named in such certificate is entitled, on presentation thereof, to a patent from the United States for land within the state of Washington, shall be recorded by the county auditor of the county wherein such land lies, on request of any party presenting the same, and any record heretofore made of any such cash or final receipt or certificate shall, from the date when this act becomes a law, and every record hereafter made of any such receipt or certificate shall, from the date of recording, impart to third persons and all the world full notice of all the rights and equities of the person named in said cash or final receipt or certificate, in the land described in such receipt or certificate. [L. '90, p. 92, § 1; 1 H. C., § 2940.]

See supra, § 10601, recording instruments generally.

CHAPTER V.

SATISFACTION AND ASSIGNMENTS OF MORTGAGES.

§ 10614. [8798.] Mortgages, How Satisfied of Record.

Whenever the amount due on any mortgage is paid, the mortgagee, his legal representatives or assigns, shall, at the request of any person interested in the property mortgaged, acknowledge satisfaction of the same on the margin of the page upon which the mortgage is recorded (which marginal satisfaction shall be at the time attested by the auditor or his deputy), or by executing an instrument in writing referring to the mortgage by the volume and page of the record or otherwise sufficiently describing it and acknowledging satisfaction in full thereof. Said instrument shall be duly acknowledged, and upon request shall be recorded in the county wherein the mortgaged property is situated. Every instrument of writing heretofore recorded and purporting to be a satisfaction of mortgage, which sufficiently describes the mortgage which it purports to satisfy so that the same may be readily identified; and which has been duly acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments or oaths, is hereby declared legal and valid, and a certified copy of the record thereof is hereby constituted prima facie evidence of such satisfaction. [L. '86, p. 116, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1660; L. '01, p. 64, § 1.]

Satisfaction of chattel mortgage: see supra, § 3787.

Cited in 73 Wash. 573, 595.

§ 10615. [8799.] Failure to Satisfy—Penalty.

If the mortgagee shall fail so to do after sixty days from the date of such request or demand, he shall forfeit and pay to the mortgagor the sum of twenty-five dollars, to be recovered in any court having competent jurisdiction, and said court, when convinced that said mortgage has been fully satisfied, shall issue an order in writing, directing the auditor to cancel said mortgage, and the auditor shall immediately record the order and cancel the mortgage as directed by the court, upon the margin of the page upon which the mortgage is recorded, making reference thereupon to the order of the court and to the page where the order is recorded. [L. '86, p. 117, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1661.]

Cited in 69 Wash. 8; 94 Wash. 263, 267.

This section does not give a new right of action, but is merely a substitution of a penalty in the way of damages for the general relief allowed in equity, and affects the measure of damages only:

Morrill v. Title Guaranty & Surety Co., 94 Wash. 258, 162 Pac. 360, 163 Pac. 733.

Where the facts show a mortgagor entitled to recover the $25 penalty provided by this section, the assessment of the damages is a matter of law for the court without testimony: Morrill v. Title Guaranty & Surety Co., 94 Wash. 258, 162 Pac. 360, 163 Pac. 733.

Where a cross-complaint against a mortgagee for wrongfully withholding a discharge of a satisfied mortgage sets forth all the facts necessary for a recovery of the penalty provided by this section, but asks judgment for the loss sustained by reason of a depreciation in the value of the property, thus mistaking the measure of damages, it is not a departure to treat the cross-complaint as amended and give judgment for the penalty, although the statute was not pleaded: Morrill v. Title Guaranty & Surety Co., 94 Wash. 258, 162 Pac. 360, 163 Pac. 733.

Where property was conveyed to a surety company by a trust deed as security for going upon a contractor's bond, and after completion of the work the surety company refused to redeed the property until its value had depreciated, the right of the grantor to recover for the loss by depreciation is limited to the sum of $25 by this section; since the effect of the statute is to substitute remedies and the same is intended as compensation to the mortgagor as well as a punishment to the mortgagee, and is not strictly a penalty: Morrill v. Title Guaranty & Surety Co., 94 Wash. 258, 162 Pac. 360, 163 Pac. 733.

§ 10616. [8800.] Assignee of Mortgage may Record Deed of Assignment.

Any person to whom any real estate or chattel mortgage is given, or the assignee of any such mortgage, may, by an instrument in writing, by him signed and acknowledged in the manner provided by law entitling mortgages to be recorded, assign the same to the person therein named as assignee, and any person to whom any such mortgage has been so assigned, may, after the assignment has been recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein such mortgage is of record, acknowledge satisfaction of the mortgage, and discharge the same of record. [L. '97, p. 23, § 1.]

Cited in 25 Wash. 513; 47 Wash. 471; 53 Wash. 100; 66 Wash. 614.

This section authorizes the record of assignments of mortgages, and thereunder and section 10596 subsequent bona fide encumbrancers may rely upon an unauthorized satisfaction by an original mortgagee whose assignee had failed to record his assignment: Seattle National Bank v. Ally, 66 Wash. 610, 120 Pac. 94.

An abstract shows a marketable title, notwithstanding reference to an unreleased mortgage, where it appears from the abstract that the mortgage had been assigned to one R., who subsequently obtained the full title and conveyed with full covenants, there being at the time no other outstanding lien and no record of any assignment of the mortgage pursuant to this and the next section; since a merger of the mortgage was shown: Summy v. Ramsey, 53 Wash. 93, 101 Pac. 506.

Under this section the purchaser of the property may rely on a satisfaction, without requiring production of the negotiable paper which the mortgage secured: Christenson v. Raggio, 47 Wash. 468, 92 Pac. 348.

Application of recording acts to assignment of mortgages. 5 Ann. Cas. 339; Ann. Cas. 1914C, 753.

§ 10617. [8801.] Former Satisfactions by Assignees Validated in Certain Cases.

All satisfaction of mortgages heretofore made by the assignees thereof, where the assignment was in writing, signed by the mortgagee or assignee, and where the same was recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein the mortgage was recorded, are hereby validated, and such satisfaction of mortgages so made shall have the same effect as if made by the mortgagees in such mortgages. [L. '97, p. 23, § 2.]

LEASES.

§ 10618. [8802.] Tenancy from Year to Year Abolished—Exception.

Tenancies from year to year are hereby abolished, except when the same are created by express written contract. Leases may be in writing or print, or partly in writing and partly in print, and shall be legal and valid for any term or period not exceeding one year, without acknowledgment, witnesses, or seals. § 7. Parol Lettings and Contracts: Richards v. Redelsheimer, 36 Wash. 325, 78 Pac. 934.

This section providing that leases may be in writing or print and shall be valid for any term not exceeding one year without acknowledgment, witnesses, or seal, has no application to an oral lease, which can be sustained only as a lease from month to month: Armstrong v. Burkett, 104 Wash. 476, 177 Pac. 333.

The mere possession, payment of rent, building up and conducting of a business in the usual way for the sole benefit of the tenant, does not make an oral lease good for a definite term, on the theory of estoppel, without some further benefit to the landlord or injustice to the tenant: Armstrong v. Burkett, 104 Wash. 476, 177 Pac. 333.

A lease for one year, although executed within the month prior to its taking effect, is not a lease for more than one year, within this section, requiring such leases to be acknowledged: Pappas v. General Market Co., 104 Wash. 116, 176 Pac. 25.

A farm lease vested an undivided half interest in hogs shipped for sale in each of the parties, where it provided that each is to have one-half of the proceeds of the sale when any of the hogs or their increase are sold: Klundt v. Bachtold, 110 Wash. 594, 188 Pac. 924.

CHAPTER VII.

REGISTRATION OF LAND TITLES.

§ 10622. [8806.] Application by Whom Made—Agents—Corporations—Person Under Disability.

The owner of any estate or interest in land, whether legal or equitable, except unpatented land, may apply as hereinafter provided to have the title of said land registered. The application may be made by the applicant personally, or by an agent thereunto lawfully authorized in writing, which authority shall be executed and acknowledged in the same manner and form as is now required as to a deed, and shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor in the county in which the land, or the major portion thereof, is situated before the making of the application by such agent. A corporation may apply by its authorized agent, and an infant or any other person under disability by his legal guardian. Joint tenants and tenants in common shall join in the application. The person in whose behalf the application is made shall be named as applicant. [L. '07, p. 693, § 1.]

§ 10623. [8807.] Lesser Estates—When Registered—Noted on Certificate of Title.

It shall not be an objection to bringing land under this chapter, that the estate or interest of the applicant is subject to any outstanding lesser estate, mortgage, lien or charge; but no mortgage, lien, charge or lesser estate than a fee simple shall be registered unless the estate in fee simple to the same land is registered; and every such lesser estate, mortgage, lien or charge shall be noted upon the certificate of title and the duplicate thereof, and the title or interest certified shall be subject only to such estates, mortgages, liens and charges as are so noted, except as herein provided. [L. '07, p. 693, § 2.]

Cited in 92 Wash. 414; 96 Wash. 277.

§ 10624. [8808.] Conditions Precedent — Adjudication or Possession — Vacant Lands.

No title derived through sale for any tax or assessment, or special assessment, shall be entitled to be registered, unless it shall be made to appear that the title of the applicant, or those through whom he claims title has been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction, and a decree of such court duly made and recorded, decreeing the title of the applicant, or that the applicant or those through whom he claims title have been in the actual and undisputed possession of the land under such title at least seven years, immediately prior to the application, and shall have paid all taxes and assessments legally levied thereon during said time; unless the same is vacant and unoccupied lands or lots, in which case, where title is derived through sale for any tax or assessment or special assessment for any such vacant and unoccupied lands or lots, and the applicant, or those through whom he claims title, shall have paid all taxes and assessments legally levied thereon for eight successive years immediately prior to the application, in which case such lands and lots shall be entitled to be registered as other lands provided for by this section. [L. '07, p. 694, § 3.]

§ 10625. [8809.] Application—Contents of.

The application shall be in writing and shall be signed and verified by the oath of the applicant, or the person acting in his behalf. It shall set forth substantially:

(a.) The name and place of residence of the applicant, and if the application is by one acting in behalf of another, the name and place of residence and capacity of the person so acting.

(b.) Whether the applicant (except in the case of a corporation) is married or not, and, if married, the name and residence of the husband or wife, and the age of the applicant.

(c.) The description of the land and the assessed value thereof, exclusive of improvements, according to the last official assessment, the same to be taken as a basis for the payments required under section 10711 and subdivision A of section 10724.

(d.) The applicant's estate or interest in the same, and whether the same is subject to homestead exemption.

(e.) The names of all persons or parties who appear of record to have any title, claim, estate, lien or interest in the lands described in the application for registration.

(f.) Whether the land is occupied or unoccupied, and if occupied by any other person than the applicant, the name and postoffice address of each occupant, and what estate he has or claims in the land.

(g.) Whether the land is subject to any lien or encumbrance, and if any, give the nature and amount of the same, and if recorded, the book and page of record; also give the name and postoffice address of each holder thereof.

(h.) Whether any other person has any estate or claims any interest in the land, in law or equity, in possession, remainder, reversion or expectancy, and if any, set forth the name and postoffice address of every such person and the nature of his estate or claim.

(i.) In case it is desired to settle or establish boundary lines, the names and postoffice addresses of all the owners of the adjoining lands that may be affected thereby, as far as he is able, upon diligent inquiry, to ascertain the same.

(j.) If the application is on behalf of a minor, the age of such minor shall be stated.

(k.) When the place of residence of any person whose residence is required to be given is unknown, it may be so stated if the applicant will also state that upon diligent inquiry he had been unable to ascertain the same. [L. '07, p. 694, § 4.]

Subdivision C of this section as enrolled refers to §§ "83" and "96" of this act, where "82" and "95" were clearly intended; accordingly §§ 10711 and 10724 are substituted in this code, which see.

§ 10629. [8813.] To What Court—Powers of Court.

The application for registration shall be made to the superior court of the state of Washington in and for the county wherein the land is situated. Said court shall have power to inquire into the condition of the title to and any interest in the land and any lien or encumbrance thereon, and to make all orders, judgments and decrees as may be necessary to determine, establish and declare the title or interest, legal or equitable, as against all persons, known, or unknown, and all liens and encumbrances existing thereon, whether by law, contract, judgment, mortgage, trust deed or otherwise, and to declare the order, priority and preference as between the same, and to remove all clouds from the title. [L. '07, p. 698, § 8.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 180.

§ 10630. [8814.] Who Registrars of Titles—Deputies—Rules.

The county auditors of the several counties of this state shall be registrars of titles in their respective counties; and their deputies shall be deputy registrars. All acts performed by registrars and deputy registrars under this law shall be performed under rules and instructions established and given by the superior court having jurisdiction of the county in which they act. [L. '07, p. 698, § 9.]

§ 10631. [8815.] Bond—Filing.

Every county auditor shall, before entering upon his duties as registrar of titles, give a bond with sufficient sureties, to be approved by a judge of the superior court of the state of Washington in and for his county, payable to the state of Washington, in such sum as shall be fixed by the said judge of the superior court, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties, and to deliver up all papers, books, records and other property belonging to the county or appertaining to his office as registrar of titles, whole, safe and undefaced, when lawfully required so to do; said bond shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and a copy thereof shall be filed and entered upon the records of the superior court in the county wherein the county auditor shall hold office. [L. '07, p. 698, § 10.]

§ 10632. [8816.] Duties of Deputy—Vacancy—Bond.

Deputy registrars shall perform any and all duties of the registrar in the name of the registrar, and the acts of such deputies shall be held to be the acts of the registrar, and in the case of the death of the registrar or his removal from office, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as is provided by law for filling such vacancy in the office of the county auditor. The person so appointed to fill such vacancy shall file a bond and be vested with the same powers as the registrar whose office he is appointed to fill. [L. '07, p. 699, § 11.]

§ 10633. [8817.] Registrar may not Practice—Neglect of Duty, Liability for.

No registrar or deputy registrar shall practice as an attorney or counselor at law, nor prepare any papers in any proceeding herein provided for, nor while in the office be in partnership with any attorney or counselor at law so practicing. The registrar shall be liable for any neglect or omission of the duties of his office when occasioned by a deputy registrar, in the same manner as for his own personal neglect or omission. [L. '07, p. 699, § 12.]

§ 10634. [8818.] Examiner of Titles—Appointment—Salary.

The judges of the superior court in and for the state of Washington for the counties for which they were elected or appointed shall appoint a competent attorney in each county to be examiner of titles and legal adviser of the registrar. The examiner of titles in each county shall be paid in each case by the applicant such compensation as the judge of the superior court of the state of Washington in and for that county shall determine. Every examiner of titles shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe an oath of office to faithfully and impartially perform the duties of his office, and shall also give a bond in such amount and with such sureties as shall be approved by the judge of the said superior court, payable in like manner and with like conditions as required of the registrar. A copy of the bond shall be entered upon the records of said court and the original shall be filed with the registrar. [L. '07, p. § 699, § 13.]

§ 10635. [8819.] Nonresidents to Appoint Agent—Service of Process.

If the applicant is not a resident of the state of Washington, he shall file with his application a paper, duly acknowledged, appointing an agent residing in this state, giving his name in full and postoffice address, and shall therein agree that the service of any legal process in proceedings under or growing out of the application shall be of the same legal effect when made on said agent as if made on the applicant within this state. If the agent so appointed dies or removes from the state, the applicant shall at once make another appointment in like manner, and if he fails so to do, the court may dismiss the application. [L. '07, p. 700, § 14.]

§ 10636. [8820.] Application — Filing — Service — Caption — Docket and Record Entries.

The application shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court to which the application is made and in case of personal service a true copy thereof shall be served with the summons, and the clerk shall docket the case in a book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be known as the "Land registration docket." The record entry of the application shall be entitled (name of applicant), plaintiff, against (here insert the names of all persons named in the application as being in possession of the premises, or as having any lien, encumbrance, right, title or interest in the land, and the names of all persons who shall be found by the report of the examiner hereinafter provided for to be in possession or to have any lien, encumbrance, right, title or interest in the land), also all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate described in the application herein, defendants.

All orders, judgments and decrees of the court in the case shall be appropriately entered in such docket. All final orders or decrees shall be recorded, and proper reference made thereto in such docket. [L. '07, p. 700, § 15.]

§ 10637. [8821.] Must File Certified Abstract of Title.

The applicant shall also file with the said clerk, at the time the application is made, an abstract of title such as is now commonly used, prepared and certified to by the county auditor of the county, or a person, firm or corporation regularly engaged in the abstract business, and having satisfied the said superior court that they have a complete set of abstract books and are in existence and doing business at the time of the filing of the application under this chapter. [L. '07, p. 701, § 15a.]

§ 10638. [8822.] Copy of Application, a Lis Pendens.

At the time of the filing of the application in the office of the clerk of the court, a copy thereof, certified by the clerk, shall be filed (but need not be recorded) in the office of the county auditor, and shall have the force and effect of a lis pendens. [L. '07, p. 701, § 16.]

§ 10639. [8823.] Examination of Title—Adverse Opinion—Election to Withdraw or Proceed.

Immediately after the filing of the abstract of title, the court shall enter an order referring the application to an examiner of titles, who shall proceed to examine into the title and into the truth of the matters set forth in the application, and particularly whether the land is occupied, the nature of the occupation, if occupied, and by what right, and also as to all judgments against the applicant or through whom he claims title, which may be a lien upon the lands described in the application; he shall search the records and investigate all the facts brought to his notice, and file in the case a report thereon, including a certificate of his opinion upon the title. The clerk of the court shall thereupon give notice to the applicant of the filing of such report. If the opinion of the examiner is adverse to the applicant, he shall be allowed by the court a reasonable time in which to elect to proceed further, or to withdraw his application. The election shall be made in writing, and filed with the clerk of the court. [L. '07, p. 701, § 17.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 181.

§ 10640. [8824.] Title Good or Elects to Proceed—Summons Issued.

If, in the opinion of the examiner, the applicant has a title, as alleged, and proper for registration, or if the applicant after an adverse opinion of the examiner, elects to proceed further, the clerk of the court shall, immediately upon the filing of the examiner's opinion or the applicant's election, as the case may be, issue a summons substantially, in the form hereinafter provided. The summons shall be issued by the order of the court and attested by the clerk of the court. [L. '07, p. 702, § 18.]

§ 10641. [8825.] Plaintiffs—Defendants.

The applicant shall be known in the summons as the plaintiff. All persons named in the application or found by the report of the examiner as being in possession of the premises or as having of record any lien, encumbrance, right, title, or interest in the land, and all other persons who shall be designated as follows, viz.: "All other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in, to, or upon the real estate described in the application herein," shall be and shall be known as defendants. [L. '07, p. 702, § 19.]

§ 10642. [8826.] Service of Summons—Publication.

The summons shall be directed to the defendants and require them to appear and answer the application within twenty days after the service of the summons, exclusive of the day of service; and said summons shall be served as is now provided for the service of summons in civil actions in the superior court in this state, except as herein otherwise provided. The summons shall be served upon nonresident defendants and upon "all such unknown persons or parties," defendant, by publishing said summons in a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the county where the application is filed, once in each week for three consecutive weeks, and such service by publication shall be deemed complete at the end of the twenty-first day from and including the first publication, provided that if any named defendant assents in writing to the registration as prayed for, which assent shall be indorsed upon the application or filed therewith and be duly witnessed and acknowledged, then in all such cases no service of summons upon said defendant shall be necessary. [L. '07, p. 702, § 20.]

§ 10643. [8227.] Clerk to Mail Copy—Further Notice—Expense and Proof of Service.

The clerk of the court shall also, on or before twenty days after the first publication, send a copy thereof by mail to such defendants who are not residents of the state whose place of address is known or stated in the application, and whose appearance is not entered and who are not in person served with the summons. The certificate of the clerk that he has sent such notice, in pursuance of this section, shall be conclusive evidence thereof. Other or further notice of the application for registration may be given in such manner and to such persons as the court or any judge thereof may direct. The summons shall be served at the expense of the applicant, and proof of the service thereof shall be made as proof of service is now made in other civil actions. [L. '07, p. 703, § 20a.]

§ 10644. [8828.] Form of Summons.

The summons provided for in section 10642 hereof shall be in substance in the form following, to wit:

SUMMONS ON APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OF LAND.

State of Washington, }
County of —, } ss.

In the Superior Court of the State of Washington in and for the County of —. (Name of applicant), plaintiff, —, versus — (names of all defendants), and all other persons or parties unknown, claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in the real estate, described in the application herein — defendants.

The State of Washington to the above-named defendants, greeting:

You are hereby summoned and required to answer the application of the applicant plaintiff in the above-entitled application for registration of the following land situate in — county, Washington, to wit: (Description of land), and to file your answer to the said application in the office of the clerk of said court, in said county, within twenty days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service; and if you fail to answer the said application within the time aforesaid, the applicant plaintiff in this action will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the application herein.

Witness, —, clerk of said court and the seal thereof, at —, in said county and state, this — day of —, A. D. 19—.

(Seal.) — —, Clerk.

§ 10645. [8829.] Guardian Ad Litem for Minors and Others—Compensation.

The court shall appoint a disinterested person to act as guardian ad litem for minors and other persons under disability, and for all other persons not in being who may appear to have an interest in the land. The compensation of the said guardian shall be determined by the court, and paid as a part of the expense of the proceeding. [L. '07, p. 704, § 21.]

Cited in 102 Wash. 399.

§ 10646. [8830.] Who may Appear and Answer—Contents of Answer.

Any person claiming an interest, whether named in the summons or not, may appear and file an answer within the time named in the summons, or within such further time as may be allowed by the court. The answer shall state all objections to the application, and shall set forth the interests claimed by the party filing the same, and shall be signed and sworn to by him or by some person in his behalf. [L. '07, p. 704, § 22.]

§ 10647. [8831.] Judgment by Default—Examiner's Report not Conclusive.

If no person appears and answers within the time named in the summons, or allowed by the court, the court may at once, upon the motion of the applicant, no reason to the contrary appearing, upon satisfactory proof of the applicant's right thereto, make its order and decree confirming the title of the applicant and ordering registration of the same. By the description in the summons, "all other persons unknown, claiming any right, title, lien, or interest in, to, or upon the real estate described in the application herein," all the world are made parties defendant, and shall be concluded by the default, order and decree. The court shall not be bound by the report of the examiners of title, but may require other or further proof. [L. '07, p. 704, § 23.]

§ 10648. [8832.] Cause Set for Trial—Default—Referee and His Powers.

If, in any case an appearance is entered and answer filed, the cause shall be set down for hearing on motion of either party, but a default and order shall first be entered against all persons who do not appear and answer in the manner provided in the preceding section. The court may refer the cause or any part thereof to one of the examiners of title, as referee, to hear the parties and their evidence, and make report thereon to the court. His report shall have the same force and effect as that of a referee appointed by the said superior court under the laws of this state now in force, and relating to the appointment, duties and powers of referees. [L. '07, p. 705, § 24.]

§ 10649. [8833.] Court Order Further Proof.

The court may order such other or further hearing of the cause before the court or before the examiner of titles after the filing of the report of the examiner, referred to in the last preceding section, and require such other and further proof by either of the parties to the cause as to the court shall seem meet and proper. [L. '07, p. 705, § 25.]

§ 10650. [8834.] Application Dismissed When Title not Proper for Registration.

If, in any case, after hearing, the court finds that the applicant has not title proper for registration, a decree shall be entered dismissing the application, and such decree may be ordered to be without prejudice. The applicant may dismiss his application at any time, before the final decree, upon such terms as may be fixed by the court, and upon motion to dismiss duly made by the court. [L. '07, p. 705, § 26.]

Cited in 66 Wash. 181, 182; 92 Wash. 414.

Under this section the superior court has no jurisdiction to try out conflicting titles and refuse the applicant a dismissal without prejudice, in a special proceeding to register land titles under the Torrens Act, in view of sections 10625 and 10639, supra: Krutz v. Dodge, 66 Wash. 178, 119 Pac. 188, Ann. Cas. 1913C, 869.

§ 10651. [8835.] Effect of Decree When Title Proper—Appeal.

If the court, after hearing, finds that the applicant has title, whether as stated in his application or otherwise, proper for registration, a decree of confirmation of title and registration shall be entered. Every decree of registration shall bind the land, and quiet the title thereto, except as herein otherwise provided, and shall be forever binding and conclusive upon all persons, whether mentioned by name in the application, or included in "all other persons or parties unknown claiming any right, title, estate, lien or interest in, to, or upon the real estate described in the application herein," and such decree shall not be opened by reason of the absence, infancy or other disability of any person affected thereby, nor by any proceeding at law, or in equity, for reversing judgments or decrees, except as herein especially provided. An appeal may be taken to the supreme court of the state of Washington, within the same time, upon like notice, terms and conditions as are now provided for the taking of appeals from the superior court to the supreme court of the state of Washington in civil actions. [L. '07, p. 706, § 27.]

§ 10652. [8836.] Rights of Persons not Served.

Any person having an interest in or lien upon the land who has not been actually served with process or notified of the filing of the application or the pendency thereof, may at any time within ninety days after the entry of such decree, and not afterward, appear and file his sworn answer to such application in like manner as hereinbefore prescribed for making answer: Provided, however, that such person had no actual notice or information of the filing of such application or the pendency of the proceedings during the pendency thereof, or until within three months of the time of the filing of such answer, which facts shall be made to appear before answering by the affidavit of the person answering or the affidavit of someone in his behalf having knowledge of the facts, and provided, also, that no innocent purchaser for value has acquired an interest. If there is any such purchaser, the decree of registration shall not be opened, but shall remain in full force and effect forever, subject only to the right of appeal hereinbefore provided; but any person aggrieved by such decree in any case may pursue his remedy by suit in the nature of an action of tort against the applicant or any other person for fraud in procuring the decree; and may also bring his action for indemnity as hereinafter provided. Upon the filing of such answer, and not less than ten days' notice having been given to the applicant, and to such other interested parties as the court may order in such manner as shall be directed by the court, the court shall proceed to review the case, and if the court is satisfied that the order or decree ought to be opened, an order shall be entered to that effect, and the court shall proceed to review the proceedings, and shall make such order in the case as shall be equitable in the premises. An appeal may be allowed in this case, as well as from all other decrees affecting any registered title within a like time, and in a like manner, as in the case of an original decree under this act, and not otherwise. [L. '07, p. 706, § 28.]

§ 10653. [8837.] Limitation of Actions.

No person shall commence any proceeding for the recovery of lands or any interest, right, lien or demand therein or upon the same adverse to the title or interest as found, or decreed in the decree of registration, unless within ninety days after the entry of the order or decree; and this section shall be construed as giving such right of action to such person only as shall not because of some irregularity, insufficiency, or for some other cause, be bound and concluded by such order or decree. [L. '07, p. 707, § 29.]

§ 10654. [8838.] Title Free from Encumbrances—Exceptions.

Every person receiving a certificate of title in pursuance of a decree of registration, and every subsequent purchaser of registered land who takes a certificate of title for value and in good faith, shall hold the same free from all encumbrances except only such estates, mortgages, liens, charges and interests as may be noted in the last certificate of title in the registrar's office, and except any of the following rights or encumbrances subsisting, namely:

First. Any existing lease for a period not exceeding three years, when there is actual occupation of the premises under the lease.

Second. All public highways embraced in the description of the land included in the certificates shall be deemed to be excluded from the certificate. And any subsisting right of way or other easement, for ditches or water rights, upon, over or in respect to the land.

Third. Any tax or special assessment for which a sale of the land has not been had at the date of the certificate of title.

Fourth. Such right of appeal, or right to appear and contest the application, as is allowed by this act. And,

Fifth. Liens, claims or rights, if any, arising or existing under the Constitution or laws of the United States, and which the statutes of this state cannot or do not require to appear of record in the office of the county clerk and county auditor. [L. '07, p. 707, § 30.]

Cited in 65 Wash. 689.

§ 10655. [8839.] Decree—Form and Contents—Filing.

Every decree of registration shall bear the date of the year, day, hour and minute of its entry, and shall be signed by the judge of the superior court of the state of Washington in and for the county in which the land is situated; it shall state whether the owner is married or unmarried, and if married, the name of the husband or wife; if the owner is under disability it shall state the nature of the disability, and if a minor, shall state his age. It shall contain a description of the land as finally determined by the court, and shall set forth the estate of the owner, and also in such manner as to show their relative priority, all particular estates, mortgages, easements, liens, attachments, homesteads and other encumbrances, including rights of husband and wife, if any, to which the land or the owner's estate is subject, and shall contain any other matter or information properly to be determined by the court in pursuance of this act. The decree shall be stated in a convenient form for transcription upon the certificate of title, to be made as hereinafter provided by the registrar of titles. Immediately upon the filing of the decree of registration, the clerk shall file a certified copy thereof in the office of the registrar of titles. [L. '07, p. 708, § 31.]

§ 10656. [8840.] Interest Acquired After Filing—Must Appear as Defendant.

Any person who shall take by conveyance, attachment, judgment, lien or otherwise any right, title or interest in the land, subsequent to the filing of a copy of the application for registration in the office of the county auditor, shall at once appear and answer as a party defendant in the proceeding for registration, and the right, title or interest of such person shall be subject to the order or decree of the court. [L. '07, p. 709, § 32.]

§ 10657. [8841.*] Land must Remain Registered Unless Withdrawn.

The obtaining of a decree of registration and receiving of a certificate of title shall be deemed an agreement running with the land and binding upon the applicant and the successors in title, that the land shall be and forever remain registered land, subject to the provisions of this chapter and of all acts amendatory thereof, unless the same shall be withdrawn from registration in the manner hereinafter provided. All dealings with the land or any estate or interest therein after the same has been brought under this chapter, and all liens, encumbrances, and charges upon the same shall be made only subject to the terms of this chapter, so long as said land shall remain registered land and until the same shall be withdrawn from registration in the manner hereinafter provided. [L. '17, p. 219, § 1; L. '07, p. 709, § 33.]

Cited in 92 Wash. 413; 96 Wash. 276.

§ 10658. Withdrawal from Registration.

The owner or owners of any lands, the title to which has been or shall hereafter be registered in the manner provided by law, shall have the right to withdraw said lands from registration in the manner hereinafter provided, and after the same have been so withdrawn from registration, shall have the right to contract concerning, convey, encumber or otherwise deal with the title to said lands as freely and to the same extent and in the same manner as though the title had not been registered. [L. '17, p. 220, § 2.]

§ 10659. Application for Withdrawal.

The owner or owners of registered lands, desiring to withdraw the same from registration, shall make and file with the registrar of titles in the county in which said lands are situated, an application in substantially the following form:

To the registrar of titles in the county of —, State of Washington:

I, (or we), —, the undersigned registered owner — in fee simple of the following described real property situated in the county of —, State of Washington, to wit: (here insert the description of the property), hereby make application to have the title to said real property withdrawn from registration.

Witness my (or our) hand — and seal — this — day of —, 19—.

—, —,
Applicant's signature.

Said application shall be acknowledged in the same manner as is required for the acknowledgment of deeds. [L. '17, p. 220, § 3.]

§ 10660. Filing Fee—Registrar's Certificate of Withdrawal.

Upon the filing of such application and the payment of a fee of one dollar ($1), the registrar of titles, if it shall appear that the application is signed and acknowledged by all the registered owners of said land, shall issue to the [applicant] a certificate in substantially the following form:

This is to certify, that — the owner (or owners) in fee simple of the following described lands situated in the county of —, state of Washington, the title to which has been heretofore registered under the laws of the state of Washington, to wit: (here insert description of the property), having heretofore filed his (or their) application for the withdrawal of the title to said lands from the registry system; now, therefore, the title to said above-described lands has been withdrawn from the effect and operation of the title registry system of the state of Washington and the owner (or owners) of said lands is (or are) by law authorized to contract concerning, convey, encumber or otherwise deal with the title to said lands in the same manner and to the same extent as though said title had never been registered.

Witness my hand and seal this — day of —, 19—.

—, —,
Registrar of Titles for — County.

§ 10661. Certificate to be Recorded.

The person receiving such certificate of withdrawal shall record the same in the record of deeds in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the lands are situated and thereafter the title to said lands shall be conveyed or encumbered in the same manner as the title to lands that have not been registered. [L. '17, p. 221, § 5.]

§ 10662. Title Determined Prior to Withdrawal not Affected.

This act shall not be construed to disturb the effect of any proceedings under said registry system, wherein the question of title to said real property has been determined, but all proceedings had in connection with the registering of said title, relating to the settlement or determination of said title, prior to such withdrawal, shall have the same force and effect as if said title still remained under said registry system. [L. '17, p. 221, § 6.]

§ 10663. [8842.] Registration by Registrar.

Immediately upon the filing of the decree of registration in the office of the registrar of titles, the registrar shall proceed to register the title or interest pursuant to the terms of the decree in the manner herein provided. The registrar shall keep a book known as the "Register of titles," wherein he shall enter all first and subsequent original certificates of title by binding or recording them therein in the order of their numbers, consecutively, beginning with number one, with appropriate blanks for entry of memorials and notations allowed by this chapter. Each certificate, with such blanks, shall constitute a separate page of such book. All memorials and notations that may be entered upon the register shall be entered upon the page whereon the last certificate of title of the land to which they relate is entered. The term certificate of title used in this act shall be deemed to include all memorials and notations thereon. [L. '07, p. 709, § 34.]

§ 10664. [8843.] Certificate of Registration—Contents—Form.

The certificate of registration shall contain the name of the owner, a description of the land and of the estate of the owner, and shall by memorial or notation contain a description of all encumbrances, liens and interests to which the estate of the owner is subject; it shall state the residence of the owner and, if a minor, give his age; if under disability, it shall state the nature of the disability; it shall state whether married or not, and, if married, the name of the husband or wife; in case of a trust, condition or limitation, it shall state the trust, condition or limitation, as the case may be; and shall contain and conform in respect to all statements to the certified copy of the decree of registration filed with the registrar of titles as hereinbefore provided; and shall be in form substantially as follows:

FIRST CERTIFICATE OF TITLE.

Pursuant to order of the superior court of the state of Washington, in and for — county.

State of Washington, }
County of —, } ss.

This is to certify that A— B— of —, county of —, state of —, is now the owner of an estate (describe the estate) of, and in

(describe the land), subject to the encumbrances, liens and interests noted by the memorial underwritten or indorsed thereon, subject to the exceptions and qualifications mentioned in the thirtieth section of "An Act relating to the registration and confirmation of titles to land," in the session laws of Washington for the year 1907. (Here note all statements provided herein to appear upon the certificate.)

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the official seal of my office this — day of —, A. D. 19—.

— —, (Seal)
Registrar of Titles.

§ 10665. [8844.] Owner's Certificate—Signature.

The registrar shall, at the time that he enters his original certificate of title, make an exact duplicate thereof, but putting on it the words "Owner's duplicate certificate of ownership," and deliver the same to the owner or to his attorney duly authorized. For the purpose of preserving evidence of the signature and handwriting of the owner in his office, it shall be the duty of the registrar to take from the owner, in every case where it is practicable so to do, his receipt for the certificate of title, which shall be signed by the owner in person. Such receipt, when signed and delivered in the registrar's office, shall be witnessed by the registrar or deputy registrar. If such receipt is signed elsewhere, it shall be witnessed and acknowledged in the same manner as is now provided for the acknowledgment of deeds. When so signed, such receipt shall be prima facie evidence of the genuineness of such signature. [L. '07, p. 711, § 36.]

§ 10666. [8845.] Tenants in Common—Duplicates.

Where two or more persons are registered owners as tenants in common or otherwise, one owner's duplicate certificate can be issued for the entirety, or a separate duplicate owner's certificate may be issued to each owner for his undivided share. [L. '07, p. 711, § 37.]

§ 10667. [8846.] Subsequent Certificates.

All certificates subsequent to the first shall be in like form, except that they shall be entitled: "Transfer from No. —," (the number of the next previous certificate relating to the same land), and shall also contain the words "Originally registered on the — day of —, 19—, and entered in book — at page — of register." [L. '07, p. 711, § 38.]

§ 10668. [8847.] Issuance of Certificate When Division of Land—Union of Parcels.

A registered owner holding one duplicate certificate for several distinct parcels of land may surrender it and take out several certificates for portions thereof. A registered owner holding several duplicate certificates for several distinct parcels of land may surrender them and take out a single duplicate certificate for all of said parcels, or several certificates for different portions thereof. Such exchange of certificates, however, shall only be made by the order of the court upon petition therefor duly made by the owner. An owner of registered land who shall subdivide such land into lots, blocks or acre tracts shall file with the registrar of titles a plat of said land so subdivided, in the same manner and subject to the same rules of law and restrictions as is provided for platting land that is not registered. [L. '07, p. 712, § 39.]

§ 10669. [8848.] When Certificate Takes Effect.

The certificate of title shall relate back to and take effect as of the date of the decree of registration. [L. '07, p. 712, § 40.]

§ 10670. [8849.] Certificates as Evidence—Variance.

The original certificate in the registration book, any copy thereof duly certified under the signature of the registrar of titles or his deputy, and authenticated by his seal and also the owner's duplicate certificate shall be received as evidence in all the courts of this state, and shall be conclusive as to all matters contained therein, except so far as is otherwise provided in this chapter. In case of a variance between the owner's duplicate certificate and the original certificate, the original shall prevail. [L. '07, p. 712, § 41.]

§ 10671. [8850.] Registrar's Index—Forms Adopted by Court.

The registrar of titles, under the direction of the court, shall make and keep indexes of all duplication and of all certified copies and decrees of registration and certificates of titles, and shall also index and file in classified order all papers and instruments filed in his office relating to applications and to registered titles. The registrar shall also, under the direction of the court, prepare and keep forms of indexes and entry books. The court shall prepare and adopt convenient forms of certificates of titles, and also general forms of memorials or notations to be used by the registrars of titles in registering the common forms of conveyance and other instruments to express briefly their effect. [L. '07, p. 712, § 42.]

§ 10672. [8851.] Tract Indexes—Alphabetical Indexes.

The registrar of titles shall keep tract indexes, in which shall be entered the lands registered in the numerical order of the townships, ranges, sections, and in cases of subdivisions, the blocks and lots therein, and the names of the owners, with a reference to the volume and page of the register of titles in which the lands are registered. He shall also keep alphabetical indexes, in which shall be entered, in alphabetical order, the names of all registered owners, and all other persons interested in, or holding charges upon, or any interest in, the registered land, with a reference to the volume and page of the register of titles in which the land is registered. [L. '07, p. 713, § 43.]

§ 10673. [8852.] Dealings With Registered Land—Voluntary Conveyance, a Contract in Effect.

The owner of registered land may convey, mortgage, lease, charge or otherwise encumber, dispose of or deal with the same as fully as if it had not been registered. He may use forms of deeds, trust deeds, mortgages and leases or voluntary instruments, like those now in use, and sufficient in law for the purpose intended. But no voluntary instrument of conveyance, except a will and a lease, for a term not exceeding three years, purporting to convey or affect registered land, shall take effect as a conveyance, or bind the land; but shall operate only as a contract between the parties, and as evidence of the authority to the registrar of titles to make registration. The act of registration shall be the operative act to convey or affect the land. [L. '07, p. 713, § 44.]

One cannot be a bona fide purchaser of land registered under the Torrens Act until his conveyance is registered, although by this section and section 10654, supra, it appears that the act was for the protection of bona fide purchasers of registered land: Brace v. Superior Land Co., 65 Wash. 681, 118 Pac. 910.

Under this section the first mortgage registered takes priority over other instruments, although previously executed: Brace v. Superior Land Co., 65 Wash. 681, 118 Pac. 910.

A person who holds a prior mortgage of land registered under the Torrens Act, and who failed to have his instrument registered because unwilling to pay the taxes necessary to obtain registration, is estopped by laches from asserting a priority over one who paid the taxes to secure registration of a new mortgage, given to revive the lien of an earlier mortgage omitted from the memorial in the registration decree by mutual mistake of the parties: Brace v. Superior Land Co., 65 Wash. 681, 118 Pac. 910.

The superior court has no jurisdiction to try out conflicting titles and refuse the applicant a dismissal without prejudice, in a special proceeding to register land titles under the Torrens Act: Krutz v. Dodge, 66 Wash. 178, 119 Pac. 188, Ann. Cas. 1913C, 869.

§ 10674. [8853.] Instruments Recorded—Effect if Filed With Registrar.

Every conveyance, lien, attachment, order, decree, judgment of a court of record, or instrument or entry which would, under existing law, if recorded, filed or entered in the office of the county clerk, and county auditor, of the county in which the real estate is situate, affect the said real estate to which it relates, if the title thereto were not registered, shall, if recorded, filed or entered in the office of the registrar of titles in the county where the real estate to which such instrument relates is situate, affect in like manner the title thereto if registered, and shall be notice to all persons from the time of such recording, filing or entering. [L. '07, p. 714, § 45.]

Where title is registered under this act, a lien claimant must file his notice with the registrar of titles, under this section (overruling Id., 92 Wash. 411, 159 Pac. 375): McMullen & Co. v. Croft, 96 Wash. 275, 164 Pac. 930.

§ 10675. [8854.] Duties of Registrar—Time of Filing—Number—Index—Public Records.

The registrar of titles shall number and note in a proper book to be kept for that purpose, the year, month, day, hour and minute of reception and number of all conveyances, orders or decrees, writs or other process, judgments, liens, or all other instruments, or papers or orders affecting the title of land, the title to which is registered. Every instrument so filed shall be retained in the office of the registrar of titles, and shall be regarded as registered from the time so noted, and the memorial of each instrument, when made on the certificate of title to which it refers, shall bear the same date. Every instrument so filed, whether voluntary or involuntary, shall be numbered and indexed, and indorsed with a reference to the proper certificate of title. All records and papers, relating to registered land, in the office of the register of titles shall be open to public inspection, in the same manner as are now the papers and records in the office of the county clerk and county auditor. [L. '07, p. 714, § 46.]

§ 10676. [8855.] Duplicates—Certified Copies—Fee.

Duplicates of all instruments, voluntary or involuntary, filed and registered in the office of the registrar of titles, may be presented with the originals, and shall be attested and sealed by the registrar of titles, and indorsed with the file number and other memoranda on the originals, and may be taken away by the person presenting the same. Certified copies of all instruments filed and registered may be obtained from the registrar of titles, on the payment of a fee of the same amount as is now allowed the county clerk and county auditor, for a like certified copy. [L. '07, p. 714, § 47.]

§ 10677. [8856.] New Certificate Only When Fee Passes—Registration of Lesser Interest—Procedure When Question as to Form of Memorial.

No new certificate shall be entered or issued upon any transfer of registered land, which does not divest the title in fee simple of said land or some part thereof, from the owner or some one of the registered owners. All interest in the registered land, less than a freehold estate, shall be registered by filing with the registrar of titles, the instruments creating, transferring or claiming such interest, and by a brief memorandum or memorial thereof, made by a registrar of titles upon the certificate of title, and signed by him. A similar memorandum, or memorial, shall also be made on the owner's duplicate.

The cancellation or extinguishment of such interests shall be registered in the same manner. When any party in interest does not agree as to the proper memorial to be made upon the filing of any instrument (voluntary or involuntary), presented for registration, or where the registrar of titles is in doubt as to the form of such memorial, the question shall be referred to the court for decision, either on the certificate of the registrar of titles, or upon the demand in writing of any party in interest.

The registrar of titles shall bring before the court all the papers and evidence which may be necessary for the determination of the question by the court. The court, after notice to all parties in interest and a hearing, shall enter an order prescribing the form of the memorial, and the registrar of titles shall make registration in accordance therewith. [L. '07, p. 715, § 48.]

§ 10678. [8857.] Production of Owner's Certificate Necessary for Registration of New Certificate, etc.

No new certificates of titles shall be entered, and no memorial shall be made upon any certificate of title, in pursuance of any deed, or other voluntary instrument, unless the owner's duplicate certificate is presented with such instrument, except in cases provided for in this act, or upon the order of the court for cause shown; and whenever such order is made a memorial therefor shall be entered, or a new certificate issued, as directed by said order. The production of the owner's duplicate certificate, whenever any voluntary instrument is presented for registration, shall be conclusive authority from the registered owner to the registrar of titles, to enter a new certificate, or to make a memorial of registration in accordance with such instrument; and a new certificate or memorial shall be binding upon the registered owner and upon all persons claiming under him in favor of every purchaser for value and in good faith. [L. '07, p. 716, § 49.]

§ 10679. [8858.] Duplicate Lost—Procedure to Obtain New Duplicate.

In the event that an owner's duplicate certificate of title shall be lost, mislaid or destroyed, the owner may make affidavit of the fact before any officer authorized to administer oaths, stating, with particularity, the facts relating to such loss, mislaying or destruction, and shall file the same in the office of the registrar of titles.

Any party in interest may thereupon apply to the court, and the court shall, upon proofs of the facts set forth in the affidavits, enter an order directing the registrar of titles to make and issue a new owner's duplicate certificate, such new owner's duplicate certificate shall be printed or marked, "Certified copy of owner's duplicate certificate," and such certified copy shall stand in the place of and have like effect as the owner's duplicate certificate. [L. '07, p. 716, § 50.]

§ 10680. [8859.] Conveyance of Registered Land.

An owner of registered land, conveying the same, or any portion thereof, in fee, shall execute a deed of conveyance, which the grantor shall file with the registrar of titles in the county where the land lies. The owner's duplicate certificate shall be surrendered at the same time and shall be by the registrar marked "Canceled." The original certificate of title shall also be marked "Canceled." The registrar of titles shall thereupon enter in the register of titles, a new certificate of title to the grantee, and shall prepare and deliver to such grantee an owner's duplicate certificate. All encumbrances, claims or interests adverse to the title of the registered owner shall be stated upon the new certificate or certificates, except in so far as they may be simultaneously released or discharged.

When only a part of the land described in a certificate is transferred, or some estate or interest in the land is to remain in the transferor, a new certificate shall be issued to him, for the part, estate or interest remaining in him. [L. '07, p. 716, § 51.]

§ 10681. [8860.] Certificate as to Payment of Taxes.

Before any deed, plat or other instrument affecting registered land shall be filed or registered in the office of the registrar of titles, the owner shall present a certificate from the county treasurer showing that all taxes then due thereon have been paid. [L. '07, p. 717, § 52.]

§ 10682. [8861.] Burdens and Incidents, Registered Land Subject to.

Registered land and ownership therein shall in all respects be subject to the same burdens and incidents which attach by law to unregistered land. Nothing contained in this chapter shall in any way be construed to relieve registered land, or the owners thereof, from any rights incident to the relation of husband and wife, or from liability to attachment of mesne process, or levy on execution, or from liability from any lien of any description established by law on land or the improvements thereon, or the interest of the owner in such land or improvements, or to change the laws of descent, or the rights of partition between cotenants, or the right to take the same by eminent domain, or to relieve such land from liability to be recovered by an assignee in insolvency or trustee in bankruptcy, under the provisions of law relating thereto; or to change or affect in any way, any other rights or liabilities, created by law, applicable to unregistered land, except as otherwise expressly provided in this chapter, or any amendments hereof. [L. '07, p. 717, § 53.]

§ 10683. [8862.] Power of Attorney—Revocation of.

Any person may by attorney convey or otherwise deal with registered land, but the letters or power of attorney shall be acknowledged and filed with the registrar of titles, and registered. Any instrument revoking such letters, or power of attorney, shall be acknowledged in like manner. [L. '07, p. 718, § 54.]

§ 10684. [8863.] Power of Owner to Deal With Land.

The owner of registered land may mortgage or encumber the same, by executing a trust deed or other instrument, sufficient in law for that purpose, and such instrument may be assigned, extended, discharged, released, in whole or in part, or otherwise dealt with by the mortgagee, by any form of instrument sufficient in law for the purpose; but such trust deed or other instrument, and all instruments assigning, extending, discharging, releasing or otherwise dealing with the encumbrance, shall be registered, and shall take effect upon the title only from the time of registration. [L. '07, p. 718, § 55.]

§ 10685. [8864.] Trust Deed, a Mortgage—Registration of Mortgages.

A trust deed shall be deemed to be a mortgage, and be subject to the same rules as a mortgage, excepting as to the manner of the foreclosure thereof. The registration of a mortgage shall be made in the following manner, to wit: The owner's duplicate certificate shall be presented to the registrar of titles with the mortgage deed or instrument to be registered, and the registrar shall enter upon the original certificate of title and also upon the owner's duplicate certificate a memorial of the purport of the instrument registered, the time of filing, and the file number of the registered instrument. He shall also note upon the instrument registered, the time of filing, and a reference to the volume and page of the register of titles, wherein the same is registered. The registrar of titles shall also, at the request of the mortgagee, make out and deliver to him a duplicate certificate of title, like the owner's duplicate, except that the words,

"Mortgagee's duplicate," shall be written or printed upon such certificate in large letters, diagonally across the face. A memorandum of the issuance of the mortgagee's duplicate shall be made upon the certificate of title. [L. '07, p. 718, § 56.]

§ 10686. [8865.] Memorial as to Dealings With Mortgage—Registration.

Whenever a mortgage upon which a mortgagee's duplicate has been issued is assigned, extended or otherwise dealt with, the mortgagee's duplicate shall be presented with the instrument assigning, extending, or otherwise dealing with the mortgage, and a memorial of the instrument shall be made upon the mortgagee's duplicate, and upon the original certificate of title. When the mortgage is discharged, or otherwise extinguished, the mortgagee's duplicate shall be surrendered and stamped, "Canceled." In case only a part of the charge or of the land is intended to be released, discharged, or surrendered, the entry shall be made by a memorial according in like manner as before provided for a release or discharge.

The production of the mortgagee's duplicate certificate shall be conclusive authority to register the instrument therewith presented. A mortgage on registered land may be discharged in whole or in part by the mortgagee in person on the register of titles in the same manner as a mortgage on unregistered land may be discharged by an entry on the margin of the record thereof, in the auditor's office, and such discharge shall be attested by the registrar of titles. [L. '07, p. 719, § 57.]

§ 10687. [8866.] Charges on Land—Foreclosure—Lis Pendens.

All charges upon registered land, or any estate or interest in the same, and any right thereunder, may be enforced as is now allowed by law, and all laws relating to the foreclosure of mortgages shall apply to mortgages upon registered land, or any estate or interest therein, except as herein otherwise provided, and except that a notice of the pendency of any suit or of any proceeding to enforce or foreclose the mortgage, or any charge, shall be filed in the office of the registrar of titles, and a memorial thereof entered on the register, at the time of, or prior to, the commencement of such suit, or the beginning of any such proceeding. A notice so filed and registered shall be notice to the registrar of titles and all persons dealing with the land or any part thereof. When a mortgagee's duplicate has been issued, such duplicate shall, at the time of the registering of the notice, be presented, and a memorial of such notice shall be entered upon the mortgagee's duplicate. [L. '07, p. 720, § 58.]

Cited in 65 Wash. 685.

§ 10688. [8867.] Registration of Final Decree—New Certificate to Prevailing Party.

In any action affecting registered land a judgment or final decree shall be entitled to registration on the presentation of a certified copy of the entry thereof from the clerk of the court where the action is pending to the registrar of titles. The registrar of titles shall enter a memorial thereof upon the original certificates of title, and upon the owner's duplicate, and also upon the mortgagee's and lessee's duplicate, if any there be outstanding. When the registered owner of such land is, by such judgment or decree, divested of his estate in fee to the land or any part thereof, the plaintiff or defendant shall be entitled to a new certificate of title for the land, or that part thereof, designated in the judgment or decree, and the registrar of titles shall enter such new certificate of title, and issue a new owner's duplicate, in such manner as is provided in the case of voluntary conveyance: Provided, however, that no such new certificate of title shall be entered, except upon the order of the superior court of the county in which the land is situated, and upon the filing in the office of the registrar of titles, an order of the court directing the entry of such new certificate. [L. '07, p. 720, § 59.]

§ 10689. [8868.] Foreclosure—Order for Registration.

Any person who has, by any action or proceeding to enforce or foreclose any mortgage, lien or charge upon registered land, become the owner in fee of the land, or any part thereof, shall be entitled to have his title registered, and the registrar of titles shall, upon application therefor, enter a new certificate of title for the land, or that part thereof, of which the applicant is the owner, and issue an owner's duplicate, in such manner as in the case of a voluntary conveyance of registered land: Provided, however, no such new certificate of title shall be entered, except after the time to redeem from such foreclosure has expired, and upon the filing in the office of the registrar of titles, an order of the superior court of the county directing the entry of such new certificates. [L. '07, p. 721, § 60.]

§ 10690. [8869.] Petition to Court for New Certificate.

In all cases wherein, by this act, it is provided that a new certificate of title to registered land shall be entered by order of the court a person applying for such new certificate shall apply to the court by petition, setting forth the facts; and the court shall, after notice given to all parties in interest, as the court may direct, and upon hearing, make an order or decree for the entry of a new certificate to such person as shall appear to be entitled thereto. [L. '07, p. 721, § 61.]

§ 10691. [8870.] Registration of Three Year Leases—Lessee's Duplicate.

Leases for registered land, for a term of three years or more, shall be registered in like manner as a mortgage, and the provisions herein relating to the registration of mortgages, shall also apply to the registration of leases. The registrar shall, at the request of the lessee, make out and deliver to him a duplicate of the certificate of title like the owner's duplicate, except the words "Lessee's duplicate," shall be written or printed upon it in large letters diagonally across its face. [L. '07, p. 721, § 62.]

§ 10692. [8871.] Deeds in Trust, etc.—How Registered.

Whenever a deed, or other instrument, is filed in the office of the registrar of titles, for the purpose of effecting a transfer of or charge upon the registered land, or any estate or interest in the same, and it shall appear that the transfer or charge is to be in trust or upon condition or limitation expressed in such deed or instrument, such deed or instrument shall be registered in the usual manner, except that the particulars of the trust, condition, limitation or other equitable interest shall not be entered upon the certificate of title by memorial, but a memorandum or memorial shall be entered by the words, "in trust," or "upon condition," or other apt words, and by reference by number to the instrument authorizing or creating the same. A similar memorial shall be made upon the owner's duplicate certificate.

No transfer of, or charge upon, or dealing with, the land, estate or interest therein, shall thereafter be registered, except upon an order of the court first filed in the office of the registrar of titles, directing such transfer, charge, or dealing, in accordance with the true intent and meaning of the trust, condition or limitation. Such registration shall be conclusive evidence in favor of the person taking such transfer, charge, or right; and those claiming under him, in good faith, and for a valuable consideration, that such transfer, charge or other dealing is in accordance with the true intent and meaning of the trust condition, or limitation. [L. '07, p. 722, § 63.]

§ 10693. [8872.] New Trustee—Certificate.

When the title to registered land passes from a trustee to a new trustee, a new certificate shall be entered to him, and shall be registered in like manner as upon an original conveyance in trust. [L. '07, p. 722, § 64.]

§ 10694. [8873.] Application of Trustee for Registration.

Any trustee shall have authority to file an application for the registration of any land held in trust by him, unless expressly prohibited by the instrument creating the trust. [L. '07, p. 723, § 65.]

§ 10695. [8874.] Situs, Place of Registration—Number and Description.

In every case where writing of any description, or copy of any writ, order or decree is required by law to be filed or recorded in order to create or preserve any lien, right, or attachment upon unregistered land, such writing or copy, when intended to affect registered land, in lieu of recording, shall be filed and registered in the office of the registrar of titles, in the county in which the land lies, and, in addition to any particulars required in such papers, for the filing or recording, shall also contain a reference to the number of the certificate of title of the land to be affected, and also, if the attachment, right or lien is not claimed on all the land in any certificate of title, a description sufficiently accurate for the identification of the land intended to be affected. [L. '07, p. 723, § 66.]

Cited in 92 Wash. 413; 96 Wash. 277, 279, 281.

§ 10696. [8875.] Attachments, Liens, etc.—Registration in Lieu of Filing.

All attachments, liens and rights, of every description, shall be enforced, continued, reduced, discharged and dissolved, by any proceeding or method, sufficient and proper in law to enforce, continue, reduce, discharge or dissolve, like liens or [on] unregistered land. All certificates, writing or other instruments, permitted or required by law, to be filed or recorded, to give effect to the enforcement, continuance, reduction, discharge or dissolution of attachments, liens or other rights upon registered land, or to give notice of such enforcement, continuance, reduction, discharge or dissolution, shall in the case of like attachments, liens or other rights upon registered land, be filed with the registrar of titles, and registered in the register of titles, in lieu of filing or recording. [L. '07, p. 723, § 67.]

Under this section and section 1134, providing that claims for mechanics' liens may be amended by order of court in so far as the interests of third persons are not affected, and section 1147, providing for a liberal construction of the lien laws, a claim for a mechanic's lien upon registered land, filed within the time and in the manner provided by general law for unregistered lands, may, by order of court, be amended at the foreclosure trial and registered as required by the Torrens Act, where no rights of third persons are affected; in view of the further fact that the Torrens Act fixes no time limit for the registration of involuntary liens, and requires the same to be registered in the same office where they would be filed if upon unregistered lands: McMullen & Co. v. Croft, 92 Wash. 411, 159 Pac. 375.

§ 10697. [8876.] Name and Address of Attorney.

The name and address of the attorney for the plaintiff in every action affecting the title to registered land, shall, in all cases, be indorsed upon the writ or other writing filed in the office of the registrar of titles, and he shall be deemed the attorney of the plaintiff until written notice that he has ceased to be such plaintiff's attorney shall be filed for registration by the plaintiff. [L. '07, p. 724, § 68.]

§ 10698. [8877.] Judgments, a Lien When Filed.

A judgment, decree, or order of any court shall be a lien upon, or affect registered land, or any estate or interest therein, only when a certificate under the hand and official seal of the clerk of the court in which the same is of record, stating the date and purport of the judgment, decree, or order, or a certified copy of such judgment, decree, or order, or transcript of the judgment docket, is filed in the office of the registrar, and a memorial of the same is entered upon the register of the last certificate of the title to be affected. [L. '07, p. 724, § 69.]

§ 10699. [8878.] Registration of Title Acquired by Execution, etc.

Any person who has acquired any right, interest or estate in registered land by virtue of any execution, judgment, order or decree of the court, shall register his title so acquired, by filing in the office of the registrar of titles all writings or instruments permitted or required to be recorded in the case of unregistered land. If the interest or estate so acquired is the fee in the registered land, or any part thereof, the person acquiring such interest shall be entitled to have a new certificate of title, registered in him, in the same manner as is provided in the case of persons acquiring title by an action or proceeding in foreclosure of mortgages. [L. '07, p. 724, § 70.]

§ 10700. [8879.] Cancellation of Memorial, When Action Dismissed, etc.

The certificate of the clerk of the court in which any action or proceeding shall be pending, or any judgment or decree is of record, that such action or proceeding has been dismissed or otherwise disposed of, or that the judgment, decree, or order has been satisfied, released, reversed or overruled, or of any sheriff or any other officer that the levy of any execution, attachment, or other process, certified by him, has been released, discharged, or otherwise disposed of, being filed in the office of the registrar of titles and noted upon the register, shall be sufficient to authorize the registrar to cancel or otherwise treat the memorial of such action, proceeding, judgment, decree, order, or levy, according to the purport of such certificate. [L. '07, p. 724, § 71.]

§ 10701. [8880.] New Certificate After Time of Redemption—Petition and Order.

Whenever registered land is sold, and the same is by law subject to redemption by the owner or any other person, the purchaser shall not be entitled to have a new certificate of title entered, until the time within which the land may be redeemed has expired. At any time after the time to redeem shall have expired, the purchaser may petition the court for an order directing the entry of a new certificate of title to him, and the court shall, after such notice as it may order, and hearing, grant and make an order directing the entry of such new certificate of title. [L. '07, p. 725, § 72.]

§ 10702. [8881.] Descent or Devise—Procedure to Obtain Registration.

The heirs at law and devisees, upon the death of an owner of lands, and any estate or interest therein, registered pursuant to this act, on the expiration of thirty days after the entry of the decree of the superior court granting letters testamentary or of administration, or, in case of an appeal from such decree, at any time after the entry of a final decree, may file a certified copy of the final decree, of the superior court having jurisdiction, and of the will, if any, with the clerk of the superior court, in the county in which the land lies, and make application to the court for an order for the entry of a new certificate of title. The court shall issue notice to the executor or administrator and all other persons in interest, and may also give notice by publication in such newspaper or newspapers as it may deem proper, to all whom it may concern; and after hearing, may direct the entry of a new certificate or certificates to the person or persons who appear to be entitled thereto as heirs or devisees. Any new certificate so entered before the final settlement of the estate of the deceased owner, in the superior courts, shall state expressly that it is entered by transfer from the last certificate by descent or devise, and that the estate is in process of settlement. After the final settlement of the estate in the superior court, or after the expiration of the time allowed by law for bringing an action against an executor or administrator by creditors of the deceased, the heirs at law or devisees may petition the court for an order to cancel the memorial upon their certificates, stating that the estate is in the course of settlement, and the court, after such notice as it may order, and a hearing, may grant the petition: Provided, however, that the liability of registered land to be sold for claims against the estate of the deceased, shall not in any way be diminished or changed. [L. '07, p. 725, § 73.]

§ 10703. [8882.] Power of Court to Order Sale, or Mortgage, not Affected.

Nothing contained in this act shall include, affect or impair the jurisdiction of the superior court to order an executor, administrator or guardian to sell or mortgage registered land for any purpose for which such order may be granted in the case of unregistered land. The purchaser or mortgagee, taking a deed or mortgage executed in pursuance of such order of the superior court, shall be entitled to register his title, and to the entry of a new certificate of title or memorial of registration, upon application to the superior court, and upon filing in the office of the registrar of titles, an order of said court, directing the entry of such certificates. [L. '07, p. 726, § 74.]

§ 10704. [8883.] Trustees, Masters, etc.—Filing of Certificate of Authority.

An assignee for the benefit of creditors, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, master in chancery, special commissioner, or other person appointed by the court, shall file in the office of the registrar of titles, the instrument or instruments by which he is vested with title, estate, or interest in any registered land, or a certified copy of an order of the court showing that such assignee, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, master in chancery, special commissioner, or other person, is authorized to deal with such land, estate or interest, and, if it is in the power of such person, he shall, at the same time, present to the registrar of titles, the owner's duplicate certificate of title; thereupon the registrar shall enter upon the register of titles, and the duplicate certificate, if presented, a memorial thereof, with a reference to such order or deed by its file number. Such memorial having been entered, the assignee, receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, master in chancery, special commissioner or other person may, subject to the direction of the court, deal with or transfer such land as if he were a registered owner. [L. '07, p. 726, § 75.]

§ 10705. [8884.] Eminent Domain—Fees—Reversion.

Whenever registered land, or any right or interest therein, is taken by eminent domain, the state or body politic, or corporate or other authority exercising such right shall pay all fees on account of any memorial or registration or entry of new certificates, or duplicate thereof, and fees for the filing of instruments required by this act to be filed. When, for any reason, by operation of law, land which has been taken for public use reverts to the owner from whom it was taken, or his heirs or assigns, the court, upon petition of the person entitled to the benefit of the reversion, after such notice as it may order, and hearing, may order the entry of a new certificate of title to him. [L. '07, p. 727, § 76.]

§ 10706. [8885.] Registration, When Owner's Duplicate Certificate Withheld—Procedure.

In every case where the registrar of titles enters a memorial upon a certificate of title, or enters a new certificate of title, in pursuance of any instrument executed by the registered owner, or by reason of any instrument or proceeding which affects or devises the title of the registered owner against his consent, if the outstanding owner's duplicate certificate is not presented, the registrar of titles shall not enter a new certificate or make a memorial, but the person claiming to be entitled thereto may apply by petition to the court. The court may order the registered owner, or any person withholding the duplicate certificate, to present or surrender the same, and direct the entry of a memorial or new certificate upon such presentation or surrender. If, in any case, the person withholding the duplicate certificate is not amenable to the process of the court, or cannot be found, or if, for any reason, the outstanding owner's duplicate certificate cannot be presented or surrendered without delay, the court may, by decree, annul the same, and order a new certificate of title to be entered. Such new certificate, and all duplicates thereof, shall contain a memorial of the annulment of the outstanding duplicate. If in any case of an outstanding mortgagee's or lessee's duplicate certificate shall be withheld or otherwise dealt with, like proceedings may be had to obtain registration as in case of the owner's withholding or refusing to deliver the duplicate receipt. [L. '07, p. 727, § 77.]

§ 10707. [8886.] Court may Refer to Examiner of Titles.

In all cases where, under the provisions of this act, application is made to the court for an order or decree, the court may refer the matter to one of the examiners of title for hearing and report, in like manner, as is herein provided for the reference of the application for registration. [L. '07, p. 728, § 78.]

§ 10708. [8887.] Examiner to Advise Registrar—Forms—Examination of Witnesses.

Examiners of titles shall, upon the request of the registrar of titles, advise him upon any act or duty pertaining to the conduct of his office, and shall, upon request, prepare the form of any memorial to be made or entered by the registrar of titles. The examiner of titles shall have full power to administer oaths and examine witnesses involved in his investigation of titles. [L. '07, p. 728, § 79.]

§ 10709. [8888.] Names and Addresses of Parties in Interest—Service.

Every writing and instrument required or permitted by this act to be filed for registration, shall contain or have indorsed upon it, the full name, place of residence and postoffice address of the grantee or other person requiring or claiming any right, title or interest under such instrument. Any change in residence or postoffice address of such person shall be indorsed by the registrar of titles in the original instrument, on receiving a sworn statement of such change. All names and addresses shall also be entered on all certificates. All notices required by, or given in pursuance of the provisions of this act by the registrar of titles or by the court, after original registration, shall be served upon the person to be notified; if a resident of the state of Washington, as summons in civil actions are served; and proof of such service shall be made as on the return of a summons. All such notices shall be sent by mail, to the person to be notified, if not a resident of the state of Washington, and his residence and postoffice address, as stated in the certificate of title, or in any registered instrument under which he claims an interest. The certificate of the registrar of titles, or clerk of court, that any notice has been served, by mailing the same, as aforesaid, shall be conclusive proof of such notice: Provided, however, that the court may, in any case, order different or further service by publication or otherwise. [L. '07, p. 729, § 80.]

§ 10710. [8889.] Registration of Statement of Adverse Interest—Hearing—Procedure.

Any person claiming any right or interest in registered land, adverse to the registered owner, arising subsequent to the date of the original registration, may, if no other provision is made in this act for registering the same, make a statement in writing, setting forth fully his alleged right or interest and how or under whom acquired, and a reference to the volume and page of the certificate of title of the registered owner, and a description of the land to which the right or interest is claimed. The statement shall be signed and sworn to, and shall state the adverse claimant's residence, and designate a place at which all notices may be served upon him. This statement shall be entitled to registration, as an adverse claim; and the court, upon the petition of any party in interest, shall grant a speedy hearing upon the question of the validity of such adverse claim, and shall enter such decree thereon as equity and justice may require.

If the claim is adjudged to be invalid, its registration shall be canceled. The court may, in any case, award such costs and damages, including reasonable attorneys' fees, as it may deem just in the premises. [L. '07, p. 729, § 81.]

§ 10711. [8890.] Assurance Fund—How Created.

Upon the original registration of land under this act, and also upon the entry of the certificate showing title as registered owners in heirs or devisees, there shall be paid to the registrar of titles, one-tenth of one per cent of the assessed value of the real estate on the basis of the last assessment for general taxation, as an assurance fund. [L. '07, p. 730, § 82.]

§ 10712. [8891.] Investment of Assurance Fund.

All sums of money received by the registrar as provided for in the last section, shall be forthwith paid by the registrar to the county treasurer of the county in which the land lies, for the purpose of an assurance fund, under the terms of this act; it shall be the duty of the county treasurer, whenever the amount on hand in said assurance fund is sufficient, to invest the same, principal and income, and report annually to the superior court of the same county the condition and income thereof; and no investment of the funds, or any part thereof, shall be made without the approval of said court, by order entered of record. Said fund shall be invested only in bonds or securities of the United States, or of one of the states of the United States, or of the counties or other municipalities of this state. [L. '07, p. 730, § 83.]

§ 10713. [8892.] Action for Recovery of Damages from Assurance Fund.

Any person sustaining loss or damage, through any omission, mistake, or misfeasance of the registrar of titles, or of any examiner of titles, or of any deputy, or by the mistake or misfeasance of the clerk of the court, or any deputy, in the performance of their respective duties, under the provisions of this act, and any person wrongfully deprived of any land or any interest therein, through the bringing of the same, under the provisions of this act, or by the registration of any other person as the owner of such land, or by any mistake, omission, or misdescription in any certificate or entry, or memorial, in the register of titles, or by any cancellation, and who, by the provisions of this act, is barred or precluded from bringing any action for the recovery of such land, or interest therein, or claim thereon, may bring an action against the treasurer of the county in which such land is situated, for the recovery of damages to be paid out of the assurance fund. [L. '07, p. 731, § 84.]

§ 10714. [8893.] Parties Defendant—Judgment—Payment—County Attorney to Defend.

If such action be for recovery for loss or damage arising only through any omission, mistake or misfeasance of the registrar of titles or his deputies, or of any examiner of titles, or of any clerk of court or his deputy, in the performance of their respective duties, under the provisions of this act, then the county treasurer shall be the sole defendant to such action; but if such action be brought for loss or damage arising only through the fraud or wrongful act of some person or persons other than the registrar or his deputies, the examiners of title, the clerk of the court or his deputies, or arising jointly through the fraud or wrongful act of such other person or persons, and the omission, mistakes or misfeasance of the registrar of titles or his deputies, the examiners of titles, the clerk of the court or his deputies, then such action shall be brought against both the county treasurer and such person or persons aforesaid. In all such actions, where there are defendants other than the county treasurer, and damages shall have been recovered, no final judgment shall be entered against the county treasurer, until execution against the other defendants shall be returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, and the officer returning the execution shall certify that the amount still due upon the execution cannot be collected except by application to the indemnity fund. Thereupon the court, being satisfied as to the truth of such return, shall order final judgment against the treasurer, for the amount of the execution and costs, or so much thereof as remains unpaid. The county treasurer shall, upon such order of the court and final judgment, pay the amount of such judgment out of the assurance fund. It shall be the duty of the county attorney to appear and defend all such actions. If the funds in the assurance fund at any time are insufficient to pay any judgment in full, the balance unpaid shall draw interest at the legal rate of interest, and be paid with such interest out of the first funds coming into said fund. [L. '07, p. 731, § 85.]

§ 10715. [8894.] When Assurance Fund not Liable—Maximum Amount.

The assurance fund shall not be liable in any action to pay for any loss, damage or deprivation occasioned by a breach of trust, whether expressed, implied, or constructive, by any registered owner who is a trustee, or by the improper exercise of any power of sale, in a mortgage or a trust deed. Final judgment shall not be entered against the county treasurer in any action against [under] this act to recover from the assurance fund for more than a fair market value of the real estate at the time of the last payment to the assurance fund, on account of the same real estate. [L. '07, p. 732, § 86.]

§ 10716. [8895.] Limitation of Action Against Assurance Fund.

No action or proceeding for compensation for or by reason of any deprivation, loss or damage occasioned or sustained as provided in this act, shall be made, brought or taken, except within the period of six years from the time when right to bring or take such action or proceeding first accrued; except that if, at any time, when such right of action first accrues, the person entitled to bring such action, or take such proceeding, is under the age of twenty-one years, or insane, imprisoned, or absent from the United States in the service of the United States, or of this state, then such person, or anyone claiming from, by, or under him, may bring the action, or take the proceeding, at any time within two years after such disability is removed, notwithstanding the time before limited in that behalf has expired. [L. '07, p. 733, § 87.]

§ 10717. [8896.] Alterations, etc.—Change of Interests.

No erasure, alteration or amendment shall be made upon the register of titles after the entry of the certificate of title, or a memorial thereon, and the attestation of the same by the registrar of titles, except by order of the court. Any registered owner, or other person in interest, may at any time apply by petition to the court, on the ground that registered interests of any description, whether vested, contingent, expectant, or inchoate, have determined and ceased; or that new interests have arisen or been created, which do not appear upon the certificate; or that an error, omission or mistake was made in entering the certificate; or any memorial thereon, or any duplicate certificate; or that the name of any person on the certificate has been changed; or that the registered owner has been married, or if registered, has married, that the marriage has been terminated, or that a corporation which owned registered land has been dissolved, and has not conveyed the same within three years after its dissolution; or upon any other reasonable ground; and the court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the petition after such notice as it may order, to all parties in interest, and may order the entry of a new certificate, the entry or cancellation of a memorial upon a certificate, or grant any other relief upon such terms and conditions, requiring security if necessary, as it may deem proper: Provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to give the court authority to open the original decree of registration, and that nothing shall be done or ordered by the court which shall impair the title or other interest of the purchaser, holding a certificate for value and in good faith, or his heirs or assigns, without his or their written consent. [L. '07, p. 733, § 88.]

§ 10718. [8897.] Stealing Certificates or Duplicates—Grand Larceny.

Certificates of title or duplicate certificates entered under this act, shall be subjects of larceny, and anyone unlawfully stealing or carrying away any such certificate, shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of grand larceny, and punished accordingly. [L. '07, p. 734, § 89.]

§ 10719. [8898.] Swearing Falsely—Perjury.

Whoever knowingly swears falsely to any statement required by this act to be made under oath shall be guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the statutory penalties therefor. [L. '07, p. 734, § 90.]

Cited in 83 Wash. 423.

§ 10720. [8899.] Penalty for Fraud.

Whoever fraudulently procures, or assists fraudulently [in] procuring or is privy to the fraudulent procurement of any certificate of title, or other instrument, or of any entry in the register of titles, or other book kept in the registrar's office, or of any erasure or alteration in any entry in any such book, or in any instrument authorized by this act, or knowingly defrauds or is privy to defrauding any person by means of a false or fraudulent instrument, certificate, statement, or affidavit affecting registered land, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding five years, or both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. [L. '07, p. 734, § 91.]

§ 10721. [8900.] Forgery a Felony—Penalty.

Whoever forges or procures to be forged, or assists in forging, the seal of the registrar, or the name, signature or handwriting of any officer of the registry office, in case where such officer is expressly or impliedly authorized to affix his signature; or forges or procures to be forged, or assists in forging, the name, signature or handwriting of any person whomsoever, to any instrument which is expressly or impliedly authorized to be signed by such person; or uses any document upon which any impression or part of the impression of any seal of said registrar has been forged, knowing the same to have been forged, or any document, the signature to which has been forged, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years, or fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court. [L. '07, p. 735, § 92.]

§ 10722. [8901.] Penal Action not to Affect Civil Remedy.

No proceeding or conviction for any act hereby declared to be a felony, shall affect any remedy which any person aggrieved or injured by such act may be entitled to at law, or in equity, against the person who has committed such act, or against his estate. [L. '07, p. 735, § 93.]

§ 10723. [8902.] Fees of Clerk of Court.

On the filing of any application for registration, the applicant shall pay to the clerk of the court, in counties having more than forty thousand population, the sum of three dollars; and in all other counties, the sum of five dollars, which shall be in full of all clerk's fees and charges in such proceeding in behalf of the applicant. Any defendant, on entering his appearance, shall pay to the clerk of the court, the sum of three dollars, which shall be in full of all clerk's fees in behalf of such defendant. When any number of defendants enter their appearance at the same time, before default, but one fee shall be paid. Every publication in a newspaper required by this act shall be paid for by the party on whose application the order for publication is made, in addition to the fees above prescribed. The party at whose request any notice is issued, shall pay for the service of the same, except when sent by mail by the clerk of the court, or the registrar of titles. [L. '07, p. 735, § 94.]

§ 10724. [8903.] Fees of Registrar.

The fees to be paid to the registrar of titles shall be as follows:

(a) At or before the time of filing of the certified copy of the application with the registrar, the applicant shall pay, to the registrar, on all land having an assessed value, exclusive of improvements, of one thousand dollars or less, one dollar, and twenty-five cents on each one thousand dollars, or major fraction thereof, of the assessed value of said land, additional.

(b) For granting certificates of title, upon each applicant, and registering the same, two dollars.

(c) For registering each transfer, including the filing of all instruments connected therewith, and the issuance and registration of the instruments connected therewith, and the issuance and registration of the new certificate of title, three dollars.

(d) When the land transferred is held upon any trust, condition, or limitation, an additional fee of three dollars.

(e) For entry of each memorial on the register, including the filing of all instruments and papers connected therewith, and indorsements upon duplicate certificates, one dollar and fifty cents.

(f) For issuing each additional owner's duplicate certificate, mortgagee's duplicate certificate, or lessee's duplicate certificate, one dollar.

(g) For filing of will, with letters testamentary, or filing copy of letters of administration, and entering memorial thereof, two dollars and fifty cents.

(h) For the cancellation of each memorial, or charge, fifty cents.

(i) For each certificate showing the condition of the register, one dollar.

(j) For any certified copy of any instrument or writing on file in his office, the same fees now allowed by law to county clerks and county auditors for like service.

(k) For any other service required, or necessary to carry out this act, and not hereinbefore itemized, such fee or fees as the court shall determine and establish. [L. '07, p. 736, § 95.]

§ 10725. [8904.] Disposition of Fees—No Compensation to Registrar.

One-half of all fees provided for in subdivision (a) of section 10724, shall be collected by the registrar, and paid to the county treasurer of the county in which the fees are paid, to be used for the current expenses of the county; and all the remaining fees provided for in said section, and all the subdivisions thereof, shall be collected by the registrar, and applied the same as the other fees of his office; but his salary as county clerk or county auditor, as now provided by law, shall not be increased on account of the additional duties, or by reason of the allowance of additional fees provided for herein; and the said registrar, as such, shall receive no salary. [L. '07, p. 737, § 96.]

§ 10726. [8905.] To be Construed Liberally.

This chapter shall be construed liberally, so far as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying out its general intent, which is, that any owner of land may register his title and bring his land under the provisions of this act, but no one is required so to do. [L. '07, p. 737, § 97.]

CHAPTER I.

SOLDIERS' HOMES.

§ 10727. [8906.] Establishment of Soldiers' Home.

There shall be established in this state an institution under the name of Washington Soldiers' Home which institution shall be a home for honorably discharged Union soldiers, sailors, marines, soldiers of the Spanish-American war, and also members of the state militia disabled in the line of duty, and who are bona fide citizens of this state. [L. '90, p. 269, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1284; L. '01, p. 344, § 1.]

§ 10728. [8907.] Bond of Superintendent for Soldiers' Home.

The state board of control shall appoint a superintendent, who shall give a bond to the state in the sum of five thousand dollars, approved by the governor and filed in the office of the secretary of state, for the faithful performance of his duties. [L. '90, p. 271, § 7; 1 H. C., § 1289.]

See infra, § 10893, state board of control abolished.

Portions of this section omitted as superseded by § 10902, infra.

§ 10729. [8908-1.] Who may be Admitted to Home—Regulations.

All honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who have served the United States government in any of its wars, and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, may be admitted to the State Soldiers' Home at Orting under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the state board of control: Provided, that such applicants have been actual bona fide citizens of this state for a period of three years at the time of their application, and are indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves. [L. '15, p. 305, § 1. Cf. L. '11, p. 621, § 1; L. '97, p. 306, § 5; L. '01, p. 344, § 2; L. '05, p. 291, § 1.]

§ 10730. [8908-2.] Colony of Soldiers' Home—Admission to—Soldiers' Widows.

There is hereby established what shall be known as the "Colony of the State Soldiers' Home." All of the following persons who reside within the limits of Orting precinct and have been actual bona fide citizens of this state for a period of three years at the time of their application and are indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families, may be admitted to membership in said colony under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the state board of control.

(1) All honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines, who have served the United States government in any of its wars, and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, who were married and living with their wives on March 9, 1905, or who, since said date, have married widows of soldiers who were members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death: Provided, that such soldiers, sailors, and marines and members of the state militia shall, while they are members of said colony, be living with their said wives.

(2) The widows of all soldiers who were members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death, and the widows of all soldiers who would have been entitled to admission to a soldiers' home or colony in this state at the time of death but for the fact that they were not indigent and unable to support themselves and families, which widows have since the death of their said husbands become indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves: Provided, that such widows are not less than fifty years of age and were married and living with their said husbands on or before March 9, 1905, and have not been married since the decease of their said husbands to any person not a member of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto. [L. '15, p. 305, § 2.]

§ 10731. [8908-3.] Regulations for Colony Members.

The members of the colony established in the preceding section shall, to all intents and purposes, be members of the said State Soldiers' Home and subject to all the rules and regulations thereof, except the requirements of fatigue duty, and each member shall, in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the state board of control, be supplied with medical attendance and supplies from the home dispensary and rations not exceeding seven dollars per month in value and clothing not exceeding sixteen dollars per year in value. [L. '15, p. 306, § 3.]

§ 10732. [8908-4.] Admission to Veterans' Home.

All of the following persons who have been actual bona fide residents of this state for a period of three years at the time of their application and who are indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families may be admitted to the Washington Veterans' Home at Port Orchard under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the state board of control:

(1) All honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who have served the United States government in any of its wars, and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and the wives of such soldiers, sailors and marines and members of the state militia: Provided, that such wives were married to and living with their said husbands on March 9, 1905, or, if married to them since that date, were themselves members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto.

(2) The widows of all soldiers, sailors and marines and members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, who were members of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto at the time of death, and widows of all such soldiers, sailors and marines and members of the state militia, who would have been entitled to admission to a soldiers' home or colony in this state at the time of death but for the fact that they were not indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves and families, which widows have since the death of their said husbands become indigent and unable to earn a support for themselves: Provided, that such widows are not less than fifty years of age and were married and living with their said husbands on or before March 9, 1905, and have not been married since the decease of their said husbands to any person not a member of a soldiers' home or colony in this state or entitled to admission thereto. [L. '15, p. 306, § 4.]

§ 10733. [8909.] Establishment of Branch of "Veterans' Home."

There shall be established and maintained in this state a branch of the state soldiers' home, under the name of the "Washington Veterans' Home," which branch shall be a home for honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who have served the United States government in any of its wars, members of the state militia disabled while in the line of duty, and who are bona fide citizens of the state, and also the wives of such soldiers, sailors and marines. [L. '07, p. 345, § 1.]

§ 10734. [8911.] Indian War Veterans Admitted.

Any man who served in the Indian war in the territory of Washington in 1855-56 as a volunteer, messenger, in the transportation service or otherwise in behalf of the territory of Washington or of the United States, shall hereafter be admitted to the Washington Soldiers' Home maintained at Orting in Pierce county, Washington, upon terms similar to those under which the veterans of other wars are now admitted to that institution, and submitting to the commandant and the board having charge of the said institution sufficient evidence to satisfy them that he has served in the said war as hereinbefore provided. [L. '01, p. 348, § 1.]

§ 10735. [8912.] United States Fund for Soldiers' Home.

The state treasurer is hereby authorized to receive any and all moneys appropriated or paid by the United States under the act of congress entitled "An act to provide aid to state or territorial homes for disabled soldiers and sailors of the United States," approved August 27, 1888, or under any other act or acts of congress for the benefit of such homes. Such moneys shall be kept in a separate fund to be designated upon the books of the state treasurer and state auditor as "United States fund for the maintenance of the soldiers' home," and said moneys shall be expended for the maintenance of the soldiers' home of this state in the same manner and under the same regulations as money appropriated by the legislature of this state for the maintenance of said home. [L. '97, p. 111, § 1.]

§ 10736. [8913.] Unexpended Balance shall not Lapse.

Any unexpended balance of said fund or of such moneys so received from the United States, now on hand or which may hereafter accrue, shall not lapse to the state, but shall be carried forward on the books of the said treasurer and auditor, and shall be taken into consideration in all appropriations by the state for the maintenance of such soldiers' home, and all appropriations by the state for such maintenance shall be deemed to be in addition to any unexpended balance of such fund or of such money so received from the United States, and in addition to the moneys to be thereafter so received from the United States. [L. '97, p. 112, § 2.]

CHAPTER II.

COUNTY AID.

§ 10737. [8914.*] County Commissioners to Make Provision for Aid.

For the relief of indigent and suffering Union soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the Civil War, in the war of Mexico or in any of the Indian wars in the United States, the Spanish-American war and Philippine insurrection, soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the United States army, navy, or marine corps between April 6, 1917, and the date upon which peace is finally concluded with the German government and its allies, or soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in any other foreign war, insurrection, or expedition, which service shall be governed by the issuance of a campaign badge by the government of the United States of America, and their families or the families of those deceased, who need assistance in any city, town or precinct in this state, the board of commissioners of the county in which said city, town or precinct is situated shall provide such sum or sums of money as may be necessary, to be drawn upon by the commander and quartermaster, or commander and adjutant of any post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or post of the American Legion in said city or town upon recommendation of the relief committee of said post or camp in the same manner as is now provided by law for the relief of the poor: Provided, said soldier, sailor or marine, or the families of those deceased, are and have been residents of the state for at least twelve months, and the orders of said commander and quartermaster, or commander and adjutant shall be the proper voucher for the expenditure of said sum or sums of money. [L. '21, p. 141, § 1; L. '88, p. 208, § 1; 1 H. C., § 1290; L. '93, p. 60, § 1; L. '07, p. 104, § 1; L. '19, p. 191, § 1.]

§ 10738. [8915.*] Nearest Post or Camp may Receive.

If there be no post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or post of the American Legion in any precinct in which it should be granted, the county commissioners of the county in which such precinct is, may accept and pay the orders drawn, as hereinbefore provided, by the commander and quartermaster, or commander and adjutant, of any post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or post of the American Legion located in the nearest city or town, upon the recommendation of a relief committee who shall be residents of the said precinct in which the relief may be furnished. [L. '21, p. 142, § 2; L. '07, p. 104, § 2. Cf. '88, p. 208, § 2; 1 H. C., § 1291.]

§ 10739. [8916.*] Notice by Post of Intention to Relieve Veterans—Contents.

Upon the passage of this act the commander of any post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or post of the American Legion which shall undertake the relief of indigent veterans and their families, as hereinbefore provided, before the acts of said commander and quartermaster, or commander and adjutant may become operative in any city or precinct, shall file with the county auditor of such county, notice that said post or camp intends to undertake such relief as is provided by this act. Such notice shall contain the names of the relief committee of said post or camp in such city or precinct, and the commander of said post or camp shall annually thereafter during the month of October file a similar notice with said auditor, and also a detailed statement of the amount of relief furnished during the preceding year, with the names of all persons to whom such relief shall have been furnished, together with a brief statement in each case from the relief committee upon whose recommendations the orders were drawn. [L. '21, p. 142, § 3; L. '88, p. 209, § 3; 1 H. C., § 1292; L. '07, p. 105, § 3.]

§ 10740. [8917.*] Bond may be Required.

The county commissioners may require of the commander and quartermaster, or commander and adjutant, of any post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or post of the American Legion undertaking to distribute relief under this act a bond with sufficient and satisfactory sureties for the faithful and honest discharge of their duties under this act. [L. '21, p. 143, § 4; L. '88, p. 209, § 4; 1 H. C., § 1293; L. '07, p. 105, § 4.]

§ 10741. [8918.*] Care of Indigent Soldiers and Marines.

County commissioners are hereby prohibited from sending indigent Union, Spanish-American war soldiers, sailors and marines, soldiers, sailors and marines who have served the United States in the United States army, navy, or marine corps between April 6, 1917, and the date upon which peace is finally concluded with the German government and its allies, or soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States in any other foreign war, insurrection or expedition, which service shall be governed by the issuance of a campaign badge by the government of the United States of America (or their families or the families of the deceased), of the classes of persons mentioned in section 10737, to any almshouse (or orphan asylum) without the concurrence and consent of the commander and relief committee of the post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or post of the American Legion, as provided in sections 10737 and 10738. Indigent veterans shall, whenever practicable, be provided for and relieved at their homes in such city, town or precinct in which they shall have a residence, in the manner provided in sections 10737 and 10738. Indigent or disabled veterans of the classes specified in section 10737, who are not insane and have no families or friends with whom they may be domiciled, may be sent to any soldiers' home. [L. '21, p. 143, § 5; L. '88, p. 209, § 5; L. '07, p. 105, § 5; L. '19, p. 192, § 5.]

§ 10742. [8919.*] Tax Levy to Create Fund.

The boards of county commissioners of the several counties in this state shall levy, in addition to the taxes now levied by law, a tax not less than one-twentieth of one mill, and not greater than two-fifths of one mill, upon the taxable property of their respective counties, to be levied and collected as now prescribed by law for the assessment and collection of taxes, for the purpose of creating a fund for the relief of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the Civil War, in the war of Mexico or in any of the Indian wars, or the Spanish-American war or the Philippine insurrection, soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the United States army, navy, or marine corps between April 6, 1917, and the date upon which peace is finally concluded with the German government and its allies, or soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States in any other foreign war, insurrection or expedition, which service shall be governed by the issuance of a campaign badge by the government of the United States of America, and the indigent wives, widows and minor children of such indigent or deceased soldiers, sailors and marines, to be disbursed for such relief by such board of county commissioners. [L. '21, p. 145, § 7; L. '90, p. 210, § 7; 1 H. C., § 1296; L. '93, p. 61, § 2; L. '07, p. 106, § 7; L. '19, p. 194, § 7.]

§ 10743. [8920.*] Payment of Rent of Post or Camp.

Any post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or post of the American Legion which has qualified to accept relief from the Indigent Soldiers' Relief Fund of any county may draw upon said county fund for the payment of the rent of its regular meeting place: Provided, that no post or camp shall be allowed to draw on such fund for this purpose to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars in any one year, or in any amount for hall rental where said post or camp is furnished quarters by the state or by any municipality.

Before such claims are ordered paid by the county commissioners, the commander of such posts shall file a proper claim each month with the county auditor for such rental. [L. '21, p. 146, § 8; L. '15, p. 244, § 1. Cf. L. '09, p. 116, § 1.]

CHAPTER III.

SOLDIERS' BONUS.

§ 10743-1. Qualifications of Recipients—Amount—Payment.

There shall be paid to each person who was regularly called, enlisted, drafted, inducted or commissioned and who served on active duty in the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States between the sixth day of April, 1917, and the eleventh day of November, 1918; and to each person who, being a citizen of the United States at the time of his entry therein, served on active duty in the naval, military or air forces of any of the governments associated with the United States during the war with the central allied powers between the sixth day of April, 1917, and the eleventh day of November, 1918; and who, at the time of his call, enlistment, induction, commission or service, was a bona fide resident of the state of Washington, the sum of fifteen dollars ($15) for each and every month or major fraction thereof of active duty performed subsequent to April 6, 1917, and prior to November 11, 1919: Provided, that if any such person shall have borrowed money from the Veteran's Welfare Commission and shall have failed to repay said money, then the amount thereof shall be deducted from any sums payable to any such person under this act and said loan shall thereupon be canceled and discharged: Provided, further, that persons who have received extra compensation from any other state, or nation other than the United States for such active service shall not be entitled to compensation under this act unless the amount of compensation so received is less than they would be entitled to hereunder, in which event they shall receive the difference between the compensation allowable under this act and the extra compensation already received from such other state or nation: Provided, further, that persons who have received greater compensation than the regular pay of the army, navy or marine corps and commutation for quarters and subsistence, shall not be entitled to receive compensation under this act unless the amount of extra compensation so received is less than they would be entitled to hereunder, in which event they shall receive the difference between the compensation allowable under this act and such extra compensation. In case of the death of any such person while in such service an equal amount shall be paid to his surviving widow, if not remarried at the time compensation is requested, or in case he left no widow and left children, then to his surviving children, or in the event he left no widow or children, then to his surviving parent or parents, if actually dependent upon such deceased person for support. Persons of the female sex, or their surviving children or parents, who are in all other respects within the terms of this act, shall be entitled to compensation thereunder. [L. '20, p. 7, § 1.]

Cited in 113 Wash. 571.

This act providing a payment of fifteen dollars a month to each person in active service during the World War, the appropriation being made as compensation for the service, is the recognition of a moral obligation and provides for the expenditure of money for a public purpose which may be met by general taxation: State ex § 10743-2. Persons Disqualified.

The word "person," as used in section 10743-1, shall not include persons, who, during the period of their service, refused, on conscientious, political or other grounds, to subject themselves to full military discipline or unqualified service, or who, while in such service, were separated therefrom under circumstances amounting to a dishonorable discharge and who have not subsequently been officially restored to an honorable status, and such person shall not be entitled to the benefits of this act. [L. '20, p. 9, § 2.]

§ 10743-3. Auditor's Certificate—Record of Service—Proof.

All disbursements required by this act for compensation shall be made upon the presentation of a certificate upon a form to be prescribed by the state auditor, which certificate shall be duly verified by the claimant under oath and shall set forth the name, residence at the time of entry into the service, date of enlistment, induction or commission, date of discharge or release from active service if the claimant is not on active duty, a statement that the claimant during the period for which compensation is allowed did not refuse to subject himself to full military discipline and unqualified service and that he has not been separated from the service under circumstances amounting to a dishonorable discharge, and such further information as the state auditor may require. Such certificate shall be presented to the state auditor or his representative together with an honorable discharge or release from active service, or in case of its loss a properly authenticated record of service, or in the event that the claimant is still in the service a properly authenticated record of all active service performed by the claimant subsequent to April 6, 1917, and prior to November 11, 1919, or if the same be presented by the widow, child, or parents of a deceased veteran, then with proper evidence of death, together with a properly authenticated record of service, and the state auditor shall indorse upon such discharge, release or record of active service, a statement that such discharge, release or record of active service was made the basis of the application, and shall return such discharge or release or record of active service to the claimant and shall forthwith draw his warrant in the name of the claimant upon the Veterans' Compensation Fund for an amount equal to fifteen dollars for each and every month of active service, or major fraction thereof, between the sixth day of April, 1917, and the eleventh day of November, 1919, and the state treasurer shall pay such warrants from the Veterans' Compensation Fund. In cases where application for compensation is made by the widow, children or parents of a deceased veteran, such person shall furnish the same information as though the application were made by the deceased veteran, and the state auditor shall prepare an appropriate form of certificate to cover such cases. Compensation allowed to the children of deceased veterans shall be paid to the guardians of such children, which guardians, if appointed by the courts of this state, shall serve without compensation and in the discretion of the court without bond, and it shall be the duty of every attorney in this state to appear in the courts or render any other necessary legal assistance in behalf of such children in so far as the provisions of this act are concerned, without compensation, and no public officer shall collect any fees in any proceedings brought in behalf of such children to secure compensation under this act.

The state auditor is empowered to make such additional reasonable requirements from applicants as are necessary to prevent fraud or the payment of compensation to persons not entitled thereto. [L. '20, p. 9, § 3.]

§ 10743-4. Forms—Duties of Officers.

The state auditor shall furnish free of charge, upon application therefor, the necessary form of certificate to all persons entitled thereto, and may establish at different points within the state of Washington, offices at which there shall be kept on file for the use of persons covered by this act, a sufficient number of forms of certificate so that there may be no delay in the payment of this compensation. The state auditor may authorize the county auditor or county clerk, or both, of any county of the state to act for him in receiving applications under the provisions of this act, and shall furnish such persons with the proper certificates to enable them to accept such applications. The state auditor is hereby authorized and directed to procure such printing and office supplies and equipment, and to employ such persons as may be necessary in order to properly carry out the provisions of this act, and all expenses incurred by him in the administration of this act shall be paid by warrants drawn upon the Veterans' Compensation Fund.

The adjutant-general shall advise with and assist the state auditor in the performance of the duties of the auditor under this act, and when so called upon the adjutant-general may employ such persons and incur such expenses as may be necessary, such expenses to be paid by warrants drawn upon the Veterans' Compensation Fund.

The auditor and the adjutant-general may require persons employed by them under this act to furnish good and sufficient surety bonds to the state of Washington for the faithful performance of their duties and the premiums upon said bonds shall be payable from the Veterans' Compensation Fund. [L. '20, p. 10, § 4.]

§ 10743-5. Anticipatory Warrants.

The state auditor may in his discretion issue warrants under the provisions of this act in anticipation of the sale of the bonds herein authorized. [L. '20, p. 11, § 5.]

§ 10743-6. Bonds—Issue—Interest—Sale of Bonds.

For the purpose of providing means for the payment of compensation hereunder and for paying the expenses of administration, there shall be issued and sold bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000): Provided, that if the proceeds of the sale of such bonds be insufficient to pay the compensation herein allowed, then sufficient additional bonds to pay such compensation shall be issued and sold. The issuance, sale and retirement of said bonds shall be under the general supervision and control of the state board of finance. The state board of finance may, in its discretion, provide for the issuance of coupon or registered bonds to be dated, issued, and sold from time to time and in such amounts as may be necessary to make the payments provided for by this act. Each of such bonds shall be made payable at any time not exceeding twenty years from the date of its issuance, with such reserved rights of prior redemption as the state board of finance may prescribe, to be specified therein. The bonds shall be signed by the governor and the state auditor under the seal of the state; and any coupons attached to such bonds shall be signed by the same officers, whose signatures thereon may be in facsimile; and such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, which bonds shall be sold for not less than par. Any bonds may be registered in the name of the holder on presentation to the state treasurer or at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in New York, as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, under such regulations as the state treasurer may prescribe. Said bonds shall be in a form embodying an absolute promise of the state of Washington to pay both principal and interest in gold coin of the United States of present standard of value, at such place or places as the state board of finance may provide, and shall be in such denominations as may be prescribed by said board. All bonds issued under the provisions of this act may be sold in such manner and in such amounts and at such times and on such terms and conditions as the state board of finance may prescribe: Provided, that if said bonds are sold to any persons other than the state of Washington, they shall be sold at public sale, and it shall be the duty of the state board of finance to cause such sale to be advertised in such manner as it shall deem sufficient.

Bonds issued under the provisions of this act shall be a legal investment for any of the funds of the state, including the permanent school fund, any higher educational funds, and accident fund of the industrial insurance department. [L. '20, p. 11, § 6.]

§ 10743-7. Veterans' Compensation Fund.

The money arising from the sale of each issue of bonds shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of a special fund to be known as the "Veterans' Compensation Fund," which shall be used for payment of the compensation provided in this act and for paying the expenses of the administration thereof. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act there is hereby appropriated from the Veterans' Compensation Fund the sum of eleven million dollars ($11,000,000). [L. '20, p. 13, § 7.]

§ 10743-8. Retirement Fund.

For the purpose of creating a retirement fund for the retirement of such bonds upon maturity and the payment of interest thereon as it falls due, the proper state and county officers shall levy and collect a tax of one mill upon each dollar of the taxable property in the state for the year 1921 and for each year thereafter: Provided, that if said tax be insufficient then the proper state and county officers are authorized and directed to levy and collect such additional taxes as may be necessary for the payment of interest upon said bonds and the retirement of the principal thereof upon maturity. All moneys derived from such tax shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to a fund to be known as the "Veterans' Compensation Bond Retirement Fund." [L. '20, p. 13, § 8.]

§ 10743-9. Free Official Service—Discounting Certificates.

No charge made by any agent, notary public or attorney for any service in connection with obtaining the allowance as provided for by this act shall be recognized by the state and any person who, for a consideration, discounts or attempts to discount, or for a consideration advances money upon any certificate or certificates issued pursuant to the terms of this act, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. [L. '20, p. 14, § 9.]

§ 10743-10. False Claims Punishable.

Any person who, with intent to defraud, subscribes to any false oath or makes any false representation, either in the execution of the certificates provided for by this act, or who, with intent to defraud, presents to the state auditor, or to any other officer of the state, any certificate for the purpose of obtaining funds provided by this act which do not in fact belong to such person, or makes any false representations in connection with obtaining any funds under the terms of this act, shall be guilty of a felony. [L. '20, p. 14, § 10.]

§ 10743-11. Method not Exclusive.

The legislature may provide additional means for raising moneys for the payment of the interest and principal of said bonds and this act shall not be deemed to provide an exclusive method for such payment. [L. '20, p. 14, § 11.]

§ 10743-12. Constitutionality.

If any section, subdivision, sentence or clause of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. [L. '20, p. 14, § 12.]

CHAPTER IV.VETERANS' WELFARE COMMISSION.*§ 10744. Transfer of all Property to American Legion.

The Veterans' Welfare Commission of the state of Washington shall on or before the twenty-eighth day of February, 1921, transfer to the State Adjutant Finance Officer of the American Legion, Department of Washington all moneys and personal property of every kind and description now in its possession or control and shall take receipts therefor and file such receipts with the proper state officer or department: Provided, that the records and files of the Veterans' Welfare Commission, including all promissory notes or other evidences of indebtedness due and owing to the state or said commission, shall be transmitted to the state auditor. [L. '21, p. 99, § 1.]

§ 10745. Use of Money and Property—Preferences.

The moneys and personal property so transferred shall be used by the proper governing body of the American Legion, Department of Washington, for the relief of persons who served in the military, naval or air forces of the United States or its allies in the war with the Central Allied Powers and who shall be in necessitous circumstances through disability, lack of employment or any other cause. In such cases preference shall be given to the relief of veterans who shall be found to be suffering from some disability incurred in line of duty and for whom no provision has been made by the federal government. [L. '21, p. 99, § 2.]

§ 10746. Payment of Loans and Advancements.

All loans or advancements heretofore made by the Veterans' Welfare Commission under the provisions of chapter 9, Laws of 1919, shall be payable to the state auditor from and after the first day of March, 1921, but in such cases the state auditor shall transmit the amount thereof to the State Adjutant Finance Officer of the American Legion, Department of Washington, to be expended for the purposes specified in section 10745. [L. '21, p. 99, § 3.]

"Chapter 9," referred to, repealed. See L. '21, p. 100, § 4.

§ 10747. Record of Expenditures.

The American Legion, Department of Washington, shall keep proper records of all expenditures which shall be audited by the director of efficiency. [L. '21, p. 100, § 6.]

CHAPTER V.

PENSION FOR INDIAN WAR VETERANS.

§ 10749. [8921.] Appropriation for Pensions.

There [shall] be and hereby is appropriated out of the general funds in the treasury of the state of Washington the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), or so much thereof as shall be necessary, to pay the veterans of the Indian wars of 1855 and 1856, who served under and by virtue of the directions of the officers of Washington territory, for their said service, under the conditions and upon the terms hereinafter provided. [L. '09, p. 862, § 1; L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 68, § 1.]

§ 10750. [8922.] Pension Allowances.

Each noncommissioned officer and private who served the territory of Washington in the Indian wars of 1855 and 1856 shall be entitled for such service [to] the sum of two dollars per day for himself, and all commissioned officers shall receive such sum as was paid to officers of the same rank of the army of the United States at said time: Provided, that any amount paid on account thereof by the United States shall be deducted therefrom. [L. '09, p. 862, § 2; L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 68, § 2.]

§ 10751. [8923.] Presentation of Claims—Warrants Issued.

The claim for such services, verified by the claimant, shall be presented to the adjutant-general, who shall, without additional cost to the state, examine and pass upon the same, and may require additional and corroborative evidence in support thereof; and he shall prepare, certify and file with the state auditor proper vouchers showing the amount payable to the claimant under the provisions of this chapter.

Thereupon the state auditor shall issue his warrant for the amount found due to the claimant: Provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the payment of any claim to any heir or beneficiary of the claimant for services during the Indian wars. [L. '09, p. 862, § 3; L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 69, § 3.]

Cited in 57 Wash. 268, 271.

This section granting pay for services performed by the Indian war veterans is a gift in the nature of a pension, limited by its terms to the veteran in propria persona, and in case of his death pending his application, payment cannot be made to his heir or personal representative; since no provision is made therefor: Whitaker v. Clausen, 57 Wash. 268, 106 Pac. 745, 107 Pac. 832.

§ 10752. [8924.] Indian Wars Included.

This chapter, so far as the same relates to the pay of volunteers, shall be construed so as to apply to all who have been in the service of the territory of Washington, now state of Washington, during said Indian wars of 1855 and 1856, and it shall extend to the services of the regiment of the Washington militia while the same was in actual service during said war. [L. '09, p. 862, § 4; L. '09, Ex. Sess., p. 69, § 4.]

CHAPTER VI.

EMPLOYMENT OF, AND LICENSES TO, UNION VETERANS.

§ 10753. [8925.*] Preference in Employment of Guaranteed.

In every public department, and upon all public works of the state of Washington, and of any county thereof, honorably discharged union soldiers and sailors, and their widows, and honorably discharged soldiers and sailors, and their widows, of the Spanish-American war and the Philippine insurrection, and of the war with Germany and her allies, and their widows, shall be preferred for appointment and employment; age, loss of limb, or other physical impairment, which does not in fact incapacitate, shall not be deemed to disqualify them, provided they possess the business capacity necessary to discharge the duties of the position involved. [L. '19, p. 54, § 1; L. '15, p. 356, § 1. Cf. L. '95, p. 166, § 1.]

§ 10754. [8926.] Penalty.

And all officials and other persons having power to appoint to or employment in the public service set forth in the last preceding section, are charged with a faithful compliance with its terms, both in letter and in spirit, and a failure therein shall be a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars. [L. '95, p. 166, § 2.]

§ 10755. [8927.] Right to Peddle Without License.

Every honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine of the military or naval service of the United States, who is a resident of this state and a veteran of the late rebellion, shall have a right to peddle, hawk, vend and sell goods, other than his own manufacture and production, without paying for the license as now provided by law, by those who engage in such business; but any such soldier, sailor or marine may engage in such business by procuring a license for that purpose as provided in section 10756. [L. '03, p. 92, § 1.]

See Const., Art. I, § 12.

§ 10756. [8928.] Issuance of License.

On presentation to the county auditor of the county in which any such soldier, sailor or marine may reside, of a certificate of honorable discharge from the army or naval service of the United States, in the war of the late rebellion, such county auditor shall issue without cost to such soldier, sailor or marine, a license authorizing him to carry on the business of a peddler, as provided in section 10755. [L. '03, p. 92, § 2.]

CHAPTER VII.

BURIAL.

§ 10757. [8929.*] Burial of Indigent Soldiers—Expenses Paid by County.

It shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners in each of the counties in this state to designate some proper authority other than the one designated by law for the care of paupers and the custody of criminals who shall cause to be interred at the expense of the county the body of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine who served in the army or the navy of the United States of America during the late Civil War or in the war with Mexico or in any of the Indian wars that occurred in the state of Washington, or the Spanish-American war and the Philippine insurrection, soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the United States army, navy, or marine corps between April 6, 1917, and the date upon which peace is finally concluded with the German government and its allies, or soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in any other foreign war, insurrection or expedition which service shall be governed by the issuance of a campaign badge by the government of the United States of America, and the wives or widows of such soldiers, sailors or marines, who shall hereafter die without leaving means sufficient to defray funeral expenses; and when requested so to do by the commanding officer of any post of the Grand Army of the Republic, camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars or American Legion, or the relief committee of any such posts or camps: Provided, however, that such interment shall not cost more than one hundred dollars. If the deceased has relatives or friends who desire to conduct the burial of such deceased person, then upon request of said commander or relief committee a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars shall be paid to said relatives or friends, by the county treasurer, upon due proof of the death and burial of any person provided for by this section and proof of expenses incurred. [L. '21, p. 144, § 6; L. '88, p. 209, § 6; 1 H. C., § 1295; L. '99, p. 160, § 1; L. '07, p. 106, § 6; L. '17, p. 195, § 1; L. '19, p. 193, § 6.]

§ 10758. [8930.] Burial of Deceased Volunteers—Duty of Adjutant-general.

It shall be the duty of the adjutant-general of this state to make suitable provision for the interment of the remains of all deceased

SOLDIERS' HOME—STATE BOARD.

Washington volunteers returned to this state by the United States government, and whenever possible, he shall communicate with the relatives or friends of such deceased volunteers, and when practicable be governed by their desires as to the disposition of such remains. In case the adjutant-general should fail to receive directions from relatives or friends of any deceased volunteer it shall be his duty to inter such remains in the state cemetery at Orting, Washington, or such other public cemetery as in his judgment may be deemed advisable. [L. '99, p. 176, § 1.]

CHAPTER I.

ADMINISTRATIVE CODE.

§ 10759. Designation.

This act shall be known and may be cited as the Administrative Code. [L. '21, p. 12, § 1.]

§ 10760. State Departments Created.

There shall be, and are hereby created, departments of the state government which shall be known respectively as, (1) the department of public works, (2) the department of business control, (3) the department of efficiency, (4) the department of taxation and examination, (5) the department of health, (6) the department of conservation and development, (7) the department of labor and industries, (8) the department of agriculture, (9) the department of licenses, and (10) the department of fisheries and game; which departments shall be charged respectively with the execution, enforcement, and administration of such laws, and invested with such powers and required to perform such duties, as the legislature may provide. [L. '21, p. 12, § 2.]

§ 10761. Chief Executive Departmental Officers—Appointment.

There shall be a chief executive officer of each of the departments of the state government created by this act, to be known respectively as, (1) the director of public works, (2) the director of business control, (3) the director of efficiency, (4) the director of taxation and examination, (5) the director of health, (6) the director of conservation and development, (7) the director of labor and industries, (8) the director of agriculture, (9) the director of licenses, and (10) the director of fisheries and game; who shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor: Provided, that, if the senate be not in session when this act takes effect, and in case a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next meeting of the senate, when he shall present to the senate his nomination for the office. [L. '21, p. 12, § 3.] § 10762. Administrative Committees.

There shall be, and are hereby created, administrative committees of the state government, which shall be known respectively as, (1) the state equalization committee, (2) the state finance committee, (3) the state highway committee, (4) the state capitol committee, (5) the state archives committee, (6) the state parks committee, (7) the state voting machine committee, (8) the state law library committee, and (9) the state library committee. [L. '21, p. 13, § 4.]

§ 10763. Equalization Committee.

The governor, the state auditor, and the state treasurer, ex officio, shall constitute the state equalization committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state board of equalization. [L. '21, p. 13, § 5.]

§ 10764. Finance Committee.

The state treasurer, the state auditor, and the governor, ex officio, shall constitute the state finance committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state board of finance. [L. '21, p. 13, § 6.]

§ 10765. Highway Committee.

The governor, the state auditor, and the state treasurer, ex officio, shall constitute the state highway committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state highway board. [L. '21, p. 13, § 7.]

§ 10766. Capitol Committee.

The governor, the state auditor, and the commissioner of public lands, ex officio, shall constitute the state capitol committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state capitol commission. [L. '21, p. 14, § 8.]

§ 10767. Archives Committee.

The secretary of state, the superintendent of public instruction, and the state insurance commissioner, ex officio, shall constitute the state archives committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the public archives commission. [L. '21, p. 14, § 9.]

§ 10768. Parks Committee.

The commissioner of public lands, the secretary of state, and the state treasurer, ex officio, shall constitute the state parks committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state board of park commissioners. [L. '21, p. 14, § 10.]

§ 10769. Voting Machine Committee.

The secretary of state, the superintendent of public instruction, and the state insurance commissioner, ex officio, shall constitute the state voting machine committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state board of voting machine examiners. [L. '21, p. 14, § 11.]

§ 10770. Law Library Committee.

The chief justice of the supreme court, the attorney general, and the secretary of state, ex officio, shall constitute the state law library committee, which shall have the power and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties relating to the state law library now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state library commission. The state law librarian shall be the secretary of the state law library committee. [L. '21, p. 14, § 12.]

§ 10771. Library Committee.

The superintendent of public instruction, the commissioner of public lands, and the state treasurer, ex officio, shall constitute the state library committee, which shall have the power, and it shall be its duty, to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties relating to the state library, except the powers and duties relating to the state law library, now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state library commission, and shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state library advisory board. [L. '21, p. 15, § 13.]

§ 10772. Administrative Board—Rules Governing.

The governor and the directors of the departments of the state government created by this act shall constitute the administrative board. The governor shall be chairman of the board. The board shall have power to adopt general rules and regulations for the transaction of the business of the board, and provide for such committees as may be deemed expedient to facilitate the work of the board, the members of which committees shall be appointed by the chairman. A vote of a majority of the entire membership of the board shall be necessary to exercise any of the administrative powers, or perform any of the administrative duties vested in, or required to be performed by, the board. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum, and a majority of those present at any meeting of the board may determine and advise as to questions of policy in the administration of any of the departments of the state government created by this act, submitted to the board by any member thereof. The board shall meet at the call of the governor. [L. '21, p. 15, § 14.]

§ 10773. Administrative Board—Powers and Duties.

The administrative board shall have the power, and it shall be its duty:

(1) To, from time to time, systematize and unify the administrative duties of the departments of the state government created by this act, and make such necessary assignments of duties to the departments as it may deem advisable to correlate and co-ordinate the work of the departments;

(2) To, from time to time, classify all subordinate officers, and employees of the state offices, departments, and institutions in accordance with the system of classification prepared by the director of efficiency;

(3) To, from time to time, determine the salaries and compensations to be paid such subordinate officers and employees in accordance with the classification and the scale of salaries and compensations adopted by the board;

(4) To fix the amount of the bond to be given by each appointive state officer and each employee of the state in all cases where the same is not fixed by law;

(5) To require the giving of an additional bond, or a bond in a greater amount than that provided by law, in all cases where in its judgment the statutory bond is not sufficient in amount to cover the liability of the officer or employee;

(6) To, by resolution, exempt subordinate employees from giving bond when in its judgment the powers and duties of such employees are such as not to require the giving of a bond to protect the state;

(7) To, in case of an emergency requiring expenditures in excess of the amount appropriated by the legislature for any institution of the state, state officer, or department of the state government, and upon the written request of the governing authorities of the institution, the state officer, or the head of the department, setting forth the emergency and needs of the institution, office, or department, and in case the board by a majority vote of all its members determine that the public interest requires it, issue a permit in writing, signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the board, authorizing such institution, officer, or department to incur such liabilities as the circumstances may require, to an amount stated in the permit, and directing that certified copies of the request and permit, and a detailed statement of the liabilities incurred be filed in the office of the secretary of state and transmitted to the legislature at its next ensuing session, together with a request for an appropriation to cover the liabilities incurred. Such permit and full compliance with its provisions shall relieve the person incurring any such liability from personal liability therefor. [L. '21, p. 15, § 15.]

§ 10774. Official Bonds.

Every appointive state officer and every employee of the state shall, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office or employment, give a surety bond, payable to the state, in such sum as is provided by law or in such sum as shall be deemed necessary by the administrative board created by this act, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of the office or employment, and upon accounting for all property of the state that shall come into his possession by virtue of his office or employment, which bond shall be approved as to form by the attorney general and as to sufficiency by the administrative board, and shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. [L. '21, p. 17, § 16.]

§ 10775. Term of Office.

Each office created by this act is hereby declared established as of the first day of April, 1921, and each officer whose office is created by this act shall, if sooner appointed, hold office beginning on the first day of April, 1921. [L. '21, p. 17, § 17.]

§ 10776. Departmental Directors—Salaries—Governor to Fix.

The directors of the departments of the state government created by this act shall respectively exercise such powers and perform such executive and administrative duties as are provided by this act, and receive such annual salaries payable in equal monthly installments, as the governor shall fix, not to exceed the sums provided by this act: Provided, that should the governor appoint any elective state officer as the director of any department created by this act, such elective officer shall receive as compensation for the extra duties imposed by this act only such sum as the governor shall fix, not to exceed the difference between the maximum salary provided by this act and the salary provided by law for such elective officer. Each officer whose office is created by this act shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for elective state officers, and file the same in the office of the secretary of state. [L. '21, p. 17, § 18.]

§ 10777. Departmental Rules and Regulations.

The director of each department created by this act shall have the power to prescribe rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, for the government of his department, the conduct of its subordinate officers and employees, and the disposition and performance of its business, and the custody, use and preservation of the records, papers, books, documents, and property pertaining thereto. [L. '21, p. 18, § 19.]

§ 10778. Departmental Offices—Branches.

Each department created by this act shall maintain its principal office at the state capital in rooms provided by the department of business control. The director of each department may, with the approval of the governor, establish and maintain branch offices at other places than the state capital for the conduct of one or more of the functions of his department. [L. '21, p. 18, § 20.]

§ 10779. Department of Public Works—Divisions—Salary of Director.

The department of public works shall be organized into and consist of three divisions, to be known respectively, as, (1) the division of transportation, (2) the division of public utilities, and (3) the division of highways. The director of public works, shall have charge and general supervision of the department of public works, shall receive a salary of not to exceed six thousand dollars per annum, shall appoint a traffic and rate expert for the department, and shall have power to appoint and employ such clerical and other assistants as may be necessary for the general administration of the department. [L. '21, p. 18, § 21.]

§ 10780. Supervisor of Transportation.

The director of public works shall appoint and deputize an assistant director, to be known as the supervisor of transportation, who shall have charge and supervision of the division of transportation, and, with the approval of the director, shall have power to appoint and employ such inspectors, engineers, experts, and clerical and other assistants as may be necessary to carry on the work of the division. [L. '21, p. 19, § 22.]

§ 10781. Supervisor of Public Utilities.

The director of public works shall appoint and deputize an assistant director, to be known as the supervisor of public utilities, who shall have charge and supervision of the division of public utilities, and, with the approval of the director, shall have power to appoint and employ such inspectors, engineers, experts, and clerical and other assistants as may be necessary to carry on the work of the division. [L. '21, p. 19, § 23.]

§ 10782. Supervisor of Highways.

The director of public works shall appoint and deputize an assistant director, to be known as the supervisor of highways, who shall have charge of the division of highways, and, with the approval of the director, shall have power to appoint and deputize a chief clerk of the division, and appoint and employ such inspectors, engineers, and clerical and other assistants as may be necessary to carry on the work of the division. No person shall be eligible for appointment as supervisor of highways, or to hold such office, unless he is an experienced constructing highway engineer. [L. '21, p. 19, § 24.]

§ 10783. Division of Transportation—Powers and Duties.

The director of public works shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, through and by means of the division of transportation:

(1) To exercise all the powers and perform all the duties relating to common carriers of freight or passengers, and the transportation of property or persons, now vested in, and required to be performed by, the public service commission. [L. '21, p. 19, § 25.]

§ 10784. Division of Public Utilities—Powers and Duties.

The director of public works shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, through and by means of the division of public utilities:

(1) To exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the public service commission, except the powers and duties relating to common carriers of freight and passengers and the transportation of property and persons, those relating to the inspection, grading, and certification of grain, hay, peas, grain and hay products, rice, beans, and other similar articles, nitrates and other fertilizers and sulphur and other chemicals, those relating to the inspection of tracks, bridges, structures, machinery, equipment, and apparatus of railroad, street railways, gas plants, electrical plants, water systems, telephone lines, telegraph lines, and other public utilities with respect to the safety of employees, those relating to the administration and enforcement of laws providing for the protection of employees of railroads, street railways, gas plants, electrical plants, water systems, telephone lines, telegraph lines, and other public utilities, and those relating to the enforcement, amendment, alteration, change, and making additions to rules and regulations concerning the operation, placing, erection, maintenance, and use of electrical apparatus, and the construction thereof;

(2) To exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be provided by law. [L. '21, p. 20, § 26.]

§ 10785. Joint Hearings.

The director of public works, the supervisor of transportation, and the supervisor of public utilities shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, to jointly hear and decide, by a majority vote, all matters, arising either in the division of transportation or the division of public utilities, which the director of public works, or the supervisor of transportation or the supervisor of public utilities, respectively, shall deem to be of sufficient importance to require their joint action, and to hear and decide, by a majority vote, any matter concerning which any person affected by the decision of either the director of public works, or the supervisor of transportation or the supervisor of public utilities shall by request in writing, ask for a joint decision: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as depriving any person feeling himself aggrieved by any decision of either the director of public works, the supervisor of transportation, the supervisor of public utilities, or by any joint decision, of the right of appeal therefrom to a court of competent jurisdiction in the manner provided by law. [L. '21, p. 20, § 27.]

§ 10786. Division of Highways—Powers and Duties.

The director of public works shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, through and by means of the division of highways:

(1) To exercise all the powers and perform all the duties now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state highway commission;

[L. '21, p. 27, § 41.]

§ 10800. Disposal of Useless Personalty.

The director of business control shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, when authorized in writing so to do by the department of efficiency, to sell or exchange any personal property belonging to the state for which the office, department, or institutions having custody thereof has no further use, at public or private sale and with or without notice, in the discretion of the director of business control, and to immediately report such sale or exchange to the department of efficiency, on forms to be furnished for that purpose, and to cause the moneys realized from the sale of any such personal property to be paid into the state treasury, accompanied by a statement showing the respective fund from which the property sold was purchased, to which fund the state treasurer shall credit such moneys: Provided, if such fund be not in existence at the time of the sale, the moneys shall be credited to the general fund. [L. '21, p. 27, § 42.]

§ 10801. Accounting Systems.

The director of business control shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to install and maintain in the department a proper cost accounting system of accounts for each of the institutions under the control of the department, for the purpose of detecting and avoiding unprofitable expenditures and operations. [L. '21, p. 28, § 43.]

§ 10802. Division of Public Buildings and Grounds—Powers and Duties.

The director of business control shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, through and by means of the division of public buildings and grounds:

(1) To prepare topographical and architectural plans for the state institutions under the control of the department, and for the state capitol buildings, where not already prepared;

(2) To establish a systematic building program providing for the grouping of buildings at the institutions under the control of the department, and the state capital;

(3) To prepare plans, specifications and estimates of cost for all necessary repairs or betterments of buildings owned by the state, except those of the state's educational institutions, to accompany the estimates for the biennial budget;

(4) To supervise the erection, repair, and betterment of all such state buildings. [L. '21, p. 28, § 44.]

§ 10803. Parole Boards—Powers and Duties.

The governor shall, from time to time, appoint parole boards, of three members, who shall, respectively, exercise all the powers and perform all the duties relating to the parole of prisoners from the state penitentiary and the Washington state reformatory, now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state board of control and the board of managers of the reformatory, respectively, and shall, from time to time, appoint a parole board, of three women, who shall exercise all the powers and perform all the duties relating to the parole and discharge of inmates from the women's industrial home and clinic, now vested in and required to be performed by, the board of directors of that institution. The members of all such parole boards shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor and shall each receive ten dollars per diem for time actually and necessarily spent in the discharge of their duties, and their actual and necessary traveling expenses, to be paid out of the moneys appropriated for supplies, material, and service, for the several institutions. [L. '21, p. 29, § 45.]

§ 10804. Director of Efficiency.

The director of efficiency shall have charge and general supervision of the department of efficiency, and shall have power to appoint and deputize a chief examiner and such other examiners as may be necessary, and to appoint a budget clerk and such other clerical assistants as may be necessary to carry on the work of the department, and shall receive a salary of not to exceed six thousand dollars per annum. [L. '21, p. 29, § 46.]

§ 10805. Powers and Duties of Director of Efficiency.

The director of efficiency shall have the power, and it shall be his duty:

(1) To exercise all the powers and perform all the duties relating to the inspection, examination, and supervision of all public offices of the state, and all state, educational, penal, benevolent, and reformatory institutions, and all offices, departments, and agencies of the state government, now vested in, and required to be performed by, the state auditor, the bureau of inspection and supervision of public offices, and the inspector, deputy inspectors, and the examiners thereof;

(2) To make efficiency surveys of all state departments and institutions, and the administrative and business methods pursued therein, examine into the physical needs and industrial activities thereof, and to make confidential reports to the governor, recommending necessary betterments, repairs, and the installation of improved and more economical administrative methods, and advising such action as will result in a greater measure of self-support and remedies for inefficient functioning;

(3) To compute cost findings of the several farming and industrial operations at the state institutions, and make confidential reports to the governor of profit and loss;

(4) To make property surveys in all state offices and departments and at all state institutions, install and require the maintenance of systems of property accounting, and make confidential reports to the governor;

(5) To, upon the request of the officer or department, or the governing authorities of any state institution, having the custody of any personal property belonging to the state, authorize the sale or exchange of the same, when it shall appear that the office, department, or institution has no further use for such property;

(6) To compile the daily expenditures of the several offices, departments, and institutions of the state, and from such compilation and the estimates for the biennial appropriation furnished by the several offices, institutions, and departments prepare the biennial statement provided by law as the basis for the state budget;

(7) To prepare and recommend to the administrative board a system of classification, salaries, and compensations for all subordinate officers and employees of the state offices, departments, and institutions other than educational institutions, including, (a) a basic rate of fixed work value, (b) titles of recognized work requirements by sub-classes and grades of employment, (c) standards of educational or experience qualifications for each class or sub-grade of employment, (d) classified minimum requirements to be met by persons before being eligible for appointment or employment, (e) classified standards to govern promotions and transfers, (f) classified standards of service provisions requiring efficiency of service, (g) classified standards of increasing compensations based on length and quality of service, (h) regular scale of salaries and compensations, and (i) progressive scales of salaries and compensations for efficiency of service, and a tentative schedule for all existing subordinate officers and employees based upon such system, and to, from time to time, recommend such changes in the system of classification and the schedule adopted by the board as he shall deem for the best interest of the state;

(8) To exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be provided by law. [L. '21, p. 30, § 47.]

§ 10806. Expenses of Inspection and Examination.

The expense of inspecting and examining public offices of the state, state institutions, and departments of the state government, making efficiency surveys of state departments and institutions, and making property surveys in state offices and departments and at state institutions, including the salaries and traveling expenses of examiners, shall be paid out of the moneys appropriated for service for the several offices, institutions, and departments. [L. '21, p. 31, § 48.]
